ARE READY TO OBSERVE ANGLO-IRISH TREATY

Believe Collins-DeValera Part Will Be Abandoned After the Election.

The Daily Mail's political correspondent says British government officials believe Griffith and Michael Collins have agreed to observe the full terms of the Anglo-Irish treaty, even though this means throwing down the gauntlet to the Dublin republicans.

The Westminster-Gazette, referring to the claim advanced by the general headquarters of the Irish republicans that only part of one street in Petticoat is in Ulster and the remainder in county Donegal, says that if the British government were to accept the terms of the Anglo-Irish treaty, Griffith and Collins will be able to claim that the British and not the Irish are violating the treaty.

FREDERICK, OKLA., June 6.—All of southwestern Oklahoma had smiled on the Wichita Falls voyagers this morning, but it remained for Frederick to smile the sweetest. This Oklahoma community chose a truck load of its most valuable products—wheat and children—and sent them to greet the travelers and the welcome that was extended here fairly took the Texans off their feet.

Ciad in white and riding in a truck that was decorated with wreaths and heads of wheat, a score of little girls met the Wichita Falls parade at the corner of the Main street and with appropriate songs told the visitors how welcome they were. After such a reception it was hardly necessary for Mayor Z. E. Rogers to say anything but he added emphasis to the welcome in a brief speech in which he expressed the hope that the trip, when they got home, would make the Katy officials give Frederick a new depot. Mayor Rogers said that the Wichita Falls people rather have her wheat than Wichita county's oil, and judging from the miles and miles of wheat fields that passed this morning, it would be no bad guess.

G. O. McDonald voiced the thanks of the Wichitans and said that Frederick had a better right than any place in Oklahoma to be a clean and progressive community because many of the citizens were originally from Texas. A brief talk by D. M. Bostell, president of the chamber of commerce closed the welcoming program and all repaired to an adjacent building where ladies of a church organization served a light lunch.

The Wichita Falls Grandfield was given an impromptu feature when two-year-old Mildred Fern Hardin, mounted on the hood of her father's truck, escorted the Wichita Falls delegation to the accompaniment of the band music.

GRANDFIELD, OKLA., June 6.—In spite of sprinkling rain, Grandfield and friends were in force to greet the Wichita Falls excursion and the reception at both places was of a nature that caused the trip to be a long and happy one. The trip was a success in every respect and the reception at both places was of a nature that caused the trip to be a long and happy one.

DAY TESTIFIES AT HEARING BY ARMY BOARD OF INQUIRY

TELLS STORY OF SLAYING OF LIEUTENANT COLONEL PAUL BECK.

Several More Witnesses to Be Examined According to Statement.

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 6.—Jean P. Day, prominent Oklahoma City oil man and attorney, today went before a special army board of inquiry and told the story of the slaying of Lieut. Col. Paul Ward Beck, commanding officer of Post Field, Oklahoma, aviation station, whom they killed in the "Bee" home early on the morning of April 4.

All proceedings in the investigation are being kept secret and the only indication as to how long the hearing might continue was given today in a statement by a member of the board who said that several more witnesses were to be interrogated after Day's testimony had been taken. The board was appointed by special order of Secretary of War Weeks to make a more complete report of the case than that submitted by the court-martial by an army board from Fort Sill, Okla., which sat during a coroner's inquiry into Beck's death here shortly after the tragedy.

The coroner's jury found that Day had killed Beck and recommended that he be punished by a court-martial. A new angle was injected into the case during the examination of Day this morning when it was learned that Day's attorney introduced several letters which were alleged to have been received by Beck from fifteen women. The action came when Day's attorney introduced several letters which were alleged to have been received by Beck from fifteen women.

FILES PETITION TO RUN FOR CONGRESS STATE AT LARGE

WACO, TEXAS, June 6.—E. W. Cole of Austin has filed his application with the state democratic executive committee for a place on the ticket for the July primaries, for congressman at large. He declares that Texas, based on the 1920 census, is entitled to one more representative in congress, regardless of the fact that the new apportionment has not been made by congress, and that such neglect of congress should not and could not work to deprive Texas or any other state from having numerical representation in congress guaranteed under the constitution.

