EXECUTIVES WILL LOWER FREIGHT TO MEET WAGE CUTS

SUCH A PLAN IS PROPOSED IN HANDLING MATTER IN FUTURE.

ALSO WANT I. C. C. TO ADJUST WAGE QUESTION

Employees Ask Opportunity to Present Claims to Conference of Executives.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—Immediate reduction of freight rates on agricultural products or a trial period of from sixty to ninety days, pending further wage reductions, was one of the proposals presented to high railroad officials at the conference of the Association of Railway Executives today.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, today requested a conference with the railroad executives, in session here, on behalf of the six big railroad unions, which have voted to strike. Officers of 16 railroad unions went into session shortly before noon at one hotel, while more than 100 railroad presidents were meeting at another.

The railroad presidents notified Mr. Stone by telephone that his letter would be considered at their meeting.

When the road executives met at 11 o'clock it was understood they would vote to ask the United States railroad labor board for further wage reductions, promising to pass all future cuts along to the public in lower freight and passenger rates.

The railroad crisis was rendered more acute this morning when the labor board handed down a decision paving the way for the restoration of piece work. The railroad presidents were jubilant, while union leaders feared the effect on their men, some of whom had already voted to accept further wage reductions or rules which they oppose.

The executives, however, when they met to discuss the railroad officers of the country, expected to conclude their discussion in one day, in taking swift action on the wage and rate reductions. The initiative in asking reductions would be taken by the individual roads, according to those attending the meeting, rather than by the association.

Varying conditions in different parts of the country would necessitate different rates of wage reductions, they said, although groups of roads in similar regions might act together. Application for wage reductions will be made to the United States railroad labor board for freight and passenger rate reductions to the interstate commerce commission.

None of the brotherhood chiefs would give a definite report that October 20 had been tentatively decided on to begin calling out employees on so-called "wildcat" strikes. The men were, temporarily halted in the brotherhood discussions pending the reply of the executives to the brotherhood request for a conference.

Meanwhile the remaining groups, including maintenance of way, signmen, clerks, firemen and conductors, are discussing the situation. None of them would intimate what their action might be.

With the removal of the piece work ban by the labor board, the shippers were brought one step nearer a strike. The union members of the railroads affiliated with the railway employees department of the American federation of labor voted to accept a 10 percent labor vote to wage reduction. The call was held up pending announcement by the board of its rules decision.

ONE MAN KILLED FIVE ARE INJURED IN AN EXPLOSION

OCCURS AT REFINERY SOUTH OF BURKBURNETT THURSDAY NIGHT.

OFFICERS INVESTIGATING A RECENT WARNING

Notice Signed "Knights of the Invisible Empire" Were Posted At Plant.

County authorities this morning began an investigation to learn whether a warning received about a month ago by an employee of the Tidal Western Oil corporation at Burkburnett had any connection with the explosion in the company's plant at that place Thursday night, in which one man received fatal injuries, another was perhaps fatally injured, a third seriously injured, and three others sustained less serious injuries.

Two men were arrested at the time the warnings were received and are being held over to the grand jury under $1,000 bond each on charges of whipping. The notices were signed "Knights of the Invisible Empire," and warned the man who received them to quit the employ of the company and to leave Burkburnett.

Reports received here do not indicate that the explosion resulted from any conspiracy or manipulation of the company's machinery. The explosion took place at the refinery just south of Burkburnett at about 8:30 o'clock. An attempt was being made to start the 40 horsepower gas engine at the plant. It is started with compressed air. The work was directed and the explosion resulted. Two sides of the frame engine room were blown out with a detonation that broke window glass in the vicinity.

A. W. De Rona, aged 28 and married, received injuries from which he died two hours later at the Burkburnett hospital.

Ed Walton, aged about 30 and married, sustained a fractured skull and was seriously injured by the explosion. He is in the Burkburnett hospital with little hope for his recovery.

C. J. Barton, superintendent of the refinery, was injured by a piece of steel rod which tore a hole through his side. He is in the Burkburnett hospital. It is believed he can recover.

D. R. Farris sustained a broken arm and severe cuts on the body, but his injuries are not serious. The work of rescuing the injured from the debris was hindered by the fumes of gas, which fortunately did not catch fire. The electric work at the plant was blown out and the walls on two sides of the engine room were blown out, but otherwise the damage was not as great as was first feared. It will probably not exceed $100.

Almost Starves While Lost for Lack of Match

ATIKOKAN, ONTARIO, Oct. 14.—Dr. Graham Chambers, Toronto physician rescued after being lost for two weeks in the woods, almost starved to death for lack of a match.

Dr. Chambers arrived here last night on a litter strapped to the bow of a motor boat, weakened from cold and hunger. He said he had seen plenty of partridges and that he had not lacked ammunition, but refrained from shooting any birds because he was convinced he could not eat them raw.

When found by two Indians, Dr. Chambers finally had shot a partridge and was sitting under a tree trying—but vainly—to force himself to eat the raw flesh.

His feet were badly blistered from tramping through the brush, though he said he had not done much tramping after the first day when he realized he was lost and was in danger of going further into the woods. He said one of the men engaged in the search for him had flown over the spot where he was standing, but it was unable to attract the flier's attention.

ANOTHER CHAPTER TO CORRESPONDENCE ON DISARMAMENT

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Another chapter of the correspondence between President Harding and Miss Ella L. Freed concerning the coming conference on limitation of armament was made public today by "Miss Freed," who added that the president misread her name, which really is Mrs. Ella L. Freed.

The president made public on Wednesday a letter in response to one from her in which he gave his first extended public outline of what he hoped to see achieved at the conference.

Mrs. Freed said she had written a reply urging him to propose a reduction by one-half of present armaments. The letter read:

"I asked you what you meant by 'reasonable limitation.' You say you mean 'something practicable.' That is exactly the same thing you said in other words. Synonyms are not definitions.

"Permit me to ask you whether you consider a reduction of the world's military burdens by one-half reasonable or practicable? If every one of the nations at the conference agrees to reduce its armaments one-half, their relative strength would remain as great as before. That is clear, I hope.

"Then why not suggest one-half reduction? When that has been done, the women of the world will furnish you further suggestions as to what is reasonable and practicable."

Mrs. Freed, aged 23, lives in Pittsburgh. She has been serving as a speaker for the citizens disarmament committee.

PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT CALLED WISE WORDS OF PRACTICAL STATESMAN

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The London Times, in an editorial this morning, designates as the "wise words of a practical statesman," President Harding's statement that what he wants through the Washington conference is "something practicable that there is a chance to accomplish," repeating also his assertion that the desirability of universal disarmament at this time might well be questioned.

"We commend them," adds the Times, "to the mediation of all who fancy that this imperfect world cannot be effectively policed unless the policeman continues to carry the big stick."

The newspaper declares that it is encouraging that America "does not aim at Utopian ideals such as appear to be suggested in the curious, inconsequential manifesto from the British Navy League," which it publishes in another column. This manifesto was submitted to the Times by officials of the navy league as a memorandum adopted by the organization's executive committee. The memorandum, discussing the Washington conference, says:

"The principal problem, the limitation of naval armaments, treated purely as a material one, does not appear possible of satisfactory solution on those lines for we are forced to the conclusion that it is not a material problem at all, but a moral one."

It then proceeds to emphasize that science may so alter the ship of today as to change completely the relative international positions according to the ingenuity of the various nations' inventors, "though the nations kept strictly to the letter of the agreement." It asserts that it is also impossible to assign a mathematical factor of strength to any ship.

It is the exercise of power that most of the difficulty lies, adds the memorandum, which advocates that the sea be regarded as "a field for almost unlimited service, rather than with a view to the possibility of exercising the greatest power in the world."

BRITISH AND IRISH MEET AND ADJOURN TO NEXT MONDAY

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The conference of Sinn Fein leaders and members of the British cabinet convened at 11 o'clock this morning in Prime Minister Lloyd George's official residence in Downing street with the view of reaching an agreement as to a basis for settlement of the Irish question, adjourned at 1:30 p. m. Monday.

CHARGE IRISH PRISONERS SUBJECTED TO BRUTALITY

DUBLIN, Oct. 14.—Commenting on the condition of the internment camps in Ireland, the Irish Bulletin alleges that the prisoners are subjected to gross brutality and that the British authorities in Ireland refuse to put a stop to the suffering of the prisoners and submit to an impartial investigation of the conditions in the camps.

"These facts," the Bulletin adds, "are becoming known despite the rigorous censorship in the camps and are creating throughout Ireland feelings of disgust and resentment. This atmosphere certainly is not conducive of amity between the British and Irish peoples."

FIND GIRL IN WOODS MISSING THREE DAYS

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Mystery still surrounds the case of Miss Pamela Beckett, a young society woman of this city, who was discovered yesterday almost helpless in Cuffley Woods after she had been missing for three days. It seems that she wandered for nearly twenty miles before being found and that she was trying to reach a house in Barnett, where until about a year ago her family lived. She was within four miles of Barnett when discovered. A motorcyclist named Hughes had dismounted from his machine and was walking through Cuffley Woods in search of berries when he saw the girl lying on the ground shivering.

He had not seen late newspapers and was unaware of the girl's identity, but it being evident she was very ill, he offered assistance. She replied she was "all right" and said she wished only to be left alone. A local resident happened along and together they succeeded in persuading her to take a seat in Hughes' side car.

When questioned further, the girl said she had eaten nothing since she had left home Monday afternoon and had been walking about ever since she had vanished.

various refineries in New Jersey would be removed Oct. 15, but that it would endeavor to create as much additional work as possible to increase the hours of employment for men now working part time or laid off entirely.

WILL DISCUSS WAGES AND HOUR AGREEMENT

GOVERNOR FRAZIER UNDER FIRE INDEPENDENTS USING WEAPON PROVIDED IN RECALL MEASURE

By NEA Service.

BISMARCK, N. D., Oct. 12.—Within two weeks the 225,000 voters of North Dakota will decide whether to recall the governor and chief members of his administration.
This is the first time a state has employed the recall against a governor.

The election results from the filing of more than 74,000 petitions it will be held Friday, October 28.
Curiously, the recall is being employed by the forces which fought its adoption, and is being used against the forces which put the recall, initiative and referendum amendments into the constitution.
It is a continuation of the warfare between the Nonpartisan League farmer-labor organization and its opponents.

Officials Attacked.
The forces behind the recall election want Governor Lynn J. Frazier, now serving his third two-year term; Attorney General William Lemke and Commissioner of Agriculture and Labor John N. Hagan turned out of office.

These are the "big three" of the state administration, for they compose the independent commission charged with the management of the state-owned, state-operated industries which the Nonpartisan League champions.

The independent candidates are
R. A. Nestos, for governor; Sveinbjorn
Johnson, for attorney general, and Joseph A. Kitchen, for commissioner of agriculture and labor.

With the recall the forces opposed to the administration also seek to initiate constitutional amendments and laws to put into effect the platform of the so-called independent organization.

The independents embrace both Republicans and Democrats who are opposed to the Nonpartisan League, which has captured the machinery of the republican party and whose officials were nominated in a general-republican primary and elected on a republican ticket.

Townley's Program.
The meteoric political career of Arthur C. Townley, who drew together the farmers and industrial workers of North Dakota into the Nonpartisan League and swept his candidates into office with overwhelming majorities in 1916, excited interest over the entire country.

Again in 1918 the league was successful and last November Governor Frazier was elected for the third time.

The Townley program called for state-owned, state-operated flour mills and elevator for packing plants, for a new state hall, insurance law, state insurance on public buildings and state bonding department to bond all public officials, an association to build homes costing $2,000 or less, and a state bank.

The program as conceived by Townley was essentially a marketing program; it was elaborated upon later. He proposed to market
North Dakota wheat in North Dakota terminal elevators, make flour in North Dakota and remove North Dakota wheat from the great grain market and mills in Minneapolis.

Called Socialism.
From the start the program has been fought bitterly as state socialism.

To inaugurate its program the League amended the constitution, by

The three independent candidates for North Dakota office and the petitioners demanding the recall of the present Nonpartisan League state officials. Left to right: Sveinbjorn Johnson, candidate for attorney general; R. A. Nestos, for governor, and Joseph A. Kitchen, for commissioner of agriculture and labor.

popular vote. It provided for a bond issue maximum of $17,000,000.
The administration established the Bank of North Dakota and put all public funds in it. It purchased a small flour mill and began the erection of a $2,000,000 mill and terminal elevator. It established a home building association, enacted many laws favoring labor and a grain grading act designed to cure unfair practices.

