

NEGRO TAKEN FROM JAIL AND LYNCHED BY MOB

Accused of Carrying Pistol on Streets Only Charge
QUIET IN ATLANTA
Seventeen Companies of Militia Guard the City and Riots Have Now Ceased

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 24.—Early this morning a mob of 200 stormed the jail at West Point, a suburb five miles from Atlanta, seized E. B. Long, a negro arrested Sunday for carrying a loaded gun, strung him to a telegraph pole and shot him with a gun in the city. Troops are in control and everything is quiet.

Militia in Control
ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 24.—At 9 o'clock the city is quiet and seventeen companies of state militia are in absolute control. All saloons are closed for a day under order of the mayor. Business has assumed normal conditions, street car schedules have been resumed and city schools opened as usual, and public confidence is being rapidly restored under the energetic measures undertaken by the authorities of the city, county and state to maintain order. No further outbreaks are anticipated.

Difficult to Estimate Killed
ATLANTA, Sept. 24.—The situation this morning in Atlanta on the surface is quiet, and the authorities believe that they have the situation under control. Last night passed without serious disturbances, although many people were on the streets until a late hour. The total number of dead is extremely difficult to estimate. The bodies of the killed in connection with the riots of Saturday night have been prepared for burial. It is reported on seemingly good authority that several bodies have been taken away for burial and it is equally probable that some deaths have not been reported to the police or other authorities.

Number Dead Unknown
The exact number of dead is not likely to be known for some days. Various startling rumors of the trouble have been brought to newspaper offices, but nine-tenths of these have been proved absolutely without foundation and in other cases merely exaggeration is shown. Sixteen companies of state militia are on duty here and will be kept for some days. The entire city is being patrolled, even to the limits of the residence sections. The outlook this morning is encouraging and the passing of last night without serious trouble is considered a hopeful sign.

Mob Hangs Negro
ATLANTA, Sept. 24.—The body of E. B. Long, a negro, was found hanging in the woods early this morning, about half a mile west of East Point, a suburb eight miles south of Atlanta, Long was taken to the East Point jail, charged with disorderly conduct. The jail was broken into shortly after midnight and Long taken to his doom. Unusual mystery surrounds the Long was suspected of any connection with any of the recent assaults on white women.

The car was painted with a coat of yellow, green, brown and the clothing was almost torn off several of the passengers. The three children of John Harrison, living next door, disappeared shortly after the fire broke out, although the police and neighbors have searched for them no trace of them was found. The cause of the fire is unknown. The loss is $20,000.

Even with the increase in the importation of pearls, the dealers say the gems of superior size and water are scarce, so greatly has the demand increased, and the prices are higher than ever before.

LOVE PROMPTS HER TO MURDER

Indian Girl Expects Death and Kills Infant
CONFESSES CRIME
Thought Would Be Executed for Arson—Wanted Babe to Accompany Her

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—A strange story of murder, prompted by an affection that could not bear separation, has been revealed near Brewster, N. Y., through the confession of Jennie Burch, an Indian nurse girl, who is but 14 years of age, says a World special.
It appears that a series of incendiary fires have occurred at Cowles Corner, twelve miles from Brewster, and suspicion fell on the Indian girl, Jennie Burch. She repelled the suspicions vigorously. Last Friday the girl's infant charge, Wilbur Winship, 2 1/2 years of age, was suddenly stricken with illness and soon died. Investigation developed that the child had been given a poisoned peach. The nurse girl was questioned and suspected, but the crime seemed inexplicable, as the girl was known to be deeply attached to the child.
Confesses Crime
Sunday, just before the child's burial, the crime was explained. The girl was brought into the room where the body of the little one lay. When she saw the child she threw herself on the coffin and cried:
"I killed him! I poisoned him!"
Later, when she grew calmer, she admitted that, acting under an uncontrollable impulse, she had set one of the incendiary fires. She knew she was suspected and thinking she would have to die for the crime, she poisoned the little boy, whom she loved so, that he might go with her.

