Baptist Slate Summer Revival For Next Week

First Baptist Church of Cross Plains will begin a seven-day revival meeting Monday, Aug. 9. It will continue through Sunday, Aug. 15.

The Rev. Roger Butler, pastor, extended an invitation to members of all other faiths and those of no church affiliation to attend any or all of the services next week.

Preaching will be done by evangelist Charles Massegee of Fort Worth and formerly of Ranger, and song services will be directed by Jimmy Snellen of Dallas.

The pastor said that services would be held twice daily. Evening worship will begin at 7:30 and morning services are slated for 10 o'clock.

The Rev. Massegee is a former All-State football player, and led Ranger High School to the Class A State title and he was selected as All-Conference while being the leading pass receiver and ball carrier for Hardin-Simmons University during his college career.

According to the Rev. Butler, "Massegee does not limit himself to one style of preaching; he has the unique ability to present great spiritual truths in such a manner to captivate both the old and young."

Jimmie Snellen of Dallas will be music director during the revival. He plays the piano, organ and trumpet as well as sings. Snellen, too, attended Hardin Simmons in Abilene.

The Massegee-Snellen evangelistic team has conducted over 400 revival campaigns in the past 12 years.

Local Schools May Get $26,280 From President's War On Poverty Program

Cross Plains schools stand to gain more than any other in Callahan County from President Lyndon Johnson's anti-poverty program.

It has been estimated by state education officials that benefits could be as much as $180 per year for each student from families with less than $2,000 yearly income within a school district. Paul L. Whitton, local school superintendent, stressed, "This is only an estimated figure. It was, however, quoted to me by a state official in Austin."

$26,280 Possible
Cross Plains Independent School District could, at the rate suggested, receive $26,280 in federal anti-poverty funds. Both Whitton and County School Superintendent L. C. Cash of Baird explained that the money must be spent on something not now being provided if the funds are allocated. Cash said yesterday that certain restrictions are placed on the distribution and spending of the federal money. Whitton added that he was not sure that Cross Plains could qualify under the anti-poverty regulations. He said, "Should the money be forthcoming, we would have to initiate some new projects."

Lead County Scholastics
A meeting was recently held in Baird concerning the anti-poverty eligibility of Callahan County and number of students in each school district which would qualify for the aid.

Six superintendents of the eight school districts in this county and Cash met with a representative of the Texas Education Agency. According to figures from the 1960 census, last official government tally, Callahan County had 228 scholastics from families with less than $2,000 income per year.

Cross Plains led in the final tabulation with 104, almost half of the county's aggregate. Others were listed as follows: Clyde 62, Baird 36, Eula 14, Putnam 10, and Moran and Hamby one each. Cash reported that Putnam and Cisco balanced their holdings in Eastland and Callahan Counties respectively.

146 Total
Cross Plains' total eligible scholastics including parts of the district in three adjoining counties totaled 146, according to Whitton. He listed the anti-poverty eligibilities as Callahan 104, Eastland 21, Brown 17 and Coleman 4. Again Whitton pointed out that qualification had not been clearly defined at the Baird meeting, and restrictions and requirements were still in doubt by school officials in this county. School head here also explained that Congress had not yet appropriated the money.

Heads To Meeting
At least three superintendents in this county and the county superintendent were to have attended a conference in Mineral Wells Wednesday concerning bills affecting school aid. According to Cash a clarification on federal aid as affecting public schools was to have been included on the all-day program.

Those known to have been planning to attend the session were Cash and Superintendent L. V. Howard of Baird, Superintendent Ferrell Newton of Clyde and Whitton of Cross Plains.

Heat-Shy Copperhead Snakes Die In Gasoline-Inflamed Den

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Ringhoffer had noticed a sudden increase in Copperheads around their place the past week. They had killed six of the poisonous reptiles in just over a week.

Saturday afternoon Mr. Ringhoffer and a 12-year-old grandson, Robert Lee Ringhoffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Ringhoffer, Jr., of Baird, were cutting weeds near their home about three miles south of Cross Plains when they noticed several snake sheds. Upon investigation Mr. Ringhoffer discovered a hole under a lilac bush approximately 12 feet from the house. They poured gasoline into the former home of an armadillo and a mass of snakes began to emerge. The gasoline was quickly set ablaze.

