Charles L. Lenau Opens Lumber Yard Here

Charles Lenau, citizen of Muleshoe for several years, last Saturday opened a new lumber yard in one of his giant cotton buildings located on the north side of the Santa Fe railroad tracks near the depot, selling several bills of lumber, the first day of business service.

The west warehouse, 70x150 feet size, has been filled with racks and piled high with lumber. Shelves also installed and laden with builders hardware. Other stock customarily handled by this business, such as lime, cement, sand, brick, tile, grates, stock troughs, etc., has been installed. The business office occupies one corner of the building.

Bill Garrett has accepted the position of assistant manager with the new concern.

The other warehouse Mr. Lenau will convert into an auction barn, holding livestock sales at least once each week. Stock of all kinds will be sold. About 50 pens have been constructed just east of the sales barn for accommodation of stock brought for sale.

In the warehouse there will be an office, sales ring, grand stand for accommodation of buyers and other guests, scales for stock weighing and a cae selling lunches and cold drinks for accommodation of visitors. It will probably be 60 days yet, Mr. Lenau said, before the auction barn will be ready for public service.

THERMOMETER SHOOTS HIGH TRICKY WEATHER HERE

Old Man Weather has been playing tricks aplenty with climatic conditions in and around Muleshoe recently. It has only been about 10 days ago, according to Judge R. E. Klump, local government meteorologist, since the thermometer was just peeping over the degree mark, then suddenly it took an extraordinary encouragement until last Friday and Saturday and it registered 92 degrees in Muleshoe.

Sunday was still hotter, with many folks having visions of a red-hot summertime during July and August when the mercury climbed up to 98, some privately owned thermometers showing as high as 103 degrees. Electric fans and air-conditioning mechanisms were turned on, sheer clothing promptly came in fashion and cold drinks were in big demand.

"Scarecrow Creeps" When Teachers Give A Play

Tuesday evening of next week, beginning promptly at 8:30 p. m., at the High school auditorium in Muleshoe, what promises to be one of the most entertaining plays of the season, "The Scarecrow Creeps," will be sponsored by the local P. T. A. organization, members of the school faculty being the actors in this mystery-comedy, of solid, well-balanced proportions of laughs and thrills.

It will be presented under the capable direction of Prof. P. C. Windsor. The cast of characters follows:

Adam Throgg, the butler, P. C. Windsor.
Maudie Hobbs, the maid, Miss Avis Cooper.
Roderick Gage, the master, H. D. Bentley.
Dr. Kenneth Gage, his nephew, Gerald Priboth.
Aunt Zinnia, Washington, the cook, Miss Lola Dunham.
Trailing Arbuter, her son, Prof. O. G. Dickinson.
Terry Gage, Roderick's nephew, J. A. Lumsden.
Mrs. Annabelle Gage, Terry's mother, Miss Anna Eckhardt.
Miss Amelia Gage, Roderick's cousin, Miss Dorothy Murchison.
Norma Gage, her niece, Miss Mildred Barton.

GIRLS SLEEP TO IN GYM TAKE ROADSIDE HIKE

Friday night of last week, Miss Mary Loch Howell entertained members of the R. O. H., club with a slumber party at the local gymnasium.

About 35 girls were present to enjoy the many games, the midnight lunch and the "slumberless" hours. Saturday morning the following girls of the club hiked to the roadside west of Muleshoe and returned for sunrise breakfast:

Mary Katherine Hammons, Dr. Ann Viva Askew, Anallita C. E. Harbort, Ruth Frances Bersinger, Lovelady, Doris Gordon, X-RA'ughn, and Leona Bartley.

$1544 GOVERNMENT CHECKS ARE HERE

A consignment of 52 wheat parity checks, totaling $15,444.15 was received at the Bailey County Farm office here last Friday and are being distributed to claimants of this county.

This payment represents about 40 per cent of the total due growers in Bailey county, according to J. C. Smith, AAA representative.

The Grand Jury In 7 Indictments Cases Heard

In District court last week in the case of Dean T. Davis, vs. J. E. Aldridge, a suit for debt, judgment was rendered for the plaintiff.

Motley Co. vs. R. M. McCallum on foreclosure of lien, judgement for plaintiff.

The grand jury returned seven indictments, some of which carried two counts. J. L. Coon, 2 counts, alleging cattle theft, was tried, and he was given two years in state penitentiary. E. E. Coon, father, an alleged accomplice, was given two years and sentence suspended.

Chas. Vandeventer, pleaded guilty to charge of burglary and was given a two years suspended sentence.

The case against Cal Shaw, alleging swindling, was dismissed.

The case of E. R. Hart vs. C. R. Borget, a note suit, was continued for service.

H. C. Glenn, receiver Temple Trust Co., vs. H. E. Adkins, et al, suit to try title, judgment given for plaintiff.

The petit jury previously summoned appeared Monday morning and was dismissed for the term, there being no cases requiring jury service.

Howard Dean arrested several months ago on a charge alleging assault with intent to murder, received a two years suspended sentence Monday. Court was then dismissed until Friday of this week.

DISTRICT TWO HAS IDEAL FARM

Edwin Raney and family of Dimmitt in Castro county have been accepted at Big Spring as the "average American family" from District 2, West Texas Chamber of Commerce, according to R. L. Brown, director. The O. N. Jennings family of Labyrinth and the Chester Wooder family, Plainview, have been selected as alternates.

Winney of state honorees will be decided at the annual convention of WTCC to be held at Big Spring next week and accorded a trip to the New York Worlds fair, all expenses being paid by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and West Texas Chamber of Commerce, making the trip in a new Ford V-8 deluxe sedan donated by Henry Ford, Detroit, Michigan.

BOX SUPPER AT STEGALL FRIDAY

A box and pie supper was held at Stegall Friday night of last week under direction of the school and for benefit of the baseball team of that community at which time about $33.00 were received.

