QUESTION OF PEACE OFFER IS PUZZLING GERMAN OFFICIALS

NOT CERTAIN THAT NATION IS WARRANTED IN TAKING STEP

DESIROUS OF SHOWING CONCILIATORY ATTITUDE

Believe Hughes' Suggestion Is Shortest Road to Solution of Problem

By Associated Press. BRUSSELS, April 24.—Whether Germany is warranted in now coming forward with a reparations offer in view of her internal financial situation, is one of the questions that is perplexing Chancellor Cuno and his cabinet, according to well informed political circles.

The government is represented as being desirous of showing an accommodating attitude in response to Lord Curzon's recent appeal to Germany to make the first move for the settlement. If Herr Cuno decides to fix a figure which in his opinion and that of the cabinet members and Reichstag leaders, would actively promote objective discussions with the entente, political circles believe that it will be largely in deference to the "psychological atmosphere" created by Lord Curzon's remarks in the house of lords.

Both the chancellor and Foreign Minister von Rosenberg are still said to believe that the shortest road to a solution of the whole reparations tangle has been suggested by Secretary Hughes.

The chancellor and his foreign minister do not lack counsel in the situation created by Lord Curzon's address. As reflected in the press, this voluntary advice may be summed up in the words, "Go slowly; don't get nervous."

Among the reichstag parties, notably in the ranks of the united socialists, there is evidence of a strong determination to face the question of Germany's frontiers to an ultimate settlement; and there is also a desire that Germany's position in this respect be fixed quite as definitely as that of her ultimate reparations obligations.

This phase of the great settlement is being stressed as representing an imperative requirement for the future recognition of Germany's territorial sovereignty and as an indispensable condition to the maintenance of coordination in her internal financial and political affairs.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT IS EXPECTED BY BRITISH LONDON, April 24.—The prospect of Germany making a definite reparations offer especially with reference to a settlement of the Ruhr situation is widely discussed in the press here. The view is generally taken that recent utterances of German statesmen and comments by German newspapers point to the likelihood that an important announcement on this subject will be forthcoming from Berlin in the near future.

Opinions differ as to whether such a pronouncement would contain an outright offer in figures. It has been hinted here that Lord Curzon has suggested to Germany a plan which would be comparable to the allies, but The Times today pro-

Body of Leader of Renegade Tribe Of Indians Recently on War Path Rests In Rude Rock Covered Grave

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, April 24.—The body of Old Posey, leader of the vanquished renegade tribe of Snake Indians which went on the warpath in southeastern Utah last month, rests today in a rude rock covered grave somewhere in the mountains near Blanding, Utah, where he was slain last week in a skirmish with white settlers.

The aged chieftain—he was reported to be 100 years old—made his last stand with a handful of braves near "Cumbwash" on March 18 last, and he died alone with white possemen routed his small band.

United States Marshal J. Ray Ward, late yesterday brought the news of Old Posey's death to Blanding. Marshal Ward and four Indians recovered the body of the chieftain. It was reported, the body was buried without ceremony on a mountain side. It was reported that the Indians had asked that the burial place be not revealed. Marshal Ward went to Blanding several days ago to investigate reports that the Indians had information on the whereabouts of Old Posey who faced arrest under a federal warrant charging insurrection. Hancock Jim, 100 year old chieftain, told the marshal that Old Posey had died in battle and that the captured Putes knew where the body lay. The marshal set out on horseback with the Indians and they found the body on the rim of Cumbwash. The body was recovered in a cave where the Indians said Old Posey had crept before he died.

In late years Old Posey had figured as a leader in many Indian disturbances in southeastern Utah, where he was said to have lived most of his time. Posey's name was known in the west wherever there were Utes, and as William Hatch here was known to all white men in the San Juan basin.

By FRANK O'CONNOR Universal Service Special Correspondent. BOSTON, April 24.—Colonel Geo. Harvey, ambassador to Great Britain, is due for a terrific shock when he learns that he is unknown to the home town in Vermont of which he boasted was 100 per cent English stock in a speech at the banquet of the royal society of St. George in London. In this speech Mr. Harvey said in part: "My proud little state of Vermont stands as a monument of virtuously undiluted ancestral stock. Not less than 99 per cent of her entire population are directly and exclusively descended from sons and daughters of the kingdom.

"Can any of your countrymen boast of less alloy? If so, I point to my native township, Peacham, which contains no man, woman or child of any other than English blood—got one."

Following breathlessly upon this clue from Mr. Harvey, the Universal Service correspondent immediately called up Mrs. C. B. Rouse, postmistress at Peacham.

