J. WILSON BOYLE DEAD

Died in a Hotel at Emma Last Wednesday Night—Heart Failure Cause.

J. Wilson Boyle, a prominent attorney of this city was found dead in his bed at the Meyer Hotel in Emma Thursday morning. There being no magistrate at command, no inquest could be held, but County Judge E. B. Covington took the matter in hand and held an investigation, and it was decided, or rather all the evidence pointed to the fact that he died of heart failure caused by drinking opiates. Such was also the decision reached by Dr. J. W. Carter, who was called immediately upon discovering the dead body.

Wednesday afternoon about four o'clock A. D. Meyer was in J. F. Littlefield's store having a prescription filled, and while Mr. Littlefield was away from the prescription case Mr. Boyle came in and picked up a bottle containing a dark fluid and drank two or three swallows, then picked up a bottle of rose water, rubbed it on his hands and then on his mouth, remarking to Mr. Meyer, who was standing by that that was to destroy the odor of the former drug. It developed that the dark fluid was opium, condensed, as was shown by the label on the bottle.

Mr. Boyle went to the home of S. S. Thomas, where he was boarding, and ate a hearty supper, drinking an unusual amount of milk. He then came back to town and went into Lackey's store where his actions led parties present to believe that he was drinking. He then went to the hotel and complained of feeling sick, and Mr. Meyer handed him a chair and bade him sit down, which he did. Shortly afterwards he fell backward on the floor, whereupon he was heard to remark: "It is all off now boys, it is all off now." Mr. Meyer, Dave Carr and Clayton Carter lifted him to his feet and took him into the east room of the hotel to put him to bed, still thinking that he was under the influence of whiskey. When they started to take off his clothes he objected, stating that he would rest a little while and go home. They granted his wish, put him to bed with his clothes on, and covered him up, thinking that he would soon be ready to go home, and not until they found him dead this morning did they once think of him being in danger.

A telegram has been sent to Mrs. Boyle, wife of the deceased, who is visiting her mother at Birmingham, Alabama.

An embalmer was phoned for at Plainview, who started immediately, traveling in an auto, and as we go to press we learn that the body has been embalmed and will be kept till Mrs. Boyle arrives.

Mr. Boyle was a Mason, an Odd Fellow and a Woodman, a member in good standing in each of the above named orders, being Worshipful Master of the Masonic Lodge at this place. Being a well versed lawyer, he has figured extensively in most business affairs of the town and county demanding the services of an attorney.

A cloud of sadness hovers over our little city and over the entire county. A man of remarkable intelligence, well versed in law and literature, just in the prime of life, a most perfect specimen of physical manhood, surrounded with plenty, it seems utterly unreasonable that he was tired of life and ended it thus, and most every one seems ready to denounce such a thought as foolish. Be it as it may, he is gone, and those who would can not recall him.—Emma News.

ESTABLISHING COLONY.

Lynn County Man Says He Has One of the Finest Communities in the West.

Mr. C. N. Hutto of the north west part of Lynn county was in Lubbock Wednesday and called at the Avalanche office before returning home.

Mr. Hutto, moved to Lynn county last March, not quite a year ago, from Knox county and purchased 13 sections of land, the Deuce of Hearts ranch which joins Lubbock county on the south. He at once went to work and put in a big farm of over 200 acres. He does not want the world with a fence around it and he hit upon the splendid idea of sub-dividing his land and placing it on the market to actual settlers and as a result he has located seven families, all good industrious progressive people, and they are bringing that part of the country into prominence by their progressiveness and rapid development of same. They have during the year built one of the best school buildings on the Plains at a cost of $1,000, and it is all paid for except possibly $100, and have a good school, now in session, under the management of Miss Dora Durdette, with 25 pupils. Mr. Hutto says he will have several more families added to his colony in a few weeks. He is selling this land in tracts of 80 and 160 acres, and will rent enough of his farm to new comers to make a crop on till they get a farm opened up. They have a church organization of the Baptist faith, a good Sunday school and a splendid Literary society which is the source of great pleasure to the people of that community.

There will be a box supper at the school house on the night of the 14th of March and a short program will be rendered by the members of the Literary society. The proceeds of the sale of the boxes will be used to furnish paying for the school building and purchase an organ.

Mr. Hutto says he will do the greater part of his trading in Lubbock from now on as he finds the road much better to this place than elsewhere. He had us send him the Avalanche so that he can keep tab on Lubbock and the country surrounding him. Such men as Mr. Hutto are valuable to the country and should have the assistance and encouragement of the people in general in his good work of settling up the country.

W. B. Burford and brother Bert of Acuff, were pleasant callers at our office Monday. W. B. advanced his subscription figures a year on our books. He has recently purchased land in Lubbock county and he is now improving his land. He says he will move his family out here about July if everything pans out as he expects at present.

