PROTEST MOVE TO ADMIT LABOR INTO HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

ATTACKED IN MINORITY REPORT FILED BY TEXAS MEMBER.

SAYS IT WOULD MEAN ADMISSION OF COOLIES

Also Would Probably Open Way For Admission of Japanese Labor.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Temporary admission of otherwise ineligible Chinese labor to the Hawaiian Islands, proposed in a resolution reported yesterday by the house immigration committee, was attacked today in a minority report filed by Representative B. M. McFarrland, Texas, who said it would introduce "coolies" among Chinese coolies who would flow into the islands and into the United States.

It was announced that Representative Baker, Democrat, California, and Charles Johnson of the committee also would present minority views.

Mr. Fox said passage of the resolution would mean the act of union between Hawaii and the United States.

"It will make Hawaii still more oriental and less American," the report said, "and it will menace the United States by creating a bountiful source of Chinese labor and the opportunity for much fraud."

"If the Hawaiian sugar growers and manufacturers are entitled to a liberal supply of the cheapest and most degraded labor on earth, with what face will the supporters of this resolution prohibit the importation of cheap labor to the great numbers of Americans who want it? It is unfair to the American cane and beet producers to enable a few favored competitors in Hawaii to enjoy such an advantage over them."

Passage of the resolution, Mr. Fox's report declared, or any action taken under it by the department of labor in ascertaining a labor shortage in Hawaii, would violate the "gentlemen's agreement" governing Japanese immigration.

"Therefore," the report continued, "those who oppose this measure not only oppose the admission of coolies, but they oppose the way for the admission of Japanese labor."

HOUSE ENGROSSES INHERITANCE TAX LAW PROVISIONS

COVERS ALL BEQUESTS VALUED AT $25,000 OR MORE.

PASSAGE WOULD MEAN THREE MILLION YEARLY

Also Engross Bill Dealing With the Collection of Delinquent Taxes.

AUSTIN, Feb. 27.—The house this morning engrossed $3 to 28 the Smith bill extending provisions of the inheritance tax law so as to cover all bequests valued at $25,000 or more. The law as now written exempts from the tax property bequeathed by husband to wife, by wife to husband, by parent to child or vice versa. Final passage of the bill would mean an estimated return of $5,000,000 annually to the state treasury.

The house committee on criminal jurisprudence reported favorably the bill by Simpson of Tyler providing that any person convicted of a criminal offense and given a prison term shall have deducted from his term the amount of time he spent in jail before his sentence was imposed. The bill is especially designed to benefit persons who are unable to furnish bond for their release when they are jailed on a criminal charge. Representative Simpson said.

The house engrossed the Bonham bill dealing with the collection of delinquent taxes. The bill would abolish the legal requirement that tax collectors publish delinquent tax records and would provide for collection through regular court suits. Many counties have such voluminous delinquent tax records that the cost of publishing them would be prohibitive and unjustifiable. Representative Bonham said.

The Price bill providing a tax on mortgages and liens against real estate failed of engrossment, 30 to 66.

WORK SECRETARY OF INTERIOR NEW IS POSTMASTER GENERAL TO TAKE PLACE OF DR. WORK

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Selection of Postmaster General Work to succeed Albert Fall as secretary of the interior and of Senator Harry S. New of Indiana, to become postmaster general, was announced today at the white house.

The change in the cabinet line up is to take place on March 4 when Mr. Fall retires after two years service and the nominations of Mr. Work and Senator New were sent to the senate today to permit their confirmation before the present session of congress comes to an end.

The selection of Mr. Work to take the interior portfolio has been forecast ever since President Harding began to turn over his mind the names of available candidates. A resident of Colorado and a man of demonstrated ability in government service by 46 years, Mr. Work is regarded by the president as fulfilling all the qualifications for an interior secretary.

Senator New had been offered a place in the original Harding cabinet but declined because he thought he could render the administration more service by remaining in the senate. In last year's primaries he was defeated for re-nomination, however, and when it became known that he was under consideration for the cabinet an element of the Indiana Republican organization began a determined, long losing fight to prevent the appointment.

Senator New's nomination was confirmed immediately by the senate, in open session, following precedents of courtesy to sitting members.

HOUSEKEEPER FOR DEAD CONTRACTOR IS UNDER ARREST

HELD AS MATERIAL WITNESS FOLLOWING THE MURDER.

FIND BODY IN AUTO IN LONELY PART OF CITY

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Mrs. Anna Buss, 28, known also as Anna Schneider, housekeeper for Fredrick Schneider, wealthy contractor, who was found murdered in his automobile in a lonely section of the Bronx yesterday, was arrested today as a material witness. She denied all knowledge of the crime, after detectives had questioned her for six hours and become hysterical when lodged in jail.

Mrs. Buss was divorced from her husband in a suit in which Schneider was named as co-respondent. The police said she was known to her neighbors as Mrs. Schneider.

Meanwhile the police continued their search for a blonde woman, identified by a witness as the woman who was seen to leave Schneider's automobile shortly before his body was found with two bullets in the head.

