

North Pecos Crude Strike Is Completed

Pecos County gained a Pennsylvanian detrital oil discovery with completion of Exxon Corp. No. 1-1 South Howe Oil Unit, 17 miles southwest of Monahans, and 2 1/2 miles southeast of the firm's one-well Howe (Devonian) gas field of Ward.

On 24-hour potential test, it flowed 108 barrels of 46.1-gravity oil, with gas-oil ratio of 2,685-1, through perforations at 10,606-11,564 feet.

It originally was scheduled as a Devonian and Ellenburger wildcat, drilled to 19,133 feet and plugged back to 11,619 feet. It recovered a small amount of gas on a drillstem test taken from 17,995-18,293 feet.

Operator set a 7 1/2-inch liner at 13,450 feet.

Location is 8,700 feet from south and 1,320 feet from east lines of section 22, block 8, H&GN survey.

Completion Slated At Yoakum Venture

MEMORAN Exploration Co., Corpus Christi, is waiting on cement after setting 5 1/2-inch casing at 12,092 feet, on total depth of 13,441 feet, and preparing to perforate and test at No. 1 Oil Development Co., Yoakum County wildcat, nine miles east of Denver City.

Production was indicated with the recovery of 8,867 feet of gas and 2,565 feet of 42.8-gravity oil on a drillstem test from 11,520-11,589 feet.

An earlier drillstem investigation from 10,888-11,127 feet, recovered 4,590 feet of gas, 120 feet of 36-gravity oil and 450 feet of oil- and gas-cut mud.

Location, nine miles east of Denver City, is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 882, block D, John H. Gibson survey, 1/2 mile west of the Seagraves multipay field and 2 1/2 mile southeast of a 5,639-foot failure.

Eddy Confirmer Still Testing

Monsanto Co. continued testing at No. 2 Burton Flat Deep Unit, assured second producer and one-mile northeast extension in a newly opened Morrow sector of Eddy County, N.M., about six miles northeast of Carlsbad.

It flowed through perforations at 11,215-11,476 feet, at the maximum daily rate of 12,682 million cubic feet, through a 48-64-inch choke, for an unreported time. It continued flowing to clean.

Location is 1,275 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 2-21s-27e.

Midland Wildcat Flowing Crude

Henry & Landenberger, Inc. of Midland, was testing through Strawn perforations at No. 1 City of Midland, scheduled producer in Midland County, 2 1/2 miles northeast of the one-well Baumann (Pennsylvanian) field and one mile west of production in the Spraberry Trend Area.

It flowed to pits an unreported time through a 14-64-inch choke and perforated section at 10,510.

'Project Homecoming' Set For Beginning Next Week

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird said today operations for bringing out U.S. prisoners of war from Hanoi "will start this next week," with more than 100 to be home within two weeks. Laird said the POWs will be flown nonstop from Hanoi to Clark Air Force Base in the Philippines over a roundabout route that will first take them over Vientiane in Laos.

But he said there would be no landing in Vientiane as in they turn it over to U.S. officials Wednesday by presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger in outlining terms of a peace agreement. "Present next week if next-of-kin are notified first. It was not clear whether under such circumstances all of the names would be released simultaneously."

In a taped interview on the NBC Today show, Laird gave no specific date for the landing of U.S. planes in Hanoi and left unclear when the first prisoners would be given their freedom. U.S. officials working on the POW release plan said this was likely to occur sometime near the end of the two-week period following the signing of the peace agreement.

Asked in the interview, "When can we expect the first American prisoners to return home?" Laird replied, "The operation will start—the operation will start this next week."

But later in the program, when questioned specifically as to when the POWs can be expected back in this country, he refused to give a specific date, saying only that "more than 100 prisoners will be back in the United States within the first two weeks."

Heavy fog blanketed the Tall City early today, but it had burned away by mid-morning, leaving a prospect of mostly clear skies and temperatures pushing near 60 this afternoon. The National Weather Service at Midland Air Terminal reported Thursday's high temperature was 38 degrees, followed by an overnight low of 31.

Tonight's low is expected to be in the mid-30s, with Saturday's high in the low 50s. There is a 20 per cent probability of precipitation Saturday.

Two to seven inches of snow piled up Thursday between Sonora and Abilene, and generally smaller amounts in a 200-mile-wide belt from a line linking Junction, Del Rio and Wink northward to the Lubbock area.

Much of the snow melted as it fell and overnight temperatures generally stayed above freezing, lessening what had threatened to be dangerous conditions on streets and highways.

One very cold spot was at Marfa in the West Texas mountains where the thermometer read 11 degrees. Wink reported 24 degrees and Dalhart 28.

Rain dampened almost all areas in the state where it didn't snow except in far West Texas, which stayed mostly dry. Moisture measurements in most cases amounted to between 75 inch and 1.5 inches.

As the rainfall gradually tapered off during the night and this morning, there also was a little snow moving northward in Central Texas around Gatesville, Hico, Stephenville and Mineral Wells. The Associated Press reported.

As skies cleared in most other sections, the moisture lingered into this morning in the north central and east portions of the state.

There also was fog at a number of places. (See FOG Page 12A)

Two Gls Die As War Nears Halt

SAIGON (AP)—Two Americans and almost 400 North and South Vietnamese were reported killed today and Thursday in a storm of attacks across South Vietnam matched by the heaviest American air strikes in eight months.

"The war's still on," the commander of a U.S. Marine air wing commented after the death of one of his young security guards during a rocket attack on the Bien Hoa Air Base 15 miles northeast of Saigon.

Seven and a half hours after the pre-dawn attack at Bien Hoa, a second American serviceman was killed when his observation helicopter crashed in flames near Phan Thiet, on the coast 100 miles east of Saigon. U.S. officials said the helicopter apparently was shot down. A second crewman rescued.

Agnew Set For Travel

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Spiro T. Agnew will leave Sunday for South Vietnam and for visits to six other Asian countries, the White House announced today.

The purpose of the trip, said press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler, is "to discuss postwar relations" and to "explain the continuing American role in Asia."

Agnew will also stress the United States' interest in "peace and self-determination for all the nations in Southeast Asia," he said.

"Something Over A Week" The trip will last "something over a week," the press secretary said.

Traveling with Agnew will be staff aides of the National Security Council and members of his own staff.

Ziegler said Agnew would engage in "important substantive discussions" with the leaders of the seven countries. Besides South Vietnam they are Laos, Cambodia, Thailand, Malaysia, Singapore and Indonesia.

Aides said that in signing the intricate Vietnam agreements, Saturday, Rogers will be affixing his signature a total of 72 times.

The pact will be signed at both 10:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. Paris time.

Henry A. Kissinger, President Nixon's peace negotiator, at his Wednesday news conference explained that the two signature ceremonies would be required because the government of South Vietnam and the Viet Cong "have not yet been prepared to recognize each other's existence."

Four-Party Instrument The four-party document to be signed Saturday morning does not mention by name any of the four parties involved but refers only to "the parties participating in the Paris conference." It, Kissinger said, will be signed on two separate pages: The United States and South Vietnam signing on one page and North Vietnam and the Viet Cong signing on another.

The other document will be signed in the afternoon by Rogers. (See ROGERS Page 12A)

Pact Slated To Usher In Era Of Peace

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State William P. Rogers left for Paris today to sign an historic Vietnam agreement which he said would "usher in an era of peace."

"Very soon, as a result of these agreements, the world will be at peace for the first time in a long time," Rogers said.

Rogers spoke to newsmen briefly at Andrews Air Base in nearby Maryland before setting off for the French capital.

Saturday, Rogers will join his counterparts from North Vietnam, South Vietnam and the Viet Cong's provisional revolutionary government in signing the pact to end the lengthy Vietnam conflict. The cease-fire is slated to go into effect at 6 p.m. CST Saturday.

Laos, Cambodia Soon "We hope and expect shortly thereafter that a cease-fire will take effect in Laos and Cambodia, too," Rogers said, adding: "So finally this long and difficult war will come to an end."

Johnson Laid To Rest In Soil He Loved

By JACK KEEVER

STONEWALL, Tex. (AP)—In soil soaked by a rain he would have enjoyed, former President Lyndon B. Johnson was interred in a small ranch cemetery next to the parents he loved so much.

The service Thursday afternoon reflected things he cared about: religious solemnity, military pageantry, deep-felt oratory and the gathering of good friends.

In near-freezing weather, a crowd estimated at 10,000 pushed in tight outside a waist-high stone fence to get a better look at the 50-minute ceremony.

Hundreds of others stood across the Pedernales River to listen as the amplified eulogies of evangelist Billy Graham and former Texas Gov. John Connally echoed across the damp pasture near the LBJ Ranch, 1972.

His grave, filled at dark after the crowd had dispersed on foot and in buses and cars, was guarded throughout the night by four military policemen and two Secret Service agents, who sat in a car to avoid the cold.

Mrs. Johnson and the families of her two married daughters, Lynda and Luci, visited with friends afterwards at the ranch house, just up a narrow park road from the cemetery.

Johnson's body was borne back to the cemetery in which Johnson family members have been interred since the early 1900s after funeral services at the National City Christian Church in Washington, the capital's last farewell to the man who had served in the U.S. House, U.S. Senate and as vice president and president.

