Fund Drive Blasts Off To Good Start

A BILL IS being presented to the state legislature which would declare certain motor vehicle operators "habitual offenders," and would call for the revocation of their driver's license, and stiff penalties if they were caught driving.

The Texas Association of Insurance Agents says that according to the Texas Department of Public Safety, there are about 10,000 drivers loose on our state highways who, because of their driving records, should not be permitted to drive.

The Insurance Assn. says that 15 states already have an Habitual Offender law, and at least 20 others are considering one.

A PERSON would become an habitual traffic offender for the purposes of the Act, if he is convicted within a five-year period of four offenses within one or more of the following categories—

(1) Negligent homicide from the operation of a motor vehicle; (2) driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of drugs or alcohol; (3) reckless driving; (4) driving without a license or while his license is suspended.

(5) Failure to stop, render aid and disclose his identity at the scene of an accident in which he is involved; (6) perjury committed in a prosecution for a violation of a motor vehicle law; and (7) a felony involving use of a motor vehicle.

A person also could be classified as an habitual offender if he is convicted of 12 moving traffic violations required to be reported to the Department of Public Safety.

Penalties for the habitual offender would include fines of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than one year, or both.

Also, the offender's driver's license shall be revoked, and except as provided by another section in the bill, he may never be issued a driver's license or any type in the state.

After the expiration of five years, the convicted habitual traffic offender may petition the court in which he was convicted, for the restoration of his right to apply for a driver's license. The court will have to decide if the applicant has been rehabilitated, and whether or not he may apply for a new license.

PERSONALLY, WE believe the bill would be a good one. If anything, the lawmakers are being lenient in giving the offenders only five years in which to be convicted. Ten years wouldn't be too much for those types of offenses to accumulate.

If you favor such a bill, you might write to Senator Max Sherman or Representative Bill Clayton, and refer to Senate Bill 176.

THE COMMUNITY CENTER-Showbarn fund drive is off to a good start, but in order for the goal to be reached, everyone must do their part, from a contributing standpoint.

The committee has said that they will not begin construction until all of the $75,000 is raised, so if you have not contributed as yet, please do so.

The community center should be a great addition to our area, and will assure an adequate, weather-proof facility for any number of activities.

PORTER ROBERTS always has a story to tell, but this week it was a true one. Seems Porter was on his way back home from Chelsea, Okla., where he had picked up his mother, when they stopped off Interstate 40 for lunch.

"I saw this guy approach the hat rack, pick up a hat or two, and finally settled on mine. He looked inside the hat, then put it on. I had about decided I was going to have to get up and go retrieve my hat," Roberts recalls.

However, the stranger soon replaced the hat, and came on in the restaurant. Seeing that Roberts was eyeing him, he asked if the hat were his, and explained it thusly—

The fund drive for the Community Center-Showbarn got off to a rousing start, according to officials of the drive.

Almost $20,000 was raised on Friday, the kickoff day of the drive, and at the close of banking hours on Tuesday, there was a total of $34,673 on deposit in the fund at Friona State Bank.

At the beginning of the concentrated drive last Friday, the fund had $12,482.15 on deposit. Thus, a total of $22,190.85 had been raised since Friday's kickoff.

"Several businesses and individuals have been very generous, but we need several more to be likewise," stated Carrol Gatlin, co-chairman of the fund drive.

With the goal established at $75,000, the drive is just less than halfway to its goal, but the drive officials are optimistic.

ABLE TO BUILD

"We can safely say at this point that we'll be able to build the building—it will just be a matter of getting enough to do the job right—the way we want to do it," another fund drive worker said.

Jerry Hinkle, who has been coordinating the collection of funds at Friona State Bank, said Tuesday that he could add up about another $8,000 that he was "fairly sure" the fund would get.

"However, the money already on deposit, and that projected represents the 'easiest' part of the drive. Getting the rest may be harder," Hinkle said.

Officials indicated that they should soon be ready to get a final drawing made of the facility, and advertise for bids from the contractors.

Many clubs, organizations and groups have expressed their desire to help with the fund drive, and some have pledged nice gifts to the drive. One such is the Friona Young Homemakers. Others are in the planning stage.

The Friona Jaycees, meanwhile, have not only pledged a gift of $1,000 to the fund, but have volunteered to meet with all of the other service clubs in Friona, in an effort to enlist their support.

WEATHER VARIES

Area Gets Great Rain, Then Wind

Weather has been much in the news and conversation of area residents during the past week.

Everything from snow and sleet, to hail, gentle rains and windstorm has visited the locale, with conditions varying from ideal springlike weather on Sunday, to Tuesday's gale-like winds which made outdoor activity virtually impossible.

Friona residents were treated to a late-season snow, mixed with a "mountain shower" type of rain on Saturday. At about mid-morning on Saturday, the gentle showers changed to large swirling snowflakes, most of which melted as they fell.

In the afternoon, the flakes turned back to raindrops. The official government gauge in Friona measured 1.6 inches for the two-day period Friday and Saturday.

Farmers indicate that their land is about the wettest it has been at this stage of the winter season in many years. The moisture has been a big boon to the wheat crop, and many have indicated that farmland is wet enough that it most likely will not require an irrigation prior to planting.

