

HUNT HAS A REMEDY FOR UNEMPLOYMENT

Solution Is Outlined by Secretary of President's Conference

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—If all branches of public works in the United States and the construction work of public utilities could systematically put aside financial reserves, in property, to be used for improvements and expansion, in depression the recurring periods of business depression might be avoided, or at least greatly decreased, and the consequent unemployment of labor might be much less serious and widespread. This was the statement made here last night by Edward E. Hunt, secretary of the president's conference on unemployment, in his address before the Society of Industrial Engineers at a dinner in the Cafe Boulevard.

A rough calculation indicates that if we maintained a reserve of only 10 per cent of our average annual construction for this purpose, we could almost iron out the fluctuations in employment," said Mr. Hunt.

The study of the business cycle and its relation to unemployment is one of the means by which the president's conference hopes to provide measures for the permanent relief for the heads of families who find themselves periodically thrown out of work.

"Unemployment on a vast scale is always a result of business depression," said Mr. Hunt. "The problem of preventing or mitigating unemployment is, therefore, part of the larger problem of preventing or mitigating the depression of business activity and stagnation."

"The world-wide scope and the long succession of business crises do not prove that the problem of controlling the business cycle is hopeless." * * * The business cycle is marked by peak periods of boom between valleys of depression and unemployment. The peak periods of boom are times of speculation, over-expansion, commerce, with consequent destruction of capital. The valleys are marked by business stagnation, unemployment and suffering. Both of these extremes are vicious, and the vice of the one beget the vice of the other. It is the wastes, the miscalculations and the maladjustments grown rampant during booms that make inevitable the painful process of liquidation. The most hopeful way to check the losses and misery of depression is therefore to check the feverish extremes of prosperity. The best time to act is at a fairly early stage in the growth of the boom.

"In any analysis of our productive processes we can make a broad distinction between our additions to national plant and equipment, such as houses, railroads, manufactures and tools on one hand, and the consumable goods which we produce on the other. At the present time we increase our activities in both of these directions at the same time and in their competition with each other. In the process of construction the telephone, etc.—could systematically put aside financial reserves to be provided in times of prosperity for the deliberate purpose of improvement and expansion in times of depression, we could not only greatly decrease the depth of depression, but we would at the same time diminish the height of booms. * * * Nor is this plan financially impracticable. Under it our plant construction would be built in times of lower costs than is now the case when the contractor competes with consumable goods in the market for both material and labor."

Mr. Hunt advocated the formation of adequate statistical service to determine three facts: volume of production of stocks and consumption of commodities; volume of construction in progress throughout the nation; the actual and not theoretical unemployment. This statistical service should be authorized and carried out by the federal government, he believes.

CHARGES OFFICERS OF MINE UNIONS ASSISTED RECENT PROTEST MARCH
WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Officials of miners' unions in the disturbed West Virginia coal fields were charged today by A. E. Hoover, a former union organizer, with having aided directly in supplying arms to miners engaged in the recent march on Logan county and with having encouraged the march. Called as a witness before the senate investigating committee by the operators, Hoover testified he handed between $2,000 and $4,000 in miners' strike relief "script" which he said he had turned over to union officers for the purchase of guns. He also told the committee he knew of a standing order with a hardware company at Williamson, W. Va., for the delivery of thirty rifles each week "for a long time," the guns, he said, being turned over to mine workers.

BIG FIRE DAMAGE AT WYANDOTTE, OKLAHOMA
MIAMI, Okla., Oct. 24.—Fire of undetermined origin early today practically wiped out the business section of Wyandotte, one of the oldest settlements in this part of Oklahoma. The loss was estimated at approximately $10,000. Fourteen buildings, including the city hall, a hotel, a church and several brick structures were destroyed.

ANOTHER CUT IN WAGES OF POLICE, DROPS 5 OFF FORCE

Announcement of another general reduction of wages of city policemen to become effective November 1 was made Wednesday by Police Commissioner J. E. Pitts together with the report that five men were to be dropped from the police payroll at the end of the present month.

The absolute necessity for further retrenchment in his department was assigned by Pitts as the reason for his action. The wage cut is to affect all patrolmen and parts of the plain clothes force, the announcement stated, and together with the elimination of five great officers will result in a saving of $1,115 per month or $13,380 a year.

About 15 men will be affected by the wage slice.

"It was either a case of reduce the pay to all the men and retain an adequate working force or release a large number of those now working and compel those who have remained to work 12 instead of eight hours a day," the commissioner said in making public the decision. "I have talked with all the men."

he continued, "and they agreed that the reduction was the best of the two propositions. They disliked it, of course, but they realized that it was necessary."

The cut will average 12 1/2 per cent and will bring the patrolmen's pay down to $199 a month.

Pitts stated that it was his intention to recommend that the wages be increased again just as soon as the city was able to meet the larger financial obligations. The names of the five men to be let out the first of next month were not made public Wednesday.

HARDING DISCUSSES THE RACE PROBLEM

Delivers Address at Celebration of Founding of the City of Birmingham

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., Oct. 26.—The right of the American negro to broader political, economic and educational advantages, based on a pride of race but never on an inspiration for social equality, was championed by President Harding here today in a plainly worded enunciation of his views on the whole American race problem.

These are some of the principles on which the president appealed to the nation to "lay aside old prejudices and old antagonisms" and give support to a constructive policy of racial relationship:

"Politically and economically there need be no occasion for great and permanent differentiation, provided on both sides there shall be recognition of the absolute divergence in things social and racial. I would insist upon equal educational opportunities for both.

"Men of both races may well stand unceasingly against every suggestion of social equality. This is not a question of social equality, but a question of recognizing a fundamental, eternal, inseparable difference.

"Racial amalgamation there cannot be. Partnership of the races in developing the highest aims of all humanity there must be if humanity is to achieve the ends which were set for it.

"The black man should seek to be the best possible black man and not the best possible imitation of a white man.

"The president's address, which brought him from Washington on his first extended trip into the south since inauguration, was delivered at a semi-centennial celebration of the founding of the city of Birmingham. It was devoted almost exclusively to the race question, although Mr. Harding also took occasion to praise the south for its industrial recovery and to renew his faith in the world leadership of a re-united nation.

"The world war brought us to full recognition that the race problem is national rather than merely sectional.

"There are no authentic statistics, but it is common knowledge that the world war was marked by a great migration of colored people to the north and west. They were attracted by the demand for labor and the higher wages offered. It has brought the question of race closer to north and west and, I believe, has served to modify somewhat the views of those sections on this question. It has made the south realize its industrial dependence on the labor of the black man and made the north realize the difficulties of the community in which two greatly differing races are brought to live side by side. I should say that it has been responsible for a larger charity on both sides, a beginning of better understanding; and in the light of that better understanding, perhaps we shall be able to consider this problem together as a problem of all sections as a whole.

and of both races. In whose solution the best intelligence of both must be used, we will be wise to recognize it as wider yet.