More than 40,000 persons filed past his closed gray casket in Washington Wednesday, and another 32,000 paid their respects at the LBJ Library in Texas' state capital, Austin, on Tuesday.

His body was flown back from Washington to Bergstrom Air Force Base, near Austin, aboard the big White House jet on which Johnson was sworn in as president Nov. 22, 1963. The crowd was a mixture of easily recognizable national figures such as Sen. Edward Kennedy of Massachusetts, businessmen and lawyers who had been associated in Texas with the Johnson's political career and those that Connally called the "plain people he loved—the silent people—who mourn him the most. He gave them all he had for 40 years."

Smoke billowed from the blasts of 105mm howitzers and shots crackled in salute from a seven-man rifle team.

Cage Fan Is Right!

"Deplorable!" is the way one Tall City basketball fan described it.
And this perhaps is the word most descriptive (and printable) of the high school gymnasium situation in Midland.

And it all came to a head Tuesday night when Midland's two top-notch basketball aggregations — the Rebels of Lee High School and the Bulldogs of Midland High School — met to determine the first half winner in district competition.

The game was played in the antiquated facility at Midland High. Every available seat (somewhere around 1,500) was taken, which is great. But the deplorable part about it is that more than twice the number who were fortunate enough to be admitted into the gym were turned away at the door. Others interested simply did not show up.

It is estimated conservatively that upwards of 7,500 persons would have witnessed the championship game had seats been available.

This is costing the public school system plenty of money — money which could be used to help finance the system's overall athletic program.

The student body from either school could have filled the gym.

Again, it is deplorable that students desiring to see their teams in action are deprived of the privilege. And then there are the thousands of adults with cash in hand and who would like to spend it to see their hometown teams in action. But the adult fan, the person who provides much of the money to foot the bill of the athletic program, is turned away at the door.

This is not just a one-time deal, but the situation is much more critical this season when Midland has the district's two top basketball teams. Interest in and attendance at basketball games here have been increasing by leaps and bounds in recent years, yet an adequate facility to handle the situation has not been provided.

Something must be done to correct this situation. School officials on occasion have proposed erecting a large gymnasium, but they have delayed action pending the outcome of other community projects.

A much better idea perhaps would be to build a community-coliseum, within reasonable cost and size limits, which could be used for basketball and other sports, as well as for boat displays, automobile shows and what-have-you.

DON OAKLEY COLUMN—
Man's Cussedness Shows Up In Modern Commune

By DON OAKLEY
NEW YORK (NEA) — The commune movement is not only still around, but some of these social experiments are discovering insights into human nature that have eluded philosophers and kings over the centuries.
For instance, a recent book about a five-year-old commune in Virginia called Twin Oaks explains that members are required to do full, equal shares of the necessary work.

Within that limit, however, they are free to choose the work they like. They work about 40 hours a week, usually spread over the full seven days.

(Assembly-line robots, eat your hearts out!)
Soon after its founding, the commune discovered the curious fact that previously desirable tasks, such as hoeing the garden, increasingly tended to be viewed as unpleasant and had to be assigned.

When one is assigned a job, he becomes "manager" of that job.
"Our bylaws leave us free to change our form of government at any time," writes Kathleen Kinkade, author of the book "I, if intolerable" censored music in the terminal is not switched off by then.

Letters to British newspapers complaining about "piped-in pollution" indicate that the traveling public will support the strike.
"Maybe it ought to be declared worldwide. Do we really need the incessant undertone — and sometimes not such an undertone — of bland, monotonous music in terminals, in stores, in restaurants and banks and the like?"

It's supposed to have an unobtrusively relaxing and nerve-calming effect. But when it gets to the point where it is simply ear pollution, the time has come to holler "Stop the music!"

Most members bog down in their work from time to time, but perk up after a vacation or a fresh approach or a change of job, writes Ms. Kinkade.

(Industrial psychologists, get your noses out of the textbooks!)
As happens in the best-run communes, the snake has reared his head a couple of times in the person of members who refused to pull their weight.

One fellow was content to let his girl friend support him by doing her work and his, too. The other guy falsified his labor credit sheets (Counterfeiting?).

When reasoning, threats and everything else failed to move these characters, they were simply asked to leave.

(This unique solution, unfortunately, is not practical in the outside world, there being no other "outside world" nonproducers can be asked to leave for. Anyway, most unemployment is the fault of the lousy system Twin Oaks and other communes were designed to be alternatives for.)

"New Culture"
Twin Oaks is determined to avoid the emergence of a privileged class which does less or has more than anybody else. This means the creation of "an entirely new culture" — non-competitive and nonconsumerist.

Until this creation is realized, however, "it will be necessary for us to continue to legislate a rough equality," writes Ms. Kinkade.

Seven no-trump is a better contract than seven hearts.

When the hand was played, South was a good player who was an avid reader of bridge literature. East was an expert and when East dropped the nine, good player South paused, reflected, and reflected some more.

There is a well known book play here. East holds four hearts to the jack-nine and knows if he just plays low declarer will lead to the ace and find out about the trump situation.

South finally decided that East had made this falsecard; led to dummy's ace and went down one just like a beginner would have.

BRUCE BLOSSAT—
Earthquakes Point To Unraveled Mysteries

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
(Last of Two Related Articles)

WASHINGTON (NEA) — In the lonely cold of Pittsburgh's stadium, the electric scoreboard lit up with a sad epitaph: "Roberto Clemente—1934-1972." There were no spectators, but cameras flashed to the nation this evidence that a great athlete's death touched the daily lives of many people.

In the literal sense, he died in a plane crash off the coast of his native Puerto Rico. In a larger way, he was the victim of an event which reflects a partially unraveled mystery about the earth's crust.

He would never have been on that faltering aircraft had he not undertaken personal overseeing of a mercy mission to Managua, Nicaragua, where two days before Christmas a violent earthquake killed several thousand, injured many thousands more, and leveled all but a fourth of the capital's buildings.

Earthquakes of course are a familiar story. In the last 20 years, there have been thousands of strongly measurable shocks. Heavy loss of life has resulted 26 times since 1900.

They were certainly not new to Managua. Quakes in 1885 and 1931 flattened the city as in 1972. But had leaders in Nicaragua in 1931 known and acted upon what scientists know today, there might have been no massive disaster this time, no mercy mission, and no early death for the great, generous-hearted Roberto Clemente.

Even in 1931, admittedly, a good deal was known about making buildings earthquake-proof. Managua itself has two such 18-story buildings still standing despite the earth's shocks.

But there is much more than this. The fact is that knowledge about the earth's crust has virtually exploded since World War II. Indeed, the science of the crust and its movement has been radically transformed in just 10 years. Who knows or cares? We all should.

A great new theory about that crust has won acceptance. It is more than an interesting "mystery unraveled." If accurate, it touches the daily concerns, the very lives, of millions living on the earth's widely plotted "fault lines" where crustal action tears and blasts the surface. Along the Pacific rim from South America's tip to the islands above Australia, that movement has been steadily disruptive.

Abandoned is the old idea that the earth's crust is a rigid sphere, broken only by irregular seams where the disruptions occur. Geologists now believe the crust is composed of roughly 20 shifting "plates" which carry the continents and oceans. They slide over a hot, semi-plastic layer, moving at varying paces in different areas, often colliding at their edges in crashing upheavals—as at Managua.

No serious scientist today doubts that this plate movement causes "continental drift." It is accepted not only that South America and Africa were once joined their sub-surface coastal rock strata match perfectly, but that all continents once were huddled in a single mass. As humans gauge time, the drift is slow. The Atlantic widens an inch or two a year. But evidence shows that part of the Pacific floor, especially off the Latin American coast (including Managua's area) is moving four times that fast.

To know this is, in effect, to be able to predict more and more earthquakes and eruptions.

QUICK QUIZ

- Q — Where was the armistice ending World War I signed?
A — In a railroad car in France on Nov. 11, 1918.
- Q — What is the origin of the word "ballot"?
A — In the Middle Ages, voters in some Italian cities used little colored balls to indicate their choices. It is from their "ballota" (little ball) that we get our word, "ballot."

BERRY'S WORLD

"Credit keeps a fellow from knowing how much past broke he is."
Copyright 1975 by Frank A. Clark

Dear Editor:
I see where a federal commission recommends making it unlawful for creditors to send duns to people who owe them. It also wants to outlaw discrimination against deadbeats by credit and loan managers.

This appears to be a move to save the newly developing super-sensitive American from the indignity of being dunned, or of having to live with his credit rating.

But all such troubles could be avoided with a law to let us people raise our personal debt limits and pay off all old debts with new borrowings, like government does.

PERSONAL FINANCE—
What's In A Name? Lots Of Insurance, Of Course

By CARLTON SMITH
(Last of Three Related Articles)
NEW YORK (NEA) — The consumer's lot has never been an easy one. It's been "caveat emptor" since the days of ancient Rome. But the consumer of life insurance has an especially hard go of it.

Joseph M. Belth, professor of insurance at Indiana University, is of the firm opinion that only one publication rating companies on their financial strength and general soundness is to be relied upon. That is the annual "Best's Reports."

