INCUMBENTS WIN POSTS

Voters Okay Two Local Bond Issues

Our Easter storm arrived this year, practically on schedule. We had one cold spell on Thursday, three days prior to Easter, and then another "blow" on Monday after Easter. So you can take whichever one you want to count as the official storm.

Much of our area's fruit crop was harvested in the bud, due to the recent dips below freezing, but there still might be some fruit made locally, if we can steer away from any more cold blasts.

We were very flattered to see the excellent turnout of voters in the local elections last Saturday. With many people gone, or leaving town for the Easter weekend, it was unbelievable that over 450 people took time to vote.

Naturally, we were proud to be one of the winners, but what made us the proudest was seeing our residents taking an interest in their city and school governments like they did.

We were also proud to see the residents give their okay to the two bond issues. Friona continues to respond when a need is shown. We have yet to see our citizens fail to allow their city to progress when the need was there.

The value of a vote was very apparent, especially in our city council race, in which June Rhodes and myself were only four votes apart.

However, neighboring Bovina staged an even closer race in their race for the city council. Three candidates were running for two council seats, just like the local situation.

Roy Allen received 76 votes and Dolph Moten 75 votes to be elected, and the third candidate, Donnie Spring, got 73 votes.

That's about as close as you can get, without having a three-way tie.

Donnie, as most of you will recall, grew up in Friona.

So, those of you who say "my vote doesn't count" will think better of it next time.

The baseball season was supposed to start today, but something new is being experienced—a strike by the major league players.

This is sort of hard for many folks to take. We go along with the fellow who said "If I made the kind of salary the major leaguers did, I wouldn't be worried about a pension plan."

Of course, not all of the players make the three-figure salaries, but all of them make a living wage, especially for only six months.

We are afraid the strike will do more to hurt baseball than the players will ever gain in pension adjustments.

Speaking of baseball, Joe Caragiola says that there are some things that you say to a team or a player that don't always sound complimentary.

—Like, for instance: "Well, you're improving..." after your team lost, 14-0. Then, there is "Even though your team is losing, they can't blame it on you—you just don't play that much." Then there is the one that really hurts: "Wait till next year!" —a remark heard on opening day.

Courage was William Tell's son standing there with the apple on his head—while Dad put on his bifocals.

Las Vegas is divided into two groups of people—the winners and those who are sitting in phone booths saying, "What do you mean 'Am I good for it?'"

Friona voters turned out in near-record numbers, in spite of the Easter weekend, to give their okay to two $50,000 bond issues last Saturday on the annual city election ballot.

Voters also returned incumbent aldermen Gary Brown and Bill Ellis to the City Council, as June Rhodes, the first woman candidate for the board at least in modern times, narrowly missed being elected. Mayor R.L. Fleming, unopposed on the ballot, was re-elected.

The new fire station issue (Proposition 1) passed by approximately a 3-1 margin, getting 306 favorable votes, to 119 opposed.

The $50,000 waterworks issue (Proposition 2) passed by a larger margin of approximately 6-1, with 366 favorable votes to only 60 votes against. In the race for the two council seats, Brown led the voting with 396 votes, Ellis received 236 votes, and Mrs. Rhodes, 232. Four individuals received write-in votes in the council race.

AS TRUSTEES

Barnett, Smiley Named To Board

In an excellent turnout of voters, Wesley Barnett and Ronald Smiley were elected to the Friona School Board in the annual trustee election last Saturday.

Total vote in the school election was 503.

Barnett led the balloting with 321 votes. Ronald Smiley received 248 votes to claim the second seat.

Doyle Elliott was third in the voting with 191 votes, followed by Clarence Monroe, 129, and Edwin Clark, 107.

The five candidates were seeking the two spots on the board which had been filled by Richard Collard and W.D. Buske, neither of whom sought re-election. Holdover members of the school board are Steve Messenger, John Blackburn, Floyd Schueler, David Grimsley and Leroy Johnson.

Yearbooks To Be Distributed

Yearbooks To Be Distributed

The 1972 Chieftain yearbooks are in, and are to be distributed on Friday, April 7, according to Mrs. Dub Cleveland, yearbook sponsor.

Townspersons who purchased yearbooks may pick them up at the high school building. Those who made a deposit will need to bring the balance due on the books when picking them up.

FOR 1972

Chamber Adopts Proposed Budget

A proposed budget for the Friona Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture for 1972 in the amount of $23,000 has been announced by Dale Cary, chamber president.

The budget is about ten percent above that for 1971.

Cary's budget calls for receipts from dues and other income to amount to $18,000, with another $5,000 to come from Maize Days and the annual banquet.

Special project expenses, including Maize Days, the annual banquet and the Christmas Lighting Contest, are estimated at $4,850.

Salary expenses, which are budgeted for both a manager and a secretary, come to $11,400. Other expenses make up the balance of $6,750.

Cary says that one of his top goals is to secure a manager for the Chamber, because a manager can accomplish many things which individual Chamber members and directors cannot.

Cary urges businesses and individuals to pay their dues for 1972 if they have not done so. He also asks that any member with ideas or suggestions for the Chamber to consider either contact him personally, or bring them before the board of directors' meeting, which will be next Tuesday morning at 6:30 a.m. at the Parmer House Restaurant.

FOR POLICE, FIRE

City To Have 24-Hour Dispatcher

The Friona City Council voted to hire a third full-time police dispatcher so as to have a dispatcher on duty at all times, at its regular monthly meeting Monday night.

The action came following a complaint by a city resident who pointed out that the city had no dispatcher on weekends. The need for a 24-hour dispatcher, both for police and fire protection, was discussed at length, after which the motion was passed to add an additional full-time employee. The city presently has two full-time and two part-time dispatchers.

Another item discussed at great length was the need for adoption of new plumbing and electrical ordinances for the city, and for more strict enforcement of the codes. It was recommended that electricians be required to be licensed by the city each year in order to do work here.

Ordinances for plumbing and electrical work are to be presented at the next meeting of the council.