OLD GLORY WAVED....It was a day that flags got a workout, and so did a lot of other things on Tuesday when winds blew above 50 miles per hour for most of the day, with gusts up to 65 miles per hour.

Some farmers indicated they received up to two inches of moisture for the weekend, with at least an inch and a half registered, this coming from the Rhea Community. The recent showers were apparently received throughout the area.

Sunday was as nice a spring day as you'll find anywhere.

and residents busied themselves working in their yards, washing cars and what-have-you.

However, Tuesday reminded folks of how the spring and pre-spring season got its bad reputation hereabouts, with a gale-force wind that lasted all day long and into the night. Some wind damage was noted in the local area due to the strong gusts.

For those who are counting, last Saturday's snowfall was the 24th of the season. We may make it to 31 yet.

City Council Race Draws Five Names

The city council race drew five contestants by the deadline for filing, it was revealed this week, although the school board race drew only three contestants for the three positions expiring.

Filing for spots on the Friona City Council were Dr. Robert Alexander and Troy Young, two incumbents; Glenn E. Reeve, Sr., Kenneth Williams and Martha E. Bates. Both Reeve and Williams have served on the city council in the past.

Holdover members of the city council include aldermen Gary Brown and Bill Ellis, as well as Mayor R.L. Fleming.

Date Set For Cancer Drive

Friona's 1973 annual drive on behalf of the American Cancer Society will be held from Monday, March 19 through Friday, March 23, according to an announcement by Mrs. Dale Smith, chairman, early this week.

A meeting for organization of the local drive will be held Thursday evening in Friona State Bank Community Room. Starting time of the meeting will be 7:30 p.m. Bill McDavitt, district executive director for the ACS, will be present and will show a film.

Mrs. Smith invites everyone in the area who is interested to attend.

Accident Victim Is Improved

Melvin Hassenpflug, 905 West Fifth, has been dismissed from an Amarillo hospital, where he underwent surgery for amputation of part of his left arm.

Hassenpflug, who is a custom combine operator, was injured in a combine accident several weeks ago.

He is at home and is reported to be making satisfactory progress.

PRESENTS CHECK....Mrs. Danny Black, representing the Friona Young Homemakers, presents a check to the Community Center-Showbarn fund to Albert Cupell, president of the Jaycees. The Jaycees are contacting each service organization on behalf of the drive. The Young Homemakers were the first to respond with a check.

The Whites Break Even

When patients were counted at Parmer County Community Hospital late Wednesday, patients named White outnumbered all others four to one.

In fact the Whites made up one half the total patient roster, which numbered eight.

Then, to further complicate matters, there were two patients named Elaine White. One was an adult and the other was the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted White.

Fred White, a long time Friona citizen completed the list of Whites.

AT BOARD MEETING

Chamber Sets Dates For '73 Maize Days

The date for Friona's Maize Days celebration for 1973 was scheduled for the week of September 4-8 by the Friona Chamber of Commerce board of directors at their monthly meeting Tuesday morning at Earl's Parmer House Restaurant.

The chamber had preferred the second week in September, but the first week was the best that the carnival operator, Lionel Strate, could offer. Monday, September 3 is Labor Day—but the Strate shows don't ordinarily open on Monday anyway, using that day for travel and setting up.

Floyd Reeve, who has been appointed General Chairman of Maize Days, discussed various aspects of the celebration, particularly the Queen's Contest.

Directors voted to give the Queen's Contest a $750.00 budget for the 1973 production. Girls in the Friona area who will be juniors or seniors in 1973-74 will be eligible to enter the contest.

The board favored leaving the parade and barbecue on Saturday, as was done last year for the first time, but suggested that if an air show were held, that it be held on Sunday, so as to keep from over-crowding the schedule for one day.

Directors recommended that the various feed yards be contacted for possible advertisements to defray the cost of producing the book of brands for Parmer County, which the chamber plans to produce.

The chamber agreed to provide folders for use by the new Welcome Wagon program which is to be started in Friona in the near future.

The chamber passed a resolution commending director Carrol Gatlin for his work on the showbarn-Community Center.

Firemen Have Two Calls In Three Days

Friona Volunteer Fire Department answered two calls the first part of the week.

On Sunday evening, the Firemen were called to the E-Z Way Laundry, where a fire in the laundry's storeroom posed a threat to the building.

According to Edward White, manager & co-owner, the main loss was to some supplies, and a shelf which flames consumed. The building did sustain much smoke damage, however.

Then on Tuesday afternoon, during the height of the gale-force winds, the Firemen were called to PACO Feed Yard south of Hub, to extinguish a small fire involving burs stored inside one of the company's buildings.

"It was just a small fire, but we were afraid it might get worse," said Bill Teel, feed yard manager. "The firemen had the fire out in about two minutes," he continued.

The fire had started among some burs that the company keeps inside a storage barn next to its mill, in order to keep them dry in wet weather.

