Pfc. Clifford Willis In Mars Task Force

The Mars Task Force operating in Burma was praised recently by its commander, Brig. Gen. John P. Willey, for the "magnificent job" it is doing fighting the Japs, according to a news story in the Feb. 15, 1945 issue of Roundup, the Army newspaper in the India-Burma theatre.

The clipping from the Roundup was sent to Mrs. J. E. Willis, Girard, by her son, Pfc. Clifford N. Willis, a member of the task force.

The tribute was paid the men following the capture of the towns Loi Kang and Kawnsong, "which are situated about 30 miles south of the Mong Yu junction of the Ledo and Burma Roads" (now Stillwell Road).

"The Mars Task Force has covered the most hazardous terrain in Burma ever traversed by an American unit. A magnificent job of marching over rugged mountains, followed by an equally magnificent job of fighting. The morale is unbelievably high. They did, and are doing, a grand job and I fell very proud to command a unit of this caliber," General Willey said.

New OPA Price Chart to Be Aired At Meeting here

All retailers of apparel, dry goods or house furnishing, will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday, April 10, at the Spur Theatre to discuss, with the local ration board members and representatives from the District OPA, the March 20 retail price regulation, covering their items, it was announced Tuesday.

Discussion will center around the pricing chart each merchant is required to file before April 20. This chart, showing the costs and selling prices of the goods offered for sale on March 19, will simplify the job of calculating ceiling prices, Charlie Powell, chairman of the Price Panel stated.

"It is urgent that every retailer concerned with this new regulation be present at the meeting," he said, "for this will be the best opportunity to get any question concerning the new regulation answered."

Three Spur merchants, Carl Proctor, Sylvan Golding and Spencer Campbell, have volunteered to help the local Price Panel provide accurate information about the new price regulation.

Copies of the regulation which explain how to prepare the pricing charts have been sent to all local retailers of clothing and house furnishing, and additional copies are available at the local board. L. E. Lee, chairman of the War Price and Rationing Board, said.

"The new regulation is a follow-up on the OPA-WPB clothing program announced in January," Lee explained, "and should mean that more of the clothing appearing in stores this summer will be in the low and medium-price ranges."

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

THE AUTHOR AND PERFECTER OF OUR FAITH

International Sunday School Lesson for April 1st, 1945

GOLDEN TEXT: "Let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the author and perfecter of our faith."—Hebrews 12: 1, 2.

Lesson Text: Matthew 27: 62-66; 28: 1-10.

Having been arrested in the Garden of Gethsemane late Thursday night, falsely charged, convicted and humiliated early Friday, and finally escorted out to Golgotha, Jesus was crucified between two malefactors.

Among those standing by, watching the proceedings, probably smitten to the heart by the cruelty and injustice rendered, was a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who, although he was a member of the Jewish Sanhedrin, had been impressed by the teachings of Jesus and was "Jesus' disciple." Courageously, this man, in order to render a last act of service to his Lord, went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Pilate granted his request.

Tenderly, the body of Jesus was taken down from the cross, wrapped in a cloth and borne to the private garden nearby of this rich man and laid in the new tomb which Joseph had had hewn out in the rock. There the body of Jesus was hastily prepared for burial because the work had to be done before sunset and the beginning of the Jewish sabbath, or those touching the body would be defiled and unable to observe the sabbath.

The usual method of preparing a body was to wrap it round and round with a long linen cloth, laying spices between the folds, the face being left bare. Another cloth was twisted, turban-like, around the head. Joseph, assisted by Nicodemus, another prominent Jewish leader, who had been a secret follower of Jesus, prepared the body of Jesus in the approved manner, as quickly as they could. Before leaving the garden, however, they were careful to see that a heavy stone was placed before the door of the tomb.

Outside the tomb, intensely interested in the proceedings, were two women, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary, probably the mother of James and Joseph. They had ministered unto their Lord for three years and were not willing to abandon him even though he was dead.

It would seem that the Jewish authorities, who had been responsible for the arrest, trial and crucifixion of Jesus, would have been satisfied when the were convinced that he was dead and safely put away in a rock tomb. But, remembering Jesus' many prophetic words that he would rise from the dead on the third day, they went back to Pilate, requesting that he seal the tomb with the official Roman seal and place and armed guard there to make sure that his disciples did not enter the tomb, take away the body of Jesus and then go about declaring that he had risen from the dead. The request was granted: the great sepulchre stone was sealed, and a guard of soldiers placed before it.

