

A WET YEAR

Moisture For 1969 Totals 22.34 Inches

Again this week we have a contribution from a reader, Mrs. N.R. (Mary Katherine Crawford) Cox of Midland. It was from George Dolan's "This Is West Texas" column in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram some time back.

"The Rev. J.O. Haymes of Lubbock tells about the government labor investigator who was looking into working conditions on farms and ranches.

"The man stopped at one rural place, found the owner and asked how many people he had working, what they did and how much they were paid.

"Well," said the farmer, "there's one fellow who looks after the machinery and keeps it running. He gets $55 a week. There's another who tends to the stock. I pay him $45 a week. There's a girl who helps with the cooking and does the housework. She gets $25 a week. Then there's an old half-witted boy who does all the stuff no one else will do and comes out, I guess, with about $10 a week."

"That's the one I want to talk with," the investigator exclaimed.

"That's me," said the farmer.

A newspaper is kinda like Abe Lincoln's description of politicians fooling the people; we can please all of the people some of the time and perhaps some of them all of the time, but it would be factious to expect to please all of them all of the time.

For instance, if we print jokes, some readers probably think we're silly--if we don't others say we're dull.

If we print original matter, they say we lack variety--if we "lift" articles from other publications, they say we're too lazy to write.

If we stay on the job in the office, we ought to be out hustling news. If we're out hustling news, we're not attending to business or answering the phone.

If we use copy as it is, we lack education--if we change the copy, we're spoiling someone's story. If we select certain articles over others, we're too critical--if we don't we're asleep.

If we're scanning newspapers or magazines on the job, we have too much manpower--if we don't read other publications, we're not up on the news.

If we publish a "pinup" the women complain--if we don't the men complain. If we print more club news, the sporting fans complain--if we print more news, the clubwomen complain.

If we misspell a name, the person and his regiment of friends complain. If we spell 99,999 names right, no one comments.

If we print divorce court proceedings, we're scandal-mongers--if we leave a name out, we're protecting the "clique."

Well, they're right. We did--at least most of it.

A news release this week from Texas Tech points out that the booming feedlot industry, while providing a bonanza for our area, also is creating a problem.

The problem is the waste material produced by the cattle. Research teams are trying several approaches to solve the problem.

Cattle population densities in commercial feedlot average from 200 to 250 head per acre, or 120,000 to 150,000 per square mile. Cattle produce waste material about ten times the equivalent of a human being.

Thus, it can be seen that feedlots in our immediate area are producing wastes as rapidly as is the city of Houston. Half serious and half in jest, researchers have even tried "logging" solid wastes for fire-place fuel, like the buffalo chips and cow chips so useful to Plains pioneers.

"It didn't work," said Texas Tech Water Resources Center director Dan M. Wells. "Cow chips made of used grain sorghum won't burn like chips produced by grass foraging animals."

Official moisture as measured by the City of Friona during the calendar year 1969 was the most since the official records have been tabulated by the city.

The total came to 22.34 inches, and was more than the previous two years combined.

The previous wettest year during the 1960s had been in 1963, when a total of 18.80 inches were logged. The year 1960 has been cited as the last "wet" year prior to 1969 but the official totals for that year are not readily available.

The whopping total for 1969 came on the heels of what had been the two "driest" years of the 1960s. The total for 1968 had only been 9.38 inches, and that for 1967 was 11.17 inches.

Average rainfall recorded in Friona during the past seven years comes to 15.27 inches, so that the 1969 total was seven inches more than that figure.

May was the biggest month of the year just past, as far as rainfall was concerned, with 4.71 inches recorded. Two other months had heavy readings, with October coming in second with 3.82 inches and June third at 3.59 inches.

In all, seven months registered over an inch of moisture and they came in succession, April through October.

Following is the official month-by-month tally of the rainfall for 1969, followed by the yearly totals since 1962.

January-.05; February-.77; March-.81; April-1.24; May-4.71; June-3.59; July-2.32; August-1.33; September-2.47; October-3.82; November-.65; December-.58. Total-22.34.

1962-12.22; 1963-18.80; 1964-10.82; 1965-17.23; 1966-17.20; 1967-11.17; 1968-9.38; 1969-22.34. *1962 totals for less than a year.

WINTER WONDERLAND... Friona was all decked out in its winter best again Sunday afternoon when the second seven-inch snowfall of the season was received. Snow enthusiasts were out enjoying the snow that day, including

Half Of Qualified Voters Unregistered

As of Monday, only about half of the qualified voters had registered to vote, according to County Tax Assessor-Collector, Hugh Moseley. He expected the figure to top the 2,000 mark before Monday was over.

This year, the counties across the state are competing to see which can register the greater percentage of their voters.

Parmer County is grouped in a list of 42 counties approximately the same size, and on January 16, the county was in 27th place, with only 30.8 percent of the voters signed up.

However, a large number have registered since that date, as indicated by the figure above. In 1968, the county had a total of 3,870 registered voters, so apparently a number of voters will have to register in the latter stages of the month. "The last few days are always the busiest," Moseley says.

Deadline for registering is Saturday, January 31. Forms are available at several locations in Friona, including the City Hall, Chamber of Commerce office, Friona Star, Etchridge-Spring agency and others. They also may be secured at the tax assessor-collector's office in Farwell.

