PERMANENT WORLD WIDE PETROLEUM CONGRESS URGED

PLAN IS OUTLINED BY PRESIDENT INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION.

WOULD INCLUDE ALL BRANCHES OF INDUSTRY

Committee on Permanent Organization Will Report On Wednesday.

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 9. (AP)—A permanent world wide petroleum congress, embracing all branches of the industry in cooperative effort for the advancement of the trade was outlined by President E. Jackson at the International Petroleum Exposition in his keynote address to thousands of oil men attending the first exposition here today.

Mentioning this aim as the principal objective of the present gathering the speaker urged that complete plans for its realization be formulated this week.

"It is the desire of this congress," he said, "to promote cooperation between the large and small producer, the refiner, the transportation agencies, distributors and consumers.

"Cooperation is essential to the life of any industry and always must be encouraged in any business that is to grow and prosper. Cooperation, friendship, confidence and the kindred relationships mark the border lines between men and beast, and only by duplicating them that civilization can advance. These are the things which give business life and soul, and they must not be neglected."

A committee on permanent organization of the congress has been appointed and will report Wednesday.

W. A. Durgin, representing the federal department of commerce, spoke on the standardization program, outlining the accomplishments of the department's program in other industries and urging immediate application of the principle upon manufacturers of oil equipment.

Technical Problems. Ten other speakers presented papers on technical problems of the industry and relations between the various trade units. Among them were several delegates from foreign governments who discussed the future of oil in their respective countries.

In touching upon the "grafting in oil" President Jackson made it plain that "this congress does not censure or condemn individuals or companies who by sheer bad luck have suffered misfortune."

"When we speak of fake oil producers we mean those men who without educational scruples enter the business not for the purpose of producing oil, but for the purpose of selling worthless stock to an unsuspecting public."

He urged the adoption of a plan to educate the investing public to discern between legitimate stock and worthless papers offered by fake promoters, and complimented a group of Texas newspaper publishers who, he said, for sometime had been active in such a campaign.

The projected permanent international organization was described as "an institution of such magnitude as to meet annually and discuss the needs and requirements of the business and accomplish such good as may be possible through intensive organization and cooperation."

UNABLE TO PROVIDE HOME FOR CHILDREN PREACHER SUICIDES

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 9. (AP)—An unrequited desire to maintain a home for his five children ranging in age from 12 to 19 was believed to be the principal motive behind the suicide here yesterday of the Rev. John William Jones, 47, prominent Episcopal clergyman.

His body was found early last night in his hotel room where he had apparently shot himself with a shot gun several hours before.

In a letter addressed to his wife, a theatrical woman of New York, the Rev. Mr. Jones said: "We never seem to have gotten any where on the divorce question nor have we succeeded in making a go. The kids need a home. For nearly six years now I have been unable to do the right thing by you and them. Let's call it quits, and may God take care of you all. I am in heart and soul and have decided to go 'beyond the vale.'"

The clergyman said his wife's stage name was Pauline LaVerne, Mary Tupper Jones or Mary Tupper. She is said also to have written for the author of two books, "Music of God" and "The Value of the Dollar."

Before becoming archdeacon two years ago of the western Kansas diocese with headquarters at Hutchinson, Mr. Jones held pastorates or headed church work in Chicago, Denver, Omaha, Council Bluffs and San Antonio. A week ago last Sunday he preached in a church at West Chester, Pa., a suburb of Philadelphia. He recently resigned from the archdeaconship.

SPECIAL PLANE WING ENABLES NAVY FLYERS TO MAKE FAST TIME

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 9. (AP)—The double camber wing which increased the lower and upper lifting surfaces of the planes enabled the United States navy aviators to attain the unprecedented faster time of more than four miles a minute in the Pulitzer speed air races here last Saturday.

Commander Marc A. Mitscher, U. S. N., who was in charge of the navy entrants, declared today.

Asked to explain why the Curtiss racing planes which were flown by the navy entrants made much faster time than the same kind of machines flown by army aviators, Commander Mitscher disclosed that double camber wings or convexes on both sides of the wings which the army planes were not equipped with were responsible for the feat.

He said that the navy planes traveled as high as 10 miles faster per hour as a result of the wings, which he added were a new invention.