The program has not attained its fulness. Bond sales were blocked by court action. The $2,000,000 mill is incomplete. The Home Builders association is dormant. The flour mill lost $17,000 in its first year.
Due to lack of reserve fund, half insurance payments have been held up as long as 18 months.

The Bank of North Dakota was short of a large part of its public funds by enactment of an initiative law permitting the withdrawal of county, city, township and school funds. This happened after it had made large advances to the mill and elevator association, put $2,000,000 in farm loans and made advances to the Home Builders association. The bank was attacked for "freezing" tax money in permanent investments.

The fight culminated in investigations conducted by the legislature, one controlled by independents and the other controlled by Nonpartisans.

Independents' Charge.
The independents charge that a group of Nonpartisan League leaders have used the league to build a great political machine, diverted public funds from the Bank of North Dakota into league-controlled banks to be loaned to league corporations controlled by leaders of the league; have wasted great sums of money in enlarged payrolls and benefits for political favorites;

have driven money from the state by constant attacks on financial interests.

The league answers that the industrial program has not had a trial; has been blocked and fought at every turn by financial interests, is essentially sound and deserves a fair trial at the hands of the voters; denies its officials have been corrupt or inefficient; points to accomplishments in grain grading laws; and claims the Bank of North Dakota by competing with private bankers has lowered interest rates and itself has made large profits.

Fought over time and again at primary elections, regular elections and special elections on laws, the same issues are again before the voters in the recall election. It was necessary that 30 per cent sign petitions to obtain a recall. About 3 per cent signed.

In addition to turning out the "big three" of the administration, the independents seek to enact by popular vote a constitutional amendment limiting the indebtedness for industrial purposes to $7,500,000 instead of $17,000,000.

They propose to wind up the Home Builders association, which they allege has proved extravagant and useless to the poor man who desires a home; to provide for $2,500,000 of bonds to finish the terminal mill and elevator; to liquidate the Bank of North Dakota; and to provide a rural credits department patterned after the South Dakota law.
With the election at hand the Bank of North Dakota has announced the sale of about $500,000 of bonds, which it says relieves the condition in which the bank found itself and provides money to permit it to resume farm loans and insures that the mill and elevator work can continue.

In the last election the majority of Governor Frazier was about 4,000 votes. The close division and the bitterness in state politics insure a fight to the finish at the polls, with opinion as to the winner usually dictated by prejudice.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1921

O. Hower of Crowley, Wyo., had his father-in-law ship him a carload of prunes from Idaho. The prunes cost Hower $200. The freight cost him $769. This puzzles and annoys Mr. Hower. He writes to Senator Capper that he is going to import his next shipment of prunes from Turkey, as he finds "it is cheaper to ship prunes around the world than halfway across the United States by rail."

The only consolation that Mr. Hower has, is that he—like misery—has lots of company.

G. W. Hill, Missouri farmer, writes Senator Capper that he shipped beef hide to a neighboring town, where a commission company paid him 3 cents a pound, or a total of 36 cents.

The freight charge was 33 cents. War tax, 2 cents. Hill had to pay them both. It left him a net profit of 1 cent for his time and labor in skinning the steer, not to count the portion of the expense of raising the steer that should be charged up to selling price of the hide.

"While I was engaged in this work," writes Hill, "I wore a pair of common work shoes, which cost me $3, damaging the shoes considerably."

A. L. Camp and family live in Boulder, Colo. A relative died at Leadville, 300 miles away. The railroad wanted passenger fare of $138.70 to take the four Camp adults and a 12-year-old boy by rail.

"We started in a Ford car," Camp writes Senator Capper. "The trip took me one and one-half days each way, and carefully computing our expense for tires, oil, gasoline, hotel and lunch, the entire trip of 600 miles cost $33.70, or less than a quarter what the railroad fare would have cost—a saving for the adult members of the party of approximately $25 apiece, which was very fair average wages for the time consumed by the trip."

There can be no real business boom until the farmers' buying power is restored. All authorities agree on that.

And the farmers' buying power cannot be restored until what they receive for their products is on a fair level with the prices they are asked to pay for manufactured goods.

Manufacturing wages have been slashed. Manufacturing profit margins have been reduced—in some cases below the vanishing point.

Freight rates alone remain high.

With lower rates, the railroads would do a bigger volume of business. But their net profits probably would be greater than under high rates. Big volume and low margin built the Woolworth business. They are the solution of the railroad problem.

Which, at the present stage, is the real name of business depression.

IDEALISM OR HORSE TRADING.

If the coming disarmament and Pacific problems conference is influenced by public opinion so far as it has been expressed it will develop into an interesting horse traders' convention and nothing more. Whether warranted or not the popular belief is that each of the nations represented will go into the conference and get all they can and give as little as they must. That view prevails in this country and is more and more prevailing in Europe if the reports of observers published in America properly sense the attitude there.

The reaction from our idealism during the war and which Woodrow Wilson attempted to embody in the peace treaty which the United States senate rejected is doubtless largely responsible for our materialistic view now. But President Harding has recently written a letter in which he shows that the United States has not abandoned its idealism. Discussing this view the Dallas Journal says:

"If there has been any doubt that idealism would be crowded out of the disarmament conference the letter from President Harding to the Brooklyn woman will rather thoroughly dispel it. Since the president's latest word on the subject has been made public, it may be assumed that it was addressed to the American people and the world at large. To all and sundry, therefore, he asserts that any hope of accomplishing universal disarmament is without warrant, and that if the conferees succeed in bringing about even a reasonable limitation of armament great accomplishment will be secured."

"In view of the spirit with which the conference is about to be entered, most Americans will think as the president does. Idealism didn't fail at Chateau-Thierry or in the Argonne. Idealism didn't fail at Versailles. A republican senate failed idealism. Since that is so, it is perhaps best that idealism should be squeezed out of the conference and that bone-hard practicalism be substituted. At this distance from the negotiations a game of give-and-take strategy is promised at Washington, a game in which pounds and francs and dollars and yen will figure as the controlling pieces.

"In the use of these practical pieces, human nature and politics being what they are, the one hope of gradual disarmament and of ultimate world peace may lie. It may be that war, in the end, will play itself. Pounds, and francs, and dollars, and yen are, after all, the major implements of war. When these become well-nigh worthless, as they will if wars continue, the war spirit will die of malnutrition. If these observations are pessimistic blame the powers that be.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

LOST THINGS
Not very many of us appreciate in proper proportion the many things which make up our happiness.