The following conversation took place: Q.—Is this the birthplace of Colonel George Harvey? A.—Who? Q.—Colonel George Harvey—Harvey. A.—Never heard of him. Q.—American ambassador to the court of St. James. A.—Nobody of that name here. Q.—What's the population of Peacham? A.—How do I know? Q.—Approximately. A.—About 100. Q.—What is your nationality? A.—I'm Scotch. Q.—What's the nationality of most of the citizens? A.—What do you want to know for? Q.—To decide a bet. A.—All English and Scotch. Q.—Any Irish there? A.—Not one. Q.—Any Jews? A.—Not a single Jew. Q.—Any French? A.—Nothing but English and Scotch. Q.—Are there any Americans in Peacham? Postmistress Rouse abruptly hung up.

Community Development

The City National Bank is strictly a local institution, owned and managed by men who are proud of and intensely interested in the development of their community.

One of the fundamental policies of the City National is that the deposits in the bank are to be used, as far as possible, to aid in the development and growth of our own locality, first of all.

By Associated Press. BURLINGTON, April 24.—Whether Germany is warranted in now coming forward with a reparations offer in view of her internal financial situation, is one of the questions that is perplexing Chancellor Cuno and his cabinet, according to well informed political circles.

The government is represented as being desirous of showing an accommodating attitude in response to Lord Curzon's recent appeal to Germany to make the first move for the settlement. If Herr Cuno decides to fix a figure which in his opinion and that of the cabinet members and Reichstag leaders, would actively promote objective discussions with the entente, political circles believe that it will be largely in deference to the "psychological atmosphere" created by Lord Curzon's remarks in the house of lords.

Both the chancellor and Foreign Minister von Rosenberg are still said to believe that the shortest road to a solution of the whole reparations tangle has been suggested by Secretary Hughes.

The chancellor and his foreign minister do not lack counsel in the situation created by Lord Curzon's address. As reflected in the press, this voluntary advice may be summed up in the words, "Go slowly; don't get nervous."

Among the reichstag parties, notably in the ranks of the united socialists, there is evidence of a strong determination to face the question of Germany's frontiers to an ultimate settlement; and there is also a desire that Germany's position in this respect be fixed quite as definitely as that of her ultimate reparations obligations.

This phase of the great settlement is being stressed as representing an imperative requirement for the future recognition of Germany's territorial sovereignty and as an indispensable condition to the maintenance of coordination in her internal financial and political affairs.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT IS EXPECTED BY BRITISH LONDON, April 24.—The prospect of Germany making a definite reparations offer especially with reference to a settlement of the Ruhr situation is widely discussed in the press here. The view is generally taken that recent utterances of German statesmen and comments by German newspapers point to the likelihood that an important announcement on this subject will be forthcoming from Berlin in the near future.

Opinions differ as to whether such a pronouncement would contain an outright offer in figures. It has been hinted here that Lord Curzon has suggested to Germany a plan which would be comparable to the allies, but The Times today pro-

Players Present Matinee Plays To Crowded Theater at Kemp Library; Pierias' All-Day Meeting Tuesday.

The Players Club gave their first performance of "Hearts" and "Poor Old Jim" Tuesday afternoon to a crowded theater at Kemp Library, and both plays were accorded the reception which has become characteristic of the Little Theater performances. The audience was delighted and responsive.

In "Hearts" the first sketch, Mrs. Jeffries, a comparatively recent addition to the Players, starred in the character of Mrs. Thomas. Mrs. Barker was in good character as "Cynthia," Mrs. Mark Moore as Jessica, and Mrs. A. J. McNeas as Nell. Mrs. Barker showed an easy improvement on her first stage appearance as the matron of the old lady's home in "Joint Owners in Spain" presented before Christmas, though she was in good character on that occasion.

In "Poor Old Jim" Mr. H. O. Newton carried the heavy part, that of the title role, exceptionally well. Mrs. Julian Montgomery made her first appearance in a Players' Club cast as Marie, his wife, and carried the part well, while Milburn Nutt was presented as Dr. Paul, a friend of the family.

Both plays were delightful, and the applause was spontaneous and appreciative. The stage set for the sketches—a drawing room representing "Hearts," and a sitting room in "Poor Old Jim" were especially attractive. In the former, Thomas and Mrs. M. C. Bates were responsible for this, with the appreciated cooperation of the W. W. Preslar Furniture store, McConnell Bros., Perkins-Timberlake, and the Burgess Jewelry Co.

A Pretty Social.
The social feature is always an attractive adjunct to the Players' Club entertainments, and added its bit to the success of Tuesday afternoon's and the evening performance. The guests were received at the door by Mesdames Geo. Paul, Rufus Thaxton, and T. A. Hicks, and Miss Lillian Fain, and seated by Misses Thelma Cain and Jewel Rose-Akin. The ushers were in costume, and wore a daffodil and a morning glory cap, respectively. During the intermission they distributed lovely favors, headed by Mrs. Paul—to the ladies, dainty little crepe paper flower pots bearing "golden juncos" and morning glories, and to the gentlemen, candy buttonholes.

