MARTIAL LAW LIFTED IN OKMULGEE COUNTY HENRYETTA EXCEPTED

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 29.—(AP) Martial law declared in Okmulgee county by Governor J. C. Walton, yesterday, from all sections of the county except an area of 10 miles radius around Henryetta. The action was taken by the governor upon recommendations of Adjutant General Fred M. Markham, it was announced at the governor's office. It was indicated that troops still under arms would not be demobilized pending decision by the governor as to the removal of the martial law order at Fitch, a mining town in Oklahoma county. The governor said that the martial law order in Oklahoma county today but it was believed the military occupation would be ended shortly by Governor J. C. Walton.

Lifting of the state martial law proclaimed last Tuesday was expected to follow the arrival of Adjutant General B. H. Markham in Oklahoma City, where it was thought he would confer with the governor. The adjutant general, before leaving here yesterday, expressed the belief that all troops would be withdrawn tomorrow.

Article on charges made against the Okmulgee county sheriff's force probably will not come for several weeks. Brigadier General J. N. Niles, commanding the guard units on duty in the county, today had a record of the testimony taken at a military hearing in Henryetta on the charges but he said he would not write his report to the governor until after the troops were demobilized.

Any action taken by the governor against members of Sheriff John Russell's force would be through the regular civil agencies, it was said.

The governor placed the county under martial law after receiving a statement signed by three Okmulgee citizens charging that the sheriff had been abusing the powers of his office. He explained that the martial law order restricted the activities of those in the county.

NOT TO APPROVE BONDS ISSUED FOR CONSTRUCTION OF HOME FOR TEACHERS

AUSTIN, June 29.—(AP) The attorney general's department will decline to approve bonds issued by school districts for construction of teachers' homes, as proposed by the legislature does not have authority to authorize such issues, County Judge E. C. Nelson, Floyd, was notified in an opinion rendered today by the attorney general's department. The opinion does not address the constitutionality of the act passed by the recent legislature but stated the department would decline to approve bonds to fund the construction of the homes.

The opinion pointed out that the legislature has no authority to issue bonds to fund the construction of school buildings. It is held that the state constitution prohibits the issue of bonds for school buildings.

DEMOCRATIC SENATOR TO MAKE SPEECHES FOR FARM-LABOR CANDIDATE

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, announced today in a telegram sent from Butte and made public at his office here, that he intended to campaign in Minnesota in behalf of Magnus Johnson, farmer-labor candidate for United States senator. "This does not mean," the senator said in the telegram, "that I have abandoned the Democratic ticket but that I am concerned the Democratic candidate has no chance and it is imperative people have an independent representative in the senate."

SHAKING UP IS NEEDED SAYS EPISCOPAL BISHOP

PHILADELPHIA, June 29.—(AP) The Right Rev. Charles H. Brent, Protestant Episcopal bishop of western New York, told 200 prospective clergymen yesterday that the Episcopal church needed a "shaking up" and that the ten commandments should be "rooted out of the prayer book because they were too easily accepted as expressing a complete moral code, whereas they are really incomplete."

"One reason why the Episcopal church needs a shaking up," said Bishop Brent, "is because it is too thoughtless to identify those who call themselves God. God is to be found in the ditches and places of hell in the world, where the church is least to be found. It is in the places of high thought and so-called culture."

Mayor of Houston and Others Are 'Banished' From Klan for Refusing To Vote Instructions Says Cyclops

HOUSTON, June 29.—(AP) Mayor Oscar F. Holcombe, Justice of the Peace Campbell Overstreet, Rev. E. F. West, pastor of the Baptist Temple at Houston Heights, and City Gas Inspector A. C. Winborn were on a list of persons banished from the Klan at the meeting held last night at the city auditorium, over the objection of the Houston Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, according to an article printed in the Houston Chronicle. The article goes on to say that Cyclops H. C. McCall started reading the list of those to be banished, but he stopped when he reached the fourth name, that of Rev. F. West, and then made a motion to adjourn the meeting. He received a second to his motion from some member far back in the building. The motion carried with considerable whispering and shouting.

Imperial Wizard Evans' visit was the signal for about 2,000 of the faithful gathering. They were here from many places in the neighborhood of Houston, principally Humble, Goose Creek, Rice, Angleton, Galveston and Waller county.

FRENCH OCCUPATION FURTHER EXTENDED AT MAYENCE BRIDGE

COELENZ, June 29.—(AP) The French today extended their occupation in the Mayence bridgehead to Langsur, on the Darmstadt-Frankfurt railroad line, eight miles south of Frankfurt and Eschborn, on the Frankfurt-Kronberg line, 18 miles northwest of Frankfurt. The extension is a penalty for recent sabotage on the railroads.

The scene of the French extension of the occupation area is far removed from the Ruhr being along the eastern edge of the Mayence bridgehead, the southernmost of the three bridgeheads established along the German border under the armistice and treaty of Versailles. It results in the pushing forward slightly of the French lines north of Mayence toward the big city of Frankfurt, which the French military front now closely approaches both on the north and south.

ARCHER COUNTY WELL MAKES OVER 900 BBLs.

Showing up for one of the best wells of the week is the performance of the Archer Oil Company's No. 1 well on the Parrish tract, a diagonal offset to the northeast of the Sunshine company's discovery well. This test pumped up the par of 1207 feet, which was barely reached when the well began to flow a steady stream of oil, quickly filling up all available storage on the lease. The present output of the well looks good for between 900 and 1,000 barrels.

Foreign Ship Liquor Tangle Has Reached Such Critical Stage That Congress May Be Called to Meet

The reaction from foreign governments to the American proposal for a prohibition twelve-month limit has left administration officials no alternative, it was said authoritatively today, but to await the will of congress as to revision of the law and meanwhile to refuse admission of liquor stores under penalty of seizure.

By WINDER R. HARRIS, Universal Service Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The foreign ship liquor tangle has reached such a critical stage that suggestions of a special session of congress to relieve the impending international eventualities were heard in official quarters.

In state and treasury department circles, newspaper correspondents were implored not to further discuss the idea that vessels bringing in liquor would be seized.

Secretary of State Hughes also was understood to have counselled Acting Secretary of the Treasury Gilbert to "go slow" in making any seizures.

AIRMEN ARE FORCED TO ABANDON FLIGHT RESULT OF TROUBLE

SAN DIEGO, CAL., June 29.—(AP) The airplane carrying Captain Lowell H. Smith and Lieutenant J. B. Richter, Army aviators, in their attempt to remain in the air for four days and four nights, crashed into the mud flats between Coronado and North Island at about 4:40 a. m. today.

It was reported by telephone from Rockwell Field that neither of the aviators had been seriously injured.

According to officers the aviators were trying to make a safe landing, the dove for landing made further progress impossible.

It was their second unsuccessful attempt within two days to remain in the air long enough to break all endurance records.