Some 2,000 companies sell life insurance in this country. In a recent edition, Best's reported on 1,242 — considering the remainder beneath notice. About two-thirds of these — 814 of them — it declined to recommend to policyholders.

Even a "recommendation," when it's worded in a certain unenthusiastic manner, is — if you're familiar with Best's terminology — a warning that the company is not in top shape. Best's gave its most strongly worded recommendation — its top rating — to only 127 companies.

With that background, consider the plight of the consumer in trying to cope with what Prof. Belth terms the insurance industry's "identity problem."

Lab Interested In Abnormal Fish

MONTAUK, N.Y. (AP) — If you catch an ocean fish with missing fins or an abnormal head, don't throw it away; call or write the New York Ocean Science Laboratory here.

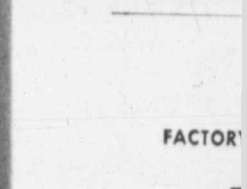

Scientists want to know why more and more abnormal fish are being reported, and they want sports and commercial fishermen to help.

"If it is not possible to save the specimen, or the fisherman is out of the Long Island area, we would like a photo of the fish, arranged alongside a ruler or yardstick, and data as to the date, method of capture, location and comments," said Dr. Herbert M. Austin.

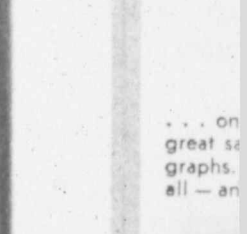

Austin said, "There are many types of abnormalities, but the most common and easily detected are pugnatedness, finless backs and anomalies of the fins, such as reduced or additional number of fin rays, shortened or stubby rays, parthe rocks and shoals of the pelagic industry! By and vic complex and missing fins."

DOWNTOWN LIONS CLUB QUEENS — Lou Neely, right, a senior at Lee High School, Wednesday noon was selected from among nine contestants to represent the Midland Downtown Lions Club in the District 2-A1, Lions International, queen contest to be held at San Angelo in May. She is pictured with Ann Reed, Midland High School senior, first runnerup in the contest.

Retailer Defends Beef Price Levels In Talk To Cattlemen

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — "I don't buy my panty hose at the butcher," said entertainer Kitty Carlisle at the suggestion that grocery bills appear more inflated because of the non-grocery items in the shopping bag. Her own food bills seem to be higher and she doesn't serve beef as much as she used to, Miss Carlisle, a New Yorker, told delegates to the American Cattlemen's Association convention here Thursday.

"There is a worm in my consumer's heart," she said, although she said she recognized there are figures showing Americans spend a lower percentage of their take-home pay on beef now than they formerly did.

A fellow panelist at the convention, William S. Mitchell, president of Safeway Stores Inc., said higher food bills may be in part the result of a trend in supermarkets to carry beauty aids and other personal commodities.

The bill may be $40 now, but actually it's "$20 on groceries and $20 on non-groceries," he said.

Mitchell concedes "food prices in general and beef prices in particular are higher than they have been, but so is everything else, and particularly wages."

Mitchell, who was introduced as the president of the world's chief beef retailer, said producers and retailers of beef must "shoot down the idea that beef prices are too high." He reasoned that the average American now spends less than 16 percent of his disposable income on

Striking Chicago Teachers Go Back To Classes Today

CHICAGO (AP) — It was back to the blackboard today for Chicago's 21,000 public school teachers who have ended an 11-day strike, the longest in the city's history.

Members of the Chicago Teachers Union ratified a new contract Thursday night, gaining major concessions from the Board of Education on wages, class size, additional preparation time and a shorter work year.

The vote was 8,145 in favor of the school board offer to 1,012 against.

The walkout, which began Jan. 10, had idled 660 schools and kept 550,000 pupils out of classes.

Other Walkouts Drag On

But in two other major U.S. cities, teacher strikes dragged on.

In Philadelphia, the 15th day of a walkout by 13,000 public school teachers continued to curtail classes for 285,000 children in 280 schools. And in St. Louis, a strike by 3,000 teachers went into its fifth day.

The new Chicago contract provides a 2 1/2 per cent wage increase retroactive to Jan. 1, reduces the school year from 40 weeks to 39 with no loss in pay, cuts class sizes and sets guidelines for preparation periods twice weekly for elementary instructors.

Salaries under the old contract ranged from $9,796 to $16,716.

food—"the lowest figure in our history and the lowest in any country in the world."

Cattlemen applauded when Mitchell said, "I think it is high time that some of the Potomacites — those are the ones that live on Capitol Hill—be told the facts of life, namely that if they want to eat regularly, they are going to have to pay the producer a fair price for the work he does and the risks he assumes."

He noted that food prices were not decontrolled along with other prices in the Nixon administration's Phase III of the Economic Stabilization Program.

Although he said beef imported from Australia for hamburger, hot dogs and packaged foods is slightly cheaper, his huge chain uses only domestic beef on its meat shelves because of quality, because stores are located mostly in cattle-producing regions in the United States and because of a peculiar hassle with food stamps.

Food Stamp Restrictions

He said federal regulations on food stamps restrict sales in groceries to non-imported items only.

Mitchell said the restriction would mean his stores would have to market two kinds of ground beef—one containing imported beef at a slightly less expensive price and the other containing only domestic beef.

The less expensive ground beef would only be available to "the rich persons," said Mitchell, while the more expensive ground beef would be the only kind that the poor person could purchase.

He said Australian beef being brought to the United States was "a cent to a cent and one-half" cheaper than domestic beef used for the same purposes, alluding to the last check he made of prices.

Crime, drug abuse, sexual license, contempt for society — on all counts the situation is worse, not better. Why do we no longer hear much about juvenile and parental delinquency?

First, the more common evil becomes, the less it is called delinquency. Lower standards enough and there are no delinquents!

Second, it wasn't juvenile or parental delinquency that caused our plight. It is spiritual delinquency. Millions in our society set their spiritual standards at a level where such delinquency became custom.

The thing to do with an opinion like this is to REVERSE it. That can be done by a Higher Court — such as an aroused citizenry, seeking every spiritual opportunity and fulfilling every religious responsibility that its churches provide and teach.

Celebration Of Peace

Service To Be Held At First Presbyterian

A community-wide worship service in solemn yet joyous celebration of peace will take place here Sunday night. The service of thanksgiving was initiated by the Midland Council of Churches but is intended as a truly community-wide endeavor, with representative citizens of the city leading various phases of the gathering. Scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. in the sanctuary of First Presbyterian Church, West Texas and North B streets, it will be attended by Protestants and Roman Catholics alike. An offering to be received at the service will go to Church World Service to aid in the reconstruction and rehabilitation of refugees and victims of the war in South Vietnam.

Following special organ music by organist Robert Poer, and the introit, "Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence," to be presented by the chorale of Lee High School under direction of Henry Sellers, the host minister, the Rev. Robert B. Smith, will pronounce the opening welcome. Trumpeters of the Lee High School band, led by Ike Nail, will then present "God of Our Fathers."

The invocation will be given by Mrs. Severo Hinojosa Jr., parish worker at St. Andrews Center here, followed by the hymn, "This Is My Song." Prayers of confession will be led by the host minister, Mr. Smith.

A recording of President Nixon's announcement of the Vietnam peace accord will be played, followed by an official proclamation by Midland Mayor Ernest Angelo Jr. The Lee High School choir will then offer "A Hymn For Our Time."

Community responses will be presented by District Judge Perry D. Pickett, County Judge Barbara Culver, and Dr. Burgin Watkins of St. Luke's United Methodist Church. A hymn, "If Thou Wilt Suffer God to Guide Thee," will be sung by the assembled worshippers.

The Litany for the Nation will be led by the Rev. Ronald Marlow, pastor of Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church. This will be followed by a

LBJ Laid To Rest In Family Cemetery

Mrs. Johnson sat between her daughters, whose husbands helped to hold their four small children in their laps during the services. There were no tears. Mrs. Johnson had a set, wan smile, and Lynda smiled on occasion and talked to her mother, but once it appeared Lynda had to hold back the tears. Connally, too, reddened his eyes after Anita Bryant had sung the Battle Hymn of the Republic, but he brightened later, talking with friends who were at the services. Military pallbearers who had been holding the flag taut above the casket folded it, and retired Brig. Gen. James U. Cross, Johnson's former pilot, presented it to Mrs. Johnson. She kissed it and turned slowly away. Gen. William Westmoreland, Johnson's chief of staff and also his commander in Vietnam, put a wreath of red and white carnations in place on behalf of President Nixon. In a deviation from his text, the Rev. Dr. Graham had said of Johnson, "I never heard him criticize President Nixon one time, in private or public, after he left the White House." "He was a mountain of a man with a whirlwind for a heart," said the minister. Grandson Lyn Nugent, 5, and his sister, Nicole, 2, each placed a tiny bouquet of red carnations on the casket, then walked away with their parents, Luci and Pat. As the service ended, dark clouds appeared to be touching the leafless tree tops in the distance. The family motorcade edged through the crowd to the ranch. But Lynda and her husband, Charles Robb, stayed behind and walked up and down the road hugging and kissing and shaking hands with old friends. Their grief disappeared, at least momentarily, in smiles. For Lynda and her sister, Luci, and their mother, Lady Bird, this was home, just as it was for Lyndon Johnson.