Mrs. W. F. Pagan was the director for both plays, and was very successful. Despite the fact that Tuesday night there was a good crowd, the little theater being about two-thirds full.

MRS. THORNBERRY HOSTESS SUSANNAH WESLEY CLASS

Mrs. T. C. Thornberry was hostess to the Susannah Wesley Class of the Floral Heights Methodist Church Tuesday afternoon at her home on Ellingham street at a spend-the-day party, when 15 members of the class were seated on bazaar articles, made a comfort, and enjoyed conversation.

At noon the members were invited into the dining room and found the table laden with good things to eat. Those who were present included Mesdames W. B. Chauncey, J. M. Bland, Myrtle Taylor, F. E. Cox, Charles Hill, R. E. Schoonfield, M. J. Michaelis, J. H. Taylor, D. M. Reeves, Ours Ross, R. E. Howell, J. C. Ray, John Halilge, Milton Johnson and J. W. Ray and Mrs. Thornberry.

WOMAN SUFFERED FOR FIVE YEARS

Mrs. Tinker Declares Her Health Is Splendid Since Taking Stella Vitae

"Any woman who has suffered for five years like I did can appreciate what it means to get hold of such a good treatment as Stella Vitae," said Mrs. E. S. Tinker, resident of Beach, Texas.

"My system was badly run down and my constitution very much weakened and undermined. I found it hard to get over my troubles because nothing I took—and I tried most everything I could hear of—seemed to do me any good."

"I was ailing most all the time, and pains in different parts of my body just making me miserable from one day's end to another. I got so I couldn't take much interest in things and life was a constant burden to me."

"But Stella Vitae has done away with all that, and since I began this treatment I am feeling better and am in a better state of health than I had in five years. I just swear by Stella Vitae, for it is a woman's best friend."

Note.—Stella Vitae may be obtained from any druggist and is sold upon the positive guarantee that if it does not bring relief the purchase price will be refunded. The Purpore Drug Store and Miller's Drug Store.—(adv.)

VALUES KNEES AT $250,000

Ann Pennington, Actress, Has 'Em—Beauties, Too!

By MARIAN HALE
NEW YORK, April 25.—"My face is my fortune," sang the pretty milkmaid.
"My knees are mine," sings pretty Ann Pennington.
That's the reason she just had them insured for $250,000.

Artists have agreed that this petite Mancer has the most perfect pair of knees out of captivity. Rounded and dimpled as those of a child and covered with a pinkish glow as soft and satiny as advertisements any one's face could be.

Need I tell you that Ann wears her stockings rolled? This is the "of course I do," she assured me. "And I advise every other girl to do the same. It's infinitely more comfortable, more healthful than the old way."

Pat shoes and rolled stockings have done more to make walking, hiking and dancing popular than any other fad that we have ever known. Consequently they have made women exercise formerly because they were high heels and tight clothing. I thoroughly enjoyed my walk, and my graceful figure can be traced to vibrations of the laws of health and comfort. Whatever restricts a woman's freedom restricts her capacity for development.

"And of course I believe in going without corsets. The only reason women ever wear slaves to them was because they were too lazy to keep their figures trim by diet and exercise."

Jumping Rope.—Dancing and walking are two methods by which Ann firmly believes one must court beauty. Her favorite exercise, however, is jumping rope.

Mrs. Grady Taylor is hostess to the Pastimes Tuesday afternoon at her home on Bell avenue, when tables were arranged for three sets of plays.

In the games, Mrs. Davis won high score and was presented with a hand painted plate. Mrs. C. E. Overbeck of Dallas won high among the guests and received a pretty judge apron, while Mrs. H. A. Wright was consoled for low with a pair of shoe ties.

The hostess served fruit salad in orange cups, sandwiches, food fruit punch and cake to the following: Mesdames Bether Bridges, J. Truman Stevens, Fritz Taylor, Roscoe Davis, Roy Coffee, W. F. Billingsley, Paul Bond, N. Wright, R. J. Kuzma, C. E. Overbeck, C. Dallas, and Clifford Deaton, and Miss Mary A. Smith.

The club meets next week with Mrs. Wright at her home, 1111 Indiana.

First Baptist Senior Department Plans Big Barbecue for Thursday

The big feast will be served at 6:00 o'clock, with barbecue, now being roasted, deviled eggs, tomatoes, corn, pie and coffee. A pretty program will be given, and a list of names of the class and announces that the rain will not interfere in any way with the plans for the barbecue except to change the place of meeting.