Just as soon as they could, after the end of the Sabbath, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary returned to the sepulchre with more spices to anoint the body of their Lord, probably feeling that the hasty preparations were not as complete as they would have like for them to have been.

Arriving at the sepulchre, they were surprised to see the heavy stone rolled away from the door and an angel sitting on it. The angel told them that Jesus, whom they sought, was not there, but had risen, even as he had said. After having seen with their own eyes that what the angel said was true, they were told to go quickly and tell his disciples that Christ had risen from the dead and would meet them in Galilee.

Trembling with excitement, hardly able to comprehend what they had seen and heard, bursting with joy in the fact that their Lord was not dead, these women ran at once to give the disciples news of what had happened. As they were running out of the garden, Jesus met them, called unto them and quieted them with the simple salutation, "All hail." They fell down at his feet and worshipped him.

The authenticity of the Christian faith stand or falls on the reality of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The written records of the gospels carry conviction, but there are other facts even more conducive to faith.

The fact that the early followers of Jesus changed from the traditional day of worship to the first day of the week in recognition of some great occasion to be commemorated is noteworthy. The transformation then brought about in the conduct of his disciples testified eloquently to some new and dynamic source of faith and confidence.

Peter, who denied his Lord three times in terror, after the resurrection faced the opposition and ridicule of the scribes and Pharisees and courageously preached the pentecostal sermon, winning thousands to a belief in and acceptance of Jesus Christ. So, also, Paul, after his vision of the resurrected Christ, changed from a persecutor to an expounder of the new faith.

H. L. Futch of Conservation Group 9, and W. R. Williams of Group 7, north of Dickens, have seeded grass the past week. Both planted a mixture of Little Bluestem, Sand Love Grass and Sand Dropseed. Futch planted 10 acres and Williams planted 9 acres. They intend to increase these plantings next spring if weather conditions are favorable. The Soil Conservation Service was asked to assist in each of these plantings and the special grass drill was used.

DANGER ALL THE WAY!

"GRIM" IS THE WORD, used by Washington authorities in a recent statement, to describe the immediate future of civilian passenger car transportation.

Tire trouble and tire shortages . . . motor trouble and parts shortages . . . are forcing so many cars off U. S. streets and highways every day, that the nation is rapidly approaching the low point in cars needed to keep our country's civilian economy at an efficient operating-level.

It's danger all the way, because every mile you drive places extra hazards and added burdens on your already over-age car. So in our country's interest, and in your own, be thrifty with your dwindling stock of car and tire miles.

making this planting. Byrum Britton has done a very good job of maintaining his terraces the past few days. He used a one-way to plow them up and increased his width as well as his height to make cultivation of his terraces less difficult.

Bert Wallace of near Clairemont has also been doing some work on his terraces lately. He had plenty of height on his terraces so he plowed them up from the shoulders out to give him greater width.

The Soil Conservation Service will assist Tom Murdock and L. O. Mayer of Jayton next week in trial plantings of Weeping Love Grass and Sand Love grass for seed production. They will plant 10 acres each, using special grass planting attachments on their planters. The District has a few more of these seed for distribution to cooperators for seed production purposes. Seed from these grasses can be harvested with a combine with special screens and other attachments. The District has been promised this equipment.

Texans at home should learn at least three basic service ribbons their veterans will wear, in the opinion of Capt. Faraon J. Moss, public relations officer at McCloskey General hospital, Temple, Tex.

"Learning to recognize where the men served is one of the least things the folks at home can do for the fellows who have kept the enemy away from American shores," Capt. Moss declared.

At the same time, Moss thinks American should also learn at least a little about the location of the war theatres.

"One fellow came back with a European theatre ribbon," he related. "A woman friend asked where he had served. The soldier said he had been fighting on the island of Sicily.

"The word 'island,' registered only one thing in her mind. "My!" she shuddered. "Aren't those Japs tough, though?"

"Can you wonder that the soldier was suddenly very disgusted with everybody at home?"

When Richard Wood, son of the British ambassador Lord Halifax and Lady Halifax, praised Texas troops before the state legislature in Austin a couple of weeks ago, he had in mind the multitude of exploits by Texans all over Europe.

A new one crops up now, performed by Pfc. William Miller, Alice, and a Baltimore, Md., buddy. The two men started for battalion headquarters with one German prisoner in their jeep. Soon they were taken prisoner and forced to be a shield for about 75 Germans. By a ruse and fast talk, Miller and his buddy reversed the process and, four hours later, went into camp with 15 of their captors as prisoners.