There was a good crowd attended and delicious food enjoyed by the purchasers. Muleshoe merchants had also donated several articles of merchandise that were also auctioned off. Judge M. G. Miller, further displayed his versatility by assuming the role of auctioneer for the occasion. Several candidates attended; but since the event was not one of the regular scheduled times for speaking they did not address the crowd present.

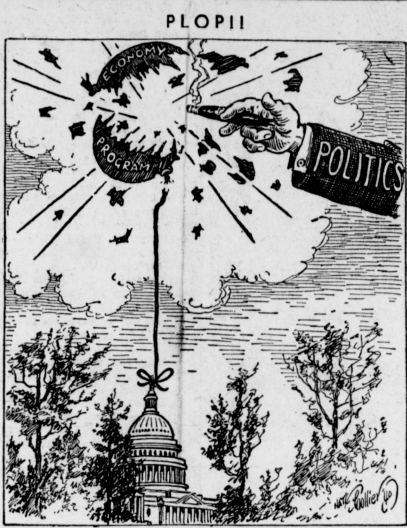

Those attending from Muleshoe were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cook, J. J. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Bass, Judge M. G. Miller and Miss Elizabeth Harden.

1941 LICENSE PLATES ARE BLACK AND GOLD

The State Highway Commission announces the order for 1941 license plates has been placed with the State Prison system which manufacturers the plates according to specifications prepared by the Highway Department.

Passenger plates will be black with numerals of gold. Trucks and other series of plates will be the reverse, gold with numerals of black. These color combinations were selected because of high visibility and proven durability.

The manufacture and distribution of three and a half million plates is a job of considerable magnitude, requiring careful preparation and constant inspection.

H. B. Ray Plans To Irrigate Many Farm Acres

H. B. Ray, who has a good 160 acre farm about nine miles northwest of Muleshoe, following completion by Sneed Bros., last week of the irrigation well, is now making definite arrangements for spring crops, much of which will go into truck stuff to be disposed of by truck and through the local canning factory.

Ray's plans for cropping this year include 10 acres of tomatoes; 10 acres in sweet potatoes, three acres in cantaloupes, 10 acres in green stringless beans; 10 acres in black-eye peas, 42 acres in cotton and 60 acres planted to sorghum grains of various kinds, all of which will be irrigated from the well.

Mr. Ray is very optimistic regarding the system of farming by irrigation, declaring it to be the ideal way to agriculture success in this western area.

Dr. Frederick A. Cook, 77, well known Artic explorer, who contested discovery of the North pole with Admiral Perry, is in a semi-conscious condition in a Port Chester N. Y. hospital from cerebral hemorrhage and not expected to recover. Later: He died.

Sudan Commission Refuses Phone Co. Franchise Offer

At a meeting of the Sudan City Commission held last Monday night granting of a franchise presented to that Commission calling for 30 years privileges and returning to the City one per cent of its gross business, long distance calls not included, was refused.

A motion was also introduced and unanimously carried reducing all types of telephone charges now prevailing in that city 50 cents per month.

Sudan had been previously presented with an increased rate charge similar to the one presented Muleshoe phone users, occasioning considerable controversy. The Commission evidently disfavored the proposal, both as to length of years embodied in the proposed franchise and the income to be received by the City from such operation. It was brought out in the meeting that a recent decision of the Texas Supreme court had declared a return of four per cent for a city in South Texas was not considered exorbitant for use of its streets and alleys by public utility concerns.

MY MOTHER—A PRAYER

FOR the body you gave me, the bone and the sinew, the heart and the brain that are yours, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for the light in my eyes, the blood in my veins, for my speech, for my life, for my being. All that I am is from you who bore me.

For all the love that you gave me, unmeasured from the beginning, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for the hand that led me, the voice that directed me, the breast that nestled, the arm that shielded me, the lap that rested me. All that I am is by you, who nursed me.

For your smile in the morning and your kiss at night, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for the tears you shed over me, the songs you sang to me, the prayers that you said for me, for your vigils and ministrations. All that I am is by you, who reared me.

For the faith you had in me, the hope you had for me, for your trust and your pride, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for your praise and your chiding, for the justice you bred into me and the honor you made mine. All that I am you taught me.

For the sore travail that I caused you, for the visions and despair, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me the peril I brought you to, the sobs and moans I wrung from you, and for the strength I took from you, mother, forgive me.

For the fears I gave you, for the alarms and the dreads, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me the joys I deprived you, the tolls I made for you, for the hours, the days and the years I claimed from you, mother, forgive me.

For the times that I hurt you, the times I had no smile for you, the caresses I did not give you, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me for my angers and my revolts, for my deceits and evasions, for all the pangs and sorrows I brought to you, my mother, forgive me.

For your lessons I did not learn, for your wishes I did not heed, for the counsels I did not obey, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me my pride in my youth and my glory in my strength that forgot the holiness of your years and the veneration of your weakness, for my neglect, for my selfishness, for all the great debts of your love that I have not paid, mother, sweet mother, forgive me.

And may the peace and the joy that passeth all understanding be yours, my mother, forever and ever. Amen.—T. J. Dillon.

Chamber of Commerce Opposes The Financing Of The New Telephone System By Muleshoe Citizens

The principal subject of discussion at the Chamber of Commerce meeting held last Friday noon was the proposal of the Southwestern Associated Telephone Co., to raise service rates on both residence and business phone users in Muleshoe, in consideration of their granting a more efficient local system of service.

Some weeks ago the commercial body, through its appointed committee, took up with that corporation the matter of better physical equipment in Muleshoe that more satisfactory service might be enjoyed. It seems to be the consensus of opinion that the switchboard now being used here is not only of an antiquated type, but worn from long past use, and that it is impossible to get the service to be obtained from it. So far as report is concerned, there appears to be no fault attached to the operators here.