Wednesday they made their first start but the burning out of a generator forced them down, without mishap in less than six hours.

Yet both attempts demonstrated that planes may be refueled in mid-air, the record was broken today and yesterday Lieutenant Virgil Hines and Frank Seifert in the refueling plane, traveled above and parallel to the record-making fliers, long enough for a dangling hose to be inserted in the tank and quantities of gasoline transferred. Food and messages were delivered from one plane to the other in the same way.

Upside Down in Mud.

Lieutenant Virgil Hines is making a report on the accident to the military board. The wreckage of the airplane was seen by a newspaper man who said that the wreckage of the airplane had turned upside down in the mud, but that Captain Smith and Lieutenant Richter had escaped injury and had been put to bed.

Captain Smith and Lieutenant Richter broke a world record that for speed over 1,500 kilometers and are believed to have broken that for speed over 1,500 kilometers, when they flew into the mud for they changed their course which had been 50 kilometers long on a certified speedway, to an inside air line of shorter distance. They were flying at 100 miles an hour when they were able to see their way and still continue the flight.

Lieutenant Hines and Seifert took off to refuel the racing plane again. They made several attempts to come into contact with the De Havilland in which Captain Smith and Lieutenant Richter were flying. Only one of these was successful, Lieut. Hines said. That was when the De Havilland were able to deliver to the other aviators only 15 gallons of gasoline.

Everytime they shot across North Island on the course," said Lieut. Hines. "we tried to make contact. We made contact at 4:24 a. m. then the De Havilland was forced to break again."

The accident to the racing plane occurred ten minutes after the contact in which gasoline was delivered.

Lieutenant Hines said the gasoline feed line of the racing plane had gas started to leak and that this was what finally forced Captain Smith and Lieutenant Richter down.

MINERS DEMAND TWENTY PER CENT WAGE INCREASE

SCRANTON, PA., June 29.—(AP) A demand for a 20 per cent increase in the contract wage scale with an increase of 1 1/2 day for all men paid by the day was presented to the anthracite miners convention today for adoption and submission to the mine owners next week.

The list of demands drafted by the convention's general committee follows the general lines of the demands formulated in January, 1932, and fought for five and a half months last year.

Two men in gallery OBJECTIONABLE TO LEWIS

SCRANTON, PA., June 29.—(AP) The convention of the anthracite miners called to formulate demands for a new wage contract, was thrown into a turmoil today when John L. Lewis, international president of the United Mine Workers, ordered men in the gallery to remove their carcases without the doors of the convention hall. They were identified as Joseph Manning, son-in-law of William Z. Foster, representing the Trades Union Educational League, and J. M. Murphy, representing the Labor Defense Council, characterized by President Lewis as enemy organizations.

The men were ordered to leave the gallery and organized labor generally in the United States.

TWO SET SPEECHES FEATURE LAST DAY OF LION'S MEETING

CHICAGO, June 29.—(AP) Expressing belief that the next congress will change the Volstead act to permit foreign ships to bring liquor under seal into the territorial waters of the United States, Albert D. Lasker, retiring chairman of the United States Shipping Board in a statement here said he had reason to believe dry as well as wet law makers will support such a measure.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 29

Prof. Chas. M. Blackwell of Yale delivered an address on "The Modern University as a Means of Service." Louis Cohen, secretary of the Lions Club at Fort Smith, Ark., spoke "Local Publicity, Its Value and How Secured."

After the program a session to dispose of all unfinished business was held and the convention adjourned.

Sheriff Murphy and Judge Sartin Stage Encounter at Noon Friday In Office of the County Judge

In the presence of three of the county commissioners, Sheriff Pat Murphy and County Judge R. D. Sartin engaged in a fierce encounter of one sound duration in the county judge's office at noon Friday.

The evidence of a fight consisted of scattered blood on the floor of the office, a glass paper weight lying on the floor, a slight abrasion on Judge Sartin's forehead and several bruised places on the countenance of the sheriff.

According to one of the county commissioners who spoke of the affair, Judge Sartin and the sheriff were engaged in a conversation in the rear of the judge's office. Judge Sartin was leaning against his desk when Sheriff Murphy appeared.

The commissioner said that the sheriff said he was talking to the judge and that the judge was talking to the sheriff. The commissioner said that the sheriff was talking to the judge and that the judge was talking to the sheriff.

The action referred to by Judge Sartin in the motion picture in which the court asked the grand jury and other officials to take such action as they saw fit with reference to the payment of the jail matter. The motion was dictated by Judge Sartin and it embodied the statement that the sheriff was being paid $50 a month, whereas the sheriff was drawing $150 a day from the county for his salary.

Following the encounter Judge Sartin stated that he had said nothing about Sheriff Murphy in the latter's absence that he had not held in his presence and that everything he had said concerning the sheriff was contained in the minutes of the commissioners' court. Last Monday he had said that he had not held in his presence and that everything he had said concerning the sheriff was contained in the minutes of the commissioners' court.

Later in the afternoon a complaint was filed in a justice of the peace court by a deputy sheriff charging Sheriff Murphy with assault.

BELGIAN MANUFACTURERS SUFFER FROM INVASION

As Brussels Negotiations As Soon As Belgium Gets a New Ministry.

By MARK SULLIVAN, Political Correspondent of the New York Times.

Copyright, 1923, by the New York Times.

PARIS, June 25.—The attempts of Britain and France to come to an understanding about what to say to Germany in answer to her note, now already three weeks old, have been interrupted by the prolonged material crisis in Belgium.

The cause commotion to mean for that crisis is the dispute about the Flemish language.

That another cause weighing as much in Belgian discontent is the occupation of the Ruhr.

Belgium imports more than 50 per cent of the wheat she must have for bread.

For those imports of wheat she pays with exports of manufactured goods.

The invasion of the Ruhr has interfered with Belgian manufacturers to an extent that makes her uneasy about a possible economic crisis.

For this reason, opinion in Belgium swings steadily to the British point of view, about the Ruhr against the French.

But Premier Thaelmans, the only man of much political power in Belgium by temperament, and due to circumstances the result of a break with the French government.

As soon as Belgium gets a new ministry, British and French negotiations will be headed for trouble.

Four European nations in one degree or another, and in the ordinary named, are headed for trouble because of the Ruhr.

Germany is on the verge of an imminent crisis, and steps are already being taken on the assumption that within a short time Germany will need relief from America in the organization of a loan previously furnished to Austria and Russia.

Next to Germany, Belgium is the most menaced, and any prolongation of the Ruhr crisis will bring her to a crisis.

Britain has upward of a million unemployed, and her only expectation of relief lies in an ending of the payments of the Ruhr.

France is not suffering from a financial crisis, but she is not suffering from a financial crisis, but she is not suffering from a financial crisis.

Her policy of "sitting tight" is based upon that confidence.