The council passed a resolution declaring the results of the annual city election as official, and passed Ordinance 457 declaring the results of the bond

Local Cancer Society Slates Annual Drive

The Parmer County chapter of the American Cancer Society will hold its local fund drive the week of April 10-15, it was announced this week by Mrs. Kenneth Moore and Mrs. Rene Sneed, co-chairmen.

No local goal has been established. However, since Friona raised over $2,000 for the cancer fund last year, it is hoped that this will be bettered this year, since Bovina and Faswell will hold drives for the first time.

A house-to-house campaign will be held next week. Tony Holterman of Lubbock, area director for the American Cancer Society, will meet with workers the bonds. City Manager A.L. (Jake) Outland told the council that he would apply for matching funds for both the fire station and water works projects, in hopes that additional federal funds may be used.

The council discussed the operation of the swimming pool, and it was agreed to discontinue the tie-in with the Country Club for the coming summer, on a trial basis. The club has paid $4,000 per member per month for a three-month period in recent years.

Purchase of a site for a new water well was discussed. The city manager is currently contacting landowners for a possible site.

The council approved the installation of two new street lights at 1607 and 1615 West 10th Street.

Outland discussed the lack of interest in the proposed paving program for this summer. Five blocks were proposed for paving, but only one landowner has deposited money in escrow for the paving.

Senor Wayne Connally, lieutenant governor candidate, will make a helicopter fly-in at Friona State Bank Thursday at 11 a.m.

Senor Connally, who is the brother of former governor John B. Connally, is to meet with his backers at a coffee at the bank. The residents of Friona are invited to meet Sen. Connally during his visit.

Outland reported that City Attorney Richard Collard had initiated condemnation proceedings on the three parcels of land still needed for right-of-way in the Highway 214 overpass project.

BUILDING TOTALS

March Permits Total $39,300 In Friona

Five building permits were issued by the City of Friona during the month of March, representing proposed construction valued at $39,300, according to official figures released this week by City Manager A.L. Outland.

The permits were for two new residences totalling $36,300, and three alterations amounting to $3,000.

Sales Tax Receipts Off

The quarterly sales tax "dividend" was received by the City of Friona on March 30, representing the quarter ending December 31, 1971.

The check amounted to $10,304.00, which was $1,060 less than that of the previous quarter.

The check was the fifth received by the City of Friona from sales tax proceeds since the tax has been collected locally.

A total of 19,520,300 gallons of water were pumped by city wells during the month of March, an average of 629,687 gallons per day. This is approximately double the previous month's figures. The month's rainfall amounted to only .09 inch, and did little good for vegetation.

Four new water taps were made during the month, to bring the total number of active meters to 1292. Seven new sewer taps were made, bringing the total number of active taps to 1245.

Five fire alarms were reported during the month. All were outside the city limits except one. Greatest loss was recorded at Hi-Plains Feed Yard, where a feed mixing unit was damaged for an estimated $1,000 loss.

Forty-two arrests were reported during the month. Nine were for drunkenness; eight for warrants; two for threats of violence; one each for runaway and armed robbery.

Seven motor vehicle accidents.

Pause and Reflect

By Nelson Lewis

If we were to lift the curtain of time, many strange sights would be manifest.

Of particular interest to those living in the southwestern United States would be the two groups of aboriginal Americans snarling at each other over a lump of crude salt.

Since time began, the possession of salt deposits has been a subject of major conflict.

Up-dating our peek behind the curtain we find Coronado's army returning to ancient Pecos, New Mexico, in 1541. Just south of Muleshoe, Texas, they came upon wide spreading salt lakes.

The briny deposit along the banks was of inferior quality, but the large lumps still submerged were of such a high degree of purity that many pounds were salvaged from the brackish waters and carried back to Pecos.

Years after Coronado, the prairie dwellers from the Panhandle of Texas to the inhabitants of northern Mexico fought for the privilege of mining the precious mineral.

The first to discover a "salina" were able to extract fees from the buffalo hunters whose livelihood depended upon their ability to transport cart loads of meat to feed the enslaved Indians in the Spanish gold and silver mines.

As the curtain rises higher we find our pioneer forefathers extracting a more or less refined product from the salt lakes. Wagon trains and railroads brought an end to battles over salinas but the value of salt in the human diet was not diminished.

The Maker foresaw the need of salt and all over the face of the globe He provided more of it than of any other mineral. Agriculture and science have taken the precious stuff and made it into a commercial commodity.

Four years ago the Prairie Prowler tasted a huge crystal in central Kansas, the product of a gigantic industrial organization.

As we lift the curtain higher, we see the face of a mocking Jester: one who asks a modern riddle!

"What are you going to do with all that salt?"
Our irrigation wells go deeper and deeper as the water table falls.

More and more salt is brought to the surface. In a few years we may find our water so full of minerals as to be unfit for agricultural purposes.

The seven seas seem vastly sufficient to us landlocked Texans.

They are not!

Just for the sake of argument let us assume that the United States used desalinated sea water to supply our national demands of 350 BILLION gallons per day.

Palo Duro Canyon would hold but a very few years "by product" because every gallon of sea water holds almost a quarter pound of salt.

One answer to this problem is to use river water.

But as we pump down our rivers we force sea water farther inland bringing a blight to plants and animals.

Our salvation lies in the ability to combine technology with conservation, otherwise the salt that burdened caravans and caused ancient wars will someday smother our civilization.

Sincerely Yours

By Rev. Albert Lindley

I suppose we are just now getting our appetites whetted for this political year. We have three elections behind us and we are starting in on the big ones—State and National.

I did think that Humphrey missed a real opportunity the other day when on the TV newscast John Lindsey walked up to him and had a few happy words and then walked off. The gist of it all was that Hubert had a bowling ball in his hand at the time and one well aimed strike could have increased his chances somewhat. We shouldn't get excited at that, so much. They will all probably start throwing everything they can find at each other before it's all over. They usually do.

That can say alot about a man, too. Not just what we hear him say he'll do as an elected official but also his treatment of his opponent declares his integrity. We need to really start listening to what they are saying—What they fail to say—and what they do to each other.

I have had two great political campaigns in my past and failed to make the yearned-for status either time.