The boy had been riding on a car of pipe and was standing near the end of the car when he was seen to fall. He fell between the cars and his body was badly mangled. The sheriff at Waurika said the boy was apparently about 17 years of age, weighed about 125 pounds, height about five feet seven inches, light complexion with light hair worn rather long and reached back from the forehead. His eyebrows were almost black and his eyes of a light brown color. He wore blue overalls over gray trousers with a light pin stripe. He had on a rather heavy cap with fur-lined earflaps. His coat was of dark material. The sheriff said that he understood the man named Morrison and a man named Shaw were on their way to Waurika from Wichita Falls to view the body.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—There is renewed activity about the bonus bill, but there isn't any sign that its real status has changed. Persons who are a little cynical about all legislation that comes up at the moment when congressmen are before their constituents for renomination and re-election are likely to assume that the bonus bill is now a situation where it is affected more by politics than by considerations of merit or conviction.

So far the application of Harry Warner, editor of the Paris News, as a candidate for governor, has not been received by Secretary J. W. Hale of the democratic executive committee. ## The Victrola is the standard of musical value

Victrola No. 200 $160 Mahogany or walnut

When purchasing a sound-reproducing instrument consider these important facts:

- 1 Musical performance is the first consideration—and it is evident that the greatest artists would not make records for the Victrola if it did not present their interpretations true to life itself.
- 2 Nowhere else can you find such a collection of music as contained in the Victor Record Catalog—and the Victrola is the one instrument specially made to play Victor Records.
- 3 The Victrola embodies all the worth-while basic and fundamental improvements of the past quarter-century. There isn't a material nor an idea nor a process that enters into talking-machine construction which has not been put to the test in the Victor experimental and research laboratories.

CULBERTSON RECORD IS FLAWLESS SAYS HON. BARRY MILLER

Speaker points to senator's record in university club address.

HAS GREAT INFLUENCE IN UNITED STATES SENATE

Declares reports concerning candidate's physical condition greatly exaggerated.

"Senator Charles A. Culbertson may not be as young as he is praised to be and I know that he is no prize fighter, but I also know that he would not ask the people of Texas to be allowed to serve them another term in the United States if he thought for one second that he was physically unfit and did not possess the same mental ability, keen intellect and patriotic heart with which he has served them for the past 33 years in public life," declared Judge Barry Miller of Dallas at the University club luncheon Tuesday noon.

"You may wonder why I speak of his physical ability, but I place special emphasis on that because it is the only reason the law has pointed out by his opponents why he should not serve another term."

"His platform is not one of promises, but of past performance. Now his record of 33 years in public service is absolutely unimpeachable. In that space of time nobody has ever questioned his integrity, his efficiency. His record is flawless. Hence, he has good reason for seeking another term."

"There are those who may believe that sentiment should not be mixed with politics, but they are on the wrong track. Sentiment dominates everything in life and it would much prefer that my actions be judged by sentiment than by the judgment of the man I believe in."

"When studying law I remember an author who declared there were three kinds of liars—liars, damn liars and expert witnesses. I wish to add another class which has them all blended. It is the campaign liar—the sort which goes about bearing such tales as I have heard about Senator Culbertson especially the one which he is supposed to be going about in a wheel chair. Such an assertion is a lie of the unskilled kind."

"But looking at the case from a selfish viewpoint, there isn't a man in the United States senate today who has more influence or who can do more for Texas than Senator Culbertson. There is no place where service counts as much as in the senate and a newcomer has little chance. It isn't the man who makes the greatest speeches on the floor who sways that body. It is the man in the committee room. Senator Culbertson has been more faithful in attendance in recent years than any other member. The other senators take delight in giving him any injury they can. He is a member of practically every important committee. He is the senior senator of the democratic party and is out-ranked by only two of the republican party."

