MULESHOE — County Seat of Bailey County — TEXAS

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1953

Here At Home

Written especially for The Journal

By J. M. Forbes

Two Plains cities, both near Muleshoe, have been named "target cities" in a list of 16 Texas municipalities released by the Federal Civil Defense Administration. Lubbock, 70 miles from us, and Amarillo, less than 100, are the two listed in the 16, which are:

Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Port Arthur, Corpus Christi, El Paso, Galveston, Laredo, Lubbock, San Angelo, San Antonio, Waco, and Wichita Falls.

The Texas Defense Digest says: The target areas are not conveniently concentrated in one or two counties but are so widely scattered all over the State that every Texas community has a responsibility for civil defense planning and organization.

Bailey County and Muleshoe, it can be said, have organized and our disaster organization committees are studying their duties. Headquarters have been established in the county courthouse, to which volunteer workers will report in case of an emergency. We have taken a stitch in time.

And Consider This: Here's another "first" for the list that Texas does not brag about.

The State now leads the nation in tornado damage, replacing Oklahoma as top loser. It can happen here and the better we're organized to cope with disaster the less confusion will exist, the more lives and property will be saved.

They are further improving the Bailey County courthouse lawn by topping the big trees. We say "improving" even after learning what one citizen told Dan Winn, the custodian:

"What are you doing to the trees," he queried. "Why," said Dan, "we're topping 'em."

"You're just playing H...!", the citizen replied. But when the trees put on leaves next spring the foliage will be high from the ground, permitting more sunlight to strike the grass and the whole place will be more attractive than we have ever known it, in the humble opinion of this columnist. When Tom Morgan, the commissioner prepared to weed out some of the trees last winter, he fully expected some of the residents who have been here the longest and who probably helped to plant the trees, to descend upon him in force. That operation, too, improved the appearance of the courthouse and lawn.

Harvest Is Resumed

Harvesting of cotton was resumed Tuesday on the Barron-Peeler ranch near Muleshoe under the influence of clear skies and shining sun. The entrepreneurs announced they already have pulled twice over the entire 20 acre spread, hope to make 16 bales of cotton before it's over in this, their first big scale operation in the farming business.

We said in last week's paper that there are 1,000 Little Baseball Leagues now operating. Should have said 100,000. But the reporter couldn't realize the enormity of this program, which has the biggest small fry participation of any in the world or any that has ever been in the world.

Also in last week's paper we had the First Christian evangelist preaching for the Calvary Baptists, used the wrong picture. A newspaper has more opportunity for making mistakes than anybody, and here at The Journal we take full advantage of our opportunities.

Bula Community Host To Muleshoe Business People On November 19

An evening of fun and entertainment is being planned in cooperation with the Bula Community for the night of November 19, 1953. As in the past, the meal will be furnished by the businessmen of Muleshoe and the entertainment by the people of the community, in this case, the Bula Community. Rumors have it that a 42 party will be the highlight of the evening, along with other entertainment.

Ray Morrison, chairman of the Retail Trades of the Chamber of Commerce stressed again that this Rural-Urban relation get-together is designed specifically for the purpose of becoming better acquainted with our farmer neighbors. It's strictly a social gathering designed to spread a little goodwill.

The committee, consisting of Ray Morrison, W. Q. Casey, M. T. Wilson, Carl Sundeen, Hoyt Morgan, and Lindell Murray would like to urge everyone to attend these functions. They've spent a lot of time working on this program and the success of it will depend entirely upon the enthusiasm and participation of the businessmen in our community. Anyone wishing to register may call the Chamber of Commerce office or contact one of the above committee members.

Alfalfa Harvest Around Muleshoe Is Nearing End

Muleshoe plant of the National Alfalfa Milling & Dehydrating Co. began operations again Sunday after a several day shutdown due to wet weather. The firm was harvesting and processing alfalfa from the farms of Allison Bros., east of town.

Onard Upton, manager, said he has about 1,000 more acres of alfalfa to harvest in the Muleshoe vicinity, and depending upon the weather, it should be harvested and processed by November 20.

The mill has been running both units but operates on one shift a day basis. Earlier this month the mill processed 42 tons of hay, making 840 tons of alfalfa meal.

Muleshoe Mules Sweep Past Tullia Hornets By 44-12 Score

The Muleshoe Mules roared past the Tullia Hornets last Friday night to the tune of 44-12.

