

Ten Men Busy Measuring Bailey Co. Cotton Fields Under Market Quota

At the present time, ten men are working in Bailey County measuring cotton under the 1954 marketing quota, according to announcement of Lonnie Bass, administrative officer of the ASC committee for Bailey County.

The men, he said, are working in all sections of the county. It is the farmer's responsibility to assist the reporter in measuring his farm or to have someone to represent him who is well acquainted with the farm, Bass said.

It is not necessary for the farmer to request that his farm be measured, as all farms will be visited as soon as possible. The reporters cannot determine acreage in the field; therefore, each farmer will be given a written notice of measured acres from the ASC office as soon as acreages are determined.

If a farmer is over-planted, he will be given 20 days from date of notice to destroy excess acreage and pay the fee for checking the excess acreage. This fee, Bass said, has been established at $2.00 per farm, plus 50 cents for each additional plot over one. If a farmer is unable to destroy the excess cotton within the specified time, he must have written consent of the County Committee for an extension of time.

Anyone desiring further information pertaining to this matter is urged to contact the local ASC office.

Here At Home

By J. M. Forbes

Fifteen years ago one tall they counted 20 pupils in the first grade in Muleshoe school. There was one teacher.

Since then the enrollment has increased nearly ten fold and the first grade this year may number 200. We have six teachers and are entitled to more under the school law set-up.

This one piece of information is presented because some may be inclined to question the Journal's recent predictions and figures arrived at by the Chamber of Commerce Education Committee, which has been studying the school situation here.

We say "situation" because the school board is now constructing two temporary classrooms and it is considered very doubtful that this will completely relieve the crowded condition in the lower grades. It is known that the compress, now being fitted up with machinery, will employ about 100 men, some of whom may have several children of school age. Observers believe the rate of increase will gain rapidly in the next few years.

Nothing much can be done to remedy the crowded condition for this year. In spite of all, some of the youngsters may have to study in the old barracks used some years back and still standing on the campus.

The committee and the Journal recommend that school patrons begin to study the situation if they have not already gone into it.

Visitors were introduced by Arnold Morris. Woodie Lambert introduced Rotarians, who in turn introduced their Rotary Ann. The club had 100 per cent attendance at the meeting.

Myron Pool was installing officer. Installed were: Bob Gregory, president; E. O. Baker, vice-president; D. E. Lancaster, secretary; Paul Scott, treasurer; Jim White, sergeant-at-arms; directors, Onard Upton, M. G. Bass, and J. M. Forbes. Pool predicted Rotary will have its best year in 1954-55.

R. E. A. Team Now Tied For Second Place In League

The R. E. A. Softball team scored a victory over Maple last Thursday evening in a league game played at Morton.

Score at the end of the game was 11-5. Jamie Lowellen pitched a fine game for the R. E. A. team, chalking up four strikeouts.

Only two errors were made by the team during the game. The Maple team never slowed up, and were threatening all through the game. Mann was the losing pitcher, and did a very good job, although he went a little wild in one inning.

R. E. A. team is now tied for second place in the league with Enochs. Friday evening of this week, they will travel to Morton for a game with the Pipelners.

Bratcher Aims At American Farmer Title

The end of this month marks the passing of a year since Charles Bratcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bratcher, received one of the highest degrees that a Future Farmer can attain. In that year Charles has not stood still, but he is still laying out plans to get the highest of all degrees, that of American Farmer.

Charles' story can be an inspiration to those boys who are following in his footsteps. He started out his first year in vocational agriculture as a Freshman at Muleshoe in 1949. That year he had a gilt for pig production, 3 acres of milo and a registered dairy heifer. His labor from this first year was $81.94.

For the second year Charles fed out four pigs and increased his heifer program to two head. The results of the second year cotton and the same three dairy animals. In July, 1953, Charles Bratcher was awarded the Lone Star Farmer Degree with assets totaling $3,151.00. This amount was raised through his hard working efforts while at the same time he carried on a various program of activities in sports, church work as well as extra activities in the Future Farmers of America.

Today Charles is happily married to the former Tommie Bovell and they are well on the road to success in the business of farming with an 80 acre farm carrying 37 acres of cotton, 23 acres of maize, 4 acres of hegar, as well as chickens and two of the original dairy cows that he started his program around.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bratcher are pictured here in their attractive home. Mrs. Bratcher is the former Miss Tommie Bovell.

Monday, July 5, will be a holiday in Muleshoe. Most businesses will close that day since July Fourth comes on Sunday this year, and it is a rule here to take the following Monday.