Besides the state and local races to be voted on, several important items are expected to face voters in the form of proposed constitutional amendments.

Clayton Urges Citizens To Register For Voting

Representative Bill Clayton issued an urgent plea from the Austin office, this week for the citizens of Texas to register to vote before January 31. Clayton stated that many issues will be facing the general electorate during 1970.

Besides the many candidates for public office to be considered at the primary and general elections, there will also be city elections, school board elections, and several local bond elections, he said.

Also facing the voters in 1970, Clayton said, will be seven Constitutional Amendments to be voted on in the November general election. One of the most controversial and heated issues ever to confront the State of Texas will be decided by the people in November when they mark their ballot for or against liquor by the drink. To participate in these elections and to express yourselves it is necessary to register to vote by January 31.

Cattle Meeting Set At Bovina

Persons interested in the stocker cattle segment of the livestock industry are reminded of the meeting to explore this subject Thursday night at Bovina High School.

The meeting, to begin at 7 p. m., will feature four speakers. One is an Extension Service employee, and the other three are directly connected with cattle production.

Jack Carrothers, manager of Friona Feed Yards, and Dr. Dale Furr, nutritionist for Hi-Pro Feeds, will be on the program.

Norwood Is "Improving"

Jimmy Norwood, who was injured recently in an accident at Tri-County Elevator at Black is still hospitalized and undergoing treatment at St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo.

It was reported Wednesday morning that he is improving, and is now being allowed a few visitors. He will still be hospitalized in Amarillo for several more days.

Mrs. W.B. Norwood, mother of Jimmy, suffered a broken arm in a fall last Saturday while visiting him in Amarillo. She was also hospitalized in Amarillo, but is now at home in Friona.

MILTON EVANS

Evans New FB Agent

Milton Evans is the new Farm Bureau service agent for Parmer County, replacing Bill Carmack, who has accepted the position of District Sales Manager for Area II.

Evans comes to Friona from Lubbock, but is a native of Tahoka, where he was connected with the Lynn County Farm Bureau for some 15 years.

Evans is married, and is the father of four. He is currently seeking housing in Friona.

Prior to going into the office and sales part of Farm Bureau, Evans was a member of the board of directors in Lynn County for a number of years.

Evans is active in the Masonic Lodge, where he is a 32nd Degree Mason. He also has been active in Little League work, serving as league president at Tahoka. The family attends the Baptist Church.

Carmack, who has been the local service agent for the past two and one-half years, plans to remain in Friona in his new capacity, which covers several area counties.

The Board of Directors of the Friona State Bank, Friona, Texas, announced the election of Jerry D. Hinkle as Cashier and Dale Smith as Assistant Vice President at the annual meeting, January 14, 1970.

Jerry Hinkle joined Friona State Bank in May 1960. He was elected Assistant Cashier July 1961. He is serving as loan officer and is in charge of personnel.

SEVEN MORE INCHES

City Becoming "Snow Capital"

Friona seemed to be vying for the "Snow Capital of the Southwest" title the past week, as it measured its second large snowfall for the season, and this one was quite a scene to behold.

Official measurement was seven inches, and some parts of town got eight inches and more. The official snowfall logged by the City of Friona this winter now stands at 16 inches, the biggest total since the winter of 1956.

The "picturebook" snowfall came Sunday morning, beginning about 7:30 a.m. For the better part of the morning, big, downy flakes fell intensely, until by noon about six inches were on the ground.

Trees, houses and fences were stacked up with the wet white flakes.

It continued to snow for an hour or two Sunday afternoon, although much lighter, until it finally stopped as suddenly as it had begun. Little or no wind accompanied the snow, so that it fell very evenly and drifts were non-existent.

Jeep enthusiasts and a few snowmobiles had a field day on Sunday.

But, just as unbelievable as was the snowfall itself was the way it skipped around. The snow became lighter in any direction you went from Friona, running out at Running Water Draw south of town.

Lazbuddie received just a "ground cover" compared to the local snowfall. Hereford had just about the same, and Bovina got very little. A spokesman from the Rhea Community said he got just a "trace" of the white stuff at his place.

But the farmland immediately around Friona was treated to another moisture bonus, as farmland is wetter at this stage than many oldtimers can remember it.

Monday morning the sun came out, and after the temperature rose to near 50 degrees, a good amount of the snow had melted.

The official "melt" as recorded by the City of Friona came to just .35 inches, although the snow was considered much wetter than that indication. (The city's official measurement is made on the amount of snow actually caught in the gauge.)

An amateur weather gauge in the west part of town melted the fall down to .65 inch, and a farmer was of the opinion that the snow was worth "about three quarters of an inch" of moisture.

It's the second snowfall of that nature for the area within a month, as another seven-inch was registered December 28-30. However, the snow of this week came much nicer than the earlier one, and did not drift. Also, the fact that it melted sooner and released the moisture into the soil was thought to be a plus factor.

SAID "IMPRESSED"

Leather Officials Make Tour Of Area

Executives of three Eastern based leather firms toured the area last week, and indicated to an Amarillo newsmen that they would return later this year for a second look.

The leather executives were highly impressed, according to the Amarillo Daily News, with the Hereford-Friona-Muleshoe areas.

They indicated that it would be best for tannery sites if located here, to be based near small regional towns of the Panhandle and adjacent to meat packing houses. The men said that the Missouri Beef Packers, Inc., plant in Friona would turn out enough hides by itself to supply an average-sized leather tannery.

