Mail Air Planes Make Initial Trip Across Continent

FIRST TRANSCONTINENTAL AIR SERVICE STARTED TUESDAY A. M. PROMISES TO END SUCCESSFULLY

IOWA CITY, Iowa, July 1.—Cleaving the air through a lane between this city and Cheyenne, Wyoming, illuminated at 150-mile intervals with powerful beacon lights, the west bound mail planes that took up the first trans-continental flight in the new coast to coast service were reported close to Omaha, Neb., in messages received here last Tuesday night.

The planes had arrived here shortly before 9 p. m. from Chicago, and took off at 9:20. A powerful searchlight placed here to guide the night mail carriers, lighted their way as they took the air.

The mail carried in these planes had left New York at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, had arrived in Chicago shortly before 6 p. m. had been transferred to other planes there, and, under the guidance of new pilots had been brought through the dusk here. It was dark long before the planes landed here.

Meanwhile, another airplane was rushed westward through the night, having left San Francisco early Tuesday. This aircraft was last reported between Cheyenne, Wyoming, and North Platte.

The east bound plane is due to arrive in Chicago early Wednesday night.

CHICAGO, July 1.—The first United States air mail plane to pass over the airway from coast to coast in the government's new trans-continental service landed at Checkerboard field here on its westward trip from New York to San Francisco at 5:58 o'clock central standard time Tuesday afternoon.

The plane was piloted by W. D. Williams and had taken off from New York at 10 a. m. Tuesday, and had left Bryan, Ohio for Chicago at 3:45 Tuesday afternoon.

The second plane piloted by Arthur Smith, which also left New York at 10 a. m. did not leave Bryan on the last leg of the flight to Chicago until 4:45 o'clock and was expected to arrive here at any minute. Both fliers were ahead of their schedule.

The east bound plane, which took off from San Francisco at 6 a. m. Tuesday is due to arrive in Chicago at 7:45 Wednesday morning. It is due to arrive in New York at 9:05 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

The first plane to arrive here in the new service carried 500 pounds of mail, approximately 30,000 letters.

The two west bound planes are expected to leave Chicago at 6:50 o'clock and if they carry out their schedule they will arrive at 5:15 o'clock Wednesday.

The second plane from the east landed at Checkerboard field at 6:15 central standard time. Smith, the pilot, said he had bucked a stiff wind all the way from Bryan, Ohio.

JAP RESTRICTION LAW BRINGS IN BIG DEBATE

LYONS, France, July 1.—American restriction of Japanese immigration precipitated a violent debate during the session of the Federation of League of Nations Societies here Tuesday when the two American delegates opposed a Japanese resolution for racial equality.

The Japanese delegation had introduced a resolution establishing the principle of racial equality and equitable commercial and professional treatment for all races in all countries.

C. A. Dunaway of Colorado Springs and the Rev. Horace Bridges of Chicago declared that the adoption of this resolution would further prejudice the United States against the league.

The Japanese delegation maintained that their position was just. After a heated argument, the French intervened and induced the American and Japanese delegates to meet and endeavor to agree upon the text of a compromise resolution. If such a resolution is drawn up it will be discussed at Wednesday's session.

SANTA FE ENGINE REPAIR SHOPS ARE CLOSED TEMPORARILY

TOPEKA, Kas., July 1.—The Santa Fe locomotive shops were closed by order of Fred C. Fox, general manager, until July 14. The action was taken to conserve the working forces of the road and avoid the necessity of long layoffs.

The order will also affect such branches of the shop's organizations as are directly affected by the work in the locomotive shops. The order includes shops in San Bernardino, Cal., Cleburne, Texas, and Shop-ton, Iowa.

There has been a considerable slackening up in work at the Topeka shops recently and little repair work is in sight. The car repair department has been working on a forty-hour week basis for two months.

FOUR CENT REDUCTION IN PRICE OF GASOLINE IN KANSAS CITY

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 1.—What is believed to be the first move in an organized plan to slash gasoline prices in Kansas City, came Tuesday when one independent reduced the price four cents a gallon. Gasoline now sells here for 15.9 cents a gallon plus the one cent city tax. The larger oil companies are expected to meet immediately the reduction.

TENT CATAPILLAR IS THE KANSAS FRUIT

KANSAS CITY, Kas., July 1.—The tent caterpillar is threatening fruit and shade trees again this year. Last year many trees were almost defoliated. No tree is able to withstand defoliation year after year.

GASTON B. MEANS FOUND GUILTY VOLSTEADING

NEW YORK, July 1.—Gaston B. Means who sprang into prominence with sensational testimony before the Brookhart committee was found guilty Tuesday in federal district court of conspiracy to violate the Volstead act. Elmer W. Jarnecke, Means' former secretary was also found guilty with him on the same charge.

The indictment on which the men were convicted charged conspiracy to obtain release of fifty barrels of whiskey from the Samuel Thompson Distilling company warehouse at Brownsville, Pa.

It had been testified that Frank D. Saugh and John W. Hubbard wealthy Pittsburgh men, paid Means and Jarnecke, through an agent, the sum of $15,000 to obtain permits to sell the whiskey.

The maximum penalty carried by the conviction is two years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine. It is expected that the men will be sentenced Wednesday although Fred Cox, counsel for Means, and Jarnecke will make a formal motion to set aside the verdict.

Both men have been remanded to the Tombs. The jury returned its verdict after an hours deliberation.

MADDOO STILL LEADS THE FIELD TUESDAY NIGHT BUT LOST VOTES ALL DAY; DARK HORSES SPEED UP

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, July 1 (UN)—After struggling through thirty ballots, the democratic national convention adjourned Tuesday night still enmeshed in the deadlock between a field of two leading candidates and a group of minor aspirants.

At the finish of the second days balloting, McAdoo still had a numerical lead of 92 votes over Al Smith, his nearest rival. But McAdoo has been slipping gradually and wound up 16 below where he started Monday.

At 10:45 eastern standard time, the convention adjourned until Wednesday morning when a desperate effort will be made to bring matters to a head and force one candidate across the line.

Smith finished the day at his peak—323 1-2. This represents a steady climb of 86 votes from his get-away on the first ballot. His chances of winning the nomination, however, are regarded as remote because he still lacks 400 or more of the necessary two-thirds. McAdoo seems similarly destined to defeat because delegations slipped away from him and he was unable to replace these losses.

