Cemetery Here Receives $196.83 During October

Ten gifts, totaling $196.83, were received by Cross Plains Cemetery Association for maintenance of the local burial grounds during October, according to a report from Mrs. Paul McCowen, secretary-treasurer of the organization.

It was also reported that two gifts, amounting to $100, has recently been received for the endowment fund for the cemetery.

Mrs. McCowen listed the following donors and respective amounts to the regular maintenance fund for October: Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Lee $25, W. B. McDowell $10, F. V. Tunnell Estate $25, Mrs. Maudie Longbotham $40, E. C. Neeb Estate $40, Alma Illingworth $5, W. T. Pones $5, Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn J. Scheldorf $10, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Freeman $10, and S. O. Montgomery Estate $21.21.

Recent donations to the endowment fund being solicited to eventually provide permanent care for the cemetery came from Kate Womack $25 and Clay and Mollie Cade Estate $75.

Mrs. McCowen reported that the total of the endowment fund now stands at $1,086.87.

Donations to either the regular maintenance or endowment funds may be made by depositing gifts at the Citizens State Bank in Cross Plains or by mailing contributions to Mrs. McCowen in care of the bank. It was pointed out that gifts should be clearly marked to indicate which fund the donation is intended.

Acknowledgements of all gifts to the two funds will be made through columns of the Review on a monthly basis.

Gifts To Cemetery At Pioneer Lag

Donations to Pioneer Cemetery are lagging.

Mrs. Ethel Brown, secretary-treasurer for the cemetery association at Pioneer, announced this week that only $12.82 was received during the month of October. All of that was for the endowment fund which will in the future provide permanent care for the burial ground.

Only three gifts were received for the care fund. They totaled $55. The other funds, $66.82, came from interest on deposits.

Latest donors and respective amounts to the endowment fund were reported as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baum Pate $25, Mrs. Nora Phillips $20 and Mrs. Minnie Phillips Roberts $10.

There were no donations to the regular maintenance fund for the second consecutive month. This fund is to provide money for maintaining the burial plot until the $10,000 goal of the endowment fund is reached. Only slightly over half of the endowment fund quota has been raised. The secretary asks that any person wishing to help with the upkeep of the Pioneer Cemetery to please get donations in at earliest convenience.

All gifts to either fund, should be sent to Mrs. Brown at Route 1, Box 157, Rising Star, Texas 76471 or to the Citizens State Bank in Cross Plains. Donors should clearly mark to which fund each gift is to be deposited.

Changes In Peanut Program Said Bad

Recently announced changes in the 1974 peanut program are causing Cross Plains and persons in other parts of the nation anxious moments in the future of the peanut industry.

The changes were announced by U. S. Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz at a recent press conference in Washington, D.C. Reportedly the changes were made to reduce rising costs of the program.

They follow, as revealed by the Callahan County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office at Baird.

(1) There will be no price support for peanuts found to contain aflatoxin (mold). (2) Transfers of peanuts by sale, lease or by owner has been eliminated. Long term leases previously approved will be honored for the duration of agreement. (3) The storage, handling and inspection has been increased by two dollars per ton. (4) Elimination of tolerance relating to measured acreages. This makes it more important to plant within the farm allotment. (5) Minimum resale level of 115 per cent of loan rate and not on a bid basis as in the past. (6) Price support functions will be transferred from grower associations to state and county ASCS Offices.

It is thought by many growers, handlers and administrative personnel in the peanut industry, that the announced changes will take much of the narrowing profit from peanut production at all phases of the industry, thereby having an adverse effect on economy of areas which lean heavily on the product for a cash crop.

Following is a release prepared by Ross Wilson, manager of the Southwestern Peanut Growers' Association at Gorman, explaining the injurious effect seen by his organization on the program changes.

"Agriculture Secretary Butz dealt peanut growers a series of severe blows in his decision to make 6 administrative changes in the 1974 peanut program. These changes involve administration of the peanut price support program and involved no action on the part of the Congress. In an apparent effort to wreck the peanut program Butz's program adjustments are expected to increase program costs substantially in spite of the fact that the Secretary stated in his October 24 Washington press conference that he estimated program costs to be reduced to $6.6 million as a result of the changes.