The Hornets was unable to halt the power of the Mules offense and were stopped cold by the hard-playing Muleshoe line on defense.

The Mules pushed across two tallies in the first quarter as Morrison and Moore accounted for one tally each. In the second quarter Moore made a beautiful run of 80 yards to score his second touchdown of the game. As the half ended, the Mules led the Hornets 20-0.

In the second half the Mules revamped its defense and it was then that Tullia managed to score twice, bringing their total points for the night to 12.

In the scoring column for the night was D. L. Morrison with 2 touchdowns; Wayne Moore with two; and Benny Bickel led the field with three tallies.

As the game ended, the Mules had a completely revamped team. In the backfield they had Sammy Donaldson quarterbacking with Holt and Gabbert at the halfback slots and Kenneth Jerny was in the role of fullback.

Sheriff's Dept. Gets New Autos

Bailey County sheriff's department is sporting two new automobiles, a purchase by the Commissioners Court made in session Monday. They are Plymouths and are being supplied by Morrison Motor Co., of Muleshoe.

Each automobile agency here was asked to submit bids and the contract was awarded on a bid basis. The county swapped in two used cars in the deal.

Plans For Raising Funds Aired At Lions Meeting

Harvey Bass, chairman for the Red Cross in Bailey County and Tootie Middlebrook, Bailey County Disaster chairman, presented the Muleshoe Lions Club with a brief outline as to what the citizens of this community can expect in case of a major disaster.

Both men were emphatic in stating that people should not go to the scene of the disaster in as much as it would only add to the confusion. Middlebrook pointed out that although plans were not complete the various units of the disaster committee would be ready to act in the near future.

Three motions were made and carried in respect to the Lions Club raising funds, they were, a bake sale to be held Sat., Nov. 21 at Cashway Grocery, a basketball game to be held by the Muleshoe Lions and the Sudan Lions, a chuck wagon supper before the Muleshoe and Olton football game.

Joe Harris, Bill McIlvain and Bill Carroll were visiting guests.

Bickel Named As AA Player Of Week

Benny Bickel, the Mules fullback, earned himself the player of the week in Class AA in the Amarillo paper for his part in the 44-12 win over Tullia.

Bickel galloped for 40 yards on one touchdown only one play after another scamper had been called back. He made two other tallies on short plunges.

For the season Bickel has nine tallies. Morrison has scored six, Charles Waggoner, two, Bill Willis has hit pay dirt six times, Jimmy Holt has caught six passes for touchdowns and Moore has six touchdowns to his credit.

Progress Pushes Food Campaign

Did you know that literally millions of people are facing starvation this winter? Victims of war's cruel fortunes and other circumstances beyond their control, their only hope of life for the present is in our sharing with them from our plenty. How many human lives could be saved from starvation if you could feed them for 3c a day?

Actually it is being done. Meals for millions are flowing to all parts of the world just as fast as the absolute cost of 3c each is provided. (See Reader's Digest, July, 1953). They need not die! Facilities for transportation and distribution are already in operation. For every 3c you give, some half-starved human life will have another chance.

Have you ever had an opportunity to buy so much for your investment? One hundred dollars would feed 3333 starving people a good nutritious meal. Can we really claim to be human ourselves if we pass up such a proposition to help while we live in comparative luxury? Every good meal we eat ought to haunt us if we pass on this hand.

Where? How When?? Right now, in every cafe and almost every place of business in Muleshoe a handy collection jar is ready for your gift.

Help provide Meals For Millions. The Progress Methodist Youth Fellowship is sponsoring this work of mercy and relief. They guarantee that every 3c contributed will place a meal in the hands of some hunger stricken person.

Woodley Heads USO Campaign

Bailey County today opened its 1953 campaign for the USO. County Chairman Noel Woodley announced that within the next few days the county will seek to raise its proportionate share of $705 of the Texas goal of $775,000.

"We can no longer think of our boys and girls serving in the uniform of our country without thinking of the wonderful job which USO is doing in their behalf," said Mr. Woodley. "The USO, actually, has become an important part of our Defense Forces."

"Since our Universal Military Training law will continue to drain off our young people and send them on duty in many parts of the world, we cannot afford to let down in any part of our defense—and that definitely includes USO", the County Chairman said.

