Many Sutton County Ladies Attend News Cooking School

Methodist Missionary Society Wins Award For Securing Most Registrations

Two hundred and eight women were guests of the NEWS, Sonora firms and national food manufacturers Monday and Tuesday at the Happy Kitchen Cooking School conducted by Mrs. Johnetta Howard of Southern Newspaper Features, Dallas, in the high school auditorium.

Useful gifts contributed by those sponsoring the school were distributed each day at the conclusion of the lecture and demonstration period. On the second day the food that Mrs. Howard had prepared was also given away.

Ladies of the Methodist Missionary Society were awarded $5 by the NEWS Tuesday afternoon for their efforts in securing more registrations of ladies attending the school than their opponents, the ladies of the Baptist society. On the first day of the school the registrations were: Baptist, 36; Methodist, 54. The next day the Methodist registrations of 64 were only ten in excess of those secured by the Baptist ladies.

THE NEWS WANTS TO SAY

"Thank You"

To everyone who co-operated in the Happy Kitchen Cooking School Monday and Tuesday the NEWS wants to express its appreciation. NEWS sponsored as it was the School could not have been held without the assistance of Sonora business people and nationally known food manufacturers. The NEWS is especially grateful to Mr. Covey, superintendent of schools, and the school board for use of the auditorium—an ideal location for the school.

We Thank You All!

The "score" in the registrations contest for the two days was: Methodist Missionary Society 118; Baptist Missionary Society 90.

A sheet on which was printed recipes of many of the things Mrs. Howard cooked was distributed each afternoon. Part of these recipes will be printed in the NEWS this week and the remainder next Friday.

Mrs. Howard left Sonora Wednesday noon for Dallas. She will have a school at Duncanville, near Oak Cliff, Dallas suburb, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Before coming here she had been in charge of schools in Ozona, Fort Stockton and Marfa. In those places the project was sponsored by the Ozona Stockman, the Fort Stockton Pioneer and the Big Ben Sentinel.

SAM HULL SETS APRIL 29 FOR ANNUAL GARAGE BALL

The date has been announced.

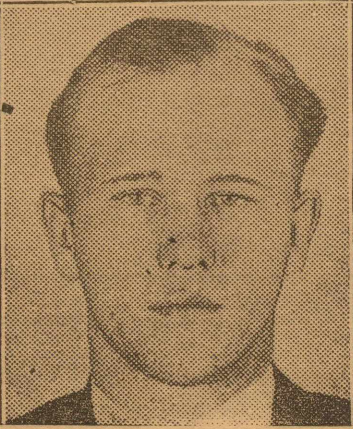

Query after query has come to Sam Hull of Sonora Motor Co. Some have called on the phone, a man from Mason asked the other day and said a whole party was coming.

So Mr. Hull, in self defense as one might say, has set Monday night, April 29, as the date for his annual "Motor Co." dance.

It's an annual party that people here, there and everywhere look forward to with interest. Everyone has a good time and everything is free. As Mr. Hull says it:

"You're expected to be there."

Lieutenant Nabbed

Most hunted of southwest outlaws, Raymond Hamilton, lieutenant of Clyde Barrow, released from the state penitentiary in a break engineered by Barrow, was captured Friday night in the Fort Worth railroad yards. A note which Hamilton wanted delivered in Dallas proved his undoing when officers intercepted it and arrested the messenger who led them to the railroad yards where Hamilton was found with a group of other men.

Grocery Firm Gets More Floor Space

Piggly Wiggly Occupying Two of Kirkland Storerooms

Work of rearranging the interior of the Piggly Wiggly store of which Earl Lomax is manager was started Saturday and will be completed within the next few days.

The wall between the space formerly occupied by the store and the Trainer Beauty Shop location was removed and the grocery will now use the double storeroom made available. The beauty shop business, operated by Miss Grace Trainer, was moved to the adjoining storeroom used at Christmas time by the City Variety Store.