Recently a representative of the Southwestern company was in Muleshoe interviewing subscribers as to whether they were willing to pay an additional charge for service, both for residence and business, it being stated by him that a large majority of phone users favored the increase. However, at the Chamber of Commerce meeting last week, it was brought out quite definitely that many of these phone users apparently did not fully understand the proposed rate change, as that body went on record unanimously favoring an investigation before increased rates become effective here.

According to a company representative's statement while here, there are now 140 telephone connections in Muleshoe. If each phone user remained on a one party line, it would mean a monthly increased cost of from 50 to 75 cents per month or approximately $10 total increased cost per month, or in the neighborhood of $1,200 per year extra cost.

It was brought out by one speaker that $1,200 at six per cent per annum would be the interest income on several thousand dollars as an investment in a new telephone system for Muleshoe, which would virtually be paid for by subscribers—and such payments would be continued indefinitely, even after the new installation had been liquidated.

Some citizens present readily admitted lack of knowledge as to details of the proposal or their rights in the matter; but it seemed a consensus of opinion that the matter should be more thoroughly investigated before any definite decision was made.

Baccalaureate For Muleshoe Seniors Sunday Night

The baccalaureate service will be held at the High school auditorium next Sunday evening, beginning at 8:00 o'clock, Rev. F. B. Hamilton, pastor, local Baptist church, delivering the sermon to the 38 High school graduates. All churches of the city will dismiss their services for this special event, and no doubt, spacious as is the auditorium, seating room will be at a premium.

Mrs. C. S. Holland will play the professional as the Seniors march in to take their seats on the stage. The invocation will be given by Elder S. W. Sanders of the Church of Christ. A chorus will sing "God Of Our Fathers." There will be a piano solo by Clyde Bray, after which Rev. Hamilton will deliver the sermon. Prof. C. L. Sone will pronounce the benediction.

The auditorium will be appropriately decorated with class colors of white and gold with a profusion of roses, the class flower. The public generally is cordially invited to attend this service. Seniors graduating this year are:

Array of Events To Feature WTCC Meet At Big Spring

Big Spring, May 7.—Glitter of pageantry will not be lacking at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention here May 16-18. The "buttoning up" of extra feasts is under way now, with heavy attention given to the Fourth parade at 2:00 p. m., Friday the 17th and the Americanization mass meeting immediately following.

Final plans for Boy Scouts' participation in the parade were made at a meeting here Monday night. Miss Ruth Thompson, district court home demonstration agent, and J. D. Prewitt, district farm agent, have sent letter to agents in 16 counties informing them of parade plans and asking them to send 4-H club delegations to Big Spring to hear their national founder, Oscar H. Benson, speak on "The American Way of Life."

Stimulating interest in the Typical American Family contest, the Ford Motor Company will dispatch one of its custom built cars to Big Spring to transport the winning family to the New York County's Fair. The car will be on display here several days following a planned good-will tour to a number of West Texas towns. The winning family from West Texas will make five convention appearances and be presented to audiences by Amos G. Carter, publisher of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

500 other ends are being gathered as the convention nears. The city's sponsor list stood at 33 at the weekend, while entries in the Home Town contest has been reduced to 56. A half-dozen more bands are expected to be entered before convention time. More than 20 have been entered, most of these to be judged for designation as the WTCC official band for the coming year by a committee of veteran band men whose names have not been made public. Basis upon which the bands will be judged went out to certified units early this week. Included are marching 30 per cent (including alignment, leadership and discipline); and uniforms, 20 per cent.

Week's Best Recipe

Cheese Corn Muffins: 1-2 cup fine corn meal, 1-2 cup gran. sugar, 1-2 t. salt, 1-2 cup flour, 1 t baking powder, grated rind of lemon or orange. Sift ingredients once and add 1-2 cup sweet milk. I well beat on egg, 2 T melted butter, 1-2 cup grated American cheese. Mix together and bake in greased muffin tins. Serves twelve large muffins.

Hands With Care

A housewife should care for her hands. Keep a cut lemon close by for the sink for removing stains. Fruit stains can be removed by cornmeal moistened in vinegar. For an ink stain rub with a piece of fresh tomato. For odors on the hands dry mustard mixed with cold water will help. Wet your hands before handling fish and grease them before peeling onions. Rub soap under your nails when there is dirty work for hands to do.

When Sewing

Mark buttonholes with a pencil and cut with safety razor blade. Cut on a bread board. Sew buttons over a row of machine stitches to reinforce them securely. When facing dress hems use gauze bandaging for the turn back. Few women who do not know to stop a stocking run with liquid nail polish or by moistening soap and rubbing the run until you can reach a needle and thread.

Ethel Claire Raney Leads Graduation Amherst Class

That Miss Ethel Claire Raney, Amherst, will be the valedictorian of the high school graduating class of that little city, is the information received this week by the Journal. She is the talented daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Raney, former citizens of Muleshoe for three years while he was pastor of the Methodist church here.

Miss Ethel Claire is a few months past 18 years of age, having been born at Quapan, Oklahoma where her father was then in the ministry. She, rambling around with her parents, at the whim of bishops and presiding elders of that church where-in pastorate appointments are frequently changed has, in consequence, attended public school at Perryton, White Deer, Muleshoe, Happy and Amherst, and in keeping with her present record she was also valedictorian when she graduated from the grammar grades. Her Freshman and Sophomore years in high school were spent at Wheeler, where they then lived, while her Junior and Senior years were consummated at Amherst.

Miss Raney was this year also secretary-treasurer of the Senior class, and during the school year has taken an active part in all school activities, among them being winner of second place in Senior girls' declamation in the Lamb County Interscholastic meeting this year. She has been especially active in music affairs, being a very accomplished musician, and playing numerous accompaniments for solos, quartets, clubs of various kinds in both grammar and high school events.