NEW BUILDING CODE WILL BE PRESENTED TO COUNCIL WITHIN NEXT FEW DAYS

A tentative draft of the new building code for this city has been turned over to the office of the city clerk to be drawn up and typewritten for submission to the city council at an early date.

Upon the recommendation of Fire Chief J. L. McClure several weeks ago, the city council appointed a committee composed of J. H. Richards, A. H. Britton, George Taylor and Julian Montgomery to draw up a suitable building code for this city.

The committee has been at work for some time, with the assistance of members of the Technical Club, and the document is almost ready for presentation to the council.

It is probable that the ordinance adopting the code will be brought up within the next week or 10 days for discussion.

ALLEY IN REAR OF UNION STATION TO BE PAVED

The much used alley directly in back of the union station, which forms one of the main thoroughfares in the city during rainy weather, is soon to be paved from Eighth street to Tenth street, according to local city officials. Operations will begin immediately.

The alley, which runs along the Katy freight depot, is to be widened to transferring and freight hauling after every rain, and the pavement will aid materially in handling greater freight consignments. The project has been under way for some time.

U. S. OBJECTS TO CONCESSION PLANS

Lausanne Proposal More Sharply Defines Issues Between Allies.

LAUSANNE, June 25.—The issue between the United States and the allies on concessions in Turkey became more sharply defined today when it was learned that the allies had reached an accord on a protocol covering the economic issues, the clause of which the Americans object to as a matter of principle.

This clause declares that all contracts and agreements on which, before the war, all for matters had not been accomplished, will nevertheless be deemed valid and be maintained if by common agreement they have been partly executed or were the object of an arrangement between Turkey and the foreign government.

The United States, it is asserted, objects to this provision as infringing a dangerous principle because it might cover all sorts of arrangements, including contracts on which nothing had been done to obtain legislation.

The American objection is that it gives pre-war contracts a better status than they previously had.

The Turkish attitude on this protocol is uncertain but probably hinges upon the disposing of the Ottoman debt question and evacuation of Constantinople.

The clause which inspired the American protest clearly covers the French proposal for the construction of the Samun-Sivas railroad, which the Turks have asserted had been notified because it was not legally ratified.

The concession conflicts with the Chester project.

LABOR PARTY OF ENGLAND OUTLINES PLANS FOR FUTURE

OPPOSE WAR AND PROPOSED INCREASE IN BRITISH AIR FORCE

DENOUCE POLICY OF FRANCE IN THE RUHR

Demand Conference Be Called to Promote Universal Disarmament.

By JOHN T. BURKE, Universal Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, June 25.—The national conference of the British labor party today went on record as opposed to any increase in the air force-to-France's average policy in the Ruhr; and to the general trend towards increase of armaments.

James MacDonnell, the party leader, discussing the new Air armament proposals, declared that unless the labor party, which is opposed to war in power, took steps to fight air warfare, as "given a situation compelling war we will be forced in whether we like it or not."

After Ed Morel had denounced France for "augmenting her air forces and playing today the same role played by Germany in augmenting its navy in 1914," a resolution urging "the tearing up of the treaty of Versailles and the discontinuation of Britain from the brutal policy of France towards Germany which threatens a catastrophe that would be the last one for the human race" was passed unanimously and irrevocably.

The conference then adopted, also unanimously, a resolution condemning the increase in air armaments and demanding that the government immediately cut all international armaments.

Arthur Henderson, defeated an attempt which would have suspended the labor party in parliament to oppose all appropriations for military purposes. He declared that the adoption of the resolution would make the public believe that the party, if it was in power would swap with the army, navy and air force, the nation's defense. He added:

"We are an island nation. We cannot do without a navy, and with France in the present state of mind we cannot afford to strip the agencies of national defense."

CATHOLIC PRIEST STOCK VICTIM TO SUM OF $150,000

INVESTED HIS PERSONAL AND CHURCH FUNDS IN PROMOTION SCHEME.

IN HOSPITAL IN STATE OF NERVOUS EXHAUSTION

Deeds Tract of Land Valued at $76,000 to Replace Church Funds Lost.

WASHINGTON, June 28. (AP)—A mass of cancelled checks and notes, stocks and documents were brought to light today as the untold evidence of how several men obtained $150,000 in personal and church funds from Monsignor James M. O'Brien, former rector of St. Peter's Catholic church here on the evidence of a very doubtful value.

Whether there will be prosecution of the men is yet to be determined. Monsignor O'Brien, who is 81 years old, is in the hospital in a state of nervous exhaustion, augmented by a partial paralysis, and his ability to appear as chief prosecuting witness is regarded as problematical. It may be that judgments will be sought on the documentary evidence in possession of his attorneys and those of the parish.

This evidence indicates that most of the money was obtained in the promotion of several companies in two of which Monsignor O'Brien was an officer. His payments of money to the companies began in 1917 and continued until the end of last year.

After Monsignor O'Brien's bank account statements had been exhausted he signed about $30,000 in notes, about $12,000 of which have been paid by parishioners of St. Peter's church. The remainder are outstanding.

When Monsignor O'Brien became convinced late last year that most of the investments he had made were bad, he decided to the church parish a tract of land he owned in West Virginia and which was valued in the deed at $75,000, the amount of church funds which he apparently has lost in the investments. Holders of $1,000 of the notes signed by the aged priest have brought suit in Jefferson county, West Virginia, in an effort to prevent consummation of the transfer of land and to collect on the notes.

A J. Abbotchio, counsel for Monsignor O'Brien, explains today that it was one of the duties of the rector of a Catholic church to invest the church funds and that consequently the priest had acted within his rights. Some of his investments were good and it was stated that these would be realized upon. The priest was thoroughly convinced that the other investments were equally as sound, his counsel said, and it was with difficulty that he was convinced that such was not the case.

VITAMINS ARE NOT AN ESSENTIAL FOOD STATES SAN QUENTIN PHYSICIAN

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28. (AP)—Vitamin is not an essential food element, according to an opinion expressed by Dr. H. L. Stanley, physician of the San Quentin prison at a meeting of the stomatology section of the annual convention of the American Medical Association here. The diet at San Quentin he said, consisted for the most part of meat, bread and beans. The prisoners are given no butter, eggs or vegetables, and the only milk they receive is the small amount that goes into the cooking.

PRIEST DENIES THAT HE WAS TORTURED IN JAIL

MOSCOW, June 28. (AP)—The Most Rev. Dr. Tikhon, released from prison to await trial by the civil authorities for counter-revolutionary activities, denies reports that he was tortured while in jail, asserting that he was well treated. The former patriarch of all Russia, who plans to conduct services in the Donatist monastery where he is now living, says he cannot recognize the action of the living church in "untouching" him, pointing out that it tried him for political misdemeanor while only the Soviet government had a right to do so. M. Kraasinsky, head of the living church council, is quoted by the official press as saying that if Dr.