PRISON TERMS ARE GIVEN TWENTY-EIGHT MEN

EBENSBURG, Pa., July 1.—Prison terms of two years each were meted out here to 28 men, 18 of whom are alleged to be Klansmen and ten of whom are citizens of Lilly, and all of whom had been convicted of affray and unlawful assemblage in connection with the Lilly Klan riot last April.

Judge Thomas D. Finletter, of Philadelphia refused both motions to set aside judgement and far a new trial. All prisoners were sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution. Their two years terms in the county jail begin from date of incarceration.

A motion was granted for arrest of judgement in the case of Robert A. Monahan, John P. Bradley and Jeremiah Leahy, three of the 18 Lilly citizens found guilty of participation in the affair.

Granting this motion, Judge Finletter declared the court felt that they had not been active in the shooting at Lilly, but were on the scene merely as spectators. Indictments charging murder and manslaughter are standing against all three and the court admitted them to $1,000 bail each.

The alleged Klansmen sentenced to prison are: Li E. Neff, C. R. Edmundson, A. L. Wagner, Forest Gindlesperger, D. Beum, Ralph Fetter, Frank Howard, William Poets, Reuben Miller, Roy Ripple, Charles Roland, George Shank, Herman Kuntz, Wilson Sitter Samuel Evans, Harry Johnson, Fred Richter and Russell Alfred.

Lilly citizens mentioned were: John Boylan, Gerald Carney, Carl Fees, Wm. Monahan, Domengy Carnizina, Edward McManamy, Dan Cleary, Harold Bradley, Thomas Crary and Regs Bradley.

Judge Finletter announced from the bench that the verdict rendered by the jury was a credit to the community. Stating that he did wish to inflict a cruel sentence, he added: "The fact cannot be overlooked that the defendants actions brought the death of three Lilly citizens."

THOMAS P. GABLE NEW COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS

EL PASO, Texas July 1.—Thomas P. Gable, assumed the office of collector of customs here Tuesday, succeeding C. C. Chase and relieving W. W. Carpenter, who has acted as collector since the resignation of Mr. Chase, when called to Washington to testify in the oil investigation. Chase is a son-in-law of Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior.

MADDOO TAKES LOSS OF SEVERAL VOTES, SMITH GAINES A FEW AND DAVIS MAKES NOTICEABLE GAINS

At the moment it appears as if John W. Davis and Samuel M. Ralston will engage in a sprint to see which has the most wind. There is hardly likely to be any serious crash in the McAdoo or Smith camps until these other trial hearts are cooled up.

Here the important figures on the balloting thus far: Total ballots 24—15 Monday; 9 Tuesday.

McAdoo's strength of first ballot 431 1-2; on fifteenth 479; on 24th 438 1-2.

McAdoo's high 479 on the 15th—253 short of two-thirds majority. Smith's strength on first ballot 241; on 15th 305 1-2; on 24th 308.

McAdoo's lead over Smith on 24th ballot 130 1-2. John W. Davis' strength on first ballot 21; on 15th 61; net result of 24 ballots McAdoo gains 7; Smith gains 67; Davis gains 98 1-2; Ralston, Cox, Glass, Robinson and Underwood, are practically where they began on the first ballot.

McAdoo reached his peak with 479 on the last ballot Monday and never afterward was he able to touch that point. He declined steadily and then suffered a stunning blow when Missouri switched its 36 votes from him to John W. Davis on the 20th ballot. He suffered a physical reversal when Florida threw her unit vote overboard in order to give one of her

George - Meredith Shops Formally Opened Tues.

Joe George and E. L. Meredith, formally opened their barber shop and beauty parlor in the new building at the corner of Broadway and Avenue K. Tuesday evening.

Music was furnished and the many visitors ushered through the building and given an opportunity to see what is regarded as the most up-to-date shop in the country.

Both Messrs George and Meredith are experienced barbers and have been in the business for a number of years, but it is not yet known whether or not they will be active in the business. Mr. Meredith will continue the real estate business, having provided an office in one corner of the barber shop. It is probable that Mr. George will be actively engaged in the barber business.

A large stock of barbers' supplies, toilet articles, etc., will be kept in stock for the retail trade. The Marinella Beauty Parlor, which will be operated in connection with the barber shop and which will be in the hands of experienced workers, is especially attractive and will be appreciated by the ladies of Lubbock.

Members of the committee say that tourist traffic is steadily increasing and that all indications are that there will be more visitors to the camp grounds here this season than ever before.

HUNDREDS OF FOREIGNERS TURNED BACK

EL PASO, July 1.—There were hundreds of disappointed Russians and Syrians in Juarez Tuesday, who failed to get passport visas at the American consulate before the new immigration law went into effect. The immigrants crowded the offices all day Monday. The quota only called for the admittance of 100 and as the quota was filled, only one was eligible to enter through the Juarez port. Much of the trouble was caused through inability of the foreigners to get quick visas from American consuls in their own countries.

REPRESENTATIVE FROM KANSAS BURIED TUESDAY P. M.

ABILENE, Kans., July 1.—Abilene shut up shop Tuesday, while its people paid their last respects to a dead leader—Col. Edward C. Little, representative from Kansas, who died in Washington following a nervous collapse.

The funeral cortege moved slowly through streets lined with flag-draped buildings to a small knoll in the Abilene cemetery where the body was lowered into the ground as a firing squad from Fort Riley fired a final salute.

Col. Little was a candidate for re-election at the time of his death. He collapsed in Washington at the end of the legislative session.

The meeting was opened with a prayer, led by Mrs. H. T. Kimbro and followed by a short business session with the president, Mrs. Rylander, in the chair. A number of items of importance were transacted and Mrs. Brown, chairman of the loan closet committee, reported that the linen had been stamped and placed in charge of Miss Murtze, local Red Cross secretary, to be used for benevolent purposes. A free will offering was made which will go into the charity fund.

gural flight of the all-by-air mail route, between the Atlantic and Pacific seaboard.

Wesley L. Smith, and Hamilton Lee, air-mail pilots, took off from this field shortly after 11 o'clock Tuesday morning and their cargo of mail is due in San Francisco at 5:45 Pacific coast-time Wednesday afternoon. Arrangements had been made for a single ship to make the initial flight but so great was the volume of mail received here that the carrying capacity of 500 pounds was not sufficient and a second ship was sent westward bearing 250 pounds of additional air-mail matter. Mail dropped in special air-mail boxes as late as 8 o'clock Tuesday morning was hurried to the field in time to catch the last plane.