USO now has 277 units in operation, 19 of these overseas, and not to be overlooked—20 are located right here in our state of Texas.

Since the armistice was signed, Gen. Mark Clark has sent an appeal to double the number of USO-Camp Shows showing to the forces in Korea. All this is part of our campaign in this county.

Saturday Set As Achievement Day In 4-H Clubs

America will salute its 4-H youth and their local volunteer leaders for a notable year of accomplishment on November 14. This day has been set aside as National 4-H Achievement Day and the more than two million 4-H members in the nation will be honored.

The more than 121,000 members in Texas will join in the observance and in many countries public meetings will be held in which achievement awards will be presented to the members who have completed their demonstrations for the year or have won county, district and state honors in their fields.

According to Floyd Lynch, state 4-H club leaders, one of the most outstanding developments of recent years has been the spread of 4-H club work into other countries of the world. At the present time, he says, over 40 countries now have active 4-H or some educational program like it for rural youth. This growth, he adds, is reflected in the number of young men and women now going from this nation or coming to it from other countries under the International Farm Youth Exchange program which commenced in 1948.

Lynch says the 4-H theme for 1953, "Working Together for World Understanding," will be highlighted in window displays, radio programs, meetings and other activities.

George Hicks, president of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce, has announced that George Mahon, U. S. Representative of the 19th Cong. District, will appear in Muleshoe, Saturday, November 14, 1:30-2:30 p. m., District courtroom, of Bailey County Courthouse, Muleshoe.

The purpose of Cong. Mahon's visit to Muleshoe will be to obtain the grass-roots thinking of the farmers and businessmen of our area regarding the "Problems Confronting Agriculture". The program will not be a formal one, but will be an open forum for mutual discussion of the agriculture problem.

Mr. Hicks stated that the opportunity of meeting with Mr. Mahon is a golden one and he urges everyone possible to attend this forum. "It behooves us to take an active interest in a problem that is not only a local one, but one of national importance to the economy of our United States," he said. "Only by giving our representative our views on the topics to be discussed can he act for our mutual benefit."

Mr. Mahon will arrive in Muleshoe about 12:00 noon and will lunch with officials of the Chamber of Commerce. Then at 1:30 he will appear at the District Court Room for the general discussion. Officials of the Farm Bureau, PMA, Soil Conservation, County Agent and Chamber of Commerce have pledged their attendance at this forum, specifically dedicated to the mutual benefit of everyone.

Drivers License Check Conducted

On the afternoon of Tuesday, October 10, approximately five miles south of Muleshoe, a road block, or drivers license check was conducted for the purpose of ascertaining those who were operating a motor vehicle without the valid operators, commercial operators, or chauffeur's license.

In conducting this check, eight cases were filed in Justice of the Peace court in Muleshoe for operating a motor vehicle without the required license. Some two hundred motor vehicles were stopped in this check.

Every person who operates a motor vehicle must at all times have in their possession a valid license. Cost of an operators license is $1.00 for two years; commercial operators license is $2.00 and a chauffeur's license is $3.00.

Those needing to secure a license should contact the drivers license examiner. The examiner is in Muleshoe every Wednesday except on holidays, from 9:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m.; and may be seen in the county court room.

This road check was conducted by Texas highway patrolmen T. A. Rowland and Byron Warren, and Sgt. E. L. Stroud.

From time to time road checks or blocks will be conducted for the purpose of ascertaining those operating motor vehicles without the required license in Bailey county.

Babson Not Pessimistic

Babson Park, Mass., Nov. 12—My daily Bible reading recently was the Forty-first Chapter of Genesis. This tells the story of Joseph and the Seven Lean Years of famine following the Seven Fat Years of prosperity. This story especially interests me because during the past summer I had been reading Breasted's History of Egypt, a complete history of the world's most enduring nation.

LENGTH OF CYCLES

The remarkable feature about Joseph's business cycle is that the story has continued to be told by word of mouth, written by script, and finally printed, over a period of about thirty-six hundred years. Certainly, if these cycles had not continued from generation to generation this story of Joseph's cycles would have dropped from the Hebrew history as so many other folk-lore stories did. Remember that for 2,000 years this story passed only by word of mouth; for 1,000 years it passed only by handwritten script; and only during the last 500 years has it passed by printed type.

