By J. M. FORBES

There is a lesson to be gained from the election, whether one is a Republican or a Democrat. For, while the "split ticket" business is confusing and certainly swelled the volume of Mr. Eisenhower's amazing vote total, the wise person will not lose sight of the fact that both Republicans and Democrats mounted a great campaign, and their effort would have been a puny one on a national scale but for powerful and well knit party organizations.

Organizations are necessary in the U. S. My personal advice to Bailey County Republicans and Democrats alike: Keep alive your county organizations from the county level down through the precincts. Politics, or rather an interest in government is not just a matter to which you give attention three or four months in every four years. Keep your organizations alive and functioning if you expect to accomplish what you think ought to be done in the coming two or four years.

Prof. Shelby: A thing that astonished me about election night is the improvement and almost incredible advance in communications. It's pretty fast for me. About the time I got to believe that radio actually existed, along came TV!

Our part of the country went Democratic and I don't believe there is any doubt but that this resulted because this is a farming belt and people are worried about the widening gulf between farm prices and the prices farmers have to pay for everything he uses.

We trust the national administration will minimize this "squeeze". Me and some of my financial advisers (and my how I need them) are worried about "hard money".

If you read the business pages of your daily newspapers, you know by now that rediscunt interest rates have been raised, in an effort to halt inflation. It hasn't seemed to work, because the cost of living index continues to creep upward; cost of things we buy consumers goods are higher this year than last year. At the same time, it's getting harder to get a loan commitment to buy or build. We hope the administration can come up with a solution to this situation.

Partially to console you Democrats, partially as a possible augur of the future: I think the party preceded before the U. S. People this summer and fall a great array of brilliant, usable young men: young governors, young senators, young leaders from all over. These young men will likely make the "west" squad in the coming few years.

When Bill Connell, the tomato farming man, put a little political advertisement in the paper last week, he learned that The Journal gets around and gets read by a lot of folks. He said 400 to 500 persons phoned him, stopped him and told him that they had seen the message. As distasteful as it is for us to shoot our own gun, we feel compelled to admit that advertising in The Journal is the best and costs less.

Three Persons Injured Wednesday In Two Car Crash On Plainview Road

Three persons were injured Tuesday afternoon when a pickup loaded with six Latin-Americans, crashed head-on into a Mercury driven by Mrs. W. C. Stout, of Muleshoe, 11 miles out on the Plainview highway, near the Pleasant Valley community.

Investigating officers of the Highway Patrol said that apparently, the pickup truck, driven by Leon Vernal, 17, of Alamo, Texas, passed another vehicle and rammed head-on into the Stout car.

Mrs. Stout received chest injuries, and two of the passengers in the pickup received injuries that were not considered critical by West Plains Hospital employees.

In the pickup with Leon Vernal were Leandro Vernal, 12; Hernando Vernal, 10; Roberto Vargas, 21; Francisca Solis, 18; and Vincente Solis, 19.

Considerable damage was sustained by both vehicles, the officer said.

A Singleton ambulance brought the injured to West Plains Hospital.

SOME TURNIPS! Mrs. J. R. Walker of the Progress community, holds two of the super-sized turnips grown on two rows planted at the edge of 30 acres of lettuce. One of the big vegetables weighed 6 1/4 pounds. The turnips were irrigated and matured in six weeks, thus eliminating pithy centers, common to large tuber vegetables. (Staff Photo)

Farmer's Cooperative Elevator To Hold Open House Here Saturday

The Farmer's Cooperative Elevator, located north of the Santa Fe railroad tracks off the Clovis highway, is holding open house all day Saturday, and is inviting the public to visit the newest grain handling facility in Muleshoe.

W. M. Kunkel, manager of the elevator, has extended an invitation to everyone to visit the plant Saturday and to enjoy free coffee and doughnuts all day long as guests of the cooperative.

The elevator is an eight tank concrete structure, more than 130 feet in height, and having a capacity of 375,000 bushels of grain. It was constructed by the Pillsbury Contracting Company of Omaha, Nebraska, specialists in grain elevator construction.

The latest and most modern grain handling machinery has been installed in the elevator, from a double automatic dumping shed to handle two loaded trucks at one time, right up to the top of the elevator, where automatic measuring devices dump and record each bushel of grain loaded into freight cars on the private rail siding.

A new scale house, has been constructed near the elevator, which houses the business office of the cooperative, and also the new automatic Fairbanks-Morse scales, which weigh and record the weight of trucks.

T. R. Smallwood is president of the cooperative, with G. W. Mims, vice-president, and Harold Wilson, secretary.

Directors include Lester Howard, W. M. Harmon, Cecil Davis, and Dick Willman.

More than 300 students from 41 district schools, with La-mesa school vice-president, Muleshoe school secretary and Tulla parliamentary school.

Refreshments are being furnished by one of the bottling concerns, and scratch pads and pencils by the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce.

Parker pointed out that the meeting is of considerable value in that the exchange of ideas between schools often is of benefit to all schools.

Delegation Not To Go To New Jersey To Campbell Plant

Plans to send a delegation to the Campbell Soup offices in Camden, New Jersey, have been changed, following a telephone conversation between Sen. Slemmons, manager of the local Chamber of Commerce, and J. M. Hoerle, vice-president of the canning company on October 30.