The Ladies of the Baptist Church served oysters in the Wheelock building near the Band Hall Saturday from 3:00 o'clock to 10 o'clock p. m. and received quite a handsome net profit, which amount will be used for church improvements.

Judge H. C. Randolph was in the city first of the week from Plainview.

Precinct Number 2 of Midland county is to have a prohibition elect on on March 14th. As we understand the situation, the entire county is dry, already, with this one exception, and some few months ago after the saloons were ousted from Midland a saloon was established in the new town of Slaughter, between Midland and Stanton and the same has been causing the good people of that section a great amount of trouble from the day it was started, so the people now seek to put it out of business, and we are of the opinion it will have to lock up shop when the voters of that precinct get a whack at it at the polls. Its record of mischief-making has been a great one. Here's success to the good people of that community in their effort to eliminate so great an evil from their town and community.

We read the ads in our exchanges, you're right we do! One of the meat market ads in the Midland Examiner headed "Corn fed Pork from Fort Worth." attracted our attention, coming as it did after reading the editorial of the Livestock Reporter, about "superior" soil. Looks like you could have home-raised "corn-fed" pork. Our meat markets keep on hand a supply of fresh pork all the time (corn fed too) raised in Lubbock County. Lubbock does not have to send to Ft. Worth to get "corn fed pork" not on your life, we rather send several car loads to the Fort Worth market every year. The farmers of Lubbock county raise hogs and corn too, plenty of them, and not only do they supply the meat market here, but they sell the merchants hundreds of hogs every winter, which are cut up and salted down for the summer trade. Well, we guess our people and our country must have our sister town on the T P skinned in the matter "superior" soil and "corn-fed" hogs.

We are continually receiving letters of inquiry about this country, which goes to show how eager the people of the east and north are to learn more about the Plains country. We believe that our commercial club should be ever mindful of this and keep a good supply of advertising matter always on hand for the information of such people.

Mrs. B. Boyd has accepted a position as assistant in the post office.

FIRE ON THE T-RANCH.

Ranch House and Machinery
Burned Wednesday—Feed Stuff Destroyed.

Information was received here last week of the burning of the T-ranch house, together with a big stack of feed and ranch and farm machinery.

The origin of the fire is unknown and when first discovered the flames had gained such headway that nothing could be saved. The ranch headquarters escaped unburned—the building destroyed being the one occupied by the ranch hands. The implement house in which was stored plows, binders, mowers, wagons and other farm machinery, to the amount of probably $1200 to $1500 was all destroyed. A large stack of feed was also consumed, which was no doubt of great value at this time of year.

The full amount of the loss has not been learned, but it will sum up in the thousands.

Ranch hands employed there lost considerable in the matter of clothing, trunks, etc.

The Fort Worth Telegram is doing a great deal for the Panhandle and West Texas, in the way of telling to the world of the progress and wonderful development of this great country, and of possibilities and great things the future will undoubtedly present us with. It has a set of wide-awake correspondents in every West Texas town of any note, who keep that paper well informed of the happenings in their respective localities. In last Sunday's issue a full page was devoted to Panhandle and West Texas news. In the center of the page was a cartoon representing West Texas as she was and as she is now. The cartoon consisted of a small boy playing in the upper left hand corner showed the boy dressed in cowboy attire, with broad brim hat, leather leggings, spurs and sixshooter, with a Spanish pony, big saddle and lariat, which represented the west in by-gone days. In the lower right hand corner, the boy is pictured in an entirely different attitude, the great change of conditions in this section, demanding it, and his principal toy now is automobiles, factories, railroads, cotton compresses, etc. All of which is the true spirit which the people of the west possess. We are growing and our development is attracting the attention of people in all parts of the United States.

Remember if you have not put your fire-guards in good condition, you had better do so yet. You never know when a prairie fire may start and in a few minutes wipe out every sprig of grass from your pasture, which might all be saved by a little precaution on your part at the proper time.

The Avalanche is heartily in favor of putting into operation at an early date a water works system of some sort, so that the town will have a more adequate means of putting out a probable fire.

G. J. Rose of Meadow, was in the city Monday and paid the Avalanche a pleasant call and had us add his name to our good list at Meadow.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION.