Jury Told Of Payments Watergate Judge Reads Testimony

WASHINGTON (AP) — Judge John J. Sirica, saying some important information had been kept from the Watergate trial jury, today read the jury testimony that former Atty. Gen. John Mitchell and former Commerce Secretary Maurice Stans approved payment of the government says out against Democrats. Sirica said he decided to give the jury testimony by Hugh W. Sloan Jr., former treasurer of President Nixon's re-election finance committee, after reviewing the transcripts and deciding most of it is important evidence and the jury should hear it. Sloan testified Tuesday, but the part about Mitchell and Stans was given while the jury was out of the room. It came out when Sirica questioned Sloan directly, but he explained today that the government should have covered the same ground when it resumed examining Sloan before the

When a defense attorney objected to introducing the testimony the judge said "I exercise my judgment as a federal judge and chief judge of the court to examine the witness." The judge added he does not care about the possibility of an appeals court reversal and told the attorney for defendant Gordon Liddy: "Your client is smiling and I don't care what he thinks either." Sirica then gave the prosecution the right to recall Sloan to the witness stand.

Liddy's lawyer, Peter Maroulis, said, "I respectfully move for a mistrial," and the judge responded, "Your motion will be denied." In the presence of the jury, Sloan had earlier said he gave defendant Liddy, legal counsel to the finance committee, $199,000 at the direction of Jeb Magruder, deputy director of the Nixon campaign. After the jury left, Sirica asked Sloan if he knew what the money went for, and Sloan replied, "I have no idea."

which damages were paid last year, he said. Yet, the right to negotiate for payment of damages must be conserved. No-fault laws would take that right away in 95 percent of the cases, he said. Any step which "weakens a free bar from representing people in free courts" should be fought, he said, adding "every tyrant in history has sought to enslave the courts" and the bars. Jeffers is a 1932 graduate of the University of Texas Law School. He practiced law in San Antonio for 10 years and now is a member of the Houston law firm of Vincent, Elkins, Searls, Connally and Smith in which former Texas Governor and Secretary of the Treasury John Connally is a partner. In introducing him, Emil Rassman called Jeffers "one of the giants in the Texas Bar."

Wallace's Condition Satisfactory After Undergoing Sixth Operation

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama underwent successful surgery without complications today and was in satisfactory condition, his surgeon said. The 45-minute operation was performed to improve abdominal drainage impaired by a bullet which injured his spinal cord in an assassination attempt last May. The surgery was performed by Dr. George H. Myers Jr., professor and director of urology at the University of Alabama Medical Center here. It was the sixth operation for Wallace since he was shot while campaigning for the presidential nomination in Laurel, Md., May 15. An aide, Elvin Stantion, said the latest surgery was not mandatory but was performed to relieve some discomfort. The governor is expected to remain in the hospital for several days. Wallace, who is paralyzed from the waist down, was admitted to University Hospital Thursday after returning from Washington where he attended funeral services for former President Lyndon B. Johnson. The operation was recommended about three months ago to correct a problem with Wallace's prostate gland.

San Angelo Man Dies In Wreck

SAN ANGELO — A 41-year-old San Angelo man was killed Thursday when the car he was driving and a truck collided on U.S. 277 about 10 miles north of here. Tommy Louis Salvato, an employe with Goodyear Proving Grounds, was thrown from his car and died at 10:50 a.m. at a San Angelo hospital. According to Department of Public Safety Patrolman Ed Dixon, Salvato apparently lost control of his northbound vehicle, which crossed the roadway and struck the left front end of a southbound truck. Mass for Salvato will be said at 11 a.m. Saturday in the Sacred Heart Cathedral with interment in Calvary Cemetery. A rosary will be said at 7 p.m. today in the Johnson's Funeral Home Chapel. Survivors include his widow; one son; one daughter; his parents; one sister; two brothers.

Program Finds Jobs For Many Scientific Types

DALLAS (AP) — About one-third of the engineers, scientists, and technicians in the Labor Department's volunteer job assistance program for Dallas and Fort Worth have found new jobs since the program began 18 months ago. Regional manpower Administrator Richard L. Coffman said of the 3,383 unemployed engineers, scientists and technicians registered in the self-help program in the two cities, 1,042 have returned to employment. The program is made up of unemployed professionals in the defense and aerospace industries. They promote and develop new jobs, mostly in new fields, for jobless fellow members. Through October, units in 27 cities across the nation promoted and developed nearly 13,000 professional jobs, with 6,575 still to be filled. Members of local units also have developed a few hundred jobs for which local talent was not available. These openings are turned over to the national registry for engineers, a nationwide computerized job-matching service of the Labor Department.

(Continued From Page 1A) fered slight wounds, the U.S. Command said. The Command also reported that 13 U. S. servicemen and 12 American civilian advisers and technicians working with the South Vietnamese air force were wounded in the rocket attack at Bien Hoa and another at the Da Nang Air Base. The South Vietnamese command said there were 112 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong attacks during the 24 hours ending at 6 a.m., equaling the number reported during the previous 24-hour period when the United States and North Vietnam announced that fighting would stop at 8 a.m. Saigon time on Sunday, or 6 p.m. CST Saturday.

POW Release Plans Gearing Up

(Continued From Page 1A) coming, referred to by Laird, could mean the arrival of a small group of Americans, including specialists to set up communication links from Hanoi to U.S. installations. These men are expected to arrive in the North Vietnamese capital in about a week. Under the terms of the peace agreement to be signed Saturday in Paris, all American POWs in Indochina are to be returned within 60 days and roughly equal installments at two-week intervals. Laird said that will mean releases in groups of more than 100 each. The Pentagon lists 591 Americans captive in Southeast Asia. He gave no explanation for the westerly route from Hanoi over Vietnam rather than the more direct easterly flight pattern over the open sea to the Philippines. As planned, Laird said the POWs will be given initial medical examinations at Clark before they are flown to Travis Air Force Base in California and dispersed to one of 31 military hospitals nearest their homes. Laird said "Operation End Sweep," the name he gave to the plan for clearing U.S. Poland and Hungary. Each is mines from North Vietnam's harbors and waterways, will begin shortly after the cease-fire becomes effective Saturday night. U.S. Navy helicopters and minesweeping ships now in the Western Pacific are "moving on station at the present time," he said. But he added that, before clearing operations can begin, a meeting is required between U.S. and North Vietnamese officials, apparently to discuss the mine-sweeping plan and to exchange navigational charts. As for the remaining 23,000 U.S. troops in Vietnam, the Pentagon chief said they will be withdrawn on a daily basis. He dubbed the troop withdrawal program "Operation Countdown" and said about 11,000 will be out by the 30th day of the cease-fire. Those remaining will be pulled out in the second 30 days in accordance with the timetable called for in the peace agreement. Laird also announced that Maj. Gen. Gilbert H. Woodward of Suffolk, Va., currently chief of staff of the U.S. Command in Saigon, will serve as the chief U.S. representative to the four-power joint military commission for implementing the cease-fire during the first 60 days. Canada's foreign minister, Mitchell Sharp, was more reserved after a session with Rogers. Canada will begin sending its 238-man group to Saigon this weekend, he said, but will decide after 60 days whether the contingent is effective or should be withdrawn. "Our doubts arise out of our membership in the ICC in Vietnam," under the old 1954 Geneva agreements, Sharp said. "It has been a farce, and we don't want to repeat that." The old ICC was stymied by straitjacket procedures and obstructive tactics by the parties.

ing about 290 men to South Vietnam. Malik told newsmen Indonesia's first contingent of 62 men will fly into South Vietnam Saturday night. This could make it the first ICC group to arrive. And the Indonesian leader was optimistic about prospects for success of the four-nation watchdog force, totaling 1,160 men, in holding down cease-fire violations. "My feeling is that if all parties sign the agreement with sincerity, and it appears to be so, it will be workable," Malik said.

