AUSTIN, May 1.—Consideration of the Harris bill seeking to limit the free text book fund to $1.50 per scholastic was continued in the House today after it came up under special order. Amendments were offered by Pope, Greer and Pate. Mr. Pope withdrew an amendment to restrict the fund to 50 cents per scholastic and offered a substitute embodying his proposal to extend the act to August 31, 1923.

Mr. Greer sought to make the sum $1.50, but the amendment was not sufficient for necessary replacements. ## FLORIDA GOVERNOR URGES DISMISSAL OF COUNTY JUDGE

RECOMMENDATION IS MADE TO SENATE MONDAY AFTER-NOON.

SENTENCED TABERT TO LUMBER COMPANY CAMP

Official is Charged With Malfeasance and Drunkenness in Office.

By Universal Service.
TALLAHASSEE, Fla., May 1.—Governor Hardee has recommended to the senate the dismissal of J. W. Tabert, county judge of Leon county, on charges of malfeasance and drunkenness, growing out of the investigation of the death of Martin Tabert in a convict camp.

It was Judge Willis who sentenced Tabert to the camp for 30 days for a charge of being drunk on the job. He had been working at the camp and died two days later.

Sheriff Jones, of Leon county, who caused the arrest of Tabert, was removed from office by the senate last week on charges the same as those filed against Judge Willis.

It was charged that Willis and Jones had conspired to "railroad" the case. The senate committee on the case has recommended that Jones should collect $20 a head for the convicts.

The federal officials say they have evidence to show that the negro died as the result of continued beating. He had been working at the camp of the Putnam Lumber Company in which Tabert died.

The state board of medical examiners today began consideration of a recommendation of the convict investigating committee that Dr. T. J. Jones be barred from further medical practice in Florida.

The committee charges that Dr. Jones misstated facts dealing with the death of Ned Thompson, a negro, 45 years old, who died in the Leon county jail shortly after he was returned from a lease convict camp in which Tabert died.

WORKING OUT PLAN TO MEET DECISION ON LIQUOR AT SEA

DEPARTMENTS ARE GIVING CLOSE STUDY TO SITUATION CREATED.

CABINET DISCUSSES QUESTION AT MEETING

Prediction is Made That Congress Will Enact Law Covering Matter.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Definite indications were given by Chairman Lusk of the shipping board after a conference with President Harding today that government owned ships would be kept "bone dry" for some time at least "unless under yesterday's supreme court decision ships legally could carry and serve liquor as the law stands.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Officials of the several government departments concerned today were giving close study to the situation resulting from the supreme court's decision on ship liquor, yesterday, with a view to permanent adjustments of policy under the court's interpretation of the prohibition laws as applying at sea. There was an obvious purpose to proceed with careful regard for all questions involved and to avoid any possible complications particularly in the application of the law to the presence of liquor on foreign ships as well as domestic within three miles of the shores of the United States was held unlawful.

Both that phase of the decision and the court's declaration that American ships can legally sell liquor to passengers outside the three mile limit were expected to come up for discussion at today's cabinet meeting.

As to vessels of the shipping board, Chairman Lusk announced after the decision that for the present at least, there would be no lifting of the ban on liquor on government ships. Meanwhile the treasury is preparing to begin at once to re-draft its prohibition regulations in accordance with the decision, when ready saying that careful study would have to be given the matter. Secretary Mellon declined to comment on the policy of complaints arising out of the decision, where foreign laws compel ships of home registry to carry liquor as part of the ship's stores. The question whether the decision would require the imposition of every vessel entering an American port also remains to be decided.

Many "dry" leaders were predicting today that in view of the power of congress, as pointed out in the supreme court's decision, to forbid American ships to carry and serve liquor outside the three mile limit, an attempt would be made to secure legislation to this effect at the earliest opportunity.

BLOW TO BRITISH SHIPS AND LIQUOR INTERESTS
By Associated Press.
LONDON, May 1.—The decision of the supreme court of the United States barring vessels from transporting liquor within the American three mile limit was generally declared in shipping circles today to be one of the hardest blows suffered by the British transatlantic companies and liquor interests since the inauguration of a prohibition in America. Measures to meet the situation are already under consideration.

There are two schools of thought on the issue among British shipping men. One strenuously opposes interference by the United States with foreign vessels, while the other regards the supreme court ruling as a logical development of the prohibition movement. Members of the latter group indicate they will urge immediate abandonment of all attempts to carry liquor in American territorial waters.

Among those who advocated the best of the situation are a number of ship owners who have been forced to station outside the three mile limit a number of establishments of supply three mile limit to furnish transatlantic boats with liquor after they leave American ports.

STANDARD OIL PLANS TO WRECK INDEPENDENTS SAYS N. Y. WORLD QUOTING WALL STREET OPINION

NEW YORK, May 1.—A struggle for domination between opposing elements in the petroleum industry York World says today, with the Standard Oil interests and a few other big refiners aligned against independent companies operating chiefly in the mid-continent field.

The total financing strength of the Standard Oil groups is given as $522,000,000 by the paper, and that of the independents as $145,500,000. The offensive, which was behind the general smash in prices on the New York Stock Exchange yesterday, was initiated by Standard Oil by the street for three weeks. The objective, it is asserted, is the wrecking of the independents and the eventual control of the mid-continent field by the Standard Oil interests.

"Recently gasoline prices have been subject to several cuts, always initiated by the Standard Oil Companies and followed by the independents," the article says. Three cuts appear purely artificial to Wall Street for the reason that while consumption was increased enormously this year, Mexican production has continued to slump and the total supply of gasoline available is relatively lower than last year.