Schneider, executor of some of the biggest construction jobs in the east, and a member of half a dozen clubs, was separated from his wife, but they were not friendly acquaintances, it was said.

He left his office in mid-afternoon after luncheon with three of his stenographers, and drove to one of his projects to consult with his nephew, William Schneider, an engineer, to meet him at the downtown office at 5:30 p. m. He drove back to his Broadway office and there he met the blonde woman who was awaiting him.

Seen by Shopkeepers.

This woman, seen by two shopkeepers, was believed by the police to have accompanied Schneider in his automobile, Nicholas Puelner, a truck farmer, who saw the car shortly after the shooting, said he was near home when he saw the automobile coming toward him. He heard two muffled reports, saw the car lurch forward and then vanish in the twilight shadows. He thought simply saw a woman a few moments later walking away.

Upon looking into the tonneau, when the woman disappeared, Puelner saw Schneider fall over the wheel, dead, one hand in his overcoat pocket, the other on the steering wheel, the foot clutch disengaged. He called the police.

Schneider was shot twice, obviously from a .33 calibre pistol, lying beside him. He could not have killed himself and been in the same position by the time, police said. He was shot in the neck, and behind an ear. Death was instantaneous.

INTEREST TURNS TO PROVISIONS FOR MERCHANT FLEET

EVIDENCE SUBMITTED IN CONNECTION WITH SEVERAL DALLAS FIRES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—While the administration shipping bill still lingered before the senate today, interest turned to the formulation of alternative plans by the shipping board for dealing with the government's merchant fleet. In view of the conceded failure of the bill, declared by Chairman Lasker after a conference yesterday with President Harding and later with members of the board to be of a "startlingly novel nature, no indication of the precise nature of the plan has yet been given out by administration officials.

It was generally believed that the administration's policy contemplated quick and thorough liquidation with possibly the invocation of such indirect aids to American shipping contained in the merchant marine act as would encourage purchase of government ships by private interests.

The abrogation of commercial treaties necessary to permit use of discriminatory import duties in favor of American ships, a direction of the act which both President Wilson and President Harding had refused to carry out, was urged again in the senate yesterday by

Eat Kellogg's Bran regularly—at least two table-spoonfuls daily; as much with each meal in chronic cases—and you guarantee that you will get relief permanently and naturally.

Kellogg's Bran is delicious. You do not have to learn to like it. Eat it as a cereal or sprinkle on or mix with hot or cold cereals. Or, cook it with hot cereals, allowing two table-spoonfuls for each person. Kellogg's makes wonderful muffins, griddle cakes, raisin bread, macarons, etc. Recipes on packages.

Leading hotels, clubs and restaurants serve Kellogg's Bran in individual packages. All grocers.

URGENT U. S. COOPERATION WITH FOREIGN NATIONS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Expressing fear that the world is drifting toward war, economic ruin and moral disaster, that may possibly cause the eclipse of civilization for centuries, the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America today addressed a message to the 150,000 Protestant churches of 30 communions making up its membership, urging them to call upon the government to adopt a policy of cooperation with foreign nations and to take a larger part in international problems.

MRS. HINGKLEY
NERVOUS WRECK

Tells How She Was Restored to Perfect Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Memphis, Tenn.—"Two years ago I was completely run-down and my nerves were in a nervous wreck. I could not sleep a moment without resting. I could not do my work except a little at a time, and the doctor's medicine did not help me. One day some one threw your health book on my porch, and in it I read several testimonials of women who had been like myself. I went right out and got me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and before I had taken the whole of that bottle I knew it was helping me. I took six bottles, and then in about three months I took two more. Now I am in perfect health. I do all of my own work and could do more. I can truly say that I know Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound gave me my health."

BRITISH PROTEST GOODS ARE SEIZED IN OCCUPIED AREA

LONDON, Feb. 27.—British authorities in the Rhineland have been instructed to investigate reports of alleged holding up of British owned goods on the Rhine by the French and Belgians, according to Roland P. McNeill, under secretary of state for foreign affairs. Mr. McNeill stated that the British officials had been instructed to take such action as may be possible to protect the interests of British firms.

The French have agreed to surrender German money seized at Cologne last Saturday which was intended for use in paying British troops, it was learned here today. The tension caused by the incident has been relieved, although the position is delicate.

The Cologne correspondent of the Times reports the British firmly demanded the return of the money.

ENGRASS BILL TO PROHIBIT SPECIAL RAILROAD RANGERS

AUSTIN, TEXAS, Feb. 27.—The bill by Senator Burnett which sought to prohibit the use of special rangers by railroads during strikes of railroad employes and to prevent such rangers being on the railroads payable by the railroads, was introduced today, 18 to 12.

Before en passant, however, the bill was amended so as to permit railroads to pay for special rangers in times of strikes when the state did not have adequate funds to pay such rangers, and also to restrict the special rangers to the premises under protection. The amendment was offered by Senator Davis.

Good Morning! How's Your Back Yard Today? May Be New Greeting

"Good morning! how is your back yard today?" may be the fashionable spring greeting by the guest on the front porch after March 1st. Just try it on your piano; how would you feel if your company traveled around the garden path and knocked at your back door, instead of your comb and dusted front?