The State of Texas: To the Sheriff or any constable of Lubbock County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon the heirs of Phamay Jay, deceased, whose names are unknown, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Lubbock County, to be held at the city thereof, in the town of Lubbock, on the 1st Monday in May, 1908, being the 4th day of May, A. D. 1908, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 9th day of January, 1908, in a cause numbered No. 349, wherein Martha H. Jay is plaintiff and the unknown heirs of Phamay Jay and Benjamin H. Mills and Lydia J. Mills and Martha E. Walton and John Walton are defendants, the cause of action being alleged as follows:

Plaintiff resides in Clinton County, State of Ohio, and that the residence of defendants is unknown, that on January 1st, 1906, plaintiff was and now is lawfully seized and possessed, of the lands described below, and on said date defendants ejected plaintiff therefrom and unlawfully withholds the possession thereof from plaintiff, to her damage $5000.00. That plaintiff held said land in fee simple estate, the same being described as follows: 1st. Survey No. 71 in blk. C, Lubbock and Crosby Counties, Texas, located by virtue of Certificate of Land Script No. 10, issued to Dallas & Wichita Ry. Co. and patented to Phamay Jay, May 28th, 1879, by Patent No. 66, Vol. 30, containing 640 acres, 2nd. Being situated in Lubbock County, Texas, and known as the south one-half of the southeast one-fourth, and the northeast one-fourth of the southeast one-fourth of survey No. 107 in block C, by virtue of certificate 119 issued to Dallas & Wichita Ry. Co., and patented to Paris Cox, March 25th, 1879, by patent No. 60, Vol. 30, containing 120 acres of land. Plaintiff alleges her title to be as follows: Section No. 71 was patented by State to Phamay Jay May 28th, 1879, patent No. 66, Vol. 30. And that survey 107 was patented by State to Paris Cox, March 25th, 1879, and the 120 acres sued for was by Paris Cox conveyed to Phamay Jay by deed dated April 23rd, 1879, which is recorded in book Y1, page 52, Lubbock Co. Deed Record. And that both tracts were by said Phamay Jay, (she being an unmarried woman) conveyed to Martha H. Jay and her husband, Samuel S. Jay, by deed dated April 8th, 1886, the deed being recorded on page 69 of volume BT of Lubbock Co. Deed Records. Afterwards in same date plaintiff and Samuel S. Jay conveyed to said Phamay Jay a life estate only in and to the above described land, by deed recorded in volume BT at page 73, of Lubbock Co. Deed Records. Afterwards on July 10th, 1886, the said Samuel S. Jay conveyed to Benjamin D. Jay all his interest in said lands by deed, recorded in book 6 at page 390, Lubbock Co. Deed Records, and that afterwards on same day, the said Benjamin D. Jay and wife Dora M. Jay, conveyed to Martha H. Jay, the tracts of land above described by deed, recorded in Vol. 6 on page 393, Lubbock Co. Deed Records. That Phamay Jay was a widow on April 8th, 1886, and that she departed this life in A. D. 1890, and that upon her death the estate in remainder immediately vested in and reverted to plaintiff. Plaintiff further alleges that she is the only surviving child of said Phamay Jay, but that said Phamay Jay had one deceased child, who was named Sarah, who had married — Mills, and said Sarah and husband were both dead long prior to Phamay Jay's death, and that said Sarah left surviving her two children or other descendants, named Benjamin H. Mills, and Martha E. Mills who married John Walton, and if there be other heirs of said Phamay Jay or of Sarah Mills, their names are to plaintiff unknown. Plaintiff alleges that the claim if any, of the defendants to the above described land, is to plaintiff unknown, unless it be as the heirs of Phamay Jay. Prayer for judgment for title and possession of above described premises, for writ of restitution, costs of suit and general relief. Should the same for any reason be refused, then plaintiff says that on April 8th, 1886, she and said Samuel S. Jay were husband and wife, and on said date Phamay Jay, (plaintiff's mother) conveyed to plaintiff and her husband the lands above described. That afterwards on same day, plaintiff and her husband did sell and convey to said Phamay Jay a life estate only, in and to the said above described lands, and by apt words so limited the estate granted, said deed being recorded in book BT at page 73 of Deed Records of Lubbock Co., Texas. Plaintiff alleges that if the said deed to said Phamay Jay did not in fact so limit the estate so granted to the life only of said Phamay Jay, that in fact and in truth such was the intention of all the parties thereto, and the failure to so limit the estate so granted, was a mutual mistake, or a mistake of the draughtsman. That afterwards on July 10th, 1886, Samuel S. Jay sold to Benjamin D. Jay his undivided interest in said land. That afterwards on same day Benjamin D. Jay and wife Dora M. Jay conveyed said lands to plaintiff. That Samuel S. Jay died in 1881, and Phamay Jay died in 1890. Plaintiff is only surviving child of Phamay Jay, and Benjamin H. Mills and Martha E. Walton is the only other surviving heirs of said Phamay Jay so far as plaintiff knows, and verily believes. That upon the death of said Phamay Jay

