Local Lady Makes The News

Weighty dessert crafted by masterful pie maker

By KEN ELLSWORTH

Eye on West Texas Abilene Reporter-News

I was sitting in Collum's Restaurant earlier this week faced with what I thought was a gigantic challenge. A huge piece of coconut cream pie had just been politely served to me by waitress Amanda Sowell. The pic was four inches high and must have weighed half a pound.

The question in my mind was, was it possible for a human being to cat the whole thing in one sitting and survive? In the interest of science, I would find out, and so would the brave friend who was with me.

I had earlier heard about Cross Plains' pies from this same friend who remembered eating them at a restaurant called Odom's more than 30 years ago. Odom's, however, had changed ownership over the years and had become Collum's. My friend wondered whether the pies, under new ownership, would match more than 30 years of memory.

Well, to make a long story shorter, I have never found it so easy to down half a pound of pie. Except for the guilt, it was wonderful.

As I left Collum's, I picked up a business card. It said, "Jody Finn, Master Pie Maker," and waitress Sowell said Jody and Dusty Finn were the owners of Collum's.

Having eaten Jody Finn's pie, I am not about to argue with her Master Pie Maker title, but I started wondering who conferred such titles, so I called her.

"Oh," she said. "I got a new computer over the holidays, and my children were playing with it and made the business cards and put that on it." So, it was Finn's proud children who conferred their mother's lofty title. Still, the pride was not misplaced. Finn, 43, said her children were grown up.

Thinking Finn's best pie had to be her delicious coconut cream pie, I asked her, just to make sure, what her own favorite pie was.

"I would have to say that would be the peanut butter pie," she said, surprising me.

Cross Plains, my stomach hears you calling. I shall return.

Locally Known Tennis Retailer Receives National Certification

Randy Stephenson (son of Tom and Arlene Stephenson) of Oshman's Supersports #1275 in North Dallas has passed the examination and satisfied the experience requirements to be named a Certified Racquet Technician (CRT) by the United States Racquet Stringers Association (USRSA) in Del Mar, California. Established in 1993, the CRT is the highest designation a racquet sports retailer can receive.

To be eligible to the CRT, Randy had to pass an exhaustive exam that tests knowledge of all facets of racquet service. "The exam measures the understanding of how to install string, how to select the optimum racquet for every player and how to re-size handles, re-grip racquets and customize weight and balance," says Don Hightower, USRSA associate director. "A CRT must also demonstrate advanced knowledge of current frame and string technology and how that technology translates to player satisfaction." The CRT designation also requires that the racquet service professional satisfy specific experience requirements, and be referred by an industry sales representative, a colleague or manager and a cus-

"Satisfying the customer is good business for everyone.

Have you ever gone to the peach tree to pick plums? Or to the apple orchard to pick grapes? No, and the reason is so obvious that it needs no explaining. But Jesus used the very obvious to illustrate a point He was making, saying, "A tree is known by its fruit," Matthew 12:33b Jesus continued, "Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or else make the tree bad and its fruit bad," verse 33a.

Jesus' teaching here was on the same order as in His "Sermon on the Mount" wherein He upbraided the false prophets, saying, "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes from thornbushes or figs from thistles? Even so, every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit..." Matthew 7:15-20.

What's the point? You can't have a bad heart and good actions; you won't normally have a good heart and bad actions. "A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good things, and an evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth evil things," Matthew 12:35. "For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth

Have we expected the impossible? riave we sought for a riddance of bad actions -- like crime and drugs -- without some "heart transplants?" Not that hearts can't be changed, but have we majored in changing bad hearts into good hearts instead of growing good hearts to begin with? No wonder parents, especially fathers, are admonished to bring their children up in the training and instruction of the Lord, Ephesians 6:4. The best way to have peaches is to plant them and grow

Hearts can be changed, however. "For godly sorrow produces repentance to salvation..." (I Cor. 7:10) One of Jesus' aims was to change evil hearts into good ones -- and one or our aims must be the same, for "every free that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire," Matthew 7:19. Come help us in this "heart business."

Friends & Neighbors Caring In Jesus

By COACH CAVENDER

The first game of the holidays saw the Lady Buffs defeat Richland Springs 66-26. Scoring the points were Malyssa 16, Amanda 17, Whitney 10, Laura 10, Mindy 5, Jaonna 4, Crystal 4, and Ashley 2. This was our first home game after playing 17 in a row on the road and the girls were really excited to play for the home crowd.

The second game after returning from Christmas Break. The Lady Buffs defeated Rising Star 58 to 19. All twelve of the Buffs contributed on the scoreboard in this one. Amanda 16, Malyssa 10, Jolena 7, Jaonna 5, Nikki and Holly had 4 each, Ashley 3, Whitney, Mindy, Crystal, and Kimberly had 2, and Laura 1.

The next action the Lady Buffs saw was the Panther Creek Tournament. In first round action we defeated a good club from Gustine 61-39. In the semifinals we beat a tough and physical team from Blanket 54 to 42. The finals found us playing the home team Panther Creek and The Lady Buffs brought home their third tournament championship of the season by a margin of 52 to 39. Malyssa was named the Tournament M.V.P. Laura and Amanda were also selected to the All-Tournament Team. Total points for the 3 day tourney were Malyssa 52, Amanda 33, Holly 26, Whitney 21, Laura 12, Mindy 13, Ashley and Kimberly with 3 each, Jaonna and Jolena with 2 each, Nikki and Crystal. There is so much more to this sport than just scoring points. So many of these kids, do so many things that you don't see in a box score in the paper. The play great defense, rebound under the basket where it gets physical, show leadership qualities, always unselfish passing the ball around the floor for the best shot. The things that I have just mentioned are what makes this group of kids so special. As individuals we can fall, but as a team we become an unbeatable force. If you haven't seen these kids play, you need to get out and support the Lady Buffs and The Buffaloes, you're missing something special in entertainment.

It also provides ways for giving feedback on improving or charting future directions for 4-H.

Membership funds will be used to support youth leadership programs, volunteer development, special emphasis programs and 4-H programs on the county, district and state level.

More information on the organization can be obtained by contacting the Texas 4-H Foundation at (409) 845-1213 or the local County Extension Office (915) 854-1518.