"Whoever will take the time to read and ponder Mr. Loring Stoddard's book on the rising tide of color, or say the thoughtful review of some recent literature of this question which F. L. Lugard presented in a recent Edinburgh review must realize that our race problem here in the United States is only a phase of a race issue that the whole world confronts. Surely we shall gain nothing by blinking the facts, by refusing to give thought to them. That is not the American way of approaching such issues.

"Mr. Lugard in his recent essay after surveying the world's problem of races concludes thus: 'Here, then, is the true conception of the inter-relationship of color—complete uniformity in ideal, absolute equality in the paths of knowledge and culture, equal opportunity for those who strive, equal admiration for those who achieve; in matters social and racial a separate path, each pursuing his own inherited tradition, preserving his own purity and racial pride; equality in things spiritual; agreed divergence in the physical and material.'

"Here, it has seemed to me, is a suggestion of the true way out. Politically and economically, there need be no occasion for great and permanent differentiation, provided on both sides there shall be recognition of the absolute divergence in things social and racial. When I suggest the possibility of economic equality between the races, I mean it in precisely the same way and to the same extent that I would mean it if I spoke of equality of economic opportunity. In each case I would mean equality proportioned to the honest capacities and deserts of the individual.

"Men of both races may well stand unceasingly against every suggestion of social equality. This is not a question of social equality, but a question of recognizing a fundamental, eternal, and inescapable difference. We shall have made real progress when we develop an attitude in the public and community thought of both races which recognizes this difference, things social and racial.

"Take the political aspect. I would say let the black man vote when he is fit to vote; prohibit the white man voting when he is unfit to vote. Especially would I appeal to the self-respect of the colored race. I would inculcate in it the wish to improve itself as a distinct race, with a hereditary, a set of traditions, an array of aspirations all its own. Out of such racial ambitions and pride will come natural segregations, without narrowing any rights, such as are proceeding in both rural and urban communities now in southern states, satisfying natural inclinations and adding notably to happiness and contentment.

"On the other hand, I would insist upon equal educational opportunity for both. This does not mean that both would become equally educated within a generation or two generations. Even men of the same race do not accomplish such an equality as that. But there must be such education among the colored people as will enable them to develop their own leaders, capable of understanding and sympathizing with such a differentiation between the races as I have suggested—leaders who will inspire the whole of the race with a pride, of national pride, of an honorable destiny; and important participation in the universal effort for advancement of humanity as a whole.

LONE STAR SUES NORTH TEXAS FOR SUM OF $360,000

SHERMAN, Oct. 26.—The North Texas Gas company Tuesday sued the Lone Star Gas company in the 5th district court of Grayson county for $360,000. The sum is alleged due the plaintiff because of the alleged rate discrimination the Lone Star Gas company has made to the plaintiff for gas in Sherman, Denton and Whitesboro since June 23 last, as compared with the rates charged the Fort Worth Gas company, the Dallas Gas company and the Gainesville Gas and Electric company. On the above date the defendant abrogated contracts with the plaintiff, while similar contracts with the three named companies were not abrogated and they enjoy the old rates, it is alleged in the petition.

COLD WINDS FROM NORTH WILL HAVE EFFECT LOCALLY

Points north and west Wednesday morning reported that a strong cold north wind, with hourly increasing velocity was sending the thermometer lower and lower. At 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, Porgan, Okla., on the Northwest, reported a temperature of 45 degrees.

Other points on the railroads also stated that the north winds were much in evidence. A clear sky, however, it was stated was permitting the sun to bring a warmer touch to the winds.

The lowest temperature recorded in Wichita Falls Wednesday morning was 52 degrees at 7:30 o'clock.

"I have just finished a treatment of your wonderful remedy and can say it has done wonders for me already. For the past five years I have been unable to eat any but the lightest food and that but sparingly, as any other food caused me to bloat with gas. I was reduced to a skeleton of ninety pounds, and was on the road to the boneyard. A friend in Birmingham sent me a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which I took, and I am sure it will entirely cure me of my trouble, judging from what it brought from me and the way I feel." Business Women Cleared $600 On Springtime Play

The Business Women's club cleared $600 on "Springtime," the play staged under the direction of the Rogers Production company last week, according to the report made at the club Tuesday night.

The report, made by Mrs. Sadie Carter, was received with applause, and the club voted a few minutes later to sign a contract with the Rogers company for another play to be presented next October.

Each Business Women's club attended to much business and heard many reports Tuesday night, a number of things having been held up during the three weeks' work on the play. Miss Frances Brooks read the report of the ticket selling committee for the play, which Mrs. George Higgins was chairman reporting a total of over $1,200 worth of tickets sold by members of the club outside the hall during the three weeks' work on the play.

The date for the banquet to be tendered the business men was given as Nov. 22, the date arranged by Miss Frances Brooks, chairman of the social committee, and Miss Webster, chairman of the program committee. Miss Brooks also announced that the card committee had set $11.95 from the sale of candy the nights of the play.

Miss Dunham, director of the Y. W. C. A. cafeteria, made a report on the club, asking their co-operation in keeping the cafeteria trade up to the mark.

The club voted a donation of $50 to the high school football boys, a majority of the members, expressing themselves as wishing that the club could make the amount larger without jeopardizing other social service work to be undertaken.

During the meeting the business women's newspaper, the "Tuesday Night Times," was introduced by the service committee of the club, of which Miss Nina Dunham is chairman, and first copies of the little sheet were distributed. The club voted to continue the paper in monthly publication, and a regular editorial, business and reportorial staff was announced to take charge of it.

Miss R. E. Huff and Mrs. John Gould and daughter have returned from a trip to Chicago, where Mrs. Huff has been under treatment.

FASHIONS

"Make it with lace" has become a popular catch phrase in the French dressmaking world as our own familiar "Say it with flowers." The government has urged the use of hand-made lace to revitalize the French lace industry, and although we have had an entire summer of dresses in which lace was the foundation, it appears prominently in the winter fashions. There are extravagant looking creations with exquisite silk lace dyed in brilliant colors. Black, too, is used, and so are neutral colors, in charming, dignified styles that are soft and beautiful for the older woman.

One of the most attractive of these is of silver gray silk lace of substantial texture, combined with subtle shades of the same color, and trimmed with black fur. The sketch illustrates how harmoniously the materials are combined. A panel of the silk divides the lace tunic in the back, and the wide sleeves are finished with a straight wide cuff of black georgette.