An average tannery operating in the East employs between 50 and 100 persons. The visitors said a 100-employee plant would use about 1-1/2 million gallons of water per day if all five phases of the tannery operation are used.

If only the first two phases were used, a plant would use only about 1-1/2 million gallons of water per month. If plants of this nature were installed in the Panhandle, the plants would ship out cattle hides in a cured stage to be processed in West Coast, Eastern or foreign plants.

The executives represented firms in Denver, Milwaukee, New York, California, Massachusetts, London, Turkey and Africa.

AN EDITORIAL

"What Went Wrong?"
Ask "Rock" Backers

"But it was supposed to be lovely" mourned a British rock group leader following the rock festival at Tracy, California. "What happened? What went wrong?"

What went wrong was that four people died in violent deaths at this "festival"; four babies were born; one lad suffered a broken pelvis after a 40-foot drop from a freeway overpass (he didn't fall—he jumped, under the influence of drugs) doctors treated hundreds for bad drug trips; hundreds got drunk or high on wine and drugs; men and women danced naked in front of the stage; tons of debris were left behind; scores of cars were abandoned; five men were brutally clubbed by members of a motorcycle gang; performers had to stop playing because of the frequent outbreak of fights in front of the stage.

Apologists will say that a majority of the estimated 300,000 youth who attended the affair were not out for violence. But the facts remain. One of the four dead was stabbed in the back and in the face, directly in front of the bandstand in broad daylight. The witnesses couldn't, or wouldn't, identify his assailants. Why go to the "pigs"? "Everyone knows" that the police are the gestapo of the establishment.

Perhaps what went wrong at Tracy, California is the same thing that went wrong in the case of Walter Vandermeer in New York City. An alcoholic at the age of ten, a heroin addict at 11, Walter is dead from an overdose of drugs at age 12. Permissive parents. Self indulgence. Too much money. And too much freedom for kids who simply aren't equipped to face a perilous world fraught with danger for the unwary.

Mr. Wallace R. Burke, Interstate Commerce Commissioner, remarked: "The transport system of this nation is not perfect, but it is the best system that exists anywhere in the world. Our network carries more goods of more kinds. . . and does it better than any other transportation system in the world."

According to the report of cotton Farmers within the Friona territory, the past season has been one of profit to the man who has put his attention and effort to the growing of that valuable crop. Did you ever have the pleasure of having known while he was a boy someone who became famous as a man? Well, that has been one of my experiences. His name is Elza C. Pause And Reflect

By Nelson Lewis

Last Monday night I again had the privilege of speaking to a group of our young people.

The occasion was the regular meeting of the Four-H boys and girls.

The leader, Dale Hart, suggested that my subject be patriotism, I willingly agreed and chose as my title "What is Patriotism?"

During the preparation of the talk it occurred to me that perhaps there are some grown-ups among us who might benefit from a little refresher course on the subject.

Prompted by this thought I asked several of my adult friends to define patriotism.

The answers were concerned chiefly with flying the flag, reciting the pledge of allegiance, condemning communism, and supporting law and order.

All well and good, but such actions will not convince our friends, much less our foes, that we believe in the greatness and the future of the United States of America.

Being fully aware of the seriousness of the topic, and of its importance to a group of children, I turned to Mr. Webster's dictionary for a few definitions to use as guideposts for my remarks.

Patriotism--"the passion which influences one to serve one's country."

Serve--"to benefit, help, or promote, as to serve mankind."

To us adults these definitions are probably self explanatory.

But are they?

Maybe that's one of our biggest mistakes: taking too much for granted.

With your indulgence I will repeat part of what I had to say to the Four H's.

We must not take our American way of life for granted. Things like freedom of worship, freedom to attend school or to take a vacation trip, or to work at whatever best suits us.

We also tend to take each other for granted.

In our family life we must always remember that Mother and Daddy are individuals with their own likes and dislikes.

Brothers and sisters, aunts, uncles, grandparents and school mates, are all different people with different tastes and ambitions.

And you too are an individual with your own ideas about how to act and dress and you have your own plans for the future, your future, and you may not be able to understand why that happy future can not be hurried up a little.

But remember there is no such thing as instant happiness.

Our Constitution declares that we are to enjoy "Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness."

Not happiness handed to us on a silver platter--but the "pursuit" of happiness.

We have instant coffee, instant potatoes, instant oatmeal--

Yuck--and instant orange juice--but we do not have instant good grades in school nor do we have instant happiness.

So how do we obtain all these goodies that our greedy little hands want to--as they say in Eastern Virginia--"take hold by?"

We have to work for them, which brings us right back to the most important word in Mr. Webster's definition of patriotism--"serve."

What do we mean by serve?

Back to Mr. Webster's best seller--and next to the Holy Bible it is the best selling book ever published!

Serve--"to benefit, help, or promote, as to serve mankind."

How can you prove your patriotism and serve your country?

By being the best Christian Citizen possible.

If you do this then it will follow automatically that you will serve not only your country but all mankind.

Now being a good citizen is not easy.

You must work at it.

And when you do you will meet opposition.

Some of your acquaintances will call you "square," "old timey," or even "stupid."

Then is the time to remember that any old car will run down hill, but it takes a good one to climb mountains.