"Butz's plan to shift the field and supervisory functions from the 3 area growers associations to state and county ASCS offices is expected to result in substantial cost increases as well as removing the degree of independence that peanut growers enjoy presently through the associations. The associations (Southwestern Peanut Growers Association for the southwest) also serve the growers effectively as a bargaining tool for growers with buyers and other trade agencies. Our southwestern association also is the organization that serves growers through legislative, research, education and marketing activities.

"The proposal of USDA to revise the CCC sales policy for its peanut stocks to provide a minimum resale level of 115 per cent of the loan rate on both domestic and diversion sales will in all likelihood result in exorbitant costs to CCC. Presently CCC stocks are moving into the export market and domestic oil market at prices somewhat below the domestic edible price level. Export and oil markets have traditionally been at levels less than the domestic edible market price which is based on the CCC loan rate. To arbitrarily place a minimum of 115 percent of the CCC loan rate on stocks will in effect lock those stocks in warehouses at CCC expense. After a period of months these peanuts deteriorate in quality and become subject to rancidity, attacks by insects, rodents and loss of value for both food and crushing usage. This change appears to be a lawful effort to totally wreck the present program by a planned escalation of program costs. Additionally, this policy is directly opposite to the direction of increased exportation of peanuts that industry has been encouraged by USDA to pursue.

"The decision to eliminate transfers by lease and sale of acreage allotments will work severe hardships on elderly land owners, widows and others who had made plans to lease their allotments. It will result in reduced income to persons who through prior action of Congress planned to lease their allotments. The elimination of all tolerance in plantings of farm allotments may result in heavy marketing quota penalties against many farmers who made slight, insignificant and honest errors in calculating planted acreage. This change removes all reason and logic in traditional methods of determining farmers compliance with marketing quota regulations.

"The increase to $17.00 per ton in storage, handling and inspection charges will result in a reduction in sales value of about $30 million dollars to the nation's farmers while saving CCC an estimated 8.5 million dollars on peanuts to be placed in loan. This is true because the CCC loan rate, which will be 17 dollars less than support in 1974, will also establish the price paid by shellers on commercial purchases. This charge to growers causes the price paid them under the CCC price support program to go under the 75 per cent of parity and then provides for a $17 per ton handling charge to growers.

"These changes were announced by the Secretary with

Bisons Host Ranger In Last Home Game

Cross Plains Buffaloes will be seeking a second consecutive District 10-A football game Friday at 7:30 p.m. in Buffalo Stadium. It is the last game for the 1973 Herd.

At stake in the tilt will be at least a share of third place. The two squads now hold third place with Santa Anna, all with 1-2 league marks. The winner in Friday's contest could emerge as sole possessor of third place. Santa Anna goes against Bangs, undefeated in league action.

The visiting Bulldogs have only one victory this season, that was an upset win over Santa Anna in the conference opener. Since then Ranger has been tumbled by the league's co-leaders, De Leon 50-0 and Bangs 20-0. Comparison scores has the Buffaloes with a slight edge. Although losing to De Leon and Bangs, the Herd has been dropped by smaller scores, bowing to De Leon and Bangs by identical 16-0 verdicts. In non-conference battles both lost to Cisco by similar scores.

Buffaloes own a 3-5 season mark, and statistically hold a slight edge. On the season Cross Plains has tallied 134 points, an average of just under 17 points per game while Ranger has scored only 46, just less than a touchdown per outing. Defensively the Herd also has an advantage having yielded 110 points in eight games, an average of just under 14 points, while the Bulldogs have allowed 218 points, a norm of just over 27 points per outing. In three district games Cross Plains has tallied just 21 points and allowed 38. In a like number of contests Ranger has put 27 points on the scoreboard and allowed 84.

Pre-season polls rated Friday's visitors as the number two unit in District 10-A. The Bulldogs have at least 10 returning lettermen back for its 4-6 team of 1972, the unit that defeated the Buffaloes 7-6 on a late touchdown last year. The Bulldogs have average to good size and possess the speed for break-away threat. The unit is, however, a relatively young group. Some of the top Bulldogs expected to face the Herd Friday are End Martin Gohlke, 230-pounder, Clyde Grimes, 195-pound tackle, Quinn Robinson, 190-pound tackle, Jack Pearson, 190-pound guard, Mark Locky, 150-pound back and back David Graham and Sam Snead, both 150-pound backs.