BUSINESS WOMEN GIVE $50 TO FOOTBALL TEAM
Athletic stock at the local high school went up several points Tuesday when $50 in coin of the realm was donated the football team by the Business Women's club of this city.

The gift was part of the proceeds from "Springtime," the musical play which the club staged successfully last week, and was made with no attached stipulations. The money will probably be expended for athletic equipment, according to information from the institution Wednesday.

Legion Makes Its Ballroom Bow at Dance Last Night

The American Legion made its first ballroom bow Tuesday night on the occasion of its initial dance given at legion headquarters, when about forty couples enjoyed an exceptionally pleasant evening under the auspices of the organization.

The hall was beautifully decorated for the opening dance, thanks to the members of the Legion Auxiliary. Lights were softened with colored shades, palms, potted plants and cut flowers were used in profusion, and C. B. Johnson's five-piece legion orchestra furnished excellent music for the dance.

GOLF CLUB WOMEN ENJOY BIG PARTY ON TUESDAY

Pink Calico Pot Going-Going-to Mrs. H. B. Hatton

The pink calico flower pot is going—going—going—Unless somebody beats a rose stem which measures eight feet five inches in length, that is. One hundred and one inches of stem, in other words.

The rose and its trailing yards of paragon were brought to the Times office by Mrs. H. B. Hatton of 1409 Travis Tuesday afternoon, and members of the force who had championed the six feet plus of the last offering as the prize winner, sat down and shut up. The managing editor stood it up beside him and tried to look at the top, and Wednesday morning the crick in the neck, poking its pointed head through the skylight and jabbing its paxilla thorns into the innocent bystander. It ought to make a good fishing pole next spring.

ATTRACTIONS AT LOCAL THEATERS PROVING POPULAR

Wichita Falls theaters continue to pack in the crowds during the second week of the winter season, according to reports from the various playhouses, and in view of the attractions to be offered in the future they will probably continue to enjoy a heavy patronage.

At the Palace where Gene Lewis and his co-stars are offering "Turn to the Right" Tuesday night's audience proved to be as large as that of the opening night and it was rewarded by seeing the big play presented faultlessly. Wednesday is expected to draw a capacity house inasmuch as every mother in the city will be admitted free as the guest of the company provided she is accompanied by one cash customer.

At the Palace "The Affairs of Anatol" has been pleasing large crowds all week. Wallie Reid and the rest of his movie "blue book" cast, which includes 10 of the best known stars appearing on the screen today, have been given a really remarkable vehicle for their talents and all have made the best possible use of it. The story is good, the acting better and the acting and direction best yet.

It will run the balance of the week and will be succeeded next Monday by another big special production.

All of the regular run movie houses have been reporting large attendance during the past 10 days which seems to refute the belief that the public here does not appreciate high class amusement.

Don't Go to See "I Accuse" If You Want to Forget the War

By JAMES W. DEAN
NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The war's over. Let's forget about it. You've heard it said. And so have I. A thousand times!

But we can't forget. There'll be a disarmament conference Nov. 11. Because we can't forget.

"I Accuse" is a French-made film of war just released in this country. It depicts war's red hell, in all its redness and in all its hellishness.

But we want to forget about war. So we yawn. And sit on our hands. And are little moved. When real scenes of trench warfare and life are shown.

I suppose we are waiting to see the news reel showing Babe Ruth in action. Or some other diversion to make us forget about war.

An American doughboy pulls his dead polly buddy out of the muck and the mire. And a mother, an American mother, takes her boy by the hand and walks out of the strand theater where the movie is showing.

She didn't want him to see that phase of war. Yes we blind the young to the real horror of war. And try to blind the grown. Still we are going to hold a disarmament conference Nov. 11.

I'd like to see a piece in the papers of Nov. 12 saying that all at the conference had seen "I Accuse."

The photography is poor. The continuity, what there is of it, is poor. But the message, expect too much of the French movies. They were at a standstill four years on account of the war, while American production kept right on developing their art.

If the American legion or one of your exhibitors brings "I Accuse" to town don't go to see it if you want to forget the war.

But if you want to remember that men died and suffered in the welter of battle for the freedom of mankind, go to see "I Accuse."

After all, indifference to heroism and suffering and nobility of purpose may be peculiar to New York, where many of the little graces and virtues of life are forgotten in the eternal quest of the dollar.

So great was the success of the two-reel film based on the Burke Jones painting, "The Beggar Maid," that a series of 12 paintings is to be pictured.

The paintings are to be selected by a committee headed by Charles Dana Gibson, Robert W. DeForest, president of the Metropolitan Museum of Art; Edwin H. Blashfield, president of the National Academy of Design; and Robert Aiken, president of the Sculptors' Society of America.

"Mona Lisa," by Leonardo da Vinci; "The Bashful Sailor," by Verelst; and "The Young Painter," by Rembrandt, have so far been selected by the committee.

This will come to the screen pictures with artistic and historic worth and without heroes, villains and sex triangles.

A bit of psychology is turned to comedy use in "Never Weaken," Harold Lloyd's latest.

He is crossed in love and he makes many attempts to commit suicide. A derriek swings a glider under his chair and lifts him into the outer space, hundreds of feet above the ground. In actual danger, he frantically works to save himself.

Most persons who are interested in the success of the picture should see it at once.

Colleen Moore, she's rather popular, but still she plays the title role in "The Wall Flower," a Rupert Hughes picture.

enough in their own affairs to say "I wish I were dead" when they meet disappointment are interested enough in life to turn from death when it presents itself.

In "Shadowland" "The Flaming Trail" is the next Holman Day story to reach the screen.

Pathe showed pictures of the world series on Broadway at 7:00 p. m. of the first day of play.

The play of muscles of a dog and cat in a fight are shown in slow motion in the next Pathe Review.

"Sunshine Sambo" is the latest juvenile star. He is to be featured in a two-reel called "The Pickanilly."

Motion pictures head the list of Los Angeles industries with an annual output representing $150,000,000 and a weekly payroll of $300,000. In 1920, 2,500 film industries operated in that city.

Scouts to Attend "Out of the Dust," Empress' Guests

Noise and racket galore is promised for the city Thursday afternoon when all local boy scouts will be the guests of Will Page, manager of the Empress theatre, at a matinee showing of "Out of the Dust," the Empress film attraction for the last three days of this week.

Page has been assured that healthy Bedlam would pervade his theatre ever since the scouts accepted his invitation, and now he has magnanimously decided to let the rest of the town in on some of the choice morsels of racket that the boys are expected to unwork. He has secured a special car from the traction company and before the big show starts the whole scout crew will be given a ride over the city.