I honestly think the voters were more aware of my purposes than I was, myself.

The first endeavor into the political ring was my effort to be elected president of my class at school—in the second grade. I also learned that you can't go out and try to bloody the nose of those who vote against you—and if you do try, don't start with the largest guy in the class—I even had my first experience with the real meaning of "Women's Lib," also.

One other effort at wanting to share my "great" leadership abilities with others, came in college. I missed there, too. I know how W. Lee O'Daniel felt about his miss at the Governor. He said if he had received the votes of all of those who told him they voted for him, he could have been elected President of the United States.

I didn't even have the number of votes equal to my friends who put me up to the project—and that included my own.

Well, election years reveal strange things and we will have our share this year.

Some near by towns are still voting on various concerns and we will be heading into the primaries and then the conventions and finally the election of a President.

You know, I don't always agree with the elected official but I will defend my right to cast the vote. (That wasn't my original idea but I sure do like it.)

Then, when that person is elected by the majority, he becomes my representative, whether he gained my vote or not.

That's our system and I appreciate it more and more.

We still have those who try to "win" via the bloody nose route or try to "get back" at those who failed to follow up, like I did in the second grade, but I trust the American public will see them for what they are—like they did in my effort.

And now we have the voice of the younger men and women. I hope that they will use it now that they have it and won't abuse it. I sure hope they don't use their elders as a pattern to follow. . . .

Well, now that I have talked about religion and politics in this article, it probably has lost a great deal of its following.

But let me lose it on a positive note.

Pay attention to the man/woman who asks for your vote. Answer a few questions about that person. Frinstance:

1. About whom is he interested?
2. In what does his faith rest?
3. Is he reasonable?
4. Can you see evidences of integrity? Lack of it?
5. Does he express a belief in God? How much? I know there are other questions but why don't we just begin with these?

I don't think I'll tell you how I lost the college election—you wouldn't believe it. In fact, I probably have a greater list of things "not to do, to be elected" than Wilkie did. . . .

But note!

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Mr. Bill Ellis
Friona Star, Inc.

Dear Bill:

It appears that there is a lack of interest in our community for United Fund.

You may recall that several years ago before United Fund was started, there was a drive for Boy Scouts, a week or two later one for Girl Scouts, then a drive for Red Cross, then Salvation Army was here every week collecting money and several other drives were made. The purpose of United Fund was to eliminate so many drives and combine them all into one. The United Fund went along fine for a number of years, but the last two or three years there have been other agencies creeping in and making their separate drives, and there has just been a lack of interest shown by our citizens on the part of United Fund. Some towns in our area have contributed as much as $6.85 per capita, while our per capita giving this last year was $64.

While you cannot tell any one how to spend their money, it would appear to me that with a little bit of advertising and more publicity toward United Fund might help to create some needed interest. All of the agencies that receive money from United Fund drive are worthwhile organizations, such as Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, etc. Any publicity you might be willing to give the United Fund would be appreciated. I hate to go back to the individual drives.

Sincerely,
Charles Allen

Recent Ruling Smacks Of Permissiveness

The recommendation by the National Commission on Marijuana and Drug Abuse, that private use and possession of marijuana be legalized, is dubious contribution to the public good. It is one more form of permissiveness — another crumbling of the national will to live by the stronger discipline required in a period of global stress. It is one more uncertain and contradictory voice. For while we are being told of the growing strength of the Soviet Union and Communist China, we are advised that only a small percentage of the American users of marijuana suffer from "impaired psychological function."

"The heavy user shows strong psychological dependence on marijuana and often hashish," the commission finds. "Organ injury, especially diminution of pulmonary (lung) function, is possible. Specific behavioral changes are detectable. All of these effects are more apparent with long-term and very long-term heavy use than with short-term heavy use . . ."

"Clear-cut behavioral changes and a greater incidence of associated biological injury occur as duration of use increases. At present, the commission is unaware of any similar pattern in this country."

All we need is time, which would bring the opportunity to more American youths to become dependent on the dried hemp flowers. No, that is not the way to the strength and unity we need to gird the country for the great tests of the future. What the youths need, and ask for, is guidance, not a collapse of the adult will to lead them.

Commissioners Record New High And Low Land Values In County

As usual, the high was set for a right-of-way easement in Precinct 3, or the Farwell precinct. The new low was set by a right-of-way sale on some land in Precinct 1, or the Friona precinct.

The following information, when first brought to my attention, seemed so far out I hesitated to believe it myself, but after checking deed and court records, I find this information to be true.

I wish I could afford to publish all the recordings of these two deals. I do have copies of these two, and will show them to any interested citizen, or I will give you the volume number and page where this information is recorded at the county courthouse and you can check the thing out for yourself.

(Court minutes)

Motion by Lowellen seconded by Jefferson that the County Clerk be authorized to issue Warrants for damages and right-of-way of proposed road from Highway 84 to Highway 60, such warrants to be issued as follows:

Angela Daniel, et vir	$1274.20
Patricia Aldridge Breinig, et vir	5400.00
Hurshel Harding	271.80
E.R. Stewart Est.	156.60
Douglas Landrum	1500.00
John Porter	109.20

Above amounts payable from the Right of Way Fund. Motion Carried.

In the above transaction, the commissioners voted to pay $400 for one tract of land that involved 0.002 of an acre. Put this through your computer and see if it doesn't figure $200, 000 per acre. Of course, this was purchased in the Farwell precinct.

In another transaction, 9.09 acres of land was sold to a Farwell man for $25.00. This land was in Precinct 1, or the Friona precinct. It was a portion of the old highway that used to run south of the Railroad tracks. This tract of land was later sold to the Friona Industrial Development Corp. and is now part of the property owned by Missouri Beef Packers.

Mention has been made lately of Improving Highway 60 through the county. The right-of-way fund is in no shape for such an expensive project, and is not likely to be for several years unless the fund can be handled in a little more conservative manner than in the above purchases.

Mr. and Mrs.
 E. T. Jennings

Benger Air Park

AT BENGER AIR PARK

Interest In Flying Has Mushroomed Here

For a town which has an official population of just over 3,000 Friona has an airport that would be a credit to a city many times its size.

