The Crushing Shell of the Bowsher Grinder is easily opened, making it an easy matter to remove any pieces of bolts or nails which so often get in the grain. The burrs can also be replaced without difficulty. They are the handiest and most easily operated grinders made.

The Winter Season.

Winter makes for social growth and mental broadening on the farm. It is the fireside season. It brings the farmer and his family into closer touch with each other than any other period of the year. Winter therefore makes for civilization. It is a time when the farmer may enjoy the solid comforts peculiar to his vocation.

With his corn in the crib, his fuel supply provided, his feeding operations systematized, and general farm work finished, the farmer is in position to derive genuine pleasure from the comparative leisure which characterizes farm life when winter begins in earnest. It is usually necessary to spend much of the daytime outdoors, but the evenings are generally unoccupied, so that opportunity is offered for reading, for social intercourse, for those wholesome entertainments which distinguish farm life. These are of extensive variety, ranging from a molasses candy pulling to a dance. And what glorious times the old folk and young have at these functions. It delights the fathers and mothers to see their children enjoying themselves. Not all the pleasure is in participation.

Country people are growing saner in their regard for social recreation. They see more good in innocent pastimes than formerly; they have come to believe that farm folk are entitled to a good time as they go through life. This does not mean that they are any the less strict in matters of morals. It means that they no longer adhere tenaciously to those notions of personal conduct which forbade some of the most enjoyable social features of rural life. For this reason the winter season is hailed with greater delight than ever before.

Let us restore to their full activity all the old and maintain all the new social functions adapted to the farm home. With corn to pop, apples to eat and the larder replete with the "raw material" which the women-folk know how to translate into dishes fit for epicures, and with the circle of friends gathered for a social evening, the farmer and his family need not envy anybody. This is getting something out of life. And it comes in largest measures in with the winter season.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1905.

The heavy rain storms are good for the wheat crop.

What are the citizens going to do about incorporating for school purposes.
Commissioners' court meets November 13th, and this question should be presented.
Let us have the opinion of the public on this matter.

Chas. Alexander and Geo.
T. Curtis returned Tuesday from an extended trip to Tahoka, Gail and Brownfield where they had been in the interest of the new metallic circuit 'phone line from this place to Gail.

It continues to rain, which indicates that we will have another good season. There is nothing that beautifies a home more than trees. As above stated, indications are favorable for a good season, and we should plant trees or prepare to do so in the spring.

There is a wide spread movement over the state to elect the best men possible to the legislature. Such men as Jas. S. Hogg, Geo.
Clark, M. M. Crane, Cone
Johnson, Charley Jenkins are mentioned. Some have consented to serve if the people want them. Texas has certainly had enough of kid legislators the past few years and the people show unmistakable signs of weariness of boy-made laws.
However, age does not always imply wisdom.—Baird Weekly Star.

In this issue we present the name of S. C. Spikes to the people as a candidate for the office of Tax Assessor of Lubbock and attached counties. Mr. Spikes is a native Texan and has lived in West Texas for the past fifteen years. He was Tax Assessor of Crosby county for four years, and gave universal satisfaction. He is a perfect gentleman, and is highly esteemed by all who know him.
He has lived in Lubbock and adjoining counties for several years and was in the mercantile business in this town for some time, thereby forming a favorable acquaintance with the majority of the voters in the county. He promises, if elected, that all property subject to taxation will be properly assessed.

OLD FOLKS' CONCERT

At the Court House

November 29, 1905

By MISS LULU CAMPBELL

For the benefit of the

M. E. Parsonage

Hand in Hand.

Still ripples break

Along the shore

Where you and I,

In days of yore,

In love's young dream,

Walked up and down

Far from the world,

Far from the town;

Alone where waves

Fell on the sand;

All, all alone.

And hand in hand.

The world was full,

Brimfull of you,

And joy for me

That week or two!

Vacation time!

Ah, what a time!

What dreams to dream!

What hills to climb!

The waves still break

Along the shore

Where I went broke

In days of yore.

—J. M. Lewis.

The Pen is Mightier than the Sword.

This is an old Adage and Time Proves it True,
but for Making Neat, Compact Abstracts,

There is Nothing That Will Equal

A Business Proposition: If you have patented land, you can borrow from $800 to $1500 per section on it. If stocked with cattle, a dozen calves per year will pay the interest—even at the present low prices—and the remainder of the profit is yours. If you have school land, you can patent it for $1 per acre. Loans can be made only on land of Clear Record Title.

Have You Thought Just what is meant by a Complete Abstract of the County Records?
It means that we have carefully read every instrument recorded in the county, and, giving a separate page to each tract of land, have entered a memorandum of each of these instruments on our books, and can see at a glance a list of all the deeds, mortgages, etc., affecting any piece of land in the county or any town lot in the town of Lubbock. Since opening up business the past summer, we have furnished abstracts of the title to 65 tracts of land, and 96 town lots, which goes to show that a great many people realize our advantages in this line, though some continue to buy real estate with no other assurance than a warranty deed. It will pay you to be careful for very few have an idea of the many tangles disclosed by our county records.

Ranch Land Abstracts: By means of our complete Abstract Books we can prepare abstracts of any of the big pastures on short notice and with much greater accuracy than they can be made from the index, in the usual way. The leading loan company of the state, with business running into hundreds of thousands of dollars, pronounces our abstracts the best handled by them. Some of the largest land owners are having their lands abstracted for their own convenience.
We are prepared to do this promptly and accurately.

MARLIN

THE Marlin RIFLE, Model 1892, .32 calibre, is the best rifle made for exterminating pests and torments about a place, as rats, weazels, woodchucks, etc., also for a companion on your vacation trip, combining the good points of the old muzzle-loading squirrel rifle with the convenience and rapid fire of the most improved repeater. It is so constructed that the same rifle uses the following cartridges: .32 short and long rim-fire, .32 short and long center-fire, and is the only repeater made using rim-fire cartridges larger than .22 calibre.

The short cartridges are just the thing for small game while the long ones kill animals of fair size easily. On the first 2000 cartridges used you have saved the cost of a Marlin.

In Memoriam.

DIED: At the home of his father in Lubbock, Nov. 3rd. M. Y. Childers.

Saturday, November 4th, 1905, all that was mortal of Marion Y. Childers was laid to rest in the Lubbock Cemetery. The funeral services were conducted by Elder Liff Sanders, pastor of the Christian Church at this place. The funeral was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives.

Mr. Childers was taken sick at his home in Yoakum county, and brought to this town, where all that medical skill and loving hands could do to relieve his suffering and restore his health was done, but in vain. His work on earth was finished and he willingly obeyed the summons: "Come home." He bore his afflictions with patience and true fortitude. While he regretted to leave his wife and children, he expressed himself as being resigned to the will of God.

His kind disposition endeared him to the hearts of all who knew him. He was an affectionate husband and father, a good neighbor and kind to friends, and is sadly missed by all. He leaves a wife and two small children, a father, mother, one sister and brother, who loved him dearly, and hosts of friends who mourn his death.

May all who knew him be impressed to live Godly lives and be prepared to meet him in the Great Beyond, and may God, who knows best and doeth all things well, give them grace to sustain them in this great trial, is the wish of the writer.