The scout band and drum corps will be present, very much so, and will be augmented by some two score leather lunged kidds that aren't a bit bashful when it comes within their province to whoop it up.

The scouts, in uniform, will meet at the First Methodist church, South, at 4:30 sharp, will take their jaunt over the street car lines and will then detain it in front of the theatre. Scout Executive H. E. Taylor has issued instructions that all boys be at the church promptly at 4:30 and that all who have uniforms wear them.

Providence, R. I., is the second largest city in New England.

Quebec is the largest province in Canada.

CERTAIN INMATES OF COUNTY JAIL FEAR THE JAILER

Certain inmates of the Wichita county jail fear the jailer, Cass Tarver, and undoubtedly believe that he is hard to get along with. In order to make the building a safer place to live in, the jailer has adopted a policy of getting rid of inmates which made life miserable there.

For the past week the adopted policy has been put in force each morning with good results. The other prisoners with but few exceptions endorse the policy.

To date eleven mice and seven rats have met their fate. The mice were caught in traps while the rats were caught or burned to death. The policy adopted is pouring inflammable disinfectant behind the cells and then setting it afire. The rats come running as they did in the "Pied Piper of Hamelin."

CHIEF OF FIREMEN ISSUES STATEMENT ON RAIL SITUATION

SAYS NO ONE BEINGS DISPOSED TO EQUITABLE ADJUSTMENT

EXPLAINS ATTITUDE OF RAILROAD EMPLOYEES

Explains Opposition to the Enactment of the Each-Cummins Law

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 24.—In a statement, W. B. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, declares that "if the railroad men are taken at their face value, the whole power of the administration is going to be used to defeat the strike of the employees."

"There seems to be no disposition on the part of any one to bring about an equitable adjustment and here in where the matter stands," President Carter said, adding "what is to be done between now and October 30 no one knows."

The statement in part follows: "A source of irritation which has resulted in an upheaval among railroad employees is the general attitude of the railroad and of everybody else, including that of the administration, that upon labor must rest the entire burden of going back to 'normalcy.'"

"The open shop propaganda of last year made it evident to railroad employees that there was a conspiracy on the part of big business to destroy labor unions, if it were possible to achieve that purpose."

"Immediately upon return of the railroads to private control railroad presidents and others, hired for the purpose, began a nation-wide propaganda to convince the public that the high rates were caused by high wages. Statements made before the labor board at its hearing, and before the senate committee on interstate commerce at its hearings under senate resolution 23, were deliberate falsifications of the facts, and for the purpose of creating a public opinion that the railroads had been badly treated by the government."

"The opposition of railroad employees to the enactment of the Each-Cummins law was based on two principles. "One of the results of the transportation act of 1920 was to increase the supposed valuation of the railroads from less than $12,000,000,000 to almost $110,000,000,000, and upon this inflated value the interstate commerce commission was required to fix a freight and a passenger rate that presumably would give to railroad owners a return for their investments of between 5 and 6 per cent. Any man connected with the railroad business should know that such an increase in capital charges could not be incurred without disaster, either to the corporation or to the employee. They know that if these railroads upon this great inflation of capital investment were to earn 5 or 6 per cent railway employees must suffer in the end."

"Title III of the transportation act created a railroad labor board made up of three factions; the railroad employees represented, the railway corporations are represented and the public are represented thereon. With this arrangement it remained only for the railroad corporations to create a public opinion that wages must be reduced and that freight and passenger rates must be maintained. I am going to assume that more than a million dollars has been expended by the railroad corporations since the enactment of the transportation act to create this impression in the public mind. If there are three representatives of the railroad corporations and three representatives of the public, then all that would be necessary to destroy the standard of living of railroad employees would be to create a public opinion so that the representatives of the public would unite with the representatives of the railroad corporation and thereby establish a two-thirds majority against labor on the United States railroad labor board."

"The same company on their No. 1 Akaw farm has reached the sand at 1,261 feet, and has drilled in five feet, with a heavy flow of gas and 400 feet of fluid standing in the hole. This well is looked to be numerous among the producers in this district by Friday."

MURDER OF WOMAN REMAINS MYSTERY

Disembodied Body is Found in a Pond at Long Island City

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—With another promising set of clues broken down, the police started afresh today in their efforts to identify the disembodied body of a young woman found in a pond at Long Island City last Saturday, and to trace her slayer.

A "positive" identification of the victim as Bertha Becker, a domestic, made last night by a woman who gave the name of Mrs. Elizabeth Richards of Jersey City, was overturned when the police learned that the address given by the woman was fictitious and that the real Mrs. Richards was ill in a hospital. When Failure Hurts the Most

Why Are Some People Successful and Others Failures? Why Is One Person Healthy and Happy While Another Is Sick and Gloomy?

It is because one has pure, rich, red blood, while the other has weak, watery, thin blood which is loaded with waste products. The blood is more important than any of the organs. It is through the blood that the whole human body is directly or indirectly nourished. The body gets its nourishment from the intestines. The intestines also contain waste products—undigested foods, acids, gases and refuse, which sometimes get into the blood. Don't clog the system—clean it out—eliminate the waste products. Waste matter in the blood causes people to be thin, pale and weak. It causes pain in the joints and muscles—it causes skin troubles, pimples, bad boils and sores. A good blood purifier is needed to rid the system of waste products. S. S. S. has successfully relieved thousands of people suffering with such troubles. It is a supreme system builder because it goes to the seat of the trouble—removes the waste matter and builds up the system. The same qualities which give S. S. S. its beneficial effect in clearing your blood of waste products make it extremely desirable for keeping your blood in good condition. Get S. S. S. at any drug store. Use it strictly according to directions, and write our Chief Medical Director about your case. He is a specialist in blood and skin troubles. His advice and treatment is every day helping people back to health and happiness. There is no charge for this service. Also ask him to send you his illustrated booklet, "Facts About the Blood"—free. PHILP SLATED FOR DALLAS POSTOFFICE