"For these reasons, it is said that the price reductions both in gasoline and California crude oil have been aimed at the independents. If the independents were out of the way it would be possible for the Standard Oil interests to effect a decrease in Mexican yields and increasing consumption in this country to put the price of gasoline in the air."

It was reported that the independents probably would take their case to the department of justice, claiming that Standard Oil, despite its dissolution, was still in a position to strangle competition and that its present attack on the independents constituted a violation of the Sherman act.

Both that phase of the decision and the court's declaration that American ships can legally sell liquor to passengers outside the three mile limit were expected to come up for discussion at today's cabinet meeting.

OPLELOUSA, La., May 1.—The state had taken no action early today against Miss Josie Pultz, a high school teacher of Scott, La., who is charged by the federal authorities with having sent a por-body of a newborn infant from Scott to Duncan, Okla., on April 18.

She is said by authorities to have confessed.

Miss Pultz, who was brought here yesterday from La Fayette, waived arrangement before United States Commissioner Leon Haas and was released on bond of $2,500.

Physicians attending Miss Pultz at a local hospital issued instruc-

LABOR IN EUROPE
CELEBRATING MAY
DAY WITH PARADES

By Associated Press.
LONDON, May 1.—European labor today celebrated its annual holiday with its usual parades and demonstrations of the worker as an economic factor and at the same time setting forth his grievances.

Reports from the capitals of Europe indicated that the holiday was expected to pass peacefully, marked by their usual parades and demonstrations and in some instances by the customary 24-hour strikes. German labor in particular has made plans to celebrate what it regards as its "invaluable" contribution to passive resistance in the Ruhr, while in England, labor's celebration was expected to be marked by parades and meetings served to give workers a protest against the position in the house of commons,

Twenty-four hour strikes have been voted by a majority of the industrial workers unions in Paris, but the transport union has decided to observe only a ten minute vacation.

Italy celebrated its labor day on April 21, Rome's birthday, and consequently little interruption in the usual routine of business and industry was anticipated.

There have been suggestions of trouble in Bavaria, but the government of that state has announced that the transport union has decided to observe only a ten minute vacation.

SHOPCRAFT LEADERS ABANDON FIGHT ON FEDERAL INJUNCTION

DECLARE PRINCIPAL CON-TENTION IN CASE HAS BEEN UPHELD.

DEFENSE ATTORNEYS
ANNOUNCE WITHDRAWAL

Action Comes Just Twenty-Four Hours in Advance of Federal Hearing.

CHICAGO, May 1.—The leaders of the strike of railroad shopmen today abandoned their case in defense against the federal injunction obtained by attorney general Harry M. Daugherty last September and announced that their principal contention in the case had been upheld.

The announcement by counsel for the defendants, coming 24 hours in advance of the hearing on the government's application for a permanent injunction, caused Blackburn Esteliner, assistant solicitor general of the United States, to declare the action of the defense as amounting to a default which he termed a "trifling."

After announcing that all attorneys for the defense had withdrawn at the request of the officers of the railway employees department of the American Federation of Labor, Donald H. Rieberg, of defense counsel, explained that the shopmen were satisfied with the situation and that the government could find such satisfaction as they could and do as they wished with the case. He made public a letter addressed to himself, Frank L. Mulholland, Toledo, Ohio, and James Eashy Smith of Washington, the attorneys for the defense, Mr. Jewell, president of the railway employees department and other leaders explaining their view of the case.

Refer to Decision
The suit, the letter declares, involves the right to strike, and that if the government had called upon the strike a conspiracy and that its primary purpose was to seek to establish that a concerted refusal to accept wages and working conditions as fixed by the railroad employers was unlawful, this contention, the shopmen leaders referred to the supreme court decision in the case of the Pennsylvania railroad against the labor board in which the court held that it was not a conspiracy to strike by the employees, although holding that there was a moral constraint to do so.

"The supreme court upholds the contentions of the defendants in this proceeding," said the letter,
"that the legal right of members of the railroad labor organizations to strike heretofore repeatedly affirmed by the courts, has not been destroyed by the provisions of the transportation act providing for the creation of the railroad labor board.
The defendants are, therefore, assured that the district court will not hold in the present case that the strike of July 1, 1922, was unlawful in its inception, or was a strike against the government."

The letter continued that aside from the primary charge that the strike was illegal, no matter how peacefully conducted, there was a charge that acts of lawlessness and violence had accompanied the strike.
The shopmen set forth that in response they never had opposed an injunction against lawlessness.

As to the government bill of complaint in support of the application for a permanent injunction against the activities of the defendants in spite of the strike, the letter declared:

"This nationwide strike no longer exists." It says: "A strike lock-out conditions remains in effect in places operating approximately 10,000 miles."
"In the case of the Duplex Printing Press Company vs. Deering," the letter asserted, "the supreme court held that the right to a permanent injunction in a case of this character must be determined at the time of the hearing."
"This they declared, meant that government would be called upon to prove that the conditions existing on May 1, 1922, were such as to justify the issuance of a permanent injunction in that case, and defense was not represented. The defendants believed that in view of all the considerations set forth that they were unable to meet the heavy cost of any further presentation of a defense in this case."

THREE GROUPS OF THOSE OPPOSED TO WORLD COURT PLAN

ONE ELEMENT ANXIOUS TO KEEP HARDING OUT OF CAMPAIGN.

SINCERE ISOLATIONISTS COMPRISE SECOND GROUP

Third Opposed to Plan Because They Do Not Think It Goes Far Enough.

By MARK SULLIVAN
Political Correspondent of the New York Tribune and Wichita Daily Times.
(Copyright 1923 by Tribune, Inc.)

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Those who are opposed to Harding's world court are divided into three groups.