After the fire burned out, digging produced the remains of 14 charred Copperheads.

Mrs. Ringhoffer opined that the reptiles had denned up in the cool sand to escape the sun's heat.

Council Re-Hires Heard Marshal By 3-2 Count

Cross Plains City Council reinstated Edgar Heard as City Marshal here Tuesday night after hot debate. The vote was three for and two against.

Heard has held the post, formerly entitled Chief of Police, here for the past year. He, however, notified aldermen and the mayor of his intention to resign the position first of last week.

The situation was considered in a called meeting of the council Tuesday night of last week, $350 monthly.

but no action was taken because one alderman was unable to attend. No formal resignation was accepted at either of the sessions. He was, however, again sworn into office last Tuesday night. He was to have resumed duties Wednesday.

Cecil Smoot, regular alternate, filled the position during absence of a permanent city officer.

Local City Marshal's job pays $350 monthly.

Pioneer Expecting 200 Exes At Annual Reunion

An estimated 200 ex-students and teachers are expected to gather at the tabernacle in Pioneer Thursday, Aug. 12, for the annual Pioneer and Liberty School Reunion.

Mrs. Kate Watson, secretary of the organization, reported yesterday that interest in the yearly event was high, and everything pointed to the best attended gathering in recent times.

Program calls for a business meeting in the morning to clear the afternoon for visiting and entertainment. Hiram Foster of Blanket, president of the organization, will preside during the business session. At noon a catered lunch will be served, but Mrs. Watson cautions that a tray should be brought on which to place the lunch.

Divisions of the afternoon are slated to include extemporaneous and arranged music, singing and, according to the secretary, "any other kind of entertainment available." She stated, "The Curry trio and others have been greatly appreciated at other reunions, and it is expected that they will return along with others."

School Improvement Ending; On Schedule

School Improvement projects at Cross Plains school buildings are reported progressing nicely, according to Paul L. Whitton, superintendent.

"Painting of interior walls of both the high school and elementary buildings will be completed in the high school building, and workmen are scheduled to finish the grade school this week. Pine frost, a light green, has been applied.

Bowden Lumber Company, contract winner for installing of about 100 double-window units, has begun installation of the new aluminum frame windows in the elementary building. Whitton said, "This work will probably be finished before school starts Aug. 30." He continued that short supply of the double-window units is slowing completion of the job.

First 11 Of 27 Constitutional Changes Explained Briefly

Cross Plains and Callahan County voters will soon go to the polls in the first of three statewide elections to consider 27 constitutional amendments asked by the state legislature.

First of the trio is set for Sept. 7. It is a proposal to increase the size of the state senate from 31 to 39 members. That proposition was published in the Review from June 10 through July 1.

Texans will again make the decision on another 10 amendments Nov. 2. Four of these proposed changes to the Texas Constitution are currently being published in columns of this newspaper. The other six are divided between the newspapers in Baird and Clyde. It is a requirement of Texas law that proposed amendments must be printed in their entirety in a newspaper in each of the counties of the state, and in counties where there are more than one newspaper, they are usually divided among them.

Amendments to be considered this year are as follow:

A proposal to provide a four-year term for the governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, comptroller of public accounts, treasurer, commissioner of the general land office and certain other statutory state officers.

A proposal to create the Texas Opportunity Plan Fund from which loans to students at institutions of higher learning may be made.

One which would increase the amount of bonds that may be issued by the Veterans' Land Board to $400 million.

A proposal to expand state welfare medical care programs in order to qualify for federal aid for medical care for indigent, aged, blind, dependent children and disabled persons.

A proposal to raise the amount of ad valorem taxes allocated for higher education.

A proposal to broaden the field in which the school teacher retirement fund may be invested.

A proposal to increase the terms of House of Representative members from two to four years, starting in 1967.

A proposal to allow establishment of mandatory retirement of judges at the age of 75, with the authorization that the legislature could set the age at 70 if it wished. This proposal also would provide for the removal of judges when they are unable to carry out the duties of their office.

And, finally, a proposal to allow certain hospitals to be exempt from ad valorem taxes in Houston. This amendment applies only to Houston.