Effort to Inject Church Affiliation Figures in Prompt Decision

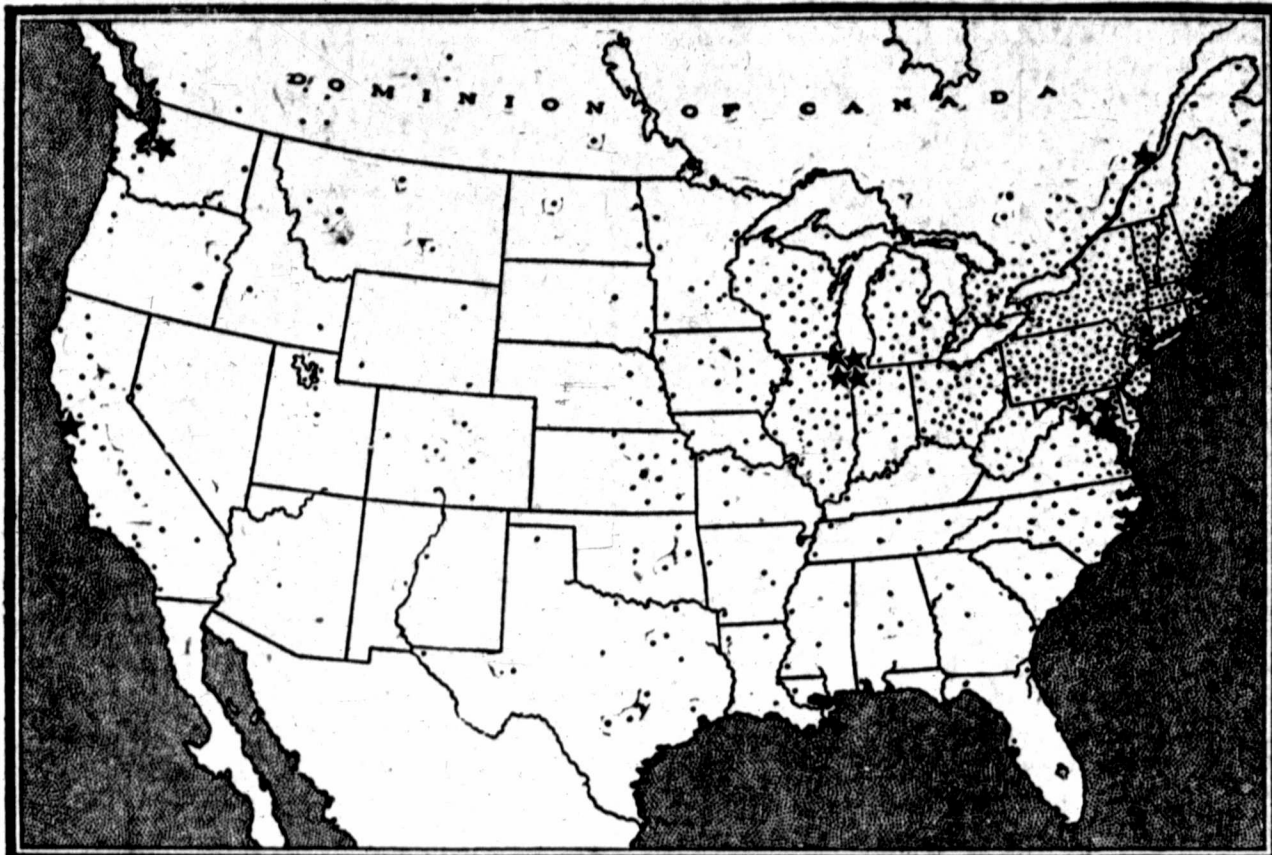

(By George D. Armistead in the San Antonio Express.)

DALLAS, TEXAS, Oct. 26.—The unexpected has happened and more quickly than most men anticipated. News from Washington to Dallas newspapers is that John W. Philp is slated officially for appointment as postmaster at Dallas, biggest office of the state, and that the civil service commission has been prompted to hurry along the formalities that must take place before the nomination can be sent to the senate by the president. Thereby hangs a tale of interest to all Texans and of immense concern to many republicans. Before this it has been described how the anti-Catholic influences of this community, headed by prominent members of, or sympathizers with, the Ku Klux Klan, had attempted to prevent the appointment of Philp on the illogical ground that he is a member of a certain church. There might have been a chance to defeat Philp prior to that effort, but it went glimmering with filling of religious protest against the man most affected. The candidate for whom, presumably, the Ku Kluxers labored in vain never had a look-in from the start, but George F. Rockhold, former postmaster, did, and it is conceivable, might have been appointed if American officials had not been formally called on to humiliate an American because of his religious views.

Not a single Dallas newspaper has mentioned the situation that has leaked out, because it is a "touchy" affair in Dallas, for one reason, and because, for a second reason, Dallasites do not talk as freely with local newspaper men on such topics as they do with a visitor. But, locally at least, the church issue is of more concern than the fact the Dallas plum afforded a battleground between F. E. Scooby of San Antonio and H. F. McGregor of Houston, and that fate has come to Scooby's aid.

It has been suggested in this correspondence that the possible Congressman Wurzbach, another endorser of Philp, might join McGregor in support of Rockhold. That was based on the logical conclusion that, if McGregor is to be of any real help to Wurzbach at San Antonio, it would be good politics for the 14th district congressman to come to McGregor's help in the battle of Dallas. But, very apparently, no such entente cordiale exists between McGregor and Wurzbach, for there is no report or rumor in Dallas among any of the postmaster-ship aspirants that Wurzbach has changed. Such a situation is regarded as highly significant by the politicians. They realize McGregor and Scooby have come to the place where the roads fork, and that the Houston man will travel one thoroughfare while Scooby takes the other, but they see no chance for Wurzbach to now have the right to expect the active aid of McGregor in the former's fight against the appointment of F. G. Lucas.

To shorten the story, Dallas wisecracks of republican faith think the prospect of Philp's appointment, a consummation that is thought to be clinched, will be just another star on the shoulder straps of Scooby and Creager without any advantage whatever accruing to Wurzbach. No doubt the endorsement of Philp by Wurzbach has been welcomed at Washington. It gave the postmaster general and the incumbent opportunity to do what they wanted to do without any danger of hurting the political sensibilities of the Segin statesmen. Very probably they would have gotten behind Philp anyway. And Scooby and Creager ought to pass the cigars to the Ku Klux leaders who rushed in where angels stay away.