It will help to make the situation clear if we treat first the group that is not primarily concerned with the court, but is composed of persons who in the back of their heads, for one reason or another, have the wish more or less definite, to get Harding out of the White House. Some of them sincerely believe there are serious candidates with whom the Republicans could make a better showing in the election next year. Some others merely would like to see Harding out in order to have in the White House a man who is their personal friend in the sense that Harding does not appear to be. Some other state leaders feel that as to their individual states, they could get more Republican votes next year with some candidate other than Harding, some candidate who, for one reason or another, they believe would be a better man than Harding.

It is the strategy of this group that wants Harding out of the White House, not to oppose him openly, but to create a situation which would enable them to go to Harding and say that his strength with the rank and file of the party has been so weakened that he would help the party's fortunes next year by stepping aside and letting some one else run. There isn't much likelihood of Harding doing this. Nevertheless, the anti-Harding group in this state, composed of aggressive men, and they can be expected to keep on quietly working on their plans. This group has no particular concern with the world court. Their main concern is with getting Harding out of the White House, and they are doing this by every means in their power.

Sincere isolationists. Consider next the group that is against Harding's court, partly because they are sincere isolationists, partly because they are opposed to any and every court as being in their view some kind of a foreign entanglement, because, because Harding's court is tied up to the League of Nations. Several of this group have the feeling that the court is a compromise which is taken away from the League of Nations and given to the ambassadors and ministers of the various nations resident at the White House. This compromise is so obvious and so likely that it may almost be spoken of as the third group plan.

But we come now to the third group which, in the judgment of the writer, is decidedly formidable. This is the group which opposes Harding's court, not because it is too much of a foreign entanglement, but because it is too little. They oppose Harding's court because it does not go far enough. They are in favor of a very much more powerful court, a court which shall have, what Harding's court does not, namely, compulsory jurisdiction. In this suggested more powerful court, for example, any nation would have the right to lodge before the court a complaint against the United States, just as a citizen does in a civil court, and thereafter the court would have the power to cite the United States to come in and defend itself. The most conspicuous of the advocates of this more powerful court is Senator Borah of Idaho. Those who believe in it include some powerful persons. For example at the same time that the court was being discussed in the Senate, Robert Cecil spoke in Des Moines, a woman Judge from Cleveland, Judge Allen, made a speech in favor of the Borah type of court, which was so well received by the women that it is described as having more or less

3 Contestants in Marathan Dance Still Going Tuesday, Two Of Them on Floor for 27 Hours

Twenty-seven hours after they started their effort to set a new record for endurance dancing, Louis B. Rice and Mrs. Jennie Mae McElroy were still stepping along Tuesday afternoon. They were then about one-fifth of the way to the coveted distinction. Neither seemed to show many signs of tiring and apparently they were good for many hours yet. Only one other aspirant was still going Tuesday afternoon, out of ten or twelve who started late Monday, Miss Lois McKay, who went on the floor at nine o'clock Monday night, was still going Tuesday afternoon, sometimes with a partner, sometimes alone. Half a dozen couples that started at 10:30 Monday night and Monday night gave it up after dancing from an hour to ten hours. The three contestants will undergo physical examinations Tuesday afternoon to determine their fitness to continue dancing. They are fed during the 26-minute rest periods with soft-boiled eggs and liquid foods. And it's a long time until Sunday morning.

WOMAN PROTESTS Choir Screechings Changes Bequest

NEW YORK, May 1.—"Screechings" of the boy choir of the exclusive Fifth Avenue Episcopal church of St. Thomas, whose stately home at Fifty-Third street is considered one of the best Gothic examples in the country, caused the transfer of a society woman's bequest from a home for incurable children to a memorial capital for Cruelty to Animals. This became known today when it was learned that Mrs. Simon McHie, wealthy broker's wife, had visited the police yesterday, and complained of the choir's "screechings" across the street. ### LOCAL REFINERS GO TO AUSTIN TO URGE TAX CHANGE

DECIDE AT MEETING MONDAY TO ASK FOR AMENDMENTS TO LAW.

4 CENTS PER GALLON DUE IN SOME CASES

Legislature Will Be Asked to Provide For More Equitable Collection of Tax.

Following a conference of representatives of local refiners Monday, a committee consisting of G. C. Jensen, H. A. Allen and S. M. ...

In its present form, refiners claim, the measure would result in a tax of four cents a gallon, one cent tax being assessed each time the gas was sold; considerable amount is sold by refiners to jobbers, by jobbers to tank wagons, by tank wagon operators to filling stations, and by the stations to motorists.

The law in its present form gives a "big advantage to refiners in Oklahoma, which, doing an interstate business, can avoid the Texas tax.

Judge J. T. Montgomery, who is now in Austin, will attend the hearing Tuesday and assist the refiners' committee.

While many local refiners, as indicated in The Times some weeks ago, believe the law is unconstitutional, they will seek to have it put in a form that will be equitable.

A law providing for collection of the tax at the filling station, if there must be a gasoline station, is favored by refiners here; they point out that the automobile owner pays the tax in any event, and that it is unfair to Texas refiners to attempt to camouflage that fact by making the tax collectible from refiners and jobbers.

C. OF C. TO SEND REPRESENTATIVE TO HEARING ON TAXES

At a meeting of the chamber of commerce directors Tuesday morning, it was voted to send Judge R. E. Huff to Austin to answer before the committee considering the "tax-dodging" bill, and to present the views of this section. The hearing will be held Wednesday. Resolutions were adopted urging representatives from this county to support the highest equitable valuations as between Oklahoma and Texas.

Reports were received indicating that a bill, which will be made on the bill by the "tax-dodging" committee of east and south Texas.

The board elected Reese S. Allen and W. E. Hamilton as additional delegates to the meeting of the chamber of commerce of the United States.