After the barbecue there will be games and singing and other such things as singing, card playing, and every member of the senior department is invited to be present.

JUDGE AND MRS. MARTIN ENTERTAIN "42" CLUB

Judge and Mrs. F. A. Martin were host and hostess to the Tuesday Evening "42" Club at their home on Ninth street, when the occasion of their own little wedding anniversary furnished an inspiration for special decoration. The living room suite was beautifully decorated with carnations in bowls and vases, and ferns in pretty pots.

Mrs. C. M. Hoch of La Grange, Judge and Mrs. Martin's daughter, and Mrs. Lawrence Tracey of Louisiana, both house guests, were special guests at the party, and tables were arranged for 20 players. After a very delightful evening, during which the host and hostess were very much delighted upon their long and happy life together, the hostess served a delicious refreshment course of ice cream and angel food cake. Those present included Messrs. and Mesdames D. W. Womack, J. J. DeBerry, Charles Prigden, O. W. Harvey, Parker Simson, T. R. Boone, W. S. Curlee and A. B. Marley and Mesdames Hoch and Tracey.

ALATHEANS ENJOY A MONTHLY SOCIAL MEET

The members of the Althean class of the First Baptist Sunday School held their monthly business and social Tuesday afternoon at the church, when half a hundred guests enjoyed the friendly get-together.

The parlors were beautifully adorned with bridal wreaths, lilacs and honeysuckle.

During the afternoon new "capsules" were distributed, the little containers to be retained until the social meet in June. Mrs. O. G. Stevens played a piano solo and Miss Donna Mitchum gave a reading, after which the members enjoyed an old-fashioned spelling match, using Bible names and places to test the orthographical powers of the spellers. Mrs. J. M. Schaffer won honors of the day in this.

Members of Grub Six of the class were hostesses, and later in the afternoon served fruit, salad, cheese wafers, punch and cake to the following: Mesdames (with Hendricks) J. C. Walker, E. F. S. E. DAVIS FOUND NOT GUILTY UPON COURT'S RULING

JUDGE WM. H. ATWELL INSTRUCTS JURY TO ACQUIT DEFENDANT OF CHARGE

FAULTY INDICTMENT IS RESPONSIBLE FOR MOVE

Bill Was Drawn Awkwardly and Did Not Permit Introduction of All Testimony

S. E. Davis, promoter and stockholder of the Mo-Tex Oil Company in 1919, was found not guilty of the charge of using the mails to defraud, a jury in federal court Tuesday evening returning the verdict upon instructions of U. S. District Judge Wm. H. Atwell.

The instructed verdict followed a motion put by defense counsel, Attorney Charles Francis, who had earlier in the trial presented a motion to quash the indictment on the grounds that it was not specific in its allegations and that it failed to recite in only general terms.

In instructing the jury to return a verdict of not guilty, Judge Atwell stated that the indictment was faulty in its form, that it was only a course for the court to follow that was sustained in the motion as put by the defense.

The court expressed himself slightly that had the indictment been drawn in specific terms that a large part of the testimony which necessarily had to be excluded would have been admitted and that in his opinion there was sufficient testimony on hand to have the jury consider a verdict on the facts.

JUDGE DISMISSES PETIT JURY FROM FURTHER SERVICE

The petit jury in the United States district court was dismissed with the thanks of the court by Judge Wm. H. Atwell Wednesday morning immediately after the motion to quash the indictment in the Jay F. Smith case was sustained.

Judge Atwell commended the jurors for their faithful attendance and the services rendered to the country and the public. The jurors drew their pay and departed for their respective homes having been in attendance on the court for five weeks.

Only a small number of cases remain on the docket and it is evident that the court's business will be concluded for this term by Friday. At that time the term will be closed and a new one will be opened here on Monday, July 23. A large number of criminal cases, as well as civil matters have been set for trial on that date.

2 EXTENSIONS ARE INDICATED IN AREA OF PETERSEN WELL

Two extensions were made Tuesday to the producing area of the Petersen pool in Archer county by the picking up of the sand in the Aaron Cohn well No. 2 and the McCarty Oil Company encountered the pay in No. 2 at the usual depth of 1,574 feet.

FILES MOTION TO ARREST JUDGMENT AFTER PAYING FINE

A motion in arrest of judgment has been filed in the United States district court by Roy A. Taylor in connection with his conviction in the case in which he stood charged with possession of a gallon of grain alcohol. A hearing will be had before Judge Atwell Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Taylor plead not guilty to the charge and upon trial was found guilty. Judge Atwell assessed a fine of $100, the maximum allowed under the law for the first offense.