The enlarged space made available for the store will be used for both display and storage. Storage space will be provided in the rear, behind a partition which extends the width of the building. The checking counter will be located near the center of the store and the door formerly used by the beauty shop will provide a second entrance. Exit from the store will be from the corner door.

Mr. Lomax has been manager of the store, owned by Mrs. E. M. Kirkland, since 1932 when he came here from Rocksprings. The store was established several years before that time.

The secretary was instructed to send letters to all clubs of the district urging the election of Mr. Stokes at the Laredo convention in May.

GEORGE MADDOX UNHURT IN FALL FROM TOWER

Up and about with little trace of his experience was George Maddox, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Maddox, who fell twenty or twenty-five feet from the steel tower on the Junction highway Tuesday afternoon.

Young Maddox was higher than either Edgar Reese or Edward Earl Kring who were also engaged in "human fly" activities at the tower. Reese said that he heard Maddox's body hit the ground. He was not unconscious but merely whimpered slightly as he was brought to town by Reese.

John Merck, high school pupil, underwent a tonsillectomy in Sonora Wednesday.

Station A Sonora Team Plays Ellis Parts First Game

Ozona, Permian Basin Entrant, Goes Down to 7 to 6 Score in Ozona Sunday

Sonora's entrant in the Concho Basin League, a team made up chiefly of Humble employees, plays its first league game of the year in San Angelo Sunday when it clashes with the Ellis Parts nine.

At the same time Miles will be playing at Ballinger. Veribest has an open date. Last Sunday Veribest defeated Miles by a 4 to 3 score while Ellis Parts was chalking up a victory over Ballinger by an 8 to 5 score.

The Ozona team of the rival league, Permian Basin, managed for only five hits Sunday against the pitching of Buck White, left-handed artist of the Station A Sonora team. The local team scored first in the second inning by way of a hit batter, a double, an error and a squeeze play.

Ozona scored next by way of errors by Ratliff and Archer of the Station A team and a single Brown, Ozona first baseman.

White of the Station A Sonora team pitched masterful ball, allowing Ozona only five scattered hits, issuing two walks and striking out ten men. Ratliff, Gardner and W. McLeod, secured three hits, two hits and two hits, respectively, to aid their pitcher and teammates.

J. K. Cooper, Ozona pitcher, was wild at times, giving seven walks to first and hitting three batters. He struck out eight batters, however, despite the fact that he was hit hard at various times throughout the game. His teammates, Dorley playing third base, and Brown playing first base, wielded (Continued on page 8)

Tulsa People Hurt in Auto Accident

Woman, 69, Breaks Thumb in Car Wreck West of Town

Although his speed was said to be only about twenty-eight miles an hour it was sufficient to cause the car of R. C. McCormick of Tulsa, Okla., to overturn Wednesday morning when it hit loose gravel seven miles west of Sonora.

Mr. McCormick, a World War veteran, and his mother, Mrs. Agnes L. Gunn, were on their way from California where he had been for a year and a half on account of his health, to McAllen, Texas. They spent Tuesday night in Fort Stockton.

Mrs. Gunn who says she is sixty-nine and was never in a motor car accident before suffered a broken thumb on her right hand, a cut near the corner of her left eye and bruises. Her son suffered bruises and lacerations.

After their accident they decided to give up their trip to McAllen and, as soon as their car is repaired, go to Tulsa where Mrs. Gunn's daughter, Miss Lillian M. Edwards, is employed by the Turman Oil Co.

Highway Department Warehouse Property, Serving as Planting Laboratory, Expected Eventually To Be Sutton County Garden Spot

Four hundred and eleven plants of many types are being used at the warehouse of the State Highway Department on the Ozona highway to make of the grounds surrounding the building one of the most attractive spots in Sutton county.

The land being used by the state department contains 60,000 square feet and, according to H. L. Taylor, section forman in charge of the warehouse and the men who maintain the highways of this section, might be termed an experimental laboratory designed to test out various types of plants which may be used to beautify highways of this section.