FRENCH CHAMBER VOTES MONEY FOR AVIATION PROGRAM

PARIS, June 28. (AP)—The chamber of deputies last evening approved an appropriation of 211,000,000 francs for aviation establishments and material.

The socialist deputy Mistrail called attention to the fact that the appropriation had been raised from 20,000,000 at the government's last minute demand and wanted to know if this was in reply to Stanley Baldwin's recent declaration in London. He also asked whether a new armament race was thus to be initiated. Deputy Benavent protested any inference suggestive of the possibility of France attacking England, and the deputies supported him by their applause. He then asserted that the increase in the appropriation was due to Germany's activity in aviation.

Tikhon is willing to repent of his alleged counter-revolutionary activities before the court and the government. It will be possible to reach an agreement permitting the former patriarch again to take part officially in religious work.

Telegram From John Alden Prescott to Sydney Carton

Sending important inclosure to you by mail. I'm off for New York to bring Leslie home. Expect Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton will come with us. Don't need you now. Come whenever you darn please. JACK.

Letter from Sydney Carton to John Alden Prescott

I confess, old chap, I read poor little Paula's letter, which you sent me without any comment, with tears in my eye.

I never thought she had so much soul, but I guess that is the most of us make a mistake in regard to the women whom we kiss and leave. We are so apt to simply divide the female sex into two classes, good or bad, and I have almost come to the conclusion that all women are good and bad. They are just human after all, exactly as we are, Jack.

It seems to me that we should get over the old theory that there is a part of us which no good woman can satisfy. Nowadays men are not beasts, although I expect when you read poor little Paula's letter you felt yourself one. Anyway, we have outgrown the cave man and why should the rest of the tradition, that it takes both an angel and a devil to make a man perfectly happy, still linger?

I'm not so sure, Jack, that if you had married Paula Parier, she would not have made you happier than Leslie. Leslie is too good for you and besides she is essentially a daughter of luxury. She can't help that, poor girl. It is the way she has been brought up, the environment into which she was born.

Little Parier, on the contrary, knows how to economize. The very fact that she told you she received more from your gift than you paid for it, shows she has a thrifty mind and is one that can make the best of a financial slump.

I am rather glad that things have turned out this way. In fact, I'm very glad Paula has kept back that one letter which I expect is the most incriminating.

I don't want you to get off too easy, Jack. I hope fear and remorse will gnaw at your vitals for some time to come for, between you and me, Jack, you did play Paula a mean trick.

While I hope I am not one of those "hater than thou" persons I think, had I been in your shoes, however hard I had been bowled over by Leslie, I would have tried to have gotten out of the old lava before I had gotten into the new.

I know what you are saying, Jack—that it's very easy to preach. And I am still holding back my mind as an excuse for you that possibly I might have done the same thing after all.

I shall "darn please" to come over and see you as soon as you return. I like Leslie, like her whole family very much except the man she married.

Goodby, old chap. I'm glad some of your troubles are over. SYD.

LIQUOR TANGLE IS CONFINED WITHIN NARROWER LIMITS

IMMEDIATE SOLUTION OF BIG PROBLEM NOT NOW APPARENT.

GREAT BRITAIN DECLINES TWELVE MILE PROPOSAL

New Regulations Providing For Seizure of Vessels Have Been Drafted.

WASHINGTON, June 29. (AP)—Questions arising from the practicality of foreign steamships bound for American territorial waters carrying beverage liquor for passengers or as cargo were confined within narrower limits today as a result of developments in London and in Washington. At the same time any immediate solution of the problem satisfactory alike to the United States and to foreign powers was not apparent.

One of the possible solutions was suggested yesterday by Marquis Curzon, British secretary for foreign affairs, speaking in the house of lords, when he declared that the chance of Great Britain agreeing to the treaty proposal of the United States for a reciprocal right of search of vessels twelve miles off shore, although official comment was withheld here, his statement was construed in official circles as closing this avenue to an adjustment.

At the same time treasury officials let it be known that a committee by foreign steamship companies on bringing beverage liquors into American territorial waters would be dealt with in a vigorous manner as developments warranted.

It was revealed that new regulations covering the seizure of liquor carrying liners in American waters had been drafted in tentative form and whether they would be put into effect would depend on the foreign shipping lines themselves. The hope was asserted that such a step would be unnecessary.

The statement of the treasury policy was made as reports were received that several of the foreign shipping companies were about to abandon their program of bringing liquor into American jurisdiction in sufficient quantities to supply passengers on the return voyage and the Lord Curzon explained that the real effort of the shipping companies had been directed toward ascertaining whether the United States intended to proceed with a strict enforcement of the supreme court decision.

What the next step will be has not been indicated, although American officials have rejected the idea that the only opportunity for adjusting conditions would be through change of law either by treaty or by legislation which Great Britain has refused to consider. They feel in their due under rules of international comity.

Reference to this latter possibility was understood to have been made in the house of lords yesterday when Lord Curzon and others were present.

Lady Says She Was in a Desperate Condition, But "Now in Splendid Health" After Taking Cardui.

DALLAS, IND.—"About three years ago," says Mrs. J. B. Roberts, of this place, "I had the 'flu,' which left me in a desperate condition. I had a bad cough, I gained weight, I took different medicines—did everything, but nothing seemed to do me 12 miles off shore, although official comment was withheld here, his statement was construed in official circles as closing this avenue to an adjustment. At the same time treasury officials let it be known that a committee by foreign steamship companies on bringing beverage liquors into American territorial waters would be dealt with in a vigorous manner as developments warranted. mentioned "a loop hole" in the supreme court decision. The statements were interpreted as referring to the discretionary power of congress in enacting enforcement legislation, a matter which has previously attracted the attention of American officials, although there has appeared a difference of opinion among legal authorities as to the scope of opportunity offered for such legislation in view of the sweeping character of the supreme court's decision in reference to the eighteenth amendment.

The possibility of such a step as mandatory legislation is considered remote because of British refusal to have the right of search extended beyond the three-mile limit in the light of the running of the clock. At the same time it was realized that foreign powers in any effort through diplomatic channels to find an exit to the situation would meet prominently the problem of favorable action by congress.

ANXIETY OVER BARRAGE OF INTERNATIONAL "BEEHIVE"

LONDON, June 29. (AP)—Although what is termed "the American bargain" still is under consideration today, Great Britain cannot accept the proposal of the United States to extend to 12 miles the limit with which vessels may be searched for liquor. Lord Curzon informed the house of lords yesterday. While Curzon absolved the American government from any infringement of international law in seizing liquor and in breaking British seals, the foreign secretary and Lord Birkenhead and Viscount Grey as well, did not conceal anxiously that dangers might arise through mutual friction if the question was allowed to drift without real efforts by both sides to solve it.