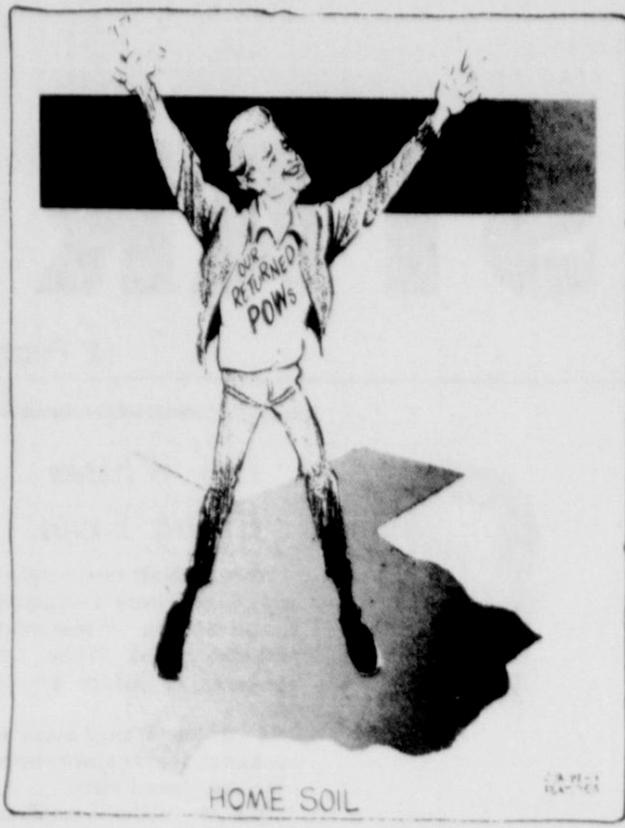

AT KICKOFF...The Friona Community Center-Showbarn fund drive was kicked off last Friday following a breakfast at Earl's Parmer House Restaurant. Seated, left to right, are some of the Honchos in charge of the drive—Carrol Gatlin, Redge Priest and Dwan Meneff.

HONORED....Mrs. Percy Parsons, who recently moved to Friona from Olton where the Parsons family lived for several years, was honored as "Woman of the Year" by the Olton Chamber of Commerce at its recent banquet. Parsons is a partner in Parsons-Ellis Funeral Home.

TOP FARMER...Jim Roy Daniel, a farmer in the Lazbuddie Community, was chosen "Outstanding Farmer" for his community and honored by the Earth Chamber of Commerce at its banquet last week. Daniel's mother, Mrs. Roy Daniel, lives in Friona.

TRAVELING AROUND sure does broaden one's intellect and my recent trip provided just such an experience.

I heard this one—it wasn't my personal "happening." (Notice how everybody is having "happenings" today.)

Well, on with my new found knowledge.

This is entitled—"The maddest man in the world." One lovely day a gentleman boarded the train at Texarkana (Remember when they had passenger trains?) for a very important trip to Dallas.

He told the conductor that he was a hard sleeper (I have some of those right here in my pews) and that he might even argue but under no circumstances was the conductor to fail to make sure he got off at Dallas.

You probably remember this part. When he awakened he looked out the pullman window and sure enough—Ft. Worth. His actions and words directed at the conductor was not the Sunday School variety and as he left a friend of the conductor (who by this time felt he hadn't any) said, "I believe that's the maddest man I ever saw."

"Nope," replied the conductor, "that's the second maddest." "The maddest man I ever saw was the one I put off in Dallas."

Well now, that just might be one of the reasons our passenger train service isn't what it used to be...reason?

I just can't help but marvel at the generosity of God's good grace that he directs at us.

Seems to me that if ever there was a reason to be upset, we mortals would give him the most perfect excuse....but not so. He just keeps piling on the grace (where have I heard that?) and we keep drawing on the resources.

Isn't it great to just even be able to exist? I do hope you are going further with your purpose than that, however.

Well, sobeit. We still haven't lost out.

Dear Mr. Ellis,

We would like to take a moment of your time to express our thanks to you for your efforts to give Synanon's story publicity and coverage. Because of the interest and support of folks like yourself our tour through Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico was a real success.

We were overwhelmed by the generosity of the cattle feeders, and as a result of their enthusiasm for Synanon and our work, we received nearly 200 head of beef from the tri-state area. Also, we were able to absorb some troubled youngsters into Synanon who will now have the opportunity to turn their unhappy lives into ones of health and productivity.

Perhaps of most interest to us were the talks we gave at high schools and junior high schools throughout the area. We found the kids eager for information and interested in curbing drug abuse in their towns. We are grateful for the opportunity to tell our stories, and to help some young people to make a decision against

QUESTION: Bill is a traveling salesman. On a recent sales trip he decided to take his wife along. She spent her days sight-seeing, but in the evenings she acted as a hostess and helped her husband entertain prospective clients. Can Bill deduct her expenses?

ANSWER: Probably not! The Tax Court has held that for a wife's expenses to be deductible, a valid business reason for her presence must be shown. Simply taking notes or helping to entertain clients probably was not a sufficient business reason.

NOTHING'S ECSTATIC ABOUT STATIC

You can hear it. You can surely feel it. You cannot taste or smell it, but you often see its effect. This is static electricity, and it causes clothing to cling and snap. It's with us all year long but is especially noticeable in dry climates and in cold weather.

