So many in this area have been ill that the names of all are not known, however, several have been hospitalized. Mrs. Emma Golson entered Overall-Morris Memorial Hospital in Coleman the latter part of last week and is still undergoing treatment there. Carl Burns and Merrel Burkett were dismissed a week ago after being hospitalized there more than a week. Mrs. Dora Roberts has been in the hospital at Coleman several weeks, and her condition is critical. L. D. Herring and his wife's mother, Mrs. I. V. Everett, spent about two weeks in Santa Anna Hospital. He has been dismissed, but she still remains there. The Burkett Water Supply Corp. held its annual membership meeting Monday night. A financial statement for the past year was given by Chairman Gilder Adams. Among the business items taken care of was election of officers. W. V.

Rowden's Current Need Is Good General Rains

By Mrs. N. V. Gibbs

If the old saving that the first 12 days of the year determines the weather for the ensuing year, we are sure in for a dry year. We certainly hope this is not true. December of 1968 was dry. A good general rain is needed now instead of dry, cold northers and Eve party in the home of Nansandstorms.

Brown Team Widens Lead In Bowling Club

Lou Brown's bowling team gained ground on the pack in Cross Plains Bowling Club competition Saturday. The leaders opened a four and one-half game gap over second place Cliff Gilmore's squad.

Brown's crew defeated Benny Glover's quintet three and onehalf games to one-half game, and Ted Souder's unit blanked Gilmore's team 4-0.

Mrs. Brown had the high series of 499 pins, and grabbed the top two games with 180 and 176. Her teammate Betty Lewis was third with a 175 effort. Robert Lewis, Glover bowler, notched second best series with a 443, and Glover was third with a 437.

Teamwise Brown's aggregation had top series of 2.834 and best single game of 1,001.

Action this week pits Gilmore's against Brown's and Souder's against Glover's