OPERATION TO CURE BAD BOY

Shape of Head Responsible for Criminal Tendency
NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Carl Frederick, a nine-year-old boy of Hoboken, N. J., the American says, is to be operated upon in the hope of reforming him. The lad is now at the Rahway reformatory under constant supervision by scientists. The doctors declare that the brain's size must be reduced.
Tests made showed that the boy has no sense of right or wrong and by the operation, which will probably take place within a week, it is hoped to overcome the criminal tendencies that have so far defied the attempts of his parents.
Head Abnormal Shape
The boy's head is of an abnormal shape, the skull coming almost to a point. The ears are small and protruding, and the eyes are as sharp as ferrets. A strange feature of the boy's behavior is that at times it is good, but never for more than an hour.

TO TRY NEGRO

Jury Empaneled to Hear Block Murder Case
WACO, Texas, Sept. 24.—In the fifty-fourth judicial district court, Judge Sam R. Scott presiding, a jury today being empaneled to try Jesse Washington, alias Jones, for the murder of Matthias Block. It will be recalled that Washington is a self-confessed murderer, but claims that others were in it with him, and that they were white men. No testimony has been brought forward to sustain the latter part of his statement, however. A special venire of sixty men was summoned from which to select twelve jurymen, and it is believed it will not be necessary to summon more. The negro has been in Waco since Saturday.

ARMOURS WILL NOT SELL PLANTS

Head of Firm Brands Report as False
CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 24.—LaSalle street financiers and local provision circles were stirred to considerable excitement by a report from New York that Swift & Co. are negotiating for the purchase of the $20,000,000 business of Armour & Co. At the offices of both Armour & Co. and Swift & Co. the report was officially denied. One of the Swift Company officials said:
"There is no more likelihood that Swift & Co. will buy out the Armour than there is that they will buy out every other packing house in the country."
J. Ogden Armour, head of the Armour concern, who was reported tired of the business and anxious to take a more active part in society life, said:
"I can answer all that talk from New York in three statements: I am not going to sell; I have no social aspirations, and I am not going to quit work."

Necklace Sells for $225,000
It is learned from jewelers that since the Citroen necklace was bought in Paris some weeks ago for a price approximating $225,000 by William B. French, three men were had to make it. It has been considerable emulation of his example on the part of other men who are trying to make equally beautiful presents to their wives. The more prominent jewelers are all making specialties of pearl collections, and in several salerooms are necklaces valued at from $150,000 to $250,000.

BAILEY ROASTED

Entire Press of Southwest Texas Opposed to Senator
SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Sept. 24.—The weekly press received here from all over Southwest Texas is almost unanimous in the denunciation of United States Senator Bailey and demanding that he retire from the senate. The articles "roasting" Bailey are of the most bitter that have ever appeared in the press of this section. Nearly every weekly paper is calling for mass meetings to release the representatives from their instructions to vote for Bailey.
Nearly every one of the papers suggest either Horace Chilton or M. M. Crane as a proper man to succeed Bailey. The majority seem to favor Horace Chilton. There is no doubt from the tone of the papers that the people are thoroughly aroused and that the sentiment may crystallize into very formidable opposition to Bailey.

WAR AGAINST WHISKEY

Ladies Request All Drummers to Leave City
TYLER, Texas, Sept. 24.—Whiskey drummers are having a hard time in the rural districts of this county, according to the reports coming in. The ladies of Lindale, Swan, Winona, Troupe and other small towns, when they learn a whiskey drummer has struck town taking orders, politely request him to leave, and there is not a single case on record in which the request of the ladies has not been complied with. Some of them show a disposition to argue the case, but the ladies have never yet failed to come up with the most convincing kind of argument.

CUBAN PEACE IS ASSURED

World Confident Uncle Sam Will Guard All Interests
MARKET STEADY
American and English Possessions on Island Amount to $400,000,000

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The Times today states that events in Cuba have been viewed with comparative indifference here and abroad, and the progress from bad to worse has been reflected in but small measure in the stock markets, which after all, are the best index of the minds of that part of the public at least with interests at stake.
Cuban bondholders have remained calm and the obligations of the new republic have lost only 4 1/2 points since the early days in August, when the rumblings of the embryo insurrection were first heard. At the bottom of this confidence here and abroad is the knowledge that our government, under the provisions of the Platt amendment, is the responsible guardian of the Cuban peace.