Although static electricity can be in all clothing, it's usually a problem only with synthetics because there is no moisture on which the charge can travel. Static electricity builds up in the form of shock, a snapping noise and an uncomfortable cling. This is especially true of synthetics and permanent press dried at a high temperature.

The only good thing you can say about static is that it can be easily eliminated—right in the washing machine. Just add one to two capfuls of NuSoft fabric softener to the final rinse, and you'll be ecstatic about the results.

This fabric softener also helps keep permanent press garments truly wrinkle-free and eases the ironing of all fabrics; keeps corduroy garments soft, smooth, wrinkle-free, and puts an end to stiff blue jeans and scratchy towels, making them more comfortable to wear and use.

And a fabric softener is something you don't mind getting in your hair—if you're wearing a synthetic hairpiece because it eliminates static electricity from that, too!

New Constitution Asked By Clayton Resolution

The first completely revised and redrafted new State Constitution was offered to the House last week in a resolution introduced by Rep. Bill Clayton.

Clayton said it was a short and simple document containing the basic Bill of Rights and other articles relating to the executive, legislative and judicial branches of government. Two important sections to the Bill of Rights were added. One would provide Texas with a permanent right to work law, and the second would require the State to remain on a pay-as-you-go basis.

Clayton said the main reason he introduced a resolution calling for a new constitution at this time was to start legislators thinking about ideas they might want to consider at the constitutional revision session next year.

A feature he considers unique in his bill would allow for a smooth transition from the old to the new constitution by providing that the new constitution shall prevail and conflicting sections of the old would be repealed; however, the old constitution would remain in effect as statutory law until amended or repealed by a two-thirds vote of both houses. The resolution is H.J.R. 49.

Actual drafting of the resolution has been completed in the last few days, Clayton said, but added that he had been working on it for over a year.

The resolution was introduced on Friday, the last day in which bills could be introduced into the House. But legislators were faced with the consideration of a total of 1,398 bills, and were working 18-hour days, five days a week, in many cases. The controversial ethics bill took up two days of debating, with sessions going on into the night. Committees were sandwiching in their meetings with sessions scheduled at 7:30 a.m. and 10:30 p.m., and sometimes during meal breaks.

Students May Now Collect More Money

Students who get monthly social security payments may now get checks for a short time after their 22nd birthday, according to Carl H. Thompson, manager of the Clovis Social Security office.

Under a change in the law, an undergraduate student can continue to get social security payments through the end of the semester or quarter in which he reaches age 22.

If the student's school does not use the semester or quarter system, payments can continue until he completes the course he's taking or 2 months after he reaches 22, whichever comes first.

"The change means that students will no longer face the problem of having their benefits stop in the middle of a semester."

Over 4,000 students in New Mexico are now getting monthly checks because a parent insured under social security retired, became disabled, or died. Checks for dependent children normally stop at age 18, but payments continue as explained above for young people who are in school full time and remain unmarried," Thompson concluded.

Personality Quiz!

HOW THOUGHTFUL ARE YOU?

Do you consider yourself unselfish, understanding and kind? If so, take the following test and find out how thoughtful you really are.

1. When you and your wife go to a party, do you (A) stay with her all evening, (B) see that she is occupied with others if you are talking with someone else, (C) leave her by herself all evening?

2. If you are a weekend guest, do you (A) insist on helping your host or hostess with the chores, (B) ask your hostess if you may be of assistance if it appears she could use help, (C) volunteer to do nothing unless asked?

3. If the parent of a close friend dies, but you did not know the parent, do you (A) send flowers to the funeral, or home of the friend, (B) send condolences to the friend via a card or phone call, (C) make a point of attending the funeral?

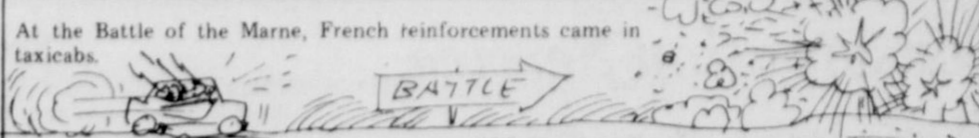

4. If you are invited to a home for dinner, do you (A) send your hostess a thank-you note the next day, (B) phone her the next day and thank her for an enjoyable evening, (C) thank your hostess at the end of the evening and let it go at that?

5. If you first meet a couple, whom you wish to see again, at the house of a friend, do you (A) invite the friend and the new couple to your home, (B) invite only the new couple?

For correct answers, turn the page. If you score four or more answers correctly, consider yourself a thoughtful person.

ANSWERS: 1. (B) Always see that your wife has an opportunity for pleasant company. Your attention to her reflects on your good manners with others. 2. (B) If you were not so readily helpful, the friend might be disappointed when it is apparent that you can assist, but ask first if you can assist. 3. (A) If you were not acquainted with the deceased parent, sending flowers or a card is the most acceptable way of expressing your thanks, and you would best reflect your courtesy and sympathy toward the bereaved. 4. (A) or (B) Either a note or phone call to a bereaved friend. 5. (A) or (B) If you first meet a couple, invite them to your home, or, in their own home, if the hostess entertains a friend first meet at her home. Always invite one's host and hostess the first time one entertains a friend.