The Morning Post commends the governments refusal to agree to the 12-mile limit proposal. Discussing the whole situation, the newspaper continues: "The only theory hitherto presented which covers the facts is that prohibition has become an acute political issue in America. We are extremely reluctant to draw the obvious inference that foreign nations are being exploited on the matter politics and we suggest in the interests of international comity that the American government should make a statement on the matter without delay."

GEORGIA GOVERNOR IN FINAL MESSAGE SCORES INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT

ATLANTA, Ga., June 29. (AP)—Governor Harwick today delivered his final message to the Georgia general assembly, pointing out that in a sense it was his last. He said that he felt it his duty to invite the attention of the general assembly to the fact that it might proceed along in lines of the "most rigid and ruthless" economy. The governor appealed for law and order, asserting that in Georgia there "is no room for invisible government of any kind or character." He recommended the passage of a law which would impose a heavy penalty for any man of woman who masked in public. He also said that the general assembly should pass a measure, which would require every secret officer in the state to file a list of officers and members of every lodge or unit with the clerk of the superior court for public information.

ROSS IS CONVICTED PENALTY 35 YEARS; NEW TRIAL ASKED

LITROCK, June 29. (AP)—Motion for new trial will be filed by counsel for Tom Ross, James county, assassin found guilty of murder by a jury here yesterday. In connection with the shooting April 1 at Seminole of W. G. Allison, inspector for the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' Association, it was announced last night. Ross was sentenced to 35 years in the penitentiary after the jury had deliberated 11 hours.

Meanwhile selection of a jury continued in district court today to try Ed Good on a charge of slaying Allison. Both Ross and Good also face indictments for the alleged killing of H. B. Robinson, another cattle inspector, slain at the same time Allison met death in the lobby of a Semole hotel.

The slaying yesterday were timed so that 21 quads struck simultaneously at an hour when saloons were crowded. So confident of victory were the henchmen, the officers stated, that in nearly every instance drinks were dispensed over the bars and bottles upward when the agents entered.

More Than Score Chicago Saloons Will Be Closed

CHICAGO, June 29. (AP)—Injunction proceedings will be instituted in federal court today to close for one year more than a dozen saloons and restaurants here, raids on which by federal prohibition officers yesterday netted whiskey, rum, beer, moonshine and even patent medicine which was served in quantities ranging from a single drink to a truck load. All available prohibition agents have been brought here for what authorities consider will be the "biggest sponge drive" since prohibition.

FATE OF EUROPE BOUND UP IN THE RUHR

This is the last of a series of articles by William Philip Simms, noted war correspondent and student of world affairs, who recently completed a study of post-war conditions in Europe for NEA Service and the Wichita Daily Times. These articles summarize his findings.

By WM. PHILIP SIMMS, NEA Service Writer.

The fate of Europe, and to a large extent, the world, is bound up in the Ruhr. How'd the Ruhr look to you? Wherever I went in Europe, from Berlin to Constantinople, that was the first question people asked me. Here in America it is the same thing. Folks everywhere seem to sense that world peace hinges here and that on a proper settlement depends everything.

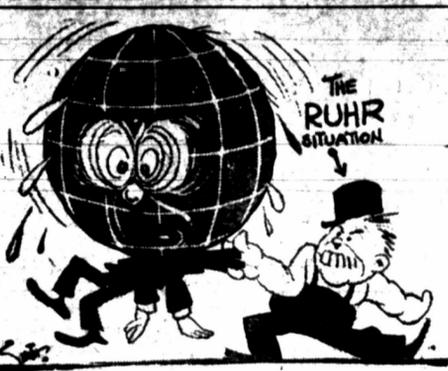

By the Ruhr, of course, is meant the whole problem of reparations; of satisfying Britain and France with regard to Germany and with each other; of meeting the demands of Italy and Belgium and other allied powers; of Germany and what she can do to make good on the war she started, but at the same time not forcing her into a position where she walks on a tightrope.

French Claim Victory. So far as the French are concerned, the "Battle of the Ruhr" is as good as won. France has Germany down, and is sitting on her heels, waiting for Germany to say "calf rope."

In France the people are worrying no more over the occupation of the Ruhr than you are worrying over our occupation of the Philippines. They are going about their daily occupations without strain and without worry, confident, if you mention the subject to them, that sooner or later Germany must knuckle.

In Germany, to the contrary, people are excited. They are under constant strain. It is their head France is sitting on and they want something done about it. The Cuno government in the hands of a big pair of pinchers. Unless it gets Germany out of the hole—and the only way to do that is to give in to the allies—it will ultimately fall. If it gives in to France, it will fail. Germany is not united today on the Ruhr policy. It was a few months ago when all Germany knew only one sentiment and that was bitterness against France. Now the people are beginning to feel the pinch. Economically, Germany is hard hit.

England is standing by, more or less on the sidelines, but by no means a disinterested party. She insists that Germany shall pay, but not so much that Germany can not trade with Britain. And by no means must Germany give up the Ruhr to France, even commercially, to exploit the Ruhr. The Ruhr, in France's hands, would make France the dominating European power, economically, politically and militarily. Britain would never consent to that. At least, not for long.

Meantime Europe is standing still while the quarrel over the Ruhr goes on. Every nation on the continent is hard hit by it and by Industry fears to undertake anything new for fear of getting hit by some crisis before fairly started. This results in unemployment and low buying power. This reduces both exports and imports and keeps international exchange bobbing up and down—mostly down—which, in turn, deals business another blow.

Europe ordinarily takes nearly 25 per cent of America's farm products off her hands. The European market today is shot to pieces. This hits the American farmer. The farmer is the backbone of American prosperity. So you and yours are hit—by this same Ruhr.

FORMER HUSBAND AND HUSBAND NO. 2 ENGAGE IN FIGHT FRIDAY MORN

An affray between the husband and the former husband of a woman, who appealed to a patrolman for protection, on a downtown street, Friday morning at 1:30, brought the two men into police court Friday morning and resulted in a fine of $25 for the former husband.

The woman had approached the patrolman for protection from her former husband. Shortly after the trouble between the man and woman was settled, the present husband appeared on the scene and the fight started.

Husband number two appeared in police court as a witness Friday morning, much the worse for the combat, and testified that he was a salesman from Fort Worth and had never seen the man with whom he fought until Friday morning. The defendant in the case testified that he was a former husband of the woman and that the fight was caused by family troubles. A fine of $25 was assessed in the case.

SPLAWN IN FAVOR OF CONSOLIDATION OF RAIL SYSTEMS

ELLEN, TEXAS, June 25. (AP)—Amendment of the federal transportation act so as to relieve the interstate commerce commission of its duty of preparing a plan of railroad consolidation and authorizing consolidation by application to the interstate body was suggested by Dr. Walter Splawn of the state railroad commission in an address before an open meeting of the Tyler Rotary club here last night.