FOUR MEN SERIOUSLY INJURED WHEN CAGE IN COAL MINE IS DROPPED

DECATUR, Ill., Oct. 9. (AP)—Four men were seriously injured, two perhaps fatally, here late yesterday when a cage in the shaft of the Decatur Coal Company mine dropped over 100 feet.

The men were being lowered to the 600-foot level for the night work and had gone down 600 feet when the hoisting cable snapped. They plunged the remaining 100 feet in the cage.

NEW PRESIDENT ELECT OF CHINA URGES PEOPLE TO GIVE COOPERATION

PEKING, Oct. 9. (AP)—President-elect Tiao Kuo, as his first official act, issued a proclamation calling on the various provisional officials for their cooperation in carrying on the affairs of the Chinese republic. He stated that he appreciated the magnitude of the burden he had undertaken as president of the nation and that the assistance of the provincial authorities was solicited because of their knowledge of administrative matters. He admitted he had only a political and military training.

100 WOMEN ENTERED IN GOLF TOURNAMENT

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9. (AP)—More than 100 women golf players will take off at the Huntington Valley club today in the twelfth invitation tournament for the Berthelton cup. The entry list includes Miss Glenna Collett of Providence, who was defeated as national champion last week, and most of the others who qualified for the national title competition at Rye, N. Y., last week.

Miss Edith Cummings of Chicago, the new champion, is not an entrant. Today's play will be at 10 holes, the sixteen low medal scores to qualify. Match play will start tomorrow.

SAYS UNITED STATES HAS BROKEN FAITH WITH WAR VETERAN

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 9. (AP)—The nation has broken faith with its disabled veterans, Colonel H. D. McBride, St. Louis, Missouri, commander of the American Legion, asserted here last night before representatives of the Kansas City posts.

"After the armistice a grateful people promised to assuage the distress of the disabled of the war," he declared. They appropriated millions to do it and believed their purpose was being fulfilled. An chairman for two years of the 8th district rehabilitation committee I am convinced that the people's trust has been betrayed.

"The last five years have been a record of lack of understanding of the disabled veterans' need. Every piece of favorable legislation in this direction has come from legion sources. After five years relief is in sight.

"For five years the legion has fought for better handling of the disabled men's needs. Every piece of favorable legislation in this direction has come from legion sources. After five years relief is in sight.

"The situation under the management of General Frank Hines, now head of the veterans' bureau, promises to be corrected."

Highway Bureau Needs Space in County Building

The highway department, which takes care of the registration of automobiles and the issuing of licenses, plates and seals, needs office space in the court house and it is quite probable that in order to provide an office some remodeling will be necessary.

The work of this department is handled by the county tax collector and the increasing business of the highway department as well as that of the collector's office makes it necessary to remove the highway department from the collector's office, at the same time keeping them in close proximity.

It has been suggested that the vault which is now used jointly by the collector and assessor could be turned into an office for the highway department by cutting an entrance into the main hallway. Should this be done a new vault would have to be provided and it is said that this could be done by erecting an addition on the north side of the court house at the northeast corner of the collector's office.

This matter will be considered by the county commissioners at their next weekly session, it is understood.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY... Did not I weep for him that was in trouble? Was not my soul grieved for the poor?—Job 30:25.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

This is Fire Prevention Week. It comes once a year, but the message it seeks to convey should be heeded fifty-two weeks a year.

The annual fire toll in this country is enormous, staggering. It is doubtless greater than anywhere else on earth, due to our building practices and our well known carelessness.

At the present rate the daily toll is forty lives and $1,400,000 in property.

Europe is better off than the United States, doubtless due to the more substantial buildings over there.

Attics and cellars should be kept free from combustible accumulations.

Don't deposit ashes carelessly in wooden boxes, against wooden fences or other combustible surfaces.

The careless use of pipes, cigars and cigarettes causes countless fires.

Candles or matches should never be taken into closets or other places where they may ignite inflammable materials.

Public authorities should certify to the proper chimney construction of every house.

Fire should never be relighted until the furnace is overhauled.

Gas and oil stoves should be kept scrupulously clean and free from leaks.

or any sort of cleaning should be burned at once after using, as certain oils ignite spontaneously.

ONE PHASE OF UNIVERSITY EXTENSION SERVICE... Although more than twelve thousand package libraries were sent out last year by the University of Texas extension department, those in charge expect the record this year to be surpassed.

Doctors say an Alabama man who started over a fence with a loaded gun will recover.