"It is a matter of record that he did more in 18 days for Corpus Christi in its battle for a port than was done by others in 10 years. An example of his influence was brought out recently when the republican party, upon the death of a consul, defeated the bill whereby the widow of a consul had been given a year's salary at his death. Senator Culbertson was appointed by said consul's widow and in less than 24 hours had the bill back in the house and had it passed."

"What the people of Texas want in the senate is a brain, not a pugilist. He still has the brain and is better fitted today for the office than any candidate. His health was broken when he was recalled by President Wilson to lead the democratic senators. He was on his feet in the senate house during the terrific heat came back in the middle of the summer and was instrumental in the redemption of the promises made by the democratic party."

The musical program during the luncheon was furnished by Charles A. Miller, vocalist, accompanied by Prof. Frank Lopez.

Luther Hoffman, Joseph B. Hacht and B. D. Sartin were appointed by President Wilson to serve on the entertainment committee the remainder of the month and it was also decided to hold next week's meeting in the parish house of the Episcopal church where luncheon will be served by the ladies of the church.

CALOMEL USERS TAKE AWFUL RISK

Very Next Dose of Calomel Users May Start Terrible Suffering.

The next dose of calomel you take may sicken you. It may shock your liver or start bone disease. Calomel is dangerous. It is mercury, quicksilver. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and straining you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your drugist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic. A few cents which is a harmless, reliable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than any calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

Don't take calomel! It can't be trusted any more than a leopard or a wild-cat. Take Dodson's Liver Tonic which straightens you right up and makes you feel fine. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not sicken—adv.

OKLAHOMA COURT JUDGMENT IS HELD VOID BY JUDGE

Judge P. A. Martin held Tuesday morning that a judgment rendered in a divorce suit by a court in Oklahoma was void and therefore ordered that William Reeves pay to his divorced wife $15,000 and $350 monthly alimony.

Dora Reeves was granted a divorce from William Reeves and the divorce decree carried with the judgment referred to. She brought action in the 8th district court to collect the judgment. He filed a cross action alleging that the divorce decree was invalid, inasmuch that she was not a resident of Oklahoma for a year at the time the decree was granted.

Testimony was introduced to show that Reeves moved from Oklahoma to this city, but that his wife remained there and that thereafter she made a trip or two to California and other states and within a few days less than a year after her return to Oklahoma she was granted the divorce.

It was also shown by the testimony that the husband had remarried a short time after the divorce decree was granted.

I was employed at Wichita Falls by the Fort Worth and Denver City railway in clerical positions twelve years and have been employed by McFall Brothers in Wichita Falls for the past three years as cashier and service manager, which experience I believe places me in a position to know what the public will expect of a man in the office of county clerk, and if elected I will endeavor to handle same in an efficient manner.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

As a troubled fountain, and a corrupt spring, so is a righteous man that gliveth way before the wicked.—Proverbs 25:26.

The world is thirsting not for theories, but for great good works of faith; for practical solutions of the spiritual difficulties of society; for the harmony of life and light; and wherever these appear, the world will now accept them as gladly bearing the manifest signature of God.—J. H. Thom.

FERGUSON CALLS LIGHT WINES AND BEER TO HIS AID

James E. Ferguson, former governor of Texas, has filed with the secretary of the democratic state committee, a petition asking it to place on the ticket to be voted on July 25 an amendment permitting the sale of light beer and wine.

The proposition which the signers ask to have submitted is as follows:

"For the passage of such laws, and the repeal of such laws, as will permit the manufacture and sale of wine containing not more than 10 per cent of alcohol and permitting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors for medicinal purposes on the simple prescription of a duly licensed physician, without useless red tape or further requirement, said beer, wine and liquor to be sold in unbroken packages, but not to be consumed or drunk in a saloon or on premises, where sold, with severe penalties for violations of said laws."

It is hardly clear just how the democratic party in Texas can initiate the submission of an amendment to the federal constitution. It appears that if Mr. Ferguson really hoped to accomplish the submission of such an amendment, he would have directed his petition to the congress of the United States.