So climb mountains; stick to the truths you have valued since infancy.

Train yourself to become a decent law-abiding citizen.

Maintain your position as an individual and protect your right to live as a freeborn American.

Maybe the young folks caught a glimpse of the true spirit of patriotism.

Maybe you did too.

I hope so.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Dear Editor:
Recently, I visited the Teen Center, which is sponsored by the First Baptist Church. I'd driven by several times when it was open, but had never gotten up enough nerve to go in, even though it looked as if everyone was having a good time. Finally, last Saturday night, I stopped and went in.
I haven't had so much fun in a long time. There were many of my high school friends there, a lot to do, and best of all it was free. There were ping pong tables, a table cricket game, a miniature pool table, and various board games. Bob Watkins, the Baptist Educational Director, and his wife Carol, were there to sponsor us. There wasn't an abundance of grown-ups around to make us nervous and everyone was relaxed and enjoying themselves playing games or just sitting around drinking a coke and talking to friends. This Teen Center is what the high school kids in Friona have needed for a long time and much thanks goes to Bob and Carol for all of the work and time they've given to it.

Cities Service Oil Company has inaugurated the use of air-cushioned vehicles in its seismic search for oil in the North Slope of Alaska to prevent damage to the thawing tundra in the summer. This is the first use of the unique vehicles, called Hovercraft, in petroleum exploration. The innovation use of air-supported craft that skim over the surface without touching the ground will permit continuous operations during the summer without destroying vegetation and subjecting the surface to the defacing effects of erosion. The two Hovercraft being used by Cities Service's seismic contractor replace conventional tracked vehicles during the summer.

Changes Listed In Area Scouting Association

For several years representatives of the girl scouting program have been studying the structure of its National Council. Many believed that changes were necessary in order to serve its girls better. It was found that it would be helpful to redivide the districts into smaller groups called areas so that the stronger local neighborhoods might be able to help the weaker ones by sharing knowledge, skills and facilities for troop activities. This change was brought about by a revision of the by-laws and structural plan. In November of 1969 the proposed changes were voted on and passed for the Caprock Council of which Friona is a member. Under the new structural plan Friona, Muleshoe, Bovina and Farwell are in one area association. An area association chairman and nominating and resources committees and delegates were to be nominated. From the nominating committee which were composed of the neighborhood chairmen from each town. The following people were slated from our Area:

as Nominating and Resource Committee.

3. Mrs. Billie Dean Baxter and Mrs. Alton Peak and Mrs. H. Wheeler are the delegates from Friona.

On January 26 at 10:00 at Farwell these people will be voted on to assume the above offices.

The Friona Neighborhood Service team will remain the same as it has been with:

1. Mrs. Watson Whaley, Service Unit Chairman
2. Mrs. Ronald Smiley, Secretary and Treasurer
3. Mrs. Ralph Wilson, Troop Consultant of the Junior Program
4. Mrs. W.R. Riethmayer, Troop Consultant of the Cadettes Program
5. Mrs. Truett Johnson, Troop Consultant of the Senior Program
6. Mrs. Grady Nelson, Troop Consultant of the Brownie Program
7. Mrs. Alton Peak, Cookie Chairman
8. Mrs. Doyle Cummings, Publicity Chairman

The Friona Neighborhood Association will be hence forth known as Service Unit Association.

Mrs. Whaley and all the members of the Friona Service Unit invites all interested people to attend the Jan. 26, area association meeting in Farwell, Texas at 10:00.

Chiefs Win Pair In Week's Action

The Friona Chiefs basketball team won a pair of games last week, one a 39-37 squeaker over Adrian, and the other a 65-57 district win over the Floydada Whirlwinds.

The Chiefs trailed 13-8 and 22-18 against Adrian in the Tuesday game, before finally taking charge of the third quarter.

After outscoring their opponents, 11-5 in the third quarter to take a 29-27 lead, the Chiefs played Adrian on even terms in the last quarter to hang on for the win.

Ted Procter scored 13 points and James Weatherly 10 to lead the scoring attack.

In the Friday game, the Chiefs jumped out front early and had the advantage throughout.

Four points each by J.V. Finley, Ted Procter and Don Fortenberry paced the team to a 14-8 first quarter lead. Six points by Ronnie McPherson paced the second quarter charge that sent the Chiefs to the dressing room with a 31-21 lead. Floydada cut the margin a bit in the third quarter, and went into the final stanza behind by only three, 41-38.

However, fouls hurt the Whirlwinds in the latter stages. McPherson sank 11 points in the final quarter, including nine of nine free throws, as the team hit 14 for 14, in that period, and the Chiefs had won their ninth game of the season.

As a team, Friona hit 81 per cent of its free shots (25 of 31), paced by McPherson's 11 for 11, to lead scoring with 17 points.

Seventh, Eighth Boys Take Wins

Friona's seventh, eighth and ninth grade boys travelled to Hereford on January 12, and won two of three games from Stanton Junior High School.

The seventh grade remained unbeaten with a 38-21 district win, the eighth grade also scored an easy 37-23 decision, but the freshmen suffered a 65-36 defeat.

The seventh grade game started off slowly. Stanton tied the game at 1-1 midway of the first quarter, and this was the last time for the game to be tied.

Friona's longest lead came with 45 seconds left to play, when the Braves held a 38-18 lead. Stanton scored the last three points to trim the margin to 38-21.