Delegates of the convention and other visitors took advantage of facts in Madison Square Garden whereby they might send "bulletins" of the conventions to friends in California. Among the messages was a letter from President Coolidge to Governor Richardson of California, which Special delivery arrangements will permit mail which left here before noon Tuesday to be delivered to home addresses in San Francisco by Wednesday night.

Plates Lee and Smith guided the mail to Cleveland where they were relieved by Pilots who carried on to Chicago where another relief was to take charge as far as Omaha. The mail is scheduled Mountain time. From Chicago to to reach Cheyenne at 5:25 a. m. Cheyenne has been constructed 885 miles of illuminated aerial highways with beacons every 25 miles. This illumination will be extended westward and eastward as winter approaches and the days grow longer.

The air mail route is via Bellefonte, Pa.; Cleveland, Bryan, Ohio; Chicago, Iowa City; Omaha, North Platte, Nebraska; Cheyenne, Rawlins Wyoming; Rock Springs, Wyo. Salt Lake City; Elko, Nevada, and Reno, Nevada to San Francisco.

THE HUB TOWN STROLLERS PROVE THEMSELVES ABLE ENTERTAINERS IN PRESENTATION OF PROGRAM

The Hub Town Strollers proved themselves entertainers of the first class to a crowd that taxed the capacity of the first floor of the high school auditorium Tuesday evening and as a result of their efforts the funds for the local orphanage are greatly improved.

The opening number, "A rehearsal of Olden Days," was enjoyed and appreciated by all. Special musical numbers, including several solos and a violin duet were features of the number that were especially enjoyed.

"At The Movies," was indeed one of the most clever skits that has been presented by home talent in Lubbock. Dudley Ferrell, Ross McWhorter, Misses Mildred and Laura Street and Margaret Smith typified the theatre goers in a manner that marked them players of the first class and their appearance added much to the program.

"Suppressed Desires," a two act comedy, offered an evening's entertainment alone and was well worth many times the admission and those taking part in its presentation deserve credit for taking part in a play that will lend greater popularity to home talent features in Lubbock in the future.

Mrs. Wm. D. Green, as Mrs. Brewster, a hobbyist on psychonates, an architect and Miss Vernon Robyn, as Mabel, Mrs. Brewster's sister, played their part well and succeeded in keeping the audience in an uproar of hearty laughter throughout the two acts.

It would be difficult to explain the many situations that arose during the course of the play that made it so interesting, and to say the least those taking part in it displayed much ability and the result of good training.

"The Sick Doll," a musical reading was a beautiful feature of the program and was rendered by Mrs.

Sid Wells, Misses Mary Meador, Katherine Atkins, Laura Street and Mildred Street.

Messrs. Wendell, Dyess, Williams and Peak appeared near the close of the program with an appropriate song that was one of the many enjoyed features of the program.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jopling, of Houston, arrived in Lubbock Monday and conducted a demonstration of Maxwell House tea at the Myrick Hardware Store Tuesday for the Radford Grocery company. The demonstration will be continued throughout today and Mrs. Jopling is eager to have a large number of local people visit her today and will serve them delicious tea and cake.

EDUCATION.

We often hear people ridiculing education, and we very often hear some old hairy faced, snuff-dipping, tobacco chaser saying in loud tones between acts of spitting, that he does not believe in education; that he never had any, and gets along fine. But did you ever stop to think that knowledge can not be stolen from you. It can not be bought or sold. You may be poor, and the sheriff come into your house, and sell your furniture at auction, or drive away your cow, or take your lamb, and leave you homeless and penniless; but he can not lay the law's hand upon the jewelry of your mind. This can not be taken for debt; neither can you give it away, though you give enough of it to fill a million minds.

I will tell you what such giving is like. Suppose, now, that there were no sun or stars in the heavens, nor anything that shone in the black brow of night; and suppose that a lighted lamp were put into your hand, which should burn wasteless and clear amid all the tempests that should brood upon this lower world.

Suppose, next, that there were a thousand millions of human beings on the earth with you, each holding in his hand an unlighted lamp, filled with the same oil as yours, and capable of giving as much light. Suppose these millions should come one by one, to you and light each lamp by yours, would they rob you of your light? Would less of it shine on your own path? Would your lamp burn more dimly for lighting a thousand millions?

Thus it is, young friends. In getting rich in the things which perish with the using, men have often obeyed to the letter that first commandment of selfishness: "Keep what you can." In filling your minds with the wealth of knowledge, you must reverse this rule, and obey this law: "Keep what you give, and give what you can."

The foundation of knowledge is filled by its outlets, not by its inlets. You can learn nothing which you do not teach; you can acquire nothing of intellectual wealth, except by giving. In the illustration of the lamps, which I have given you, was not the light of the thousands of millions which were lighted at yours as much your light as if it all came from your solitary lamp? Did you not dispel darkness by giving away light?

OIL AND FOREIGN POLICY.

In some particulars, Senator Harrison's address at the Democratic National Convention recalled the pyrotechny of the amusing Mendell who at Cleveland confidently assured his inwardly smiling listeners that the Republican party had never made a mistake and that there was "not a single redeeming feature" in the record of the Democrats. But Senator Harrison did not confine himself to such glorious sweeping assertion and found time for definite charges in detail, thus giving expression to the mass feeling now turned against the Republican party on account of its record of the past four years as well as the recent disclosures. The Senator was effective in his contrast to this record with the way in which President Wilson exalted the United States in the councils and respect of the world.

He was equally effective as he pointed to the atmosphere and trail of corruption at Washington, in which connection he made his most telling single utterance: "Show this administration an oil well, and it will show you a foreign policy." This of course, referred to the sudden change of heart among the Republican leaders after oil was discovered in Columbia. The Wilson treaty paying Columbia $25,000,000 damages, as a matter of justice, for the loss of her province of Panama had been bitterly abused and rejected by the Republican majority in the Senate, but after oil was discovered and big interests desired, Columbia's good will Secretary Fall readily induced Republican Senators to eat their own words, and the formerly despised treaty went through with a whoop.

ANOTHER BIRD SANCTUARY.