Shades of the great god Buddha! That would never, never, do. The common garden variety of humiliation would be a pink tea party in comparison!

In the first place, you have spent all of your spare time on the front yard. It's the place by the side of the road where folks pass. In the second place, the children empty the garbage and never put the lid on and the gnats swarm in happy hordes above the battered can. In the third place, you've never just exactly systematized attractiveness in your back yard, and you don't know how easy it is to keep it beautiful.

No! It isn't the children's things that make it untidy. Like peanuts on the floor of your Rolls-Royce, there's something about the evidence of childhood in a back yard that never fails to add to its beauty; a reasonable evidence, that is—the usual children's things; it's just the general untidiness and the lack of beautification. You spent yourself on the front yard.

Back Yards Coming In. But it's going to be fashion this spring to have beautiful back yards. Wichita Falls is not copying that celebrated little town in Iowa that came into the national limelight a few years ago by virtue of its beautiful back yards, but it is adopting the happy slogan of "First class inside and out; back and front!" It is the Civic League's slogan, and a composite of the goal of the City

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS A WONDERFUL EGG

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

It got so wide it looked like a sea and no land was in sight on either side.

The twins started toward Jack Straw's palace in Mix-Up Land. They could see it plainly on the other side of a wide river. It was made of dominoes all over, like blocks, and the dominoes were black, with round, white spots on them. The chimney was made of dominoes and the doors and steps and walks and fences were dominoes. It was like a tiger-lily, or a speckled hen, or a bad apple.

"Well, wish ourselves over the river," said Nick, "and meet Nancy."

"All right," said Nick, picking up the basket of eggs. He cut-out Lady had given him.

"Oh, little Green Shoes. No time can we lose. Please give us a ride. To the stream's other side."

And as usual, the good little shoes lifted them up and started across the river, but the river began to grow wider and wider and wider when they reached it.

It got so wide it looked like a sea and no land was in sight on either side. But one thing the twins spied just before the land disappeared. It was Jack's straw hat, lying on the bank, and turning the ring on his left thumb as fast as he could turn it.

"It's magic!" cried Nick. "That old Jack Straw won't let us get over. As long as he turns his ring the river will get wider and wider."

SYRUP PEPSIN HELPS NATURE GIVE RELIEF

Try it when a laxative is needed and the usual results.

IT is not necessary to take a violent physic for so simple an ailment as constipation. Yet many thoughtless parents give mercury in the form of calomel, and coal-tar in the form of phenol, when a natural vegetable compound like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will do the work equally well and without danger. People should realize that mercury may irritate and in certain conditions loosen the teeth; that phenolphthalein, by whatever name known and however disguised in candy, may cause dermatitis and other skin eruptions; that salt waters and powders may concentrate the blood, dry up the skin and cause headache.

You can take Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin yourself or give it to a babe in arms, or thousands of mothers do every day, with the confidence that it is the safest and best medicine you can use for constipation and such complaints. A teaspoonful will relieve you every night even if the constipation has been chronic for

ANY FAMILY MAY TRY IT FREE

Thousands of parents are asking, "Where can I find a true, family laxative that comes in a family use size when constipation is due to by Syrup Pepsin? I will gladly provide a liberal free sample bottle, sufficient for an adequate trial, to any mother who sends her name, address, Dr. W. F. Caldwell, 515 North Main St., Mendota, Illinois. Do it now!"

years. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of Egyptian senna and pepsin with pleasant-tasting aromatics, and does not cramp or grip. Every drugist handles it, and bottles are so numerous that the cost amounts to only about a cent a dose. You buy it with the understanding that if it does not do as claimed, your money will be refunded. The names of all the ingredients are on the package.

Mrs. A. Arceneaux of Orange, Texas, suffered from constipation for six years and found no relief until she took Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin; and Mrs. Gus Anderson of Ball, Kans., corrected her bowels from constipation when she took a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin into your own home and let the family use it for constipation, indigestion, wind, gas, headache, flatulency, and to break up fevers and colds.

Be Careful What You Wash Your Hair With

Many shampoos and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Multifield coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely germs-free. It is very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get Multifield at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family two months.

Two or three teaspoonful of Multifield in a cup or glass with a little warm water is all that is required. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub the Multifield coconut oil in. It makes an abundant quantity of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to manage. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure your druggist gives you Multifield—adv.

FORM SEWER IN FLORAL HEIGHTS IS TO BE CONSTRUCTED

NECESSARY BEFORE TAYLOR CAN BE PAVED, COUNCIL LEARNS.

CONTRACT IS AWARDED FOR TENTH AND HAYES

Material to Be Decided Later; Hearing On Austin Street Work Continued.

Rapid progress was made in completing the network of paving that has been started in the city and getting some of the property owners in the residential section out of the mud, at the city council Monday when that body authorized the city clerk to advertise for bids on 15 blocks of new pavement, let the contract for one and one-half blocks, continued the hearing on one block authorized several weeks ago, and asked for bids on the construction of a $12,000 storm sewer that has been found necessary before some of the pavement could be laid.