Among the plants of the shrub and small tree class that are planted there are the tamarack (from the Pecos River section), senesa (sage), gray sage and bird of paradise. Spanish dagger, rat-tail cactus, all-thorn cactus, live oak trees and climbing rose bushes are also found there. The rose bushes are being trained to the fence around the property.

Motor Trucks To Be Hidden

There are ninety-two Spanish dagger plants along the fence. A tamarack hedge, from the building to the fence, will, in the course of time, hide essential but somewhat unsightly motor equipment which must be stored at the rear of the place. It will eventually be ten feet high. A "hot bed" is germinating live oak acorns and algerita.

"Yes, it is somewhat of a laboratory," Mr. Taylor explained the other day to a visitor, "and we expect to learn a lot from it. Of course, we give things here the best of attention. That is not always possible along the highways but we can get a good idea here of what a plant will do—or will not do—along the road.

"We watch everything carefully and note just what it is doing or is not doing. It's all in line with the state department's plan of beautifying Texas highways—something that cannot be done all at once but which must be taken a little at a time. Let's go in and see the department's blueprints of its highway beautification plans."

Department's Plans Detailed

The visitor was then shown detailed and carefully worked out plans of making more attractive the roads over which Texans and visitors to and through Texas travel. Jac L. Gubbels is landscape architect for the department and Gibb Gilchrist, state engineer.

The department has plans for beautifying roadside service station property or any highway stretch that some individual or organization is sufficiently interested in to co-operate with the department in its work. If he, or the organization, will permit they will advise and will do right-of-way and other work in connection with his property. Any unsightly thing will be considered and work done toward making it more presentable.

In regard to its own work of beautifying the highways of Texas, Mr. Taylor explained that a definite plan has been evolved for each of the many problems encountered. A railroad overpass requires certain treatment. Various types of curves, judged from an engineering standpoint, take certain types of planting. The motorist (and Mr. Taylor's visitor had never thought of this—had you?) can judge distances better if he has trees or plantings at the side of the road to guide him. The department has found, too, that on cer-

MOVEMENT PROPOSED FOR AUSTIN CITY AUDITORIUM

Austin, April 11.—An effort is being made here by District Judge Charles A. Wheeler and others to launch a movement for the construction, in time for the Texas Centennial celebrations of 1936, of a downtown auditorium or convention hall to be erected either by the city of Austin, or by popular subscription.

As a site, there has been suggested the half block of property, fronting on Ninth Street, between Colorado and Lavaca Streets. This property is owned by Travis county, having been purchased at one time as a site for the courthouse. Judge Wheeler proposes that a deal be worked out whereby the county would give a 50-year lease on the property as a site for the proposed convention hall.

"By preparing herself Austin can attract thousands of the Centennial visitors," declared Judge Wheeler.

"Loop" Drive Plan Proposed in Alpine

Centennial Visitor To Be Told of West Texas Beauty

Alpine, April 11.—A movement to attract Texas Centennial visitors of 1936 to this section, in which the co-operation of all cities and towns of southwest Texas will be sought, has been launched following a conference held by H. W. Morelock, president of Sul Ross College and B. F. Berkeley of Alpine with citizens of other interested communities.

It is proposed that visitors to the Texas Centennial exposition be encouraged to make a "loop drive," traversing this section, including all towns between San Antonio and El Paso, via U. S. Highway No. 90, while the return trip, completing the loop will take them from El Paso to Carlsbad Caverns, to San Antonio over the Bankhead and Old Spanish Trail highways, Pecos, Fort Stockton, Sonora, Kerrville and other points being on that route.

Space in an appropriate building at the central exposition would be secured, where colored slides, showing points of interest in each of the towns on the loop drive could be shown continuously during the exposition. Some 50,000 illustrated booklets, in colors, would be distributed from the exhibit and several thousand feet of motion picture film of this section displayed.

A display booth at the exposition where the towns could display paintings of scenery in this section, such as that of the Chisos Mountains, where a state park is being developed in this county, and of the Davis Mountains, north of this place, would be secured. The two paintings mentioned and now being completed will be exhibited by Sul Ross college.