The eighth grade game was a close one for the first half. Teddy King hit two field goals in the latter part of the second period, and the last one gave Friona a 14-13 lead and the Braves were never headed after this.

Friona pulled to a 29-19 lead after three quarters. Their longest lead turned out to be the final score: 37-23.

The freshmen game was a runaway from the beginning. Friona trailed by five points before finding the basket. Quarter scores were 20-7, 38-19 and 53-29. Stanton's longest lead was 62-31 with 3:30 left in the game.

Dale Cleveland's 16 points, Weldon Peace's 13 and Johnny Bandy's 17 led the respective teams.

DISTRICT AT MID-POINT

Squaws Top Adrian; Fall To Floydada

The Friona Squaws split a pair of games last week, downing Adrian, 59-45, but falling to Floydada in a district game, 55-31.

At Adrian on Tuesday, the team broke open a tight game by outscoring the hosts, 19-5 in the final quarter, which started out with the teams deadlocked, 40-40.

Randie Kelley led the team with 28 points, including ten in that final quarter. Diane Day had 16, and scored half of them in the fourth quarter.

Friona had led, 19-10 after one quarter, but Adrian cut the margin by five in the second stan-and trailed at halftime 29-25. The third quarter saw Adrian outscore the Squaws, 15-11, to knot up the game.

The Adrian sextet was hampered by fouls, losing four starters during the game, including all three starting guards.

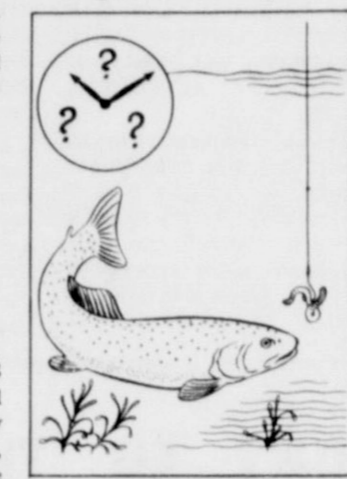

The Squaws came up with one of their cold nights when they hosted Floydada last Friday, and the Whirlwinds continued their mastery over Friona with the 55-31 win.

Friona could manage just four field goals in the entire first half and Floydada jumped to a 34-11 lead. The last half was a little closer, as the visitors outscored Friona 21-20 but that frigid first half had cost the Squaws.

The Squaws hit only 35 per cent of their free throws, while Floydada was making 64 per cent of theirs.

The game marked the end of the first half of district play for Friona, which had a 3-3 record. The team is 11-9 for the season.

Sports Tips

FISHING

The modern angling expert chooses to fish most waters for most types of fish through the middle of the day, rather than the early morning or late evening. Anglers have probably wasted more hours on early morning fishing than on any other superstition. However, for salt water fishing, early morning is best. The plankton on which fish feed are noted for their dark-to-dawn movements. A reel tip from Old Spice Lime: You'll be more comfortable waiting for the big one if you've followed your shower with a generous all-over sprinkling of body talcum.

Hart Attends Area H&R Block Meeting Recently

Dale Hart, the manager of Friona's H & R Block Co. tax office, recently attended an area H & R Block meeting in Lubbock. Hart has been employed in the Clovis, New Mexico H & R Block office the past two seasons before opening the Friona office. He has completed and received credit for the H & R Block Tax Course for the past three years. He is a member of the H&R Block 100 Club and the 200 Club. He is only the 2nd person in the Clovis Office to become a member of the 200 Club since it was opened five years ago. The qualifications for the 200 Club is to prepare and complete $200 worth of tax returns in one working day. "There are now over 4,000 H & R Block offices open in the United States and foreign countries," Hart said. "There are nearly 75 million people who file income tax returns. They have different kinds of income, different kinds of deductions, credits, and exclusions. No one form can possibly suit all of them," he continued.

"That's why the Internal Revenue had developed a new return system that takes the place of both the old Form 1040 and the old Form 1040A. It is a building block system. You start with a basic one-page form (still called Form 1040). Nearly half of the taxpayers will need no other forms. The other half will add special schedules or forms as needed," Hart concluded.

Some of you may wonder, is it safe to refreeze poultry that was frozen and then thawed? Yes.

As long as it still contains ice crystals or is cold, and has been held in the refrigerator no longer than two days after thawing, it is safe to refreeze.

Soft margarine's consistency is due to its high liquid oil content.

Premium margarines generally are made from more expensive oils and cost more than regular margarines. They always must be refrigerated to protect their delicate flavor; this adds to their distribution costs.

Unsaturated margarines are made without salt for people on special restricted diets and for those who prefer unsalted table spread.

Low-calorie or diet spreads are labeled imitation margarine because they contain about half the 80 percent fat content of regular margarine. Therefore, imitation margarine has fewer calories than regular margarine. The ingredient listed first, and therefore present in the largest amount, is water. Imitation margarines are not recommended for baking or frying.

When you are faced with many choices of margarines do you ask are higher-priced margarines better than those selling for half their price?

There is no simple yes or no. The more than 20 kinds of margarine fall into six types: regular, whipped, soft, premium, unsalted and low-calorie.

Each has 80 percent fat blended with milk or cream and each is fortified with vitamin A and some with vitamin D.

The most common type is regular margarine. Generally it is made from soybean and cottonseed oil and costs less than the other types.