Congress alone has the authority to submit such an amendment. It looks from this distance that Mr. Ferguson's petition is more of a ruse to capture some wet votes rather than a sincere effort to bring about an amendment to the constitution.

And it must be admitted that Mr. Ferguson has put himself in a position to do this whether the committee permits the petition to be submitted or not. If the committee refuses to submit the petition, as they will probably do, Mr. Ferguson will have campaign thunder that will catch the votes of the element who still hope to see liquor restored, and if it goes on the ballot he will advocate light wines and beer from one end of the state to the other.

HAVE YOU CHANGED?

You meet an old friend—possibly on a trip back to the old home town—and find that he has "changed" tremendously.

Time has gotten in its work. His face has changed strikingly, though you still might be able to pick him out in a strange crowd.

But the change that impresses you most is in his manner, his temperament, his character, his philosophy.

Thus the town drunkard may have become pious. The man who is the life of the party now is quiet and reflective. The bright school boy has matured into a mediocrity. The dunces have evolved into success.

How do you explain all this? Some philosopher has said that nothing is eternal except change.

In philosophy, you were taught that the human skin changes entirely every seven years—that a new skin is formed in that period, as old cells die and are replaced by new ones.

There is an even more startling change in the real being, the inner self—character, temperament, spiritual nature and philosophy or intellect.

You go back to former friends, pastimes and environments—and are disillusioned. The old-time glamour is gone. You ponder, "Things that used to appeal to me bore me now."

If you follow up this line of reasoning, you come to the rather uncanny realization that you are as entirely different being from what you were years ago.

Fortunate for us, that we have this constant change. It is what enables good to overcome evil. It leads failure into success. It permits us to develop our strength to overcome obstacles.

The possibilities of the human being are unlimited. The inner self is as plastic as putty, forever changing.

But there is no such thing as standing still. Every instant, we are either progressing or deteriorating—physically, mentally and spiritually.

Human nature does change.

WICHITANS VISITING THEIR NEIGHBORS

Wichita Falls trade trippers who left Tuesday morning on a two days tour are carrying a message of good will to the people of the sections they visit.

Wichita Falls business men are taking advantage of this trip to meet face to face the people of the communities with whom they do business and good to certain to come from it. When a merchant from some town in Wichita Falls territory, comes to Wichita Falls to buy a bill of goods a helpful personal contact is established for both of them.

If there is anything better than this it is the Wichita Falls man going to that town and meeting his citizens at home. That is what our trade trippers are doing.

This is really the first trip Wichita Falls business men have taken primarily for the interest of the whole state and jobbing business of their city. It is in the wholesale and jobbing line that Wichita Falls probably has its greatest field for service to the territory being visited on this trip and on the trips that are planned this year. These lines in no way conflict with interests in the communities to be visited. Wichita Falls is the logical center of supply for this territory in many lines. Wichitans have gone out to tell the people about it and to become better acquainted with their neighbors.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

THE KEEN EDGE. I find that my razor has to be stropped every morning before use. Else its edge is not keen for happy service.

And I find that my mind, as well, has to be stropped each day—not against itself, but against some other matter—a book, a conversation, a walk, a picture, or some of the myriad formations of nature that meet all about us.

If you watch the work of some one who has entered upon much experience, you will see smoothness of operation and sureness of action. The keen edge asserts itself over and over again.

Nothing is truer than that the prizes in this world go to the alert.

Elbert Hubbard had the correct slant when he wrote: "The world bestows its prizes, both in money and honors, for but one thing. And that is initiative. What is initiative? I'll tell you: It is doing the right thing without being told. But next to doing the thing without being told is to do it when you are told once."

Initiative keeps every faculty in one's make-up. But to get and hold initiative you must carry light equipment—that is, you must not be envious of the delights and successes of others, you must not feel that the world owes you a living and that luck in this world is a respecter of persons. You must center your entire being upon but one object—the thing at hand. And be happy while you are at it—believing in your heart that great things are sure to come your way.