If Jack Dempsey is all rested up now maybe he will try to tackle a football team.

The German marks you can get for a dollar now look more like a baseball score by tonight.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8. (AP)—Official announcement of the batting order for tomorrow's opening game of the third successive all-New York world's series is expected late today. The probable announcement will follow the final "polishing up" practice session this afternoon at the Yankee stadium and Polo Grounds.

To those workouts Managers McGraw and Huggins have summoned both the well and the injured or ill members of their squads and those in the latter classification will be called upon to go through their paces under the watchful eyes of the rival managers and the club physicians, to establish their fitness or unfitness to play.

The majority was present at yesterday's practice when the Giants tested out the Yankee batting order while the Yankees scamped about the Polo Grounds, but several of their number, notably Wally Pipp, the Yankee first sacker; Bob Meusel, the Yankee outfielder, both of whom have injured ankles; Pop Young, the Giant pitcher, who will be possibly out of the lineup; and Jack Scott, the Giant pitcher, who has been suffering from heavy colds, took things much easier than will be possible in the actual game.

Wally Pipp smacked the ball hard while at bat and walked without hitting, but did not do any quick starting or fast running, and Bob Meusel followed his example. The latter is expected to round into form before the start of tomorrow's game, but there still is considerable doubt as to whether Pipp will play.

Should Wally be unable to play

Schalk Thinks Yankees Have Big Edge in Condition

HO HUM! HERE ARE THE YANKS, WINNERS AGAIN

Ray Schalk Says—
A season's condition plays prominent part in a world series. Yankees have had a comparatively easy season, never hard pressed. They will enter series fit, physically and mentally. Yankees staggered across the line a winner in 1921 and 1922. The Giants have had to step out the entire way to win this year.

Grueling campaign has taken much out of McGraw's team. Giants are a great money club and always best in a pinch. Yankees should have a decided edge as to condition this year.

By RAY SCHALK.
World's Greatest Catcher. Absolute condition, both physical and mental, plays a big part in a team's showing in the world series. The Yankees have had a comparatively easy season of it. Since the first of August they have been out in front by a comfortable margin, have never really been pressed to hold their lead. The latter part of the season has been a romp for them. As a result, they are fit, mentally and physically.

Speaking of monopolies and other evils, how about these here New York ball clubs that keep on hogging all the baseball glory in the big league? Herewith is presented play, three in Boston and one in Washington, the Yanks needed only one game to clinch the pennant.

Baseball fans the country over will recall what tough time the Yankees had winning last year. Going into Boston with four games to play, three in Boston and one in Washington, the Yanks needed only one game to clinch the pennant.

After the tall-end Boston club before the first two games there was near-panic in the ranks of the Yankees. The veteran Jack Quinn and "Rip" Collins had pitched the two victories over the Yanks. For the final game it was either Ferguson or Penneck for Boston. Both warmed up and Ferguson got the call.

In the first inning the Yankees scored three runs on Ferguson before he was derailed in favor of Penneck. During the rest of the game, Penneck, who I figure to star with the Yankees against the Giants this year, held the New Yorkers runless. If my memory serves me correctly, New York won by the scant margin of 3 to 2.

That victory clinched the pennant. The last day of the season, Wagner, a southern recruit pitching for Washington, blanked the Yankees 8 to 0. New York staggered across the line with just one game to spare.

It is an entirely different story this year, the shoe is on the other foot. The Yankees have been hard-pressed from start to finish, and twice seemed to be in danger of losing the lead.

Winning the pennant early has enabled Manager Huggins to give some of his players a much-needed rest. On the other hand, the Giants have been forced to go the entire route. It is surprising what a tonic a few days of rest is to a player who has been giving his best every day for six months.

It is not uncommon for a team that has been hard-pressed all the day to relax when the objective is accomplished. Often it is a difficult matter to get the players back on their game after having so relaxed. They seem to go stale.

I am positive that the grueling season the Yankees were forced to go through in 1921 and 1922 had its effect on their world series play.

What Babe Ruth Will Do Is One Big Question Mark In Figuring Outcome of 1923 World Series

By THOMAS L. CUMMERBY
Universal Service Staff Correspondent.
NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—If the abridger that hides the future could be shaved aside, and what Babe Ruth will do in the world series revealed, a real line on the outcome of the Yankees-Giants combat could be forthcoming.

