KINDERGARTEN STUDENT ENROLLMENT CONTINUES

Enrollment is continuing for kindergarten students at local school for next fall.

Arthur Boyle, elementary principal, stated that all students who expect to attend kindergarten next year are asked to have parents enroll them within the next few days if at all possible. Through Monday only 11 students had been signed up, but Boyle noted that at least 17 or 18 were known to live within this district. Students should bring birth certificates when enrolling, and forms are available at the school for requesting certificates.

$75 More Added To Mrs. Johnson Fund

Another $75 has been donated to the Mrs. L. E. Johnson Fund during the past two weeks.

Latest donors and respective amounts were reported as follow: Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Hargrove, Jr., $10, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Brashear $25, J. C. Bow den $10, Bulah Hargrove $5 Mr. and Mrs. Freddy Tatom $5, Mr. and Mrs. Duke Mitchell $10, and Verlin Arrowwood $10.

The fund was begun some weeks ago by friends to help pay for travel and medical expenses incurred by Mrs. Johnson since she underwent surgery last November. She is required to travel to Brownwood and Houston periodically for treatment and medication.