Mom Wins Naval Battle

LEMOORE NAVAL AIR STATION, Calif. (AP) — Six months ago Kathleen Jensen decided to do something about changing Navy policy and went right to the top. She wrote a letter to Navy Chief of Staff Adm. Elmo Zumwalt and now she's become one of the first women to be allowed to re-enlist in the Navy after becoming a mother. An aviation administration apprentice, Mrs. Jensen now is awaiting orders to attend aviation maintenance school after which she will keep logs and records of aircraft and work in the technical library. Airman Jensen, 24, and her husband, Greg, 25, an aviation mechanic, met at Memphis Naval Air Station in 1966 and were married soon after. She became pregnant and her Navy career came to an end. Things went along smoothly and Greg was discharged in 1969. However, he found civilian life unchallenging and re-enlisted last year. This turn of events set the wheels spinning in Kathleen's head. If the Navy now allows women on ships, why couldn't they let women with children serve on active duty, she thought. Not wasting any time, she sat down and wrote a letter to Zumwalt. A week later the phone rang and the Bureau of Navy Personnel told her that she would be part of a pilot program to establish the feasibility of women with children serving in the Navy. By last November she was back in uniform and about to drop a big bomb on her unknown husband, who was on duty at sea. "Greg didn't even know I was back on active duty. I sent him a letter and he still believed they would ever get together," she said. "I had nagged him and complained so much he finally said, 'Go ahead and try it if you really want to, but if they turn you down, I don't want to hear another word,'" Kathleen said. "Everything happened so quickly that I didn't have time to write him and tell him I was back in the Navy. The day his ship pulled in I was in such a hurry to check out, pick up the kids and meet him, I just went in uniform. At first he was shocked — he was looking for me, not a Wave," she said. The couple has two children, Mark, 5, and Michael, 2. How strong is this urge to make the Navy a career? Airman Jensen says her and Greg's enlistments are up next year and they both plan to re-enlist. "He better re-enlist after I'm through all this," she said. Fitzgerald Gets His Hearing WASHINGTON (AP) — The man who, was fired from his $30,000-a-year job as "reprisal" for Air Force cost-cutting job after testifying about a $2-billion cost overrun on a huge transport plane today gets the public hearing he has sought for nearly four years. Other areas plagued by fog included Dalhart, Amarillo, Childress, San Angelo, Wink and Texarkana. A new cold front approaching through Arizona caused a heavy snow watch to be posted for the northern New Mexico mountains tonight. It was expected to set off scattered showers mixed with snow in the Texas Panhandle and possibly other parts of West Texas by Saturday.

UCLA Matches 60-Win Record

UCLA's Bill Walton Does It All... 32 Points, 27 Rebounds

John Wooden Gives Team Advice During Time Out In Chicago

By JERRY LISKA
CHICAGO (AP) — "Big Bill Walton does it all for top-ranked UCLA. And he had to do it again Thursday night as the somewhat pressured Bruins matched college basketball's longest winning streak of 60 games.

Walton's season high of 32 points and a whopping 27 rebounds steered UCLA to an 87-73 victory over lowly Chicago Loyola which didn't know it was licked until the closing minutes of a finale on a Chicago Stadium twin bill.

UCLA Coach Johnny Wooden, who takes his Bruins to Notre Dame Saturday to try for the magic 61st straight victory, said the 6-11 Walton turned in "his normal performance."

But it took all the wondrous Walton's shooting and defensive skill to offset 27 UCLA turnovers. They kept hustling Loyola in the game until a late spurt put the Bruins 17 points ahead at 79-62 with 5:41 remaining.

Although Notre Dame lost in Thursday night's opener to Illinois 87-84, Wooden cautiously looked ahead to Saturday's nationally televised game at South Bend—the scene of UCLA's last defeat, an 89-82 up set by the Fighting Irish on Jan. 23, 1971.

Loyola Coach George Ireland had a tip for any possible upset of UCLA after his Ramblers kept a partisan Chicago Stadium crowd of 15,817 howling for an upset until late in the game.

Milwaukee Bucks their second victim 129-125.

Despite a 48-point spree by Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, the Rockets fought off a furious rally by the Bucks to seal the victory.

Rudy Tomjanovich scored 29 points to lead the Rockets whose team total was the highest against Milwaukee this season.

The Bucks cut a 109-91 deficit with nine minutes to play to 124-119 with a minute to play. Mike Newlin then clinched it with a 20-foot jump shot.

In other NBA action, the Phoenix Suns defeated the Seattle SuperSonics 112-109, the New York Knicks struggled to top Buffalo 99-92 and Golden State defeated Kansas City-Omaha 129-115.

In the only game scheduled in the American Basketball Association, the Indiana Pacers edged the Kentucky Colonels 96-94.

Charlie Scott scored 34 points to lead the Suns and received a lot of help from Luther Green, who collared 15 rebounds.

The Knicks, apparently looking ahead to their weekend clash with Boston, were hard-pressed against Buffalo. Walt Frazier lead the Knicks in scoring with 23 points while Elmore Smith paced Buffalo with 21.

Rick Barry, still nursing a sprained ankle that forced him to miss the NBA All-Star Game, scored 30 points in less than three quarters and led Golden State past the Kansas City-Omaha Kings.

Fourteen of Barry's points came in the third quarter when the Warriors broke open a close game.

Nate Archibald of the Kings led all scorers with 39 points.

Indiana Pacer Coach Bob Leonard praised his no-name defense after the Pacers' one-point victory over the Colonels. "Miami has its no-name defense well. I've got Darnell Hillman."

Hillman scored 18 points and outrebounded Colonel star Dan Issel 17-9.

FOR 2ND HALF OPENERS

Pack Home, Rebels On Road

The second half of the District 5-4A basketball race opens tonight with seven teams taking dead aim at the Midland Lee Rebels who won the first half with a perfect 7-0 mark.

Coach Paul Stueckler's Rebels knocked off the Midland Bulldogs, defending loop champions, 59-55 in the MHS Gymnasium Tuesday to win the first half crown. The victory was Lee's 22nd in a row and the Rebs go into tonight's game with the Odessa Bronchos in Odessa with a 24-1 season record.

While the Rebels and Bronchos are going after each other in the OHS Fieldhouse, the Midland Bulldogs try the Odessa Permian Panthers in the MHS Gym and the Pack will be seeking revenge over Coach Rock Hutson's Black Cats. Permian scored a 53-51 upset over Coach James Cagle's Bulldogs in the opening game of the first half of the loop race.

Midland takes a 20-3 mark into the game and the Bulldogs wound up second behind Lee in the district race with a 5-2 mark in the first half.

Abilene Cooper and San Angelo battle in San Angelo while Abilene entertains Big Spring in Abilene in other 5-4A games. Odessa Permian and Big Spring will make up a game that was snowed out in the first half of the race with the game set for Saturday in Odessa.

OHS sports a 14-10 season record and wound up 4-3 in the loop race and the Bronchos have proven to be tough at home. Permian is 13-10 and wound up 2-4, losing four straight after posting wins over Midland and Abilene.

Abilene Cooper also sports a 13-10 season record and was 1-6 in the loop race after being picked for a third place finish in the pre-season poll.

Big Spring is 13-12 and 2-4 while San Angelo stands 10-13 and was 4-3 to share third place with OHS in the first half.

Play gets under way today with triple-headers set for the MHS and OHS Gyms with the sophomore teams getting together at 4:30 p.m. followed by the junior varsity games at 6:15 and the varsity tipoffs at 8 p.m.

OU Looks To Switzer

Fairbanks To Make Decision On Pros

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — If Switzer's expected promotion to head coach was less definite but quite possible. Players university of Oklahoma, the top contender would have to be Barry Switzer, Fairbanks' top assistant and offensive coordinator.

Fairbanks said Thursday there was a 99 per cent chance he would decide one way or the other today on a job offer from the New England Patriots.

His lawyer was in Boston to look over the contract. If it is satisfactory, Fairbanks said, he will sign.

Several high-speed university officials, silenced until Fairbanks' final decision, are known to favor the 35-year-old Switzer.

Switzer, an assistant coach at Arkansas for eight years and at Oklahoma for six, was interviewed concerning vacancies at both Southern Methodist and Michigan State this year.

Another factor in Switzer's favor is the time element. Time is running out in the all-important recruiting race. Big Eight signings start Feb. 13.

It's estimated the signing of a new coach would require one to two weeks.

Wade Walker, the athletic director, would make recommendations to the athletic council, which then makes a recommendation to Dr. Paul F. Sharp, the president. Sharp then makes the recommendation to the board of regents.

Dr. Alan Velle, chairman of the athletic council, emphasized it could not meet until a vacancy exists.

Dr. Sharp indicated he felt Fairbanks will take the job.

"We at the university would be keenly disappointed to lose what we consider to be a great football coach in Chuck Fairbanks," he said.

"However, we certainly can understand his desire to advance to the top of his profession, and the offer he has received sounds tremendous from every standpoint."

Details of the offer had not been revealed. The Patriots reportedly offered a five-year contract at $200,000 per year earlier to Penn State's Joe Paterno, who turned it down.

However, a source close to the club said the size of the offer was exaggerated. He said the offer was for $90,000 per year and 5 per cent of the public stock.

It seemed safe to speculate the annual salary would be more than three times the $28,500 Fairbanks gets at Oklahoma.

Fairbanks' team defeated Paterno's 14-0 in the Sugar Bowl. Switzer was in Odessa, Tex., recruiting when word of the Patriots offer reached him. He immediately booked air passage home.

Switzer was a center and linebacker at Arkansas. He captained the 1959 Southwest Conference championship team. After a service hitch, he became freshman coach under Frank Broyles at Arkansas.

Midland Athletic Director Thurman (Tugboat) Jones also has scheduled a coaching clinic for West Texas area coaches in Midland for next month and he says the response has been tremendous.

The El Paso Texas League baseball club will be the Sun Kings this year, returning to the tag they had while serving as a California Angel farm club a few years ago. They will be working with the Angels again this year after Los Angeles took its Sun Dodgers to Waterbury, Conn., of the Eastern League. Also the club announced that Norm Sherry would be back as manager. He handled the club last year when it was in Shreveport.