The local airport has 3,500 feet (60 feet wide) of paved runway - and will accommodate most light twin-engine airplanes. As a comparison, Hereford, a city almost four times as large as Friona, has 4,000 feet of paved runway.

The runway has been lighted for night use since 1959.

Because of the facilities at the airport, and its excellent flight training school, interest in flying has more than doubled in recent years. Men have taken flight training either as a hobby or to become commercial pilots.

In addition, Benger Air Park has for many years been the foremost crop sprayer in this part of the country.

A modern airport office was constructed in March of 1967, when the airport's runways were paved.

But things haven't always been so promising in the flying business in Friona.

"When we first came here (1946) we just had one airplane and a shack at the airport," says Mrs. Jennings.

There were other differences, too. For one thing, there were only a small handful of people interested in flying. In 1946, irrigation was just developing in the Friona area, and aerial spraying was just in its embryo stage here.

In fact, there just wasn't enough demand locally for the aerial service. For several years, Jennings operated airports in Muleshoe and Dimmitt as well as Friona. Much of the spraying done by Jennings from the local airport in those early years was for cotton and vegetables in the Hereford area.

Most of the work done at that time was dusting.

At the time Jennings came to Friona, he had a J-3 Piper Cub. The following year, he bought a P.A.-11 Duster. In 1948, he had a Searman plane that was converted into a sprayer.

At the present time, the company owns 16 planes, eight of which are used for spraying, and eight for pilot training.

Jennings began flying in 1939, while he was farming. He took lessons at Clovis and Amarillo. Then in February of 1942, he enrolled in the Spartan School of Aeronautics of Tulsa, Okla., where he received his commercial license.

In September of that year, he went to work for Southwest Air Training Command, an Army primary flight school in Helena, Arkansas, helping train pilots for World War II. Jennings spent two years in this capacity.

After serving as a wartime pilot instructor, Jennings worked for some 18 months for the Reconstruction Finance Corp., a company that moved and stored surplus military aircraft. He was in that position when he got interested in locating in Friona.

Carl Maurer owned the Friona airport when Jennings came here, and the two started out as partners. Later, Jennings' brother, Bill, purchased Maurer's interest in the airport, and Elvie later became sole owner.

Benger Air Park is named for Ira Benger, a Friona airman who was killed in World War II.

The spraying business began to come into its own in the late 1950s, Jennings says, with 1958 being the first "big" year locally.

Mr. and Mrs. Jennings recall that their old original hangar and office was built shortly after they came here, from lumber they secured from Tres Ritos, N.M.

The lumber was delivered to the airport by the late T.N. Jasper and his team of oxen. H.H. Weis built the hangar.

James (Jack) Corbell is instructor-in-chief, in charge of the company's flight school. Benger Air Park also has four other pilots with their commercial ratings. They are Malcolm Carhel, Jim Zehner, John Walter and Truett Johnson.

In addition to the planes the company owns, there are at the present time four aircraft based at Benger Air Park which are privately owned. In this day and age of the "shrinking world" Benger Air Park often is called on for air charter service, and very often takes plane-loads of people to some distant point for meetings, conventions, ball games, etc.

The airport is likewise used by any number of private planes in a day's time, carrying people who may have business in Friona. The cattle and packing industries have increased the amount of traffic at the local airport to some extent.

Included in the airport's new facilities is the new shop, which Jennings leases to Matt Brown.

During the busy season, Benger Air Park employs around 10 people, not including Brown and his crew.

The Jennings family has three daughters and a son. Mrs. Johnny Tannahill and Mrs. Dale Milner both live in Friona. Another daughter, JoAnne, is employed by Blackburn Bros. of Lubbock and Amarillo. Rick, the son, is a freshman student this fall at Tyler Junior College.

SECOND PLACE women's team in the local volleyball tournament recently was won by Earth Oil & Gas, represented here by Billy Jean Field and Betty Watson.

Many of us will miss seeing the smiling faces of Fred and Lou Kinsley, who are returning to their home in California after having lived among us for the past seven or eight years or so. The Kinsleys came here to take care of Fred's aunt, Mrs. Pearl Kinsley, a few years ago and stayed after her death to attend to her estate.

The Kinsley home, which is located at Seventh and Woodland, will soon have new occupants. Think it was built by the late Ruben and Pearl Kinsley more than 50 years ago and has never been occupied by any other family.

New occupants of the Kinsley home will be Gary Lou, Karen, Jana and Christa Renner. Gary Lou is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Renner and Karen is the daughter of Ernest and Valoris Osborn. They have been in California for nearly two years. He is being discharged from the armed forces the last of this month and they will probably be here by the first of April.

A couple of Frionans who took advantage of modern day travel to make quick work of a business trip are Mrs. Tom Shelton and Mrs. Claude Garth. These two are joint owners of Nellie Jane's Shoes and needed to go to market to purchase fall shoes.

They got up in time to get an early flight out of Amarillo for Dallas one Sunday morning. Then from Love Field they went to the shoe mart where they selected merchandise for fall.

At noon the two met Nellie Pearl's son, Jimmy, and a sister, who lives near Dallas for lunch and a visit. Then they flew back to Amarillo and drove home.

By ten that evening they were home in bed.

dents were investigated with no injuries reported. The new 1972 Chevrolet Blisayne patrol car arrived and was put into service on March 16.

Two sessions of small animal clinic inoculations and taxing of city pets resulted in only 67 animals tagged. A concerted effort is to be made, rounding up stray dogs within the city limits, according to the city manager.

Number Of Farms Drops In County

Parmer County showed a total of 856 farms in the 1969 Census of Agriculture, according to figures released by the U.S. Department of Commerce's Bureau of the Census, apart of the Department's Social and Economic Statistics Administration (SESA).