A resolution pledging the organization's moral support in the movement for an Elks' building here, was adopted, after J. B. Marlow and A. L. Huby had discussed the plans for such a building, and pointed out its value to the community.

THREE PLEAD GUILTY TO VAGRANCY AND ARE FINED

Stone drew a fine of $25 and cost and the same amount was assessed against John Patrick. Edna Arndt drew a fine of $5 and costs.

City Materially Improves Finances During Past Year

A statement of the financial condition of the city at the end of the fiscal year 1922 shows that the city is in a much more prosperous condition than at this period last year. At that time warrants were being registered for all operating expenses; the operating expense has been reduced; no warrants are being registered by the city and it is now operating on a cash basis. Funds are available to keep the city going on a cash basis until June 1 and if the suits for delinquent taxes now being prepared are successful, the city will be able to operate on a cash basis for the remainder of the year.

A reduction in the operating expense of the city is responsible for some of the improvement and the funding of $275,000 warrants into 10 year notes has also relieved the financial strain of the city. At present the city has an interest and sinking fund of $517,000 that is not shown on this statement; this fund cannot be used for operating expense but shows that the fund is in good condition and makes city bonds desirable security.

An automobile trade trip covering the territory northwest on the Denver as far as Childress, thence southeast to points on the Q. A. & P. and Orient to Seymour, thence home, will be staged on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, in place of the proposed railroad trip, it was decided at a meeting of the chamber of commerce trade extension committee late Monday.

Several dozen automobiles are expected to make the trip, which will last two days, with Childress as the night stop. On the first day points along the Denver to Childress will be visited, and on the second day, Paducah, Lexington, Crowell and Seymour will be reached.

It was decided to have the next train trip in September, when it is expected to organize a big expedition to advertise the Texas-Oklahoma Fair.

The change in plans resulted from the inability of a number of business men to get away for the train trip. About 80 are expected to go on the automobile excursion.

RADIO USED IN SEARCH FOR KIDNAPED CHILD OF CHIEF RADIO ENGINEER

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., May 1.—The force which his father has helped to harness, radio energy, today was in search of Verner Alexander, six year old son of E. F. W. Alexander, chief engineer of the radio corporation of America, who yesterday was kidnapped from his home. A stranger who last week told the boy and his sisters, Edith, 11, and Gertrude, 7, that he would give them some rabbits, yesterday returned to the children as they played in the yard of their home, told them the "bunnies were ready," directed the girls to get a box, took the boy, and disappeared. Police learned that last week two men asked theater ushers in the city for particulars of the Alexander family, especially as to its financial resources.

VOLSTEAD ADVOCATES AT LEAST YEAR TERM FOR BOOZE VIOLATION

ST. PAUL, MINN., May 1.—Mum jail sentences for one year for violators of the liquor laws were advocated today by Andrew J. Volstead, former representative in congress from Minnesota and author of the prohibition enforcement act.

The eighteenth amendment would have been functioning perfectly long ago if law breakers had not been dealt with leniently by the courts, Mr. Volstead declared. He expressed surprise at the action of the United States supreme court yesterday in reversing Attorney General Daugherty's ruling against serving liquor on American ships on the high seas.

"The reports are ours," he said. "Who can stop us from keeping what ships out of them we choose?"

Where—this summer?

THIS is the time of year when the Progressive Vacationist knits her pretty brow and asks herself, "Where—this summer?"

The best of all possible answers is:

Yellowstone Park

Do you realize that a round trip ticket from Wichita Falls to the park costs only $68.00 and that the standard Yellowstone Park tour can be had for $54 if you stay at hotels—meals, lodging and motor transportation are included.

Last year, two hundred thousand people made the Yellowstone, Pacific Northwest trip and their only regret was that it was not longer. Beyond Yellowstone is the great

$68.00 Round Trip from Wichita Falls to Yellowstone Park

Pacific Northwest

So expensive? Not nearly so reduced round-trip rates, May 15 to September 30, to pretty nearly everywhere in the Great Northwest.

What's there to do and see? So many things that if you stayed twice as long as you will, you would not see or do half of them.

But, the greatest of world's mining camps. Helena, city of gold and romance. Missoula, gateway to the Flathead and Bitter Root countries—two of the most delightful mountain regions in America. Spokane, capital of the Inland Empire. Location of one of America's fine hotels—the Davenport. Portland the Rose City, beautifully situated on the Columbia with snow-tipped Mt. Hood on the horizon. Seattle and Tacoma, those lusty young giants of the North Coast.

On your way West, you will see more mountains than you thought there were in all the world; charming lakes; and stores of rushing rivers! And everywhere and always, the climate is so nearly perfect as it would be if the ordering of it were in your own hands.

I should like to plan a Pacific Northwest Vacation for you. You will enjoy the trip tremendously. Ask for booklet "X."

A REGULAR GIRL

By BERTON BRALEY
Say, what do you mean by a Regular Girl? Well, that's a bit puzzling to state. Her hair has, perhaps, an irregular curl. Or maybe it's perfectly straight. And maybe she's pretty and maybe she's not. And maybe she's stately or short; But somehow or other you always can spot a girl who's the regular sort.

There's always a regular feminine charm To all of her regular ways. There's purity, too, which no evil can harm. There's honor and truth in her gaze; But there's an irregular whimsical twist To some of her thoughts and her acts. Which makes her exceedingly hard to resist. For mystery always attracts.

She's eager and joyous and vivid and smart, She's healthy and wholesome and sweet. Her Regular smile gives each masculine heart A slightly irregular beat. A Regular Pal you can bank on for life With faith no hard luck can dispell. And a Regular Girl makes a Regular Wife And a Regular Mother as well. (Copyright, 1923, NEA Service, Inc.)