FINANCIAL INTERESTS HAVE SUPREMACY

CONFIDENCE IN UNITED STATES
Financial interests have supreme confidence in this government's ability to put an instant quietus to the fighting on the island just as soon as an intervention becomes a certainty. Cuban development has gone on at a marvelous pace since the American occupation, under the stimulus of American and English capital. It is estimated that the American capital now in Cuba amounts to $200,000,000, and the sum of the English investments amounts up to about the same total.

BIG LINER STRUCK BY WATER SPOUT

Vessel Damaged and Passengers Panic-stricken
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 24.—By a miracle the Pacific Mail steamer City of Sydney, escaped wreck in a huge waterspout off the Mexican coast near Acapulco last Sunday. As it was the waterspout struck the stern of the ship, wresting away the stanchions and awnings and terrorizing the passengers, who were awakened by the shock of waters. Yesterday the City of Sydney reached port and those on board told of their experience. It was shortly before 4 o'clock in the morning that the waterspout hit the ship. Unnoticed by the lookout because of the darkness, the column of water suddenly loomed up within a few feet of the stern, which was swept with the rapidity of a whirlwind.

He was met at the depot by a large crowd and followed to a reception and banquet. Mr. Bryan is scheduled to speak both at this banquet and later in the afternoon at an open air gathering in the city park.

DEAD AT 108

Aged Negro, Who Saw Stars Fall, Passes Away
TIMPSON, Texas, Sept. 22.—Dan Kimbrough, a negro, who was the oldest man in Shelby county, and reputed to be the first negro to ever cross the Sabine river into the state of Texas, is dead here. In speaking of his age he always said he was a grown man when the stars fell, and he generally believed that he was about 108 years old at the time of his death. He was a pauper, and his neighbors took up a collection to give him decent burial.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Sept. 24.—At a Mexican dance near Elmford last night Iquacio Garcia was killed and Domingo Garcia probably fatally wounded. Jesus Trinidad was arrested, brought here and placed in the county jail. The cause of the shooting is unknown. It is believed to be an old family feud. Everybody was sober at the dance.

FARMER SURRENDERS FOLLOWING MURDER

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The World today prints a statistical story which avers that 4,000 persons have been put to death without warrant of law in the United States in the last twenty-five years. Ninety-five per cent of them, it declares, were negroes. The methods of execution comprised hanging, shooting, flogging and burning at the stake.

KILLED, CUT TO PIECES, BURIED

Parts of Man's Body Found in Deep Hole
POLICE PUZZLED
Sack Only Clue to the Crime.
Head and Thighs of Victim Are Missing

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Up to an early hour today the police had made practically no progress in unraveling the mystery surrounding the finding of portions of the body of a murdered man in a pit at West Thirty-sixth street and Tenth avenue. The ghostly find was made nearly twenty-four hours before. The trunk of the man, mutilated as much as was that of Guldensper, the victim of the notorious murder of nine years ago, the forearms and the lower part of the legs were recovered, but diligent search of the neighborhood failed to reveal the head or the thigh.
Clue Only Sack
The place where portions of the body were found is near the river and the police believe the head was thrown overboard. Men grappled for it without success. The only clue which furnished any results yesterday was the bag of clothing found in the hole. It was the name of "Z. K. Mano." It was found that Mano, who died several weeks ago, had been an importer of suits. He was an Armenian and had his place of business at No. 67 Washington street, in the heart of the Syrian and Armenian colony. He is reported to have been a widower and to have had a son who was his entire stock, preparatory to giving up the business.
The police will make an effort today to find the widow and get a list of her late husband's customers.
Mano's Brother Threatened
It was learned last night that Mano had a brother, Jack, who had had trouble with his Syrian neighbors because of some business deal from the settlement of the estate. It was said that Jack had gone into hiding a few days ago because of threats made against his life. Some of the friends declared that the description of the body at the morgue tallied with that of the missing man.
Was a Foreigner
The dead man was of foreign extraction, either an Italian, an Armenian or a Syrian.
Coroner's Physician Weston, who viewed the body, advanced a theory that impressed the police.
"From the condition of the bundles," he said, "I am sure that the murder was committed after midnight, and I also believe that three men disposed of the remains. One man could not carry the three heavy bundles. Very probably the three each carried a portion and meant to throw them all in the river, which is only a few hundred yards away.
Theory of Crime
"They got frightened, possibly, and one of them chucked the body into this hole. Another ran into the freight yard and opened the car door, and the third man went to the river and hurled the head far out into the water."
"As to the cutting up of the body, I am inclined to think that whoever attended to this part of the crime must have had some knowledge of anatomy. The work is not that of a bungler, who would merely hack the limbs apart. They are neatly and cleanly cut at the joints, being so disarticulated that not a single bone was even scraped by the knife. I do not mean that the murderer was necessarily a surgeon. A butcher might have done the work."