Splawn expressed the belief that railroad consolidation will be one of the prominent issues in the near presidential campaign and one of the outstanding problems to come before the next congress. He said the American public rapidly is taking notice of the petting of the interstate commission in its move toward consolidation.

Splawn predicted that Texas would not see systems under the tentative program. He favored elimination of the El Paso-Katy group entirely, declaring its inclusion was in mind improvement of the whole transportation situation which it provided for consolidation," Splawn said. "Whether or not that plan is realized will depend upon the wisdom of the plan finally proposed by the interstate commerce commission. Such a plan as that tentatively proposed would not appreciably change the situation in Texas except to eliminate competition.

"No material saving can be expected from consolidation which would not be offset by increases in freight rates. Railroad consolidation is contrary to the aspirations of the average American who places a high value upon competition in regular business."

Commissioner Splawn, who has made an extensive study of the consolidation plan, is of the opinion that any consolidation should be immediate and progressive rather than immediate and piecemeal. He recommended the state abandonment of the recent Fort Worth hearing on the consolidation program, and proposed opposition to the plan.

WICHITA REFINERS MAY PLACE STOCKS PORT OF TEXAS CITY

Oil refiners at Wichita Falls are seriously considering the construction of a pipeline to carry refined petroleum products to Texas City, with a view to making that port a concentration point for their export stocks. It was announced Thursday by N. H. Martin, vice president of the Yukon Oil and Refining Company, following an all-day conference with George F. Atkins of St. Louis, general freight traffic manager of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas lines, and officials of the Texas City Terminal Company.

The Texas City Terminal representatives included Col. H. H. Moore, chairman of the board; H. A. Hyman, vice president; and general manager, and E. C. Quinn, vice president in charge of traffic.

Colonel Moore was one of the leading directors of American railway operation in France during the world war, serving under Brigadier General W. W. Harbord, director general.

Many benefits would accrue to north Texas refiners if they could trade on Texas City as a point to carry large stocks and from which to export, according to Mr. Martin.

Production of petroleum in this district now flows almost entirely through the port of New Orleans. The present freight differential in favor of Texas City is four cents per barrel, the rate from Wichita Falls to New Orleans being 34 cents, whereas the rate to Texas City is 30 cents.

A larger number of tank cars would be required in shipping to Texas City, as the round trip can be made in from four to five days, instead of from six to ten, now necessary for the round trip to New Orleans.

Fort Worth and San Antonio refiners will not have the same incentive to establish storage and carry inventories at Texas City as will those of Wichita Falls, in Mr. Martin's opinion, because of the fact that the Southern Pacific lines recently established a rate of 33 cents from both Fort Worth and San Antonio to New Orleans.

Senior Counselor, and Jerry Williams was elected to the office of Junior Counselor. The officers of the chapter will be elected by Harry Cohen and Raymond Taylor.

The officers elected Thursday night will be installed at the next regular meeting of the chapter, in two weeks. The newly appointed degree team will also be installed and given the oath of service at this time. These officers will serve until September.

Because of the fact that many of the members of the chapter will be away during the summer months, only one meeting will be held during the months of July and August. In September the fall and winter season will be opened by a big ceremonial and dance.

J. D. "Dad" Bright reported on the action taken by the board of advisors on the grandmaster's question, stating that nothing new would take place until early fall. Members of Hope chapter will be allowed to use the room in the Masonic temple, all summer.

SPUDDERS REGAIN LEAGUE LEAD IN VICTORY OVER BUFFS

Carlson Gets Verdict Over Sell When Six Spudder Errors Are Not As Costly As One Houston Bobble

Thanks to the Sandcrabs and the Houston Buffs, the Spudders once again lead the league. By whipping the Buffs, 4 to 1, in the opening game of the series at Athletic Park, while the Sandcrabs were disappointing a 13 to 10 defeat to the Cats, our hopefuls assumed the lead over Fort Worth that has separated the two clubs so far in the last few weeks.

It was the fifth time this season that the Galveston club has knocked out opponent out of the league leadership.

The game was a hurling duel between Hal Carlson and Lester Bell, rather a fielding job would be more appropriate. The Salms won in the fielding job because of the fact that their half dozen errors were not as costly as the lone Buff blunder.

Dryden Bobbey became the Spudders' hero as he pitched a complete game and led to believe that he was the star of the day. Carlson got by the Buffs on a hit, but the Spudders' pitcher allowed eight hits and gave up four runs, three earned. The Buffs' pitcher, Lester Bell, pitched a complete game and gave up four runs, three earned.

STERS 6, BEARS 3

DALLAS, June 29.—The Cougars were the only teaming blow San Antonio got off Love Thursday and Dallas, hitting Morrison effectively, won 6 to 3. Boone and Donohue featured with long hits. Score:

FORT WORTH, June 29.—The Galveston Sandcrabs took the first game of the series from the Cats 12 to 10. The Buffs' hitting in the pitcher's box for Galveston, Fort Worth tried hard for a rally in the ninth, but fell two runs short. Jake Aiz, umpire, presided in the fray. Score:

Table with columns: AB, R, H, PO, A, E. Rows for various players and totals.

BEAVERPORT, June 29.—Beaverport won Thursday's game from the Gassers by the score of 5 to 3. The Buffs' pitcher, Lester Bell, pitched a complete game and gave up four runs, three earned.

The Lookout

The Crabs did it. For the fifth time since the season opened they have knocked a leader into second place. Twice the Panthers, twice the Spudders and once the Exporters have been forced out of the lead by the Islanders.

In every appearance of Hal Carlson is appearing to better advantage. It is beginning to look as if Prexy Harvey and Skipper Salim knew what they were doing when they dug deep down into the club treasury to acquire the pitcher's services from Barney Dreyfuss.

CHICAGO, June 29.—The New York Yankees won the first game of their decisive series with the Philadelphia Athletics Thursday, 4 to 2, and increased their margin in first place to six games. By winning the remaining three of the series Philadelphia can cut the lead in half but still they will be further away from the leadership than they were two weeks ago when it stood at two.

St. Louis won first blood in its series with Detroit for last place in the first division, Urban Shocker winning his eleventh victory of the season and Ken Williams getting his eleventh homerun, bringing him within three of the league leading Ruth. Boston beat Washington in the first of their series and takes prevented the Chicago-Cleveland game.

Rain also prevented the opening of the important Pittsburgh-Cincinnati series but the New York Giants kept piling up a lead, winning their tenth straight, 4 to 2, from Boston. Five of the ten victories have been won from Boston with whom the Giants have two more games before taking of Philadelphia for four.

TOM GIBBONS AND SHELBY MAYOR STAND CHANCES OF BEING GREATEST LOSERS

BY DAMON RHYMAN. Universal Service Staff Correspondent. Copyright, 1934. GIBBSVILLE, MO., June 29.—Put yourself in Jack Kearns' place. You are the business manager of the heavyweights champion of the world, a going concern, productive of upwards of $1,000,000 a year. You have $10,000 cash in hand on a purse of $10,000 for your end of a fight which might mean the finish of your championship enterprise with $10,000 due on a certain date.