FOOT NOTES

The Fungus Among Us

A fungus is a colorless plant that has neither leaves nor flowers. When it attacks clothes, it's called mildew. When it attacks toes, it's called athlete's foot.

Like the common cold, athlete's foot afflicts most of us at one time or other. But, unlike the common cold, it can be treated and defeated with relative simplicity.

For the immediate topical treatment of this fungus disease, many doctors recommend an effective killer of most fungus like Tinactin cream. And because athlete's foot thrives on damp, softened skin, the use of Tinactin medicated powder is urged to keep your feet dry to help prevent reinfection. At one time, these two antifungals accounted for 90 per cent of the prescription market, but they are now available over-the-counter at drug stores everywhere.

Which is a good thing, because at least 16 million of us will experience the between-the-toes cracking, peeling or itching of athlete's foot sometime this year.

Conservation Service Activities Are Given

[Editor's note: Following is the second of a two-part article on the work of the local Soil & Water Conservation District during 1972].

Dues were paid to the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission, the local Council of Government, and the Regional, State and National Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts.

Although the district did not participate in the 1971 Goodyear Program, the Board of Directors was wholeheartedly behind participation in the 1972 program.

Soil Stewardship was promoted in the district in a number of ways. Publicity was obtained through the newspapers and radio.

The district ministers were informed about Soil Stewardship and encouraged to use district provided information through a luncheon program at Bovina. Attractive bulletin blanks, bulletin inserts, posters and booklets were distributed to all churches in the district.

ASSISTS SCHOOLS

In the spring the board laid the ground work for starting an outdoor classroom. Along this same line the board sponsored a scholarship to district teachers for the West Texas State University Summer Conservation Workshop. This course was accredited for graduate work.

The booming cattle feeding industry in the county was assisted by furnishing inventory and evaluation information to three feed lots of over 30,000 head capacity each. Missouri Beef Packers' Friona plant and Santa Fe Railroad were two more concerned land users who requested and received inventory and evaluation information.

The Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District is active in the watershed program. As one of the sponsoring local organizations it assisted in clearing all of the easements in the Running Water Draw Watershed. The Board of Directors also signed as one of the sponsors of the Tierra Blanca Creek Watershed application.

The District Board of Directors attended and participated in the Regional and State meetings of the Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts.

Farm Safety Week was promoted in 1972 by the Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District. The week was emphasized through radio and newspaper publicity.

The city of Friona has been informed by the State that the city dump has to be closed. The City Council requested assistance in determining the best location for a sanitary landfill. In response, a color coded resource map was presented to the city showing desirable and undesirable locations within a five mile radius of Friona.

This well rounded and varied conservation program was made possible by a concerned board actively seeking out and assisting all land users in the district. The annual plan developed by the Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District was of vital assistance in achieving these goals.

Spruce Up For Spring

Does your linen closet usually look like a cyclone just hit? If it does, maybe it's time to get a head start on spring with a spruce up.

To help you get started, here are some handy tips from the organization specialists at Rubbermaid:

- First, take everything out of the linen closet. Check the items as you do. If there are worn or frayed towels, washcloths or sheets you're no longer using, relegate them to the rag bag. Or will them to the handyman around the house.

- Clean the closet walls and shelves. Lay down fresh new shelf liner while you're at it. And keep out those pesky moths with a good mothproof before you put the linens back.

- Next decide where it's most sensible to store things. This may require some reorganizing.

For instance, are the extra blankets and bed pillows stacked on the top shelf? If not, then put them up there where they're out of the way.

Are sheets, which are changed regularly, where they can easily be reached? The same goes for towels and washcloths. Especially if there are young children in the family, you'll want to keep towels accessible on a lower shelf.

Separate the stacks of sheets for convenience. Put the single bed sheets together. Then pile the doubles together if you have room, divide fitted and flat sheets, too.

And it's practical to rotate the linens. When they're washed and folded, stack them under the linens already in the closet. Then they'll all get equal wear.

- Use all available space.

Try some of the new stacking devices and organizers. For instance, install double-tiered slide-out drawers. They're available in several widths to fit most closets and they slide out easily so you can reach those hard-to-get-at spaces.

Pile one drawer with pillowcases. Fill another with hand towels and washcloths. You'll double the available space and be able to put your finger on just what you want instantly.

Make a home "drugstore." Use a large revolving turntable for those items you're always running out of, like deodorant, hair spray, aspirin, toothpaste and toilet tissue.

You'll save money by being able to buy paper products and other toiletries in large quantities when they're on special.

The linen closet is a good place to keep supplies for quick sewing and mending jobs, too. Use a portable sewing susan for the needles and thread, scissors and pins.