The many friends of Miss Raney, as well as of her parents, will rejoice in the knowledge of her educational attainments. While living in Muleshoe Miss Raney attracted to herself a host of young friends and older admirers who at that time had no hesitancy in predicting for her a bright future.

Washington Snapshots

by JAMES PRESTON

The machine is in the spotlight again. Some of its outstanding benefits have been described recently by Brookings Institution, which points out in a study just made by Dr. Spurgeon Bell that consumers in 1936-37 were actually 6 billion dollars better off as a result of machine development than they were 13 years earlier. In other words, consumers through lower prices on the things they buy have 6 billion dollars more a year to spend.

Furthermore, the quality of the things they buy has improved tremendously. Think of 1923 automobiles for example. In 1937, automobile buyers not only got 23 per cent more in quantity, but they also got infinitely better quality.

People who bought cotton textiles got 50 per cent more.

The hourly earnings of workmen in dollars rose substantially. But the goods they could buy with their dollars increased even more—so that the worker could buy 29 per cent more for his money.

An interesting sidelight is that in this same period the return to those whose money bought the machines and paid the workers—the investors—dropped 77 per cent.

Significant, too, is the fact that all this happened while the worker's hours of work were being shortened and shortened again.

In spite of the mounting weight of evidence of the sort just mentioned, a great cloud of words from Washington on the subject of men and machines still seeks to obscure the real and lasting quality of machine benefits. Unless average citizens—meaning particularly the housewife, the farmer, the factory employee and the white-collar worker—remain able to see clearly through the dust, they may lose some of the things which make them the envy of similar folks in any other nation in the world.

The Washington themesong is heard from many places—before the Monopoly Committee, from the Labor Department, from Congressional labor committees, and others of similar stripe. Stripped to its essence, the themesong in effect is that machines are bad because they do work that used to be done by people.

The argument is that machines which have developed since 1929 are doing the work which once was performed by a million and a half or two million people. Therefore, it is argued, we had better curb the machine to keep people working.

Basic facts, however, are obscured. It isn't pointed out clearly, for instance, that if a new knitting machine replaces two workers and turns out ten times as much as they used to produce, it takes more workers to make the machines and keep them in repair, more railroad employees to transport the finished goods, more farmers to produce cotton for the yarn, more retail store employees to sell it, and so on and on.

Health Conservation Leads Prevention Says Doctor

Austin, May 7—"Especially where the young child is concerned, health observation in recent years has represented a major interest not only of health officials and the medical profession but of civic groups also," Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer states.

"Educational efforts, public health activities and the direct influence of the family physician have emphasized the value of prenatal care, protection against the childhood disease hazards, sound nutritional programs, and the removal of remediable physical handicaps in the pre-school child.

"The result is that today, as never before, the protection of child health occupies an important part in public and semi-public endeavors throughout the year," Dr. Cox pointed out.

"That children of Texas have an inalienable right to be well-born and raised healthy is self-evident to everyone. To deny the youngsters safeguards available through medical science would not only be unfair to the children themselves, but to the future of Texas. Healthy children set the stage for healthy adults. And it is the healthy, vigorous, vital and clear-thinking adult of the coming years who must carry on when the leaders of today no longer are active.

"In the child-health program, parental interest is vital. Physicians and public health officials may point the way through education and correction of physical defects.

The direct concern of the parent, however, is to see that the children are protected against the communicable childhood diseases, that physical defects, if present, are discovered early and remedied, and that nourishing food is made available. Without this personal interest, intelligently and generally applied, the child conservation program cannot achieve its goal.

66 Railroads Offer Trips, Tours, On Installment

Into the news this week comes an announcement that will bring cheer to the hearts of the legions of substantial Americans who want to travel but "can't spare the money just now." The announcement brings assurance to millions that the slogan "It is Travel America Year," really means something after all. From now on, one may literally travel and pay later.

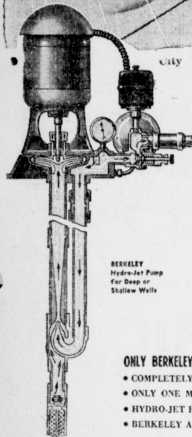

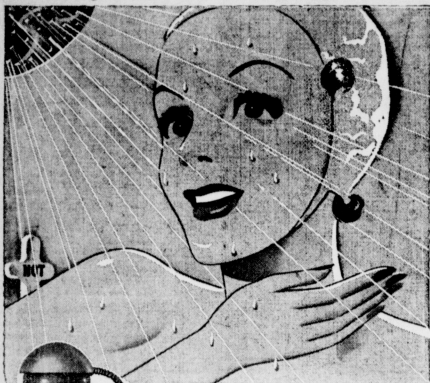

A Travel Credit plan, sponsored by 66 great railroads, makes possible the purchase of railway trips and tours in the same manner one buys a car or radio—on convenient monthly payments.

The plan, effective May 20, is exceedingly simple, according to announcement. The prospective user merely goes to the ticket office of the cooperating railway over whose lines he wishes to travel, or to a travel agent, and makes application for credit in the amount of the cost of the proposed trip or tour. If the routine inquiry indicates an ability to meet monthly payments, he is notified that his ticket is ready for him. The only contact in connection with the application is with the ticket or travel agent, just as though the ticket were being purchased for cash. The application is passed upon within 24 hours.

Use of the Travel Credit Plan requires no collateral—only the signature of the individual. The cost of the proposed trip, however, must total $50 or more to be eligible for purchase on credit. No down payment is required. There is a nominal charge for credit accommodation.

It is predicted that the widest use of the Travel Credit Plan will be for vacations and other recreational trips and tours, although the service is intended to cover any form of railway travel. Credit is not necessarily confined to the cost of transportation alone. It may be used for Pullman accommodations, all-expense tours, which usually include hotels and meals, specified side trips, and any service that is sold through the railroad ticket office.