Another game preserve, or bird sanctuary is provided by the gift of 26,000 acres of marsh land in Louisiana to the National Association of Audubon Societies. This great tract of marsh land, given by Mrs. Rogers as a memorial to her brother, the late Paul J. Rainey, is part of one of the most extensive winter resorts for water fowl. It is near the Marsh Island game refuge of about 80,000 acres presented by the Russell Sage estate, not far from the 85,000 acres given by the Rockefeller Foundation, and brings the total dimensions of game refuges in southern Louisiana up to about 350,000 acres. Through practically useless for agriculture or other commercial purposes, these marsh lands furnish shelter to both fur-bearing animals and birds, ducks, geese and water birds in general being the chief beneficiaries. So far as possible hunters will be kept out of the Louisiana marsh preserves, and provision is made to insure an adequate supply of food. With the new Rainey memorial is given an endowment to keep the region with wild rice and other bird-foods.

The game refuges throughout the country are increasing in number. Already there are in the neighborhood of eighteen million acres of land set aside in the different states, in addition to the Federal and State forest lands which also offer shelter to wild life. The great acreage of marsh land preserve in Louisiana is the more welcome to conservationists because water birds have suffered seriously in the past quarter of a century as a result of the large amount of drainage with a view to increase the acreage of farm land. This accounts for the Migratory Bird Refuge bill introduced in the last session of Congress, a bill which is said to have made progress but is still pending.

A PUZZLED BRITISH ONLOOKER.

An English observer of the Democratic National Convention curiously inquired: "Why do you Americans have these demonstrations at your political conventions?" He said he had been told that sometimes they lasted an hour, and for his part he was quite certain that he "could not possibly cheer about anything wholeheartedly for more than two minutes," adding: "I've been in South America, where the people are supposed to be very excitable, and it couldn't happen there. It couldn't happen anywhere but here. How do you account for it?" It was suggested to him that the sincere outpouring of emotion in a convention demonstration rarely lasted longer than ten minutes, and that what followed was apt to be mere vocal propaganda or campaigning.

But still the onlooking Britisher was puzzled, and after seeking further information, he was gravely told by an inwardly smiling acquaintance: "The political convention offers to many Americans the only form of high jinks which is satisfied and accepted by even the most rigorous of the fundamentalist churches. In proof of this the unscrupulous cicerone pointed to William Jennings Bryan enthusiastically waving a red pennant as he marched up an aisle with the Florida delegation, and added: "Mr. Bryan's religious convictions discourage him from drink or dancing, and so he has gone in for political conventions." Probably this did not help much and may even have increased the Britisher's mystification, causing him to infer that political convention uproariousness is one of the consequences of the 18th amendment, although the said uproariousness doubtless dates back all the way to the "founding fathers." It is easily to imagine the British observers finally seeking refuge in the unspoken but characteristic exclamation—"My word, but these Americans are jolly queer!"

MacDONALD AND MEXICO.

The outstanding world was hardly prepared for the breaking off of diplomatic relations with Mexico by the Labor Government of Great Britain. Premier Ramsay MacDonald's friendly attitude toward France, in contrast with that of his predecessor, had indicated persistently pacific purpose in the matter of foreign relations, and no longer ago than the middle of May he declared that his government was determined in foreign affairs, to adopt "a new policy in a new spirit, the policy of 'friendly reason' without 'shaking one's fist in anybody's face.' He said he was particularly solicitous to cherish the interests and recognize the dignity of the weaker countries, asserting that his heart was with the small nations. Though speaking primarily of Europe, this broad pacific principle was naturally expected to include the Western Hemisphere as well.

Mexican discourtesies and provocations must have been marked to lead to a seemingly abrupt change in such an announced policy, although doubtless both sides have been at fault. The Mexican government was within its rights in demanding the recall of a British diplomatic representative no longer welcome in Mexico and therefore no longer of use to his own country, but it was both culpable and indiscreet in the use of offensive language, which Premier MacDonald resented as a matter of course. Though a Labor Minister pledged to disarmament as well as pacific international intercourse, Mr. MacDonald can not forget that he speaks for the British empire and must think of its prestige among the nations. Doubtless he also sees the need of convincing the British people that their foreign affairs are in safe hands. The world at large as well as Great Britain will be much interested in the outcome.

PATRIOTISM WILL BE FEATURED IN TEXAS SCHOOLS.

Alvin Owsley of Dallas, past national commander of the American Legion, has been invited to speak Thanksgiving Day at the opening session of the annual convention of the Texas State Teachers' Association, which will be held in San Antonio. It is planned to make the program a great patriotic occasion.

President G. O. Clough of the teachers' association, has announced that several other nationally known men have been engaged to speak to the convention. These included Dr. Arthur Dean, assistant director of U. S. Veterans Bureau, and author in vocational education fields; Dr. J. F. Hosc, who directed A. E. F. courses in France during the World War, and who is now instructor in Columbia University; Dr. George A. Works, director Texas School Survey; and Dr. Edwin R. A. Seligman, member of national Legislative Tax Commission, and an eminent teacher of finance.

C. C. LOGAN MAY BE INTERESTED IN MINING

C. C. Logan, of the Lubbock Buick Garage, has just returned from Medicine Park, Oklahoma, where he spent some time visiting his brother, J. O. Logan.

Mr. Logan stated that his brother has just obtained leases on a tract of land within twenty-five miles of Lawton, that contains a very extraordinary mineral form which 'pays' him. The mineral contains not only the coloring sufficient to serve as a body for use in manufacturing lead but is made up of zinc and lead in such proportions that when ground and mixed with 'oil' is a paint product not equal by highly manufactured products.

Work of developing the possibilities of this rich mineral may be started within the near future, a machine to be used in grinding it is now being built by Mr. Logan's brother.

The discovery of the mineral was made by an old miner who had been accommodated by Mr. Logan's brother on several occasions, who advised him to obtain leases on the land where the mineral is found.

Cox 59; Walsh 16; Jonathan Davis 5; Ritchie 17 1-2; Saulsbury 6.

Oklahoma broke away from McAdoo on the 26th ballot at the convention and threw its 20 votes to its favorite son, Robert Owen, pulling McAdoo down to 415 1-2, which is 16 votes below what he registered on the first ballot. Meantime Smith drew on three more, pulling himself up to 311 1-2, which is within one vote of his peak, reached on the 17th. When the result was announced the Smith partisans in the gallery set up a big cheer and there was an attempt to start a demonstration on the floor. Chairman Walsh hammered the convention back to order.