If that $10,000 was not paid, what would you do? Would you pocket the $10,000, which is legally yours, and walk off, or would you waive the other $10,000 cash in hand, and fight the champion who will fight for what he's got?

It is easy to say, off hand, that you would do the latter, but keep yourself in Jack Kearns' place. At this minute Tom Gibbons looks like what the freemasonry means a push-over. The majority of the wise men of freemasonry are present here, and Gibbons is the one who is being pushed over.

But accidents happen in the prize ring. The unexpected is the thing to always expect. Suppose something happened which put it in the hands of Tom Gibbons, as a receiver, would you ever forgive yourself?

Unless the other $10,000 is paid to Kearns by midnight on July 2, and one of the ten million rumors rolling around the clean streets of this pleasant little city at this moment is that the money is in the bank, Kearns will be confronted by the problem as outlined above.

Best Defense Problem. It will not definitely arise until the hour stated. Then Kearns will perhaps postpone a decision by saying "well, give you until midnight July 2 to get that money." But unless the $10,000 is raised in the meantime, he must sooner or later present a problem.

It is finally has to make a decision one way or the other because of the absence of that $10,000, and the decision is to "shoot for what is in hand, and if Dempsey wins over Gibbons as easily as it looks as if he will, a substantial ship will have triumphed to a certain extent, but a precedent will have been established that will make other managers of pugilistic properties most uneasy.

They will be uneasy, because they will fear the public may get the idea that sportsmanship is expected of prize-fighters. This theory would be intensely damaging to the managerial mob.

In any event, Kearns can do nothing until the night of July 2, and while waiting for that night, you might as well invest in Tom Gibbons' place.

There is no doubt Gibbons originally expected to make something out of this fight, perhaps $100,000 if it had gone off as originally scheduled.

The talk that he is willing to fight for nothing sounds very nice, but no fighter really wishes to fight for nothing. It is a possible chance of getting something.

Gibbons the Loser. Tom Gibbons can go round the country knocking over "chumps" and make a fortune for himself in the effort, especially as long as the ring worms have the idea in their heads that he is a title contender.

Once Dempsey gives him over, much of Gibbons' earning power is destroyed. Few persons who have watched Dempsey and Gibbons in training here believe that Gibbons has more than a very slight chance of beating Dempsey, therefore Gibbons confronts the prospect of getting neither a money nor glory out of the event.

Obviously this is an arrangement quite unfair to Gibbons. Without him, Dempsey could not have got that $210,000, without him there would have been no match. George Carpentier got $200,000 for the weakest kind of a fight against Dempsey; Kilbane got $100,000 for a faint resistance to Critch, and Jimmy Wolfe took $5,000 for losing to Villa.

It is a tough spot for Gibbons. He made about $5,000 on his exhibition four or five months after signing for this match. He got $5,000 for training at Shelby, and has taken in perhaps another $5,000 in admission fees at his training camp. However, against this he has an expensive training establishment.

Jim Johnson, the big, heavy mayor of Shelby, it is said, Johnson will lose a fortune if the fight collapses entirely, and that in any event he will drop a chunk of money.

THE NEW PACKARD SINGLE EIGHT

Will be on display in our showrooms next Saturday, June 30th.

Packard has developed for the Single-Eight motor new principles of engineering, differing from anything previously used. Super-seeding the V-type principle and departing from conventional eight-in-line design, the Packard Single-Eight has entirely escaped the penalty of vibration these practices have always entailed, and attained a perfection of balance without precedent.

We invite you to call and inspect this wonderful car, which surpasses in riding and performing qualities any other on the European or American market.

BALDWIN GET GOOD WELL ON KENNEDY IN SUNSHINE HILL

The best completion made for a long period in the Sunshine Hill district of the county was finished early this week by the Baldwin brothers and associates on the Kennedy tract. The road was picked up at 576 feet and was drilled into a short distance when the oil started to flow. Conservatively estimates give it between 100 and 150 barrels daily.

CANNING DEMONSTRATIONS FEATURE SECOND DAY OF GIRLS CLUB ENCAMPMENT

The demonstrations in home economics and canning at the first day camp of the Girls Club encampment at Haven Park will be held from 10 to 11 o'clock Saturday morning. Miss Mildred Horton, assistant state agent from A. and M. College, who will give the demonstration, arrived Friday, and will begin work at 8 o'clock Saturday.

The twenty-one rural girls who are attending the encampment enjoyed the first day with their camp mates and a large number of the grounds Thursday night. Friday morning the entire party went through the Wichita Mill and Elevator Company plant and the Wichita Creek Hatchery. A matinee party at the Olympic and an expedition through the downtown section of the city followed.

Miss Georgia Lunsford, who is in charge of the camp, announced Friday that there would be a matinee picture shown on the grounds Saturday night with an exhibition by the local Campfire Girls. The public is invited, and everyone is urged to attend and see what the Rural Canning clubs are doing. Saturday morning will be closed up mainly by the demonstration by Miss Horton. A big family picnic at 2 p. m. will close the camp.

Bracing Weather Continues Friday Getting Warmer

Cool weather continued over the section Thursday night and Friday, and the heat of a few days ago was completely forgotten in the comfortable weather that blew up over this section of the state. The temperature only reached 83 degrees at a maximum Thursday afternoon, and the night cooled down to 51 degrees. Friday the mercury rose on a slight rise. The north wind that has been blowing for the past thirty-six hours still prevailed Friday. The amount of electricity used Thursday by electric fans over the city was somewhat less than that of the past few weeks. No more were reported Thursday night. The Wichita Falls Police soon to have been the only ones to be closed with partial society, and those who were so light they were not noticed. While the clouds gathered during the day, on Thursday, they were chased away and Friday morning dawned clear without a cloud in the sky.

The office of traffic policeman of the county's paved roads was abolished by an order of the county commission in Monday Friday afternoon. The order is to take effect July 1. Paul K. Smith, who has been serving the county in this capacity, will be relieved of duty. The county commissioners held that the various motorcycle cops who are patrolling the paved roads could attend to this duty. The abolishment of the office is in furtherance of the retrenchment policy of the court.

COOKING RECIPES FOR USE OF MEAT ON HOTTEST DAYS

When warm weather comes, our thoughts turn to foods which appeal to us as cool and refreshing. The necessity of finding a way to make the most of the meat which we need in the diet, can be made tempting even on the hottest days. Mrs. Miss Gladys Carson, home economist.

There are of course the roasts, steaks, ham and fowl, which can be served cold, but for the sake of economy and variety, other cold dishes should be used. Meat loaf or pressed meat can be made interesting by using a variety of meats.