Subscriptions from the chambers of commerce of towns along the route, ranging from $250 to $1000 would be asked to finance the project, while contributions from individuals and industries are expected to aid.

Needy Man Discovers Dollar Is Worth $2,500

Spokane.—P. I. Newman, unemployed the last four years, found an 1804 dollar among his change and asked a bank teller about its value. Pointing out that it was badly worn, the teller offered him "a good dollar" for it. Then Newman took his dollar to the Federal Reserve bank where, he said, they told him it was worth $2,500.

MANY STATES CALL ON TEXAS FOR INSTRUCTORS

Austin, April 11.—Requests for public school and college teachers, filed with the University of Texas Teachers' Appointment Committee during the year ending January 31, 1935 practically doubled the number of calls during the preceding year, according to Miss Miriam Dozier, secretary of the committee.

The total number of calls for teachers was 1,214, as compared with 853 applicants for teaching positions. A total of 672 positions were filled by the committee.

The calls for teachers come not only from Texas educational institutions but also from other parts of the country. A total of 65 calls were made from other states, including one each from Georgia, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Keep Weather Records Both tree rings and varves are mute witnesses to weather fluctuations. Very old trees show thick and thin rings. Layers of clay, called varves, found in the former beds of ancient lakes fed by melting ice sheets, form another record. These layers are due to the annual deposit of sediment. Thick layers were deposited in warm summers when melting was rapid, and thin layers in cool summers.

Dogs not only know the meaning of many words and phrases, but can distinguish between words of similar sound. Science service reports that experiments proving this fact have been made by Dr. Emanuel Sarris at the Institute for Environment Research at Hamburg, Germany. Among the dogs used in the experiments were two named Aris and Haris. Neither would respond when called by the name of the other. The dogs were taught simple words and phrases and therefore recognized them under the most confusing circumstances.

Portion of April Relief Funds Sent Texas Counties

Remainder of April Funds Will Be Dependent on Washington Activities

Austin, April 11.—Checks totaling approximately $2,888,521, representing a portion of relief grants for April, were sent from the offices of the Texas Relief Commission and the state comptroller to counties last week. This amount will include $1,000,000 from federal general relief funds, $750,000 from state general relief funds and $1,138,521 from federal rural rehabilitation funds.

"Again we have drained the till and further grants during April will depend upon the assistance Washington can give us," said Adam R. Johnson, state relief director.

Administrators, therefore, were cautioned to watch their funds closely and instructed not to overspend the amounts budgeted to various programs. The April relief budget, when and if money becomes available, has been earmarked as follows:

General relief, $4,259,718; capital goods, $1,742,161; rural subsistence, $534,882; school lunches, $119,333; hospitalization, $17,692; total, $6,673,786. Source of these funds is as follows:

State general relief, $750,000; federal general relief, $3,646,743; rural rehabilitation, $2,277,043. State and federal general relief funds will go to clients as outright grants, but rural rehabilitation funds will be loaned.

About April 15, checks will be sent to cover needs of the counties for the last half of the month, provided money is available from Washington. According to the April budget total, this amount will be $3,785,265; however, unencumbered cash balances in the counties as of April 1 will be subtracted from amounts they are scheduled to receive for the last half of the month.

FARMERS SHOULD HAVE GOVERNMENT BULLETIN AS DUST PREVENTIVE

Uncle Sam thoughtfully reminds us, through the Department of Agriculture, that the great dust-storms which lately have made life miserable far from the dusty states which gave rise to them, are to a large degree preventable. A bulletin, prepared by Dr. Charles E. Kellogg, acting chief of the soil survey bureau of the department, issued for the benefit of farmers in the dusty region, lists measures which, if widely employed on the farms, may be expected to reduce soil blowing to an extent which will render dust-storms a comparatively localized and innocuous phenomenon.