The motion sets up that the complaint on which he was tried was not signed and sworn to. The defendant has already paid his fine of $100.

President "Makes Up" Editorial Page on New York Tribune And Enjoys Visit With The Printers

NEW YORK, April 25.—Aside from the side track near the Wichita Mill and Elevator Company in this city but that he had been agreed to haul it to Electric by a derrick there and that the check for $150 which was introduced was not in payment for the pipe but in payment for services rendered in hauling and delivering the pipe at Electric.

The state brought out from the defendant that he had served a term in the Oklahoma state reformatory for theft of an automobile.

It was a diversified day for the president, one typical of New York. He spent the morning in political conferences and then gave the first of the important addresses he had planned to make in his advocacy of American participation in the world court.

And not only printers and pressmen and thirty-second-office boys and men in the delivery room of the Tribune, but thousands of baseball fans, a couple score major league baseball players and Babe Ruth, the self-revived idol of little lads and big, who could not get his mouth to close all the time he stood there with the president having his picture taken, have got something to remember too.

Mr. Harding was so interested by the events of the day that she hadn't thought about being tired when midnight came. She only regretted that they had but one day to give to baseball and that it had to be a windy, blustery one that prevented her from accompanying her husband to the ball park to see the bambino smack a home run.

The president washed his hands with the printers in their own washroom, dried his hands on a stained towel, and then taking leave of Postmaster General New and Chairman Lasker of the shipping board, who will remain here, drove back to the station where he was entrained and departed for home at 12:45.

MOTION TO QUASH IS SUSTAINED IN JAY F. SMITH CASE

A motion to quash the indictment in the Jay F. Smith case, in which the defendant stood charged with using the U. S. mails to defraud, was sustained Wednesday morning by Judge Wm. H. Atwell.

The defense presented practically the same motion as was filed in the

S. E. Davis case, but went further in its contentions. It was contended and the indictment bore out the contentions that the word "knowingly" had been omitted in the allegations that a certain letter had been deposited in the mails containing certain signatures.

When the motion was presented, the prosecution admitted that in their opinion the indictment was faulty. After a few minutes' time Judge Atwell announced that he sustained the motion.

The indictment in the Smith case was practically the same in structure as that in the Davis case which had been labeled too general and awkward.

The law firm of McLean, Scott, McLean and Bayers of Fort Worth represented the defendant. Attorney Walter Scott and Mr. Bayers were here in person.

Woman Has Imposed Death Penalty On Twenty Five Since February And Says Conscience Does Not Hurt Her

By Associated Press. MOSCOW, April 25.—Citizens Anna Gluzman, the 29-year-old presiding judge of the Moscow district court, who a few days ago sent seven men to their death for robbery, informed The Associated Press correspondent today that she had imposed the death penalty on about 25 persons since February, and had lost a month's sleep and been troubled by her conscience because of them.

"I asked how, as a woman, she felt when the doomed were shot, she replied that the question of individual lives could have no consideration when crimes against the safety of the state and the public were involved. She had to administer justice according to the law of evidence, though she tried to temper her decisions with mercy when possible.

"With a cigarette held firmly between her lips and the fire of an enthusiast in her brown eyes, she looked busy as she spoke of her experience. She is slim and short, not at all pretty; her brown wavy hair is combed and parted on the side like a man's, and she wears a simple dress as she was today. Citizens Gluzman might have posed for a representation of what some of the work she has done as a typical woman communist.

Anton Lang Declares That Christ Would Be Rejected Should He Come Denies Alleged Attack on the Jews

By KARL H. VON WIEGAND. Universal Service Staff Correspondent. OBERAMMERGAU, BAVARIA, April 24.—"If Christ came to earth today He would again be rejected as He was 2,000 years ago," declared Anton Lang, who is known to hundreds of thousands the world over for his role as a film actor in the Oberammergau Passion play.

Lang made the declaration to me today when I came over from Munich to see him. Lang indignantly denied an alleged interview recently printed in American papers in which he was made to say that he had never recovered until she "had driven the last Jew out of the country."

"What I said was that the world is so fitted with hatred and irreligion and the lack of simple faith, that if Christ came today He would be driven out as He was then and held up to scorn," said Lang.

"I did not say anything about the Jews and I didn't have them in mind when I made my statement."

Discussing an offer he had just received from a group of American film companies to go to Palestine and there play the role of Jesus in a film, Lang said: "I would be driven out of the village should I allow myself to be filmed."

The total compensation received by Lang for playing his great role from May to October, and a hundred rehearsal preceding the opening was 31,000 paper marks, or according to today's exchange, just about one dollar.

