Mulshoe Plays Amherst Sunday

Enoch's baseball team blasted Mulshoe's nine here Sunday, 9 to 4. The game left the Mulshoe team with an average of .500, since they have now lost 6 and won 6 games of the current Capital League schedule.

Next Sunday the Mulshoe boys are to play Amherst there. Dick Blackshear, the old war horse of the mound in local baseball circles, was charged up with the loss Sunday. He had allowed seven runs when relieved after the fourth frame by Pete Freeman, who had been catching. Freeman gave up two runs.

Business Men Help Cunningham To Buy New Auto

Business people of Mulshoe recently have raised a fund to assist W. C. Cunningham, school superintendent here, to buy a new automobile. At the regular Wednesday luncheon of the Lions Club this week the fund was presented to Mr. Cunningham.

The latter asked The Journal to express to the business men his great appreciation of this fine gesture which indicates to him that the people here are behind him in his efforts to build a better school system. "I am at a loss for appropriate words," the school man said. "You say it for me."

Mr. Cunningham has used his private automobile to further the interests of everyone in developing the school system, and he has virtually worn it out in that way. The business men felt that he ought to be reimbursed, particularly since in the present circumstances it seems impossible for the board to pay Mr. Cunningham what they think he ought to be receiving. And they did want to show Mr. Cunningham that they have full confidence in him as a school man and as a citizen, and that they appreciate the hard work he has done since he came here.

Mulshoe Livestock Sales Company Ready To Do Business In New Arena

The new home of the Mulshoe Livestock Sales Company, located on Sudan highway just east of the city limit, is rapidly nearing completion, according to Col. W. D. Wanzor, auctioneer and owner of the business.

When completed the facilities will have the capacity for handling twice the number of stock that could be handled in the old place. Fifteen hundred head of cattle can be handled in the many pens being built.

The sales building is 40 feet by 50 feet. It has seating arrangements to accommodate about 800. The building contains toilets, storage rooms, lobby, and office rooms. A small cafe will be operated on sales dates.

A spacious office allows plenty of room for the office force to handle accounts of consignees and buyers. There are three windows to expedite handling. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schuster, Mrs. Jo Wood and Mrs. W. D. Wanzor assist in keeping the records straight.

Lee Gardenhire lives on the premises and is the yardman. He is on hand at all times to give information or to accommodate the stockmen. Several other regular employes assist in handling the cattle in the pens and in the sales ring.

The cattle enter the sales ring from one gate, are sold, and pass out another gate over scales where they are accurately weighed. The sales ring and auditorium is air conditioned and will be warmly heated in winter.

Col. Wanzor said cattle sales will be resumed on Wednesday, August 6, and will continue on each day the sale. He also conducts farm

Meanwhile a saddle horse sale is scheduled for Tuesday, July 22, in the new sale arena. Clayton Graef, of near Lazbuddi, will offer 150 quarter horses, ranging in age from 2 to 5 years for sale on that day.

The company has drilled a well on the premises and placed a pressure pump on it to provide plenty of stock water. Col. Wanzor is irrigating a nice garden plot also. There is plenty of parking space around the new sales barn. The company owns 4 acres of ground, and the place is very accessible from the paved highway. Lefty McWilliams has a hog farm nearby and Jesse Osborn is improving an adjoining acreage he owns by erecting a warehouse and other facilities.

Col. Wanzor and Mr. Osborn have offered their buildings and premises for use of the Mulshoe Fair next September.

Col. Wanzor came to Mulshoe seven years ago and began conducting the sale. He also conducts farm sales throughout this territory.

Progress Votes 6th

Petitions asking that another election be called in Progress and Mulshoe school districts have been presented and Judge Cecil H. Tate has set the date for the voting for Wednesday, August 6.

This will be the third such election. In the first election Progress voters vetoed the proposition 63 to 61 and in the second voting they again stood against it, 65 to 64. Mulshoe voters favored the proposal in both elections.

Brileyboro, Fairview and Liberty districts have consolidated with Mulshoe in a move to provide better schools for all the children. West Camp defeated consolidation. Stegall, in the south part of the county has merged with Three Way school.

Dr. Wood Will Address Farmers

Dr. Ivan D. Wood, Irrigation Specialist for the Extension Service and Soil Conservation Service, will conduct a series of meetings in towns in this area July 15 through July 18. Farmers desiring to learn the latest in successful irrigation methods and pointers on commercial fertilizer are urged to attend.

Farmers from the Mulshoe area will find it most convenient to attend the Amherst or Olton meetings. The Amherst meeting is a one day meeting, starting at 10 a.m. and ending at 5 p.m. Friday, July 18. The Olton meeting will start Friday, July 18 at 8:30 p.m.