The solution lies in devoting to pasture and sod crops those soils most subject to blowing, together with effective tillage methods on the lands less vulnerable to wind. Dr. Kellogg recommends supplementary measures of control which many of the more progressive farmers of Kansas and the Dakotas—the birthplace of the dust-storm—are now using. These include the use of special types of plows and cultivators, the planting of shelter belts, more carefully planned crop rotation and better control of grazing.

The chief cause of the dust-storms of this year, says Dr. Kellogg, was the severe drouth, as a result of which soils which are susceptible to blowing were in a loose and dry state, and as a further result of the drouth had little or no protective covering. Continued severe drouth will lead to further soil-blowing, he warned.

The price of the bullet is five cents. Doubtless we could make up by public subscription enough money to furnish a free copy to every farmer in the Dakotas, Kansas, Minnesota, Nebraska and Colorado. — Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

tain types of curves there should be no planting on the "inside" except those whose trunks may be trimmed high enough to permit clear vision.

Much Work Done Near Here At the "reverse curve" near the Texas Company bulk station on the Del Rio highway seven trees have been planted. Most of these are hackberry. A "reverse curve" may require as many as 150 trees. More will be planted at this curve next fall and winter.

At "4-mile curve," a few miles out on the Del Rio road, a rock wall four feet square has been built. It is built of large rocks and has three feet of soil in it. Cactus and other plants are to be placed in the soil contained in the wall. Near the curve is a roadside park development.

Mr. Taylor says that in Crockett county alone he and his men have planted 140 seneca plants behind signs and bridges. Ninety-seven tamaracks are being used on the same stretch. During the last two years more than a thousand plants have been planted in Mr. Taylor's territory along the Del Rio highway.

"Mortality" Rate Believed Good "We believe," Mr. Taylor said, "that about ninety per cent of them will live. However, the average has been found to be about forty-five per cent. Watering of plants is done regularly by our men. They are tended carefully and we have every reason to expect the plants we set out will grow."

Mr. Taylor's district includes from Ozona to the Llano River and from the Edwards county line to the Tom Green county line. Besides himself the following are employed:

Hilton Tuney, utility man; W. R. Gilliam, mechanic; Monroe Crowell, Cal Ory, Preston Bailey, Marion Adams, E. J. Hollmig, truck drivers; W. A. Ezell, maintainer operator; A. E. Barefoot, gang foreman; S. E. Adams, asphalt worker; George Potter, powder man; Jodie Tammen, blacksmith; L. E. Quisenberry, Arthur E. Tree, Jess Barton, Chester Minnick, T. E. Andrews, J. M. Merriman, Foyd Dungan, C. W. West, laborers.

As Mr. Taylor's visitor—a representative of the NEWS—left he declared he had an invitation to extend:

"Please tell everyone that we are always glad to have visitors at the warehouse and there's nearly always someone here who will be glad to show them what we have planted. We're proud of it and are glad to show it."

WOMEN HEAR BEST MEANS OF REPORTING THEIR WORK

Talks by the editors of the Eldorado Success and Eldorado Times were features of the meeting Friday of a school for Home Demonstration Club reporters, held in the office of Miss Lora Farnsworth in the Schleicher county courthouse. The school was conducted by Miss Hill of College Station. Representatives of each of the nine clubs in the district were present. Mrs. Dale Kimball and Mrs. B. A. MINISTER'S SON DOES WELL AT WEATHERFORD COLLEGE

A publicity bulletin from the office of Weatherford College, Weatherford, Texas, tells of the scholastic attainment of F. K. Ezell, son of the Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Ezell, who is enrolled there.

Young Ezell was a student there last year but did not return until the second semester this year. He is a candidate for graduation in June.

He is a member of Phi Theta Kappa, honorary scholarship society and is active in extra-curricular affairs of the school. He is a member of the staff of the Coyote, college newspaper, Life Service Band, baseball and tennis teams and of the Fritz G. Lanham literary society.