A number of the Oklahoma delegation desired to begin voting for Robinson but met with heavy opposition from the McAdoo supporters. In order to get away from McAdoo those who were supporting Robinson urged the delegation vote for Owen. This was a move to divorce the ballot from McAdoo and in later votes the ballot probably will favor Robinson or some other candidate.

Total votes cast 26th ballot—Smith 311; McAdoo 418 1-2; Davis 125; Underwood 39 1-2; Ralston 32; Glass 29; Robinson 23; Cox 59; Walsh 14; Jonathan Davis 5; Ritchie 17 1-2; Saulsbury 6; Owen 20.

This was the first time the galleries had a chance to have a little fun and they yelled loudly. New Jersey fell into line, bringing a big cheer. The standards were bunched around New York, following one circuit of the arena. Iowa pulled here up and joined the group which by this time had lined up in the New York section, each delegate standing on a chair holding his standard aloft. There were 14 in line. The galleries led by a chant of "Smith, Smith, Smith."

The big bass drum of the balcony band added its beat to the chant. As the standards were dispersed Alaska pulled up her standard and waved it, bringing renewed cheers. After about five minutes of demonstration, chairman Walsh succeeded in restoring quiet, and the roll call was resumed.

Al Smith reached his highest point on the 27th ballot, going to 316 1-2, while McAdoo dropped to 413, the lowest point he has reached. McAdoo now stands 18 1-2 below what he had before the balloting began, while Smith is 75 1-2 ahead of his initial vote.

McAdoo had dropped 66 from his peak which he reached on the last ballot Monday. He has had a steady decline all day. Smith forces picked up five, Wyoming votes which had previously gone to Walsh and seized upon this to treat the convention to a five minute demonstration, the first started during the balloting.

Total votes 27th ballot, totals—Smith 316 1-2; McAdoo 413; J. W. Davis 128 1-2; Underwood 39 1-2; Glass 29; Ralston 32; Robinson 23; Cox 59; Walsh 7; Jonathan Davis 6; Ritchie 18; Saulsbury 6; Owen 24; Daniels 1.

Al Smith shot up to a new high on the 28th ballot for a total of 321, four and a half votes over his previous high figure. McAdoo picked up three but still has only 415, just sixteen below what he started with.

The deadlock is holding tight all along the leaders planned to adjourn after the 30th ballot. John W. Davis is slipping gradually having settled down to 124 1-2 from his peak of 129 1-2. The Smith forces fed their del-might reveal nine of his votes hopping over to Al Smith. Under this arrangement it was possible that Iowa's votes would go to John W. Davis. The end of the 28th ballot found W. G. McAdoo at his lowest point—412 votes, which is 67 below his high point of 479 reached on the 15th ballot. These grim facts, to many delegates spelled the approaching end of the candidacy of the former secretary of the treasury. They revealed one of the political tragedies of the oil scandal, for few doubt but that McAdoo would have driven his way through to the nomination had he not been dragged into the Teapot Dome investigations through his employment by Edward L. Doheny.

The 28th ballot also marked a new high for Al Smith, who has come up 75 1-2 since the balloting began and is now 316 1-2. John W. Davis, who made remarkable advances in the earlier balloting of the day, seemed to have slowed down because he has not regained the 129 mark which he made just before the dinner recess on the 24th ballot. He slumped to 123 and stood at 127 on the 28th.

McAdoo's difficulties began earlier in the day when Missouri broke away and gave her 36 votes to J. W. Davis on the 20th ballot. Oklahoma snatched McAdoo's delegation, jumped overboard on the 24th ballot and voted 26 solid for Senator E. L. Owen.

JAY-WALKING DANGEROUS

Have mercy on the jay-walker. When he jay-walks in the middle of the block he has to watch traffic from two directions only while at the corners he often has to watch traffic from four directions. Then too on one-way streets the jay-walker has to watch traffic from one direction only. But when the one-way street jay-walker gets into a strange city where one-way streets are unknown he must take care he "don't run down," because of his failure to look both ways. Jay-walking is encouraged when motorists are not permitted to cross streets before cars are instructed to make turns. Jay-walking is especially dangerous because the driver naturally does not expect to encounter pedestrians in the middle of the middle of the block in the middle of the street, but accident statistics show that the pedestrian may be anywhere anytime.

CHAS. OLSON AND CAL FARLEY ARE TO BATTLE TO A FINISH AT THE MERRILL PARK HERE ON JULY 4TH

Charley Olson, middleweight champion wrestler of Canada, will meet Cal Farley, of Amarillo, at the Merrill Park here July 4th at 8:30 o'clock in the evening.

The match will be a finish, best two out of three, and it is expected that attendance will be larger than for any other match ever staged here. The match will be put on under the auspices of the local post of the American Legion.

Olson and Farley have met on three other occasions, having wrestled three hours to a draw at Winnipeg, Canada, in 1920 and during the early part of this year wrestled two and a half hours to a draw at Amarillo.

They met again at Amarillo two months ago when Olson beat Farley before one of the largest crowds that ever attended a wrestling match at Amarillo.

Kala Pasha, champion middleweight of Texas, will not be here on the 4th to meet Olson as it was first planned, but local fans point out that the match between Olson and Farley will be about as good as could be had.

Olson will make ringweight 158 pounds, which is three pounds below his usual weight, but he will not be weakened to any noticeable degree. Farley will weigh 155 pounds.

America's Star Player Defeated By Borotna

By United News.

WIMBLEDON, England, July 1.—Vincenzo Richards, America's brightest hope in the men's singles tournament at the Wimbledon courts, ran into an unexpected and overwhelming defeat Tuesday when he met Jean Borotna, of France. The score was 6-4, 4-6, 6-0, 6-3. Richards participated in another losing battle for the American colors when he and Marion Jessup were beaten by O. G. N. Turbul and Mrs. Cresswell, 6-3, 4-2, 6-1. As Watson Washburn of the United States also lost to Raymond the day was hardly a happy one for the American team. The score in this match was 6-0, 7-5, 17-13.