Any oil-change helps "youthify" your engine...but not like this change to OIL-PLATING

You change to an OIL-PLATED engine by changing to Conoco Germ Processed oil—patented. It goes in like any oil and is priced as low as many. But a costly extra ingredient—created in the laboratory—technically described in the Patent Office—energizes this oil to couple up direct to inner engine surfaces. The connection is as close as that of any plating on your car. A plating is not in the habit of getting wiped away at speed, or of draining down at a standstill, and so that all goes for OIL-PLATING.

Then no matter how long the car stands or runs with Germ Processed oil in the crankcase, the OIL-PLATING still stays up to its topmost point in each cylinder—fastened up to its job when fluid oil-film couldn't be. You get a great fluid oil-film, mind you, with Germ Processed oil, but in addition you get OIL-PLATING... drain-proof... a fixed defense against the strong assaults of Summer wear. Helping to keep up your engine, OIL-PLATING helps to keep up the level of your Germ Processed oil. Even in an older engine its economy may remind you of "the first year!" Every Great Attempt is Glorious Even If It Fails

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Lift not up your horn on high; speak not with a stiff neck.—Psalms 75:5.

It is difficult to divest one's self of vanity; because it is impossible to divest one's self of self-love.—Horace Walpole.

TELEPHONE RATES !!

It's easy for folks to take snap judgment on nearly any proposition, especially if it is put up to them in biased manner such folks may not grasp all details relevant to the proposition. The proposal of the Southwestern Associated Telephone Co., to raise service rates to present subscribers in Muleshoe with the option of going on a two or three party line to save money, is an illustration at point wherein it appears, after more mature consideration by some phone users, they are at least questioning the advisability of their signing in affirmative manner.

Granting there are 140 or 150 phones in Muleshoe, at the average increase of from 50 to 75 cents suggested, to remain on one-party lines such increase would mean a total average income of around $100 per month or approximately 1,200 per year. True, the subscriber has the option of using a 2-or 3 party line at reduced rate; but in consideration of the privacy that exists in many conversations, such community service is not generally desirable, and too, a phone user may have to wait several minutes before he can have his conversation if some other party is using the community line.

Twelve hundred dollars additional phone cost per annum represents the annual income on $20,000 per year at six per cent interest. In other words this increased rate would mean Muleshoe phone users are putting up $20,000 for the desired new and efficient equipment to be installed here. It is very much doubted if the company will spend much more than half that sum for improvement in the local system. Furthermore, after such improvements had been made, Muleshoe phone subscribers would, in all probability, continue paying this $1,200 interest per annum for many years to come.

Fundamentally, the proposition appears to be one wherein Muleshoe gets the desired improved and more efficient system the town must pay for it through its citizens phone users—and pay big, for anyone knows there is no difficulty whatever in a corporation obtaining $20,000 at as low as three per cent interest per annum. As the Journal sees it, anyway the proposed plan is considered the company reaps a big

WHEN Your Boy Grows Up!

ALL mothers and fathers want their children to have worthwhile employment when they grow up.

The Texas oil business is manned by Texans... the Texas boys and girls of yesterday, 225,000 of them earn good livings for themselves and their families — a yearly payroll of $271,000,000.

Oil pays good wages... maintains reasonable working hours... and offers opportunity for promotion.

Old age retirement and unhampered development of the oil business will provide many new jobs each year for our young Texas workers.

But the growing tax burden is a serious factor in wages and employment, since the Texas oil industry now pays taxes, equal to 36 per cent of its labor payrolls.

Unwise laws and excessive taxes can retard and stop the growth of this industry which means so much to the future employment of our boys and girls.

profit and local phone users pay for it.

It later became known by the Journal that Muleshoe city commission had already signed and delivered to the Telephone company a franchise granting that company the privilege of operating in Muleshoe for a period of 50 years, paying the City only one-half of one per cent per annum on its gross receipts (long distance calls not included) for the privilege.

This is the longest term lease ever coming to our knowledge, many such franchises being for much shorter periods, and nearby towns to Muleshoe have either signed or had presented to them for official signatures similar documents of much shorter periods and larger percentage income. Fifty years represents virtually a life-time contract, and it is the opinion of this newspaper the phone company has nothing about which to worry.

MOTHER CONSIDERATION

A smart spank, a lusty cry and a doctor puts into the arms of the new mother a child whose upbringing and responsibility is accepted as her personal blessing. From thenceforth the love of a mother is poured out in bountiful doses upon a little one who is seemingly unaware of the love heaped at its kicking feet.

Through the stages of crawling and romper age, from knee pants to long trousers, grows the child careless in its acceptance of an affection offered from the heart of the mother. Few children are duly appreciative of the concern or the kindness bestowed from hands that gathered the crying newly-born to a breast where stirred the prayer of thanksgiving.

Too bad that the wisdom of years does not cause the man to realize the great amount of devotion that he has absorbed and taken for granted throughout his life. Sad it is that the realization often comes after the dark shadow crosses the path and removes that life whose tender hands proffered the love, sacrifices, care and loyalty. There comes to all of us at some desperate time, however mean we may be, an understanding of the worth of the mother, and fortunate are those who can look back through the years and reflect on the past without too many regrets of duties left undone.

Each year comes the celebration of Mother's Day, and daily we should build up a tribute to those living and dead. As we commemorate the occasion we recall instances when we faithfully promised ourselves we would do anything to knowingly hurt and distress the sweet life that bore us ours. When comes a shriek of hate, a demand for retaliation, a battery and when march off sons the world round, when echoes cries of loss and fear from universal hearts, we should look to the happiness of our mothers and remember our old promise to do all her memory, no staining light, than a unified effort on the part of all of us to preserve peace and life for every mother's son. This indeed, would be her most cherished gift.