FORMER SONORA BOY MAY BE BIG SPRING PLAYER

The following comment appeared recently in the sports column written by Blondy Cross of the San Angelo Standard-Times:

"Barstow says his backfield will average right at 178 pounds. He is keenly impressed with a big, rugged, green fellow named Trainer, one of the Sonora Trainers who moved into Big Spring last year. This Trainer is inexperienced, but he appears game, says Bristow, weighs around 190 pounds and is the fastest starting back he has seen in a long time."

The Trainer referred to is Clifford Trainer, son of Mrs. Rena Trainer, former Sonora resident. Bristow is coach of the Big Spring football team.

WORD ORIGINS

When You See An Artist's

"EASEL"

Do You Think of a Donkey? The names of animals are often appropriated to designate inanimate devices.

So a long-necked machine is called a crane; an iron affair that stands firm to hold burning logs is a firelog in England and a fire buck in German; a large support for almost anything is a horse; and a small stand or support, as for an artist's canvas, was called a donkey, an ass, by the Dutch, whose improvements in the technique of oil painting in the Renaissance made them famous throughout the civilized world. The Dutch word ezel, "ass," ultimately from Latin asinus, "ass," was taken into English as easel in the Dutch metaphorical sense "stand for an artist's canvas."

Blouse and Skirt Versatile Ensemble

Charming Effects Possible With Varied Fabrics

Denton, April 11.—Highlights in spring fashion trends feature the skirt and blouse—an ensemble that is fast being taken up by the younger generation. These frocks have been essential to the well-dressed woman's wardrobe, chiefly because of their versatility. A blouse of sheer lawn or organdie makes a delightful afternoon frock when combined with a skirt of harmonizing material, and one of the strictly tailored checks can be quite casual for morning wear.

Young moderns at CIA display a creation fashioned in openwork embroidered white organdie. The blouse boasts a high "standup" collar that is in keeping with the Elizabethan trend of necklines. A tiny bow, blending with the color of the waffle weave skirt, brings the collar together at the neck. With the ever-popular tweed skirts, taffeta blouses add a crisp note of spring, but as blouses are no longer wedded to one skirt, it is possible to wear any number of fabrics with tweed. Linen, natural color with a mingled tan skirt, or white pique are suggested. Taffeta checks and pin stripes are now for blouses and they make chic combinations with solids or mingled tweeds.

Irish linen is an excellent material for skirt and blouse frocks. Made of the same material, the blouse and skirt can be delightfully trimmed with wooden buttons in dark shades. These dresses can be strictly tailored on more informal, and are smart for any occasion.

Ah, how remote seems the time when everybody was eager to paste the old Blue Eagle in the window, instead of in the slats.—Boston Herald.

Gross Receipts of Fair 29½ Million

Scientific Institutions Will Be Aided By Any Surplus

Chicago, Ill., April 11.—A financial statement issued by A Century of Progress discloses that it had on hand $688,166 as of December 31, 1934, after all debts had been paid.

Total revenues during the exposition, including paid admissions, space rental, concessions, contributions and other receipts, amounted to $29,321,876. The exposition completely amortized an estimated investment of $30,000,000 in two five-month operating periods in 1933 and 1934.

Excess of revenue over all expenses, exclusive of property write-off and rehabilitation, an item totaling $12,441,893, was $15,130,000, the report revealed.

The exposition now has on hand $424,000, most of which will be used during the ensuing sixteen months for the expected maintenance of a skeleton staff. It has on deposit with the Board of South Park Commissioners a fund of $275,000 and a sum of $30,000 as surety with the United States customs, both of which amounts it is expected to regain. Surplus remaining from these funds is to be divided among the South Park Board and several scientific institutions.

HIGH SCHOOL CLASS TO SHARE THEATER RECEIPTS

Through the courtesy of Hix Hall of La Vista Theater the junior class of Sonora high school will share in the box office receipts at the showing of "Dog of Flanders," at the theater Sunday and Monday.

The picture, a "four-star" one, features the dog star "Lightning," and is built around a story of a boy and his dog. Money received by the class will be used in the fund being secured for the junior-senior banquet, set for the latter part of the month.