The Designated Hitter rule for the Texas League received enthusiastic approval at the Texas League meeting in Dallas last weekend.

Embarrassing Moments

But you didn't know there's a high school soccer league in Texas. Unbeaten Richardson is favored to win the post-season playoffs which come up next month.

Embarrassing moments... One of Texas big city papers published its AAAA all-state team in the morning and a writer on the afternoon edition seemed to remember reading something about one of the players who had been picked prior to the season. He called the coach and sure enough, the player had been injured, underwent surgery and didn't play a down all year.

Washington Redskins Coach George Allen was so uptight the week of the Super Bowl game that one player, unnamed naturally, said, "We should have left him in Washington."

El Paso is planning a 16,000-seat multi-purpose arena to be built adjacent to the Civic Center and to be used for college basketball, pro basketball, pro hockey, indoor track, boxing and wrestling. There also will be 250,000 square feet of space to be leased for specialty shops on a mall around the top floor of the arena.

Estimated cost is $7 to $10 million to be financed by revenue bonds at no cost to the taxpayer.

The matchup: 1-7; 2-6; 3-8; 4-4; 5-3; 6-10; 7-1; 8-9; 9-2; 10-5.

Casper Emerges From Debris

By BOB GREEN
PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Billy Casper surveyed the wreckage of his dismal, frustrating 1972 season and spoke in characteristic fashion. "Everything was on a downward ebb," he said. "I was playing bad, swinging bad, thinking bad. But it will probably make me a better individual."

"Now everything is on the upswing."

The 41-year-old Casper, who suffered the poorest season of his brilliant career last year, had jugged slowly through rain and mud and wind "and maybe a little sleet—just about everything except snow," to a 66 and, the first round lead Thursday in the prestige-laden Bing Crosby National Pro-Am Golf Tournament, offering $205,000 in total prize money.

"I didn't expect to play this well at all," he said. "I played very well and putted extremely well."

Casper, who said he benefited greatly from traditional "Crosby weather" that had other players talking to themselves—Arnold Palmer called it "miserable as hell"—had a two-stroke lead over Tom Weiskopf after his six-under-par effort.

Weiskopf at 68, was followed by veteran Don Massengale, now a club pro in New York's Westchester County, alone at 69. The group at 70, two under par, were big Bobby Nichols, Hubert Green and Bob Eastwood.

All the leaders were at Cypress Point, one of three Monterey peninsula courses being played under the unique format for this event. It's generally considered to be the easiest of the three and is the most sheltered from the weather.

Jack Nicklaus, who won this tournament and the U.S. Open at Pebble Beach last year, was disappointed and obviously unhappy after he could do no better than a rain-interrupted 71 on that layout. He was one of more than a dozen at that figure.

The 43-year-old Palmer matched par 72 at Cypress British Open champ Lee Trevino, who has a notorious dislike for cold, wet weather, went to 74 at Spyglass Hill. Australian Bruce Crampton, winner of the last two tour events who has a chance to become the first man in more than a decade to win three in a row, blew to a 77 at Pebble Beach.

OUT OF TROUBLE—Bobby Nichols, a former Midlander, explodes from a wet sand trap during a rainstorm Thursday to the 14th green at Cypress Point en route to a bogey in the opening round of the Bing Crosby National Pro-Am. He finished with a two-under-par 70, four strokes behind the pace-setting 66 carded by Billy Casper. (AP Wirephoto)

Struggling Sabre Rookie Triggers Hockey Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Buffalo (AP) — Jim Schoenfeld, Buffalo's rookie defenseman, was placed there on a hunch by Buffalo Coach Joe Burly, giving a difficult time living up to the performances of his teammates Gil Perreault and Rich Martin when they were in their first seasons in the National Hockey League.

But the 6-foot-2 Schoenfeld may have turned the corner Thursday night, when he scored until Minnesota's Dean Prentice was penalized for closing his hand on the puck after blocking a shot at 15:07 of the second period, was Buffalo's first of three within a 2:07 span that enabled the Sabres to overcome a 2-0 Detroit lead.

Ironically, Schoenfeld was playing forward at the time—the only occasion he played that position during the game.

Cooper Tops JV Standings On 7-0 Mark

Abilene Cooper took a 7-0 record in district play and a 19-1 mark for the season into tonight's Junior Varsity action against San Angelo.

Three teams, Midland Lee, Abilene and Midland High, were tied for second place at 5-2. Lee plays Odessa at 6:15 p.m. in the OHS gym and Midland will be trying to snap a two-game slump against Odessa Permian at 6:15 p.m. in the MHS gym.

In Tuesday's action, Willie Brown with 17 and Larry Bradford with 16 paced Cooper to a big early lead and then held off Abilene's last period surge. Jack King scored 13 and Ricky Calloway 12 for the Eagles.

Midland Lee waited until the fourth period and then lowered the boom on Midland, trailing 50-43 going into the final quarter. Lee outscored Midland 23-2 as Ronnie Farish scored 15 and Sammy Cox 12 to pace the Rebels. Michael Cobb tallied 17 for Midland.

Sam Snead Sets Pace

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP) — Sam Snead, attempting his sixth PGA Seniors Championship, carded a six-under-par 66 and took the first-round lead over the East Course of the PGA National Golf Club.

Julius Boros, also a former winner, was three shots back in second place. Last year Boros lost to Snead during the 36th renewal of the Seniors tourney when he three-putted the 18th green and bowed to the veteran White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., golfer by one stroke.

During Thursday's round Snead had seven birdies and a bogey, which he blamed on a lousy 7-iron shot at the fourth hole. He also complained he hit a bad shot over the green at the sixth hole and missed a five-footer at the eighth. However, he parred both.

Boros launched his charge early with three birdies at the fifth, sixth and seventh holes, but he wound up with a bogey on the ninth for a back-nine total of 34.

SAM HOUSTON VS. STEPHEN F. AUSTIN—

Top Small College Cagers Clash

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ
HOUSTON (AP) — Early this season Sam Houston State's Archie Porter pointed to arch-rival Stephen F. Austin's lofty rank in the AP small college basketball poll and said "I hope they're No. 1 when we play them because I think we've got a chance this time."

But the situation reversed itself going into Saturday's Lone Star Conference showdown in Nacogdoches — it's Porter's Bearkats who are ranked No. 1 in The Associated Press poll and Coach Marshall Brown's Lumberjacks are No. 2.

"I kind of wish I'd kept my mouth shut now," Porter told the Houston Sports Writers and Sportscasters Association. Porter said when he made the statement SHS was nowhere in the polls and he admitted "I was just trying to get some attention."

The Bearkats will get plenty of attention Saturday night when they invade tiny Shelton Gym which will be jammed with 3,500 fans or until the fire marshal closes the gates. Despite the No. 1 ranking, it will be an uphill battle for the Bearkats.

Stephen F. Austin, which finished third in the nation last year, has a gaudy 17-1 record and currently is one of the top scoring outfits in the country.

The Lumberjacks are averaging 95.3 points per game compared to 70.4 for the opponents for a comfortable 24.9 average victory margin. Sam Houston's average is 76.9-66.0 for a 10.9 average victory margin.

Besides SFA's more impressive statistics, the Bearkats have beaten Brown-coached teams only once in 14 years on the "Jacks' home turf at Nacogdoches. Brown's overall record is 18-8 against Sam Houston.

Porter, in his ninth year at SHS, feels the "Kats have played second fiddle to SFA long enough. Last year's team finished 22-4 and was second to SFA in the Lone Star Conference race. "They've been up there so long, I think you should pass good things around," Porter quipped.

Gabriel Grows At Hadl Swap

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The San Diego Chargers, John Hadl and Los Angeles Rams all are pleased—but Roman Gabriel apparently is unhappy that Los Angeles is a two-quarterback town again.

The Los Angeles Times said today it had learned Gabriel, silent since the Rams acquired Hadl from the Chargers, would hold a news conference today and ask to be traded—preferably to the Washington Redskins where he would rejoin former Ram Coach George Allen.

The Chargers traded the balding Hadl, their starting quar-

French Drivers Sweep In Rally

MONTE CARLO (AP) — France's Jean-Claude Andruet with co-driver Miss Michele Petit led a 1-2-3 sweep of Alpine Renaults to victory in the 42nd Monte Carlo Rally today.

Andruet was provisional winner by just 26 seconds from Sweden's Ove Andersson, who led a similar Alpine sweep in 1971, driving this year with France's Jean Todt.

The third works Alpine home after the second-by-second battle against the clock over seven speed tests on mountain passes was driven by Frenchmen Jean-Pierre Nicolas and Guy Vial, one minute 35 seconds behind the leader.

He lost time in the last test running out of gasoline.

Japanese Royalty May Visit America

TOKYO (AP) — Emperor Hirohito and Empress Nagako are likely to visit the United States, Canada and Mexico for a goodwill tour this fall, according to a newspaper report published today.

The Imperial Household Agency and the foreign ministry, however, refused to confirm or deny the report today in the mass-circulation Mainichi Shimbun.

There are at least 30,000 different species of fish in the world.