Nor do we realize the importance of the contributing elements to our success in life until they begin to leave us and motion, as they go, that we are being left poorer and weaker.

We are inclined to pay little attention to our health so long as we have no discomfort and no pain. Nature is very patient. Our bodies were made to bear great abuse. And Opportunity is a most patient fellow, camping on our doorstep for years before he gets discouraged enough to leave us. But when that is lost which ought rightfully to be ours for a long time, we open our eyes and call in vain.

Lost things leave but an echo and a memory! Be kind to your body. Have an inward reverence for all its marvelous powers. And how it will repay you—how strong will you face every great call made upon you.

I believe in expression of appreciation to people while they are able to be made happy by it. Give your flowers while you may see the smiles reflected from them.

A gentleman told me today of a man whose wife had gone from him and he was so grieved that he went to a florist and wanted the most expensive flowers placed about the silent grave where she rested. But he knew so little about flowers that he didn't know what kind to order—for, said he: "I never gave her any flowers while she lived and I have no idea what she liked."

Find out what will make the world happier and better by giving it something!

If you do not use the talents that are given you, they will wither and die. Or more alert ones than you will see them idle in your lap and will take them from you.

Of all lost things, Time is probably the most to be regretted—unless you have squeezed every last ounce of value from its golden minutes.

And lost opportunities—they never come back in the same form or with the same appeal.

Be kind and generous and helpful today. Do the best you know today. Wait upon no man or event. Give while you have something to give. Save that you may have to give.

But do not spend any time in regretting the lost things. Make up for their loss by planting new. Copyright, 1921, by George Matthew Adams.

Soup in Russia is better than Russia in the soup.

YOU AND I

Feel for Pittsburgh, Where 600 to 2,000 Tons of Soot Fall to Square Mile Yearly

The Mellon Institute investigates and finds that 600 to 2,000 tons of soot fall to the square mile in Pittsburgh yearly. And Pittsburgh claims it is not the smokiest town.

Scientists say the smoke nuisance costs Chicago $50,000,000 a year. All cities have similar losses.

The nuisance of smoke isn't limited to washing curtains and keeping the clothes clean. A tin roof, for instance, lasts 15 to 25 years in a smoky city, 18 to 23 years in a smokeless city.

The electric age, when coal will be burned at mines and the country put on an electrical basis, is close at hand. A few more decades and the only smoke in cities will be from tobacco. Maybe the blue laws will stop even that.

JOKE
A great joker was Hugh Brennan, 22 years old, of Lynn, Mass. His favorite prank on fellow-motormen, when he was out for a spin, was to run into the street and fall down in front of a street car. That upset the nerves of the electric driver and Hugh got many a laugh.

The other joker, he tried his trick before a car driven by Motor-man 'Pat' Connelly. The brakes didn't work. Brennan has a fractured skull. Every practical joker eventually causes a serious accident. Unfortunately, it is not always to himself.

USEFUL
A man flies higher into the air than ever before, or does a new trick acrobatic act with an airplane. But that doesn't materially hasten the day when you and I can fly in safety.

Aviation will progress faster when it is regarded as a business proposition, not a stunt. The Aero Club of America knows this. It offers a cup to the designer of a plane that can carry "the most load the greatest distance in the shortest time for the least money."

That's a step toward cheap freight and passenger traffic by air route. Approved!

MILL
At Pawtucket, R. I., the old Slater mill is being fitted up as a textile museum. It was built in 1790, as a clothing factory, and still is in excellent condition.

In those old days, before iron was used for shafts, the mill was put together with wooden pegs, they built better than we do now. At least, you often hear old-timers say so. Maybe they're right. The average. But hearing earthquakes, the Woolworth building will be standing hundreds of years hence.

We may not be able to hit the roof, but we can hit the ground. We do 100 times as much.

CAGED
At Ayresville, Ind., a mine generator blows up. A flywheel weighing four tons is scattered as if hit by a giant Babe Ruth. One piece, 1,800 pounds, hits the roof of a two-story residence a mile and a quarter away and goes through to the cellar.

It takes torpedoes like this to remind us of the enormous forces that have been caged by civilized man. Yet these forces are puny alongside those that are being harnessed. Enough power is stored in a square inch of atoms to destroy the earth. Man seeks a means of releasing this atomic force. Maybe it's better that he fails. Too much of a temptation for militarists.

LOAD
Three excellent slogans, suggested by American Federation of Labor for banners in disarmament parade, Nov. 11: "No more wars. No more armaments. No more money for armaments."

In 49 years Germany will pay $20 billion for indemnity. At the present rate, in 49 years the United States will pay $20 billion for armaments. The winners lose.

"War is hell. Armed peace is the gateway to hell. The world is now spending each year for war preparations eight billions. At 5 percent, this represents income from the world."

The time has come when the people of Texas should lay the foundations for an expansion which is bound to come.

Texas is no longer a state of ranches and rangers of helter-skelter cotton patches, of ponies and lariats. Texas is evolving into a very different kind of community, and for very obvious reasons.

The change will be far more marked in the next few years, and Texas needs to prepare for it. Texas needs a new constitution.

Texas needs to fund and endow her great educational institutions.

Texas needs a real, honest-to-God reclamation program.

Texas needs reconstruction in her penal and prison systems.

The liberty of the people in Texas have come to realize her possibilities and opportunities.

Only a small minority have come to appreciate the obligations and responsibilities that go along with them.

Life, growth and development involves more of duty than of privilege.

The time has come for the people of Texas to understand that the better this state becomes, the more will be expected of it.

The time has come for them to consider what ought to be done with the rapidly increasing revenues of the state, rather than how much those revenues ought to be curtailed.

The time has come for them to visualize the state as an institution not exclusively dedicated to the running down of bootleggers or the employment of so many clerks.

The government of any state necessarily plays an important part in the life, growth and development of that state, not so much through what it accomplishes directly as through what it encourages indirectly.

COMMON SENSE WAYS TO KEEP WELL

RHEUMATISM

By DR. R. H. BISHOP
There is no medicinal cure for rheumatism, but certain remedies and measures wisely applied and carefully followed will provide relief to those induced by faulty posture.

Often people who have what they call touches of rheumatism do not have the disease at all. It may be merely strain induced by faulty habits of posture in standing, walking or sitting, or from weak feet. In such cases, adoption of a correct posture, living a hygienic life will usually cure this so-called rheumatism.