Today and tomorrow Bing Crosby and Kitty Carlyle are seen in "Here's My Heart," a musical comedy. Another installment of "The Red Rider" will be shown. On Tuesday Ginger Rogers will play the lead in "Finishing School." Ellissa Landi and Cary Grant are teamed in "Enter Madam"—the screen offering for Wednesday and Thursday.

"Education In America" Club Topic

Club To Honor Past Presidents with Party April 26

The members of the Sonora Woman's Club met Thursday afternoon of last week at the clubhouse. The subject of their study was "Education in America." Mrs. Warren read an interesting paper on "Modern Public School Systems."

The subjects of the round table discussion were "Education in the Early Days" and "Vocational Schools."

The club voted to honor the past presidents with a party April 26 at the clubhouse.

THE DRIVER WHO FORGOT

He brushed his teeth twice a day with a nationally advertised tooth paste. The doctor examined him when it rained. He slept with the windows open. He stuck to a diet with plenty of fresh vegetables. He relinquished his tonsils and traded in several worn-out glands. He golfed—but never more than 18 holes. He never smoked, drank or lost his temper. He did his daily dozen—daily. He was all set to live to be a hundred.

The funeral will be next Wednesday. He is survived by 18 specialists, four health institutes, six gymnasiums and numerous manufacturers of health foods and antiseptics.

He had forgotten about trains at grade crossings.—Missouri State Highway Patrol Bulletin.

BOTTLES, CORKS AND WORDS GET SLIGHTLY CONFUSED

A friend of B. M. Halbert's in Dallas, Oregon, recently sent him the following:

I had twelve bottles of whiskey in my cellar and the Missus made me empty the contents of each and every bottle down the sink, so after several hours of vain argument and domestic strife, I proceeded to do as she desired. I withdrew the cork from the first bottle and poured the contents down the sink with the exception of one glass which I drank. I then drew the cork from the second bottle and did the same likewise, with the exception of one glass which I drank. I extracted the cork from the third sink and poured the bottle down the glass when I drank some. I pulled the bottle from the cork of the next and drank one sink of it, and then threw the rest down the drink. I then pulled the sink out of the next cork and poured the bottle down my drink. I pulled the next bottle out of my throat and poured the cork down the drink, all but the sink which I drank. I pulled the next cork from my neck and poured the sink down the bottle and drank the cork.

When I had them all emptied I steadied the house with one hand and counted the bottles which were 24. As the house came around I also counted them again and had 74. Finally I had the houses and the bottles counted, so I proceeded to wash the bottles, but I couldn't get the brush in the bottles, so I turned them inside out and washed and wiped them all and went upstairs to tell my wife all about what I did. And I've got the wisest little niece in the world.—T. D. Bayley in "Ounce of Prevention."

CROCKETT COUNTY HAS FEW ON STATE RELIEF ROLLS

Austin, April 11.—Only five Texas counties could boast a record of less than five per cent of their residents on relief rolls as of March 1, statistics compiled by the Texas Relief Commission reveal. These counties are Crockett, Kennedy, Lavaca, Reagan and Winkler.

Fourteen others, Hudspeth, Terrell, Upton, Parmer, Hutchinson, Carson, Hidalgo, Cameron, Nueces, Bee Karnes, Gonzales, Fayette and Fort Bend, were in the respectable class, in the eyes of state relief officials, with not more than from 5 to 10 per cent of their residents receiving aid. Twelve counties had more than 40 per cent of their inhabitants on the relief rolls as follows:

Loving, Yoakum, Cochran, Garza, Kent, Stonewall, King, Cottle, Titus Cass, Llano and Zapata.

Boys From Sonora at A. & M. Belong To Varied Groups

Hull and Aldwell To Finish in May; Edwin Sawyer Now in Senior Class

(Special to the NEWS.)

College Station, April 11.—Two students from Sonora, Lea Roy Aldwell and John William Hull, are candidates for bachelor of science degrees to be awarded by Texas A. & M. College at Commencement exercises the evening of May 31. A third student from Sonora, Edwin E. Sawyer, became classified scholastically as a senior at the beginning of the second semester early in February.