Dairy Cattle are a part of the progressive program Charles has adopted.

Here Charles stands by as life-giving water flows through siphons onto his young plants.

They were amused, too, to learn that Mrs. Bobo caught two huge fish and one 15-pounder before Lion Bobo caught anything, but he caught two large ones, also.

BABSON DISCUSSES— LABOR SAVERS

Babson Park, Mass., July 1, 1954 — Readers wonder why I am optimistic as to the balance of the year. There are many reasons which I gave in my last week's outlook. I now wish to emphasize the probable 1954 expenditures for new equipment and labor-saving machinery.

Office workers getting scarcer

Although there is some reduction in the total income of wage-workers, it is mostly from reduction of hours and loss of overtime. This results in more leisure time and more money being spent on Do-It-Yourself improvements. This will stimulate retail sales.

There is no letup in the demand for office workers. They are becoming harder to get even at higher wages. Probably the demand from the Government and from the various engineering sub-contractors is causing most of this, but the desire of present women workers to get married and have babies is a great factor.

CAPITAL EXPENDITURES INCREASING

Expenditures for labor-saving devices are increasing, even though wages have stopped advancing. Companies are also enlarging their plants to make working conditions more pleasant and efficient. The attitude of employers is changing. It's not a question of paying more wages; but of making the work lighter and the working environment more pleasant. I forecast continued large capital expenditures.

The gradual recognition of Cybernetics by manufacturers will cause a further scarcity of bookkeepers, stenographers, and other white-collar help. High school graduates have not heretofore liked to go into factory work because of the necessity of wearing old clothes and being classed as "common labor". But under the Cybernetic system, girls can operate both big and small machines by sitting at a mahogany desk in a silk dress, occasionally pushing a control button. This is easier and more interesting work than hitting a typewriter all day; and has a higher social rating.

AIR-CONDITIONING AND COFFEE HOURS

Expenditures for these and other so-called "benefits" appear unnecessary, if not foolish, to the old-time employer; but we may well have to come to these and other attractions. Some concerns now have music playing all day for their employees, while many have television during the lunch hour. These "extras" are not necessarily supplied by socially-minded employers; but rather by hard-boiled, old-fashioned employers who must "loosen up" to hold their workers.

All these "extras" help general business. Retail sales have fallen off; but I forecast that labor-saving devices and these new expenditures for making working conditions more attractive will increase from now on. Profits in some lines of business will decline; but in other lines profits will increase. The entire picture is changing. People continue to have money to spend; but they are not spending it so freely for the same old things. Live manufacturers and progressive merchants should awake to this. Watch the coming change in advertising copy.

WARNING TO WAGWORKERS

No employer can long spend more than he takes in, whether it is in wages or fringes. Cybernetics appeal to the few fair-haired girls who get the jobs to control a factory by push-buttons, but only a few such people will be needed in some factories and stores. It is okay for wage-workers to be well dressed; but they must work hard just the same. Business cannot coast much longer. Sooner or later the present "easy days" will be over. Machines can compensate for shorter hours and more pay; but those who tend these machines must give 100% in attention and worry in order to hold their new jobs.

The rise in the price of equipment stocks and labor-saving device stocks should be a warning to wage-workers. These companies are now getting huge orders; but the rising price of their stock and bonds is a sure sign that many factories and offices are now approaching great changes. The new machines may not be delivered for a year or two years; but they are coming. This means that those who now have jobs—whether in offices or in factories—had better hold on to them by doing good work. Don't be misled into a temporary "push job" at higher wages. You will regret it.

BACK FROM MEXICO

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Bobo returned Sunday from a very enjoyable two weeks trip in Old Mexico. They went by way of El Paso, to Durango, where they caught a plane for Mazatlan, which is on the Pacific Coast. Here they fished for a few days and caught four sailfish and one Dolphin. The fish averaged 85 to 110 pounds, the largest being 9 1/2 feet in length and weighing 110 pounds.

Leaving Mazatlan, they flew back to Durango where they had left their car, and drove to Mexico City, where they attended the bull fights, and saw the Emperor of Ethiopia.

Mr. Bobo said on their return trip, it rained on them all the way from Monterrey, Mexico to Ballinger.

WERE IN RUIDOSO

Mrs. T. R. White and son Cliff, and her sister, Mrs. E. A. Flatt and daughter Vicki, have just returned from a ten day vacation in Ruidoso, N. M. While there they traveled over to the White Sands, and Cloudcroft, and also attended the horse races.