But the true rheumatism is a pus infection. It is evident from increased temperature and swollen joints. The muscular pains which it produces in its victims are very similar to those induced by muscular strain, but it requires vastly different treatment.

The trouble in rheumatism often arises from bacteria which lodge in small blood vessels in the joint with the result that nutrition is impaired. The bacterial poison actually attacks the tissues, heat centers and central nervous system, thus causing fever.

It usually comes from an infection in the head, tonsils, tooth socket or elsewhere. Some cases, however, may be due to the absorption of bacteria from the intestines. The disease is greatly favored by cold and damp weather or such influences as lower the resistance of the body to the infection.

The best cure for rheumatism is to get the germs out of the body. Find the seat of the infection, whether it lies in the tonsils, teeth or middle ear or other center, at the same time keeping the body in the highest possible resistant condition.

An observance of simple hygiene and avoidance of cool or damp places and sudden changes of temperature will serve to keep the body resistant. The bowels must be kept open and purgatives, but through proper diet.

160 billions. The greatest drag on industry. The cost of the World War, to the United States alone, would buy a flivver for every man, woman and child in the United States.

"MRS. LADY"
A woman who said, "Call me plain Mrs. Lady," drove up to a schoolhouse in New York and distributed the time in that applies to 2,000 children. This unusual performance halted traffic for 10 minutes, the traffic cops gleefully assisting.

Remember, the art of letting food rot because selling prices don't pay for the trouble of marketing would get much happiness if they could get food into poor districts of cities and distribute it to the jobless. The satisfaction of being a "Mrs. Lady" beats wheat at $1.50 a bushel.

DO YOU KNOW
WHO was the Austrian archduke whose death precipitated the world war?

WHY is "marmalade" so called? WHAT are the four divisions of the time in that applies to 2,000 children? WHEN is the leather wedding anniversary? WHERE is the recently established school for secret service agents?

What is particularly want are manuscripts in which Mr. Roosevelt's own handwriting or bearing his corrections; original letters by or about Mr. Roosevelt; books, pamphlets and magazine articles, newspaper clippings or cartoons relating to Mr. Roosevelt; the originals of these cartoons, wherever possible; books and pamphlets by Mr. Roosevelt, especially first and limited editions; literature relating to his political campaigns, also posters, buttons, campaign handkerchiefs, etc., photographs of the colonel, especially snapshots and negatives, paintings, etchings and commemorative medals; and especially personal mementoes—the kind of thing one person always likes to remember another by.

This material is being brought together on a great collection which will remain for all time as a living and breathing testimonial to Theodore Roosevelt, the man, as no other kind of memorial could ever hope to show him, and will be of the greatest value to future students of his life.

Living Spirit.
Too often, soon after the termination of some great life, the material relating to it is lost, or dispersed, or forgotten. We do not want this to happen in the case of Theodore Roosevelt.

We want Theodore Roosevelt to be a living spirit to thousands upon thousands of Americans yet unborn. We want him to be an inspiration; we want him to be a model and an encouragement, to them as he was to us.

History will record the deeds of Theodore Roosevelt, but only a collection such as we are making now can portray the living being to the generations that come after us. I hope and believe that every friend of the colonel, every American who liked to call himself his admirer, will want to be represented in this important collection.

In a sense, we are not asking anyone to part with his gift. Rather we are asking him to share it with the whole people. The name of each donor will be attached to his right.

Ready to Receive.
I heartily hope that every friend and admirer of Colonel Roosevelt will make his contribution to the collection at the earliest possible moment. The association will go on its museum will always be ready to receive any record or memento of the colonel which makes his appearance. But privately held records and memorabilia are easily lost or destroyed by fire; some fall into the hands of dealers; others drift into private collections.

If this collection is to be worthy of the name it bears, it must be brought to a high state of development now. T. R.'s friends must cooperate to make it worthy of T. R.

The final resting place of the museum will be the permanent headquarters of the association.

Yesterday I found an old medicine bottle with the label on it saying "Poison in a red bottle, me think, O, wouldn't you feel funny if he had gargled and then looked at the bottle and saw this label on it. Being a doctor, I took the label off the bottle and smeared some paste on it and stuck it on the outside of my gargarle bottle. In the morning before breakfast I heard pop making gargarle noises, and I quick ran in the water and wash him and he was gargarling and still holding the gargarle bottle in his hand, me saying, "O, pop, you gargarle musical."

WASHINGTON PROMISES TO BE A BIT CROWDED

T. R. COLLECTION TO EXHIBIT REAL TEDDY

By WILLIAM BOYCE THOMPSON, President of the Roosevelt Memorial Association, Inc.

The Roosevelt Memorial Association has appealed to friends and followers of Colonel Roosevelt to "remember T. R. on his birthday," which comes Thursday, October 27, by contributing to the Roosevelt Memorial collection which the association is now gathering. These contributions are asked, not in the form of money but of some object of record which in itself recalls the colonel.

What is particularly want are manuscripts in which Mr. Roosevelt's own handwriting or bearing his corrections; original letters by or about Mr. Roosevelt; books, pamphlets and magazine articles, newspaper clippings or cartoons relating to Mr. Roosevelt; the originals of these cartoons, wherever possible; books and pamphlets by Mr. Roosevelt, especially first and limited editions; literature relating to his political campaigns, also posters, buttons, campaign handkerchiefs, etc., photographs of the colonel, especially snapshots and negatives, paintings, etchings and commemorative medals; and especially personal mementoes—the kind of thing one person always likes to remember another by.

Parable of the Bad Temper

By DR. WM. E. BARTON.
There came unto me one who said, "I have a Very Bad Temper."

And he said it with what he thought was humility, but it was as if it had been a certain sort of pride.

And I said, Thou art a Narrow-Minded Man.

Then he was angry, and I knew that he was no liar when he said that he had a Bad Temper.

And when he said More or Less, I sensed him, and I said, I believed thee when thou saidest that thou hadst a Bad Temper; I did not ask thee to make such a Display of it.

And he said, Thou hast insulted me; for a Quick Temper is not the sign of a Warm and Generous Nature; for, if I am quick to be angry, I am quick also to get over it, and very ready to Make Amends.

Now we spake in the Garden, and I left him for a moment, and when I returned I had been in the Kitchen, and I brought back an Egg.

And I threw the Egg at the Back Fence, and it Broke and splattered the Fence.