During the phone talk, Hoerle told Slemmons that it would not be necessary to send a delegation at this time, but that he would be interested in seeing a report on this area, and the results of tomato crops grown around Muleshoe.

Commissioners Pay Road-Bridge Fund Warrants

The Bailey County Commissioners Court met Friday of last week, and in addition to paying routine bills, voted several destitute cases worthy of aid and instructed the clerk to pay same.

The court also amended a previous resolution, which will allow church groups and other charitable organizations outside of Muleshoe, but in the trade territory, to hold rummage sales on the courthouse property.

Payment was made for road and bridge fund warrants totaling $12,295.06, including $1015.19 in interest.

Banks Closed

Both the First National and Muleshoe State banks will be closed November 12 in observance of Veteran's Day.

All businesses requiring pay-rolls or having other bank business to transact, are asked to note the closing date.

City Council Hears Delegation, Buys New Camera, Discusses Traffic Signs

Although the Muleshoe City Council met in regular session for more than 4 1/2 hours Wednesday afternoon, and talked with at least six delegations, very little was recorded in the minute books by way of resolution or vote. Like many Council sessions, this one was marked with a great deal of discussion of problems of local citizens, and considerable time was spent by members of the Council in trying to offer an equitable solution.

The regular session at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday and before any regular business could be taken up, a citizen came in with a complaint about the streets near his residence. The Council and the city engineer heard him out and attempted to explain their viewpoint in the matter and to satisfy him.

Then a delegation from General Telephone Company arrived to discuss a rate increase which would have to be granted before the company would offer extended area service to rural areas. The Council discussed this matter some but did not take any action.

The Council heard the first reading of an ordinance on making it illegal to junk iceboxes and refrigerators without first removing the doors and catches as a safety measure.

They also voted to purchase a Polaroid camera for the police department, and voted to hire some extra help in city hall.

The Council discussed a paving and caliche program for the airport but did not take any action, pending receipt of a report from the city engineer, Ralph Douglas.

A letter from the State Highway Department was read, which more or less confirmed the State's intention of widening the Clovis highway to four lanes for approximately 1800 feet from West 8th street to West 14th street. The city will report to the state when all the drainage problems have been solved so the work can proceed.

Traffic maps had been prepared by the engineer showing suggested through streets and places where yield and stop signs should be erected. Although the Council was unable to take any action on the map, it is believed that Avenue B, C, and D, running east and west will be designated through streets, with yield and stop signs only near the school grounds. The subject will again be brought up at an early meeting.

At almost 7 p.m., the Council adjourned, to meet again next week.

Community Choir Is Rehearsing

Muleshoe Community Choir met in regular rehearsal Sunday afternoon in the Fellowship Hall of the First Christian Church, with Paul Summersgill as director and doing a fine job. Several new members were welcomed into the choir, but still there is a great need for singers, especially men.

Mr. Summersgill says: If you like to sing, regardless of the kind of training you have had, whether it be from a professional teacher, or from your own efforts in the bathtub, we would like to have you sing in the Muleshoe Community Choir.

Up until the past Sunday the choir had been rehearsing in the high school, but due to the auditorium being too large, it was decided to meet in the different churches.

Again next Sunday at 3 o'clock the rehearsal will be held in the Fellowship Hall of the First Christian Church. If you are interested in seeing Muleshoe have a community choir, won't you please devote a little of your time to this worthy cause?

1957 Buick Line Features More New Ideas Than Any Previous Models

Buick this week introduced a new line of cars for 1957 packed with more engineering and styling changes than any previous model in Buick history. They will be on display at Cayle Reed Buick Co. in Muleshoe.

The new line features all-new roomier bodies, boldly designed in smart, new "dream car" styling, new and more powerful V-8 engines, and a completely new chassis with improved ride and handling.

All of the new cars have been reduced in height. Some models are as much as three and three-eighths inches lower than last year, without any sacrifice in ground clearance. Headroom remains the same and legroom has been increased in the four-door hardtops. "We have packed more engineering and styling improvements in the 1957 model than in any previous Buick in history," said Edward T. Ragsdale, general manager of Buick and vice-president of General Motors. "The new bodies, with their lower silhouette, plus the new engineering changes that improve ride and handling, make the 1957 line the greatest value we have ever offered the motoring public."

A brand new estate wagon, designed in the same racy, hardtop styling as the other models in the line, is offered in the Century and Special series.

A new 361-cubic inch V-8 engine, with 10 to 1 compression ratio, generates 300 horsepower in the Roadmaster, Super and Century series, an increase of 45 horsepower over last year. The Special, which also has a 364-cubic inch engine, with a 9.5 to 1 compression ratio, has a maximum horsepower rating of 250, compared to 220 last year.

The variable pitch Dynaflo transmission, which has proved such a spectacular success, is continued as standard equipment on the Roadmaster, Super and Century, and optional on the Special.

The new styling presents dramatic new front and rear design, bigger panoramic windshields with a more rakish slant to the pillars, new bumpers both front and rear, and three-piece back windows on the Special, Century and Roadmaster.