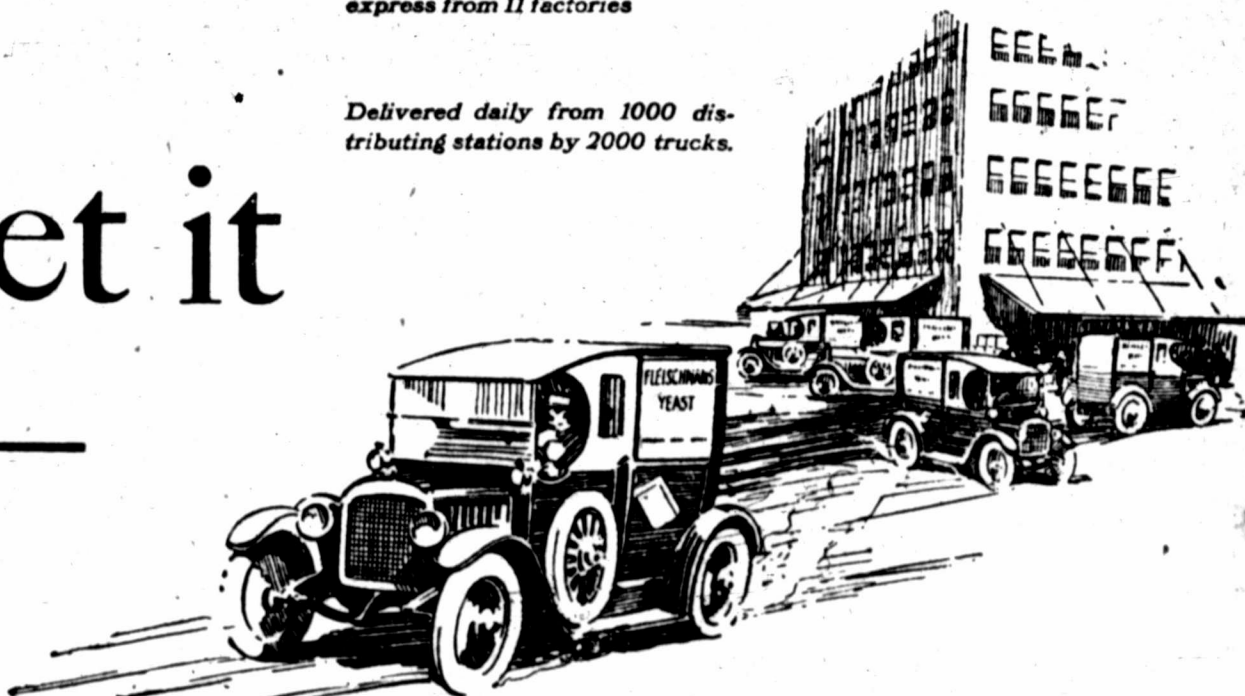

The stars represent 11 factories; the dots represent the 1000 Fleischmann distributing stations, from which the daily delivery of fresh Fleischmann's Yeast is made possible.

Shipped daily by special express from 11 factories

Delivered daily from 1000 distributing stations by 2000 trucks.

Placed directly in the refrigerators of 200,000 grocers and 30,000 bakers by Fleischmann delivery salesmen.

So that you can get it fresh every day—

This tiny plant is grown rapidly day and night and delivered to you fresh every morning

Only two other foods—milk and fresh meat—can boast a delivery system approximate to that of Fleischmann's Yeast. Milk is distributed by thousands of local companies; the extensive delivery of fresh meats is carried on by a large number of packers; the delivery of Fleischmann's Yeast, fresh daily, to all sections of the country is carried on by the one company alone—The Fleischmann Company.

YOU are probably one of the ten millions in this country who are eating Fleischmann's Yeast daily.

Have you ever stopped to realize what it means—that you can get Fleischmann's Yeast fresh every day?

In the first place, did you know that this little yeast cake you eat daily is really a plant—a fresh food?

Fleischmann's Yeast is not made—it is grown. It is a tiny plant that has a wonderful way of growing with such rapidity that in 24 hours it has grown 20 times its own weight.

To get this fresh food to you The Fleischmann Company has built up under one organization an unrivaled system of distribution.

By this system 11 centers throughout the country are kept working at capacity to grow enough fresh yeast daily to meet all needs. From these centers the yeast is shipped daily by special express.

One thousand distributing stations pack the fresh yeast daily into 2000 trucks which deliver to grocers, bakers and delicatessen stores.

The fresh yeast is placed directly in the refrigerators of 200,000 grocers and 30,000 bakers.

The Fleischmann delivery salesman is always there on time. No baker has ever had to delay his baking because of not receiving Fleischmann's Yeast. Even in the ordinary routine of everyday life, the operation of such a system is a gigantic task. Yet the Fleischmann service has shown itself equal to the greatest emergencies.

During the recent Pueblo flood, Fleischmann's Yeast was the first food taken into the city. The Fleischmann salesman was in there with his yeast for the bakers even before doctors and hospital supplies could be rushed from other cities.

Why fresh yeast is now a part of the national daily diet

Fleischmann's Yeast is a corrective food which supplies in fresh form rich quantities of the water-soluble vitamins, for yeast is its richest known source.

Fleischmann's Yeast helps build up body tissues and makes the body more resistant to disease.

In addition, because of its freshness, Fleischmann's Yeast helps the intestines in their elimination of poisonous waste matter.

Fleischmann's Yeast has made the use of laxatives unnecessary for many who have long been in bondage to laxatives. For many others it has corrected the various symptoms of rundown condition and restored a health and vigor unknown for years. THE FLEISCHMANN COMPANY, 701 Washington St., New York.

Emergencies which the wonderful Fleischmann Service has met

The Dayton floods in 1913—During the disastrous Dayton floods in 1913, when all established means of transportation were destroyed, Fleischmann's Yeast was delivered by automobiles, motorcycles, boats and by men on foot.

Boston paralyzed in 1914—When severe snow and sleet paralyzed traffic in Eastern territory in 1914 Fleischmann's Yeast was the only commodity delivered in the city of Boston for three days.

Mobile cut off by tidal wave—When a tidal wave cut off Mobile from all communications, the Fleischmann Service sent special messengers with yeast from Cincinnati and secured tugs to move yeast from New Orleans to the stricken city. The bakers were thus enabled to bake bread for the people without any interruption.

The whole country storm-swept in 1917—In 1917 when one of the most severe storms ever recorded swept the whole country, Fleischmann's Yeast was delivered promptly in special trains, special electric cars, trucks and passenger automobiles from the big Peekskill factory.

The New York blizzard, 1920—Blizzard and sleet completely paralyzed New York in 1920. For two days the only automobile trucks operating in New York were those of The Fleischmann Company. Six and eight horse teams were pressed into service. No shipments were missed at any time; even during the height of the storm.

Fresh yeast has been proved by recent scientific tests to be a valuable food for correcting run-down condition, constipation, indigestion and certain skin disorders. These original tests were all made with Fleischmann's Yeast. Beware of untested yeast-vitamins preparations that contain drugs or other mixtures. Fleischmann's Yeast (fresh) is a pure food, rich in vitamins, in which it measures up to the high standards set by laboratories and hospitals. The familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label is the only form in which Fleischmann's Yeast for Health is sold.

J. G. CULBERTSON TALKS ON COTTON INDUSTRY

Tells of Progress Toward Perfection of Picking Machine—Rival Invitations Are Issued

The Wichita club held its first regular luncheon of the season Wednesday when a number of the staff of the Gulf Production company were special guests.

W. D. Cline was asked to introduce the members of the Gulf Production company staff. He introduced W. B. Pyron, whom he asked to introduce the others.