Lt. Edgar L. Murff Jr., of Normangee added the DFC to his air medal and six clusters the hard way. His liberator plane was so badly shot up in a mission over the Siegfried Line that it appeared almost impossible to fly. All his radio equipment was shot away. Yet, flying on little more than "a wing and a prayer" Lt. Murff took his plane back home. He had two similar experiences over Hamburg and Cologne.

And now with American troops on the move through Germany, the USO—to which Texans contributed through their record subscription to the United War Chest last fall—is following the combat units with entertainment to relieve the strain when the men have rest periods. USO-Camp Show units often give performances within the sound of the guns.

A Llano marine, Pfc. William G. Kuhn, had the honor of firing the first shell on the island of Iwo Jima. He was a member of the gun crew which not only fired the shell, but which braved Jap fire to drag the gun ashore.

Another Texan, Lt. Kenneth L. Caskey, Weatherford, won distinction on Iwo Jima as commander of a company of "bang-happy" engineers who were largely instrumental in capturing Mount Suribachi.

Again, Texans decorated are too numerous to be listed in a short column. But a few who have won medals for valor include: T/Sgt. Eugene Q. Robinson, Plano; Sgt. Lodas D. Herring, Bonham; S/Sgt. Joe H. Harist, Kilgore; Maj. Joe B. Smartt, Rockwall.

STAMFORD TEXAS
Cowboy Reunion to Hold 1945 Rodeo

W. G. Swenson, president of the Texas Cowboy Reunion, Inc., has announced the dates for the 1945 rodeo as the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th of July, after a directors meeting held in the office of the Stamford Chamber of Commerce.

The directors announced that none of the usual activities of the rodeo would be dropped and that they were expecting the 1945 performance to exceed all previous years in scope and color.

The gala parade will be held on the opening day only, beginning around 11 o'clock a.m. Mounted cowboys, cowgirl sponsors, bands, chuckwagons and colorful floats compose the parade.

The various committees are being appointed to work out the details of each activity, all of which will be given wide advanced publicity in order that all may make plans to participate in Texas' most unique show.

This year will mark the 15th annual holding of the Texas Cowboy Reunion Rodeo. The rodeo did not operate in 1943, but came back last year with a two day show instead of the usual three days and equaled the attendance and entry records of the best of previous years. This year's three day show is expected to break all records, both in entries and attendance.

COTTON CLASSIFICATION MARKET NEWS SERVICE

Free cotton classification and market news service during the 1945 crop year is again available from the War Food Administration to organized cotton improvement groups which apply for it under the Smith-Doxey Act. Applications for this free service may be filed as soon as members have planted their cotton and must be filed not later than August 1, or August 15—depending on locality. Improvement groups which file applications promptly can obtain the maximum service for their members.

Applications must be filed with the Office of Marketing Services, WFA, not later than August 15 for groups in Texas counties lying entirely, or for the most part, west of the 100th meridian. Cotton samples classed for improvement groups under the Smith-Doxey Act in the 1944-45 season are expected to represent about 3,850,000 bales, or about one-third of the total ginnings in the United States. This compares with samples classed covering 3,350,000 bales from cotton produced in the 1943-44 season, or 29 per cent of ginnings for that season.

Memberships of improvement groups and the reported acreage planted by members have shown a steady increase since the Smith-Doxey classing service became available to farmers in the 1938 season. The average number of members per group has increased annually from 60 in 1938 to 133 in 1944.

Instructions and application blanks ma be obtained from county agricultural agents or from Office of Marketing Services offices at the following addresses: 1104 South Ervay Street, Dallas 1, Texas; and 1701 Avenue H, Lubbock, Texas. The Office of Marketing Services also has cotton classing offices in nearly all cotton-producing states, from which instructions and application blanks may be obtained.

Remodeling of New Western Associate Store in Progress

Remodeling of the building that will be the new site of the Western Auto Associate Store is expected to be completed in two weeks, but it will not be occupied for about 60 days pending the arrival of new fixtures, E. A. Brashear, owner, announced Monday.

The new location takes in the two 25-foot front buildings formerly occupied by Foodway, Runners Shoe Repair and Spur barber shop. Partitions between these buildings have been torn down, making one 50-foot front building.

Following the modern trend in construction of buildings for this type of business, the new Western Auto Associate store will have a red and ivory vitrolite front up to the awning, with large glass plate windows extending about six inches above the sidewalk level.

There will not be platforms behind the plate glass to serve as show windows; instead, the new open front architecture will place the whole store on display, Brashear explained. After the war, Brashear said, the awning will be replaced with a new one and the area above the awning will be done in vitrolite, too.