One-piece panoramic back windows are standard on Super models and also are optional on the Roadmaster at no extra cost.

Dimmitt at Muleshoe, Olton at Canyon, Tulla at Dalhart.

Mules Lost 52-0 To Canyon Friday

Behind a crushing offensive that racked up more than 500 yards on the ground and in the air, the Canyon Eagles took the Muleshoe Mules by a score of 52-0 in the first scoreless game for the locals this season, last Friday night before a Canyon homecoming crowd of near 1,000.

The victory kept Canyon in the top tie spot with Olton for District leadership, and dropped the Mules to the next to last spot in the race, just above scoreless Tulla for the cellar position.

With fullback Harley Adams rolling up 132 yards rushing, and halfback Don Britin adding 107 yards, Canyon took control of the game early, leading 32-0 at the half and flooding the field with subs in the final quarter to roll up their 52-0 lead at the end of the game.

The Eagles beat the Mules by the same score in 1955, and this year so far the Mules have kept their loss record in conference spotless, failing to win a game in three tries.

The Mules meet Dimmitt here tomorrow night in Benny Douglas stadium, while the Canyon-Olton tangle at Canyon will probably decide the district winner.

BACK TROUBLE, ARTHRITIS, CASE HISTORY:

Man age 45. Symptoms, severe back trouble and it was difficult for him to move without excruciating pain. Upon moving his side ached terribly and he had a painful feeling in his arm.

A few years ago he sprained his knee and had to stay in bed one week. Also he sprained his back in lifting. From then on he had trouble with his back, side and arm until he had to quit work.

He came to Chiropractic Clinic after trying different forms of treatment without results.

The X-Ray examination of his spine revealed that the vertebrae in his neck were badly misaligned. Also there was a curvature in his spine in the dorsal region. Two nerve tests accurately located bad nerves leading to his spine, his arm and his side. Upon further questions he told us of a fall he had one time that broke his leg. This further proved that if a fall or sprain was great enough to break his leg or injure his spine, it was also great enough to knock the vertebrae in his back out of place.

After a series of Chiropractic Service this case is now feeling as tho he were a new man. His back does not hurt any more; his arm and side are feeling fine.

She was eventually brought to the Clinic for a spinal analysis and spinal X-ray to locate the cause of her trouble. She told us that she had developed sinus trouble, pleurisy, palpitation of the heart and high blood pressure of 200. After a course of Chiropractic service she reported no headaches at all. Besides this recovery, she said she was not dizzy any more, blood pressure was down to 156-100, all chest pains and sinus pains were cleared up. Sweeping Model Changes Introduced In 1957 Olds At Johnson and Nix Oldsmobile for 1957 has completed the most sweeping model change in the past 20 years, with distinctive styling innovations and mechanical improvements in every one of the 17 body styles in three series of cars. The body is completely new, creating a fashion-new exterior appearance with deeper bumper and a redesigned grille. Mechanical and structural advances include a new wider and heavier chassis, new "pivot-poise" front suspension of a design that resists dipping, improved rear suspension, a new 277-h. p. "Rocket" engine, known as the T-400 due to its high torque throughout the driving range, and new 14 inch wheels.

Outstanding styling note is the accent stripe, an Oldsmobile exclusive, that runs more than half the length of the car's side panels between narrow chrome moldings. This marks the first new style trend in exterior color application since Oldsmobile introduced two-tone color styling in the body in 1954. The accent stripe permits a new two-tone effect, with the car painted one color and the accent stripe in a contrasting color. However, the conventional two-tone styling is still available as an optional extra.

The 1957 Oldsmobile will go on display in dealer showrooms throughout the nation on Friday, November 9. "More new features and design changes have gone into the 1957 Oldsmobile than any of its predecessors in at least the past two decades. This has made it necessary for Oldsmobile to spend double the amount for the 1957 model change than any previous year," it was announced

Teachers Meet To Oppose Merit System Plan

Muleshoe Classroom Teachers Association met Monday afternoon in the junior high school. Refreshments of cake and Cokes were served at 32 teachers.

After a business meeting, presided over by Mrs. Jack Beddingfield, local president, the following program was presented:

Miss Roberta Biles discussed the stand of the Texas Classroom Teacher Association in opposition to the merit system under consideration for adoption in Texas. According to the proposal, teachers would not be rewarded for outstanding services, but would instead have increments taken away for failure to conform to a set standard. Since any system of rating would be imperfect and would involve dissatisfaction and ill will, the TCTA opposes the use of the merit system in Texas schools. The results of a teacher's work, Miss Biles pointed out, are often not recognized in the present but show up in the later life of a child as a great influence. The value of that teacher's work may not be apparent to supervisors of the merit system.

Mrs. Bill Parker gave a resume of the TCTA District IV Workshop at Lubbock on October 27, which she and Mrs. Beddingfield, and Miss Biles attended, after which Mrs. Elizabeth Watson showed a film, "Broader Concept of Method - Developing Pupil Interest."

Advanced Styling Featured In 1957 GMC Truck Line At Ladd Pontiac

New GMC trucks for 1957, carrying an advanced look in styling and best-of-industry horsepower for light and medium-duty truck users, were introduced today by Ladd Pontiac Co. of Muleshoe.