A picture is vivid in my mind of Babe in training in New Orleans last spring. There he was with perspiration dropping off him like water running around the park after everything up in batting practice, straining with his all to be in condition. He had been a sad spectacle in the world series last fall, after a regular season that saw him hit almost continually. It was questioned if the Babe could come back.

As he worked, other Yankees stopped whatever they were doing, to see if he had his "eye" on the ball. If he could hit "em as he used to do, it was very clear that they depended greatly on what the Babe would do in the pennant hunt. They were wondering how he would make out in his career, if he could bring the Yankees their first world championship. So do all the Yanks. That's certain.

Runyon Says--

World Series Will Be Largely McGraw vs. Babe Ruth.

By DAMON RUNYON.
Universal Service Staff Correspondent.
(Copyright 1923, Universal Service.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Our young friend, Mr. Arthur Robinson, enthusiastic authority on baseball, leans over and suggests that the world series will be McGraw vs. Babe Ruth, "the master mind against brute force."

It is young Mr. Robinson's idea that if McGraw, sitting on the bench of the Giants, can transmit to his pitchers certain strategy in pitching to Ruth, the huge slugger of the Yankees will be helpless, the Giants will win.

It is an interesting thought. But McGraw himself cannot do the pitching. His baseball brain must be turned on Ruth second hand. That makes McGraw's task very difficult.

Intelligence, a master mind—cannot always offset brute force. Put a goosie-in a stout cage, and an intelligent man standing outside the cage, as opposed to brute force, would be in the fact that intelligence would keep the man from going into the cage.

McGraw, sitting on the bench of the Giants with Ruth at bat, may see some methods of offsetting the Babe's batting eye.

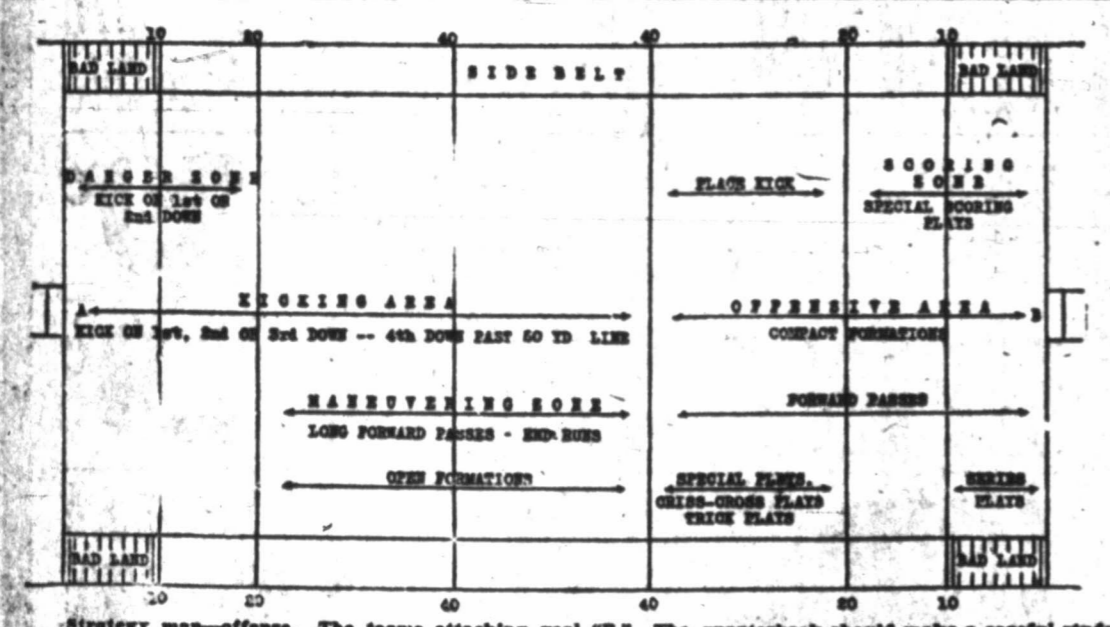

But McGraw cannot personally execute the method.

He must explain to his pitchers. If the pitcher does not also have a "master mind" what will happen? That is on the knees of the baseball gods.

"Germany" Schmidt was a left handed pitcher of the long ago, called eccentric, yet by no means lacking in intelligence. He had a small note book in which he would enter the batting weaknesses of different ball players, as he discovered them in his pitching. At times he would hold up a game to pull out his little book to look up the batter's records.