174 Members of First Christian Aid Attend Fifth Monday Social Meeting; Honors Aid "Mothers"

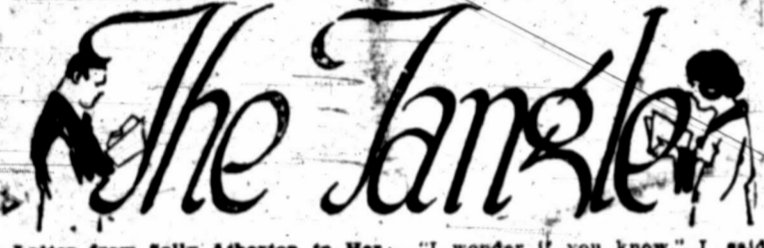

One hundred and seventy-four members of the First Christian Aid Society attended the fifth Monday social and business meeting at the church parlors yesterday, when Mrs. P. P. Mashburn's division entertained.

The meeting was not only one of the best attended, but one of the most delightful that the Aid has held this year. An attractive feature was the honoring of Mrs. L. T. Hyatt and Mrs. H. C. Young, two of the Aid "mothers" whose birthdays both fall in this month. Tributes to mother songs appropriate to the occasion, and beautiful gifts of potted flowers were the little tokens which fell to the lot of the two very much beloved older members of the Aid, who presided at the beautifully decorated tea table during the serving of refreshments late in the afternoon.

During the business session members answered roll call with 1,286 visits to sick and strangers, and a free will offering of $482.91 was given—$200.00 of which the Aid would extend its assistance to the Burk Burnett First Christian Aid, which recently suffered great loss in a fire.

During the social program Mesdames J. D. Blaylock, A. T. Patton, King Davis, L. C. Tyson, O. L. Hamlin, Jones, Lambeth Hancock, J. E. Strong, and J. Lem Kevell, division leaders, each gave a tributing to "mother" in a little talk. Mrs. R. E. Thornburgh of Springfield, Mo., guest of Dr. and Mrs. P. P. Mashburn, gave two dialect readings which were very much enjoyed. Rev. Lambeth Hancock sang the ever-popular "Mother of Mine," also, and Mrs. P. P. Mashburn, J. H. Widenham, C. R. Craft, L. Hancock, "Mother" Hancock, H. C. Young, Harry May, Tom Courtney, Amos Morris, H. D. Ford, Armstrong, S. M. Griswold, Lee Strother, M. A. Bundy, and Dan McGrath, and refreshments of lavender and white ice cream, lavender opera sticks and angel food cake were served.

Mrs. B. L. Fain, who was operated on Friday at the Wichita hospital, is reported doing very nicely Tuesday morning.

The Jangler

Letter from Sally Atherton to Her Friend, Beatrice Kirkshaw

Dear Be:

I am writing this letter to you because you only of all the people I know are aware of the reason why I decided not to give up my position when I married Sam. You know that he, like many other men, of great talent or business capability, of vision and fascination, was addicted to drink before the prohibition law was passed.

I do not think I would ever have married him had not prohibition become a law. It seemed to me that in our circumstances it would be almost impossible for Sam to get very much liquor and I knew he really wanted to break off from the awful stuff.

You have often heard my ideas on the subject and you know that I have always thought it was the agent which led to the most terrible tragedies and the greatest immorality in all the world.

Sam is not unkind, he is not ungentlemanly; he is not impolite even when he has been drinking. But he is not himself. And I am always afraid that he will do something for which he will have to pay to the uttermost.

The day after the quarrel of which I wrote you, when Sam came in I noticed that he did not kiss me. I thought it was very strange, but when I made an excuse to get near him I understood. He had been drinking.

He owed up to it when I accused him, but excused it by saying that his boss had invited him to luncheon and that he had had something on his hip. "I could hardly refuse to drink with my boss, could I?" he inquired, somewhat belligerently.

I wonder if you know, I said to Sam, "that Mr. Watkins would be the first to discharge you if you should do anything reprehensible while under the influence of liquor?"

"I don't know," he said, "but I see I am not going to do anything reprehensible. You know that, do you not?"

"I think you did something reprehensible, Sam, when you accepted a drink even from your boss. You were either disobeying the laws of your country."

"Oh, come off, Sally, don't be a prude. A man is rather proud of being drunk nowadays. It shows that either he has money himself or his friends who have money."

"And is having money a standard by which you live, Sam?"

"Just it yours," he asked, rather satirically.

"I thought, Sally, I knew that Sam thought I was working outside my home simply to make a little more money for my own use. I know I was only keeping my position for fear that some day Sam will lose his."

Am I right or is he?

Dubiously, SALLY.

Collins, Mrs. Blakeney won in the musical contest and Mrs. Hayes, the suit case. The church parlors were attractively decorated for the occasion and late in the afternoon strawberry ice cream and angel food and coffee were served to the following: Mesdames J. Nicholson, C. F. A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Great men are not always wise, neither do the aged understand judgment.—Job 32:13.
Man's unhappiness, as I construe, comes of his greatness; it is because there is an infinite in him, which with all his cunning he cannot quite bury under the finite.—Carlyle.

GOVERNMENT SAVINGS SYSTEM PERMANENT.

The United States government savings system is a permanent institution. Beginning as a helper in raising money to carry on the war it grew rapidly and finally developed into a real necessity. It was found that many people who had money would not invest it or deposit it with any institution that was not operated by the government.

The new system not only sells the new savings certificates but is conducting a nation-wide campaign to encourage saving and to discourage the tendency toward haphazard chances with all the fake investments that are offered by shrewd and swindlers who deal in bogus stocks and other worthless securities.