A new 347 cubic inch V-8 truck engine with 206 gross horsepower will be in 1957 GMC light and medium-duty trucks, giving them a performance edge that leads the list of many dramatic new model changes.

"With our new V-8 we have one of the most important power developments in GMC truck history," said Phillip J. Monaghan, vice-president of General Motors and general manager of GMC Truck and Coach Division.

"Our 1957 V-8 trucks are so powerful that some models have one horsepower of pulling strength for each 15½ pounds of vehicle weight. This power resource means they are able to walk away with a load without sacrificing nimbleness, maneuverability or roadability."

The extra power for the new GMC models also means an added safety factor as drivers will find a faster response in an emergency, Monaghan said.

Newly designed transmissions and axles provide longer life and greater capacity for these new trucks, he said.

New developments in GMC's heavy-duty trucks for 1957, which will include air suspension models, will be announced later, Monaghan said.

Models in the GMC 100-250 light and 300-370 medium weight brackets range from town-and-country pickups and Suburban station wagons to Dual-Purpose cross-country highway tractors combining in one vehicle the good features of cab-over-engine and conventional vehicle designs.

Four wheel drive that can be converted to a two wheel drive for open highway use by the shift of a single lever is a factory-installed option in the light duty GMC truck line.

Complementing the under-hood strength of the 1957 GMCs is at Fort Ord, Calif. He arrived in styling unrivaled in the industry. Europe in January 1956.

Many changes, especially in the front end, enhance the over-all beauty of the vehicles.

A new recessed multi-bar grille angled forward at the top retains the rakish GMC "leaning into the load" look. Two raised ribs on the hood, known as "wind splitters", strengthen and help streamline the front end. Exterior features also include safety locks on cabs and panel rear doors, and a redesigned locking device on Model F350 and F370 accessibility doors.

A new deep center steering wheel on 100-250 models, with the center column and horn button well-recessed, gives the driver greater crash protection.

Two 6-cylinders and a V-8 power various models. Both 6-cylinders have 270 cubic inch displacement, but through different carburetion, one develops 130 and the other 140 horsepower.

With its 347 cubic-inch displacement and its 206 gross horsepower, the V-8 makes GMC light-duty trucks the most powerful in the business. It tops last year's V-8 for comparable models by 26 horsepower.

The new improved design V-8 provides maximum performance with highest efficiency with its 7.8 to 1 compression ratio.

Escorted by armed Hungarian soldiers, Hungary's Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty arrives back at his official residence in Budapest. The Cardinal, showing few effects of his eight years of Communist imprisonment, drove directly to his place to avoid many of the crowds that gathered to greet him. As congratulatory messages were received from Pope Pius XII the Hungarian people steeled themselves to face a new invading force of Russian troops who have arrived to squelch their rebellion.

HE SERVED BEST PEOPLE IN WORLD . . . Gil Wollard, Route Carrier With More Than 31 Years Retires From Service

After serving nearly a third of a century and having traveled more than 700,000 miles, Gilbert Wollard, rural route carrier has retired. It took more than the passage of years and the mileage covered to cause Gil to quit; he topped carrying the mail on advice of his doctors, after suffering a severe heart attack.

A ceremony in Muleshoe postoffice last week signaled Gil's retirement. Arnold Allcorn, postmaster, presented Gil with a certificate of service, signed by Postmaster General Arthur W. Summerfield, and by George Gray, Dallas, regional director of the Postal Service. A group of postoffice employees gathered to present their best wishes to the dean of the local carrier group. The substitute carrier, Mrs. Phyllis Beavers is delivering the mail on Route 3 at the present time.

Gil said that his principal regret upon leaving the service was that he would miss the route patrons, who he said are "the best people in the world". He considers such family as his personal friends and it has been a distinct pleasure for him to serve them.

Gil came to Muleshoe when there were only 600 persons living here. He had begun his career with the Postal Service at Milford, Hill County, Texas March 2, 1925. He transferred to Route 1 out of Muleshoe on April 16, 1930, changing with George W. Dotson, who took Wollard's route at Milford. Mr. Dotson is now a route carrier at Brownfield.

When Mr. Wollard came to take over Route 1, it was only 56 miles long. Later became 101 miles long. Gil served the route until Route 1 and Route 2 were split, creating Route 3, in January, 1955, and Gil took over Route 3, shortest of the three routes.

At the time Gil came to Muleshoe, the Postmistress was Mrs. Beulah Carles, who still resides here. W. B. McAdams was carrying the other route, Route 2. Mr. McAdams since has retired and is residing here also. A. J. Gardner succeeded Mrs. Carles as postmaster, served about 20 years and is now assistant postmaster. At the time Gil came here, Helen and Ruth Bearden were the postoffice clerks.

Changes Are Many

Mr. Wollard has seen many changes, both in the local postoffice and in the town and countryside. But the same type of good people still are patrons of the Muleshoe routes, Gil says, and just before his retirement he still was serving many families that were patrons when he came on the job here twenty-six years ago. And Muleshoe's five route carriers deliver more mail in a day now than the carriers used to deliver in a week, Gil says.