In the last previous Census of Agriculture (1964) the number of farms reported in the county was 783. Of the county's total farms in 1969, 803 are reported as selling $2,500 or more of agricultural products in the year, as compared with 756 in 1964. The report also shows average farm size in the county was 663.6 acres, and average value of these farms (land and buildings) was $246,905. Other figures from the report are:

(1) Value of all farm products sold in 1969, $122,498,985; in 1964, $58,482,500.
(2) Value of all crops sold in 1969, $27,647,534; in 1964, $29,905,283.
(3) Value of all livestock, poultry, and their products sold in 1969, $94,851,451; in 1964, $8,577,570. Reported for the first time in an agricultural census is information on the extent to which the corporate structure is being used by operators of farms from which agricultural products totaling $2,500 and over were sold. Including family farms using this type of business structure, nine of the county's $2,500-and-over farms are incorporated.

PIONEER SEEDS

Sign of Good Breeding

Pioneer brand grain sorghum varieties have bred-in yield potential to help farmers get the most from their good management even in the face of adverse weather, insects, or plant disease. Also, the genetic inheritance of every Pioneer hybrid is unique. Each variety is bred to bring out the special traits necessary for maximum performance in the area where it is to be grown.

Your Pioneer dealer has many varieties bred to help farmers on the North Plains turn in top yields. Some of these varieties are:

Pioneer Brand 846: excellent drought resistance—high yielder with good growing conditions—MDM resistant—134-day maturity

Pioneer Brand 820: excellent performer under stress—excellent standability—MDM resistant—144-day maturity

Pioneer Brand 828: outstanding yielder—stands and threshes well even after freeze or snow—hard grain that holds quality—MDM resistant—144-day maturity

Pioneer Brand 845: 136-day maturity—competitive with full season varieties under good growing conditions—grows well in cold weather—MDM resistant

Pioneer Brand 883: good yielding late planter—115-day maturity—strong stalks and good roots make it ideal for post-freezing threshing—MDM resistant

Days to maturity is an averaged figure, which is affected by weather and other variables.

GOOD YEAR OR BAD YEAR, YOU'RE BETTER OFF WITH PIONEER.

DOUG NIX, Hereford, planted 730 acres of Pioneer Brand 828 hybrid grain sorghum and averaged 8100 pounds of grain per acre. Mr. Nix liked the yield and standability of 828 and said, "It's the best all around milo I have ever planted."

In ancient and medieval times—long before hand pumps were invented—people formed bucket brigades to fight fires.

Today, fire fighting techniques are a lot more sophisticated and efficient. But fire prevention is still the best method of all. Clothes, carpets and bed clothes made of DuPont Nomex, for example, save lives every day because—thanks to modern science—they resist flame, heat and dangerous chemicals.

MBP Hosts 100 Idaho Cattlemen In Tours

A group of 100 Idaho cattle feeders, cattlemen and bankers arrived at Amarillo Air Terminal April 3, by chartered jet, as hosts of Missouri Beef Packers, Inc., of Amarillo. Missouri Beef recently announced construction of a new beef slaughter and packing plant in the Boise area.

The Idaho group was welcomed upon their arrival by Dave La Fleur, Missouri Beef president, and by representatives of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce. Coming from the Boise, Twin Falls and Pocatello agricultural areas, the group will tour Panhandle cattle auctions, feedyards, beef packing plants, irrigated pasture and beef packing plants.

Commenting on Missouri Beef's reasons for hosting the tour, La Fleur said, "We are now building our newest beef slaughtering and packing plant in the Boise area and we want Idaho's beef producing and agricultural finance leaders to come to the Texas Panhandle and see how the Panhandle's agricultural leaders have made 100 percent utilization of their resources."

"By seeing what the Panhandle's agricultural leaders have done with their resources, we hope to encourage the Idaho beef producers to make similar gains in their own programs."

Four chartered buses carried the tour group from the Air Terminal to Amarillo Livestock Auction. Amarillo Livestock Auction is the world's largest cattle auction, where many of the area's feeder cattle are bought and sold.

At 3 p.m. the group again boarded their buses for Plainview where they toured the Carter Kirchoff Feedyard at 4:30 p.m. Following the Kirchoff tour, the group checked into the Holiday Inn in Plainview where they attended a cocktail hour and banquet in their honor. Guest speaker at the banquet was Tom Patterson, vice president of the First National Bank of Amarillo, a financial leader in agricultural finance in the Panhandle.

Lloyd Bergama, executive vice president of the Texas Cattle Feeder's Association, discussed cattle feeding operations for the group.

Following breakfast Tuesday morning, the group boarded their buses at 8:30 a.m. for a tour of the Missouri Beef Packers plant, Plainview division. This plant was the recent recipient of a national award for efficiency and design excellence.

After touring MBP's Plainview plant, the group was shown several area feedlot installations.

Four Honored For Sorghum Production

D.S. Hansard of Amarillo, Territory Manager of Northrup, King & Co., recently announced that four grain sorghum growers in this area were named as members of the 1971 NK Carload Sorghum Club. Membership in the club honors the production achievements of these local growers.

Those honored from Friona were Tom Pruett, A.L. Reznik and Jarrell Wright, Gene Smith of Lazbuddie also was cited for his record.

The NK Carload Sorghum Club for 1971 has 715 members from 14 states. In 1971, they produced 584,000,000 pounds of grain from 150,000 acres. This is equivalent to 2,933 giant hopper carloads of grain.

In naming the four growers from this territory, Hansard noted that the purpose of the NK Carload Club is to recognize its members in order to dramatize the growing importance of sorghum as a feed grain. The NK Carload Sorghum Club provides a clearing house for ideas on production techniques and daily problems that confront sorghum growers. Club members have an opportunity to exchange ideas and to hear detailed reports on management practices for specific cropping conditions.

Special Week To Emphasize Environment

Governor Preston Smith has designated April 2-8, 1972 as "Environmental Education Week" in Texas and urges...every community to call upon all its educational resources to conduct a planned program of activities during the week to enhance all its citizens' awareness and appreciation of environmental issues."

Herb Evans, with the Soil Conservation Service in Friona, has made available to all schools a list of activities. Boy and Girl Scouts as well as schools are encouraged to enter into these activities.

Locate an area in which natural resources have deteriorated. Form small groups to prepare reports detailing conservation needs. Outline a plan of action for improving the area. Start an informative environmental section in the school or community library.