SUPPOSE THAT HARDEN SPOKE OF AMERICA.

"Pay up, pay up," Maximilian Harden, the German publicist, tells the German people.
One can imagine that this advice would add anything to Harden's popularity with the majority of Germans who hope that Germany can, after all, evade payment of reparations to France and Belgium and the other nations who opposed her aggression.

Of course, we can see that Harden has spoken the truth, unwelcome as it was and must be to the German people, and admire him for it. But suppose that Harden was an American and told the American people equally unpleasant truths. Could he keep out of jail? Wouldn't he be in danger of mob violence? Would the press of the country dare print his utterances?

STATE INCOME TAX PROPOSED.

Maybe after paying your state, city, school and county taxes and settling with Uncle Sam you had a few hundred dollars left, which perhaps you had intended to lay aside for a rainy day, for the education of the children or for some other purpose. Such may have been your fond hope, but even that little saving is likely to be commandeered by the tax gatherer.

As one of the devices for raising money for the state government a member of the legislature has introduced a bill for a state income tax. This bill would allow exemptions of $1500 for single persons and $3,000 for heads of families and $600 for each child. The tax rate proposed is 2 per cent up to $5,000 and 3 per cent on over $5,000. The same rates are proposed for corporation incomes.

Such an income tax would raise some millions of dollars annually for the state government. It would directly bring to the attention of many thousands of tax payers in the state the cost of government. As the state must have the money, perhaps it is as equitable a tax as could be levied. Anyway it will make people think, which is worth something.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

UNCLE SAM'S LITTLE RED STAMP.
A friend in a message to me the other day gave me something new to think about. He said that my little red two-cent stamp was not worth anything—until cancelled.

At the very moment of cancellation it begins its service—starts on its errand.
Just use your imagination for a moment and consider all that this little messenger is able to do.

I open my desk drawer. I take up some letters that came from my mother, years and years ago. The stamp did its beautiful service by bringing them to me from a little home way out in the west to where I was then fighting the first fights in a big city.

The business man comes to his desk each morning. He glances over the pack of letters that lie unopened there. How rarely does he think of the service rendered by those little red stamps.

But until that little red servant is put to work, it is made to sacrifice its entire worth to one single task. It remains of no value at all.

So, no matter how well educated, or beautiful, or accomplished, or clever, or able you may be, unless you put all that you are to helpful use, you might as well not be at all!

And the message of the little red traveler is not ended with its delivery of words. To others the warmth of that letter may go. What a happy urge the great God put into our conscious selves, anyway—to want to give, to want to spread our happiness wherever we go.

The nations of the old world are living at sword's points all the time because each desires something that the other has—without being willing to give. If each would seek to benefit the other, their misunderstandings would be over and life and money would be happily conserved.

Let's try and remember what the little red stamp does—silently gives its life to help, to cheer, to trot errands!

JUST FOLKS

A THOUGHT FOR THE DAY.
Let me go forward, step by step, and mile by mile. Teach me to greet the morning with a smile. And the calm rest of night with gratitude.

Let me have courage when the wind blows rude. Let me be gracious when my skies are fair. And unresentful in my hour of care.

If those there be who need my words of cheer, Let me not play the clown when they are near. Let me not be defuded by the prize. Let me see clearly where my duty lies.

And when at last my course of life is run, Let me not be ashamed of what I've done.

Beware false advisers. Shaking down the tucker. A good offer. Two more commandments.

By ARTHUR BRISWANE (Copyright, 1932, The Star Co.)
President Harding: Do you notice the New York World's eagerness to have you go into the world court? You remember that the World in 1926 was not eager to have you elect? It happened during the World war, in favor of the world court and push you toward it because they believe and know that it is another name for the League of Nations.

Your friends wonder whether the World, that failed to beat you by opposing you in 1926, is to have the pleasure of beating you this time by applauding and pushing you over toward Woodrow Wilson's League of Nations.

Nothing is more disturbing than a little earthquake tremor. It is not so much the shaking as the change in Wall street yesterday; railroads, steels, metals, oils shivered like calf's foot jelly, and the country's nerves were rattled by the news of a peeing bad dream. No one knows just what it means. And nobody knows the meaning of the various "explanations" written in Wall street lingo. But this is accurate. Maybe, if you value second sleep.

Germany will offer thirty thousand million gold marks, and "security against war" if France will agree to the modernization of the old Ten Commandments. The two new commandments are: Eleven: Love God with all thy heart, and twelve: Love thy neighbor as thyself.

There is more than enough cut out of the old commandments to make room for the two new ones, and the sutting seems to have been done along modern scientific lines. They have taken out "in six days the Lord made Heaven and earth, and rested the seventh day" and put in a chapter on geology in favor of modern theories on geology and evolution.

WHISPERING SAGE

By MARY SHELBAUGH AND JOSEPH MOELL

Catching up her skirts, she fled to the barn. Scattered about on the floor were the remains of half a dozen empty bottles. They had been broken open hurriedly and left without an attempt at concealment.

She followed the tracks of the wheels until they turned into the dirt road that led to the north-west. That way did not lead to town, or to the crossing into the Kings. It went to Webster Creek.

Ten torturing minutes of worry increased her nervousness until her body rebelled at the path that led to the barn. She did not know where she was, but she was certain that Esteban had gone to Bodina's ranch to get his rifle.

It took her more than two hours to reach the Webster place. No one met her as she rode up. She called to the man who was in the corral. This and the fact that she had trailed the buckboard right to the ranch yard, only increased her feeling of alarm.

She sat down to wait. Again inaction assailed her and she began to feel that she was in a trap. She did not know where she was, but she was certain that Esteban had gone to Bodina's ranch to get his rifle.