And I said, Thou speakest of Making Amends. Gather up that Egg again, and clean off the Fence, and put the Egg back into the Shell, and set an Hen upon it, and make it a Plymouth Rock Rooster. Then talk to me of making amends for these outbursts of Temper.

For thou splattered over all thy friends, and splashed them with thy fury, and then thou dost leave them to clean off thy rage and try to forget this unreasonable words, and thou thinkest thou hast made amends.

And I said, The best way to make amends for a Bad Temper is to keep thy temper to thyself.

And he said, Verily, thou didst say of me that I had a Narrow Mind, and I will take that from no man.

And I said, Thou wilt take it once again from me. Thou hast a Narrow Mind. He who hath a Bad Temper is a man who is capable of seeing but one aspect of a thing, and incapable of withholding his snap judgment until he may learn the whole truth.

And because he is both narrow-minded and childish, therefore doth he fly into a rage, as thou hast done and habitually dost do. Fretter not thyself that this is the sign of a generous nature, for I have and himself washed off the Egg from the Fence. And he said— "I'm sorry I'm not able to produce a Plymouth Rock Rooster from that Egg, yet 'hah it, not been wholly wasted."

And I am inclined to think that he had learned something that was worth the price of an Egg.

GOSHI

The moga-hone man on rubberneck wagons at Uniontown, Pa., should point out Thomas Murreck, street sweeper. Eight years ago Tom came from Italy, penniless. His wages never have been more than $2.50 a day.

Now he buys a home, paying $1250 for it. "This makes 12 properties I own," said Tom, between sweeps of his brush.

This is another wonder worked by the little giant, Thrift. To get dollars and cents, you need dollars and sense.

KLAN IS EXPECTED TO BE SUBJECT OF MASONIC MEETING

LOCAL MEMBERS TO HEAR LETTER FROM GRAND MASTER.

EMPHATIC STAND ON MATTER IS EXPECTED

Grand Master in Earlier Address Here Referred to Attitude Masons Should Adopt.

A letter from A. L. Randall of Sherman, grand master of Texas Masons, will be read at the special meeting of Lodge 635, called for Friday night, at the Ku Klux Klan.

Mr. Randall will not attend the meeting here, but his letter will, it is understood, make plain what attitude Masons will be expected to adopt toward the "invisible empire."

In an address here several months ago, Mr. Randall spoke very plainly to local Masons about the Klan, declaring that Masonry could not afford to be connected with such organizations in any way. It is understood that his letter will call for an even more emphatic stand, and that the matter is being brought to the attention of Texas lodges as a preliminary to the grand lodge meeting in December.

Practically the entire membership of Lodge 635 is expected to attend the meeting.

Letter Causes Negro Woman to Change Quarters

Dallas Roberts, negro woman living in the rear of a Lamar avenue home, found a letter on her front door when she went home Thursday evening.

The letter, bearing the initials "K. K. K." at the top, and signed "Invisible Empire," declared that somebody was coming to see her at 11:30 that night "to give her a lesson."

Dallas wasn't at home when 11:30 came. A policeman was on hand, waiting for the threatened visit. It didn't materialize.

The missive was poorly written and much misspelled.

WANT NEW ROAD TO COME VIA CHARLIE, CITIZENS ACTIVE

CLAY COUNTY COMMUNITY SEEKS RAIL CONNECTION WITH THIS CITY.

PLAN CONCERTED EFFORT TO GET LINE THAT WAY

May Lead to Revival of Long Considered Plan—Byers, Waurika, Survey Delayed.

If a railroad is to connect Wichita Falls and the Rock Island, the community of Charlie in the Wichita river valley in Clay county wants it to come that way, it was learned Friday.

Residents and property owners of the Charlie section, it is learned here, are preparing to make a determined effort to secure the line, and there is a possibility at least that they will be successful.

To build by way of Charlie would mean abandonment of the Byers-Waurika line, and the road would enter this city on the north side of the river instead of coming in over the Byers branch of the Wichita Valley. In addition to Charlie, the route would probably touch Thornberry, another rich farming community, and some important points on the Oklahoma side.

The Charlie-Thornberry farming section is one of the richest in Texas, and Wichitans have at various times in the past made plans for a railroad line that would serve and develop that district.

The surveying of the Byers-Waurika line has been delayed by the illness of Captain McFarland, but camp is being established and other preliminaries given attention. It is probable that the locating of the line, which will require about two weeks, will start in earnest Monday.

BONDSMAN STATES HIS SIGNATURE A FORGERY ON BOND

G. W. Groves of Electra was called upon by the court to pay his portion of a $750 bond which had released G. W. Allison from the county jail on a charge of theft.

Mr. Groves said he had never signed a bond and when he looked at his signature on the bond he declared that it was a forgery.

The sheriff's department Friday morning arrested G. W. Allison of Electra and he went to jail in default of bond.

He is being held on the original charge and no charges of any nature had been filed in connection with the alleged forgery of Mr. Groves' name on the bond.

HARDING TRIES TO GET WORLD IN STEP ON DISARMAMENT

SEEKS FIRST TO BRING NATIONS INTO MOOD FOR AGREEMENT.

SUBJECTS TO DISCUSS TO BE NAMED LATER

Experts Are Collecting Data to Be Submitted When the Conference Convenes.

By MARK SULLIVAN
National Political Correspondent of the New York Evening Post and The Wichita Daily Times.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—If any one should try to answer the question frequently asked in letters that come to Washington from distant parts of the country, as to just what is being done about the armament conference, the reply would cover two lines of activity.
What Mr. Hughes and Mr. Harding, especially Mr. Harding, are trying to do is to create an atmosphere and a state of mind. Mr. Harding is trying to create this state of mind both for himself and for the country. A watchful observer of things would conclude that Mr. Harding probably expects to place his main dependence on this psychological factor. The conference is an adventure in bringing men and nations into a mood of agreement, of good will and mutual accommodation. A phrase that Mr. Harding frequently uses for this proceeding is "getting men to walk in step."
The important thing about Mr. Harding's process is the order of which you go to it. The first thing is to get your men to walk in step. After that is accomplished you then begin to discuss the objectives to march toward. That is psychologically a sounder process than the reverse order of first naming the subjects of discussion and then making

CALOMEL SALIVATES AND LOOSENS TEETH

The Very Next Dose Of This Treacherous Drug May Start Trouble.