He said that the Gulf company came to Wichita Falls because it knew that Wichita Falls was the center of the oil industry in North Texas and Southwestern Oklahoma.

He said that the building of the railroad to Breckenridge was the immediate factor in bringing the company here.

He said that a number of improvements on Mr. Price's cotton picker had been studied out and experimented with and that by next year it was expected to have a commercial picker ready to market.

Houston Man Lived for Three Years Almost Entirely on Milk and Broths

"I gained six pounds in weight on my first bottle of Taniae and it has just about made me over," said John M. Stagnor, 1209 Channon St., Houston, well known railroad man.

"For about three years I couldn't eat meat or eggs or anything heavy and I lived almost entirely on milk and broths and other liquid foods. My kidneys bothered me a good deal and I fell off in weight until I was hardly more than skin and bones."

Taniae is sold in Wichita Falls by Miller Drug Store, in Electra by Tarleton Drug Store, West End Drug Co., Burkburnett, Texas and by all leading druggists.—Adv.

EXPECT BABE AND JUDGE TO MEET IN THE NEAR FUTURE

Yankee Slugger Goes Hunting to Get Up Nerve to Face
Commissioner

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The baseball activities of George Herman Ruth have ceased, in consonance with the burly Babe's promise made to Col. Tillinghast L. Huston in Scranton, Pa. However, the out-base flogger did not trek immediately in the direction of Chicago to face Judge Landis, supreme administrator of the affairs of organized baseball, and explain to the arbiter that he had been sadly misled by the press in his flight to points in New York state and westward. Rather, the Babe grasped the extended hand of Bob Shawkey and fled into the wilds with the red-sleeved pitcher for a few days of hunting and reflection. In the course of his communion with the quiet, and the coming leave of the champion slugger hopes to work his nerve up to the point of going to the Windy city and telling the silver-tatched commissioner that he has made a grievous blunder and that he is sorry for it and prepared to take his punishment.

Ruth's capitulation appears to be chiefly due to the fact that Colonel Huston was able to make it clear in the course of the conference before the game at Scranton on Friday that the burden, if not the odium, of the slugger's apparent defiance of the constituted authorities would fall upon two genuine friends of the Babe—two persons who have done him lots of good and no harm whatever—namely, Colonel Rupert and Colonel Huston. This arrangement seemed to appeal to Ruth instantly and much more forcibly than all previous warnings that he himself would be the ultimate sufferer.

It is the hope and belief of the two colonels, owners of the Yankees, that the commissioner of organized baseball will feel justified in taking into consideration in his decree of punishment for the Babe and his comrades the fact that the Babe, who will come into the reservation with him, the fact that they were misled by the press, and that they are ready to acknowledge their mistake and to apologize for it. The local magnates think, too, that Judge Landis will consider the injustice, acknowledged by the baseball world in general, which the rule forbidding men participating in the world's series from turning their leisure into coin, worked in the case of the famous slugger. Everything considered, the owners of the Yankees are hopeful that Ruth's speedy submission and the mitigating circumstances will cause the commissioner to forego the punishment which he is satisfied with the imposition of such a penalty as will allow the Babe to be seen in action from the very start of the season next year.

Both the colonels denied that any financial proffer on their part had been made to Ruth in the effort to induce him to abandon his project. The only arguments used, except that mentioned above, were those indicating the necessity of conforming to the regulations of the league where it appeared to operate, an injustice, and that a man who had made a mistake and acknowledged it was more worthy of respect than if he persisted in it.

It is expected that in the near future the big Babe and his erring pals will submit to the commissioner and make their atonement in person at the offices of Judge Landis.

A new form of life preserver, worn about the neck, is said to make sinking impossible. New instrument for detecting fire damp, or methane, in mines is being tested in England. The Bible is, on an average, translated into ten new languages every year.

England in the past has turned out some great fighters, but today fistic duels over there are scarce. They have a deuce of a time developing anybody and when they do get him to coming along nicely, some second-rater comes along and hits him with everything but the water bucket. The writer had occasion to witness several battles at the National Sporting club in London and asked club officials why explained this mediocrity of resin shufflers.

"It's due to England's losing so many men in the war," they told me "the world will have to wait for probably a whole generation before England can bring out anybody with real championship class."

But, look out when they do—there will be a new school, new methods and different thinking. For none of the old masters are there to coach and inspire that future. They will develop an initiative and an original style that has never been known to the British ring.

While Britain was busy with the war, the few matches that were fought were just for the sake of the game. These melees were more exhibition goes than anything else. There were no large stakes involved and it was hardly worth the pugilist's time to fool with them. So the game gradually wilted away, and all the future champions of the Isles went with it.

Sing a song of sennec, pocket full of rye
Four and twenty fightin' guys bakin' in a pie,
When the pie was opened, the fightin' began to sing,
Y'cant fight here in Wichita, so get out with the thing.

Landis may walk Babe Ruth.
WHD game is plentiful according to football scores.

He used to hold a pennant.
As he cheered to beat the band;
And then he cheered the other team—
A fly's in his hand.

WOMEN'S HOCKEY TEAM IN U. S. SEEKING TITLE

Left, Miss M. E. Lidderdale, star of the English Women's Hockey team, in action, and Mrs. M. E. Clay, goal tender, blocking the ball.

By ROY GROVE.
"You jolly well know we can ply the bloomin' gayhime," says Miss M. E. Lidderdale, speediest star of the English women's hockey team, in action, and Mrs. M. E. Clay, goal tender, blocking the ball.

There are thirteen of them in number. The team of eleven members, an official ump from the English hockey club, and the team captain, Miss C. J. Gaskell.

Strange to say, Miss Gaskell never gets into the game—that is into the play—because it isn't the custom of the Isles. She pulls a John McGraw and directs the movement of the ball from the pine boards on the side lines. She led the team that went to Australia and came back with all the honors that were possible to grab in this particular branch of sport.

Should the Brits win the majority of their games here, they will be entitled to the monicker of "old champions, in view of the fact that they have defeated all the opponents of the British Empire.

Left Earful.
The soccer ball came through the air.
At first he said, "I'll duck it."
And then he tried to kick the thing—
And almost kicked the bucket.

Right Earful.
There is a guy in our town
Who every day is cued.
He is so ticklish he can't hold
The football to his side.

THE REAL NEED
The Akron (O.) boxing commissioner is going to ask the Ohio legislature to prohibit use of the "rabbit punch" in the ring. This punch, which is one of Champion Dempsey's favorites, is landed on the back of the neck while the opponent's head is bent forward. Experts say the blow is dangerous because it dislocates vertebrae of the spine, and is likely to lead to permanent crippling.