Mercedes scanned the ground between the barn and the corral, trying to see signs of the horse. She came upon the fresh trail of three horses that led to the north. It was after three o'clock. Mercedes started over riding direct to the pass that led to the north, unless the wagon Esteban had driven.

She did not know where she was, but she was certain that Esteban had gone to Bodina's ranch to get his rifle. She did not know where she was, but she was certain that Esteban had gone to Bodina's ranch to get his rifle.

STEERS-SPUDDERS START BATTLE FOR LEAGUE LEADERSHIP

Salmites Hand Gassers Fourth Straight Lacing in 14-4 Game; Rabbit Darrrough Pitches Win

Tuesday starts the battle between the Spudders and the Dallas Steers. A victory for the Spudders will put the club in a tie with Dallas for the leadership. The Steers remain over three games and two of these three will put the Salmites in a tie for the three game set that follows with the Panthers, provided some of the other clubs don't go on a winning rampage.

The Gassers from Shreveport packed up and pulled out of the village after Monday's game, and nobody was sorry to see the Gasmen depart. True the Spudders copped four in a row and such a fare would be highly enjoyable to the populace at large, but in this instance it was too much like picking on a cripple or taking candy away from a baby. In the set of four games the Gassers failed to make our hope: to stop on the gas to win any one of them.

The final game of the set was the easiest of the lot. It went by the boards, 14 to 4.

Spudde's Whole Leather.
The Spudders got under way in the first inning and kept hammering at the Gassers hurlers until the end of the first they had hit up fourteen runs. Then they decided that if Rabbit Darrrough would not win with the club they would knock out of the way. Little did the Rabbit worry for he gave the Gasmen his best in the first half of the game back of a ten-run margin. Darrrough had little trouble with the Gassers' hurlers. He pitched the left field wall in the first and got a double and a single. The Rabbit gave up but seven. In the second half of the game he pitched a half dozen strikeouts. Darrrough's credit.

It was a gale day for the Spudders. The whole team collected a few runs. Whiteaker and a single. The Rabbit continued to meet the ball squarely and got himself a triple, double and single in four times up. The Spudders' offense was in full force. The Rabbit gave up but seven. In the second half of the game he pitched a half dozen strikeouts. Darrrough's credit.

Three Gasser hurlers were dealt with by the Spudders bats. First was Chief Youngblood, the Indian who acquired a sensational record with the Gassers. He pitched the left field wall in the first and got a double and a single. The Rabbit continued to meet the ball squarely and got himself a triple, double and single in four times up. The Spudders' offense was in full force. The Rabbit gave up but seven. In the second half of the game he pitched a half dozen strikeouts. Darrrough's credit.

A very good hand has been developed in the ranks of our noble Salmites, namely, scoring in the first inning. In each of the first three contests they scored twice and Monday they doubled this number in a 14-4 victory.

MORE NEW PAVING PROJECTS BEFORE COUNCIL MONDAY

HEARING ON AVENUE F AND TAYLOR PETITION CLOSED WITHOUT PROTEST.

TO ADOPT NEW PLAN ON DOWNTOWN LIGHTS

Council Acts On Request From Merchants and Business Council Committees.

Paving matters which had been held over from the past three weeks demanded the attention of the city council at the Monday night meeting and resulted in a prolonged and tedious session for the aldermen.

Public hearing on the petition of J. B. Dittos and on Taylor were closed without protest. Ordinance 411, and 412 calling for assessments and ordering the paving of these two streets were passed to the first; an emergency was declared and the ordinance was passed to the third and final readings.

Ordinances authorizing the assessments on Fifth, Lamar and Travis streets around the second house were passed to the final reading under the same emergency clause.

A petition for paving from property owners on Folk streets from Avenue B to Avenue C was submitted to the council during the second time. On account of the drainage in that section of the city, the city engineer has recommended that some provision be made for the proper drainage before other paving is laid. He was authorized to investigate and report to the council as to the best solution of the drainage problem on Folk street preparatory to paving.

Resolutions calling for specifications and instructing the city engineer to advertise for bids on all classes of paving on Fifth and Tenth streets from Marshall to Thirteenth were adopted by the council.

It was agreed by the council that a maintenance bond of five years be specified in the call for bids. A petition for paving of Bluff street from Taylor to Taylor street was submitted but was held over until the next meeting of the council. The petition was signed by the majority of the property owners of the two blocks.

Bids on the contract for the paving of Ninth street from Taylor to Brook were opened Monday night. The contract was awarded to the L. E. Wigham Company and the hearing is called for a future meeting.

J. W. Bradley and Hubert Harrison representing the business council came before the aldermen with the request that some arrangement be made, if possible to allow the white light to burn the entire night. The committee from the business council contended that the contract with the property owners on streets where the white light had been installed was voided and that the lights were turned out at hours when they were most needed. It was suggested that some provision be made to burn a portion of the lights through the entire night. No decision was reached but the council agreed to cooperate in every way possible to comply with the wishes of the merchants who made the request. It is possible that the plan will be tried out for one month under the agreement if it can be continued without financial strain on the city funds.

L. J. Albert representing the traction company made application for a franchise for an extension of 1.66 feet of the north side car line. The council voted to advertise the application and call a public hearing two weeks from the date of the petition. The new line will extend from the present terminus at Tenth and Grand eastward to the corner of North Tenth and North Brook. The extension will end near the American Refinery and will furnish transportation for employees of the Katy shops.

Ordinance 414, amending the present sign ordinance was submitted by Commissioner Statton and passed to its first reading. The present sign ordinance does not clearly define the specifications for electric signs and for displays. The new ordinance will, it is believed, remedy the confusion that has been caused by the merchants by the wording of the original ordinance.