Bids for the paving contract on Tenth street between Tilden and Hayes and two blocks on Hayes were opened at the Monday afternoon session of the city council. The contract was awarded to the Plains Paving company on a bid of $2.40 per square yard. Only two companies bid on the contract.

Some discussion arose over the kind of paving that was to be laid; the contract specifies brick paving. It was learned at the meeting Monday that there was some difference among the property owners as to kind of paving to be used. It was decided by the council that in the future bids would be advertised for on all kinds of paving. Heretofore the call for bids has always specified the kind of paving to be used. At open hearing is set for March 19; protest will be heard at that time.

The public hearing on the paving of Tenth and Twelfth streets on Austin, which was set for Monday, was continued until the next meeting. It is believed that by that time some agreement with the protesting property owners can be reached.

At the request of a number of residents and property owners on Taylor street, the council acted on the petition for the paving of Taylor street from Tenth to Avenue G, submitted several weeks past.

Action on the petition had been withheld on account of the necessity of a storm sewer in that section before the work on the paving was started. At the Monday meeting the council declared the paving of the seven blocks a necessity and authorized the city clerk to advertise for bids on deferred payment, for the paving of Taylor and the construction of the storm sewer. It is estimated that the proposed storm sewer will involve an expenditure of $12,000. A representative of a local paving company stated that with few exceptions the property owners on Taylor street had signed the petition. It is not thought that the proposed paving will meet with any opposition.

Some Inquiries About Acreage at Eighth and Scott

Inquiries as to the price of acreage in the vicinity of Eighth and Scott were being made Tuesday, following the putting up of what many thought to be an oil derrick on the City National Bank corner. Some passers-by stopped to inquire when the test would start in. Manager Dan Shine of the building explained that the timbers were used to erect a platform to reach the bank's sign, which is being repaired.

SNOW FALLS NEAR FORGAN; RAIN IS REPORTED SOUTH

Snow fell at Forgan and Woodward Monday night and Tuesday morning agents reported a north wind, clouded skies and temperature hovering around the 25 degree mark. Agents south of the city reported a slow steady rain from Stamford to Abilene. Throughout the district clouded skies were reported while the wind direction varied slightly. Locally the wind hailed from the north-west while on the south end of railroad lines the wind came from the northeast.

During the afternoon Monday the mercury struck the 27 degree point for the maximum while during the night it fell to 43 degrees. Beginning at 9 o'clock Monday night and continuing until after midnight a slow misty rain fell here but the amount was insufficient to create even a suspicion of rain in the measuring device.

DEPUTY BELCHER ARRESTS TWO FOLLOWING INDICTMENT

Deputy Sheriff W. W. Belcher arrested J. P. Dunn and L. J. Eaton in the Northwest fields Monday afternoon on charges of selling and possessing whiskey. The two men were indicted by the grand jury of the 30th district court. Both perfected $1,000 bonds each and were released.

WARNING ISSUED ON METHODS AS USED IN SUBDIVIDING LAND

DISTRICT'S MAPS SHOULD BE FOLLOWED OFFICIALS POINT OUT.

CAN'T LAY OUT TRACTS IN REGULAR SQUARES

Must Be Shaped to Conform to Location of Lateral Canals and Drainage Facilities.

Wrong methods being employed in laying out subdivisions of irrigated land are going to make trouble for the landowners and agents later on, irrigation district officials said Tuesday, on receipt of reports that some owners were dividing their land in square, equal tracts, without regard to accessibility to the ditch or to drainage facilities. Topographical maps now being prepared by district engineers show the proper way of subdividing the tracts, and the district is strongly recommending that all owners who contemplate subdividing their tracts follow these maps. In one instance, it was shown that the laying off of a 160-acre tract into subdivisions cost $4800, with some of the tracts not easily reached by a lateral ditch, whereas to have laid it off properly would have cost only $2400, and all tracts would have access to the ditch and to drainage. The difference was $1600 or $10 per acre.

It is pointed out that each separate tract offered for sale, no matter how small, should be directly under a lateral ditch, and should have drainage facilities; in very few cases can these be provided where a land is laid off in regular squares; the maps show that in nearly all instances, the tracts must be irregular in size and shape in order to get best results.

Any prospective purchaser of irrigated land, it has been suggested, should consult the topographical map of the tract he is interested in before making his purchase. If it is necessary for him to construct a sub-lateral in order to get water, or to cross a neighbor's land with a drainage ditch, these will entail additional expense, it is pointed out. Some land in the heart of the irrigated district, the maps show, is not irrigable because it is too high, lying above the ditch instead of below it.

RECENT MOISTURE GREATLY IMPROVES WHEAT PROSPECT

Wheat prospects were never better, in the history of the country, than they are now, according to reports by farmers to County Agent Guy R. Jones. Plentiful moisture and favorable weather conditions have given the crop as good a start as could be hoped for, farmers say. However, Mr. Jones points out, it is sometimes happened that good conditions in February do not pan out into a good harvest in June, and he warns against over-optimism, pointing out that adverse weather or the appearance of insect pests can still spoil the prospects. But right now, it is admitted, wheat is looking as good as anybody could ask.