J. K. Adams, county agent for Bailey County plans to attend the meeting at Amherst and would like to contact interested farmers. Dr. Wood is a very interesting and informed speaker and was the most popular man on the program at the irrigation conference of county agents at Texas Tech April 8. He is being brought back to speak to farmers by popular demand of county agents.

Undesirable wheat varieties that are being grown in Bailey County are working a real hardship, according to a letter received this week from C. E. Lee, president of the J. C. Crouch Grain Company, Dallas, by Ray Griffiths, local elevator man.

The Dallas concern, which leases the Burrus Mills and Elevators, estimated that undesirable varieties grown in Bailey County, such as they said as Chiefkan, Redchief and Early Blackhall amounted to 30 per cent of the total crop. Mr. Lee wrote:

"Cereal products manufactured from these varieties definitely are unsatisfactory and cannot be sold to the trade. Considering that we mill a good percentage of the wheat that we put in our elevators, we must endeavor to fill these elevators with wheat of good variety, and it will, therefore, be necessary for us to reduce the amount of both storage wheat accepted from you, and other wheat purchased from you this year.

"Wheat produced in Nebraska is practically 100 per cent of good varieties, and their wheat is in excellent demand from all flour mills. Kansas is an excellent improvement in the varieties planted. In Texas our parent company has done much to encourage planting of good varieties to market in place of undesirable varieties."

CORRECTION

In the advertisement of the Steed Funeral Home last week announcing the placing of an ambulance in Mulshoe, we used the wrong telephone numbers. Correct numbers may be found in an advertisement elsewhere in this paper. To get the ambulance quickly, call Howard Cox, the driver. His day number is 67-W and his night or home number is 275-J. We regret this error, since it is very important that calls be made quickly in emergencies, and it will expedite matters if the right number is given.

Mrs. V. E. Dickerson was in for medical care last week.

Mrs. A. E. Sexton is in the hospital for a few days under medical care.

Mulshoe And Three Way Schools To Get New Vets Agriculture Schools

Two more schools in agriculture for veterans are to be started soon in Bailey County, according to announcement of Kenneth Grissom, veterans coordinator, who also is teaching the first class of 25 now meeting regularly at Mulshoe high school.

Classes will be started at Mulshoe and at Three Way schools, he said.

First meeting of the new classes will be in Mulshoe high school Tuesday night, July 29, at 8:30 o'clock.

Leaders in the program said they realize that the farm veteran is busy now, but they urged them to come in now to see their county service officer and qualify themselves to attend one of these new classes. Very little time will be required to complete this formality, and a veteran who is interested should see Connie Gupton, service officer, or Mr. Grissom at once.

New regulations are now in effect governing eligibility and pay of veterans who take this instruction, which is to last about 18 months. Married War II veterans, or who have a dependent, will receive $105 per month; single veterans will receive $85 per month.

Eligibility requirements are changed to make these agriculture courses available to virtually all farm veterans. Formerly they had to present proof of farm operation, ownership or rental, before they could be qualified. The officials named will explain the new rules.

There are a large number of young farmers in this territory who are eligible to receive this instruction in modern agriculture, and they will be paid for attending the schools. The veteran does not have to be a citizen of this county to attend a school in this county.

The students now attending the agriculture classes at Mulshoe high school have the use of laboratory and shop equipment of the vocational agriculture department of the school. They meet Tuesday and Thursday nights and Saturday afternoons. Field trips and trips to agriculture and livestock shows relieve the monotony of class room work.

In addition to his pay allowances, the veteran is entitled to a $50 allowance for tools the first year, and $25 thereafter.

It was urged that those boys who see this item in the paper should contact their friends and neighbors, who may not see it, and spread the word of the new classes, so that all may have the opportunity to enter the schools.

SAFETY OR DEATH

One out of every ten farmers in the United States will be disabled by injuries during 1947, unless they give safety on the farm more attention.

That prediction is made by the National Safety Council, which has announced the week beginning July 20 as National Farm Safety week.

Every day of 1947, 52 farm people will die as a result of accidents the council also predicts on a basis of past years' figures. Two farm residents will be killed accidentally and 265 will be injured during the noon hour every day, unless better safety precautions are taken.

The safety council urges farm families to look for the hazards that endanger lives at home, at work and on the highway; to eliminate as many of these hazards as possible; and to remember that carelessness on the part of any family member can mean unhappiness and even death to the entire family.