Rev. Helm said that any person who would like to donate items to the auction may bring them to the basement of the church. "They will be appreciated," the pastor said.

Buffaloes Tame Early 21-6 For First District 10-A Win

Cross Plains Buffaloes broke a four-game losing skid and won their first District 10-A contest last Friday in decisioning host Early Longhorns 21-6.

The win boosted the Herd's season record to 3-5 and to 1-2 in league action.

Although the action was not sluggish, the first quarter and first 10 minutes of the second period, the two teams played on an even basis. In the contest Buffs held a 13 to 5 first down edge and 140 yards rushing for Buffs to 61 for the Longhorns. Both units had several turnovers.

Early failed to capitalize on a break early in the game. Early took the opening kick and had to punt. The ball hit a Bison and a Longhorn recovered at the Cross Plains 35. Bisons held, and that was followed by ineffectual thrusts and punts by both teams.

Early in the second period Cross Plains had a touchdown nullified by a holding penalty. The play was a nine-yard pass from Quarterback Roger Crawford to End Randy Pancake. The opportunity was set when an unidentified Buff recovered a Horn fumble at the Early 20. When Cross Plains finally did score it was in a hurry. An Early punt gave Cross Plains the ball at the Herd's 20. Two plays netted 10 yards, but on first down Halfback Randy Hunter was dropped for a two-yard loss. Crawford then hurried a long pass to End Greg Turner at about midfield, and Turner outran defenders the remainder of the 72 yards. Tim Bishop toed the extra point for a 7-0 lead with two minutes left in the first half.

A fourth down gamble eventually paid off for the Herd in the third quarter. Early needed less than a yard at the Horn 30 and gambled, but Buff defenders topped the Horn Quarterback Larry Skaggs short. It took the Bisons nine plays to tally after a five-yard penalty moved the oval to the Early 35. Tally came on a three-yard pass from Crawford to End Brad Bowden on a fourth down play. Again Bishop split the uprights for a 14-0 advantage with 3:20 left in the third stanza.

Buffalo Turner set the next touchdown up with an interception of an Early pass at the Horn 11. On the next play Halfback Rex Beggs crossed the double stripe with 11:16 left in the game. Once again Bishop kicked the extra point for a 21-0 lead.

Early took the ensuing kick, an onside attempt which failed by inches, and marched 50 yards to paydirt. Scoring play of the six play drive was a 13-yard toss from Skaggs to John Waldon. Key of the drive was a 38-yard aerial from Skaggs to Ronnie Sewalt.

In the fading moments of the game a promising Buff drive was halted when Sewalt intercepted a Buff aerial in the end zone. The drive originated at the Longhorn 35 when an unidentified Buff swiped an Early pass. The drive covered 23 yards in five plays.

Rising Star Soldier In Germany Exercise

Army Private David A. Griffin, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew W. Griffin of Route 2, Rising Star, participated with other American and Allied troops in exercise Reforber V in Germany, Oct. 10-16.

The military airlift command flew approximately 11,000 U. S. Based soldiers and more than 1,000 tons of equipment to three different airfields in Germany in preparation for the event.

Immediately after arriving overseas, the redeployed units drew combat gear and vehicles from prepositioned storage sites in the exercise area to begin the seven-day field maneuver.

Pitted against the airlifted forces were Europe-based elements of NATO forces of the U. S., Germany and Canada.

The exercise, conducted by the Joint Chiefs of Staff and NATO, focused on the procedures and techniques for receiving, equipping, assembling and employing units after they arrive, rather than on rapid deployment of troops from the U. S.

Pvt. Griffin is regularly assigned as a driver in Troop A, 3rd Squadron, 7th Cavalry of the 3rd Infantry Division in Schweinfurt, Germany.

ASCS Committeemen Election By Mail

Election of community committeemen will be held by mail again this year, according to the Callahan County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office in the courthouse at Baird.
J. C. Earp, Jr., executive director explained that ballots will be mailed not later than November 23 and must be returned to his office by December 3.