Naturally, the story interests me in view of my fundamental belief in Sir Isaac Newton's Law of Action and Reaction. Newton published this Law in 1689. Most scientists and economists have recognized it from that day to the present. In short, in the business realm this means that whenever "prosperity" becomes abnormally high, either fundamental conditions must improve to justify this high prosperity or else there must follow a depression period approximately equal in area to compensate. The difficulty with the Law is that no way has yet been discovered to forecast the length or area of this prosperity period. We all know that labor leaders, installment-selling and pressure groups cannot keep up their present tactics forever. (Trees do not grow to the skies.) But how long they can keep them up, no one knows.

GREAT EVENTS AHEAD

There are factors which prolong the present era of prosperity. One of these—the spending of billions to protect our large cities against enemy bombs—have often forecast in this column. I believe my friend, Val Peterson, the National Civil Defense Administrator, will secure the necessary appropriations which could offset any decline in military expenditures. Another factor, which businessmen should watch, is the conflict between Great Britain and the United States regarding the opening up of China and Far Eastern trade. I believe that the British will be successful and win their argument. They know far more about foreign trade than we do and they have much more at stake. If China and the Far East are opened to trade, this could do much to lengthen prosperity.

I recently heard an interesting lecture on advertising, showing its tremendous growth and its improved pulling qualities. The best paid psychologists, statisticians, and artists are employed today in getting people to buy. The magnificent color advertising, which has recently come into development, may do for retail trade what the self-starter did for the automobile industry. Sales campaigns, sales conventions, and the training of salesmen have been developed to a point never known before. The possibilities of radio and television advertising are still in their infancy. The newspapers a few days ago reported that fifty million people watched television to hear LaRosa (whoever he may be)—probably less than half that number was the most who ever heard President Eisenhower! Lucky was the LaRosa sponsor.

KEEP IN THE MIDDLE OF THE ROAD

These are times when every businessman, in every community, should guard against being too dogmatic and thinking he knows just what is going to happen. The man who is a great optimist, or a great pessimist, is running a great risk. It is well to keep out of embarrassing debt; but otherwise every businessman should go ahead about as usual for the next few months. We may have a depression in 1954; but don't be too sure about it. 1954 may be a good year; but I'll discuss this in my Annual Outlook.

SAND HILLS PHILOSOPHER— Clears Up A Misunderstanding On States' Rights, In A Vague Sort of Way

Editor's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm tries his best to clear up the State's Rights issue this week, but as far as we can tell he misses by several miles.

Dear editor:
A whole lot has been said about State's Rights in recent years and there's a lot of misunderstanding on the topic.

The other day I was out here flippin' through a newspaper which I'd been carryin' around in my pocket for several days, some people say yesterday's newspaper ain't interestin' but it is if you haven't seen it yet, and I ran across an article which said Sec. of Agriculture Benson has proposed that the states help foot the bill for the farm program.

This is what I call a complete misunderstanding of the State's Rights argument. State's Rights is a sacred heritage, guaranteed by the forefathers and written into the Constitution, but it ain't got anythin' to do with footin' any bills. The tidelands, they belong to us, but the farm problem, thund-er, that's nation-wide and ought to be settled on a nation-wide basis, without respect to any state line or any state pocket book, especially any state I'm livin' in.

I believe not only in State's Rights, I believe in County Rights and Precinct Rights and Farm Rights and Home Rights and Kitchen Rights and Front Porch Rights, but I firmly believe the price of potatoes or cotton or corn or cattle is a problem too big for Austin or Rhode Island to be rasslin' with. It may even be too big a problem for Washington, but that shouldn't keep Wash-ington from tacklin' it.

If Sec. Benson believes Rhode Island ought to take care of the price of cows in Rhode Island, and Texas the price of cows in Texas, he sure is off on a strange path. Doesn't he know one state would sit back and wait till some other state raised the price of cows, and then every rancher in the first state would ship all his cows to market in the latter state?

Of course, this may not be what Sec. Benson had in mind at all, maybe he thinks the govern-ment in Washington ought to administer the farm program but the states ought to help foot the bill, and while I imagine a lot of money Washington handles does come from the states, doubt if much of it comes from Eng-land, for example, of West Ger-many, I can tell Sec. Benson right now his proposal to have the states foot the bill on the farm program is goin' to be mighty unpopular. Any time I'm able to pay for my farm program, I won't need a farm program.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Today's Meditation

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations. (Matthew 28:19.) Read

John 4:31-38.