Regular margarines are all-purpose—may be used in cooking, baking, frying, as a seasoning and for table spread.

Inert gas is injected into whipped margarine to increase its volume.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has banned bug-proof shelfpaper impregnated with insecticides chlordane and lindane. The paper cannot be sold across state lines. The shelfpaper "may produce residues in home-stored foods," according to USDA.

Tax Booklet Is Available

A 160-page booklet on how to fill out your Federal income tax return is now available at most Internal Revenue Service offices throughout Texas, according to Ellis Campbell, District Director of Internal Revenue.

The booklet, "Your Federal Income Tax," Publication 17, contains many examples to illustrate how the laws apply to actual situations. A special feature of the booklet is the sample, filled-in return, Form 1040, keyed to pages in the booklet where explanations can be found for the entries on the return.

The material, written in laymen's language, is especially helpful to taxpayers who have unusual tax situations or new tax problems, Mr. Campbell said.

Examples of taxable and non-taxable income and of allowable and non-allowable deductions are included. A detailed index helps taxpayers find the answers to their tax problems.

The booklet may also be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. 20402, at 60 cents a copy.

The major emphasis will be on management of the stocker operation at a meeting set for Thursday, January 22 in the Bovina High School Auditorium. The program will start at 7:00 P.M.

Four topics of interest to the stocker operator will be "Sources of Stocker Cattle," "Irrigated Pastures," "Health & Nutrition in a Stocker Program," and "Outlook for Cattle Feeding."

Everyone interested in this segment of the cattle industry will want to attend this program.

The annual banquet of Texas-New Mexico sugar beet growers will be held in the Bull Barn at Hereford on Saturday, January 24 at 7:00 P.M.

Post-planting techniques are as important in tree survival as any other factor.

"A bare rooted tree should be supported to prevent damage from prevailing winds," explains Everett E. Janne, Extension landscape horticulturist at Texas A&M University.

The most common method of staking is with two or more wooden stakes driven into the soil around the tree and about a foot from it.

Soft string may be used to tie the tree to the stakes. Wire or other hard materials are poor substitutes because they will injure the tree. Guy wires may be attached to large trees if a section of rubber hose is used to protect the tree. "If rubber hose isn't used, the wire will cut into the tree and possibly kill it," Janne says.

A tree should remain supported for at least two years. Balled and burlapped shrubs usually do not need supporting.

Newly planted trees also need to be pruned. The amount of pruning is determined by the root system, the condition of the plant and its future care.

Usually one-third to a half of the top growth is removed, the horticulturist says.

Only secondary branches are cut back. Buds along a single shoot can be rubbed off.

Pruning is done to assure a balance of the roots with the top growth. Balled and burlapped plants need little or no pruning. Plants are not fertilized immediately after planting. A light application of fertilizer should be applied after the first growing season.

After planting, the moisture content of the soil demands careful attention. This is especially true for evergreen plants, he says.

As much or more damage results from overwatering as under-watering newly planted trees and shrubs, reminds the horticulturist.

Plants should not be allowed to wilt from dry soil. Neither should the soil be kept at a water-logged level.

Majority Of Vehicles Are Uninspected

With the State's April 15 motor vehicle inspection deadline approximately 90 days away, large numbers of Texas motorists have yet to take their vehicles in for the mandatory annual safety inspection.

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today urged all motorists whose vehicles have not been inspected to visit an inspection station as soon as possible. "Those getting the inspection now will avoid long lines which are certain to develop at many stations as the April 15 deadline draws near," he said.

The DPS Director noted that Texas adopted an annual inspection program on September 1, 1969. All vehicles inspected since that date have had the sticker placed on the left side of the windshield with a large number tab inserted to show the month of expiration.

For example, vehicles inspected in September have the number nine displayed and will require reinspection before September 30, 1970. Those inspected in October have the number 10 and must be re-inspected before October 31, 1970. Vehicles which are inspected in January will bear the number one and reinspection will be required before January 31, 1971.

All vehicles which currently have a sticker on the right side of the windshield have not been reinspected in compliance with the new law, and their owners have only until April 15 to visit an approved inspection station.

Beneficiaries To Receive 15% Increase In Payment

Social security beneficiaries need not apply for the 15 percent benefit increase recently signed into law by President Nixon. "Every one of the 25 million men, women and children now on the benefit rolls will receive the increase automatically," J.C. Carabajal, social security Field Representative, said today.

"The first regular check in the new amount," Carabajal said, "will arrive April 3, the usual day for delivery of benefit checks covering payments for the month of March." A separate check in the amount of the benefit increase for the months of January and February will reach beneficiaries later in April, probably during the week of April 20.

Refiguring the benefit amounts of the 25 million men, women, and children now on the benefit rolls is a tremendous task, Carabajal pointed out, and it must be done without disrupting the regular benefit payment cycle.

Although social security beneficiaries are urged NOT to contact their social security office about the benefit increase, information about other parts of the social security program may be secured from Carabajal in the Council Room at the City Hall from 9 a.m. until noon on the third Tuesday of each month.

Tax Man Sam Sez -

The new red, white and blue tax forms come in nice patriotic colors. The good tax folks may have felt that the patriotic theme would make a nice addition—however, the colors on the tax forms serve a definite purpose. The red ink printing on the front of the form 1040 signals "Stop." What Internal Revenue hopes that you will do is to see the red "stop sign" and go back and check the information or check your figures and eliminate a large part of the errors that came in on last year's tax returns.