By calling attention to farm safety, the council hopes to see a big reduction in such figures as these: four farm buildings destroyed by fire every hour; 4,500 farm workers killed and 300,000 injured in 1946; 186 workers injured by some type of farm machinery, 193 hurt by falls, 104 injured by livestock, and 92 crippled from cuts, falling trees, burns and other smaller accidents.

These figures—based on material gathered by voluntary crop reporters—were released by the USDA Bureau of Agricultural Economics in a recent report.

Percentages of other small grains harvested with combines in 1945 were oats, 38 per cent; barley, 64; rye, 50; flaxseed, 62; and rice 42 per cent.

THE CONFUSION and clutter in the kitchen that result inevitably from the activities surrounding the preparation of a large family dinner is almost taken for granted as a part of the American scene. For this reason many homemakers dread entertaining large groups. They find that performance of a great number of small tasks, as well as several large ones, all at the same time, creates more nervousness than pleasure in dispensing hospitality.

This need not be true of the modern housewife who is fortunate enough to have a gas kitchen. When tasks multiply, speed of cooking is important. It is then that today's gas range proves its worth. A clean hot flame, visible for easy control, certain never to smother clean-up chores by smothering cooking vessels, can be so arranged that the user's disposal wherever the kitchen is located. The gas range has reduced in ever increasing measure the need to furnish "kitchen" or "bottling" gas service all over the United States.

This modern fuel gives the same effortless service in cooking, warming, and refrigeration that the old housewife enjoys. The beautifully browned roast, the piping hot rolls and all the appropriate accompaniments of the fine American dinner can reach the table at just the right time in the most delicious condition—without undue effort on your part—when gas is your "hot" fuel.

Lubbock — Most effective and practical method of worming hogs is by feeding a mixture of one pound sodium flouride per 99 pounds of dry feed, according to John H. Baumgardner, assistant professor of animal husbandry at Texas Technological College.

Feeding hogs this mixture exclusively for one day proves about 95 per cent effective much higher than any other method, he said. If pigs are used to slop feeding, they should be given plain dry feed three or four days previous to treatment to get them used to it, he suggested.

OUR WHEAT CROP COMES OF AGE

A QUARTER CENTURY OF PROGRESS

About 25 years ago, wheat came into its own in the territory we serve. Last year alone wheat farmers here harvested about 40 million bushels of high protein wheat . . . in fact almost four-fifths of that produced in Texas is grown in our area.

Today, good bread from our wheat helps keep a healthy America healthy.

We have so much confidence in the wheat industry—and all other industries we serve, that we are investing 35 million dollars in a building program. This expansion program in our territory will bring more dependable electric service to industry and farms and better living—electrically—to everyone!

WEST CAMP CLUB

"The type of seam used is definitely determined by the kind of material used," said Mrs. Williamson in her demonstration on seams and seam finishes, in the home of Mrs. Beulah Williams on July 9. Mrs. Williamson showed us the different ways to put in zippers and the correct way to sew on snaps in this demonstration, also. We discussed our cooperative sheet purchase and every member present expressed a desire for two or more sheets. We are also extending this opportunity to all ladies in the community and trust that you will let us know if you want to order sheets with us and how many, by our next meeting date. Say, why don't you just come to club. Maybe you will like it and come regularly. At our next meeting we will discuss and decide when and where we have our annual club picnic.

At the conclusion of the meeting Mrs. Williams, the hostess, served refreshments of pop and cookies to the following members: Mesdames Viola Dutton, Olene Watts, Joy Jones, Bert McClarty, Bonnie Williams, Esther Cummins, Doris Huckabay, Sylvia Couch, Hazel Willingham, Grace Snider and Laurette Williamson. Mr. and Mrs. Buck Slaughter of Shamrock visited here over the weekend with her daughters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Douglass and Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Malone.

Q. What is the name of this cut of meat?
A. This is a smoked shoulder butt of pork, shown cut in half. It is often sold under one of several trade names.
Q. Where does the cut come from, and how is it identified?
A. This cut is taken from the Boston butt, which is the upper half of the pork shoulder. The smoked shoulder butt is a boneless roll of lean meat intermingled with fat. It usually weighs from 3 to 5 pounds, and is always sold smoked.
Q. How should this cut be prepared?
A. The smoked shoulder butt may be cooked whole, either by roasting in an open pan in a slow oven (300° F.) or by simmering in water. The roll may also be sliced before cooking; then the slices are broiled, pan-broiled or fried.