PUBLISHERS URGED TO AVOID WASTE OF NEWSPRINT SUPPLY

NEW YORK, April 25.—Avoidance of extravagant and wasteful use of newsprint was urged upon members of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association at the annual meeting today in an address by its president, Paul Patterson, publisher of the Baltimore Sun.

The record breaking rate of newsprint consumption continues, he asserted, but expansion in the mills should provide an adequate supply if publishers do not waste it.

After referring to successful negotiations for new arbitration contract with the International Printing Pressmen and Assistants Union, North America, Mr. Patterson said:

"The situation as to the negotiations with the remaining unions is deadlocked and presents one of the most important problems for consideration by the association."

"The assistance it had given in relieving newspaper shipments from various sources and preventing the use of the committee had found railroad officials anxious to do all in their power to meet the requirements of the situation."

"Only in the case of the fight for a reasonable modification of the contract with the International Printing Pressmen and Assistants Union, he continued, 'the refusal of congress to grant the remedy asked for in this connection is an unabated source of concern to the part of a certain group of congressmen and this situation may be expected to continue until congress realizes the importance of the soundness of the existing rates.'"

Dancing Marathon Ended In Disgust, Despair, Distrust

NEW YORK, April 25.—Eight pairs of dancers decidedly without the slightest taste for food, learned last night what an old salt means when he talks about "sea legs."

While they were gathering this information their managers, Charles F. Burgess learned what some other people have said perpetual motion dancing is "a cancer," he said, peering through the mists past a flock of patrolmen. "I can now see that it was all cruel and inhuman."

And, thus ended in disgust, despair and distrust the first six day dancing marathon, a wet, woeful failure.

The eight couples started stumbling the heavy fantastic midnight Monday, and at noon yesterday had reached 12 hours and the disapproval of the police. They were ordered either to stop or get out of the state so they decided to go to sea. The plan was 12 hours at sea, 12 on land, and 12 on sea.

MORE BRIDES AND BRIDEGROOMS ARE ASKED TO TESTIFY

By Associated Press. ST. JOSEPH, MICH., April 25.—Three girl brides from the Shiloh home of King Benjamin Purcell, of the House of David and three youthful bridegrooms from other cottages of the religious colony were called to testify today by the state in the investigation of charges of immorality in the cult.

Four of last week's brides and their young husbands already have testified that they have violated the lascivious sect's virgin rule, which forbids the ordinary relations of married life between husband and wife. Twenty of the 28 young people who went through a group marriage ceremony before a woman justice of the peace last week, remain to be questioned by Judge Harry Dingsman, the one man grand jury and Attorney General Laughery of Michigan.

According to reports of the testimony given by the four young couples who already have appeared before Judge Dingsman, even free love is permissible in the House of David. They are said to have told Judge Dingsman that observance of the colony's rule was left to the conscience of the individual, and that there was nothing to prevent men disciples from visiting women members at any time they chose and staying as late as they pleased.

DULL HEADACHE AND BILIOUSNESS

Theford's Black-Draught Has Been Used in This Virginia Lady's Home For More than 30 Years

BEASLEY, VA.—Mrs. Jeanette S. Carnel says that she has kept Theford's Black-Draught liver medicine in her home, here, for more than thirty years, and has given it to members of her family when they needed it. Of her own use of Black-Draught, Mrs. Carnel says: "I have suffered from constipation. I get in such bad condition sometimes that I do not know what to do. My head aches with a dull kind of an ache, and I get bilious. I have found Black-Draught to be the best relief for this I have ever tried. We have come to depend on it in our family as a family friend."

"Black-Draught is very convenient to take: I take a half spoonful in water as long as I need it and it is the finest regulator for the bowels. I got stopped up and had a full, swollen feeling through my stomach, sometimes I would even faint, they would be so hard to get. Now, when I feel myself getting the least bit constipated, I immediately begin the use of Black-Draught. I have given it to my children and my grandchildren. Everybody here takes it. Sometimes my granddaughter eats too much, and this is followed by sour stomach—she runs at once for Black-Draught. I am glad to recommend it."

Flaherty and Swartz in Hurling Duel That is Marred by Too Many Misplays; To Meet Cats Wednesday

DALLAS, April 25.—Coming from behind twice to tie the score the Steers finally won in Tuesday's final game of the series with the Spudders, 3 to 2, in eleven innings. For nine innings it was a hurling duel between Pat Flaherty of the Steers and Lefty Swartz of the Spudders, the latter holding the edge in hits, but the former proving decidedly effective in the final, as he had Flaherty been accorded perfect support, the game would never have gone into extra innings, for the Spudders gave him a run in the fourth and that was sufficient working room for the big Irishman until an error saved the game in the tenth inning. Flaherty's single, which led to the Spudders' first run, was a double in the Steers' half of the inning by passing a batter and hitting another. Hippo Hodges was injured at this stage and the southpaw's odd chunk to second base for a force out led to the being run in. Flaherty had to be called in to silence the rally and Segrist left three Steers on the bases when he hoisted to the outfield.