However, R. N. Williams won from Kingstone 5-7, 6-4, 6-3, 6-1, and there was further small consolation in several doubles victories by the Americans. Francis Hunter and Miss Lillian Scherman beat J. S. Park and Mrs. R. C. Middleton 6-4, 2-6, 6-1. Mrs. George Wigham and Miss Ellen Will of the American women's singles champion team, from Miss Coyle and Miss Austin, 6-2, 6-4; Williams and Washburn beat A. S. Watt and H. C. Fisher 7-9, 6-4, 3-5, 6-2; and Miss Goss and Mrs. Jessup won from the British pair Mrs. Beauverie and Mrs. Hill 6-2, 2-6, 7-5. In other doubles matches, Major

MYRICK WILL LEAD DELEGATION OF LOCAL ELKS INTO CONTESTS WITH PLAINVIEW ELKS JULY 4TH

Walter Myrick, chairman of the committee to make arrangements to take care of a large number of local Elks to Plainview on the 4th of July to attend the Elks Sports Day stated Tuesday that captains from the local club for each of the many games in which they will participate will be selected today.

It is hoped that enough local Elks will attend the Sports Day to even things with Plainview for the big margin by which they walked away with the games when they were here recently, and Mr. Myrick points out that the members of the Plainview Club are determined to hold the lead and that it is necessary for the local members to go there ready to do their stuff if they even expect to make any showing.

Reports from among the ranks of the local Elks are to the effect that B. C. Dickinson is suffering serious injury inflicted by too vigorous work during the course of a marble contest with his playing partner and some pessimism is sounded concerning their outcome with the Plainview team on the 4th. Meantime, Herbert Stubbs is going to keep a keen eye on the Chess table this time and won't let unusual sounds interfere with his thinking. It is remembered that he lost the game to the Plainview Elks during Sports Day here when he became excited over hearing gurgling sounds nearby but later found that the bottle which Ernest Conley was "killing" contained only near beer.

"We are going to keep an eye on all sections of the field at Plainview, and won't let our contestants become unnecessarily alarmed about anything," a member of the local club declared.

The Plainview Elks will show the locals a good time, both from a standpoint of being delightful hosts and from expertness at the various games in which contests will be played, and it is hoped that just as many members of the local lodge as possible can attend the Sports Day there.

The schedule for the days events is as follows:

McADOO TAKES LOSS OF SEVERAL VOTES

delegates a chance to break away and vote for Smith. Smith's strength was held practically intact throughout and a few votes were fed in as the balloting progressed. But he reached a peak of 311 1-2 on the 19th ballot and was able to get back to that mark. William Jennings Bryan, pledged to McAdoo, appears to have reached the exclusion privately that McAdoo cannot go over and he is now laying wires to prevent the nomination of John W. Davis, whom he regards as too conservative for the democratic party. Bryan was buzzing around on the floor Tuesday afternoon and the rumor circulated in his wake that he was trying to persuade McAdoo to release some of his delegates unless he make striking gains immediately after the night session reconvened.

It may be that Bryan will throw his influence to his brother, Gov. Charles W. Bryan, of Nebraska. Another report following a conference between Bryan and Tammart was that Bryan wants to get behind Ralston.

Bryan became alarmed when Mississippi swung to Davis and told some of the delegates that it would be a mistake for the party to put up the big eastern lawyer. If McAdoo people were discouraged by the flop of Missouri to Davis, they did not show any signs of it. One of the McAdoo managers insisted that they knew what they were doing, and that after a few ballots, Missouri would be back with them and that this would convince the convention that McAdoo had the sea staying qualities and that Davis lacked them.

The vote on the 12th ballot, the last before the dinner hour recess was:

"A billion dollars worth of big business was represented on the convention floor this afternoon," Rockwell said. "There were men working on the floor who were not delegates and who were not even democrats—they were republicans."

Rockwell did not link Davis directly with this assertion, though his whole conversation dealt with the situation.

"The afternoon balloting proved that Davis is out of it."

"The Missouri switch of its vote to Davis in the expectation that this would start a strong trend in his direction from other delegations did not materialize and tonight I expect Missouri to be back on McAdoo's side."

Rockwell said other favorite sons would be given a trial at the night session, but predicted they would all be eliminated by midnight.

Glass would be the next tested, he added, intimating that the Virginia senator would be eliminated and that Virginia will then swing behind McAdoo.

McAdoo is not worrying now about Al Smith. He is worrying about the tired and busted delegates attempt to make short work of this convention by jumping to some like-vote minor candidate and pushing him over the two thirds line with a rush. "It isn't Al Smith—but Davis, Ralston, Glass, and Homer Cummings that McAdoo must beat now."

The reserve forces which the McAdoo men have been claiming failed to show in the last few ballots but floor managers for McAdoo expressed no alarm and said: "Let the situation simmer for a while; we will come back."

Franklin D. Roosevelt, manager for Smith, was highly pleased with the turn that events had taken, and said that "Everything was coming along according to order."

Plans are being made now for an adjournment after two more ballots.

When the Canal Zone was reached one of the Smith delegates on the delegation demanded a poll of the members to see if a majority not now desirous of going on supporting McAdoo.

Governor Smith expressed pleasure over the night balloting.

"I am going ahead while McAdoo is going back," he said.

The governor spent the evening at the Manhattan Club receiving reports of the ballots. Next door to him, for a time, was his chief opponent, W. C. McAdoo, who visited the Madison Square Garden hotel, repeatedly for a conference with the Florida delegation.

Tom Love, of Texas, one of McAdoo's chief supporters, expressed the sentiment of his group when he returned to the hotel, when he declared the race was still between McAdoo and Smith and that the return of delegations which have temporarily deserted him would renew McAdoo's position in future ballots. Both Missouri and Oklahoma Love predicted would come back to the Californian.

Lubbock is taking her place among the leading cities of the state by virtue of the fact that her business men are willing to do their bit toward advancing every material interest of the city, and Jones Brothers, local colliers are to be commended upon the part they are playing in this connection.

They now occupy a spacious building on Avenue 1 in the very heart of the city, which they have furnished with the very best and most attractive equipment obtainable. Silver oak shelving, shoe cases and specialty counters lend a great deal to the interior appearance, while the large show windows artistically decorated at all times beguile an appearance to that store that makes it most attractive.

A member of the firm said that the additional room provided in the new building will enable them to carry a much larger stock of shipments of which will be received until the store has been thoroughly stocked.