The Wollards, Gil and Annis, probably know more people in Muleshoe and surrounding area than anyone, excepting perhaps other carriers. They are Gil and Annis to everyone, even to those who have only a slight acquaint-

RECOGNITION OF ACHIEVEMENT was presented Gil Wollard, (wearing hat) as he retired from the postal service last week. Presenting the award is postmaster Arnold Allcorn, while other members of the postoffice staff look on. (Staff Photo)

PONTIAC CHIEFTAIN FOUR-DOOR SEDAN—The 1957 Chieftain four-door sedan is a favorite of owners who want the convenience of four doors in an economy priced car. Tastefully upholstered in bright combinations of nylon and durable vinyl fabrics, the big, roomy car makes an ideal family car. Star Flight styling of the exterior is available in 68 color combinations. A new standard of performance results from its big new V-8 engine and responsive transmission. Pontiac also offers the four-door sedan in the Star Chief series and the Super Chief series.

Ladd Pontiac Introduces 57 Models Featuring Exciting Star Flight Style

Pontiac introduces its 1957 models Friday at Ladd Pontiac with three series, the Star Chief on a 124-inch wheelbase, the Super Chief and Chieftain on 122-inch wheelbase, in 16 new body styles, according to S. E. Knudsen, GM Vice-president and General Manager of Pontiac Division. Featuring exciting Star Flight body styling with "starlite" or "accent" two-toning, luxurious interiors and spectacular performance, the new models will be on display at Pontiac dealerships November 9.

"The 1957 Pontiacs are the most exciting new cars we have ever offered", Knudsen said. "From the massive gleaming front to the smart streamlined fins of the rear fenders, the 1957 Pontiacs are a triumph of modern design and safety engineering. The body design is new. The overall length has been increased 1.2 inches; however, the lower silhouette and the dramatic styling creates a much longer and sleeker appearance."

The wide, low front end of the 1957 Pontiac is high-lighted and protected by heavy wrap-around bumpers with integrated bomb-type bumper guards. Large oval parking lamps are set into the lower part of the bumpers. A semi-circular chrome grille and a full width air scoop direct air flow to the car radiator. Hooded head lamps surmounted by sleek front-fender ornaments are prominent in the front-end styling. Greater vision is achieved by lowering the hood 1.6 inches and increasing the windshield area 7.4 square inches in the Catalinas, convertibles and custom station wagons and by 69 square inches in sedans and other station wagons. The flair of the rear fender houses an integrated tail and back-up lamp and a safety reflector. The rear projection of the oval tail lamp is protected by a projection in the rear bumper which also serves as an exhaust port on cars equipped with dual exhausts.

A missile outline trim of stainless steel sweeps the entire length of the car on each side. The Star Flight styling of the 1957 Pontiac is further accentuated by a windsplit molding in the rear fender. On the Star Chief models this torpedo-shaped windsplit is sheathed in stainless steel. The same material, brushed to a satin finish, is used on the vane wheel discs. A full range of excitingly modern colors is available on the 16 body styles. The eye-catching appeal of the 1957 Pontiac is not limited to exterior styling for the new cars offer the most luxurious color-keyed interiors in Pontiac history. Star Chief series models are upholstered in the finest hand-buffed leather in "dream car" colors of Silver Beige, Kenya Ivory, Cordova Red, Limefire Green, Seacoast Green and Fontaine Blue. These top grain leathers can also be had in combination with "encore" patterned nylon fabrics.

Super Chief series models feature upholstery of colorful combination in "horizons" patterned nylon faced fabric and grained vinyl coated fabrics. Rich-piled carpeting is standard equipment for the Star Chief and Super Chief series, except in convertibles and station wagons. The economy priced Chieftain series models offer a new height of luxury with interiors of "contemporary tweed" patterns of nylon faced cloth and vinyl. Sixty-six interior trim combinations are offered in the 1957 line.

Pontiac's completely new instrument panel for 1957 offers the ultimate in safety, convenience, and modern styling. The lower section of the panel on Star Chief models features full width chromed trim panels. The glove compartment door and dual ash trays are housed in the lower panel. The instrument cluster, with two circular dials and a luminescent "Safety Line" speedometer, are positioned at an easily readable level. A fingertip heater and defroster controls, radio controls and clock are located near the center of the instrument panel. The radio speaker is positioned below the center of the instrument panel for better sound reproduction and distribution. Another influence of "dream car" styling in the 1957 Pontiacs is the deep swallow-tail steering wheel, which adds the final touch of modern, safety design to the passenger compartment.