Show how plants depend on soil, water, air and light.

Map the watershed immediately surrounding the school area and determine if the water is being used properly or abused.

Conduct special assembly programs, possibly featuring a guest expert on some phase of environmental work.

Set up field trips to polluted areas.

SBA To Conduct Area Workshop On April 11

A Small Business Administration Workshop, sponsored by the SBA and the Southwestern Public Service Company will be held in the Reddy Room of the Dumas office of Southwestern beginning at 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, April 11.

"Money for Your Expansion Plans" will be the theme for the workshop which is designed to point out to present industries in the area the avenues for financial and technical assistance which will aid them in expanding their operations.

The speakers from the SBA, Lubbock office, including Phillip J. O'Jibway, district director; Jud Simpkins, loan specialist; Carl Lightner, community economic development specialist; and J.B. Hare, from the procurement and management assistance division, will advise participants on availability of direct government loans and community loans and how to get government contracts.

Bud Reed of the Texas Industrial Commission in Austin will discuss the sources of assistance in employee training and Peter Dallas, vice president of the First National Bank of Amarillo, will speak on what a banker wants to know.

The West Texas Business Development Corporation, a new industry-financing plan, will be explained by Bob Brummal, chairman of the new corporation. Brummal is Southern Division manager for Southwestern Public Service Company.

Larry Milner, manager of industrial development for Southwestern, said the workshop would be of interest to manufacturers, businessmen and community leaders throughout the area.

"The very heart of industrial development is for area and community leaders to help those industries they already have expand and develop so they can play a bigger role in the economic growth of the region. This workshop is designed to help in that effort by emphasizing the opportunities that are available to existing small industries for financing and technical assistance from governmental and private sources," Milner concluded.

Guest Reviewer
Presents Program

The Library
Corner
BY MRS. VON EDELMON

Mrs. Don Shirley, who was a special guest at the Tuesday evening meetings of Progressive Study Club at Federated Club House, reviewed "Ruffles and Flourishes," by Liz Carter. The meditation was presented by Mrs. Tom Pruitt. Other guests present were Mesdames, J.C. Beck, Jack Hamill, Charles Bell and Marion Clark. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. James V. Edelman and Mrs. Jimmy Mabry.

Even though Easter was last week, your thoughts may still be along this line. If so, the library has a nice selection of religious books. A few on our shelves are: "The Day Christ Was Born," "Paul, A Man Who Changed the World," "In His Steps." We have a portion of the "Living Bible: Living Gospels, Living Letters, Living Prophecies, Living Faith." The Evening Lions and the Progressive Study Club have responded to the plea for more books. Their members have collected many to turn in to the library. Won't you, as an individual, help. Our newest best seller on the shelf is "Winds of War" by Herman Wouk.

Karen Ann Bell Weds
Royce Lane Grissom

Karen Ann Bell became the bride of Royce Lane Grissom when the couple repeated double ring vows at 7 p.m. Saturday, April 1, in Bovina United Methodist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Durward Bell of Bovina and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Grissom of the Rhea Community.

Rev. Charles Gates, pastor of the church, read the candlelight ceremony before an altar background of taper and spiral candles. A floral arrangement in various shades of pink gladioli and lilacs emphasized the Bible centering the memorial table, banked on either side by Easter lillies. Votive candles marked each of the center aisle seats.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore her mother's gown of candlelight Skinner satin designed with a sheer yoke of nude net and organza enhanced by a roll collar re-embroidered in seed pearls which enhanced the shoulder line. The long tapered sleeves fell to petal points over the wrists and the natural waistline was marked by a self-fabric cording. The easy gathered skirt swept to back fullness cascading into a full cathedral train. She wore an Irish lace mantilla falling from a lace coil accented with seed pearls. Panels of lace traced a pattern around the edge and over the veil which extended to the floor.

She carried a bouquet of pink roses surrounded and intermingled with stephanotis and lily of the valley. Carrying out bridal tradition, the bride wore a strand of pearls belonging to her great-grandmother, also worn by her mother at her wedding. Her veil was something new and for luck, she wore a sixpence in her slipper and the traditional blue garter.

Mrs. Phil Sorley of Plainview was matron of honor. Mrs. Jerry Early of College Station was bridesmatron and Miss Suzanne Wilson of Bovina was bridesmaid. Mrs. Early and Miss Wilson wore formal length gowns of neutral pink chiffon designed with a modified Empire bodice enhanced with strawberry Venice lace and Victorian neckline, and an A-line skirt. The full sleeves were caught at the wrists by deep cuffs. Mrs. Sorley wore an identical gown in solid strawberry pink. The attendant's headpieces were cut flowers of pink, shaped in a crescent. They carried nosegays, blending with their headpieces, of roses, carnations and greenery.

Phil Sorley of Plainview was best man. Larry Lindsey of Lubbock and Randy Barrett of Arlington served as groomsmen. Greg Bell of Bovina, brother of the bride, and Donnie Grissom of Rhea, brother of the bridegroom, were ushers. Charlie Grissom of Clovis, cousin of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

D'Aun Boatwright and Kerl Pierce of Clovis, cousins of the bride, were flower girls. They were dressed in gowns of strawberry pink identical to the other attendants with matching pink flowers in their hair. Each carried a long-stemmed pink rose.

The candles were lighted by Debbie Boatwright of Clovis, cousin of the bride, and Chip Grissom of Rhea, brother of the bridegroom. Miss Boatwright wore a petal pink gown similar to the attendants and a matching flower headpiece.

Mrs. Jimmie Clements of Bovina, organist, presented wedding selections including "Trummer's," "Thanks Be To Thee," "Clair De Lune," "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring," and accompanied Bruce Caldwell of Bovina, as he sang, "Oh, Perfect Love," and "The Wedding Bower."

The couple paused on the way from the church to light a memory candle, symbolizing their lasting love and unity. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bell chose a pink chiffon and lace costume. Her corsage was a white orchid tipped in pink.