In 1260 Nicolo and Maffea Polo, Venetian traders, made the long overland journey to Peking. The great Mongol ruler, Kublai Khan welcomed them. Nine years later when they started home, he gave them a letter to the Pope asking for 100 monks to teach the people Christianity. When the Poles returned to China in 1271, Nicolo's son, Marco, accompanied them, but not 100 monks. Thus one great mis-sionary opportunity was lost. How different history might have been if the Church had met the challenge.

In some countries in recent years doors of opportunity have been slamming shut. In other places, doors of opportunity are open as never before. It is our duty to work and pray that these opportunities today may not be lost, and that money and work-ers to supply these needs may be found.

PRAYER

Our heavenly Father, forbid that we should fail Thee. Let not indifference, fear, greed, or sloth hinder the spreading of the good news of Christ. Give us faith, courage, consecration, and zeal to meet the challenge of the world's needs. In the name of Christ who taught His disciples to pray, "Our Father . . ."

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
"Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest."

The ladies of the Methodist Church of Muleshoe are staging a Country Fair, at the Fellowship Hall Thursday, November 19. The doors will open at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

There will be handwork booths, jarcel post booths, food—pies, candy, cake, fresh eggs, dressed chickens, etc.; a white elephant table, and a fishing pond for the kiddies.

Also there will be hot dogs, hamburgers, pie, coffee, cokes, snow cones, and other foods for sale.

Later in the evening a "Fair" program will be presented. Articles to be sold should be turned in by Thursday noon.

The Sunshine Club met Thursday, November 5, with Mrs. L. C. Browder. Mrs. Browder, who is president, called the meeting to order.

It was decided to send presents to the Tubercular children at the home in Amarillo again this Christmas, as the club has done for the past three years.

Everyone is urged to come to the next meeting, which will be an all day affair, with a Thanksgiving dinner. The meeting will be held with Mrs. Crit Odom. Each member is asked to bring

Wimberley And Grimsley Vows Are Exchanged In Morning Ceremony

MR. AND MRS. MARK GRIMSLEY

Miss Coriene Wimberley, Mr. Mark Grimsley, son of Mr. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. and Mrs. F. A. Grimsley, Octob- Wimberley, became the bride of er 31, in an early morning ceremony performed at 9:00 o'clock in the First Baptist Church in Muleshoe.

Rev. Joe Grimsley of Ft. Worth, brother of the groom, officiated, as vows were exchanged before an archway entwined with white mums and greenery, and flanked on either side by candelabra. Bouquets of white mums and fern were placed on the pedestals, and on the pulpit stand.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white satin, ballerina length dress, fashioned with a full skirt and a fitted bodice of lace over satin. Self covered buttons ran up the front of the bodice to a Peter Pan collar. The long fitted sleeves ended in petal points over the hands. Her chapel length veil of white illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones. Her shoes were white linen, and she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses. Carrying out the bridal tradition, she wore a blue garter, a gift of the maid of honor, her veil was borrowed, and she had a penny in her shoe for luck.

The maid of honor, Karolene Towns, wore a nite green ballerina length dress of lace and satin fashioned after that of the brides. Her bouquet of white carnations was carried on a white fan.

Best man was Marlon Inman, and ushers were Howard Watson and Marvin Gaddy.

Nuptial music was furnished by Mona White, who played the traditional wedding marches and Carol June Buhman who sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Wimberley chose a grey dress, which she wore with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Grimsley, mother of the groom, wore a blue dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

A reception for the wedding party and relatives was held immediately following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. The house was decorated throughout with white mum bouquets.

The serving table was covered with a white lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of white mums.

Janice Grimsley, sister of the groom, presided at the bride's book, while the spiced tea and cake were served by Anita Powers and Lois Wimberley, cousins of the bride.