May we suggest that you might feel blue about your tax return if you don't watch out for the red stop sign and correct the errors. The computer doesn't go by colors. The computer simply sends out a notice. It doesn't really matter how red, white and blue your attitude might have been when you prepared your return.

The annual banquet of Texas-New Mexico sugar beet growers will be held in the Bull Barn at Hereford on Saturday, January 24 at 7:00 P.M.

Post-planting techniques are as important in tree survival as any other factor.

"A bare rooted tree should be supported to prevent damage from prevailing winds," explains Everett E. Janne, Extension landscape horticulturist at Texas A&M University.

The most common method of staking is with two or more wooden stakes driven into the soil around the tree and about a foot from it.

Soft string may be used to tie the tree to the stakes. Wire or other hard materials are poor substitutes because they will injure the tree. Guy wires may be attached to large trees if a section of rubber hose is used to protect the tree.

"If rubber hose isn't used, the wire will cut into the tree and possibly kill it," Janne says.

A tree should remain supported for at least two years. Balled and burlapped shrubs usually do not need supporting.

Newly planted trees also need to be pruned. The amount of pruning is determined by the root system, the condition of the plant and its future care.

Usually one-third to a half of the top growth is removed, the horticulturist says.

Only secondary branches are cut back. Buds along a single shoot can be rubbed off.

Pruning is done to assure a balance of the roots with the top growth. Balled and burlapped plants need little or no pruning.

Plants are not fertilized immediately after planting. A light application of fertilizer should be applied after the first growing season.

After planting, the moisture content of the soil demands careful attention. This is especially true for evergreen plants, he says.

As much or more damage results from overwatering as under-watering newly planted trees and shrubs, reminds the horticulturist.

Plants should not be allowed to wilt from dry soil. Neither should the soil be kept at a water-logged level.

SEEDS OF SEDUCTION

The little nuthatch isn't so nutty. Graceful in wooing, he selects choice sunflower seeds and flies to his female with them. If that doesn't win her, he shucks each seed before again presenting the gift.

Former Muleshoe Girl Has Job On Publication

Joyce Adams, of Muleshoe, has been appointed home editor of The Farmer-Stockman, leading farm magazine in Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico. The monthly magazine is published in three editions, with a combined circulation of more than 400,000.

According to the announcement made by Ferdie J. Deering, editor and manager, Miss Adams will succeed Katharine Randall, who is retiring after holding the position for more than 24 years. Miss Randall, well known among homemakers and farm women's organizations throughout the four-state area, is Mrs. O.W. Rush in private life.

Miss Adams is a former 4-H club member, outstanding student, graduate of Texas Christian University, and teacher of high school English and journalism at Bovina. She spent a year at International Christian University in Japan and toured seven countries of Europe during the past summer. Her father is County Agricultural Extension Agent in Bailey County, (Muleshoe).

According to recent television reports this nation isn't making much progress in solving the problems of the Indians living on reservations. I'm wondering if some of the existing problems wouldn't take care of themselves if every one recognized the fact that people of all nationalities like to be independent.

The following story has been told many times and illustrates the point.

"This banking story is told about a Navajo Indian just after his tribe was assigned to a reservation in Arizona in the 1880's. It seems that Chief Sharp As A Tack came into a bank in Prescott to borrow some money. The loan officer politely listened to his story then asked the Chief if he had any collateral. Sharp As A Tack didn't understand. The officer explained by stating that collateral was property or possessions put up as a pledge that the money would be repaid. This seemed logical to the Chief.

"Do you have any horses?" asked the officer, by way of suggesting acceptable collateral. "Over 500," the chief said. So a loan of $5,000 for a year was arranged, with the horses as security.

Exactly one year later Sharp As A Tack walked into the bank with two sacks of money. He went to the loan officer, opened one sack, and repaid the loan.

After the exchange of a few pleasantries, the officer said to the Chief, "Why don't you leave that other sack of money here? It might get lost or stolen."

"You got horses?" was the terse query from Chief Sharp As A Tack.

Rural Wrecks Kill Six In County During 1969

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 14 accidents on rural highways in Parmer County during the month of December, according to Sergeant W. E. Wells, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in 11 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $8,355.00.

The rural accident summary for this county during the calendar year of 1969 shows a total of 149 crashes resulting in six persons killed, 96 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $110,767.00.

What will the decade of the 1970's be traffic fatality wise in Texas? Here are some facts that could give you an idea. There were 25,000 persons killed in Texas during the 1950's and 30,000 killed during the 1960's. If the past and present trend continues the 1970's will be another record decade.

The Sergeant reminded all motor vehicle owners that still have their inspection stickers on the lower right-hand side of their windshield that April 15 is the deadline for having the new stickers placed on the lower left-hand side of their windshields. Only about 16 percent of the registered vehicles in this county have been inspected.

Sunday morning's snow was most unusual. It seems that Friona was right in the middle of one "downpour" of fluffy white flakes. Another real unusual situation weatherwise was the absence of wind. In spite of a heavy cover of snow, low temperature readings and ice all over, a person could go about his activities in comparative comfort.