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, paid a flying visit to New York from Washington and returned yesterday, after being conferred with the leadership of the independent labor party. His object in coming here was to map out a plan of campaign against certain congressmen who are said to be working as agents for the opposition to organized labor.

Before he went away Gompers expressed himself as satisfied with the progress made by the independent labor party. According to Gompers, labor will play an important part in the elections all over the country this year.

Scoggins, father-in-law of Lee Randal, and brought him to the county jail. He was in jail to be held for the county attorney. No charge was made against Scoggins in any court. He was simply held in custody. Rowland might grow out of the investigation of the case.

Lee Randal was taken before Justice Charles T. Rowland and arraigned on a charge of murder. He waived an examining trial and his bond was fixed at $10,000, which was given, with R. A. Randal, father of the dead man, Dr. Harvey and J. A. Higgeter as sureties.

TO INCREASE MEAT EXPORT

Associated Cattle Interests to Hold Convention

Efforts to increase exports of meat from the United States with a view to improving conditions of the live stock trade will be discussed at a meeting of associated cattle interests to be held in Kansas City, Oct. 9. A general call for the meeting is being sent out from Denver, Colo., as follows:

"It is of great importance to the live stock industry that more extended foreign markets be secured, in order to dispose of our increasing surplus of meat products and insure good prices for our live stock at home. The United States raises more live stock products than it can consume, and, on the other hand, there is a marked scarcity of meat in many continental countries. We should be able to supply this shortage by our increasing surplus, thus benefiting both ourselves and the European consumers.

"Therefore, for the purpose of formulating definite plans to secure such an extension of our foreign trade in our live stock and its products, a meeting of all interested is hereby called, to be held at the Midland hotel, Kansas City, Oct. 9, 1906, at 10 o'clock a. m. This date is during the week of the Royal Show at Kansas City, and reduced rates have been granted from all points. The attendance of all concerned in this important question is earnestly solicited. Any suggestions from those who are not able to attend the meeting, or to the plans to be adopted, will be very much appreciated.

"American National Live Stock Association, T. W. Tomlinson, Secretary, Denver, Colo.

"Cattle Raisers' Association of Texas, Captain John T. Lytle, Secretary, Fort Worth, Texas.

"Corn Belt Meat Producers' Association, H. C. Wallace, Secretary, Des Moines, Iowa."

Exclusive statements in The Telegram regarding the plans of the Iola Cement Company, since building operations were closed down over two weeks ago, were verified Monday by one of the officials of the company, three of whom are in the city at the Touraine hotel. President S. H. Bassett, J. F. McDonald and M. H. Hammond arrived in Fort Worth Sunday night and will remain a few days.

The company has closed building operations temporarily on its plant southeast of town for private reasons, which I cannot make public at this time," said the official when interviewed by The Telegram reporter Monday morning.

The gentlemen spent several hours Monday forenoon at the site of their plant on the right bank of the Great Northern railroad, and their visit at this time is taken to indicate a speedy settlement of any possible difficulties that may arise in connection with the plant in all probability be resumed in the near future.

MISS KAHLY WED TO SAM GLADNEY

Cupid can play merry pranks with his victims and whenever his darts go astray and bring down the unexpected there is apt to be somewhat of surprise when the full extent of his damage is made known.

Miss Edna Kahly, whose engagement to Mr. E. H. Dehn was recently announced, was married Monday evening to Sam Gladney, one of the Fort Worth beaux whose devotion to her has been pronounced. Mrs. A. S. Goetz, the bride's aunt, and Miss Florence Goetz were summoned and went up to Gainesville for the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Gladney are now in Hot Springs and will return to Fort Worth in two or three weeks.