All good sportsmen will endorse a move to eliminate such a danger. But the crying need of the ring game today is not so much to prevent the fighters from being whipped as it is to prevent the crippling of the game itself by the barbarous methods some promoters and boxers have been using.

TRIS, FISHING, BANS CUSSING

Fred Simpson and Tris Speaker, enacting, Simpson is a noted Indian weatherman runner and Tris's favorite guide. Right, Tris and one of the muscunago he caught.

By MORRIS ACKERMAN,
Editor of Ackerman's Sporting Guide.
When Tris Speaker, manager of the Cleveland Indians, goes on a fishing trip, what does he talk about? Possibilities for a next year's pennant? Fish? All wrong! He doesn't talk. Like the real sportsman he is, Tris Speaker fishes in silence.

I've just returned from the annual post-baseball season fishing pilgrimage to Iyrii Wide Island in Rice Lake, Ontario, with Speaker, Leslie Numamaker of the Indians and some others.
Nunie this year took the honors for the biggest fish, for he landed a 21-pound muscunago. But Speaker, as usual, provided the real fun and entertainment.

Klan Chief.
It was Tris who organized the Rice Lake Klan, the purpose of which primarily was to stop cussing at the table. Tris appointed himself King Kluge and slapped a two-bit fine on offenders for each offense. He named Clay Folger, head of the Cleveland parks police squad, as Grand Goblin and made it Clay's job to collect the cash.

An inventory of Folger's couple of days afterward revealed an astonishing amount of assets, but later the fellows learned to hold their tongues until after they had eaten and then to stand just outside the mess-room door and have their say at the unfortunates who were still eating.

Speaker is one of the best cooks I ever have run across on an outing and can slap together as tasty a meal as a sportsman could desire. But he draws the line at washing dishes.

On every previous trip Spoke has done all the skilful stinging, but this year we had a Canadian cook. Speaker caught his first musky three years ago. He found the sport so entrancing that every year since, as soon as he can shake the cares of baseball off his shoulders, he has headed for the Canadian lakes.

The world series was on while we were casting our lures, but the only time Spoke mentioned baseball during the whole trip was in the evening when someone in town would call us up to give us the score of that day's game. And, about the only interest Tris would take in the game then was to ask who had pitched. Spoke's wise. When the baseball season is done, Spoke shakes it off his shoulders until springtime worries arrive. That's what keeps him fresh.

Speaker this year again was guest of honor at the annual pow-wow of the Hiawatha Indians, who have elected him chief of the tribe, as a mark of their regard for his out-of-door activities. He's an expert hunter and trap-shooter as well as a fisherman.

NEW MID SCHOOL DISTRICT
MEETS AN EMERGENCY
HASKELL, TEXAS, Oct. 26.—There is remarkable interest in the schools all over Haskell county. There are more school buildings planned and under construction than at any time in the history of the county. Attention is called to a little district known as New Mid, twelve miles northwest of Haskell. The building had become old and dilapidated and the property valuations were so low that they could not build a new building and maintain their school term. But a move was set on foot to build a modern two-room building in its place and the school fund left intact for each child in the district to get a full term of school.

Scientists have advocated the breeding of bats to kill off malaria-carrying mosquitos.

Soundness of Physique
Makes for Character
THE physically sound man is usually also a man of good moral fibre and well balanced mentality. The reason is easy to find. It is but a natural result of enjoyment of good health. Being normal in every way his conception of life is true—not false—consequently he thinks right, acts right and lives right.

For good health gets a bright aspect upon life it supplies a wholesome atmosphere to everyday surroundings. It enables the greater and better things of life to be enjoyed, and makes things seem their respective proportions and natural importance. It keeps the side-up instead of turning them topsy-turvy.

On the other hand, an unhealthy condition of the system breeds discontent, discontent breeds worry, worry breeds depression, depression breeds nervousness, nervousness breeds a general state of uneasiness and a general state of nervousness.

PRELIMINARY TO THE CONVENTION OF LEGION

Discusses the Cases of Eugene V. Debs and Bergdoll the Noted Draft Evader

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 25.—More drastic legislation governing the transmission of anarchistic and radical literature through the mails was recommended by the American Legion here today through the report of the commission's director, Alvin M. Owsley of Dunton, Texas. The commission, which opened its annual meeting this morning after hearing the director's report began consideration of a large number of recommendations to be submitted to the national convention of the legion here next week.

The director's report recommends the passage of a law which would prohibit the sending through the mails of any printed, written, photographic or pictorial matter that has an un-American tendency and also an insurance clause prohibiting the sale of such matter.

Members of the commission said, however, that nothing in the recommendation should be construed as aimed at the freedom of speech or the freedom of the press.

"There is too great a loosening now in the carriage through the mails of radical anarchistic and otherwise un-American publications," said Director Owsley, formerly assistant attorney general of Texas.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—Leaders of the six railroad unions which have called strike for Oct. 29, were brought face to face with railroad executives today by the railroad labor board for a public hearing in an effort to achieve permanent settlement of the disputes leading to the threatened national tie-up of transportation next Sunday.

At the same time a committee of the Association of Railway Executives reiterated its intention of applying for further reductions in wages in order that they "might further reduce rates."

DOINGS OF THE DUFFS

CLEVELAND, Oct. 25.—Warren R. The reason for the continued good health of some children is simple enough

Especially when you know the facts, some of which are given here

EVERY mother is proud of a healthy, strong youngster that radiates buoyant life and energy. She has reason to be proud, because the child's good health proves her wisdom in the selection of the food she gives her boy or girl.

All mothers should know that growing children require a balanced diet, a diet containing the food elements needed for building and energizing the little body.

Grape-Nuts, the rich, nourishing food made from whole wheat flour and malted barley, served with milk or cream, contains the materials the child needs for its best growth and development.

Grape-Nuts helps make sound teeth, strong nerves and pure red blood, and for the palate there is nothing more wholesome or delicious.

Go to your grocer today and get a package of strength-giving Grape-Nuts. Let the children have all they want, with milk, cream or stewed fruit, or made into an appetizing pudding. Grape-Nuts is a food that will be relished by every member of the family.

Whatever You Do Don't Neglect Your Eyes, Says Dr. Lewis, Who Tells How to Strengthen Eyesight 50 Per Cent in One Week's Time in Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home. Philadelphia, Pa.—Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weakness? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. He says neglect causes more eye troubles and poor sight than any other one thing. Many whose eyes were failing say they had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time. NOTE: Another prominent physician to whom the above article was submitted said, "Bon-Opto is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them." The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good drug store, and is one of the very few preparations sold in this city by all leading druggists, including the Palace Drug Store.—Adv.
