To His Courage Convict Caught INDIANS ARE FIGHTING PIRES

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 16. (9)—In union station last night with a ticket to New York in his hand and the announcer calling his train, the body of Frederick Ramos, 21. fsiled to equal his courage and a daring break for freedom from the state penitentiary here failed.

According to Ramos' own story, he had planned his escape weeks ago. To scale the 25-foot wail he had improvised a hock and rope and last night finding an opportunity reached the top of the wall. There a guard saw him, fired and Ramos fell outside the wall with a broken leg. While prison authorities searched for him within the yard, Ramos crawled some distance and halled a passing automobile. He told the driver he had been struck by a taxicab, but that he must get a train for New York.

According to the newspapers of Amarillo, the social service committee of the Polk Street Methodist Church of that city recently presented a petition "signed by one hundred twenty churchmen and women of Amarillo," requesting Judge Henry S. Bishop te institute grand jury action against all who refuse to observe Sunday, according to their way of thinking. The Sunday law of Texas is "a law respecting an establishment of religion," and therefore is a violation of the ing an establishment of religion," and therefore is a violation of the first amendment to the constitution. This law prohibits the sale on Sun-day, of cold drinks, candy, chewing gum, dry goods, gasoline, and the playing of baseball games and many other items. But it allows the sale of drugs, foodstuffs, news-papers, ice cream, milk, and other items of the same character.

The chances are that the men the statute books of Texas, and who picked those men sized them who demand its enforcement in Amarilio and elsewhere, have arrived at the conclusion that it is a static back of the statute books of Texas, and who demand its enforcement in Amarilio and elsewhere, have arrived at the conclusion that it is a no crime to sell ice cream; that it is a crime to sell gasoline on Sunday, but no crime to sell a newspaper; that it is a crime to sell a cold drink on Sunday, but not a crime to sell milk. But those who clamor for the enforcement of the 18th amendment and persistently violate the first amendment, can doubtless dis-tinguish these fine points of difrealm, and seeks to manipulate the judicial and municipal affairs of a community, and asks that the civil magistrate use the police power of the state to enforce religious ob-ligations and her dogmas, it is very evident that she has departed from her proper sphere of activities. It is not the mission of the church to employ force or to appeal to it in doing the Master's work. Carroll was first seen on a local program last Thursday night when he put "Slam" Tucker of Abilena out for a ten minute, slumber in the second round of their scheduled teh rounder. The meles went to Carroll from the start and he did not seem to exert himself in the least. The go Thursday night between the two best boxers in this part of the coun-try should be well worth seeing. Whe semi-final scheduled for the show Thursday night is between Alvin Williamson of this city and Duke Lionall or Fort Worth. Little is known of Lionell since he has never been on a local program but he comes well recommended by fans in the southern part of the state. Williamson has shown up well in several bouts on the legion card. And Gas Association Sounds Note of Warning to the Oil Producers

FULSA, Okia, Ook 17.—The following statement on the oil situation has been immed by Wm. W. Davia, president of the Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association:

"Are she oil producers of the Mid-Continent field about to plunge that bronch of the industry into greater damped on the industry of the country of the interest of the south about a new been learned from the light of the issues which should have been learned from the similar mistakes of the past three years, but there are many difficult berrein should the said of the

America's Cold Remedy

"In the face of the facts above

and daily newspapers through the

and daily newspapers through the oil states are carrying optimistic headlines and articles which are encouraging the resumption of drilling. The whole oil industry is sick. The producing branch of the industry has been sick for three years. It has been like a patient running a temperature of 185 degrees, who has insisted upon getting up every time there was a drop of one-half a degree or avaitees in his temperature. The natural result has been a series of relapses, and with each relapse the patient und with each relapse the patient has been sicker than before. Let

has been sicker than before. Let us hope that the producing branch of the industry will be wise enough this time to wait until the temperature has dropped to normal—until they can have their plans for renewed activities upon improved conditions which are said to be six or nine months in the future.

In view of the depressed condition of the industry and uncertainty of the date of recovery, this is a most unfavorable time to contemplate the opening of new poots. It is regrettable that plans harstofote made by governmental agencies to open for applopation the Marko and Arisona should have cuiminated in a proposal for a sale of leases on October 18th. To produce oil from that new field on the present deciding market thus adding to the clining market thus adding to the demoralisation, will, in my optalon, be against the welfare of the Indian owners and violative of the spirit of conservation. This sale should be postponed if possible to do so,"

Mesora Charles Eyran Walsh and Wm. R. Watkins announce the for-mation of a partnership for the general practice of law under the firm same of Walkins & Wash, with offices at 212-214 Morgan Bidg.— nov.