Sawyer is accompanist for the Glee Club this year and went with that organization on its annual concert tour.

Aldwell and Hull both also are eligible to become ranked as "Distinguished Students" at the end of this semester. The names of both were listed among 271 students who were eligible for the honor through the first semester. Each has taken a prominent part in student activities since they enrolled at the college.

Aldwell, whose major study is marketing and finance, is a first lieutenant and second in command of Troop C, Cavalry, in the cadet corps. He is a member of the Ross Volunteers, honor military organization, is president of the student Episcopal Club and is a member of the Saddle and Siroin, Marketing and Finance and San Angelo clubs. He is also a member of the Accounting Society. He was a member of the college glee club during the past three years and served as the club's business manager last year.

Hull is captain and commanding officer of Company A, Signal Corps, in the cadet corps and is majoring in the study of electrical engineering. He has been a distinguished student in past years and is a member of the Scholarship Honor Society, who membership is taken from the highest ranking juniors and seniors of the college in their studies. He is a member of the college student chapter of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, and is also a member of the San Angelo club. He won second place in the sophomore mathematics contest at the college in 1933.

U. S. Income Taxes Gain Many Millions

President Says Taxes Depend On Congress' Appropriations

Washington, April 4.—Excellent prospects of income-tax collections passing the $300,000,000 mark were shown when the Treasury stated that for the first 20 days of March $270,935,659 had been deposited in the cash box, representing an increase of about 33 per cent in collections over the same period last year.

The total compared with $203,256,084 for the same period of 1934 and brought the total for the July 1-March 20 period to $737,888,493 against $561,463,073 the year before. Receipts for March alone were $26,561,433.

As a result of the Treasury announcement, President Roosevelt was asked at a White House press conference whether the high tax returns would affect consideration in official circles of possible legislation for new taxes.

Mr. Roosevelt replied that it was too early for such a decision, adding with some emphasis that the question of new taxes depended not on current tax receipts but upon appropriations that may be voted by Congress.

He stated that this remark was not made as a threat, but simply as the factual basis of the taxation situation.

Officials expressed satisfaction over the March collection, since it reflected a large gain in corporate incomes for 1934 and a substantial increase in individual incomes.

We had a very good attendance at our patrol meeting. As mentioned previously the dues we are paying are to be used to buy equipment and other such things. Teams were organized for the patrol competition Tuesday night.

On behalf of the Flying Eagle Patrol we want to thank business people and individuals of Sonora who responded so nobly to the plan of providing baseball for Sonora this year and to help send Boy Scouts to the National Jamboree in Washington in August. Our motto of "Be Prepared" means exactly that and we are always ready to serve.

Tourists Returning From Mexico City Stop in Sonora

Motorized Tour Project Said To Have Been First Down the West Mexico Coast

Fifty tourists of a party sponsored by B. Sprots of Los Angeles were in Sonora a few minutes Wednesday morning on their return trip to California from a 45-day trip to Mexico.

Among the passengers was William Lasky, twelve-year-old son of Jesse Lasky, motion picture executive of Los Angeles and Hollywood.

The party of ninety-three left Nogales, Ariz., Feb. 23 in two pullman style buses and fifteen private cars. A cafeteria truck and two baggage buses were in the motorcade. The trip down the west coast of Mexico was the first ever attempted by a public tours agency, according to Mr. Sprots.

After visiting in Mexico City and Vera Cruz the party returned by way of San Luis Potosi and Saltillo to Monterrey. At Laredo many of the tourists who live in eastern sections left the party. Those who were with the party in Sonora were largely residents of California, Mexico and other western states.

The cafeteria was in charge of A. B. Kendall, an experienced dietician who is a graduate of the University of Texas. He has been in similar work for eight summers with the Omnibus College of which Miss Johnnie Allison, Sonora school instructor, was a student last summer. He was formerly an instructor in the high school at Corsicana.