You are hereby commanded to summon Benjamin H. Mills, Lydia J. Mills, Martha E. Walton, and John Walton by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks, previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 64th Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest district to said 64th Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Lubbock County, to be held in at the Court House thereof, in town of Lubbock, on the first Monday in May, 1908, the same being the 4th day of May, 1908, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 9th day of January, 1908, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court Number 349, wherein Martha H. Jay is plaintiff, Benjamin H. Mills, Lydia J. Mills, Martha E. Walton and John Walton, and the unknown heirs of Phamay Jay, deceased, are defendants, said petition alleging, that full title immediately vested in plaintiff. That the supposed ambiguities in the deed of April 8th, 1886, from Samuel S. Jay and Martha H. Jay to Phamay Jay, and the claims of defendants, if any, because thereof, are a cloud upon the plaintiff's title. Prayer first, for citation to defendants, and for judgment for title and possession of the above described lands, for removal of cloud from title, for writ of restitution, for costs of suit, and for special and general relief. Prayer in the alternative that the court construe the deed from Samuel S. Jay and Martha H. Jay to Phamay Jay to convey a life estate only, to said Phamay Jay, and under the facts to reform the same to so read, and substituting said reformed instrument as a muniment in plaintiff's title, and that all title be divested out of defendants that may appear to be in them, and place the same in plaintiff, and for removal of cloud from title, and for possession, and for writ of restitution, costs, and special and general relief.

Herein fail not, but have you before said court on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

You are further commanded to serve this citation by publishing the same once in each week for eight successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in a newspaper published in your county; but if no newspaper is published in said county, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published.

Invested in Ranch Property In Panhandle. Arrested Must Face Charge.

Sheriff J. E. Hughes of Potter county will reach Fort Worth late Tuesday afternoon with Will Watts alias A. E. Richmond, who was arrested by him in Shamrock neighborhood east of Amarillo Saturday and has been identified as the man who is wanted in Paris, Tex. for the theft of a $5,000 express package from the Wells Fargo Express Company. R. E. L. Montgomery, agent of the express company at Paris who went to Amarillo and identified the prisoner, will accompany Sheriff Hughes and the prisoner.

G. A. Taft, superintendent of the express company with headquarters at Houston, came to Fort Worth Tuesday morning and will join the party here.

The career of Richmond, whose real name is supposed to be Will Watts, is full of dramatic interest. He was born in Indian Territory and when 22 years of age was sentenced to a term of five years in the Atlanta federal penitentiary on conviction of horse stealing. He was sent there under the name of James Williams.

After leaving the Penitentiary he came to Paris, Tex., and secured employment as transfer man with the Wells-Fargo Express Company. He soon became associated with the good people of Paris and furnished the company with a good bond and satisfactory references. There was no irregularity about his work until the morning of July 28, 1907, when it was found that he was absconded with an express package, containing $5,000. He was indicted on this charge.

Since that time every effort has been made to find him and a reward of $500 was offered for his capture. There were no clues to be worked on and he had apparently disappeared from the face of the earth.

It was while searching for him that his criminal record was looked up and it was found that he had several aliases—being known as a James Williams, James Cunningham, Albert Edward, Richmond and Will Watts. His picture found in the rogues gallery was sent out with thousands of circulars and his description was placed in the hands of every officer in Texas.

Sheriff Hughes was the first officer in Texas to secure any trace of the much wanted man. He learned of a ranchman living in the Canadian brakes who had purchased a ranch there several months ago and had recently married a well known woman of that community. The description of Richmond fitted with that of the ranchman, who went under the name of Brown.

Hughes visited the ranch under the pretense of being in search of land and then sent to Parris for a photograph of Richmond. Soon after his arrival he wired for a warrant for his arrest and making another visit to the ranch with a deputy, placed Brown under arrest. The latter went heavily armed at all times, but he was taken by surprise by Mr. Hughes and offered no resistance.

BANKERS GUILTY.

Abilene Bankers' Case Affirmed By Appellate Court, at New Orleans.

New Orleans, Feb. 25. — The United States circuit court of appeals today affirmed the verdict of the lower court in its sentence of five years each for John G. Lowden and Otto W. Steffens, charged with abstraction, false entry and misappropriation of funds of the American National Bank at Abilene.

This case was first brought up in Abilene early in 1906, when at that time, a grand jury returned indictments of thirty-two counts against Steffens and Lowden, charging them with misappropriation, abstraction of funds, false entry and embezzlement. At that time Lowden was president and Steffens vice president of the American National bank there, an institution which they had organized, and which failed January 18, 1905.

MEN CONVICTED

Trial of these charges came up in April, 1906, in Abilene, and a hard-fought legal battle ensued. The trial resulted in an acquittal on the charge of embezzlement, but a conviction on the charges of abstraction, false entry and misappropriation. The case was appealed and reversed, and tried again in April, 1907. This trial was also held in Abilene and lasted two weeks.

SECOND TRIAL.

This jury returned a verdict of guilty, there being three counts against Steffens and sixteen against Lowden. They were sentenced to five years in the penitentiary, and the case was appealed to the United States court at New Orleans.