Pavement Pickups

It is said that Dan Winn, while making the rounds as census taker, asked a rather buxom woman what party her husband belonged to. Straightening up she said: "Take a good look, Mister, I'm the party."

With old age pensions in Texas having apparently settled around $9.00 per month, N. J. Holt says he has begun worrying for fear some of the dear old souls may take to drink and wild parties so as to spend all the money.

It's reported that Ed Lane, local tonsorial artist, has some dope that will really grow hair on bald heads. The other day he upset a bottle on some grapefruit, and the next day his wife thought they were cocanuts.

J. J. Williams, who, between politicking spells, likes to be cordial to everyone whether they have a vote or not, stepped up to a colored preacher the other day, and accosted him. "Well, Ephram, what are you preaching to your flock these days, I hear you're making quite a stir among them." "I sure is," replied the darkey. "I gives it to 'em dis way: Fustly, I tells 'em what I'm gwine to tell 'em, den I tells 'em what I said I wuz gwine to tell 'em, and den I tells 'em what I done tole 'em."

Chet Layne returned a few days ago from Lindrieth, N. M., where he had been to visit his mother, sister Mrs. Curtis Taylor and hubby Curtis Taylor, all former Muleshoe citizens. The story he told was that Curtis had been feeling rather bum for several days and finally decided to go to the Presbyterian hospital at Lindrieth for examination. The presiding nurse wanting to test his fever inserted a glass tube in his mouth, careless of picking up a barometer instead of a thermometer. When she took it out, it read "dry and windy."

Every once in a while it is vividly demonstrated that it is not the man who talks the most that is the wisest. For instance, our fellow citizen, Connie Gupton, who is reputed to have the most extensive silent vocabulary of any citizen of the U. S. Connie was census taker for Muleshoe, and at the very outset realized getting the correct ages of women was going to be quite a task. So he conceived the idea of asking two questions: He told them the government wanted to know their relative pension age and the age they commonly go by. Then he added these two together, took the average and readily arrived at their actual age. A recent letter received from the Census department, Washington, compliments Mr. Gupton as turning in the most accurate feminine age list of any census taker employed in the entire nation.

Jaunty Journalettes

Wonder how many people note the difference: Too poor to marry, and two poor and married.

Whether a Muleshoe man believes in free speech sometimes depends upon the size of the other fellow.

If Muleshoe women think all men are alike, wonder if they are so particular about the one they pick?

Frequently when a Muleshoe man gets the money to buy something he has yearned for, he has got over the yearning for it.

Someone asked a Muleshoe man the other day: "Do you like bathing beauties?" He promptly replied, "I don't know, I never bathed one."

General News As Reported From Over The U. S.

President Roosevelt has vetoed the cotton insurance bill which was recently passed by congress.

Associate Justice John H. Sharp announced he will be a candidate for re-election to the place he now occupies on the Supreme court of Texas.

A 1925 Texas anti-trust law which exempted "agriculture products or livestock while in the hands of the producer or producer" was held unconstitutional last Monday by the U. S. Supreme court.

Amuel H. Church, president, Carnegie Institute, has offered a reward of $1,000,000 for delivery of Adolf Hitler "alive, unharmed and unhurt" into the custody of the League of Nations.

While Roosevelt seems to be the most popular candidate for next U. S. president, still there is a definite majority of citizens who do not favor a third term for him. Less than 12 per cent in a recent Gallup poll, thought his reelection vital.

Application for a million dollar federal slum clearance grant for Lubbock now seems assured according to a newspaper from that city. The project as outlined, will consist of from 200 to 250 units of which about 50 will be for negroes and the remainder for white families.

Henry Ford, prominent auto manufacturer, has expressed his doubts that there is enough brains under 50 years of age to supply the management needed for industry. He says, "My own opinion is that men do not come to full usefulness until they are 40." Ford himself will be 77 next July 30 and has no intention of retiring.

Lee McConnell, Pampa grain dealer and oil operator, has announced his candidacy for Congress in the 18th district to succeed Marvin Jones, who recently was appointed to the U. S. Court of Claims. He is the ninth candidate to announce for that office in that district.

It is reported that communities around Hereford, Lockney and Plainview will plant between 2,500 and 3,000 acres of Irish potatoes this year, much of which will be irrigated.

Information from Washington is to the effect that business during the last week of April reached the lowest mark it has hit during the last 10 months. Spending averaged more than $10,000,000 a day less in the nation's busiest area than it had at any time during the past month. This sharp change from the usual upturn in conditions every spring has New Deal Washington deeply concerned. With tax receipts and factory production declining, and business already feeling the impact of these conditions, it is said the dark clouds looming on the financial horizon are somewhat foreboding.

New Band Members Added, Concerts Start May 27

That the Muleshoe School is progressing nicely, is the statement of H. E. Williams director, who further says there have been several additions of players and instruments recently added to the organization which will, in a short time be of considerable musical value. A few of these new members are beginners; but they are progressing nicely and will in a little while be able to take their places alongside the more experienced players.

Recent additions to the school band are Oneta Hall, Ray Riddle, Vernon Snyder, Bettye Hayes, Jesse Murray, Julian Newman and Arlo Farrell, all of whom have purchased clarinets. Helen Holt has purchased a bell-blyre; Carroll Voss, a flute; Travis Jennings and Anita Young have bought cornets, and Herbert Young a trombone.

There are now a total of around 55 active member-players, of the band, and the director is planning beginning a series of summer concerts for public enjoyment, the first to be Monday, May 27. Definite location for giving the concert has not yet been made; but it will be at some easily accessible point for public attendance.

90 Of 120 Required Mattress Requests Received Here

Up to date 90 applications for mattresses have been received in the County Extension office. In order that Bailey county may receive the cotton and ticking, there must be at least 120 applications, and it is urgent that applications be made as soon as possible, said Miss Lillie Gentry.