On Nov. 8, 1966, 16 more amendments will be voted on

There Can Be No Rest For The Wicked, But The Devil Takes Care of His Own

Sunday noon, I ate a big lunch and went to my pipe yard and turned on the fan and went to bed for a much needed rest and sleep. At 2 p.m. two ladies came and woke me up and wanted me to open my store and let them in. I came to the store half awake and let them in, but all they seemed to want was a bed pan with pink flowers painted on it to match some of their furniture or other accessories.

I had only white ones priced at 50c each. Result, price too high, no pink flowers, no sale, no rest and no sleep.

Hereafter in a case like this I will not get up out of bed on Sunday evenings unless there is a dire necessity for the merchandise wanted. But in that case I will be glad to open my store at any time.

No one has offered me a used coffin nor has any overstuffed woman asked for a demonstration on my slenderizer. In case one wants a demonstration, it will be given by an unqualified and inexperienced operator at the customer's own risk.

I have for sale one air conditioner, frigid air type, also numerous fans of different sizes and types. I have spittoons which are rather small in size and it will take an accomplished spitter to hit one of them at a distance of 10 feet. I have electric ice boxes and deep freeze units, ice skates and roller skates, rat traps and bedroom suites, dinnett suites and living room furniture, blind bridles for a mule and lots of items for mule-headed men and hard-headed women. I have electric washing machines and dryers, electric cookers, radios and television sets, combination record players and radios, sewing machines, new Westinghouse metal kitchen cabinets.

I need to buy some used corsets and girdles extra large size. These gals in the peanut country really have a spread. I can furnish you with anything from tack hammers to tin snips and from golf caddies to bathonettes, rugs to towels and still have a lot of pillows and extra heavy duty innerspring mattresses and framed springs that will take a lot of rough use. beds of all kinds and other articles too numerous to mention.

IF I AIN'T GOT IT YOU DON'T NEED IT.

Trash, trinkets and treasures, but nothing in the store but bargains. If you don't want to buy something, don't make me an offer.

Next week I will begin taking up 64,000 feet of 2-inch and 4-inch linepipe, also removed 5 1/2-inch, 17-pound and 7-inch, 20-pound and 8 1/2-inch, 28-pound casing from two 2,800-foot wells. I now have 8,400 feet of 1 1/4-inch upset tubing for sale.

PUBLIC NOTICE Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER EIGHT ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 2, 1965.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 57 proposing an Amendment to Section 1-a of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding to said Section as presently written, the following provisions: requiring automatic retirement of certain District and Appellate Judges at age seventy-five (75) or such earlier age, not under seventy (70), as may be provided by law; creating a State Judicial Qualifications Commission and providing for its composition and the qualifications, methods of selection and terms of office of its members; defining the functions and procedures of said Commission, including the duty to investigate, and hold hearings in respect of, disability and misconduct of District and Appellate Judges and to make recommendations to the Supreme Court of Texas for involuntary retirement or removal of such Judges; empowering the Supreme Court of Texas, in its discretion, to retire such Judges for disability and to remove them for misconduct, upon recommendation of the aforesaid Commission and consideration of the record made before it; defining misconduct for which said Judges may be so removed; providing that the proceedings of said Commission shall be confidential until filed in the Supreme Court with recommendation for retirement or removal; and providing that the removal provisions hereby established shall be alternative to and cumulative of those provided elsewhere in the Constitution.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 1-a of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so that said Section shall hereafter read as follows:

"Section 1-a. (1) Subject to the further provisions of this Section, the Legislature shall provide for the retirement and compensation of Justices and Judges of the Appellate Courts and District and Criminal District Courts on account of length of service, age and disability, and for their reassignment to active duty where and when needed. The office of every such Justice and Judge shall become vacant when the incumbent reaches the age of seventy-five (75) years or such earlier age, not less than seventy (70) years, as the Legislature may prescribe; but, in the case of an incumbent whose term of office includes the effective date of this Amendment, this provision shall not prevent him from serving the remainder of said term nor be applicable to him before his period or periods of judicial service shall have reached a total of ten (10) years.