Designed For Economy Through Simplicity

HOUSE PLAN No. 40

A Southern farm and a livable house built by our FARM & RANCH House Plan No. 5140 were just made for each other. This house will be especially pleasant during a scorching Dixie summer. Each room is either a corner room or a first coupling to one, so there will be lots of light and ventilation. The breezeway, of course, will be cool even on the hottest days. It can be left open, screened, or provided with windows. Either way is attractive. There is ample room in the kitchen for serving family meals and for making a compact arrangement of your freezer chest, laundry equipment, and water heater. The bath is arranged near the back entrance so that field hands may wash up before going to other sections of the house. There are closets galore in the bedrooms, a large linen closet in the hall, and ample space for linen in the bathroom. Also, there is convenient storage space in the garage for seasonal items, or for items used only occasionally. The plans call for a double fireplac opening into both the dining and living areas. However, you could have a conventional fireplace instead, or a space heater in the same place. If you prefer a basement with a central heating unit we suggest that the entrance be arranged on the breezeway and the central unit put in the basement. This house has been designed for masonry construction but will be equally attractive in conventional frame. The plans incorporate all of the economy measures that can be applied to simple construction. The straight lines and simplicity of the roof mean a minimum of cost per square foot of floor area.

You can obtain blueprints for this THE MULESHOE JOURNAL FARM & RANCH House Plan No. 5140 and a handy list of materials by which you can figure your construction cost accurately. Send $1 to Building Editor, FARM & RANCH - SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST, Dept. L-36, Nashville, Tenn. Order by number

Crows Attend New Chevrolet Truck Showing

Arthur Crow and James Crow, of the C & H Chevrolet has just returned from Oklahoma City where they attended a private preview of the new 1954 Chevrolet trucks.

The exhibit and accompanying business session were sponsored by the company for all retail dealers and salesmen in this area and emphasized the importance Chevrolet is attaching to its soon-to-be-announced new truck line.

"The meeting was somewhat without precedent in our experience because it was devoted exclusively to new truck models," said Mr. Crow. "The reason soon become clear. The 1954 line contains so many features that even a review or highpoints required considerable time."

"Not only will Chevrolet have more to offer the truck user in 1954, but it will expand the forces behind its selling. Included is an expanded advertising program."

Mr. Crow said he plans to arrange a special showing of the new line in his dealership when the trucks become available for display later this month. It is one of the few times in history that Chevrolet has exhibited new trucks apart from new passenger car models.

PUZZLE: Who got the hundred million dollars?

He walked into our office seven years ago, sat down. We knew the customer. And a wonderful credit rating he had, too.

Said he wanted airplane engines. By that time blueprints were scattered all over the place.

He was taking no chances. Not one engine would he accept without testing first, stripping apart, building up again, and testing once more. Hmm!

And more. Every engine he bought would be overhauled after 15 running hours.

He didn't say so, but he must have known we would have ideas, too. (Lights burn all night when engineers at our place see ways to improve things we make.)

The climax was last August. The customer announced that he would allow 1,200 hours flying time from these G-E engines before an overhaul.

In other words, 80 times as many hours without overhaul as seven years ago. And today only every tenth engine is tested twice before delivery because of what has been referred to as the "perfection rate" of G-E jet engines.

Oh, yes. The hundred million dollars. With General Electric engines now giving extended service, not so many are needed. Improvements have saved the customer that much in five years.

P. S. Who's the customer? The U. S. Air Force. And what was the engine? The J-47 jet engine.

And who got the hundred million dollar saving? Who profits from more Air Force per dollar? The taxpayer, everybody. This story is one more example of what happens where research men and engineers are at work. Products gain in efficiency, do more. New products emerge, and the public is always the gainer.

The "stamp of newness"—and another new Santa Fe freight car is ready to roll 21 miles of new freight cars added by Santa Fe last year!

Remember when you used to count freight cars as a kid?

How would you like to count and stencil the "stamp of newness" on 21 miles of them?

That's what Santa Fe did last year—added 21 miles of new cars to its great fleet of modern freight cars.

And so it goes—year after year after year—until today there are 84,898 freight cars serving shippers on the Santa Fe.

With this building new program, Santa Fe is meeting the ever-growing need for moving vast tons of wheat, livestock, perishable foods, minerals and merchandise to the markets of America.

And many of these cars are new and special types to serve shippers in new and better ways—like the "MTC 3150" mechanical refrigerator car that works like your home freezer.

It costs Santa Fe millions of dollars—earned dollars—to acquire this great fleet and maintain its own "steel highway."

But it doesn't add a penny to the taxes you pay.

The Lazbuddie Halloween Carnival, held last Friday night was well attended, and everyone there seemed to be enjoying themselves.