Greenwood School Sets Open House Of New Facilities

Melvin Williams, superintendent of the Greenwood Independent School District, announced today that the district will conduct an open house Sunday of its new junior-senior high school complex, completed in December at a cost of $662,000.

The new facility incorporates nine regular classrooms, mostly carpeted; a gymnasium-auditorium; a science laboratory; a home making laboratory; a woodworking, metals and automotive shop, and a cafeteria.

Williams said with the new facilities, he anticipates accreditation of the GISD next year as an approved 12-year system after 20 years as a grade school and junior high facility.

Until now, Greenwood students of high school age have attended Midland public schools on a tuition-paying basis. At present, seniors in the district still attend Midland High in order to graduate from a state-accredited high school.

"We're very proud of this; we don't feel like there's another one anywhere to compare with it," Williams said.

Greenwood School serves approximately 200 students.

Students Slate Magazine Sale

If a Midland High School student tries to sell you subscriptions to 210 magazines, don't panic.

The students are out to raise money to help finance the school's participation in the American Field Service program which brings a student from another nation here to attend school and sends one or more MHS students abroad for summer stays.

And if that is not enough sales motivation, the students also are competing for prizes — including a 10-speed bike — for those signing up the most subscriptions.

Actually, not many of the students would try for 210 subscriptions at once, says magazine sale chairman Tony Diaz, MHS student council vice president.

But the students will be able to take new subscriptions or renewals for any of 210 magazines between now and Feb. 6.

Upton, Reagan Stock Show Set

The annual Upton County 4-H Club Livestock Show at Rankin and the 41st annual Reagan County Junior Livestock Show at Big Lake both are scheduled Saturday.

Upton County agent Dub Day said he expects 80 youngsters to show stock in the afternoon exhibition at Rankin which will be climaxed with a barbecue sponsored by Rankin Lions Club at 6:30 p.m. and announcement of champions at 7:30 p.m.

Jake Shipp, chairman of the Rankin show, said Jim Prince of McCamey will be the auctioneer for the sale which will end up the event Saturday night.

At Big Lake, competition begins at 9 a.m. and will lead up to a 1:30 p.m. auction to be recalled by Bill Schneeman, Big Lake rancher.

Chairman Charles Jackson said about 25 youngsters will show animals in the Reagan County show.

Madden, 22, is a former patient of the Dallas County Mental Health and Mental Retardation Clinic. He is charged with the Nov. 25 killing of Mrs. Jo Anne Rue, 27.

Mrs. Rue was shot and left dead in the Lawnview Motel. Her traveling companions, Michael McKenna, 22, and Edward Kucinski, 24, both of Trenton, also were shot.

Police said both men had identified Madden from a photograph as one of the two men who broke into their room and shot them and Mrs. Rue.

However, during an examining trial Dec. 20, Dallas police investigator W. G. Johnson said the two men's assault was close to six feet tall and weighed 170 pounds. Madden is only 5 feet, 6 inches and 140 pounds.

Madden's attorney Van Ballew said he had been told by Assistant Dist. Atty. Richard Mays the grand jury had recalled by Bill Schneeman, Big Lake rancher.

Madden was released without bond, although charges against show animals in the Reagan County show.

Dear Abby

Here's A Switch—He's A Soap Opera Widower
—By Abigail van Buren

DEAR ABBY: You get lots of letters from "football widows." How about putting in a good word for "soap opera widowers?"

DEAR DOCTOR: I've been married three years. I used to call her every day on my lunch hour, and on my days off we used to go around and see the sights. On workdays I'd get off at 5 p.m. and come home to a clean house, smiling wife, and a good supper. Not anymore.

For the last five months I've been coming home to a messy house, a tv dinner and wife with a far-stained face. The reason she watches soap operas and worked on the roof of a neighbor's house. This neighbor I can't even call her on my lunch hour because she's in the middle of one of those shows and she doesn't want to miss even two minutes of it to talk to me.

I still love my wife, but it's getting to the point where I hate to come home. Please print this. Maybe Julia will see it and realize how I feel.

DEAR ABBY: I'd like to comment on the letter signed "Right or Wrong" from the wife who was mad at her husband because he was too tired to mow a lawn then he went next door and worked on the roof of a neighbor's house. This neighbor I can't even call her on my lunch hour because she's in the middle of one of those shows and she doesn't want to miss even two minutes of it to talk to me.

When the wife saw her husband working on her neighbor's roof she went over and hit him a good one with the dust mop, and you said it was a draw between which one was right or wrong.

DEAR WIDOWER: And what should never hit a man unless she doesn't see it? A message she is prepared to be hit back, as important as this should be I have never hit my wife, but telegraphed right over the home plate. Tell Julia how you feel. Also, that wife should find out Mister, and the sooner the better or you'll be starring in "Divorce Court" in real life together.

DEAR ABBY: Since your reading audience is vast, may I pass on some advice that is valuable, yet possibly not well known? It is regarding burns.

Not too many years ago, a physician burned his hand, and immediately immersed it in ice water. He found that the pain left while it was in the water, but what surprised him even more was that there was no blistering, redness, ulceration, or scarring.

He reported if you get off your chest, for the incident, and now many doctors order immediate ice baths until they can get there. The results have been amazing.

Gray Says Extremist Groups Still Active

WASHINGTON (AP) — Extremist groups—both black and white—continued to try to stir up racial unrest in 1972, acting FBI Director L. Patrick Gray III says.

In an annual report issued Thursday, Gray said "organizations, both black and white,

Talk On Indians Scheduled Today

A talk on the Tarahumara Indians, the famed "long distance runners" of Mexico, is scheduled for 7 p.m. today in the fellowship hall of First United Methodist Church in Downtown Midland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Cassel, who have spent considerable time among the Indians in their habitat in Mexico's Copper Canyon area, will present the lecture. Cassel also has written a book on the tribe.

Admission to the talk will be $1.50.

continued to be aimed at fomenting racial discord and represented a problem of grave concern."

Gray cited the Ku Klux Klan, the Secret Army Organization, the Black Panther Party, Black Liberation Army, the Weatherman, Students for a Democratic Society and Stokely Carmichael, former head of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

Gray, who replaced J. Edgar Hoover after his death last May, said the FBI's concerted drive against crime led to a record of more than 1,000 convictions of hoodlum, gambling and racket figures.

Also, Gray said the cases of approximately 3,000 other individuals, including syndicate leaders with organized crime, were in various stages of prosecution as of Jan. 1.

Gray added that the percentage of successful hijackings in 1972 was 29 per cent compared with 87 per cent in 1969. In the area of civil rights, Gray said investigations increased in 1972. He gave as examples the probes in the wounding of Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace and the killing of two students and the wounding of others at Southern University at Baton Rouge, La., Nov. 16, 1972.

No one knows exactly how or where the practice of hand-shaking began.

Authorities Hunt Man Indicted For Stock Fraud

HOUSTON (AP) — Harris and Brazoria county authorities hunted today for Edward L. Moragne of Houston, charged in five indictments involving the sale of $42,000 worth of stock in a Freeport firm.

The indictments were returned against Moragne by a Brazoria County grand jury Wednesday. Moragne allegedly told one buyer that the firm, Dehy Drex Corp., had patents on many inventions.

Four indictments charge Moragne, about 56, with sale of unregistered securities, sale of securities by an unregistered securities dealer and fraud in the sale of securities. The fifth charges fraud in the sale of securities and theft by false pretext.

Luncheon Honors Former Judge

Charles L. Klapproth, a native of Midland who served as judge of the 70th Judicial District here from 1927-38, was honored at a luncheon held today noon in the Hotel Scharbauer Ballroom.

The function, which came as a surprise to the retired judge, was arranged and staged by long-time friends and associates.

Perry D. Pickett, judge of the present 142nd District Court, Midland, presided at the informal meeting, at which good fellowship was the highlight.

Mrs. Klapproth and the judge's sister, Anna May Klapproth, also attended as special guests.

The event turned out to be the luncheon site for scores of judges, lawyers, law enforcement officers, courthouse personnel and others from over a wide area of West Texas.

Retired Justice Robert W. Hamilton of the Texas Supreme Court and a former judge of the 70th District Court, and retired Justice Cecil Collings of the Court of Civil Appeals at Eastland, also a former 70th District judge, headed an impressive guest list.

Dr. Timothy Guthrie, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, and Judge Klapproth's pastor, voiced the invocation at the luncheon.

Mrs. Nettie Romer, retired Midland County auditor and securities dealer and fraud in the sale of securities. The fifth charges fraud in the sale of securities and theft by false pretext.

Retired District Judge Louis Reed of Lamesa was another special guest.

Among other judges for whom reservations had been made were Ralph Caton of Big Spring, Ray McKim and C. V. Milburn, both of Odessa, Charles Sherrill of Fort Stockton, William H. Earnley of Marfa, and J. H. Starley of Pecos. The list also included former area district judges, including Garland Casebier and William L. Kerr, both of Midland; Paul McCollum and George Kelton, both of Odessa, and others.

Scrolls signed by those persons attending the luncheon were presented to Judge Klapproth as mementoes of the occasion. A more formal scroll reflecting courthouse signatures, including those of most members of the Midland and Ector bar associations also went to the honoree.

