4TH QUARTER
NO 2

Amarillo, Texas, May 2, 1900.

25c PER MONTH

Washington, D. C.—May 2. Fair tonight, cooler tomorrow. Temperature at Amarillo at 7 o'clock this morning, 52.

p. d. q.

A Daniel was hard to find to day. Making a hurried demand of J. L. Smith the reporter was told that if he was on a "p. d. q." errand the request would be granted. "What's that?" Mr S's wife being present, he referred to bro's. Mason, Whitehurst or Burrow for the interpretation. Bro Mason stared at the inscription on the wall of the reporter's book, and thought it had better be boxed and buried.

With that rebuff from the clergy, Mr. Don A. Sweet, a science man, was appealed to. He figured, muttering "p d q" and shook his head, and declared he was reasonably familiar with all cypher dispatches, and knew he could read this one, but for the fact it was in a foreign language.

Next assailed was a man of letters, Prof. Hamlin. He glared at the initials ominously, and said "it is English, but obsolete." "Obsolete?" said the reporter, reaching for his hip pocket, "don't you give me another hard one—have now all I can tote!" "No, beg pardon, it is not obsolete, it has gone simply out of use—you see it is this way," said the professor, without taking a breath to punctuate a single word, "you see, a long time ago, when I quit swearing that "p" stood for "pretty," "d" is an abbreviation of that now-forgotten word "d-n"—and "q" stands for "quick" in case of any—emergency!"

Smith has whacked up, according to promise—and Hamlin is now basking in the renown and name of "Daniel."

Acknowledging to a Trust.

The following correspondence will be read with interest—names omitted for obvious reasons:

Chicago April 26, 1900.

Messrs. Smith, Walker & Co.,
Amarillo, Texas.

Gentlemen:—

Your valued favor of the 21st inst., has our attention, and in response beg to say we cannot honor your order for the reason that we are not making any shipments to the state of Texas, unless we receive cash in advance for such goods as are called for.

A _____, will cost you $7 00 net, therefore, if you will kindly forward us a remittance covering the cost of the _____ that you are wanting, we shall be pleased to make shipment, with as little delay as possible.

We are very sorry indeed, that it becomes necessary to ask you for money in advance, as we would be pleased to honor your order for almost any reasonable amount if you were doing business in any other state, but under your existing "Anti-Trust" Law, we are precluded from extending any credit, and have been obliged to ask all our old agents to send a remittance with any order that they wished to have shipped.

Yours truly,

Amarillo, Texas, Apr. 30, 1900.

Chicago, Ill.

Dear sir:—Referring to your's of 26, inst., we enclose draft for $7.00 payment in advance of our order, 21st inst.

We note what you say with reference to our "Anti-Trust" Law, also that your action indicates, to your mind, it applies to your company. The people of Texas, with a few exceptions, are proud of that law and hope to see every state in the Union adopt it.

Yours truly,

SMITH, WALKER & CO.
Per J. L. SMITH.

To point to these facts as indication of the passing of prosperity would be trifling with language. There has been no prosperity to pass, in any general or substantial sense. Speculative prosperity there has been. Trust prosperity there has been. Prosperity for some people and in some spots there has been. There has also been a general demand for goods to fill the shelves that a long period of acknowledged depression had slowly emptied, just as on one or two other occasions during that period such a demand has sprung up. But with the average man the same industrial conditions exist now that existed four years ago. There has never been a day when it did not require a microscope to discover individual prosperity outside the trust area; and as to general prosperity it has existed no where outside the headlines of yellow newspapers and editorials of party papers and trade organs. The possibility of keeping up the fraudulent cry of "prosperity" is daily weakening, and of this fact the steel trusts affairs, with its stoppage of production and cut down of prices, must be to some a startling bit of proof.—The Public.

Pringree Becomes A Democrat.

Detroit, Mich., April 29.—Gov. Pringree asserted in an interview today that the hope of the people in this year's general election is in the Democratic party. The Governor has always heretofore been an independent Republican. Speaking of the increased power of trusts, Gov. Pringree said:

"There is no use in hoping that the Republican party will do anything with them."

"Are you preparing to announce your withdrawal from the Republican party?" the Gov. was asked.

"There is no announcement about it. I only say what I have said all the while. You haven't heard me say anything against the Democrats for some time. I believe that the hope of the people is in the Democratic party this fall."—Dallas News.

Kansas City, Mo., April 29.—William L. Wilson, author of the Wilson tariff bill, while in this city en route from Hot Springs to Nebraska City, Neb., where he is to be the guest of J. Sterling Morton, his assistant in Cleveland's cabinet said:

"It is to be McKinley and Bryan. Mr. Cleveland will not allow his name to be mentioned, and Dewey will not get an opportunity to see himself voted down. Bryan will be nominated, but conditions are so changed that the campaign will be on the new lines. Both sides has so many new conditions to confront that the old tactics will not do. I think the Democrats will win. We shall go into the solid."—Dallas News.

Kansas City Mo., April 29.—Ex-Governor William J. Stone, Democratic national committeeman from Missouri, expressed opinion that Mr. Bryan would be nominated by acclamation. In reply to a question, he said he would not be a candidate for the vice presidential nomination.

"Where, in your opinion, should the principal fight of the campaign managers be waged?"

"Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, New York, Minnesota and California are the States I would regard as debatable ground. If Mr. Bryan holds the States he carried in 1896 and secures either of the large States—New York, Ohio, Indiana or Illinois—he will win."—Dallas News.

The shutting down of so many plants of one of the great steel trusts was prompted by the superior insight of its managers into business conditions. The board voted unanimously on the 21st to make a heavy cut in prices. They took off $20 a ton from the prices of all their products except annealed fence wire, which they reduced by $18. Wire nails they reduced from $3.20 to $2.20 a keg—equal to one cent a pound, and barbed wire from $3.80 to $2.80 a hundred pounds. Their reduction on galvanized fence wire was from $3.55 to $2.50 a hundred pounds. These reductions were made for the acknowledged purpose of working off the over production of goods and materials on hand.—The Public.