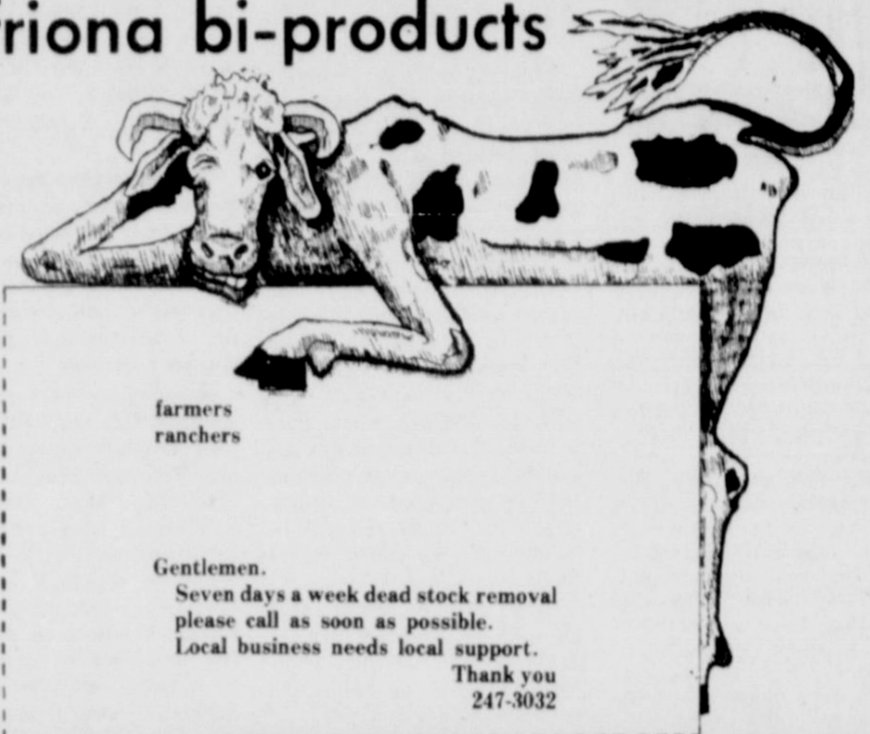

The bottom of the closet? It's a handy place to store bathroom cleaning utensils, soaps, cleaners and polishes — near the bathroom when you need them.

Now stand back and admire your handiwork. Wasn't it easy?

POSTAGE STAMPS WERE INTRODUCED IN THE U.S. IN 1847 — BUT CHARGES WERE USUALLY PAID AT THE RECEIVING END!

Heavy pictures and mirrors are best supported by nails driven through the plaster wallboard into the wooden framework behind the wallboard. To find a framework stud, tap lightly with a small hammer. A solid "thunk" will be heard over the studs, a hollow sound in between.

Explorers Win Contest Medals

Three members of the Friona Explorer troop won awards in contests last Saturday at the West Texas State University Activity Center.

Winning a silver medal in the "general knowledge" division was Beverly Bailey. Terry Thompson won a silver medal in weight lifting, and Bobby Lewellen won a bronze in marksmanship.

The Explorers were chartered in December of 1972, for high school age boys and girls.

Greg Collier is president of the group; Kyle Shelton is vice president; Beverly Bailey is second vice president; Carolyn Gore is secretary and Kay Cochran is treasurer.

Darrell Simpson acts as the group's advisor. The club is sponsored by the Friona Noon Lions. It currently has approximately 28 members.

Meetings are held on alternate Thursdays at the Friona State Bank Community Room.

MEDAL WINNERS...Three Friona High School students won medals in the Explorer Olympics last Saturday at Canyon. Terry Thompson points to Bobby Lewellen's medal. Beverly Bailey is the other award-winner. (See story).

"DRIBBLERS"

Hawks Miss Chance To Go Into First Place

The Hawks missed a chance to take over first place in Friona's Little Dribblers, major division, when they dropped a 26-25 game to the Suns on Thursday of last week.

The Bucks, who had won their first four games, lost two games during the week, 31-28 to the Lakers, and 25-22 to the Knicks.

The Hawks, with only one loss going into Thursday's game with the Suns, had a five-point lead after three quarters, but fell by one point, 26-25, and had to settle for second place.

Earlier in the week, the Hawks had toppled the Knicks, 30-18, as Kevin Kothmann canned 20 points for the winners. Kothmann scored 17 points in the loss to the Suns.

The Bullets, meanwhile, were winning two games during the week, to take over third place with a 4-3 record.

In the Minors, it's a real dogfight, with two teams, the Nets and Pacers, tied with 3-2 records, and two more, the Rockets and Stars, tied at 2-3.

In a game we reported last week, the report should have listed Jeff Peak of the Lakers with all 31 of his team's points in their 31-26 win over the Knicks. That is also the highest score by an individual so far this season.

TOURNEY ACTION...Volleyball has been going from early till late at the Friona High School gym this week, in the annual tournament. This shot was taken during the Kiwanis vs Dezy Gang match Monday, won by the Kiwanis. Play continues in the tournament through Saturday night, when champions will be named.

Track Teams Entered In Farwell Event

Both the Friona Chieftain and Squaws track teams, who were "weathered-out" of any action last weekend, are entered in the Texico-Farwell Relays Saturday at Farwell.

The meet will be the second competition for the Chiefs, who were runnersup in the Littlefield meet. However, it will be the first competition for the Squaws, who were scheduled to run at Springlake last Saturday for their opener.

Coach F.G. Crofford said there were some 20 girls out for track this year, and he was still in the process of finding the "best girls for each event."

The Squaws have other meets scheduled for March 24 at Panhandle, and March 31 at Olton. The District girls meet will be April 11 at Olton.