MARKETS

STOCK MARKET SHOW UNUSUAL ACTIVITIES

By EDWARD J. CONDLON NEW YORK, July 1.—Rallying around United States steel which topped par by a half point, for a new high on the recovery, the stock list traveled into record ground for the year, according to both the rail and industrial activities. The turnover was only slightly less than a million shares, than the usual succession of new highs on the movement and for the year were chalked up.

The Tuesday market saw a start of that factor dear to the hearts of bankers, brokers and bond dealers, viz, the July reinvestment demand. The demand is calculated not only to fortify the advances in prices scored in the last few days but to carry on in the fashion set during June.

The market is again demonstrating that buying works in cycles. In mid-June the movement of seasoned railroad bonds into the strong boxes of investors was a thing to be marveled at. Now all the features appear under the heading of industrials.

Tuesday saw a stiffening in the call money rate for the first time in weeks. The two percent rate had almost become a fixture in the market, but due to the additional capital requirements for the end of the fiscal year, the rate has advanced to 2 1/2 per cent. A report of failure for the six months previous to June 30, makes the total 10,785 as against 9,724 business failures for the corresponding period in 1923. The indebtedness this year is placed at $304,459,959 contrasting with $299,424,068 for the first half of the year. Insolvencies are listed as 1,607 a comparison with 1,358 default reported in June 1923.

PRE FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION IS FATAL

By United News. LOS ANGELES, Calif., July 1.—The victim of a pre independence day celebration Marjory Bell, aged five, died in the general hospital Tuesday night. The little girl, whose home is in Pasadena, lit a firecracker which exploded before she could toss it from her hand. Death came a few hours later.

RESS COMMENTS

Public speakers should remember one thing about the radio, says the Salina, Kas. Journal. It cannot smooth out mispronunciations and bad grammar as nicely as the newspaper can.

A woman's remark, according to the Atchison, Kas. Globe: "Wasn't it brave for that aviator Maughan, to carry a log with him?"

The most helpless feeling, is described by the Kansas City Star as being that time when you return from the honeymoon trip with a single dollar in the world, and you don't feel quite well enough acquainted with your bride to tell her the true state of affairs.

"A man can start out any day, and inside of an hour and thirty minutes, engage a woman to work for him for life at nothing a week," says the Altoon, Kas. Tribune. "While it will take two weeks of solid search to get one to work for him for fair wages and board."

Several local married men refuse to buy their wives washing machines, says the Erie, Kas. Record, probably going on the theory that they married a washing machine.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETING HELD AT ROPESVILLE TUESDAY, WAS ATTENDED BY MANY LOCAL MEN

A. E. Davis, secretary of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, and David P. Eaton, county agent, accompanied by Claud McDaniel, went to Ropesville Monday evening to attend a business meeting of the Chamber of Commerce.

Officers were elected, by-laws and constitution adopted and a program of work mapped out.

R. E. Gunn and Mr. Roberson, prominent young business men of Levelland, were among the guests and made short talks.

The principal address of the evening was delivered by Secretary Davis of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, who pointed out the advantages of an active chamber of commerce and gave some valuable information concerning the work.

County Agent Eaton and Mr. McDaniel also made appreciated talks and commended the progressiveness that is being exhibited by the citizenship of Ropesville.

Refreshments and cigars were served and the meeting was said by the local men who attended to have been a most spirited one and one which proves the sincerity of the business men of Ropesville who have organized for civic improvement and in order that they might handle the many problems that will naturally confront them in building Ropesville and having a part in the development of that section of the Plains.

OLYMPIC GAMES ARE JUST LIKE A BIG U. S. FAIR

By MINOTT SANDERS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, July 1.—Early events of the Olympic Games have been so successful in drawing crowds that there is a bright prospect that France will be able to clear expenses, and possibly net a profit.

With the big track and field events to come—close to three million francs have already been taken in. It is estimated that the French Olympic Committee will have to get ten million to pay costs.

Soccer football proved a great attraction. The popularity of this game has increased immensely, not only all over Europe, but in South American countries and enthusiasts of countries not represented by teams were regular attendants.

The game has been called in the French press, "the Esperanto of sport."

Twenty-two teams competed and games were played at four stadiums around Paris. Week-day games were started as late as six o'clock in the evening to give office and factory workers a chance to attend.

The result was that considerably over two million francs was realized in gate receipts.

The French Committee acted very wisely in dating the football and rugby events ahead of the games proper. In Astoria these sports came after the track events and were financial failures. Tennis will be a tremendous drawing card this year because the French team will be strong and with Tilden out, the players hope to win the title. Helen Wills will be an added attraction and with Lenglen playing, the women's tournament will get as good a gate as the men's.

Attract French

During the second half of July there is scheduled a series of attractions that will appeal to French crowds, such as fencing, boxing and swimming. The French have caught the Olympic spirit and with an unexpected stake to start with, the committee hopes to set some Olympic records in gate receipts.

Foreign visitors have shown a keen interest in the football events and have backed their teams in play. Already Paris is crowded with visitors.

Unfortunately facilities for seeing the games are unsatisfactory, and it is impossible now to improve them greatly. The main entrance to the stadium is from a narrow street in a village, and traffic congestion makes approach impossible for auto-buses. One must figure an hour to get from town to the stadium. Special buses require about forty minutes, and they unload their passengers about half a mile from the main gate. Train service means even a longer walk over dirt roads that will either be muddy or dusty. Trolley-car service is slow and annoying and taxis are expensive because the stadium is outside the gates of Paris and under the law passengers must pay the tariff back to the gates.

The stadium also leaves much to be desired in comfort. None of the seats have backs, and the grandstands are tin-roofed, giving the summer sun every possible chance. Refreshments, including beer and other drinks, are available, however in the stands.

A picturesque, and somewhat bally-hoo, mushroom settlement has sprung up around the stadium, giving the appearance of a country fair. Loitering crowds choke the roads and difficult as it is to get to get to the stadium, it is harder still to get back. Visitors have observed that perhaps the touchy temper of the crowds, which has been apparent more than once, might perhaps be due to the trying and nerve-racking pilgrimage to the scene of the games.

Poor Accommodations

Olympic Village so far remains a deserted village. The committee had planned housing facilities for the athletes near the stadium, but the concessioner has done his work miserably and athletes who took up quarters there quickly moved away. The village is more like an army cantonment without any soldiers to police up. The conditions and the sanitary precautions are of the roads, without sidewalks, such that the village is undesirable as a home for men who must primarily keep themselves fit.