The evening was climaxed by the coronation and the crowning of the queens. The pageant being presented in the form of a Halloween Ball. The kings were escorted to their places by cats, witches, goblins, and ghost. Lights were turned out, and a skeleton dance was performed.

Gail Ivy was crowned grade school queen, by Eugene Vaughn; Carolyn Hinkson was crowned by Dean Watkins; and Betty Littlefield was crowned High School queen by Jerry Gleason.

Mrs. Dunn Reports On Grand Chapt. Meeting In Dallas

Mrs. Winnie Dunn, who with several other ladies from the Eastern Star Lodge in Muleshoe, recently attended the Grand Chapter meeting in Dallas, gave The Journal a short report of the meeting.

One of the highlights of the meeting was when Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Mildred Garlitz, explained her project for the past year. It was "The Living Orchid Fund". Mrs. Garlitz explained that when she attended meetings, instead of orchids being given, money was put into a fund for religious education of the blind.

There were ten $400 religious educational scholarships, given away this year. The money for these was earned by the Orchid fund. $730 was given to little Jan Memmick, who is losing her sight. The money is to be used on her education, and she is studying to be an instructor for the blind.

Each of the five districts in Texas bought an Iron lung, which will be used where it is most needed. At present, the Iron lung of this district is in Abilene.

Mrs. Mary Schoeverling of Houston was elected Worthy Grand Matron of Texas, and Mrs. Pauline Smith of Lubbock was elected Associate Grand Conductress.

The next Grand Chapter meeting will be held in Houston, the latter part of October next year.

Several of the Muleshoe ladies visited the Eastern Star and Masonic home in Houston, and met there Dr. Craver, a former resident of Muleshoe, who has lived in the home for the past eleven years. Dr. Craver sends his greetings to all his friends in Muleshoe. He is a former chiropractor.

Why more than a million owners this year have chosen the "Worth More" FORD!

They have discovered first hand what the surveys show... Ford, with all its fine-car features, is worth more when you buy it, and worth more when you sell it!

OVER A MILLION OWNERS can't be wrong! Ford is the one fine car in the low-price field. It gives you the "GO," the style, the comfort, and "build" of cars that sell for far more. And, it's only natural that Ford keeps its value better, in resale, than any other car on the American Road. Check the features below for some of the "Worth More" reasons for the swing to Ford.

Lowest-priced V-8 in America And the only V-8 in the low-price field. Ford's high-compression V-8 power plant delivers its "Go" on regular gas!

Most Modern Six of all is Ford's high-compression, low-friction Mileage Maker. With Overdrive, it was the winner in 1953 Mobilgas Economy Run.

Smoother Ride, with front end road shock reduced up to 80%, is another Ford big-car feature... and you get it without gas-eating extra weight.

Fine-Car Build means using steel of the same quality and thickness as in costliest cars. Ford is the most completely insulated car in its field.

Fordomatic Drive is the only "automatic" in its field with the "Go" of an automatic intermediate gear plus the smoothness of a torque converter.

Finest Power Steering—that's Ford Master-Guide. Does up to 75% of the steering work yet retains normal steering "feel" on the straightaways.

VOTE SET FOR DECEMBER 15 Congressman Mahon Warns Farmers And Businessmen On Crop Controls

Congressman George Mahon warned farmers and businessmen this week of the importance of keeping abreast of acreage control developments. He feels that many adjustments are going to be necessary to meet the shock of forthcoming programs. He points out that by reason of the anticipated drastic reduction in cotton plantings, overall cash income will be down. Mahon made for the press the following statement on the situation.

"Farmers and businessmen can do a better job of planning if they have a general knowledge of what to expect by way of government controls. Of course, no controls will be imposed unless they are first approved by the farmers themselves. A majority of two-thirds of those participating in a referendum is required. The object of controls is to reduce production, prevent excessive surpluses, and make possible relatively high government supports."

"The vote on cotton acreage controls is set for December 15. Secretary Benson has announced that, under existing law, if controls are approved, cotton farmers as a whole will be given a national allotment of 17,910,000 acres. This is 16% below what farmers were able to plant in 1950, the last year when acreage controls were in operation.

"There has been a shifting of cotton production toward the West, particularly to California, and these Western states will share in the national allotment. This means that in most cotton counties of the Nation sharper reductions will be made because of the shift of cotton production westward, and because of the overall 16% cut below the 1950 control program."