Another scroll presented to him had a picture of the old Midland County Courthouse and was titled "Well Done, Judge Charles L. Klapproth, 1927-1938."

The honoree responded briefly following the presentations. Both the honoree and his wife were graduated from Midland High School. Klapproth then enrolled at The University of Texas and there received his law degree. His father was a prominent early day saddle and harness maker here. The judge was born across the street south from the present First United Methodist Church property.

After earning his law degree, Klapproth returned to Midland and soon thereafter was elected Midland County judge. He served several terms in that office before he was elected judge of the 70th Judicial District, which then included counties from Pecos on the west to Stanton on the east and including Crane and Glascock counties.

In 1929, the counties to the far west were placed in a new 109th Judicial District. Howard County was placed in the 70th District at that time.

Long-time friends and associates attending the luncheon recalled that Judge Klapproth al-

Police Probe Three Thefts

Three thefts reported Thursday to Midland police were being investigated today.

David C. Recknagel, 3800 Fanin St., told patrolmen Thomas Ray Wilkins and Shirley Young that two tool boxes and an assortment of tools worth $300 were taken from the trunk of his car Thursday night.

Earlier in the afternoon, an employee of Huckabay Chevrolet Inc., 4100 W. Wall St., discovered a tire and four wheel covers had been stolen from a car parked in the dealer's used car lot. The missing items are valued at $122.60.

The third theft occurred between 5 p.m. Wednesday night and early Thursday morning.

Dale Buchor, 207 Howard Dr., a Lee High School student, said a stereo tape deck and speakers worth $37 were taken from his car while it was parked at his home.

ways called his shots the way he saw them without any foolishness. He was termed "an outstanding district judge."

Numerous cases of tremendous importance in state judicial circles were tried before Judge Klapproth during his years on the bench.

It also was recalled that Judge Klapproth was on the bench when oil was discovered in Winkler County and during the days when Pecos was the supply metropolis and Wink was a real boom town, and court cases were numerous.

Klapproth's district attorneys included Henry Russell, Roy Biggs, Bob Smith and Bob Hamilton.

Judge Collings, formerly of Big Spring, succeeded Judge Klapproth on the bench. He, in turn, was succeeded by the late Paul Moss of Odessa, who was succeeded by Justice Hamilton.

Bill Deadrick of Odessa. He was followed by Paul McCollum of Odessa. Judge Pickett succeeded McCollum.

A number of area cities were represented at today's session.

Soviet Union Says It's Ready To Join In Peace Conference

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union is prepared to participate in the international peace conference to guarantee the end of the war in Vietnam, a foreign ministry official said today.

But the official said he did not yet know the date and place of the conference provided for in Article 19 of the Paris agreement to be signed Saturday.

Western sources said the conference is to be held within 30 days of the signing — probably in Paris, the site of Vietnam peace negotiations since May 1968.

The purpose of the conference, the peace agreement states, is to:

“Acknowledge the signed agreements, guarantee the ending of the war, the maintenance of peace in Vietnam, the respect of the Vietnamese people's fundamental national rights, and the South Vietnamese people's right to self-determination and to contribute to and guarantee peace in Indochina.”

The United States and North Vietnam “will propose,” the agreement says, participation of the Soviet Union, China, France, Britain, the Saigon Government and the Viet Cong — as well as the four members of the cease-fire control commission — Canada, Poland, Hungary and Indonesia.

It was not yet known in Moscow whether formal invitations had been sent, but Western sources said they might be withheld until the agreement was signed.

Meantime, the Soviet press has published the text of the

Aerobics Clinic Opens Tonight

The Midland Central YMCA will sponsor an aerobics clinic tonight and Saturday which is open to the public at no charge.

Russell A. Harris, director of the Aerobics Activity Center in Dallas, will conduct the clinic.

Aerobics are exercises that stimulate heart and lung activity for a specific period of time.

The clinic opens from 7-9 p.m. today at the Y with a lecture and slide presentation entitled “Introduction to Aerobics.”

From 9-11:30 a.m. Saturday, a session in the gymnasium will include an aerobics film, practical participation in an exercise program and fitness testing.

agreement initialled in Paris on Tuesday. Commentary with it stresses the settlement as a victory for Vietnamese Communists and their foreign supporters.

Overall, Soviet press comment has been restrained.

Classes Slated On Real Estate

An 11-week course in subdividing and developing non-urban real estate is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. Monday in Room 434 of Lee High School.

The course is offered by Midland College and will be taught by Ed. L. Dillon, a real estate broker and instructor in the adult education program.

The course is designed for persons already in real estate who wish to increase their knowledge of land developing and marketing practices, as well as for the layman who is interested in the subject. There is no prerequisite for the course.

Classes will meet on Monday of each week for three hours. Fee for the course is $33. Additional information is available by contacting Midland College at 683-5321.

Ex-Mayor Declares Public Obnoxious

ENDERLIN, N.D. (AP) — Think being a mayor of a city is fun?

Then talk to the mayor of Enderlin.

Berentje Pohlman recently resigned from the mayor's office.

Asked why, she said: “I resigned because the public is so obnoxious and overbearing. For $25 a month I cannot afford to listen to the public make asinine complaints.”

Lao Leader Claims U.S. Support Pledge

VIENTIANE (AP) — The Laotian government has assured that the U.S. Air Force will resume bombing Communist forces if they break a cease-fire agreement in Laos, Prince Souvanna Phouma, the prime minister, said today.

Any violation would be grounds for asking the American Air Force to intervene, he said.

He said he was assured U.S. air support would continue after the cease-fire in Vietnam on Sunday until a cease-fire in Laos, which he said could come within 15 days.

Souvanna said that despite the failure of the 1954 and 1964 Geneva agreements to keep peace in Laos he was confident about the new Paris agreement.

“I think the Paris agreement will be respected by all sides. Today we are not in the same situation as in 1962-63. The world is now living in an atmosphere of detente,” he said.

Work Crews Ready Truce Team's Base

SAIGON (AP) — Work crews day — 6 p.m. CST Saturday. The four countries in the truce force — Canada, Poland, Hungary and Indonesia — are to send at least 70 men each in less than 48 hours.

The remainder of the 290 men from each country will arrive between Feb. 11 and 26. They will be stationed at various points in South Vietnam to report cease-fire violations back to the single-story headquarters offices near the Red Cross building at Tan Son Nhut.

Painters and garbage collectors also were at work sprucing up the headquarters.

American helicopters that once fired rockets and bullets on Viet Cong and North Vietnamese troops were also being transformed into carriers for the commission and the military commission of U.S., Viet Cong and North and South Vietnamese members charged with implementing the cease-fire.

Less than a mile away, other crews prepared two-story green wooden barracks that once housed Air Force men for use by personnel of the International Commission of Control and Supervision.

An Army MP stood guard just inside the barbed wire fence ringing the peacekeeping team's new quarters between the main Air Force PX and the base's Mexican restaurant.

While he was telling a newsmen the area was “restricted and classified,” an Army truck with clean sheets drove inside.

The cease-fire agreement goes into effect at 8 a.m. Sun-

U.S. Military Men Doubtful Of Truce Force's Efficiency

WASHINGTON (AP) — “If we couldn't keep track of North Vietnamese infiltration with all the people and equipment we used, how is the international commission going to do it with so much less?”

The Army officer asking this question expressed the disbelief of many U.S. military professionals about the effectiveness of the machinery being set up to supervise the Vietnam cease-fire.

Behind them are years of frustration trying to cope with a flow of North Vietnamese infiltrators into South Vietnam.

Cite Green Berets' Failure

Some officers recall there were 54 Green Beret camps spread all along the border; there were various kinds of exotic sensors and night-vision devices, and still the Americans never really could control infiltration.

The new International Control Commission, made up of Canadians, Poles, Hungarians and Indonesians, will have six teams posted at wide intervals along the hundreds of miles of South Vietnam's border with Cambodia and Laos and the Demilitarized Zone separating North and South Vietnam.

Another seven teams will be tabbed for duty at additional inland points of entry to be chosen later. Still another seven teams, which will be concerned with return of prisoners for the first 60 days of the cease-fire.

That would add up to a possible 20 teams, most of them numbering eight men each, to watch over a long inland border masked to a large extent by deep jungle.

The plan also calls for 26 other teams of the same size to be based throughout South Vietnam to prevent troops already in the country from violating the cease-fire.

Over-all, the international commission will number 1,160 officers and men. But about half will be at headquarters keeping records.

Supplementing the international group will be a temporary joint military commission made up of representatives of the United States, North Vietnam, the South Vietnamese and the Viet Cong.

After U.S. troops are withdrawn and all prisoners exchanged within 60 days, this four-party group will disappear and a smaller commission composed only of military men from the rival Vietnamese sides will replace it.

This joint-Vietnamese military commission, which is supposed to conduct preliminary investigations of truce violations, will also have 26 small teams spread throughout South Vietnam.

The peace agreement and its many implementing documents are silent on any enforcement authority for the international commission or the joint military commission.

Their powers are “to deter and detect violations... to carry out necessary observations and investigations,” and to be “a forum to settle differences.”