RATE LAW ANALYZED. The following careful analysis of the new railway rate bill has been published by Bradstreet's, and its high authority renders it especially valuable:

The new rate law approved by the President on June 29 went into effect on August 29, under the joint resolution providing that it should be in force sixty days after its approval. It brings within the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission corporations owning pipe lines, and all forms of transportation of oil or any other commodity, except water and artificial natural gas, as well as sleeping car, express companies and all forms of private cars, terminals, switches and spur tracks. The act renders it unlawful after May 1, 1905, for any railroad company to transport any commodity produced by itself. Provision is made for the compulsory installation upon all pipes of connecting switches, not to be removed or tampered with by any shipper, but with any lateral or branch line of railroad.

Carriers are required to give equally good service and accommodations to the Interstate transportation of passengers. They are also required to print and post in conspicuous places all schedules of rates for the transportation between points on their own lines and the lines of other carriers which have through rates with them. The schedules filed by them must show the charges for special facilities such as icing, storage and terminal and other charges.

Joint rates must be published and posted where they are made up of rail and pipe lines or rail and water lines, and where no through rail and water rate is provided, so much of the rate as is covered by rail is required to be posted. Where a joint rate is provided, the carrier other than the initial carrier is obliged to give the same precedence therein. No carrier is to be allowed to engage in the transportation of other persons or property until the rates, fares and charges required to be filed and published shall have been so filed and published. The solicitation, advertising and other expenses of the carrier are to be paid by the carrier. The President, however, may in time of war call upon any carrier to give preference to the transportation of troops of munitions of war.

Bills of lading are required to be issued by carriers for all shipments accepted and the lawful holder of the original receipt or bill of lading is entitled to recover upon the same as a carrier for any loss sustained on any road carrying the property, while the initial carrier may recover from the carrier on whose lines the loss occurred. It is further provided that the receipt of payment obtained by the original carrier from the shipper, or the judgment obtained by the shipper against the carrier, or a transcript thereof, will be competent evidence in a proceeding to compel the subsequent carrier to refund to the initial carrier for the loss it made good to the shipper.

The issuance of passes for free transportation is prohibited, except as provided in its operation many different classes of persons, including employees, agents, attorneys and physicians employed by the railroad companies, ministers of religion, persons engaged in charitable and eleemosynary work and others who have a special relation to commodities transported as caretakers or otherwise. For violations of the various provisions of the act penalties are provided ranging from $100 to $20,000, imprisonment being in some cases added to the fine. Carriers are required to file with the commission copies of all schedules of rates, charges, contracts and statistics covering their business, and the provisions of such material so filed may be used by the commission in the courts as prima facie evidence of what they purport to be. It is provided that the commission may upon complaint determine and prescribe what will be a just and reasonable rate to be thereafter charged, as a maximum under the circumstances, and what regulation or practice in respect to transportation questions will be just, fair and reasonable. In case of a failure of a carrier to comply with an order of the commission other than the payment of the money, the commission or any person injured thereby may apply to the circuit court for an injunction to restrain the carrier from further disobedience. And from an order granting such an injunction the carrier may appeal to the supreme court of the United States. Suits to enforce, set aside or amend any order of the commission must be brought in the circuit court of the district where the carrier has its principal operating office, but no injunction or decree suspending or restraining the enforcement of any order of the commission shall be granted except on notice to that body. Appeals from interlocutory orders or decrees in such cases lie directly to the supreme court of the United States.

LEGISLATORS ARE SPEAKING OUT. Members-elect of the Texas state legislature are taking cognizance of the growing sentiment in Texas against the re-election of Senator Joseph Weldon Bailey and are asking for an expression from the people they represent as to how they shall vote when the legislative assemblies at Austin next January. Hon. Bonna Ridgway, the next representative from Parker county, publishes the following card in the Weatherford Plain Times:

To the People of Parker County. I am aware of the fact that the people of Parker county have instructed for Joe Bailey for United States senator. If I am successful in the November election and go to the legislature, it will be my greatest regret to stand a vote for him. Since reading H. Clay Pierce's testimony in regard to the Standard Oil Company at St. Louis, I have turned over $13,000,000 in stocks and bonds for Bailey to use at his discretion. If Senator Bailey does not admit that he is acting as attorney for large corporations, if it is a fact that he is receiving large fees from the Standard Oil Company while he is in the legislature, I will change my vote to be done without protest. I would like the correspondents and all our citizenship to discuss this thing through the press. If, since these recent discoveries I could come to the conclusion that the voters of this county would like to change their instructions, one vote would go against Joe Bailey, if I never held another office. Yours faithfully,

BONNA RIDGWAY.