"(2) There is hereby created the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, to consist of nine (9) members, to wit: (i) two (2) Justices of Courts of Civil Appeals; (ii) two (2) District Judges; (iii) two (2) members of the State Bar, who have respectively practiced as such for over ten (10) consecutive years next preceding their selection; (iii) three (3) citizens, at least thirty (30) years of age, not licensed to practice law nor holding any salaried public office or employment; provided that no person shall be or remain a member of the Commission, who does not maintain physical residence within this State, or who resides in, or holds a judgeship within or for, the same Supreme Judicial District as another member of the Commission, or who shall have ceased to retain the qualifications above specified for his respective class of membership. Commissioners of classes (i) and (ii) above shall be chosen by the Supreme Court with advice and consent of the Senate, those of class (iii) by the Board of Directors of the State Bar under regulations to be prescribed by the Supreme Court with advice and consent of the Senate, and those of class (iii) by appointment of the Governor with advice and consent of the Senate.

"(3) The regular term of office of Commissioners shall be six (6) years; but the initial members of each of classes (i), (ii) and (iii) shall respectively be chosen for terms of four (4) and six (6) years, and the initial members of class (iii) for respective terms of two (2), four (4) and six (6) years. Interim vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as vacancies due to expiration of a full term, but only for the unexpired portion of the term in question. Commissioners may succeed themselves in office only if having served less than three (3) consecutive years.

"(4) Commissioners shall receive no compensation for their services as such. The Legislature shall provide for the payment of the necessary expense for the operation of the Commission.

"(5) The Commission may hold its meetings, hearings and other proceedings at such times and places as it shall determine but shall meet at Austin at least once each year. It shall annually select one of its members as Chairman. A quorum shall consist of five (5) members. Proceedings shall be by majority vote of those present, except that recommendations for retirement or removal of Justices or Judges shall be by affirmative vote of at least five (5) members.

"(6) Any Justice or Judge within the scope of this Section is a may, subject to the other provisions hereof, be removed from office for willful or persistent conduct, which is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his said duties or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of Justice; or any such Justice or Judge may be involuntarily retired for disability seriously interfering with the performance of his duties, which is, or is likely to become, permanent in nature.

"(7) The Commission shall keep itself informed as fully as may be of circumstances relating to misconduct or disability of particular Justices or Judges, receive complaints or reports, formal or informal, from any source in this behalf and make such preliminary investigations as it may determine. Its orders for the attendance or testimony of witnesses or for the production of documents at any hearing or investigation shall be enforceable by contempt proceedings in the District Court.

"(8) The Commission may, after such investigation as it deems necessary, order a hearing to be held before it concerning the removal or retirement of a Justice or Judge, or it may in its discretion request the Supreme Court to appoint an active or retired District Judge or Justice of a Court of Civil Appeals as a Master to hear and take evidence in any such matter, and to report thereon to the Commission. If, after hearing, or after considering the record and report of a Master, the Commission finds good cause therefore, it shall recommend to the Supreme Court the removal or retirement, as the case may be, of the Justice or Judge in question and shall thereupon file with the Clerk of the Supreme Court the entire record before the Commission.

"(9) The Supreme Court shall review the record of the proceedings on the law and facts and in its discretion may, for good cause shown, permit the introduction of additional evidence and shall order removal or retirement, as it finds just and proper, or wholly reject the recommendation. Upon an order for involuntary retirement for disability or an order for removal, the office in question shall become vacant. The rights of an incumbent so retired to retirement benefits shall be the same as if his retirement had been voluntary.

"(10) All papers filed with and proceedings before the Commission or a Master shall be confidential, and the filing of papers with, and the giving of testimony before, the Commission, Master or the Supreme Court shall be privileged; provided that upon being filed in the Supreme Court the record loses its confidential character.

"(11) The Supreme Court shall by rule provide for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court. Such rule shall afford to any judge against whom a proceeding is instituted to cause his retirement due process of law for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court in the same manner that any person whose property rights are in jeopardy in an adjudicatory proceeding is entitled to due process of law, regardless of whether or not the interest of the judge in remaining in active status is considered to be a right or a privilege. Due process shall include the right to notice, counsel, hearing, confrontation of his accusers, and all such other incidents of due process as are ordinarily available in proceedings whether or not misfeasance is charged, upon proof of which a penalty may be imposed.

"(12) No Justice or Judge shall sit as a member of the Commission or Supreme Court in any proceeding involving his own retirement or removal.