The keen minded lawyer has been schooled in losing cases quite as thoroughly as in winning them. Robert Burns, through all his reverses, still sang of poverty "with a light, defiant note," as Stevenson has so well put it. Dr. Samuel Johnson once threw away a pair of shoes that were left on his front doorstep for him. He pride would not accept charity. Rather did he prefer to let poverty gnaw into his very vitals. And Victor Hugo wrote most of his greatest books under the shadow of want and discouragement.

JUST FOLKS

WE'RE GETTING ON. Some of them point it out to me—his and shame where it shouldn't be. Hurt and pain on a little shock. Strong men profiting from the weak. Base men driving their bargains cold. Struggling only to have and hold. And they say: "You're fed and you sleep at night. And you tell yourself that the world's all right."

It's hard to answer the cynic's sneer, because it is true there is sin down here. It's true some suffer and some go wrong. And the weak must bow to the brutal strong. And it's also plain and it's also true. There is plenty of work for the brave to do. But some of the wrongs men bore have gone. And the signs are clear that we're getting on.

God takes time when He shapes a man. And ages are only a moment's span. And thousands live, as they think, in vain. Suffering poverty, grief and pain. Yet surer and surer along the way. We see the dawn of a better day. And a kindlier world to dwell upon. For the signs are clear that we're getting on.

Not by one man nor a single age. Can we change the record of history's page; Not by one day nor a single year. Can we change the current of life down here. There are sin and shame for us all to view. And selfish deeds which the people do. But the wrongs are being righted, one by one. And slowly, but surely, we're getting on.

STIPES. What was the hottest day you ever experienced? You might be interested to compare it with the temperature at Greenland Beach in Death Valley, California, which the weather bureau announces is the hottest place in the United States and probably on earth.

It is a cold summer when the thermometer does not hover around 115 degrees in the shade. And the temperature got nine degrees hotter than that on the record day, July 18, 1913.

You have, since you were a child, been hearing about "hell on earth." The weather bureau seems to have found it in Death Valley.

WET? If rained on a farm, you know that crops require at least 10 to 20 inches of rainfall a year, without irrigation aid.

At Greenland Beach, in Death Valley, rainfall averages less than two inches a year. The only nearby water is from springs. It comes up from a depth of 100 to 200 feet.

Despite these handicaps, irrigation is carried on and four crops of alfalfa a year are raised on the 33 acres of Greenland Beach.

A philosopher would see, in this demonstration of man's ability to overcome any obstacles. The real test of a man's character is what he does when he wants to live in such a place, especially doing farm work.

RANGER. Ever come close to getting killed by a train. Claim agents, checking up the 230 fatalities in railroad passenger travel during 1921, find that the country was killing one or off moving and standing-still trains.

Thirteen fell from moving trains, 12 to death in coach seats. One was under guard and jumped to escape.

Over 47 were struck by the train as they crossed the tracks.

Carelessness is the cause of at least half of all accidents. If curious to check up Conan Doyle's weird pictures of the Heverster, take chances.

GERMANY. The Remington Typewriter company, seats as the general notion that Germany is a vast beehive of industry running full-blast night and day.

LITTLE BENNY'S NOTE BOOK

By THE PAPA.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown want to see you and the kids, and they're talking about things in general, such as how much different things cost, and how they get the way. I made some remarkable items from the other side from a wonderful recipe, so in case you people care to indulge I'll be glad to supply the way market.

My William you don't mean to say you'd offer Mr. and Mrs. Brown any of that terrible stuff ma said, and pop said, Well, I admit it wasn't good, but I'm about as good as tried it, but it had several days to age since then, and that probably all it needed, a little age.

Well, it's says old, if you think that old stuff to be interesting to public, ma said, and Mrs. Brown said, Realy Mr. Potts, don't trouble on our account.

It's no trouble at all, I assure you, on the contrary, I'm really anxious to have your opinion, pop said. And he went down stairs and came back with a bottle of his wine and pop said, ma saying, My goodness, it's changed color, it's much darker than it was, it is supposed to do that.