Quarterback is Football's General Successful Leader Respects Law Of Averages and Sound Play

By ROBERT C. SUPPES
Football Coach, University of Illinois, Author of "Football Technique and Tactics."

The generalship employed in a football game should be a result of the history of played games, the experience of a coach, and a study of the coaches, and the mastery of the sequence of plays. The experience of a coach, the style of offense and defense, the relation one play bears to another, and the formations which contain the various plays, make up the system previous to each game. The coach determines the tactics and strategy to be employed.

The average spectator at a game is of the opinion that the quarterback does all of the thinking for the team as far as the selection of plays on the field is concerned. Specially, spectators depend on the captain, who guides the offense. The spectator forgets, however, that the quarterback in turn is guided by the system and that all of the men plus the coaches are part of that system. The system develops football brains, controls the football thought of the quarterback, and furnishes him the data on which he bases his generalship.

The quarterback must control the tactics to respect the law of averages and teach him discrimination between sound football and the "go as you please" hit or miss kind. They should assist him in selecting the plays not by merely telling him what and when to choose, but by fortifying him with a group of formations and a cycle of plays, which, because they are related, implant themselves firmly in his memory.

The kind of play that is taught, the way it is taught, the time the play is drilled, the part of the field in which the play emphasizes, and the number of plays which the coach has in the wheel that operates the football machine.

This machine should not be so rigid in its demands that the general cannot extricate it from a groove, but should be flexible enough to be varied from year to year because of the varying ability of the players.

The quarter and the captain must be so much a part of the system that they understand the true meaning of every play and the part each man of the team is to play. They must know the why and wherefore of every move, which the coaches make, such as using play "A" in preference to play "B," and why back No. 1 is used so much more than No. 3 or No. 4; and why one should put on the third down near the end of the time against certain opponents, and why one should punt half of the time on the second and the other half on the fourth against other opponents.

The quarterback should study a strategic map, such as is represented

COYOTES READY FOR BATTLE SATURDAY WITH HENRIETTA

The Coyotes leave town again Saturday. For the third game of the intercollegiate league series, the local gridder's journey away from the city, this time to play the Clay county lads in Henrietta. Coach McCollum has been working up new formations with his squad this week, and expects to have a smoother working machine for Saturday's game than ever before.

In spite of the fact that Henrietta went to a scoreless tie with Bowie two weeks ago, while the Coyotes trimmed Bowie for a 12-0 score on their own field; and in spite of the fact that Nocona beat Henrietta 13 to 6 last Saturday while Wichita scored 14 points to Nocona's nothing in the first game of the year, the coaches and players on the red and black squad are not expecting a walk away.

Proceeding their Waterloo at Clearburne last season, the only really dangerous contest of the season was with Henrietta on the local grounds. Henrietta came through this and again during the game, and had it not been for far superior defensive playing on the part of the Coyotes and a bit of hard luck for Henrietta the story might have been different.

Hundreds of local rooters are expected to attend the game Saturday. Practically every high school student who can secure some part of a vehicle will depart early Saturday afternoon for Henrietta, while many football fans from the city are going down for the afternoon.

Negro Boy Tells Juvenile Officer Location of Loot

A negro boy, aged 15 years, who was apprehended Monday afternoon by the detective department of the police force, told Juvenile Officer W. C. Bralley all about the theft of a diamond ring, a platinum watch and a wrist watch.

The platinum watch chain was found in a school desk in a building of the city. The boy told Mr. Bralley that he had given the chain to a girl friend. The chain had a value of $45.

The wrist watch had been given to a little negro boy and this too was recovered. The articles had been taken from a house where the boy's mother was employed.

To Extend Parking Limits. An amendment to the ordinance providing for the two-hour parking limit in the downtown section, to include Ohio avenue from Seventh to Ninth streets, was passed to its first reading. The amendment to the ordinance was made at the suggestion of the merchants in those blocks who complained that the original ordinance was detrimental to business on the blocks named on account of the extra parking space which resulted from the ruling.

It is probable that a special bill which will make possible the exemption of the city from the state taxes on the water works for the next session of the legislature. The city claims exemption on the state taxes on the water works for the year; the deed was actually made in February, 1934. It was the opinion of Commissioner Stanton that a special bill would be necessary in order for the city to claim the exemption of the 1934 taxes.