Anyone is eligible who made $400 or less during 1939, one-half of which was made on the farm or who is a bona fide farmer making less than $400 no matter what the source of the income is.

Miss Lillie Gentry, county home demonstration agent, urges anyone eligible to apply as soon as possible at the county agents office, county home demonstration office or through the committees working in each school district.

The cotton and ticking for making these mattresses is given free by the Surplus Commodities Corporation and the only expense to the person who gets the mattress will be about 30 cents to pay for materials used in the making.

N. M., Indian Family Work 3 Years On Irrigation Ditch

WINDY ROCK, Ariz.—The pathetic predicament of a family of primitive Navajo Indians untouched by the white man's ways in one of the most remote sections in the United States has been told in reports reaching the central agency here.

Far off the beaten path in the reservation section which extends into southern Utah, lives a family of Indian farmers who never have appealed to the government for assistance.

Using primitive tools, an aged couple and their daughter struggle for three years to carve a small ditch from a sandstone ledge to carry a trickle of water to their land. The equipment consisted of one broken shovel, an axe and a blunt pick. They had burned their only good shovel in the hogan of a Navajo who was using the instrument when he died.

After three years of toil, the job was finished. The Indians then broke additional ground by hand and planted their first corn crop.

Only a few weeks after the crop had been planted, a wall of water produced a spring freshet plummeted through the sandstone ditch and piled silt high over the then germinating crop.

When discovered by Indian agency officers, the aged Indians were suffering from malnutrition and were rheumatic.

The authorities learned of their labor and told the couple the government would furnish dynamite and engineering personnel to produce water for their crops. The natives told J. H. Thomas, assistant district supervisor, they never had heard of the service nor had they known they were being watched over by white men.

Today, the waters of nearby streams flow through the land tilled by the elderly couple. They are happy, contented, and still more or less astonished that money and man-power was accorded them.

Joyland Jottings

The Joyland Home Demonstration club met in the home of Mrs. Tom Ansley Friday, May 3, with the following present: Mrs. Inez Bellar, Mrs. Lena Daniell, Mrs. Doran Chester, Mrs. J. D. Chester, Mrs. S. L. Williams, Mrs. Katherine Gordon, Mrs. Dick Haley and Miss Anice Haley.

After business meeting, members drew for the white elephant. Mrs. Bernice Ansley was the lucky one and will furnish the elephant for next meeting. Several minutes were spent in recreation.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Claude Gage, May 17.

Grade Pupils Have Exciting Outings At Nearby Points

In celebrating the closing of school, several picnics and trips to Clovis, N. M., were given by teachers and room-mothers to the different grade pupils last week. Among these happy events were the following outings:

Thursday of last week, Miss Jaunita Smiley, teacher, Mesdames S. E. Morris, Earl Sybert and Clyde Taylor, room mothers, and Mrs. Jess Murrah, bus driver, took the pupils of the fourth grade to Clovis, N. M., for an all day outing. About 30 youngsters were in the party. They had lunch at the park, were escorted through a creamery, bottling works, ice plant and a floral company. They were treated with milk nickels, cold drinks and presented sweet peas at the respective places of business. According to report it was hard to tell whether the youngsters or the sponsors enjoyed the trip most.

The same day, Mrs. Ed Johnson, teacher, Mrs. Jay Wyr, Mrs. O. N. Dickinson, Mrs. H. O. Barbour, Mrs. Frank Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gardner, took pupils of the second grade to Clovis in cars, giving them a trip through the different points of interest in the neighboring city, then to cap the day's thrills, returned on the train, which for many of the children was their first "choo-choo" car ride.

Preceding the above trips, Mrs. J. J. DeShazo, accompanied by her room-mothers, gave her pupils a similar outing. They had lunch at the park in Clovis, enjoyed an exciting visit with animals at the zoo and were given a royal reception by the business places they visited in their tour of the city.

Eastern War In European Mad-Dog House May Lead To A General Revolution Changing World

If this is a long war—and few are so optimistic as to think it will be short, despite the ever-recurring rumors of the truce from both sides—it is obvious that the world of tomorrow will be a vastly different place than the world of today. And the neutral nations, no less than the belligerents, will feel the immense changes, and will probably be forced to adapt themselves to conditions utterly different than those of the past.

Working on the assumption that the United States will be able to remain neutral, we as the world's principal financial power will naturally feel most directly the economic and social fruits of a long and destructive war. We are a great exporting power, making a large part of the world's machinery and finished goods, and furnishing much of the world with vital raw materials in addition. It seems certain, say the economists, that our export business will suffer tremendous losses when the war ends. There are two reasons for that, one tangible, the other intangible. The tangible reason: England and France, which are our best customers, are spending money at an unprecedented rate. And while the vaults of the banks of England and France are deep, they are not bottomless. When the money is gone the democracies will no longer be able to buy unless we extend immense credits. They will have little to offer in return for what they may need. Perhaps they will be forced to descend to a barter system, such as has been long pursued by Germany, in which case it is difficult to see how we could trade with them to any great extent.

The intangible reason: When the long war ends, all Europe will be hungry, desperate, bitter, many authorities believe. A mad scramble for mere existence may be the harsh result. European standard of living will be on a rock-bottom basis, and there will be no demand for even the simplest luxuries. The average European will be fortunate, the pessimists think, if he is able to get sufficient food, clothing and shelter to keep alive.

In this connection, an article in the American Mercury, by Henry Alberts Phillips, is harshly enlightening. Mr. Phillips, an author of reputation, has recently returned from a tour of Europe, and feels that the continent faces famine. Agricultural labor has been taken from the farms and put to military uses, leaving only the old and the weak to till the fields. Trenches have been dug where normally would bloom vital wheat. The great "feed boxes" of middle Europe are producing less and less. Says Mr. Phillips: "In the past, fighting nations relied on their non-combatant neighbors for nourishment. What impressed me most deeply as I went through Europe, therefore, was that this time the neutrals are not only unable to sustain those engaged in killing but uncertain of sustaining themselves. Neutrals are in the same mad-doghouse as non-neutrals, bullied and threatened by war on every side, forced to abandon normal life and making ruinous outlays for armaments."