"Under the anticipated control program, farmers in cotton-producing counties will be privileged to plant a certain percentage of their cropland to cotton. Generally speaking, within the county the percentage factor for each cotton farmer would be the same. The factor would differ from county to county. It would be based upon the percentage of the total cropland in the county which had been planted in cotton during the past five years. However, the five year period upon which allotments for next year would be based would include 1949 and 1953. The law specifies that abnormal weather conditions must be taken into account in arriving at allotments."

"In the 1950 program in the 19th District cotton factors ranged from a low of 12% in Yoakum County to a high of 58% in Dawson County. The factor represents the percentage of cropland that the average cotton farmer in the county could plant in cotton under the program. The average factor in the 25 counties was 38%. This was by far the highest average of any block of counties in Texas. Scores of Texas counties had factors of less than 5%. The factor for Bailey County was 31%."

"Prior to December 15 the local PMA office will announce the proposed factor for 1954 in each county. Generally, the announced factors will be lower for 1954, but the figures cannot be accurately predicted. Many variations can be expected as a result of cotton-planting histories for the key five-year period."

"In my opinion, the announced national cotton acreage allotment is too low, and I believe that the chances are about fifty-fifty that Congress, when it reconvenes, will raise the national allotment to about 22 million acres. However, the farmer cannot be sure of future developments. The House of Representatives passed a bill in June raising the national allotment to 22½ million acres, but a controversy on the matter arose in the Senate and final action was not taken."

"Secretary Benson has announced that controls may be established on corn production next year. If this develops, a

FOR MORE PROFITABLE WHEAT

Will the coming restrictions on wheat acreage in Texas be a blessing in disguise? Perhaps—if it forces the farmer into more profitable practices.

Surprisingly enough, wheat raised at average yields is often relatively unprofitable crop. A recent study in a mid-western wheat growing area showed that average yields of 19 bushels per acre returned the farmer a profit of less than $2 per acre if he got $2 per bushel for his wheat. Actually, that farmer would be better off using his land for some other crop.

This doesn't mean the farmer should stop growing wheat on the vast acreages of his land. It does mean he should stop wasting his time on 19-bushel wheat. He should boost his yields.

How about this business of boosting wheat yields? Sometimes it involves using quite a bit of fertilizer, and the necessity of greater mechanization of operations. Is it profitable? Researchers say "Yes."

By using enough fertilizer and time saving devices, the farmer can boost his yield to 40 bushels per acre and his profit to over $32 in the mid-western area where studies were conducted.

The dollar-and-cents picture in the test area looked like this: The fixed cost for low yield wheat ran to $32, plus $4.33 worth of fertilizer, for a total cost of $36.33 per acre. This yielded 19 bushels of wheat for a control program on combine milo could be announced. Yet, as of this date, there is no regulation which would limit milo and sorghum plantings in 1954. For example, a producer in a county with a 30% cotton factor could plant 30% of his land in cotton and 70% of his land in milo. The Secretary has already announced a support program on milo for next year at 85% parity.

"The wheat control program is already in operation. However, it has now been specifically announced by the PMA in Washington that a non-wheat farmer without an allotment can, without penalty, plant, harvest, and sell the wheat production from 15 acres of wheat or less. He would not be eligible for a loan on the wheat, but this would not throw the producer out of compliance on other farm programs." The cropland factor for Bailey County is given by the Congressman as .3135.

The dollar-and-cents picture in the test area looked like this: The fixed cost for low yield wheat ran to $32, plus $4.33 worth of fertilizer, for a total cost of $36.33 per acre. This yielded 19 bushels of wheat for a crop value per acre of $38. This meant only a profit of $1.67 per acre, with wheat costing $1.91 per bushel to produce.

On the other hand, the high yield wheat, using more fertilizer and efficient operations ran like this:

Fixed cost $32, plus $15.85 worth of fertilizer for a total of $47.85 per acre. Production here amounted to 40 bushels per acre, for a crop value of $80 per acre. This left a profit of $32.15 per acre with wheat costing only $1.20 per bushel to produce.

Of course, wheat acreage allotments are designed to hold down production, in the first place. But a farmer producing low yielding wheat on a vastly reduced acreage next year can easily be squeezed right out of the picture.