WASTED SYMPATHY.

A great deal has been said in this country about the mistakes of France in the occupation of the Ruhr district in an attempt to collect reparations from Germany.

These persons have overlooked the fact that while Germany may be unable to pay the full amount of the reparations assessed against her, she can pay something and that it has been very apparent that she has been trying to escape payment altogether.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

FINISHED UNDERTAKINGS. There is glory in a finished undertaking—be that undertaking ever so simple.

It is as though somebody or something kept tugging at our heels—all the time calling us to task, urging us to finish the job attempted and have done with it.

The rounded character is brought about through finished undertakings.

To finish one task is as good as being presented with an extra "push" with which to start the next one.

And what confidence the finisher has! He tackles his new job as though he had been doing it all his life.

Every great and successful man has a picture gallery of his finished undertakings.

Take the painter or sculptor, for instance—his life work is in the paintings or modeled pieces which he has finished.

He is the greatest salesman who is able to finish his sales effort by getting the order sought.

Anyone can start anything. There are few who have formed the habit of always finishing what they begin—provided that it is worth finishing.

Each day finish something! Go through. Be thorough. Do each task as though it were to be your last. Make your life a finished undertaking.

CHANGEABLE LIFE. Laughter and song and dance, Sorrow and grief and tears, These are the things we chance Day by day through the years.

Stunted for a time by woe, And ever the tear and smile Come in their turn, and so.

Yesterday's skies were gray, Now they are shining clear; Troubled and rough the way, Dark with the gloom of fear,

Danger, and doubt and dread, Men of the world must know, But you shall find ahead Life is not over so.

Mourn not your present state, Dwell not too long with grief, Boast not your pleasures great—Sorrow and joy are brief.

Yesterday was, but here Life must be lived today, And when the night draws near This shall be swept away.

Bear it a little while, Cruel though seems the pain, Again you shall some day smile, Then shall you weep again.

Laughter nor grief can stay, Soon must they both be spent, Only the soul in the clay Lives and is permanent.

THE GREEN-EYED ACCOMPLICE BY E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM Copyright, 1932, by E. Phillips Oppenheim

"The seventeenth." "Where is the tea for the eighteenth?" "Just out of sight underneath the trees."

"You're an intelligent girl," he ventured, coming nearer still. "I am, always very careful of strangers who tell me so," I retorted, taking a step backward.

"I saw very little of him," I answered. "He gives no trouble." "Do you know that you are rather a pretty girl?" he ventured, coming nearer still.

"What do you want?" I asked sharply. "How dare you come up here?" "I am looking at you," he said earnestly. "It was obvious that my first thought was a mistaken one. This was not one of the women whom I found it difficult sometimes to keep at arm's-length."

"Young woman," he said, "I am a police officer. You seem to be a sensible girl, and I should imagine I ask, do not obstruct me in the course of my duty, and you will be rewarded."

"I looked at him in silence for several moments. I do not think that I changed color or showed anything of the terror which clutched my heart. I was not in danger? All the time I stood there, I was thinking, how was I to help? How could I help?"

"Your master returned here an hour ago," the man continued, "and now goes off to play golf. I want clothes which he wore when he was out." "How do you know that he is your master?" I asked.

"I saw him come in and I saw him go out the quiet way. This is his bedroom, is it not?" "Is it?" I admitted.

"In the clothes must be here." "Do not know," I answered. "I was going to the bathroom next door when I found them there."

"I opened back and entered the bathroom. He was only gone for a few seconds, but I found time to take a look under the drawer and to slip it into my loose pocket."

"The things has not been used," he said. "I shall shortly see he came back, and I should like to know who will search these drawers."

"I made objection, and he made a heavy clutch of the contents of the drawers. I saw him put them into a bag and I found it locked, he gave vent to a long exclamation."

"No more bones for what he did," he said. "I should imagine, with an instrument which he carried in his pocket, he used the lock and bent over the key of the drawer. He was a man fitted, I should imagine, to silence, by heard him muttering to himself what he found. When he stood up he was a picture of triumph upon his face."

"What time you expect your master back?" I inquired. "He was laughing," he answered. "He was laughing a round afterward. About five o'clock, I said think."

"He walked to the window and stood looking out on the lawn. I too looked out in the far distance we could see two mistaking."

"Do you know who?" he asked. "Very well, I think," he answered. "What hole are you playing now?" "The seventh."

"What green is a just opposite?"

ESTABLISHMENT OF RADIO STATION BY C. OF C. PROPOSED

Plans for establishment of a radio broadcasting station by the chamber of commerce were considered Monday afternoon at a meeting of the publicity committee of that body, headed by P. A. Rogers, publicity chairman. It was suggested that the set could be installed in the rear of the chamber of commerce quarters and that the Wichita club rooms might be used as a studio. Further action on the matter will be taken at a later meeting. The committee recommended that the Community Builder's official publication of the chamber of commerce, be sent to all taxpayers in the irrigation district, as well as to chamber of commerce members. Plans for broadening the scope of the magazine were approved by the committee.