The Lutherans

'A Gospel-Centered Church'

Rev. Duane Kirchner

"THE FELLOWSHIP OF BELIEVERS" Lutherans believe that when a person accepts God's gift of forgiveness and peace he is a Christian. The word Christian was "Christ" in it and so a Christian is one of Christ's people. We also believe that a Christian is a member of Christ's Body, the Church. These two facts are inseparable.

THE CHURCH. All people who are Christians belong to Christ's Church. His Church consists of all who believe in Jesus as their savior from sin and Master of their lives. See Ephesians 4. That's why we often speak of the fellowship or community of believers. Individual churches offer you a setting in which to unite with other Christians.

ITS PURPOSE. The primary purpose of the Church is to bring Christians together to hear and speak God's Word about Jesus as it is given us in the Bible and to offer God's gift of Holy Baptism and the Lord's Supper. In such a way people are reminded of their need of help because of sin, they are offered God's forgiveness of sins, they are shown God's promise of life with God forever, they are offered God's strength to live from day to day, and it is in the Church that the Holy Spirit does His work to cause people to accept all these free gifts. As a result people grow closer to Christ, are matured by Christ, and share Jesus with others.

A MISCONCEPTION. The Church's purpose is not to teach morals. If I preach morals for the sake of morals then I am saying "be good for God" rather than telling you how God makes you holy. However, a Christian will respond to God and live a life of good works in service to God. So with Paul in I Corinthians 2:2 I'll say, "For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and Him crucified."

Faith Helps To Lighten Life's Burdens

Read II Timothy 1:1-7

I am reminded of your sincere faith. (II Timothy 1:5, RSV)

She had undergone many months of intense suffering, and life for her on this earth was drawing to a close. Yet she was alert and concerned for the welfare of her family and friends. Somehow she had received a report of a difficult problem I was facing and mentioned it. I passed it off as lightly as possible.

Then, with great physical exertion due to her weakened condition, she extended her hand to mine and said, "My dear friend, keep the faith." A few hours later she was gone.

The days pass one by one and the problems still remain. When I am vexed or impatient, I remember that weakened voice and think to myself that if she could make that great effort to give encouragement, I must keep the faith. It reminds me of Paul's speaking to Timothy, calling to mind Timothy's sincere faith. Because of such trust, I try a bit harder. I am aware that my faith has come to me from other persons and I must persevere it for others to come.

PRAYER--Father, keep us aware of Thy presence in the midst of life and death and in all the experiences in between. For the sake of Christ, our Redeemer, who taught us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven....Amen."

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY--Don't keep the faith--share it.

--Richard L. James, Miami, Florida

Rodeo Club Organized For High School Kids

A high school rodeo club was organized the past week at Friona High School—believed to be the first time for such an organization at FHS.

The FFA instructors, Benny Pryor and Levon Harman, are acting as advisors for the new club.

"The purpose of the club is to allow youngsters to compete in rodeos in a team basis. Interscholastic League rules will apply in all phases, which includes academic requirements," stated Benny Pryor.

The club will stress high ideals, moral character and sportsmanship.

Friona's club will be affiliated with the Tri-State Rodeo Association, which has about 790 members.

Elected as charter officers of the new club were Garvin Thorn, president; Rickey London, vice president; Krystal Agee, secretary, and David Blackburn, treasurer.

The high school students plan to assist the Friona Riding Club with their upcoming rodeo, including work toward improving the arena.

Members plan to enter several rodeos this spring around the area. Club members are required to sign an application form, and their parents also must sign, with the signatures to be notarized.

The organization has a dues structure of $7.00 per year, with $2.00 going to the Tri-State Rodeo Assn., and $5.00 staying in the local club's treasury.

Bill Keaton of Amarillo, the executive secretary of Tri-State Rodeo Assn., met with the local group last Thursday and helped them organize the club at FHS.

The club is in the process of signing up members.

NEW CLUB OFFICERS....A high school rodeo club was organized at FHS the past week, and its officers are shown above. Standing are Rickey London, vice president and Garvin Thorn, president. Seated are Krystal Agee, secretary, and David Blackburn, treasurer.

Birds Need Cover Area

It is getting close to nesting time for pheasants according to Jack Patterson of the Parmer County Game Management Association. Also it is land preparation time.

"It would be good if a few rows of sorghum or corn stubble could be left at the side of fields," Jack said. "This would give a good pheasant nesting area."

It is common knowledge that turn rows or fence lines are not the best places to leave undisturbed for pheasant nesting. If you have watched varmints, especially skunks, trawl down a fence row "a digger and a snoopin" for any kind of eggs, you know this would be a dangerous nesting area.

Pheasants naturally want to get out in the fields. If an area in a field is left undisturbed it would be a "natural" for pheasant nesting.

At Home In Parmer County

Jana Pronger

WITH THE WEATHER we had last week, I thought you might like the following information on this year's rain wear—Most adults don't like dull, drab rainwear and children like it less. This spring, cheerful, sporty styles will be seen on children of all ages. Nylon, vinyl, cotton poplin, patent leather and polyester are all part of the rain/all-weather cover-up scene. Short jackets and above-the-knee-length coats are very popular as well as the longer midi coat, since all of these go well with skirts or pants.