The committee is making a valiant effort to improve these conditions, but they will not be able to do very much. The shacks have only one small window, making ventilation inadequate. And just outside the village gate is a dusky caupiry road, with temporary structures and at least every other one is a wayside cafe. Coaches and trainers have walked down this street and condemned the Olympic Village before entering it.

Inside the stadium everything is nicely in order. The grass on the field is green and thick, and the track is in excellent condition.

THREE INJURED IN AN EXPLOSION AT PITCHER

PITCHER, Okla., July 1.—James Loftis, forty-six years of age, and son William, twenty-one, were dead today and Bryan Douglas and Michael Howell are in a critical condition following the explosion in the St. Louis Mining and Smelting Company, Mine No. 11, near here. The blast occurred while the men were loading a hole with dynamite.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Maxey, who have been visiting their son, B. F. Maxey, for two weeks, have returned to their home at Waco.

Roy Russell, a progressive merchant of Idalou, spent several hours in Lubbock Monday.

G. A. McDonnell, of Dallas, spent Sunday and a part of Monday in Lubbock.

R. W. Eastland, of Lueile, New Mexico is among the business visitors in Lubbock this week.

Pro Law Violator Makes Bond And Is Released

Walter Scott, who together with Cooper brothers, whom are known in this community as arrested by policemen LeMond Cannon and Hardy Saturday night on charges of transporting liquor, made bond and was released.

Cooper brothers were unable to make bond and will perhaps remain in the county jail to await trial.

The three men were arrested and a suit case containing quart bottles of bottled-in bond, "Old Taylor" whiskey was taken by the officers. This is the first bottled-in bond whiskey that has been taken from bootleggers here in some time.

WOMAN'S THROAT IS SLASHED WITH HATCHET

EMMIRA, July 1.—Mrs. Lorne Rosman, age twenty-three, was slain when her throat was cut with a hatchet. It was revealed today when her young husband was arrested. The woman had just returned from choir practice and there is no reason given for the rash deed.

Emery Stewart, of the Citizens National Bank spent Sunday with homefolks at Post City.

MISTAKES MADE IN MIXING GRASSHOPPER POISON MASH

COLLEGE STATION, Texas, July 1.—In every instance where complaint has been made that the poison recommended by the A. & M. Extension agents was not effective in killing grasshoppers, investigation has shown that directions for preparing the mash have not been followed exactly. Instead of "white arsenic" as recommended some farmers have used "calcium arsenate." One druggist has advised the substitution. Only Paris Green will take the place of "white arsenic." Others have failed because they have used foul water in mixing which destroyed the attractive smell which the lemon or orange content is supposed to give. Still others have put the mash in vines instead of sowing broadcast. County agents will give directions for the mash and if followed accurately it will be effective.

CATCHING SWORDFISH A REAL BUSINESS

HALIFAX, N. S. (United Press)—Catching swordfish off the Nova Scotia coast has developed from a sport into quite an important industry within the last few years. Huge fish in the United States and there is a big demand for these well as in Canada, and the National Fish Co., of Halifax and other Arcadian companies use all their vessels in this trade exclusively at certain seasons of the year. The quantity handled is indicated by the fact that from 200,000 to 300,000 pounds are landed at the Boston Fish Pier every day in the season, and so popular is it for food that it has fetched as high as 75 cents per pound early in the season. The flesh is similar to halibut.

J. W. Brown, of Post City, who for two months has been resident manager for the Riance Brick Company, left Tuesday for Wichita Falls where he will represent the Fulton Brick Company.

PROTECTING BIRD LIFE

OTTAWA, Ont., (United Press)—School children throughout Canada are being banded together to protect the bird life of the Dominion, according to the Department of the Interior. More than 100,000 copies of a government pamphlet entitled "Lessons in Bird Protection" have been distributed and authorized for use in every school in Canada.

Active assistance to the campaign to conserve wild birds, the report asserts, is being given by school authorities everywhere in Canada, through illustrated lectures, posters and moving pictures. In addition, birdhouse building competitions have been organized in many school districts.

WATCHMAN DIES OF WOUNDS BY BEING SHOT

CHICAGO, July 1.—Joseph Corney, sixty-one, a watchman at the town residence of Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick, died in the hospital here today from a bullet wound inflicted in a mysterious shooting at the McCormick home according to authorities. The police are delving into the mysterious case.

BOYS WHO MAKE THEIR OWN WAY BEST STUDENTS

COLLEGE STATION, Texas, July 1.—The boys who are doing the best work in the A. & M. College of Texas are the boys who work to maintain themselves in school. Out of 119 students rated as distinguished in the last term of school 89 were earning all or a part of their way through college. A number of them were paying all of their expenses by working around the campus. Of the eight majors in the corps last year six worked for a part of their expenses.

LOCAL BAND TO PLAY FOR RODEO HERE JULY 4TH

R. Borden, manager of the Lubbock band, has just announced that the band will furnish music during the American Legion Rodeo to be staged at the fair grounds here July 4th.

During the absence of R. Brown, the director, J. C. Davis, well known local musician who is capable of playing all parts in the band, is taking keen interest in the work and is directing the band. Mr. Davis' ability as a director is well known and deserves much credit for the rapidity with which the band has been whittled into shape.

The Lubbock band is one of the newest on the Plains and within a short time will claim leadership over the best in the country.

Those who will attend the Rodeo on the 4th will enjoy some mighty good music and on this occasion the Lubbock band men will have an opportunity to demonstrate the value of a good band to Lubbock.

Loafers Must Get Out Of Wichita Says Policemen

WICHITA, Kas., July 1.—Approximately two thousand boomer harvest hands in Wichita must either get to work or get out within the next twelve hours.

That order has been issued by the chief of police, following an inspection of the city and a conference with employment agency officials.

"There is no excuse for the men loafing while thousands of men are needed in the harvest fields," he said. "There is much work to be completed on the municipal farm and unless these loafers are in the harvest fields soon they will be put to work for the city. And their pay will not be as much working for us as it would be in the harvest fields."

It has been reported hundreds of men are here and have refused all offers of work.

There is not much of a demand for help from central Kansas, but there are not enough men to supply demands from the west, it is said.