Wat, certainly, pop said, looking at it as if he wasn't sure. And he pored some out in a glass and everybody looked at everybody as if they did not want to be the first to taste it, and then they all tasted it together, Mrs. Brown twisting her mouth up and her nose-down and after they went home I took a taste and I don't blame them.

Very nice, I'm sure, of course I'm no judge. And pop put his glass down and he said, I'll take a taste and I'll take another taste and the Browns kept looking as if they were sorry they took their first taste, which after they went home I took a taste and I don't blame them.

SCENES AT ATHLETIC PARK DURING SATURDAY'S FIRE

Sport Shots

Beaumont and Rain
As usual, the Exporters bring rain.

Two Games Scheduled
The league leaders gained a half game Monday by virtue of their victory over the Crabs. It must have been a snappy affair. The arbiters chased four to the showers and wound up by forfeiting the game. The Exporters are now leading the Spudsters by two full games. The Panthers are a half a game ahead of the Shamlers.

Cats Alone-Lend Spudsters
The only club in the league which has had the edge on the Spudsters thus far this season is Fort Worth. The Cats have taken four out of six from the Shamlers. The Crabs, Dr. E. P. Writton and L. O. Landon were chosen vice-presidents. W. E. McGinnis secretary, E. V. Leman assistant secretary and C. E. McCutchen treasurer. The following members were chosen to serve on the board of directors: J. L. Nabbs, Fred Woolsey, E. P. Bass, A. D. Montgomery, E. G. Hill, Fred Weeks, Mrs. R. C. Thurston, W. I. Cameron, Dr. F. E. Thornburgh, Joe Henson, Mr. A. Hearn of Burk Burnett, Doc Prince of Electra.

Let's Have a Walk.
The moguls could do worse than fix the approach to the park while they're about it. There isn't a park in the country that is worse to get to after a rain.

Little Hope.
There probably won't be a leaner day in baseball this season than Monday. Only one major league contest and two Texas league. The statisticians had it easy for once.

They All Get It.
Unless Joe, Dale, takes a sudden turn for the better, some other Texas league hurler will wear the crown next September. "Bugs" is having one of the worst seasons of his career this year and already has lost five games. He lost only eight in 1920 and nine last year.

Kennel Club.
The organization of the Wichita Falls Kennel club Monday night served again to put Wichita Falls in the limelight in the canine world. The showing of the local dogs in the Oil Belt field trials gave the city unlooked for publicity and much more is expected from the Kennel club. It is a worth while organization and one from which many benefits should be derived. The proposed bench show to be held in connection with the Texas-Oklahoma fair will draw dog fanciers from all over Texas and southern Oklahoma and if present plans are carried out the show will be second to none ever held in Texas.

In its 55 square miles, Hawaii has three volcanoes and a lake of hot lava.
Cost of carrying goods from London to Birmingham in 1865 was about $30 a ton.

The two upper photos give an idea of what was left of the Rotary knot-hole stand about 15 minutes after the fire was discovered. The stand was formerly at the left of the main grandstand and there were several feet of open space between the two, but despite the fact that the fire started in the center of the main stand it spread so rapidly that the youngsters' home was nothing but a mass of embers in a few moments.

The picture at the upper right, taken from the left of the knot-hole stand, shows in the background how little remained of the grandstand.

The longer right shows a couple of devastated jitney cabs, while the owner of the Haynes in the lower left probably considers himself lucky that he escaped with as much of his car as he did. Outside of some new plastering, a couple of coats of paint, a new windshield and a couple of tires, etc., he wasn't put to much (?) expense.

All the debris shown in the upper pictures has been cleared away now.

HOW TO PLAY BALL

Schalk, Wonder Catcher of White Sox, Gives Some Tips

RAY SCHALK

By RAY SCHALK
Wonder Catcher, Chicago White Sox
Personally I think catchers have a style all their own.
This position cannot be compared to any other on the diamond. The catcher in baseball has a thousand and one things he must do.

The catcher in a sense is the general. He has the field in front of him. A quick glance without even a return of the head, as to how his players are stationed, may often save a ball game.