Mrs. Grissom chose a beige costume dress with a white or-

Mr. and Mrs. Grissom, parents of the bridegroom, hosted a rehearsal dinner Friday evening.

The tables were decorated with delicate pink and white wedding bells and other pink decorations. A buffet supper of ham, salads, hot bread and cherry pie was served.

Attending were Rev. and Mrs. Charles Gates, Rev. and Mrs. Larry Heard, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pierce, Lori and Kerl, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Boatwright, Sharon, Debbie and D'Aun, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Grissom, Karen, Ruthie, Mary and Charlie, Mr. and Mrs. Durward Bell, Greg Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Lindsey, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Early, Suzanne Wilson, Rodney Murphy, Bruce Caldwell, Darlene Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Clements, Donnie and Chip Grissom and the bridal couple.

child tipped in pink.

Following the ceremony, the couple greeted guests at a reception in Fellowship Hall of the church.

Cindy Barrett of Bovina registered guests. Mrs. Ronny Dyer and Denise Clements of Bovina and Nancy Mitchell of Lubbock presided at the bride's table.

The table was covered with a floor length cloth of white decoron with an overlay of white lace. The traditional tiered wedding cake with four smaller revolving cakes at its base was decorated in pink and white. Pink punch, rose mints and nuts were served from crystal and silver appointments. The bride's bouquet highlighted with tapers and surrounded by her attendant's bouquets also enhanced the table.

Sharon Boatwright and Lori Pierce of Clovis, cousins of the bride, presented rice bags tied in pink net to guests.

Mrs. Clements presented musical selections during the reception.

Members of the houseparty included Mrs. Dean Hastings, Mrs. Robert E. Wilson, Mrs. A.M. Wilson, Mrs. Thomas Beauchamp, Mrs. Pete DeLeon, Sarah DeLeon and Mrs. Leon Grissom.

For a wedding trip to Cloudcroft, N.M., the bride chose a pink costume dress with matching coat and pink accessories. Her corsage was of strawberry pink rosebuds.

Mr. and Mrs. Grissom are 1970 graduates of Bovina High School and attended South Plains Junior College at Levelland and West Texas State University at Canyon. Mrs. Grissom was employed at Wilson Supermarket in Bovina. Grissom is employed by W.M. Smith Electric in Lubbock.

The couple will be at home at 3606 23rd Street in Lubbock following their wedding trip.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding and reception included Mrs. Guy Cooper of Gruver; Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Bell of Shreveport, La.; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hintersardt, Guy

God Waits To Hear
Christian's Prayers

"In praying do not heap up empty phrases as the Gentiles do."
(Matthew 6:7, RSV)

What do we say when we pray? What should we say? Jesus said, "Do not heap up empty phrases. . . for your Father knows what you need before you ask him."

Since God knows our needs, there is little point in trying to inform Him. Nor should we ask God to do for us what we are capable and intelligent enough to do for ourselves. It is so easy to ask for divine intervention when we should be seeking divine guidance.

Even though God knows what I have and what I need, He wants to hear me say that I love and trust Him. He wants to hear me express willingness to do what I can and to give thanks for His blessings.

More than that, God is waiting to hear from my lips the commitment I must make to receive His renewing power. How often have we heard His voice say when we were praying, "What are you willing to commit yourself to?"

PRAYER: O Lord, who knows our needs and supplies them, we come to Thee in an attitude of praise and thanksgiving. May that to which we commit ourselves as followers of Christ be, in part, an expression of our gratitude and love. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: As we pray, God asks, "What have you committed yourself to do for my sake?"

Capps-Carthel Vows Exchanged In Vernon

In a candlelight service at Wilbarger Street Church of Christ at 8:00 p.m. Friday, March 31, Harletta Zanet Capps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Capps, 1919 Loma Linda Drive, Vernon, exchanged wedding vows with Daniel E. Carthel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill W. Carthel, Friona.

The double ring ceremony was read by T. Larry Marshall, minister of Wilbarger Street Church of Christ, before an arch of white tapers with smilax flanked on either side by pairs of spiral candelabras with garlands of huckleberry and smilax centered with white leather prayer bench.

Family pews were marked by brass candelabra with hurricane globes entwined with smilax and blue satin streamers.

Patricia Garrison, Shamrock, bride's college roommate and sorority sister, was the maid of honor. She wore a formal gown of blue whipped cream with flocked dots. It was designed with an empire waistline, square neckline and long full sleeves which ended in ruffled cuffs.

Her white eyelet bolero was trimmed with white tating and small pearl buttons.

She also wore a white crocheted Raffia hat with a blue tulle band and a gold necklace with carved ivory rosettes, which was a gift from the bride, and carried a colonial nosegay of powder blue starburst mums and baby breath with blue tulle and streamers of blue and white satin ribbon.

Becky Elliott, Hereford, and Angie Miller, Vernon, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids and Mrs. Steve Talliaferro, Munday, was the bridesmatron. They wore dresses and carried nosegays identical to those of the maid of honor.

Carrie McCollum, Odessa, was the flower girl. She was dressed identical to the other bridal attendants and carried an identical nosegay. She also carried a small white straw basket with blue floral trim.

The ring bearer, Doug Carthel, brother of the groom, carried the rings on a white satin heart shaped pillow trimmed with white lace.

Donny Carthel, brother of the groom and a student at Eastern New Mexico University, Portales, was the best man. Groomsman were Chuck Clawson, Gruver; Mike Davis, Spearman; and Charles Harris, Kress.

Marshall Capps, Vernon, brother of the bride; Charles Booth, Canyon; Joe Francis, Kress; and Tom Mars, Friona were ushers. Candelighters were Davy Carthel, another brother of the groom, Friona, and Scott Bearden, Vernon.

A vocal group composed of Steven Palmer, Charles Heimermann, Abilene, Mrs. T. Larry Marshall, Mrs. Eugene Payne and Lisa Payne, presented the processional, "Faithful and True," "Be-With's Lord," "The Pledge," and the recessional, "O Perfect Love."

As the bride was escorted and presented in marriage by her father, she wore a formal wedding gown of silk organza over peau de soie. It was designed with an empire waistline and bishop sleeves, which were gathered onto wide cuffs double edged with Venice lace and re-embroidered with lace motifs.