You know what calomel is. It's mercury, quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.
If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.
Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tonic straightens you right up and you feel great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.—adv.

the effort to get the various elements to agree. The essential element in Mr. Harding's process is first to get your men into a mood of agreement and then, and not till then, bring up the subjects about which you want them to agree. You may not be able to achieve agreement on all the subjects, but you will achieve agreement on a larger number than would have been possible by introducing the causes of controversy first. It is a subtle but definite method of handling negotiations among men.
Mr. Harding undoubtedly has a good deal of faith in his process. He has had a good deal of success with it in his political and business experience, and he probably has no doubt that the principles of it are equally applicable to nations. It is the process that has underlain most of Mr. Harding's political successes. It is the quality which most of his friends name as the most important element of his strength. Doubtless Mr. Harding's political enemies would concede that the man who, in running for the presidency, succeeded in getting Mr. Hoover to march in step with Hiram Johnson, and Senator Borah to march in step with William H. Taft, has good reason to feel confidence in his ability as a harmonizer, and ought to have no difficulty in getting the French to walk in step with the British, and the Chinese to link arms with the Japanese and so on all the way round the circle.
Aside from this, a whole army of experts are working on concrete things to be done. The navy experts are figuring on various bases and standards of relative reduction of navies, army experts are figuring on the same sort of thing in their field, and in the state department all the young eagles of and politicians as they affect the far east. The purely technical details of this sort of thing would interest the public much, and the zealous secrecy with which the experts guard them is probably not terribly necessary.
The real thing that the big men are aiming at is to create an atmosphere of agreement. After that is accomplished the experts will be called in with their briefs and digests. Even in this latter part of the process the United States probably isn't going to have any definitely delimited program in advance except on a very small number of the broadest issues, like for example, the opium door in China.
Let no one, however, underestimate the quantity of very hard work that is being done in anticipation of the sessions that open four weeks from today. Mr. Hughes gives the impression of digging into the subject like a steam shovel into a mountain. And Mr. Root has probably assembled a larger quantity of information and personal experience than will be possessed by any other man in the conference.

DUCK HUNTERS ARE READY FOR SEASON OPENING ON SUNDAY

Local hunters are all set for the opening of the duck season, and it is expected that Saturday morning will see a large number of gunners out after the birds.

The recent cool spells have brought many ducks with them, but the number is probably curtailed by the fact that water is low in nearly all tanks and streams. Lake Wichita, as usual, will be the principal duck-hunting resort for this section.

The use of motor boats in hunting ducks, formerly a popular diversion here, is now prohibited by federal statute.

To Relieve Catarrh, Catrhal Deafness And Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness, or who are growing hard of hearing and have head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can usually be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected complete relief after other treatments have failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear. Therefore, if you know of some one who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The description can be prepared at home and is made as follows:
Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Eucalypti (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it 1 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.
Eucalypti is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian Tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are nearly always quick and effective.
Every person who has catarrh in any form, or distressing rumbling, hissing sounds in the ears, should give this recipe a trial.—adv.

NOTED SPEAKER AND BIBLE LECTURER COMING

It is not often that the people of Wichita Falls are accorded the privilege of hearing a speaker of such rare ability, and one who ranks among the foremost speakers on the American platform, as does Dr. Gill, representative of the Moody Bible Institute extension work. Being a son of the South-land, he ranks among her most gifted speakers, and a rare treat is in store for those who take advantage of the services that he will conduct while in the city.

Dr. Gill will speak at the Central Presbyterian church, corner Eleventh and Bluff streets, Sunday, at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m., continuing his addresses each evening during the week up to and including Friday at 8 o'clock.

SAYS GIBBONS-O'DOWD BOUT WILL BE STAGED

WICHITA, KAN., Oct. 14.—The Western Athletic association today announced that the 18-round boxing contest between Mike Gibbons and Mike O'Dowd, middleweights, would take place Tuesday night as scheduled, regardless of the ruling of Attorney General Richard J. Hopkins, who said he thought the fight would be a violation of the state law.
Mr. Hopkins this morning reiterated his declaration of yesterday over the telephone to Wichita newspaper men that the bout will not be allowed to take place.

A Fair Offer. Accept It
We extend a cordial invitation to anyone suffering with catarrh to call and see Hyomel. We will refund the money if Hyomel does not relieve.—All Druggists.—adv.

Possum Staggers And Raiders Find A Big Illicit Still

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., Oct. 14.—Failure of a possum to play up to his name resulted in the discovery yesterday of one of the largest illicit stills ever found in this section, according to revenue officers.

When attention was first called to the inability of the animal to pursue a straight line of retreat, the raiders thought it ill. One of them, however, pursuing the rules of investigation laid down in best detective narratives, captured the fugitive and smelled its breath.

The still, erected on a concrete base, had a capacity of 200 gallons.

GOVERNMENT CONSENTS TO POSTPONE DISSOLUTION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Government consent to postponement of the dissolution of ownership by the Reading company and others of stock of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company ordered by the United States district court at Philadelphia, was announced today by Attorney General Daugherty.

The decision followed an appeal taken to the supreme court. The attorney general stated today that the uncertainties attending the appeal render it inadvisable that any step be taken in carrying out the plan of dissolution which might later cause embarrassment or delay in case the plans should be materially modified by the supreme court.

Warranty Deed Selling a Child Filed for Record

TAMPA, FLA., Oct. 14.—A warranty deed, formally transferring ownership of a small boy from one woman to another has been placed on record here. The deed shows that the transaction took place last January in Hardin county, Texas.

Courthouse officials declare that in their opinion the deed is illegal in that it is unfair to the child and deprives him of the rights of heritage and provided in papers of adoption. In the event of the death of Mrs. Wilson before the boy is of age, officials say, he would pass as a chattel and become part of the estate. If the transaction were held to be legal.

LEGION WILL PAY OVER $20,000 TO THE STATE

AUSTIN, Oct. 14.—The executive committee, Texas department of the American Legion, will meet at Dallas next Sunday for the purpose of taking steps to pay over to the state of Texas approximately $20,000 Kerrville hospital funds collected by the legion in the state, announced Wayne Davis of Goliad, state commander of the Texas department, who was here today on his way to Dallas to attend the meeting.

Fishes for Seven Years and Learns He Has a Fortune

HAVANA, CUBA, Oct. 14.—A fisherman for seven years, without knowing his surname and believing his parents dead, Marcelino Dumeni is today a millionaire.

And his mother, who found him at Punta Alegre, after a search almost around the world, says she is the happiest woman on earth.