Darrough could not keep the pace and the Steers were ahead 2-0 in the seventh. Bobby Stow opened the inning with a double, Allen sacrificed and Lingie's single scored Stow. The Spudders have Lingie and Swartz, the Steer battery, to blame for the loss in the fourth. Hippo Hodges drove in two of the Dallas runs, while Swartz was almost unhittable on the mound. Up to the tenth inning he had allowed but two runs. Swartz's wildness started the first run of the game, the Spudders going into the lead in the fourth. Flaherty drew a pass and Swartz hit Elliott. Whitman delivered a single, the first of Swartz, and scored Tanner. Flaherty was hit by a pitch in the first six innings, but Berger's error on Segrist's grounder saved the way for the Steers to tie the score in the seventh. Stow sacrificed and after Allen had gone out, Lingie doubled, scoring Segrist. There was no more scoring until the ninth, when Swartz two base blow and Berger's single again gave the Spudders a working margin.

Flaherty failed to start the Dallas tenth and Matthes was sent in to bat for Swartz. Stow sacrificed and after Lingie had gone out, Matthes grounded to Elliott and the situation was hopeless when Matthes hit Elliott's throw to third out Lingie. Hamlin's fields ran for Matthes. Flaherty was hit by a pitch and Hamlin yanked Flaherty for Hodges. Hodges made Wano hit back to the box, but his throw to force Hamilton at second and Elliott's single scored. Donohue hit to Tanner and Wano was forced at second. With two right-hand hitters coming up, Flaherty again switched pitchers, sending in Darrough. Darrough passed Vache on four straight balls and scored Hamlin.

The Spudders failed to get a man to first in the eleventh with Conley for Flaherty. The Steers celebrated youth for the telling run in their half. The Spudders moved on to Fort Worth for a Tuesday game with the Panthers starting Wednesday. The score:

The Lookout

By AL PARKER

Now ain't it a funny old game? About a week ago everybody was saying that Spudders would only get some pitching. They couldn't stop us. Now we're getting the pitching and the swatters layin' down on the job.

Howsoever, that pitching being turned in by our noble slammers don't listen half bad. For that's the department that has looked shaky from the start. The two games lost at Dallas were 4 to 2 and 2 to 2 scores. No punk hurling there.

After Tuesday's game there was only one Spudder remaining in the 500 class. That, aside from the fact that Spudder runs have been sorely tested, shows the absence of the Spudder warblers.

After a week's play around the circuit, things are beginning to adjust themselves. Dallas is still playing above its head. That club as it now stands has lost two from Fort Worth and Wichita Falls, even though all but two of the games were at home.

The Spudders are 50-50 on the road. That's about right for a strong pennant contender. Fort Worth is but one game below the 500 mark. Nothing wrong there. Most of the Cats' game have been on foreign fields.

In North Texas Beaumont is another club that seems to be playing a bit above its class, but all of the Exports' games have been at home until Tuesday. And that means more at Beaumont than elsewhere. The short rightfield fence—just two bases long—gives that club an advantage at home that no other club enjoys. The Danbans seem to be stragglers, at least losing the first three games. They are now 50-50, and that's about right, too, with all their games but one away from home.

Also, the major leagues may be showing signs of returning to earth, with Cleveland losing its first game. The Giants have won eight games and lost one. Even with the cinch the Giants have in the National, that ratio is a bit lopsided.

Bill Killefer's kids are making a tall stand against the Giants and are only a half game behind the champions. Pirates and Reds are hardly living up to expectations and are expected to be reworked by anybody to win many ball games.

The Yanks are rocking about right in the American and since the Indians have been stopped, maybe they will fall back to a normal gait, which would mean two games won than lost. The Browns and White Sox are hardly setting the pace expected of them, while the Tigers and Athletics are pretty well in line.

These Texas League graduates of last year manage to break into the big league headlines every day. Tuesday it was Fred Johnson, sensation. Bear Hunter of last year, that broke into big league. Johnson had the Robins' hitters for the final half of the Giants' victory over Brooklyn. The only two men to reach first off Johnson were given passes.

Stanford's bid for supremacy rests mainly upon her two stellar performers, Francis Davies and Phil Neer—who now hold the American National intercollegiate doubles title, and whose individual work in the singles tournaments of a year ago carried them near the top.