"(13) This Section 1-a is alternative to, and cumulative of, the methods of removal of Justices and Judges provided elsewhere in this Constitution."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State at an election to be held on the first Monday in November, 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment providing for the automatic retirement of District and Appellate Judges for old age, creating the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, defining its functions; and empowering the Supreme Court, upon recommendation of said Commission, to remove District and Appellate Judges for misconduct and to retire such judges in cases of disability."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment providing for the automatic retirement of District and Appellate Judges for old age, creating the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, defining its functions; and empowering the Supreme Court, upon recommendation of said Commission, to remove District and Appellate Judges for misconduct and to retire such judges in cases of disability."

News Of Former Residents

As regularly as the calendar turns C. R. (Raymond) Steele of Coleman drops into the Review office the first week in August to renew a subscription to the home town newspaper for his son, Weldon Steele, Lubbock realtor. It's always a birthday remembrance. The elder Mr. Steele, who taught school at Dressy for many years and enjoys a wide circle of friends in this area, is now recovering after suffering a slight stroke, while mowing the lawn at his home on a hot day.

Noel Black writes from Clyde as follows:

"I remember well when Pat Neff came to the Cross Plains Picnic. After several mudslinging speeches by local candidates, the ex-governor made a patriotic talk and ended by saying he was like a young fellow who had just kissed his girl for the first time and looking up at the stars said, 'I feel so good and don't have anything against anybody anywhere.'"

At that time Pat was a candidate for Railroad Commissioner. I saw him meet and claim kinship with a Mr. Neff of Burkett.

Early day physicians whom I remember at Cottonwood include Broadnox, Griffin, Haley, Robertson, Sublett, Rust and Payne. Two boy babies born in the Atwell community were named for Dr. E. Mansfield Rust. They are O. Mansfield Gage of Cisco and Rust Hutchins.

The Atwell area had four resident doctors: Hemstead, Griffin, Johnson and Leach. Hemstead was a dentist.

Sabanno had several doctors, namely Sparks, Parks, Leach, namely Sparks, Parks, Leach, Pillans and Payne.

A transposed paragraph in last week's issue of the Review caused the following items to read incorrectly. They are, therefore, republished.

Mrs. Mildred Watson Harlow, who formerly attended high school in Cross Plains, now resides at 9710 Carolwood in San Antonio. She teaches school and her husband, Rodney Harlow, is in the wholesale fruit and vegetable business.

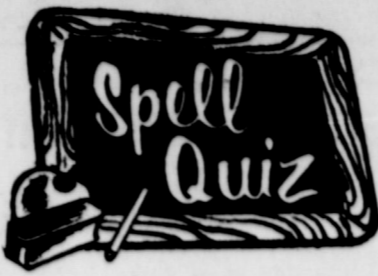

Phelix Watson, Mrs. Harlow's brother, now lives at 1933 Ivanhoe in Abilene. He will be remembered as an outstanding lineman on early day Cross Plains football teams. He is in the wholesale meat business and is married to the former Sylvia Smith of Burkett.

Both the above, as well as Roger Watson who ranches near Cross Plains, are children of Mrs. E. P. Watson of Brownwood.

Old Buildings at Fort Richardson by E. M. Schiweitz

... a long time between paydays!

Across the western face of Texas, the brooding ruins of forts . . . here and there a restored barracks or hospital bring back a bloody page in history. A history that tells of marauding redskins thundering southward from Indian Territory, killing in their wake, pushing on to the Mexican border. A history that tells too of the hard and lonely life of the U.S. Army troopers who manned these strategic forts.

Fort Richardson, near Jacksboro, was one of the more important of these outposts. Here Kiowa Chieftains Satanta and Big Tree were incarcerated before their trial for a bloody massacre. But life in all frontier posts was much the same . . . best expressed by the soldiers themselves, "a long time between paydays."

BUT IT ISN'T SO FAR BETWEEN PAYDAYS NOW . . . with U. S. Savings Bonds!

Today, there can also be a long time between paydays for those who have not established the thrift habit. But through the U.S. Savings Bonds program you can take care of this situation quickly and effectively.

For example, with as little as 63¢ a day you can buy an $18.75 Savings Bond every month. Keep this up for 40 months and you'll own a stack of Bonds worth $1,000, at maturity, which cost you only $750 in easy installments.

Buy U.S. Savings Bonds every payday automatically through the payroll savings plan.