The story of Mrs. Dumeni's frantic search for Marcelino and his sister, Maria, now heirs to a large fortune, came to light today. Mrs. Dumeni is a naturalized American, born in Syria.

Seven years ago they separated. Maria going to South America and Marcelino coming to Cuba, where he went to work as a fisherman.

In the meantime the father had died, leaving a fortune estimated at more than a million, and the mother started a search to find her children. The daughter was finally traced to South America, and through her the son was located here.

Recently Marcelino, in ragged clothes, reeking with the smell of fish, hopped from his tiny fish-laden craft into the water and waded ashore.

A well dressed woman was waiting for him—his mother, though Marcelino didn't know.

Mrs. Dumeni spoke no Spanish and Marcelino no English. What did that matter? Crying for joy, the mother clasped the grimy fisherman to her heart and wept. Not understanding, Marcelino asked through an interpreter, what was wrong, and his sister and the interpreter called out to him: "This is mamma."

Mrs. Dumeni then pulled Marcelino's shirt open.

"Yes, it's my son," she cried. "Marcelino, at last I've found him. I know him by this mole."

SENTENCE SHERMAN MAN TO PAY DEATH PENALTY

SHERMAN, TEXAS, Oct. 14.—Joe Hall was sentenced to pay the death penalty by a jury here today at his trial for murder in connection with the killing August 8, on a lonely road, of Bob James, a service car driver. Roy Hewitt, indicted with Hall, was immediately placed on trial.

ELECTROCUTE MAN FOR MURDER OF A WOMAN

A. Glenn of the government flying field at Houston, came to Waco last night in his plane, making the flight in good time and without incident. The lieutenant is again concerning the object of his flight here but said announcement would be made Oct. 20.

REORGANIZATION OF THE REGULAR ARMY INVOLVED IN ORDER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—A partial if not a complete reorganization of the regular army, resulting in re-allocation of commands throughout the country, probably will result from steps taken today by Secretary Weeks to assist further in the training and instruction of the national guard, organized reserves, reserve officers training camps, and other civilians at military training camps.

The secretary today appointed a board of officers consisting of Col. W. E. Welsh, Alfred A. Starbird and Stanley H. Ford and Lieut. Col. J. W. Grissinger, all of the general staff, and ordered it to recommend a plan "for such an organization and distribution of the authorized strength of the regular army, as will enable it to give the greatest assistance possible" in the training and instruction of all elements of the army of the United States.

COTTON MARKET.

New York Cotton NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The report of the census bureau showing domestic consumption of 484,647 bales during September against 457,967 last year, was considered bullish, but failed to inspire much fresh buying in the cotton market at the opening today. First prices were barely steady and generally 7 to 16 points lower, and active months soon showed net losses of 29 to 27 points, with December touching 18.95, or three cents below the high record of last week. The selling was promoted by the weakness of Liverpool and nervousness over European conditions as a result of recent Silesian developments. Trade interests were reported buying on a scale down but the demand from that source was not active and the south was a seller here. Liverpool cables reported a general selling movement due to the unsettled political condition close at falling off in trade demand.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Wheat prices tended to sag today in the absence of an aggressive buying. Opening quotations, which varied from unchanged figures to 1c lower for wheat, with December, 11.12 1/2 to 11.12 and May 11.64 to 11.67, were unchanged by a number of small changes averaging a little below yesterday's finish. A little better weather report trade together with dry export contracts and the possibility that the government report of night probe bulbar holding about an advance. The close was strong 2c to 3c let higher, with December, 11.15 1/2 to 11.15 1/2 and May 11.70 to 11.70.

TO HAVE HEARING AT HENRIETTA ON SATURDAY EVENING

A preliminary hearing for H. T. Scott (Scotty) and Sewell Fields will be held Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at Henrietta before the justice of the peace. District Attorney Bert Wilson will conduct the hearing.

Scotty and Fields have been in the Clay county jail since their arrest the first part of this week following the robbery of a store at Dean. The two men were arrested in this city by city officers and the district attorney ordered both removed to Henrietta and held without bond.

Charges of robbery with firearms were preferred against the two men after it is said the proprietors of the store alleged to have been robbed and his wife positively identified the two men as those who entered his store at 11:30 o'clock at night representing themselves to be revenue officers who had come to search his place for whiskey.

The arrest of a woman Thore at Dean was a further development in the case. It is alleged that she drove the car to Dean and waited for the men, while they were engaged in robbing the store.

ELMER DOVER RETURNS FROM TRIP TO MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 14.—Elmer Dover, who accompanied Thomas W. Lamont, the New York financier, to Mexico City last week, left yesterday for his home in Tacoma, Wash. Before Mr. Dover's arrival here a number of newspapers asserted he was coming to Mexico as a personal representative of President Harding and would be in charge of negotiations preliminary to the recording of recognition of the Obregon government by the United States. This report was denied by Mr. Dover and by the state department in Washington.

News papers here were unofficially informed yesterday that any relations existing between Mr. Dover and the Mexican government had been terminated.

O JOY MUSICAL REVUE AND "SPRINGTIME" ARE DIFFERENT PRODUCTIONS

Although the members of Maskat band and patrol heartily endorse the business girls' "Springtime," which will soon be staged here, those men who are in charge of committees for the production of the band and patrol show the "Oh, Joy Musical Revue," which will take place two days ahead of "Springtime," wish to announce that further than having the endorsement of the Shriner, who have promised to lend their assistance to make the girls' show a success, there is absolutely no connection between the two productions.

There seems to have been a general idea on the part of some of the people of Wichita that the two shows, although of different names were one and the same. The Shriner's show, the "Oh, Joy Musical Revue," will be presented at the Wichita theater, Oct. 13 and 19, which is next Tuesday and Wednesday, and a matinee is scheduled for Wednesday. "Springtime" will follow two days later at the same theater, and those people who intend to see either show should be sure to fix the proper date in mind.

Both organizations have been hard at work for the past week or so with rehearsals, and both seem sure that they have the show that will please everybody. Since either of the two have the reputation for doing things in the right way, it seems to rest with those who cannot see both presentations, to make a choice between the two.

Times When Just Any Bank Won't Do!

Up to a certain point in your banking needs, it doesn't make much difference what kind of bank you patronize. Beyond that point, it makes a tremendous difference—the difference, perhaps, between getting by and not getting by. That's one reason the choice of a bank is an important business undertaking.