NEAR BECAME NATIONAL SINGLES INTERCOLLEGIATE CHAMPION TWO YEARS ago, and held the title a year ago. While Davies and Neer are laying plans for their play against the Englishmen, they are looking forward to their annual matches in the national intercollegiate championships, which the Cardinal players have good opportunity of winning in both singles and doubles.

Spudders Open Here Friday Mayor Frank Collier to Start It

Mayor Frank Collier will usher in the baseball season at Athletic Park Friday afternoon by tossing up the first ball to the leadoff man of the Spudders' first stand on the home town. Secretary J. Will Gray deserted the Spudders after Tuesday's contest at Dallas and returned home to begin preparations for the opening day game here.

Mayor Collier's battery mate has not been decided upon as yet, according to the Spudder secretary, nor has it been determined yet whether some notable from the city will be the catcher or the pitcher. The Spudder receivers. At any rate, the mayor says he can put the old apple right down the grooves and it won't take a regular catcher to hang on to it.

The opening day affair is slated to start at 4 o'clock, that is the actual play will start at that time. Opening day festivities usually consume 15 or 20 minutes, and it is likely that proceedings will get under way about 3:50 o'clock.

The usual before the game parade will be one of the big events of the day. The players of both teams, city officials and a band occupying prominent places.

Secretary Gray and Precy R. O. Harvey are making an effort to get the retail merchants to reconsider their stand not to close their establishments for the game, and it may be that the merchants will close at least a part of the afternoon.

Spudder fans are going to have to hustle and do some boosting to win the attendance cup offered by President Doak Roberts. Shreveport and Beaumont already have put up strong bids, and Galveston opened Tuesday to a crowd estimated at 6,000. It'll be a big boost to Wichita if that cup can be brought to Spuderville, and it's to the interests of all to put forth their best efforts in drawing out a record crowd. It'll take a record crowd to get the cup after the opening at Shreveport, Beaumont and Galveston.

NEW YORK LIFTS BAN ON JOHNNY KILBANE, BUT HE MUST MEET CHALLENGER

By THOMAS L. CUMMERLEY, Universal Service Sports Editor. NEW YORK, April 25.—The newly appointed licensee of the world's featherweight champion, a license to box in this state at a meeting Tuesday, Kibane made application to the end of boxing Eugene Egan, champion of Paris, European champion at the Polo Grounds, June 2, but all is not clear sailing yet.

Chairman William Muldoon of the state boxing commission, who months ago declared Kibane's title forfeited as regards this state, for failure to accept a challenge from Johnny Dundee, said tonight that the license merely puts Kibane in the jurisdiction of his opponent, which Kibane can go ahead with any plans to fight Cigoli, but that no new restrictions will be put on Kibane's fight with Dundee, who was made to retract the challenge, and give Kibane free rein. Chairman Muldoon said the Cigoli-Kibane match can be staged.

On the other hand, if Dundee should insist that Kibane must accept his challenge, which was made with 2,500 posted as evidence of good faith, Chairman Muldoon declared he will back up Dundee, and refuse to allow the Cigoli-Kibane affair.

Babe Ruth arose to the occasion again Tuesday and hit a home run into the right field bleachers for the edification of President Harding. The ball went into the same place Ruth's first homer, which delighted 74,200 on the opening day, and was an honest to goodness Ruthian ram. As the Babe crossed the plate, he smiled at the president and tipped his cap.

The Babe was escorted over to the president's box after his homer. A photographer who didn't get President Harding and Babe shaking hands the first time, rushed up to Babe and said: "Shake hands with him again will you?" The Babe was willing and so was the president.

With the camera meg cranking furiously, Babe Ruth played a large part in the president's day. He was in sympathy with the home team for the day. Nick Altrock, Senator's comedian, insisted, however, that the president and nearly all of the official positions are open to the women of Rhodeola, South Africa.

Several thousand future citizens of Wichita Falls Tuesday afternoon witnessed the placing of the cornerstone of the institution which will offer them the means and the opportunity of becoming patri-

That institution, the junior college and high school, now under way, was dedicated by Judge Atwell to typify a tremendous step forward for this community.

Over 2,000 children and citizens crowded about to witness the ceremony which by custom marks the beginning of a public building.

United States District Judge Wm. H. Atwell was the principal speaker at the exercises presiding over the laying of the stone. Responses were made by Miss Leta Tucker, a representative of the class of the girls of the city; Joe Barbara, of the senior class and a representative of the boyhood of the city, and by Ebon Keith of the junior college. Judge A. H. Cartigan, president of the school board, presided and introduced the speakers.

Before the cornerstones was swung into place and permitted to rest upon the lower foundation upon which Miss Haynes had placed, a large number of children of cement, a copper box was securely placed within the stone.

The cornerstones contains a number of articles that in five years will supply a most interesting record of the past.