And Representative Ridgway is right in the position he has taken. He knows that Senator Bailey is entrenched behind an apparent indorsement given him in the recent state primaries and is apparently the choice of the people of this state for re-election. But that indorsement was obtained before the facts now at issue had come to light, and the democratic party in this state can easily undo what has been done by calling in the instructions already given the members of the next state legislature. Senator Bailey cannot be re-elected to the position he now occupies without a majority if the present wishes of the people of Texas are respected.

Senator Bailey is a very able and astute politician. The first step he is going to take upon his return to this state is a speech-making tour in which he is going to undertake the usual game of bulldozing and bragado. There will be stage poses and thundering denunciations of all who have dared to criticize his actions, and the cry will be taken up by the Bailey adherents that he has successfully met every charge and refuted every allegation. But this is one time in the career of Senator Bailey when bluster will fall of its usual purpose. There is a well defined and growing sentiment in this state to the effect that he cannot serve two masters, and if he persists in the determination to use his senatorial office to the end of promoting his corporation practice, then the people are going to call upon him to surrender the position they feel he is now abusing.

Every member of the state legislature should proceed to follow the example of the Parker county representative and obtain new instructions from their constituents. Such a proceeding is fair for both Senator Bailey and the people of Texas.

Dallas is making extensive preparation for the fair soon to be opened and promises a much better exhibition and entertainment than ever before. And the people of Texas should give this great enterprise the proper recognition again this year. If the fair is to be made permanent it must continue prosperous.

Colonel Tom Campbell is depriving the faithful of many opportunities to inquire concerning the state of his health and the prospect for official appointment by his temporary sojourn in the state of Texas. He is soliciting in the state over the prodigal's return.

The Fort Worth cotton market is now in full bloom, and the farmers in Fort Worth trade territory will find here for their product, while the supplies they need can be purchased here at closer figures than elsewhere. Bring your cotton to Fort Worth.

The farmers who are complaining of the depredations of the boll worms and boll weevils in their cotton crops should look out these pests as natural allies in the fight they are making for 11-cent cotton. They are only engaged in an effort to reduce the surplus.

Among the Exchanges

The call of the west is being heard by a great many people. Many from the sections are being called on the back and enriched in reward for his legal attainments. Not so—it is Sen. Bailey who has been so distinguished. Large as his name may be, had he not been a senator he would not have been a chosen vassal of Standard Oil.—Clarksville Times.

Retire to Private Life. The testimony of H. Clay Pierce, who was on the stand in the Waters-Pierce oil suit at St. Louis last week, was like unto the bursting of a bomb in camp. A sensation reaching from Maine to the uttermost parts of Texas was the result. He told things on our own Senator Bailey that did not look good in print and if true should be a disgrace to the Texas legislature.

Governor Lanham is at work on his last message to the Texas legislature. We would feel like excusing him were he to roast those who hooded him down in the democratic state convention.—Texasian Courier.

The Times-Herald regrets very much the presence of a large number of the town. The Times-Herald accedes to the border demand for a ranger force, but it is aggrieved when the governor employs that force to displace the peace officers to maintain the peace. The next legislature should put a stop to this sort of thing, the peace is dangerous.—Waco Times-Herald.

It is such proceedings that build up a strong sentiment against the state rangers. Public opinion in Texas is that rangers are all right in their place, but they should have no place where regularly constituted peace officers are able to cope with the situation.

A Shermanite who is possessed with an inquiring turn of mind bought a can of tomatoes a week or two ago from a local merchant. He paid 25 cents for the can of tomatoes, and not long after they were canned in a New York town, where his acquaintance, he wrote to them and asked where they got their tomatoes. The reply came and stated that this was the way which he says. "I bought tomatoes altogether, as they were the best grown. Wonder why East Texas people don't eat these tomatoes?"—Sherman Register.