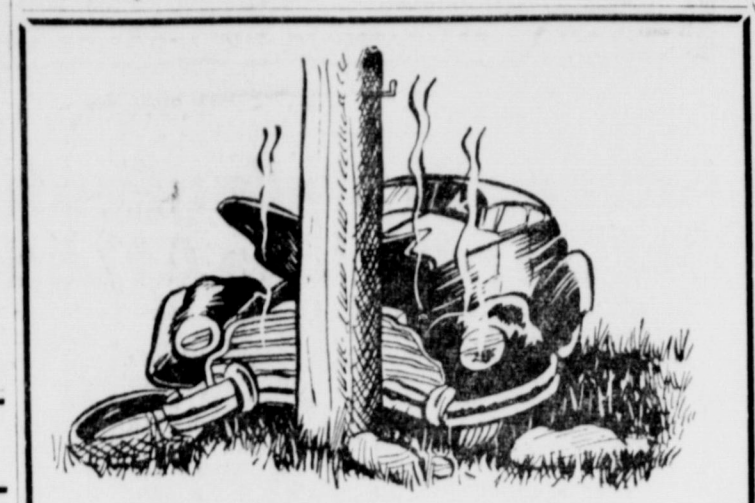

American car buyers, who over the past few years have grown increasingly interested in "what's under the hood" of their new cars, will find that Pontiac engineers have developed the 1957 car to a new level of efficiency and smooth, durable performance. The Strato-Streak V-8 engine, with displacement increased to 317.04 cubic inches, has higher horsepower, 10:1 compression ratio, larger manifold, completely machined and contoured combustion chambers, larger, more efficient valves and newly

THE CASE OF THE SMALL FARMER

An alarming note has been struck in the hearts of farmers to whom living directly from the land they own has become a way of life.

The word comes from the fogged thinking of armchair economists who say, "The day of the small farmer is over."

Such a statement is a direct slap to the principles of Democracy.

If the day of the small farmer is over, so is the day of competitive free enterprise, the basis of our economy. If the small farmer is being sucked under by forces of "the times", then times are bad. These armchair strategists have said that big, corporate farms are the modern, efficient way to keep agricultural economy running right. They say that whether we like it or not, that's what farming should come to.

Such thinking is preposterous, not for a number of reasons.

In the first place, most people who own and operate farms and ranches are there because, however tough and confining the work, that's what they would rather do than anything in the world. They're not there primarily to get rich, although their investment certainly warrants them a decent living. They're

Falling Leaves Are Good Compost

If properly handled, the leaves which are now falling and cluttering yards and gardens can give a boost to next year's flower or vegetable garden, says M. K. Thornton, extension agricultural chemist.

It may be easier to burn them but the extra time required to put them in a compost pile will return big dividends, explains the specialist. Use the compost next year to increase the organic matter in the soil or for mulching flowers, shrubs, or vegetables, he says. Organic matter increases the soil's ability to hold water and plant nutrients and makes the soil easier to work. Mulches are valuable for controlling soil temperature and conserving moisture.

Making a compost pile is an easy operation. Scrap lumber or a few feet of net wire and four posts will take care of the enclosure, says Thornton. Then start with a six inch layer of leaves, and for the four foot square enclosure, dissolve a cup of commercial fertilizer, either 8-8-8 or 5-10-5, in water and sprinkle the solution over the layer of leaves. Keep adding these alternate layers until the pile reaches the desired height.

PARMER COUNTY Farm Bureau News

By RAYMOND EULER

Here is an easy way for some of you ladies to increase your Christmas shopping purse: Come in and file for refund of the five cent state tax paid on the gasoline used for farming. That is five dollars for each hundred gallons of gasoline. Several farmers still allow some of their invoices to expire for exemption, even after they have received a notice thirty or so days before the expiration date. So you ladies can help balance the budget by coming in and filing as soon as you receive the card headed, Important Notice. All you need to bring with you is the affidavit received with your last refund check. If it is your first claim, we will furnish the affidavit.

Rhea Farm Bureau had Mr. Cecil McNeil, Safety Officer of the State Highway Patrol at their monthly meeting Friday night. He spoke and showed a film on traffic safety. Mrs. F. T. Schlenker arranged for the timely program. Twenty one state Farm Bureaus had already exceeded their 1955 membership on September 30th. This is two months before the end of the fiscal year.

We are happy to report that Texas Farm Bureau is one of the twenty one. We are sorry to report that it is not the highest in membership in the nation. It should be.

If you didn't vote Tuesday it surely wasn't because it slipped your mind. Boy Scouts probably did as much as any other organization to get you to come out and say what you thought where it counts, at the polls. And we don't remember hearing as much encouragement from so many radio programs. We hope you voted and that you have paid your poll tax so you can vote in 1957, too.

We doubt that Senator Joseph W. Bailey seriously thought it could happen when he said on the Texas Senate Floor in 1912: "I suppose the time will come when we will contrive some way to pension the taxpayer. Just exactly how a system for that can be devised is past my comprehension. But with modern legislative legerdemain I have no doubt a way will be devised to make everybody support everybody else without anybody working either for himself or for others." The quote was printed in the Texas Tax Journal.

Sand Hills Philosopher Favors PAYING FOR OLD WARS BEFORE STARTING NEW ONES

Editor's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has been reading the International news, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor: Now that the election is over and my mail box is cleaned out of campaign literature from both sides plus all the demands that I vote as I please just so I vote, which is good advice but hardly necessary, as anybody who hasn't got sense enough to vote like he pleases is pretty hard up, and another thing, while I'm on the subject, I noticed during the campaign the television entertainers were always reminding us that if we didn't go to the polls and vote and we got the wrong man in office, the responsibility would be squarely on us, but what I'd like to emphasize is that just because I did go to the polls and did vote, I'm not going to be responsible for everybody that got elected, you can't pin all of them on me, if they turn out wrong, but anyway, as I started out to say at the start of this letter, now that the election is over, I've been giving considerable thought to the world situation.