When, if ever, have we had so much snow on the ground when the temperature reached into the fifties, as it did Monday afternoon. Several "snow men, women, children and dogs" took shape Monday afternoon and looked real pretty Tuesday morning. However, by mid-afternoon Tuesday all of them had begun to lose their shape.

Mrs. A.O. Drake, one of the Star's most enthusiastic supporters for many many years, is home this week. Because of her advanced age, she is unable to stay alone any more. She spent several months with one of her daughters, Frances Howard, in Abernathy. Then returned to Friona and stayed in the homes of her sons, Arthur and Earl, for a few weeks.

"I'm enjoying being home," she said, "but know I can't stay alone, so will go back home with Frances when she goes."

Mrs. Wana Brewer is also home. She's a third grade teacher and has been hospitalized in Amarillo following a fall on the ice during the Christmas holidays. She expects to be confined to her home for a brief period of time, but will be on crutches several months.

RESEARCH SCIENTIST TO COLD VICTIM: "GESUNDHEIT!"

Man has been trying to cope with the common cold for more than 3,000 years. "Ever the optimist, he faces each winter with new hope—and probably—some old, unproven, but beloved remedy," a National Tuberculosis Association publication notes.

Some of these remedies may not help the cold, but do give some measure of comfort to the cold victim. NTA's comment about one of them, wrapping a piece of flannel around the throat: "The flannel is only a substitute for the teddy bear you clutched as a baby."

But you can relieve the symptoms, it also advises, and offers the following suggestions:

Your usual dose of aspirin helps your headache and aches. Antihistamines give you some relief if allergic reactions accompany your cold. A vaporizer or hot bath relieves congestions. Hard candy soothes your throat.

A passerby observed an interesting incident at the Highway 60 crossing on Euclid Avenue Monday afternoon. The melting snow had created a wide stream of water. It was so wide that some of the smaller children were unable to jump it without being able to make a running start.

Jack Brown, who patrols that crossing, had apparently anticipated just such an emergency. He had on over boots, so carried books, horns and other school equipment across the stream for the small fry, then went back and escorted the children after they had jumped the stream.

It is risky to drive in a fog, even a mental fog.

EASY WAY FOR BAIT

Plant a tree if you're looking for a good supply of fishing bait. Or you might consider going hunting with a tin can and flashlight the next time a thunderstorm comes along.

Although these may not sound like ways to get bait, they are helpful in assuring a supply of worms for summer angling.

Fishermen who plant trees will make sure they have at least one catalpa tree in the yard, say the fishing authorities at Mercury outboards. For this is the source of the long, green catalpa worms considered a delectable dish by many species of fresh water fish.

Catalpa worms are the larval stage of sphinx moths. They often grow to three inches long and are found only on catalpa trees, their sole source of food. They are harvested by shaking the tree and picking up worms that fall to the ground.

Keeping them is easy. A box with catalpa leaves in the bottom works fine. To save them for later use, put them in a can with some cornmeal and keep the can refrigerated. They can be strung on the hook like an ordinary fishing worm.

A second easy way to get bait is to go worm hunting during spring and early summer storms.

At night, during a heavy rain storm, earth worms will come out of the ground and lay on top of the grass or just underneath. Many of them will travel, moving out onto concrete driveways and street curbs. All you need do is don a raincoat, grab a can and flashlight and pick up a good start on your summer's bait supply. During prolonged storms, you can repeatedly return to the same driveway, finding a fresh supply of worms each time.

TEARS OF FRUSTRATION CAN RESULT IF YOU TRY TO FORCE A CHILD'S INTEREST IN SOMETHING HE'S NOT READY FOR, SAY EDUCATORS. BUT YOU MAY ENCOURAGE HIS INTEREST IN ART AND MUSIC, BY GIVING HIM THINGS LIKE PASTE, PAINT, CLAY, BELLS OR DRUMS-- BUT LET HIM PLAY WITH THEM IN HIS OWN WAY!

Faith doesn't just stand there.

It does something.

If you think all's right with the world, read no further. But if you're like most people, today's headlines are profoundly disturbing. Narcotics. Alcoholism. Murder. Racial strife. Poverty. Cruelty. War. The "inhuman-ness" our society seems to be breeding. Your Faith has something to say about every one of the moral and ethical problems facing us. More important, if you listen to what your Faith has to say, you're in a better position to help solve those problems. But you find out for yourself. Worship this week in your church or synagogue. Then take your Faith out in the world and put it to work.

Over fifty employees and their spouses attended the dinner which was one in a series of three such affairs being held by the Company in different cities in its service area. This year 147 employees representing 1,905 years of service to Pioneer, are being honored.

Ralph Shirley was presented a service award recognizing his 20 years of service to the Company.

RALPH SHIRLEY

The award was presented by Burton P. Smith, president of Pioneer Natural Gas Company. Smith also delivered an informal talk at the affair.

In connection with the award presentations, Smith said, "It has often been stated that 'people make progress'. This is especially true of the fine group of employees who continue to make daily contributions to the growth and success of Pioneer and its subsidiaries. The outstanding loyalty of all Company employees is being saluted here tonight as we present these individual service awards. Pioneer's development will continue to be tied to out excellent personnel, and as we go forward with our diversification plans, so successfully started this past year, every employee will have additional opportunities to make significant contributions to the future of the Company. On behalf of Pioneer's board of directors and management committee, I extend my sincere thanks to the entire Pioneer family."