Earp pointed out that Tommie Harris of Cross Plains, who has served on the committee for the past 16 years is ineligible to serve next year. Earp explained that a new rule prohibits a county committeeman from serving more than three consecutive terms.
Mail ballots will be counted in the ASCS office at 8:30 a.m. Friday, Dec. 7.

County Farmers Due Questionnaires Soon

During the last half of November and in December, some 75,000 farmers and ranchers will receive either a crop or livestock questionnaire from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. Accurate estimates have always been of great importance to producers and are even more important in light of the supply-demand situation facing agriculture for the state of Texas.
Each farmer receiving a questionnaire is urged to fill it out carefully and return it promptly to the Agricultural Statistician in Austin. Individual reports are confidential and used only for state and county estimates it was pointed out.

Town Talk

Comanche will probably defeat Coleman, but it may not be easy. Indians stay unbeaten, 20-13.
Rising Star is the king of area football having beaten fourth ranked Meridian 12-9 last week. Gorman should fall to the Wildcats, 22-8.
Cisco will remain undefeated in whipping the Clyde Bulldogs about three touchdowns, 26-8.
Could be an upset in the Santa Anna-Bangs game, but we'll stay with the Dragons in a close game, 21-20.
De Leon should have little trouble with Early setting up a showdown with Bangs for the league crown next week. Bearcats will win 38-8.
Ranger at Cross Plains game could be a barn-burner. The two units are currently tied with Santa Anna for third place in loop 10-A. Ranger surprised the Herd last year, and could do so again. If Buffs want a victory bad enough, they can get it, 21-16.

S-Z Plus Tardies Should See About SSI Benefits Now

Many of the more than 1,000 persons who have applied with the Abilene social security office for the new Supplemental Security Income (SSI) that will replace the adult assistance payments from the state of Texas as of January 1974 followed the request that they stagger their filings according to their last names, reports Bob Tuley, district manager.

Persons whose last names start with S-Z, or who put off action, are reminded that November is the last month the social security people feel completely confident that they'll have enough time to get that Jan. 2, 1974, check out on time.

Tuley reminds readers that although his office will be handling the SSI claims, the money does not come from the trust funds for retirement, survivors, disability, and medicare to which workers and self employed people have been paying in taxes.

He also repeated previous information that anyone with a social security railroad retirement, or other state or federal monthly benefit of more than $150 will not qualify for SSI. Other matters that can affect entitlement or size of payment include ownership of a home valued at over $25,000, ownership of one or more cars or trucks with a total value of over $1200, living in the household of another, earnings of more than $65 per month, etc.

Anyone over 65, or blind, or disabled who does not already get an assistance check from Austin, and who cannot get in to a social security office or to a local meeting point, to see a representative, may, during November only, make a collect telephone call to the social security office in Abilene, (915)-677-5262, to file for SSI payments or to get authoritative decisions as to eligibility therefor.

Telephone 725-2341 to report fire in Cross Plains.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY DEAR HUSBAND,
GORDON BELL
ONE YEAR AGO, NOV. 9, 1972

God took him from this earth. All his pain and grief is over. He is home in Heaven at last. One week before he went, he told us he was going. He could almost touch Jesus' hand, and oh, what a rejoicing with Jesus' arm to lean on. He had no doubt or dread. As dawns another year, thoughts of him are always near. Friends may think the wound is healed. They little know the sorrow that lies within the heart concealed.

Oil, Wood, Peanuts Keep Sabanno People Busy

By Mrs. Edwin Erwin

The weather was cool, cloudy and misty on Monday morning. This means the peanut harvest is slowed down. We have a number of men cutting wood in our community. With truck and pick up for such and too the oil and gas business is creating quite a bit of excitement—most acreages in and around Sabanno have been leased, so in all quite a bit of going and coming.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. King over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Clois Webb and Lyndell of Cisco, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Lawton Thompson all of Eastland.

Mrs. O. B. Switzer made a business trip to Baird Monday. She accompanied other ladies. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Williams and children of Odessa and Mrs. Jerry Cox and daughters of De Leon, visited with their mother, Mrs. Lillie Williams and Rhonda over the week end.