I don't know about the rest of the world, but personally I wasn't bored with peace at all. Peace suits me fine, and I hope the rest of the world figures out its problems and iron out its troubles without igniting the whole thing.

I can understand how the world can buy television sets and refrigerators and homes and automobiles, etc., on the time-payment plan, well, I don't know whether I can understand it or not but I notice it's being done, but you take the average man with about all the installment payments he can stand up under and add the cost of another war to his load, even if it's on the installment plan too, and I'm afraid his legs may buckle.

I know you can trade in a car on a new one before you get the old one paid for, and the same applies to refrigerators, houses, etc., but as I understand it, we not only haven't paid for the last war, we haven't paid for the one before that, and frankly I don't think we've got any business trading for a new one now.

Of course, I understand wars aren't handled like automobiles, sometimes you don't have any voice in whether you're going to have one or not, it's delivered to your doorstep without much warning, but I'm telling you, I can think of a lot of things the world needs worse than another war. I don't know about cars, but if the world would agree not to have a new war until the old ones were paid for, life would be a lot more ordered for a good many centuries to come.

Yours faithfully,

Roses and Thorns

Babson Discusses WAR POSSIBILITIES

Babson Park, Mass., Nov. 8.—The foreign situation looks serious. It really overshadows the election results, which I will discuss next week. During the 30 years that I have written this column I have learned, however, that conditions make or unmake U. S. presidents, and that U. S. presidents do not make or unmake world affairs. Hence, I feel that every citizen, shopkeeper, manufacturer, and banker should intensively study the world situation before making future plans.

THE EGYPTIAN SITUATION
For many years Egypt had been under the control of the British Empire through a figurehead ruler. Two years ago there was a revolution instigated by the army. Since then Nasser has served as dictator. This was not satisfactory to England and France, but they took no action until the Suez Canal problem arose.

Because the Western Nations refused the funds to build the big Aswan dam, Nasser retaliated by taking possession of the Suez Canal to get his needed funds from tolls. As 70% of the steamships using the canal were British, and as the stock of the canal company was held largely by French bankers, these countries immediately became vitally interested. Although Secretary Dulles hoped to bring about a compromise program, he failed and conditions have become worse.

NOW ISRAEL COMES INTO THE PICTURE
During recent weeks Nasser, the Egyptian dictator, has been stirring up trouble between Israel and Jordan. This irritation finally caused a conflict between Jordan and Israel. The latter invaded Egypt and attempted to break through to Cairo and the Suez Canal. This made the situation very serious. President Eisenhower attempted to get the "hot potato" taken over by the United Nations. But, England and France thought it would be unsafe to wait for dilly-dally action on the part of the United Nations. Therefore, they took immediate action themselves with which all readers are well acquainted through the American press.

The situation has been further muddled by Russia joining the United States against England and France. This could lead to the possibility of a three-cornered war or at least of the United States and Russia remaining neutral, which I cannot imagine as far as Russia is concerned. The situation must be a great temptation for Russia to step in and take the "plum" which England, France, Israel, and others will be fighting over. The only thing holding Russia back would be the fear of permanently losing some of her satellites, including East Germany. A real war could probably bring about the unification of Germany.

THE PRESENT OUTLOOK FOR WAR
As I am writing this column the strategy of England and France has been to take the airfields of Egypt, drop down their parachute armies, and get in a strong position to take over the Suez Canal. But, Russia may either switch to the side of Egypt or else ignore all countries and take over the Suez Canal, the oil fields, and pipe lines herself. This would truly be a major catastrophe which we will treat in a later column as the situation develops. If Russia honestly remains neutral or sides with the United States, the situation need not be serious.

Canada has already refused to ship more airplanes or war equipment to Egypt. This action may be followed by the United States and possibly by Russia and certain other countries. If, however, there is a real war, England and France will also need airplanes and war equipment. This offers a very juicy opportunity for countries which remain neutral, and could even get into our domestic politics. Although our government is urging peace, yet it must be remembered that the United States as well as both Great Britain and France have a strong Jewish population. Many financiers in all these countries are Jewish and this may have been a factor in the recent election.

WHAT ABOUT U. S. BUSINESS OUTLOOK
It seems only logical that this situation will put a damper on business in the United States for the immediate future. Many expansion plans that have been made will be held up; while radical stock market movements may be expected. Unemployment could become prevalent in certain industries, although the airplanes, oil, and steels may benefit from this unfortunate situation. It seems as if the temptation will be for most of us to take a "do nothing" attitude.

Knowing Europe as I well do, there is one bright side to the picture. This is that it might miraculously bring Europe together and make the United Nations a real force for good. It might bring about an effective agreement as to the H-Bomb and accomplish many other good things which otherwise would not be settled for years. Therefore, like every other cloud it has a "silver lining."

TODAY'S MEDITATION

Stories From The Old Testament

Read I Kings 17:1-6. The ravens brought him (Elijah) bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook. (I Kings 17:6.)