Mr. Phillips seems to think that the almost certain upshot will be a gigantic revolution in Europe. And there are many who agree with him—no orderly government as we know it now, they argue, can come from Armageddon. But, even if revolution is not the result, it is almost impossible to escape the conclusion that unprecedented depression will engulf the Old World. That explains why more and more economists and business men are coming to the view that, whether we like it or not, we must forget Europe, economically speaking, and turn to our own part of the world for the future trade and commerce that we must have to keep going. War orders are keeping the airplane and munitions factories buzzing now, and are immensely benefiting certain peace-time industries as well—but when those orders stop the outlook will certainly not be bright.

WILL PROSECUTE FALSE COMPENSATION CLAIMS

"Beginning immediately we will file criminal charges against claimants who make false statements to secure unemployment compensation," B. H. Thomson, district supervising examiner, said today as he served notice of the tightened enforcement of the fraud provisions of the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act.

"We will file criminal charges against any individual guilty of misrepresentation or nondisclosure of any fact resulting in payment of jobless benefits when such benefits are not due him," the supervisor declared.

Notice will be given every unemployed individual claiming benefits of the provision of the Texas act for filing of criminal charges in cases of misrepresentation or nondisclosure.

"Failure to report pertinent facts is a positive violation of the Law, and prosecutions will be instigated immediately," Thomson said.

The supervisor advised claimants to report all their earnings while filing claims, to report any part-time or self-employment, to disclose receipt of Workman's Compensation insurance, old age benefits, old age assistance, wages in lieu of notice, and vacation pay. Also, they should reveal any fact having a bearing on their ability for work or their ability to work.

Those enjoying this day of social exchange were Mesdames Sina Wallace, Jane Harvey, Stella Eason, C. C. Mardis, Millie Lee, Cora Givens, Bell Snyder, Lula Kistler, Anna Moeller, Mary Snow Davis, Beulah Carles, Claudia Hough, Hertha Walker, H. D. Bentley, Hively, Hattie Jennings, Avi Hampton, and Mrs. Edwards.

MAPLE CLUB GIRLS DO 4-H CLUB WORK

At the regular meeting with the Maple 4-H club each girl was asked to answer the roll call with something interesting she had done in her club work. Many interesting things are being done by these girls.

"I have planted my cold frame garden. It is about 6 by 8 ft.," said Joy Flaniken. Others who have made and planted frame gardens are: Opal Ball, Lena Fae Fleming, and Josephine Darieck. The gardens consist of such vegetables as tomatoes, onions, radishes, mustard, lettuce, spinach, beets, peppers, and English peas.

Frances Dupler, Zane Rhea Carter

Verlene Vanlandingham and Eva Lois Walker have prepared meals for their club work.

Josephine, Jane and Mary Beth Toombs have chosen the making of play suits for their work. "I have started a shoe bag for 4-H club," said Annie Mae McWaters.—Reporter.

Ideal for Southern wear is this "inner dress" of white birdseye plique worn by Gretchen Thomson, a favorite in New Orleans social circles. Social Season Of The Seniors Climaxed With Tea Party

Climaxing the social season of this school year was the exquisite tea given the Seniors of Muleshoe High school faculty members and a few other guests by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Griffiths, Supt. and Mrs. W. C. Cox at the Griffiths home, Sunday evening between the hours of five and seven.

Gold and yellow snapdragons, glist'ed in crystal holders, placed in profusion about the entertaining rooms, carried out the school colors.

As each guest entered they registered in a beautiful guest book, presided over by Mrs. Ett Evans, of Taft, Calif. They were then presented with individual corsages of white sweet peas, tied with gold ribbon.

Mrs. Clyde Holland played classic music throughout the hours of entertainment.

Miss Dorothy Murchison gave "Philosophy of Life," dedicated to the seniors.

Clyde Bray, Jr., played two delightful piano numbers.

Prof. Wm. Crow, in his usual superior manner, entertained with a reading.

A girls trio, composed of Maxine Harris, Imogene Lowry, and Viva Askew sang some appropriate songs.

Miss Ruth Menefee, gave two excellent piano numbers.

Mrs. J. A. Lumsden closed the program by singing, "The End of a Perfect Day."

Mrs. Joe Dameron and Mrs. W. B. McAdams presided at the lovely lace covered tea table on which was centered the cut glass punch bowl, filled with delicious ice cold golden punch. Tiny white sandwiches, with gold filling, and choice cakes completed the table appointments.

U. S. Aggr Seey In Favor Of Cotton Stamp Plan

The food stamp plan—under which persons on relief are given allotments of foods of which a surplus exists—continues to expand. It has apparently proven to be a reasonable way of disposing of some of the foods held by the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation.

Now, according to a recent announcement by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, stamps are to be issued, under a similar plan, for cotton. A tremendous cotton surplus now exists, and its reduction is essential to the welfare of the millions of families which depend for all or part of their livelihood on income from raw cotton—and that legion of workers which depends on cotton processing and manufacturing for their jobs.

One extremely significant phase of the stamp plan is that it has been entirely carried out through existing private merchandising channels. The taxpayers have not had to dig down to pay for the creation of a costly government-owned distribution system. Both chain and independent stores have cooperated to the limit in furthering the plan, and have apparently done a magnificent job. The unemployed have benefited—and so have the producers, and the plan unquestionably tends to keep the cost of maintaining relief down.

The cotton plan is to start on a small scale, and be extended, as was the food stamp plan.

Bees stung four donkeys to death recently on a farm in the Transvaal.