The Busy Bee ladies were quite busy the past week. Finished one pay quilt and one for Mrs. Brandon, Mrs. Brandon and Mrs. Jean Stovall were hostesses for these quiltings. We miss Mrs. Dawkins, who's been absent for several meetings due to her illness. She is at home and improving slowly. We have missed her—she's one of our quilters.

Mrs. J. L. King visited with her sister, Mrs. Mary Mitchell at the rest home in Eastland one day last week.

"Why you should get a new '74 International instead of a 1st, 2nd, or 3rd car."

"How could any car give you such a great combination of practicality, economy, comfort, and fun?"

"If you're practical: you can use them like a car around town—then for work, and for happy, inexpensive weekend trips and vacations."

"If you like comfort: You get extra head and leg room, good visibility, extra cargo space, easy loading and unloading."

"And of course, there are all the comfort and style options you can think of—from air to wood-grain exterior side panels."

"If you're economical: You can get just the engine you need, from a thrifty 6 to V8s big enough for any job."

"If you like fun: You can do so many happy things with these Internationals—tow a boat or a trailer. Go exploring."

"Now really, is there anything else that can match my International combination?"

The '74 Scout® lets you lead a double life. Four-wheel drive lets you head for adventure. A thrifty 6 or V8s up to 345 cubes. Power front disc brakes standard. Options, like air, power steering, AM-FM, wood-grain exterior side panels.

The '74 Pickup rides wider than any pickup ever rode before. Actually 2 inches wider. So you get a smoother ride, better stability at high speed or on rough roads. Power up to 392 cubes. Improved power front disc brakes standard. And every option you can think of. International... The Other Pickup.

The '74 Travelall®—what makes it beautiful is what it does. Like carry 9 people comfortably. Like the standard extra-strength frame and axles, for towing. Parks and turns easier, but gives you more cargo space.

Sound Management Means Good Grass, Stock Crops

With sound conservation management a rancher can maintain range grasses and plants and harvest a crop of livestock products, according to Gary Gregory, soil conservationist of the Baird Field Office Soil Conservation Service. The world's largest and most widely distributed crop is grass. Gregory contends that if the grass harvest were to fail for a single season, famine would depopulate the earth.

In order to manage our grassland for best production we need to know a lot about each individual plant that is a part of the plant population on our grasslands, how they grow, how they compete with each other, how they feed themselves, how and when they reproduce and how they will respond to the kind, time and amount of grazing use we may give them, he says. By knowing and understanding these things about our grasses we are better able to pattern our grazing uses to meet these needs. We are then working with nature to grow all the food that our grasslands are capable of producing. Grass is a hardy plant and is able to endure a wide variation of conditions and hardships. One hardship grasses are not able to stand is continued misuse by overgrazing with livestock. When too much grass is harvested the plant faces a slow death by starvation, because too much of its leaf area has been removed. After all the leaves are the manufacturing part of the plant 95 percent of all the nutrients necessary for plant growth are obtained from the leaves.

How much of the plant can we expect to harvest without losing our forage production potential? Most of our good forage plants in our area need to retain about one half of their top growth to keep them healthy and productive. As a rule of thumb Mr. Gregory says "take half and leave half", as this practice is carried out both halves will continue to get bigger. For more detailed information contact your local Soil Conservation Service.

Peanuts

no advance warning to industry and are not to be published in the Federal Register permitting a systematic method of public rebuttal. This whole pattern of events is an obvious effort on the part of the USDA to force peanut growers to accept legislative changes in the peanut industry. Growers from all producing states met with USDA personnel throughout last winter and spring in an effort to work out a program modification approach that would meet the needs of growers as well as satisfying the objectives of the administration. In the last meeting between the National Growers Group and USDA officials on May 23, 1972, Department spokesmen stated that growers had made good progress in constructing a program concept. Further, USDA representatives present indicated they would advise the Grower Group within 2 weeks whether the plan would be acceptable to USDA. To date no official word has been received on the plan from the Department, although growers feel in view of recent USDA action, the Department has ceased program negotiations with growers.

All persons involved in the peanut industry are being asked and are asking interested others to write federal and state representatives to re-open negotiations to review the peanut program.