New Machine Increases Tube Safety

In a remarkable demonstration of the effectiveness of a new tube splicer, a 16 x 5.00-8 industrial tube was inflated 19.26 times above its normal capacity, by engineers of the experimental division, the General Tire & Rubber Company.
Before inflation the wall gauge of the tube was 90/1000 of an inch thick and after inflation the thickness had been reduced to 10/1000 of an inch. Not only does the test prove the strength of the splice, but it also shows the increased adhesion of the valve to tube.
Designed by Max Engler, and demonstrated by Harold Lewis, right, and Harvey Scott, the new development gives General Tire, which pioneered pneumatic industrial tire usage, the industry's most advanced method of sealing industrial tubes.

PEACH CANNING TIME

It's good news for home canners that peaches are again on the market—they're easy to can in the water bath canner, and one of the best fruits for home canning.
For canning choice peaches that are round, firm and table-ripe, says Mrs. Laurette A. Williamson, county home demonstration agent of Bailey County. Look beyond the pink blush, if the peach has one, to see that the ground color is yellow or white, not an unripe greenish tint. A bushel of peaches yields about 18 to 24 home-canned quarts.
Directions for cold packing peaches in preparation for processing in a water bath canner are given by the specialists. Peaches packed raw hold their shape better and look prettier in the jar and on the table. Here are directions for canning peaches:
Wash peaches, dip in boiling water, then quickly in cold water to loosen skins. Remove skins. Halve and pit the fruit. Slice if desired. To prevent darkening during preparation, dip peaches into water containing 2 tablespoons each of salt and vinegar per gallon. Drain and pack cold into jars or cans to half inch of top. Add boiling syrup, leaving 1 to 2 inches in container. Steam containers: pints and No. 2 tin cans—10 minutes, quarts and No. 3 tin cans—15 minutes. Remove from canner, repack if necessary. Seal and process in boiling water bath 15 minutes. Remove from canner, complete seals on jars if closures are not of self-sealing type. Cool jars out of a draft. Cool tin cans in cold water. Label and store in cool place.

Wall Paper Serves As Color Guide To Give Homey Touch To Livable Rooms

There's no need to discard provincial furnishings just because the Joneses' have gone modern. Nothing can be cozier or more comfortable for gracious living than the tried and true Colonial styles shown above.
This early American living room is a charming spot for entertaining friends and provides an inviting corner for settling down for a quiet evening. Blessed with a fireplace of stone and natural pine paneling, it adds color and interest with a vivid floral wall paper of warm greens, yellows and a touch of orange. Upholstery in the same color scheme of the wall paper enhances the simple maple furniture. You will find a wide range of shades and styles of wall paper suitable to any furniture or color scheme. If you're not too sure of your own knowledge, let the wall paper be your guide. Use the background color for your woodwork, and choose other colors for the floor covering, upholstery and draperies. The minor accents will serve as a suggestion for accessories.

Miss Glaze Is To Conduct Church Music School Here

Miss Ina Lou Glaze will conduct a five day church music school beginning July 20 in the First Baptist Church of Muleshoe, according to announcement of Rev. A. W. Blaine, pastor.
Miss Glaze, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Glaze of this community, is attending Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, where she is studying organ and piano.

In a letter to The Journal, Miss Glaze gives the following outline of the five day school:
There will be sessions in the morning for children, including those from 8 to 14 or 15. At this time some music theory, hymn stories and hymns will be taught.
The night session is expressly for young people and adults who are interested in church music. This includes choir members and members of the congregation, not only of the First Baptist church but members of other churches who are interested. The program will include some music theory, class voice and work on hymns that may be used in the church services.

Miss Glaze finished high school here, then received her B. S. degree at West Texas State College, Canyon, before going on to the Seminary.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Fish Bites Woman!

Willie Wells was coming home from Seward's Creek the other evening with a string of trout, when a stern looking lady (visitor at the Boxwood Inn) stops him, and tells him a man his size could be better occupied than catching fish.

Willie tells her off real good-naturedly by saying: "Perhaps you're right, but if these fish had kept their mouths shut, they wouldn't be here." (At that, says Willie, laughing out loud, she looked just as if a fish had bit her!)

Blabbing mouths never cause

anything but trouble. Nobody who knew the facts would ever criticize Willie's right to go fishing on his one day off—any more than they'd deny his right to come home to a mellow glass of beer.

From where I sit, the slower we are to criticize—and the quicker we are to recognize another's tastes, the better we'll get along together—whether those tastes apply to beer or fishing.

Chevrolet First In Manufacture Of Half Million Cars

Detroit—Chevrolet today became the first manufacturer in the auto industry to announce production of half a million vehicles in the calendar year 1947, according to a statement made here by Nicholas Dreystadt, general manager of this largest General Motors division.

Production of its 500,000th unit July 7 contrasts with 1946, when Chevrolet, because of a prolonged strike and material shortages, had not attained so high a mark until mid-November. The figure includes 360,947 passenger cars and 140,688 trucks.