HASKELL HAS BUILDING BOOM AND COUNTY MORE PROSPEROUS THAN FOR A NUMBER OF YEARS

HASKELL, TEXAS, Feb. 27.—Haskell is enjoying a building boom at this time. Many improvements are being made in the residence and business districts. A new laundry is being erected on the east side, one block from the square, in which will be installed an up to date line of machinery. This improvement will supply a long felt need for Haskell, which has had no laundry for more than two years. The light and power company has completed a new one-story brick building on the south side and have just moved their office fixtures and supplies into their new home. This is a permanent addition to the line of bricks around the square.

CRIMINAL CASES IN 30TH PASSED OVER TO FRIDAY

All criminal cases set down for trial in the 30th district court were passed over Tuesday morning until Friday. Judge H. R. Wilson leaves Tuesday night for Henrietta where he will hold court Wednesday and Thursday, returning to this city Friday morning to conclude the business of the December term of his court. Six cases were disposed of Monday in the district court on pleas of guilty. Four, two-year penitentiary sentences were imposed, one case was dismissed and in another the defendant drew a fine of $200 and costs. Saturday will mark the close of the present term of the court and the district attorney's office is busily engaged preparing orders to be placed on the docket in the various criminal cases still pending.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

First Step in Treatment is a Brisk Purgative With Calomel, the Purified and Refined Calomel Tablets that Are Nauseous, Safe and Sure. Doctors have found by experience that no medicine for colds, coughs, sore throats, and influenza can be depended upon for full effectiveness until the liver is made thoroughly active. That is why the first step in the treatment is the new, nauseous-free calomel tablets called Calomel. These are free from the sickening and weakening effects of the old style calomel. Doctors also point out the fact that an active liver may go a long way towards preventing influenza and colds and is one of the most important factors in enabling the patient to successfully withstand an attack and ward off pneumonia. One or two Calomels on the tongue at bed time, with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, nor the slightest interference with your eating, pleasure or work. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified, and you are feeling fine, with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Genuine Calomel Tablets are in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents for the large, family package; ten cents for the small, vest-pocket size.—adv.

PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHT

Prospects were never better for the farmers of Haskell County than at this time. Old timers say that conditions are the best they have ever seen since the county was organized. No record of conditions has been kept. We are having more rain in the winter year except the year of 1905, which was the wettest January and February known since this country has been settled. The winter of 1922-23 is something like an inch of rain, but it could fall in the remaining two months of the year in the habit of raining here lately. The wheat crop sown last fall is coming out wonderfully since the rains have been so good. Farmers who are well up on wheat growing say that we have the prospect now for a good wheat crop with normal season from now until harvest. A large acreage of barley and spring oats is being sown and the spring season assures a large crop in this section and is growing in popularity with the farmers. There will be a very small increase in the price of cotton in Haskell County. The new lands put into cultivation will be the only increase, if any at all. The farmers of this county will not sacrifice a feed crop for cotton at any price. There are more hogs in the country than ever before in the history of the county, and more pork was put in the smoke houses last year than was ever known. The country has plenty of milk cows and they are of the very best grades. The poultry interest is growing rapidly and the number of breeding fowls, both chickens and turkeys, have been doubled since last season. The merchants have sold more incubators and brooders than ever before and they are mostly of large capacity. More than 20,000 worth of turkeys were sold in a pool to the local produce house here the first week in January of this year. There was more than $50,000 worth of turkeys grown in this county last year. There has been much clamor among hens to take to the farms for breeding purposes this spring and with favorable conditions there will be a record breaking turkey crop this year in this section. There will be an egg contest held in Haskell Saturday, April 7, and a sales day will be held in connection with the contest. The purpose of the contest is purely educational, to teach the school children to select eggs for hatching and also an effort will be made to get the farmers interested in pure bred poultry. Haskell Poultry Association will hold its annual poultry show Friday and Saturday, December 6 and 7. Plans are on foot to make this the greatest show of poultry ever shown in Haskell County.

How to Gain Strength

Little Rock, Ark.—"My parents used and recommended Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for years and years and now I am doing the same, not simply because they did, but because I know it to be the best tonic on the market. It never fails to build up the physical constitution. At one time in particular I was very frail after a bad spell of the flu, and the Medical Discovery built me up in health and strength right away."—Mrs. E. E. Hughes, 1011 North St.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Jack Miller arrested three men early Tuesday morning after bills of indictment had been returned against them charging them with misdemeanors. W. Langford was placed under arrest on a charge of aiding in the delinquency of minors. It is charged that he assisted and abetted the four girls who ran away from home before Christmas in getting out of the city and took them to Henrietta in an automobile. A negro, Jesse Lemon is charged with aiding by check under the value of $50 and was lodged in the county jail Tuesday.

Eddie Collins Tells How Tris Speaker Showed Him Up

EDDIE COLLINS

Eddie Collins is generally regarded as one of the brightest players in the major leagues. The richly-veined brain is always a part of his play.

However, it is possible for the best of players to be tricked and made to look foolish. Usually it takes an equally keen player to turn the trick.

Recently Collins was asked by an inquiring reporter if he had ever been made to look foolish on the ball field.