Parents are dressing children in clothes that look smart and wash easily. Most rain-wear, even some vinyls, can be washed and dried automatically but check care labels before buying. Plastics that cannot be machine-washed can be wiped off with a damp soapy sponge. Mud puddles are lots more fun if mothers don't worry about dirt either.

AND WITH SPRING AND SUMMER just around the corner I thought this information might be interesting—There is a lot of life-and backyard fun-left in old, thread bare tires. Instead of scrapping, recycle them with a thorough scrubbing of detergent suds applied with a heavy-duty brush. Hose rinse and let dry completely.

For young children, they can be used educationally. Arrange tires in a pattern close together and let children learn muscle control and balance by walking the edges, stepping from one tire to another, jumping from the rim into the center hole—all kinds of games.

Try making a small incline with a sturdy board leading to a solid platform. Stack two or three tires at the edge of the platform and see the fun as children "walk the plank" and jump into the center of the tires. Because the tires are not hard and have no sharp edges, slips while learning won't be serious. Clean tires can even be used in a family room for rainy-day fun.

But children aren't the only beneficiaries of these castoffs. Gardeners can use old tires to create interesting oases of flowers or tiers of strawberry plants. After scrubbing, apply a coat of exterior enamel paint to the tires and add a design if you wish, either free hand or with stencils. When the paint is thoroughly dry, fill tires with soil and plants.

If you cannot use the tires yourself, wash them anyway, says The Soap and Detergent Association, and consider donating them to an interested local nursery school or kindergarten.

The Truth Will Make You Free
Terry Brown, Minister
Sixth Street Church of Christ

Jesus' church in the New Testament consisted of autonomous congregation. What does autonomous mean? Autonomy means having the right or power of self-government. In other words, the first congregations of Jesus' church were capable of existing independently, without outside control.

The church is subject to Jesus. "He is the head of the body, the church." Colossians 1:18 The ultimate authority for all the congregations of Jesus' church is Jesus himself. The church is made up of many members. "For in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ." Galatians 3:26-27 Thus, baptized believers make up the body of Christ. His church.

When Paul went on his missionary trips in Acts 13-21, he established congregations in various cities (like Thessalonica, Athens, and Corinth). These congregations in different cities were all a part of Jesus' church. These congregations were independent of one another, being ruled by their own local leaders. These leaders were called elders or bishops by Paul (Acts 11:30; 14:23).

Today, Jesus' church should still be self-governed, as was the first century church. Each congregation should be subject only to Jesus and its local elders. No state, national, or international board is authorized by the Bible to direct the affairs of a local congregation.

Next week, other characteristics of Jesus' church will be examined.

We're proud our seeds have earned the trust of farmers like these...

Royce Gene Welch recorded a yield of 221 bu. with Pioneer brand 3306 corn. "It stands well and grows and threshes well, too," according to Royce Gene Welch, Rt. 3, Friona, Texas.

Marston G. Mars recorded a yield of 192 bu. per acre with Pioneer brand 3369A and 3306. The standability of both varieties is "desirable" according to Marston G. Mars, Rt. 3, Friona, Texas.

Because we were the first company to commercially produce hybrid corn and with 17 years of work on sorghum, we know a lot more about hybrids and how to make crosses that really yield. We've had longer to test and re-test our varieties. We've stuck with some of our early crosses, and we keep developing new ones to fit every growing condition imaginable.

- Pioneer brand 8417—new yellow endosperm sorghum—champion yielder in medium maturity class—large open heads—does well on all types of land.
- Pioneer brand 820—good yielder under stress—outstanding with plenty of water and fertility—MDM resistant—full season.
- Pioneer brand 846—excellent drought resistance—MDM resistant—medium maturity—our most popular sorghum variety.
- Pioneer brand 3369A—champion-class corn favorite—tolerant to northern and southern blight—good ear retention—heavy grain yielder.
- Pioneer brand 3306—most popular corn hybrid on the High Plains—tall with outstanding stalks and ear retention—good yielder on dry or wet land.
- Pioneer brand 988—sorghum sudangrass hybrid for pasture, greenchop, hay or hayslage—ready to cut or graze in a little more than a month—regrows again and again all summer with adequate moisture and fertilizer.

When you choose a hybrid for your land, choose one from the company that started it all...

THE BEGINNING of Spring is officially a few weeks away yet, but the past few days of warm sunny days have fooled some of our trees into believing that it is time to "put out."

Color in the large weeping willow tree in the Hoyt Smith backyard can be seen from several blocks away. The bright green of tulips can be seen in many flower beds and grass in some protected areas is beginning to turn green.

A few sprigs of lettuce and mustard are showing up in our garden spot, so it must be time to start planting early vegetables.

Bullish on central air conditioning? Consider investing just a little more in a long-term, blue chip Gas air conditioning system.

Only a Gas air conditioning system pays you regular dividends for many happy years. That's because the heart of a Gas cooling system is a simple gas burner, rather than an electric, mechanical compressor. A clean-burning gas flame doesn't wear out — so there's less to go wrong, fewer maintenance calls, a longer life with no loss of original cooling capacity. And because natural gas is the prime energy source, you'll also save money on operating cost.