The round yoke of the bodice was marked with white ruffles and a band of Venice lace. Lace bands were repeated on the Victorian collar. A row of tiny covered buttons extended from the collar to the center front of the yoke.

Venice lace motifs were re-embroidered on the skirt and on her chapel length veil of imported silk illusion, which was edged in velvet ribbon laced Venice lace.

She carried a cascade bouquet of glameillas surrounded by white roses, stephanotis and blue baby's breath with satin streamers of love knots tied with stephanotis.

She also wore an antique bracelet, which her maternal grandmother, Mrs. George Streit of Vernon wore in her wedding sixty years ago, and a heart shaped gold locket, which was a gift from the bridegroom.

Carrying out tradition she wore a blue garter, which was an original creation of her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Maggie Capps of Crowell, and a six-pence given to her by Mrs. Frances Keener.

Mrs. Capps wore a sea foam green dress of Alaskine designed with an A-line skirt and jewel neckline edged in iridescent and gold entwined bands, beige accessories and a gold cymbidium orchid corsage.

The groom's mother wore a candlelight pink dress of silk and wool with an A-line skirt and lace sleeves, with matching accessories and a pink cymbidium orchid corsage.

The reception was held in the church foyer.

The bride's table was covered with a formal white linen cutwork cloth and centered with a silver candelabra holding white tapers, starburst mums, blue baby's breath and white stock, interspersed with garlands of wild smilax.

A sculptured pedestal backgrounded with blue tulle held the five tiered cake which was adorned with pale blue confectionary roses and mint green leaves topped with three white sculptured wedding bells. Tiers of the cake were separated with white swan topped columns.

Crystal and silver serving pieces and napkins imprinted with first names of the bridal couple completed the table setting. Cake, punch, nuts and mints were served by Pam Garrison, Renee VanLoh, Beth McLean, Nancy Dardis, Cindy Wisdom, Becky Belew, Mrs. Kenny Skinnworth and Rockne Wisdom.

The groom's table was covered with a hand made linen cloth in ecru and centered with a silver candelabra holding blue tapers and galaxy roses. Blue napkins imprinted with the bride's and groom's names in silver were used.

Others in the house party were Darlene Sims, Mollie Wisdom, Mrs. Bill Bearden, Mrs. Marvin L. Price Jr., Mrs. Joe Russell, Mrs. Jack Newth and Mrs. Lev in Clayton.

Jan Todd distributed small wedding scrolls tied with blue ribbons and inscribed with first names of the bridal pair in gold. Rice bags were distributed by Denise Mead and Pollyanna Wisdom.

The registration table, which was covered with a white sheer cloth with organza overskirt, was centered with a white memory candle surrounded by smilax and a hand painted wedding bell, which was an original creation of Mrs. Dick Rocky, Friona.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Streit, Vernon, and Mrs. Maggie Capps, Crowell, grandparents of the bride; and Mr. and Mrs. H.V. McCabe, Dawn and Wayne Carthel, Hereford, grandparents of the groom.

Guests were registered in a white leather bride's book inscribed in silver with a white plume pen in a white velvet stand. LaJo Fillingim of Briscoe presided over the registration table.

The bridegroom's parents hosted a rehearsal dinner Thursday evening in Wilbarger Auditorium. The bride's chosen colors, pale blue and white, were used in floral decorations for the tables. Place cards with miniature blown glass vases holding tiny stephanotis marked the seating arrangements.

Members of the wedding party were presented gifts and small silver and white boxes of sugar-coated almonds symbolizing good fortune. The bridal couple exchanged gifts and presented their parents mementos, which were original compositions by the bride and groom.

Guests were members of the wedding party, Mrs. Joe McCollum and Darla of Odessa, Pam Garrison and Eugene Payne. Pre-wedding courtesies included a miscellaneous shower at Friona State Bank hospitality room; a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. Bill Bearden, Vernon; and a kitchen shower and rice bag party in the home of Mrs. J.E. Miller, Vernon.

The U.S. Weather Bureau Report calls for partly cloudy skies, hot and dry.

Back in the days when Mother Nature had control over the weather, there wasn't much you could do. Except sit and wait for it to rain. But now you can order your own rain.

Any time you want it. With Gifford-Hill's 360 electrically-powered, pivotal sprinkler system. We've added several new features that make it even better than last year. An automatic end gun control option.

A new collector ring. A new alignment control linkage. A new direct gear drive motor on each section. A new moisture proof intermediate control panel. And a new weather-proof coating.

But where we really have it over the competition, including Mother Nature, is water patterns. By setting a dial you can apply as much water as you want to any portion of your field.

And because of our unique sprinkler spacing concept, your crops get the same amount of water at one end of the system as it does at the other.

No compaction. No puddling. No runoff.

So, before you worry too much about weather reports, get a full report on the 360 from a Gifford-Hill representative.

He'll give you a demonstration. That will convince you that the 360 is the most dependable, the most versatile and the safest pivotal sprinkler system on the market.

We want you to buy the 360. And forecast your own rain.

What Does The Bible Say?

Question: What does the Bible say about Easter?
Answer: Actually, nothing. While it is true that the word "Easter" appears one time in the Authorized Version of the New Testament (Acts 12:4), the word should be "pass-over" as it is uniformly so translated in the other places where it appears in the New Testament.

Though Easter is regarded as a Christian festival, neither the day nor the customs attached to it have any real basis in Christianity. Rather, it is derived from a combination of the Jewish Passover and the sacrifice offered to the heathen goddess of spring, Easter of Ishtar.

From the Bible standpoint, Easter is simply one of the many examples of things done by men presumably in honor of Christ but done without any sort of commandment or authority from Christ.

The Lord's supper, observed on the first day of every week (Acts 20:7) is the only New Testament institution designed to "show the Lord's death" (I Cor. 11:26) and a failure to observe it is a sign of spiritual sickness (I Cor. 11:30).

Questions invited. Address "What Does the Bible Say?" Box 515, Friona, Texas.