Many years ago a small Kansas settlement was all but wiped out by grasshoppers and drought. Lack of food created a serious situation. Hunger threatened the very existence of the settlement. Many were ill. This happened at a time when buffalo no longer roamed the prairie. One day, however, a boy ran down the street shouting, "A buffalo! A buffalo!" No one believed him. But the men, having nothing better to do, followed him. They found he was telling the truth. A lone buffalo was standing on the prairie before their very eyes. Soon the animal was killed, skinned, cut up, and cooked.

At it is written that the ravens brought bread and flesh to Elijah, could it not also be said that a buffalo brought flesh to a hungry settlement?

PRAYER
Our Father, help us to have faith even in seemingly overwhelming circumstances. Help us to remember that what we call miracles are Thy laws operating in a way we do not understand. May we never doubt Thy ability and willingness to supply all our needs. For the Saviour's sake. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
God supplies our needs, but we must do our part.

Christian Science Service

The spiritual basis for true health and peace will be set forth at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mortals and Immortals" is the Golden Text from Romans (8:6): "To be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace."

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (265:5): "Mortals must gravitate Godward, their affections and aims grow spiritual, — they must near the broader interpretations of being, and gain some proper sense of the infinite. — In order that sin and mortality may be put off."

Among the scriptural selections the following will be read (Matthew 11:28): "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

Oil Change or Haircut?

Young barber at America's First Boys Ranch, Amarillo, gives his 225 buddies their haircuts, but when they come in "oiled down" he wonders if they want their oil changed or a haircut.

Fifteen-year-old Lanny Canada has been cutting hair for about five months now and also has spent some time in the summer at the Barber College in Amarillo learning this trade.

Regular classes take up Lanny's mornings and then he opens shop in the afternoons and on Saturday. There are always several boys waiting in line and Lanny keeps track of the number of haircuts each week and receives 10¢ for each one. Every boy at the Ranch receives a salary for his job and keeps it in his own bank account at the Ranch.

Lanny does a fine job of seeing that every boy is sleeked up and has a haircut.

He plans to finish the course necessary to becoming a barber even though he wants to attend college. "With my barber work," he says, "I can help myself through college."

Lanny cuts about 100 heads of hair a week at the Ranch and he hasn't had a dissatisfied customer yet. He finds the hardest to cut is the "flat-top" and thinks he needs to know more about it.

He has his own combs, brushes, and clippers, but so far he doesn't have any barber uniforms.

Guests included Carol Evans, Lana Adudell, Carolyn and Judy Burge, Joe Putman, Glenna Guinn, Joan Mock, Mrs. J. T. Faith, and Mrs. John Mock.

Mr. Jones was able to return to school after spending a day and night in the hospital at Muleshoe.

Elizabeth Dupler was home from Wayland College last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Woolam are the parents of a boy, born Sun. Nov. 4. Mr. Woolam is the high school English instructor at Three Way.

Visiting in the Thurl Lemons home Saturday night was her brother, Walter Lytel, of Ft. Worth.

forms. Lanny hopes to be able to get some soon because he feels then that he will seem more like a barber. The barber shop is something new at the Ranch this year. Located in the school building, it is part of the Ranch's vocational program.

Coach McClure Rotary Speaker

Charles McClure, assistant coach of athletics in Muleshoe schools, plumped for a higher standard of scholastics for athletes when he gave the program at the weekly meeting Tuesday noon of the Rotary Club.

McClure was introduced by W. M. Pool, Jr., program chairman.

The coach urged his listeners to encourage boys with whom they come into contact to bear down on their studies. Good scholastic marks and good athletic teams go hand in hand, he said, and the coaches strive to teach their charges other important things than the ability to win games.

He recalled that the Muleshoe now have lost five games after winning handily their first three of the season. "It's easy to get on the bandwagon when a team is winning; a little harder to stay on the bandwagon once the team begins to lose," the coach said. But he said that the boys are keenly aware of every game given them and appreciate the interest of the grown-ups. Mr. McClure remarked that there will be only 3 spots to fill in the varsity eleven after this season. Three members of the first string will graduate. Some fine boys are coming along, and this augurs well for future football squads.

The speaker invited the fans to come out during the week and watch the boys in their workouts.

HOME FROM AUSTIN
Jimmy Holt, student at the University of Texas, Austin, spent the weekend here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Holt.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rutherford, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Speer, Mr. and Mrs. James Manasco and Miss Sally Ann Parkinson visited Carlsbad Caverns last weekend.

A. Thomas Talbert, professor of Organ at Howard Payne College, of Brownwood spent the week end with his friend Rufus Aylesworth.

"Never see you any more — since you changed to AMALIE L. P. G.!"

That AMALIE L. P. G. sure has kept my trucks and tractors on the job, and out of the shop! When you burn butane or propane (Liquid Petroleum Gas), you soon learn how expensive ordinary, common-grade oil can be. That stuff burns HOT — and how that common oil does thicken up! But not AMALIE L. P. G. Oil — I hate to throw away my crank-case drains; and don't drain near as often, either.

We start with 100% Pennsylvania crude — unmatched anywhere else on earth. We refine it to HOLD its viscosity (flowing quality); then add the right additives developed by our laboratories, to keep dirt, dust, etc., in suspension, so they filter out. And it's a cross-grade 20W-30 oil (or 40) — just as good, winter or summer.

Give YOUR engines — and your bank balance — a break.