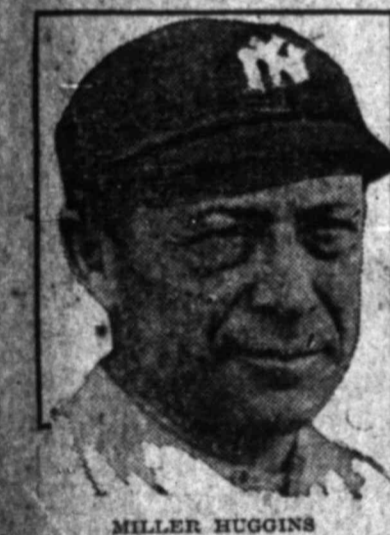

"Often," replied Collins, "but to Tris Speaker goes the credit of showing me up in the worst possible way, yet in being shown up I was playing safe, conservative ball. The umpire was the villain."

"It was this way. I was on first and another Sox player on second and out. The batter hit a fly ball to short center field which I figured could be handled by an infielder and would be ruled an infield fly. For that reason I held my base."

"The umpire, however, failed to rule it an infield fly. Speaker trapped the ball back of second, then dashed in and touched me, standing on the base, then touched the base."

"I had remained on second and the runner held first, believing the hit had been ruled an infield fly. It wasn't so, when Speaker touched me standing on the base he retired me, and by touching the base he retired the runner on first who was forced to advance to make room for the batsman. That ended the inning with all hands looking foolish."

Miller Huggins Worries Over His Pitching Staff

MILLER HUGGINS

By NEA Service.
NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Despite the fact that a year ago Miller Huggins boasted he had the best pitching staff in the American League, his department is now his own "big worry."

Carl Mays, figured to be a big winner in 1927, failed, and his place for the coming season is being fought for by several pitchers. American League business men insist that Mays has lost much of his effectiveness, that his fast underhand ball no longer breaks down as once it did.

The question also arises as to whether or not Ray Jones has the temperament to pitch winning ball on a pennant-winning club. With Jones as a pitcher, the team of pitching for a pennant seems to fall on him.

With Boston in 1927, an "nothing" pitcher, Jones was one of the most effective pitchers in the American League. In 1927, when the Yankees were always in the thick of the race, Jones had a very mediocre year. He just couldn't get going.

"What about Joe Bush? Jones, with his fast ball, made over his pitching staff and had a big year. It is a certainty that Bush will be no better."

The entire staff Walter Hoyt is the only member who should improve. Hoyt is a great pitcher and will continue to be.

Pennock is not getting to be any better. He is a clever pitcher, however, and with a hard-throwing ball like New York has no doubt about his ability to win.

The Yankees, which makes it easy to understand why Miller Huggins is worrying about his pitching staff.

EVEN "FRANK MERRIWELL" FAILS TO SURPASS MATTY'S ACHIEVEMENTS

FRANK MERRIWELL

By NEA Service.
ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 27.—Heroic efforts are about to be used to save collegiate baseball from extinction in the southern states.

The professional baseball tournament, with 26 teams entered in the elimination series, is the plan arranged. All colleges have been invited to meet here in March to arrange the big series.

Dr. Thornwell Jacobs, president of Oglethorpe College, is behind the idea. It follows the lines of his successful baseball tournament.

"College baseball in the south is doomed to pass out unless something is done," says Dr. Jacobs. "With the professional season starting at the time college seasons get under way, public interest is shifted from the campus. Teams rarely make expenses on the road, and many have abandoned trips altogether."

"Through a gigantic tournament, with several games a day, thousands will attend, a financial success will be scored and the real southern college championship will be found."

LOUGHRAN HAD GREAT CHANCE TO WIN TITLE FROM BREG BUT FAILED

By NEA Service.
NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Lack of initiative probably kept Tommy Loughran from winning the light heavyweight title from Harry Greb in their recent meeting at Madison Square Garden.

Loughran trained to the minute, met Greb, who hadn't taken the bout very seriously, far from his usual fighting trim.

Instead of carrying the fight to Greb, Loughran was content to remain on the defensive and let Greb set the pace. This Greb did to suit his condition.

In the clinches Greb constantly held, yet his ring experience made it seem that Loughran was the offender.

Late in the fight someone must have told Loughran that his only chance was to cut loose, for in the last two or three rounds he set a clip that had Greb very tired at the end while Loughran looked as if he could have gone 15 rounds more without any great effort.

Loughran has the makings of a champion as far as ability and physique are concerned, but he seems to lack aggressiveness. In other words, hasn't the fighting heart.

Perhaps proper handling and more experience will bring out the real ability of the husky Philadelphiaan.

COYOTE-ARCHER CITY GAME CALLED OFF MONDAY NIGHT

The game scheduled for Monday night between the Coyotes and the Archer City basket ball team was called off Monday afternoon, on account of the illness of several Coyote players.

Of those ill, Coffey is causing the most concern, as his sickness may prevent his accompanying the team to Austin. With him out of the lineup, Coyote chances would be materially reduced.

The squad, comprising 11 men, will leave on the Denver Wednesday afternoon.