The current Chevrolet record, established in virtually six months despite a new car change-over period and limited truck production due to the model change-over that preceded announcement of the division's new "advance - design" truck line for 1947, was made with only negligible output from its newly opened Flint, Mich., assembly plant.

Conservation Pays Big Cash Dividends

Save the Soil Methods At Purdue Prove Ideal

A soil conservation system combining the teamwork of large amounts of fertilizer, contour farming, manure and deep rooted legumes, not only saves sorely needed rainfall and reduces the loss of soil, organic matter and plant food through runoff, but also promotes greatly increased yields of corn, wheat and hay, according to Glenn Bedell.

Such a system proved its benefits at the Purdue station. The test was conducted in 12 small fields from 1942 through 1945. All the fields had three-year rotations: corn, wheat and meadow. Six however, were farmed with common practices; the other six with a conservation system.

On the fields which had the benefit of extra fertilizer, contour cropping, manure, lime and deep rooted legumes, the water loss from runoff for four years was eight inches, compared with 17 1/2 on fields farmed under the common system. Soil loss was only 1 1/2 tons under conservation against 8.8 tons with the common system. Organic matter losses were 492 and 976 pounds, respectively, while those of nitrogen were 16 and 77 pounds; phosphorus 19 and 62; and potash, 10 and 24 pounds.

Corn yields averaged 92 bushels per acre against 62 bushels on the common fields, in 1942. By 1945 the corn output reached 122 bushels per acre, compared with 71 bushels on the common fields. Wheat yields averaged 25 bushels and 15 bushels.

KNOW YOUR BREED Golden Palomino By W. J. DRYDEN

Originally a cross between Palomino and Arabian, the Golden Palomino has become recognized as the golden horse Palomino. Photo shows some of the George Garretson prides.

They are bigger and stronger than the sire and are the quarter-horse type. Their temperament is fiery, but they may be trained to gentleness. The infusion of Arabian "blue-blood," resulted Bontor, a classic gray Arab.

Turns Rooster Into Good Setting Hen

The application of hormones as an aid in fattening poultry has been carried on for some time. The hormones tried have had the effect of "tenderizing" the flesh of poultry.

Dr. A. V. Nabbandov, University of Illinois, demonstrates success of hormone experiments to Lee Campbell and Ralph Inhoff, officials of Illinois Poultry Improvement association.

The use of prolactin hormones to transform roosters into setting hens has been successfully accomplished at University of Illinois.

Make Cheddar Cheese From Pasteurized Milk

A new method of making American cheddar cheese greatly simplifies the whole operation and enables the average cheesemaker to produce a uniform and high-quality product regularly. The new method uses pasteurized milk, destroyed of undesirable bacteria, to which an active and dependable starter containing only the essential bacteria has been added, and acid and time control.

DALLAS FAIR TO HONOR RURAL LETTER CARRIERS

The rural letter carrier—the man who moves through ice and snow in winter and the sweltering heat of summer to deliver mail to even the most isolated sections—will be honored this year by the State Fair of Texas.

"It is a privilege to honor this group," Mr. Hitzelberger said, "for their unflinching faithful service to the citizens of Texas."

Arrangements for the day are being made with Oran T. Gray of Florence, Texas, president of the Texas Rural Letter Carriers' Association, and Bun Raley of Valley Mills, Texas, editor of the organization's official organ, "The Texas Carrier". A special program is to be planned.

Genuine Chevrolet Parts Are Factory-Engineered for Fit and Performance

Chevrolet owners do right by their cars and trucks when they insist on having none but genuine Chevrolet parts for repairs and replacements—because these parts are built to the same exact specifications and of the same high-quality materials as the original production parts. All the advantages of vast quantity production—high quality at lowered costs, constant testing and vigilant inspection—that make Chevrolet vehicles the leaders in their fields, are shared by individual parts sold for replacements.

VALVES—for example

Chevrolet can afford to use costlier materials and processes—and does. For one example, consider the exhaust valves—produced by the extrusion process, of chrome-nickel-silicon steel, with seats and stems ground in accurate alignment. These extruded valves are distinguished for their toughness and superior heat-dissipating ability.

NEW WELL GOOD PRODUCER
Fred A. Koppin reports that the deep irrigation well he drilled last year in the Stegall community is proving to be a good producer. The well was brought in in unproven territory by drilling to 1000 feet, the pump being set around 700. Mr. Koppin said they have just irrigated 100 acres of feed crops, and the contractor on the farm to market road paving in that part of the county has arranged to buy 100,000 gallons of water daily from him. The well pumps about 900 gallons per minute.