A fine object lesson, truly. And it is the same way all over Texas with many of the articles we use in every-day life. We send the raw material to eastern manufacturers and import the finished product that we could just as well produce at home, saving freight and affording remunerative employment to home people.

And let Mr. Bailey not press to his soul the flattering unctious that it is Joe Bailey who has been paid on the back and enriched in reward for his legal attainments. Not so—it is Sen. Retire to Private Life. The testimony of H. Clay Pierce, who was on the stand in the Waters-Pierce oil suit at St. Louis last week, was like unto the bursting of a bomb in camp. A sensation reaching from Maine to the uttermost parts of Texas was the result. Governor Lanham is at work on his last message to the Texas legislature. We would feel like excusing him were he to roast those who hooded him down in the democratic state convention.—Texasian Courier.

The Times-Herald regrets very much the presence of a large number of the town. The Times-Herald accedes to the border demand for a ranger force, but it is aggrieved when the governor employs that force to displace the peace officers to maintain the peace. The next legislature should put a stop to this sort of thing, the peace is dangerous.—Waco Times-Herald.

The Cleanest Chew Made! Schnapps If you could see how SCHNAPPS is made and sniff the delightfully appetizing aroma of the thoroughly cured, well-matured tobacco of SCHNAPPS, you would discover the big difference between SCHNAPPS and its imitators. SCHNAPPS is clean! The Reynolds factories are as clean as the cleanest kitchen—the tobacco in manufacture is scarcely touched by human hands—with special machinery to cleanse the leaf and produce clean chewing tobacco. When such scrupulous care is taken with the choicest selections of tobacco from America's finest chewing tobacco districts, can you wonder that SCHNAPPS is so satisfying, so pure, so appetizing and wholesome—so different from chews that pretend to be good? Expert tests prove that this superior tobacco requires and takes a smaller amount of sweetening than any other kind—and has a wholesome, stimulating and satisfying effect on chewers. Be sure the letters on the tag and under the tag spell S-c-h-n-a-p-p-s. The Reynolds Company is under the direction of the same men who have managed it since 1875, and who have made the chewing tobacco business a life-study. There are plenty of plugs that look like Schnapps, with-out the same satisfying chewing qualities. R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY Winston-Salem, N. C.

FIT, FINISH and FABRIC. Three features of tailoring which we watch and properly care for. If one's wrong the rest don't count. We make 'em all right by combining careful hand work with good head work. Our tailoring mirrors the Fashions from the hour they are created. Fall assortment acts like a magnet on discriminating dressers. Something good for every good taste.

Short Talks on Tailoring

Front puckered? The cutting has nothing to do with this. Puckering of the edge of coat may be caused by the tailor drawing the edge too straight. Or failure of the tailor to properly shrink the canvas. Sometimes it is too much "mercerized," but not often. Puckering at the seams is caused by improper handling by the tailor and is excusable.

Puckering of the fibers is due to uneven shrinking of the material by the tailor or simply "bum goods." Our garments don't pucker anywhere.

ORIENT BUILT TO THE BRAZOS Stilwell Line Now Preparing to Bridge River Judge Hord, the general attorney of the Orient, returning from Austin, where he registered nearly a million dollars worth of bonds of that line, the first issue by the company on the seventy-eight miles from Sweetwater north to Knox City, has this to say about conditions as they exist on the line of the Orient. "Steel is laid from Sweetwater to Knox City, the latter point being on the south bank of Brazos river in Knox county. The company is now preparing to bridge the Brazos and extend the line to Benjamin, the county seat of Knox county, which was the first established town north of Sweetwater touched by the Orient. In the meantime the Orient proposition has developed a number of important towns built since Jan. 1, among these being Macaulay, Hamlin, Rule, Rochester, Carney and Knox City. "At Hamlin the extension of the Texas Central west crosses, as also does the project of the Missouri Pacific. "The grade from Sweetwater to Red river and from Sweetwater to San Angelo has been completed and is receiving the finishing touches.