Yale Can Boast of Golfing Record

By BILLY EVANS
Golf is getting a great play as a college sport.

It won't be long before a golf course is as essential to the department of physical education at the various big universities as a stadium.

At present Yale, Harvard and Princeton are rather hogging the amateur situation in golf circles with Jesse Sweater, national amateur champion; Bobby Jones and Rudy Knipper.

As a matter of fact, the 1922 event at Brookline was very much of a college affair, in the semifinals were Rudy Knipper of Princeton versus Chick Evans, late of Northwestern, while Bobby Jones of Harvard was pitted against Jesse Sweater of Yale.

Yale, which has fared none too well of late years in football, and met with only fair success in baseball, can certainly point to its golfing status with pride.

Yale strong in Golf.

In the golf game Yale turns "em out young. Three amateur championships are credited to representatives of the Blue.

At 18 years of age, Robert A. Gardner, then a student at Yale, won at Wheaton in 1905. He later duplicated the feat by finishing out of the South in 1912.

Last year Jesse Sweater, 20 years of age, once more put Yale to the front in golf by winning from one of the best in the field.

Sweater, in winning the national amateur at Brookline last year, gave Yale a record which has not been broken by anyone since the establishment of the 36-hole route for championship play.

Equally as notable record.

In addition to the records above that Sweater also equaled a record held by Jerome Travers, made in 1913, neither player being forced to go beyond the 36th hole to dispose of any of their opponents.

Because of his remarkable play in winning the national amateur, the work of Sweater will be watched with much interest this year.

Any player who can dispose of such formidable opponents as Willie Hunter of Duke and Bobby Jones and Chick Evans in consecutive rounds, must be classed as a sterling golfer. That is the trick Sweater turned at Brookline.

HUGGINS DEMANDED A VETERAN SOUTHPAW; YANKS LAND PENNOCK

By NEA Service.
NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—"Manager Miller Huggins insisted that he be provided with a veteran left-hander. That is why the deal was made with Boston for Penneck."

That is the explanation of Secretary Barrows' deal in which it seems Boston got much the best of the bargain.

McMillan is certainly a promising infielder. Getting a chance to play regularly he should develop fast. Boston must have a third sacker, so McMillan is sure of the chance.

Murray is a right hander with much stuff. He went good for the Yankees in the spring. Later he showed signs of wavering and from that time on did little but warm the bench.

Camp Skinner is an outfielder who did little more than act as pinch hitter all last season.

In return the Yankees secured a veteran southpaw who is going the other way. However, for two or three years Penneck should help Huggins, and that is what Huggins wanted, immediate help.

In an effort to provide the club with a southpaw, Huggins did deal with Atlantic City and Rochester, who hail from Sioux City, will be taken south.

In addition it is said the deal is still pending for Jake May who was concerned with the Yankees some time ago, only to have the deal called off.

A class of 31 candidates was led through the mysteries and received the degree work at the regular meeting of Faith Chapter, Order Eastern Star, under dispensation, Monday night.

PASSENGERS ON TRAIN HAVE NARROW ESCAPE

ORANGE, MASS., Feb. 27.—Passengers on a Boston and Maine railroad train had a thrilling experience and remarkable escape from serious injury today when two of the three coaches jumped the rails, plunged down a 15-foot embankment and struck the water in the river.

The ice supported the cars and the passengers scrambled to safety. The third car stopped on the embankment. Four men were slightly hurt. The engine and tender remained on the track. Spreading rails caused the accident, officials said.

RAIN AND SOME SNOW FALLS AT CLARENDON

CLARENDON, TEXAS, Feb. 27.—Thirty-five one-hundredths inches of rain fell in this city Monday, with some snow falling late in the afternoon when the thermometer began falling.

This makes a total of 38 one-hundredths inches of rain for the past two or three days of cloudy weather, with other parts of the country getting more.

HENRIETTA, TEXAS, Feb. 27.—At the weekly meeting of the chamber of commerce plans were made to urge the officials of the Katy and Fort Worth & Denver railroads to erect a union station here.

The reason for this request at this particular time is due to the growing business of Henrietta, on account of the oil boom. It was stated by J. B. Dickey, president of the chamber of commerce, that something definite could be expected soon.

GOOD MOISTURE RESULT RAINS IN HASKELL COUNTY

HASKELL, TEXAS, Feb. 27.—Haskell was visited by a light rain on Friday night and a heavier one Sunday morning, which puts this section in splendid condition so far as moisture is concerned.

Everyone is much encouraged over the outlook for an excellent crop this year. Farmers in all adjoining sections are making preparations for extensive planting. The rains have filled the creeks and watering places, which insures a supply of water for stock, and with a few warm days grass will come readily.

Rev. J. Swindell, who has been called to the care of the First Christian Church, has arrived to assume his duties as pastor. Mrs. Swindell is still in Los Angeles, Cal., where they spent the winter, but will join her husband later.

Rev. Leon Gambrell, pastor of the First Baptist Church here, is conducting a revival meeting in the church. He is assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Reynolds who are both musicians and singers of note. Large crowds are present at each service, and great good is being done.