Often by moving some player a little to the right or left, after talking into consideration the batter and the style that has been signalled for, makes all the difference in the world.

The placing of the fielders, and the style ball the catcher calls for, large depends on who the batter is in the world.

The expression, "who the batter may be," is used day in and day out in baseball. It takes in a lot of territory.

Batters are supposed to have certain weaknesses on certain styles of pitching. Likewise they often are known to murder other styles of twirling.

Once gaining a knowledge of such conditions, it is up to the catcher to work with the pitcher to their best possible advantage.

BAN JOHNSON IS DILUTING JUSTICE

Realizes That Baseball Stars Have Something in Common With Those of Opera.

NEW YORK, June 6.—Ban Johnson is diluting his justice with mercy these days. Take the case of Babe Ruth. Get plenty of practice handling bunts around the home plate or going after fly balls hit straight up in the air. A great many catchers overlook this fact.

But this year Ban writes a Valentine greeting in blank verse and orders Ruth to read it.

This was about the cruelest punishment meted out thus far this season by the head of the American league, who formerly was known as a martinet, a czar, and names not so polite.

The Ruth sentence indicates that Ban has come to realize at last that baseball stars have something in common with those of the opera. They are subject to temperamental fits. Probably ten years hence a baseball wonder who gets front page space for running amuck like Babe would have sentenced Babe to sell programs or shuck new mown peanuts for the duration of the season.

But this year Ban writes a Valentine greeting in blank verse and orders Ruth to read it.

GIANTS TO UNFURL CHAMPIONSHIP FLAG

Ceremony Before World's Champions Take First Home Stand Against Westerners.

NEW YORK, June 6.—The Giants were ready to unfurl their 1921 National league championship banner today at the Polo Grounds as a prelude to opening their first home stand of the season against western rivals, the Chicago Cubs forming the first line of the invasion. The world's series emblem, incidentally, will be floated to the breeze next Saturday when the Reds open a series on "George Burns" day, in honor of the ex-Giant now with the Moran men.

While the western attack on eastern strongholds of the National league was slated to get fully underway, seaboard contenders in the junior circuit were at alien haunts in the other wing of the wheel for the first time.

The Braves lived up to their reputation as troublemakers for the leaders yesterday when Joe Oeschger, aided and abetted by stellar play on the part of his teammates, blanked the slugging Cardinals, 6 to 0, in the only game played in either major league. It was an inauspicious start for the westerners, generally regarded as the Giants' most dangerous rival, and incidentally, the fifth straight they have dropped to the Braves, who took the entire four game series recently at St. Louis. Four errors by the Cardinals helped the Braves—who hit Pfeffer hard until he was relieved in the sixth.

POSTPONEMENT OF EXISTING PAVING CONTRACTS LIKELY

CITY HAS NO FUNDS FOR THE WORK PROPERTY OWNERS ADVISED.

DEPOT FRANCHISE IS PUT ON SECOND READING

Several Property Owners Object to Locating Terminal on Ohio Avenue.

The present state of the city's finances may force postponement of paving projects that are already contracted.

"I don't see how we can go ahead with it," the mayor told Judge J. W. Aklin when the latter brought the matter before the council.

"But the paving is provided for with bond money," retorted Judge Aklin, "and you can't spend that money for anything else."

"Well, it has been done," said Mr. Collier.

"If so, it was illegal," contended Judge Aklin.

ED SMITH REFUSED BAIL BOND AFTER HEARING ON CHARGE

Ed Smith, whose hearing of a criminal assault charge was in progress late Monday afternoon, was remanded to the county jail without bail by Justice of the Peace R. W. Givins.

The prosecutor in the case, according to the testimony of herself and her 15 year old brother, is 14 years of age.

Testimony was adduced from the witnesses that the girl remained away from home after the commission of the alleged offense, refusing to return because she was ashamed and afraid to tell her mother of the happenings.

The girl told the court that she had been given whiskey by the defendant and that the act was done against her will.