The left-over meat of any kind, such as pork and veal, ham and chicken, or lamb and beef, fresh meat may be added or fresh meat added. The meat should be cooked first. Always remove the bone, gristle and fat from the meat while it is still warm.

In making a meat loaf which is to be served cold, it should be made in a loaf shape which will hold its shape when sliced. For this, use such materials as bread or cracker crumbs, beaten eggs, white sauce or mayonnaise. With pressed meat, use a little more bread or cracker crumbs to stiffen the loaf. The loaf should be especially moist. The loaf should be cooked in a pan with a little water in the bottom. The loaf should be cooked in a pan with a little water in the bottom.

The flavor may be varied by the use of onion, tomato juice and chopped carrot. Whole boiled eggs placed in the center of the loaf will be an attractive center to the loaf when cut.

Ham Loaf (Serves Eight). The left-over ham of any kind may be used. If fresh meat is used, select a veal shank weighing two or three and one-half pounds. Cook slowly until tender. Remove the fat and skin. Chop the meat into small pieces. Combine with one-half cup bread crumbs, one small onion, minced, one and one-half eggs, milk or stock, one-half cup onion, one-eighth teaspoon pepper, one beaten egg, one table-spoon parsley, chopped fine.

Combine well and turn into a greased loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 to 450 degrees) for 45 minutes. Remove from mold and serve with a rich gravy containing onion, mushrooms or with a tart sauce with an elder or apple sauce. This loaf is especially delicious if made in the classic cooker.

Steamed Veal Loaf (Serves Eight). Select left-over or fresh meat to be used. If fresh meat is used, select a veal shank weighing two or three and one-half pounds. Cook slowly until tender. Remove the fat and skin. Chop the meat into small pieces. Household Suggestions

Grinding Dates. It is sometimes difficult to grind dates, figs or raisins or puddings or desserts because they clog up the mill.

Grinder. This may be remedied by adding a few drops of lemon juice occasionally.

Cut Flowers. At night set your cut flowers in a cool place and in the morning plunge them in water up to the blossom. They will last a much longer time.

Corner Cupboard. A corner cupboard is a useful feature in the dining room or kitchen and will sometimes redeem a space otherwise unavailing for any useful purpose. It should be near a window and should have besides the shelves a space below concealed by a door where dustcloths or table linen may be kept.

Young Carrots. Young carrots should never be peeled, but lightly scraped.

Furniture Polish. An efficient furniture polish is made of three parts linseed oil and one part spirits of turpentine.

To Retain Flavor. Olives that are not eaten should be put back into the bottle in the liquor in which they came and be corked tightly in order to retain their flavor. The same applies to capers, chilies and anchovies.

Cooking Ovens. If you wish to keep your house free from the odor of cooking do not let your sauce pans boil over, and remove all pans directly from the stove when you have finished with them.

Cures For Insomnia. If you are troubled with insomnia try drinking a cup of cocoa or a little clam broth just before retiring. Hot milk also has a tendency to calm the nerves and induce sleep.

Fresh Meat. Remove fresh meat immediately from the box or paper in which it is sent home by the butcher, or the paper will absorb the juices. Put it on a clean plate.

Testing Cakes. Use a wooden toothpick instead of a broom splint to test your cakes or broiled steaks. It is much more hygienic.

Fruit Stains. Camphor sometimes removes from linen fruit stains that have successfully resisted any other remedy.

Alluring Promises Feature Of Literature of Oil Promoters Is Charged In Issuing Fraud Order

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Charged with using the mails to obtain money through false representations, a fraud order has been issued by Postmaster General New against E. E. Bucher and others at Fort Worth, Texas, and at Dallas, Ark. The others named were Bucher Smokover Trust, the Bucher Petroleum Company, Elwell Advertising Agency, Fidelity Finance Company, E. A. Gossage, W. F. Elwell and E. J. Dalley.

It is alleged to have been about $100,000 in value of money turned by glaring advertisements promising returns as high as 100 per cent.

All of the literature is alleged to have been written and handled by Elwell and Elwell Advertising Agency, operating under the name of the Fidelity Finance Company, on a basis of 15 per cent of all money received in the sale of stock of $100,000.

The fraudulent intent of Bucher, the promoter, at the inauguration of his scheme is indicated even in his declaration of trust filed in Camden, Ouachita county, Arkansas, according to the fraud order memorandum.

In its literature sent to prospective investors the concern claimed ownership to oil and gas leases on 60,000 acres in the "north extension of the Smackover" in prospective oil territory, which was located "north and just a trifle west of the town of Smackover." In reality, it is alleged, the acreage was in Madison county, Arkansas, more than 200 miles on an airline from Smackover and in a territory where no oil has been found.

A well described as within a "stone's throw" of the "mighty Smackover" was a mile away and a "million" the other side, adding:

"After admitting on April 21 to prospectors that his Arkansas holdings were worthless, Bucher, next advised, in prospectus, that prospective stock purchasers containing lurid promises, saying conditions justified 'the supreme sacrifice' and urging them to wire orders immediately."

"Bucher never maintained an office at Ft. Worth although his advertising and circular matter in the Bucher Smokover Trust bears that address. Mail addressed to the company in large quantities and forwarded to Fort Worth, Texas."

Sir Knight Austin, generalissimo of Worth Commandery No. 19 of Fort Worth, Texas, was invited to confer the degree and did so in a very able manner.

Supper was served in the dining room at 6:30 p. m., interspersed with a musical program rendered by the Deacons, composed of Misses Baulah and Julia Ross, Glensora and Josephine Flak.

After the supper hour, commandery opened in long form and the degree of Malta was conferred upon the six candidates in long form by the Deacons. In the absence of Miss Mildred Martin from the commandery quartette, Mrs. J. E. Pittman was substituted. At the close of the degree the candidates all expressed themselves in favorable terms of the impression of the Malta degree. An invitation was extended to the Malta team to go to Fort Worth at some determined time and confer the Malta degree in full form in the autumn of next Commandery.

What's the matter down in Texas?

That's what I asked when I read sales reports that Kellogg's Corn Flakes in Texas averaged below their overwhelming leadership all over the nation!

Let me say it this way—
So surely will you prefer Kellogg's Corn Flakes—once you know the extra deliciousness, extra crispness and substantial quality of the sunny brown flakes—that I ask you to do this:

Tell your grocer you want "KELLOGG'S CORN FLAKES"! Make it strong, make it plain!

DON'T just say "Kellogg's," or "Corn Flakes"! Your one chance to get what you want is to say it so strong and so plain—KELLOGG'S CORN FLAKES—that neither you nor your grocer will ever get it mixed up again!

I guarantee you'll find Kellogg's Corn Flakes, in the RED and GREEN package, the best ever. Your grocer will refund your money if you don't agree with me!

Texas buys great quantities of our Kellogg's Brand, including the Red and Green Kellogg's Wheat-Kellogg's.