Mrs. Caroline E. Smith, new manager of the Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra, is believed to be the only woman in America to conduct the activities of such an organization.

Days When Pullman Cars Were Used as Hotels Recalled by Cut In Sleeper Rates to Fort Worth

PLEADS GUILTY TO SHOOTING AT MAN DRAWS $100 FINE

J. B. Dittos pleaded guilty to the charge of aggravated assault before Judge Guy Rogers Tuesday morning and was fined $100 and costs.

It was charged that the defendant shot three times at E. A. Debus Monday evening after some sort of an encounter was had between the two men.

As stated to the court after the plea of guilty was entered, the two men had had several arguments over the ownership of some lots on the outskirts of the city and which Dittos had a right to purchase his cov on the lots.

Dittos told the court that the information had come to him that Debus had threatened him and for that reason he carried a gun Monday evening when he went after the cow. After he said he had represented a short distance down the road Debus came across the field, and took hold of the bridle of the horse on which Dittos was riding.

From this point on the testimony is in dispute. One states that a fight followed and that it was then that the shooting occurred. Debus states that as soon as he got to the cow, after he said he had represented a short distance down the road Debus came across the field, and took hold of the bridle of the horse on which Dittos was riding.

Three shots were fired but all missed.

GIVEN ONE YEAR PRISON TERM FOR MAKING LIQUOR

Bert Koons was found guilty of the charge of manufacturing whiskey by a jury in the 49th district court Monday evening and his punishment fixed at one year confinement in the state penitentiary. The jury returned a verdict at 6 o'clock Monday evening. Koons pleaded not guilty to the charge. Officers testified that a still and equipment was found on the premises occupied by him.

In the United States alone we are now patting inventions at the rate of 4,000 a year.

Pullman charges from Wichita Falls to Fort Worth were reduced Tuesday to figures equal to those from Wichita Falls to Dallas, $3 for lower and $2.40 for upper.

The old charge of $2.50 for a lower and $2.80 for an upper, was the outgrowth of boom conditions, and remained in force long after the condition ceased. It has been costing more to ride a Pullman to Fort Worth than to Dallas, though the latter place is 20 miles further. Now the rates to both places are equal.

During the crowded conditions incident to the boom days of 1918 and 1919, transients, unable to get even a cot in local hotels, discovered that by purchasing tickets to Jolly and a Pullman ticket, they might get to sleep most of the night, perhaps all of it, for it was frequently daylight before the sleepers left. To meet the condition resulting from this demand, the rates were raised, and remained in effect long after the necessity for them had ceased.

The reduction becomes effective at a time when conditions in local hotels are beginning to resemble those of 1918 and 1919.

LIGHT SHOWER IS BORNE IN MONDAY NIGHT FROM SOUTH

The lively southwest wind which kept things moving throughout the afternoon Monday, succeeded well in carrying a load of dust and sand brought in some rain clouds Monday night and at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning a light shower was reported.

Light rains were reported by agents at all points across Fort Worth and this city during the night but Tuesday morning the skies had cleared and the wind had calmed down considerably.

The highest point reached Monday by the thermometer locally was 42 degrees while during the night the minimum temperature recorded was 23 degrees. The wind continued from the southwest Tuesday.

LITTLE GIRL HURT WHEN DITCH CAVES IN ON AVENUE F

Marie Groesinger, the five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Groesinger of 1511 Monroe street was painfully injured at 5 o'clock Monday evening when the walls of a ditch at Monroe and Avenue F caved in and buried her.

According to the reports of several witnesses, the little girl was playing in the ditch dug by the preparatory to laying a water line. The sides of the ditch caved in at a point where the little tot was playing and buried her completely.

Workmen dug her out and she was rushed to the hospital where it was stated that her injuries consisted of a slight concussion of the brain and painful bruises to her back and limbs. An X-ray picture was taken of the skull but no fractures were discovered.

Reports from the hospital Tuesday morning went to the effect that her injuries were not serious and that she was improving nicely.

Syrup Pepsin Helps Nature Give Relief

Try it when a laxative is needed and see the wonderful results.

IT is not necessary to take a violent physic for so simple an ailment as constipation. Yet many thoughtful parents give mercury in the form of calomel and castor-oil in the form of phenol when a natural vegetable compound like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will do the work equally well and without danger. People should realize that mercury may salivate and in certain conditions loosen the teeth; that phenolphthalein, by whatever name known and however disguised in candy, may cause dermatitis and other skin eruptions; that salt waters and powders may concentrate the blood, dry up the skin and cause laminitis.

You can take Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin yourself or give it to a babe in arms, as thousands of mothers do every day, with the confidence that it is the safest and best medicine you can use for constipation and such complaints. A teaspoonful will relieve you over night even if the constipation has been chronic for years.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of Egyptian pepsin and pepsin with pleasant-tasting aromatics, and does not cramp or gripe. Every druggist handles it, and bottles are so generous that the cost amounts to only about a cent a dose. You buy it with the understanding that if it does not do as claimed your money will be refunded. The names of all the ingredients are on the package.

Mrs. A. Aronson of Orange, Texas, suffered from constipation for six years and found no relief until she took Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and Mrs. Gus Anderson of Bell, Kas., conceived her bowel trouble so that she now eats and sleeps normally. Bring a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin into your own home and let the family use it for constipation, biliousness, wind, gas, headaches, flatulency, and to break up fevers and colds.

Notice to Oil Producers
Run Your Power Plant with a Crude Oil Carburetor.
Our crude oil carburetor will run your pumping station on the vapor from your crude oil. It does not burn any oil, but just the light vapors, which are an absolute loss, unless utilized in a crude oil carburetor.
We practically run your power without cost. Guaranteed to do the work, or it costs you nothing. Let us give you a demonstration.