SAND HILLS PHILOSOPHER— Has Ideas On New Plan To Sell People Their Vacation Trips On Installment Plan

Editor's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm writes about something he's an authority on this week, vacations.

Dear editor:
As a strong advocate of installment buyin — I'm not only in favor of a small downpayment and the rest in installments, I'm also in favor of cutting the downpayment up into installments too and frequently would like to cut the installments into installments — I was interested in reading about a new branch of service now available on the installment plan.

According to this item, you can now buy a vacation trip on the installment plan. Just pick out a trip you'd like to take, make a small down payment on it, and they'll furnish you a ticket on a bus, train or airplane. You'll furnish you hotel rooms, meals, etc., and when you get back home you can pay the rest out in monthly installments.

Now I am highly in favor of such a system, and rate it right alongside my favorite plan for getting the post office to sell money orders on the installment plan, but there is one question that has been bothering me about it.

What I'd like to know is, if you fail to meet an installment, how do they re-possess your trip? I have thought about this long and hard, letting it crowd out Indo-China, Guatemala, parity prices, and the governor's race, but I'll admit I'm still puzzled.

The only thing I can think of is this: I guess they could threaten to send you right back over the same ground and in most cases it would probably bring in the money. My observation has been that most folks, after they get in off a vacation trip of several hundred or a thousand miles or more, had rather take a beating than have to pack up again and have to re-trace their vacation steps, drink all the soda water again, eat all the hamburgers, look at the same sights, do the same things, wrestle under the same hot sun, and most people would re-finance their washing machine or their car to pay off the vacation installments.

Vacations are great things, I suppose, but most people have em reversed. They work all year in order to get a two-weeks trip, but I'd rather have a vacation all year and work two weeks. I'm workin on this plan now.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

How to Plan Your New or Remodeled Kitchen

(1) Start your kitchen planning with the cabinet sink or dishwasher-sink, because this is the heart of the kitchen. Placing it under a window is good, but not essential, says the Youngstown Kitchens Planning Service. When remodeling, keep the new sink in the same location as the old, if possible, to save plumbing costs. Planning with miniature models as used here is fun and helps visualize how the completed kitchen will look.

(2) The second step is to add steel base cabinets as space permits, making sure that you have work surface and storage space in each work center. This L-shape arrangement is popular. In turning the corner, the rotary corner base cabinet makes use of space that might otherwise be wasted.

(3) Now add matching wall cabinets to provide valuable wall storage space. A vent hood above the range removes odors, steam and excessive heat right at the source and keeps your kitchen comfortable at all times.

Today's Meditation

OUR RESPONSE TO GOD'S LOVE

They looked unto him, and were radiant. (Psalm 34:5, A. S. V.) Read Exodus 34:29-35 or Titus 3:1-8.

Everywhere he went, Sadhu Sundar Singh carried with him a calm peace and joyous spirit. His serene quietness never left him. The radiance of his life helped others to be calm and composed. His silent influence under persecution was so great that his father eventually became a Christian.

A Christlike person finds the presence of Christ every day. Every hour of every day he radiates joy, sunshine, and gladness.

Look into the eyes of radiantly happy persons. They are always the same, not sometimes on the mountaintop and at other times in the valley. They are men and women who spend much time in prayer and meditation.

Moses' face shone after his talk with God. David's face became radiant after he had sought the Lord. So our faces may be radiant if we live close to God. To do so, we must spend much time with God in meditation and prayer.

A radiant life is a happy life, because it is not self-centered but Christ-centered.

PRAYER
Our Father, give us insight as we meditate upon Thy Word day and night. Help us to make of it a lamp unto our feet and a light unto our path. In the name of Thy Son, who teaches us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven. Amen."
THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
"In thy presence is fulness of joy."

Farm Safety Week To Be Observed In Texas July 25-31

"More accidental deaths occur for each 100,000 workers, in agriculture than in any other major industry of the nation. Texas, with its widespread farming and ranching operations, is in a position to help reduce this accident toll," said Governor Allan Shivers in the proclamation he signed on June 8 designating the week of July 25-31 Farm Safety Week.

Continuing the Governor said, "A disabling injury strikes some farm person in America on the average of every 26 seconds. The U. S. Department of Agriculture and the National Safety Council are cooperating in a campaign designed to reduce the huge number of avoidable farm accidents and I urge all Texans engaged in farming activities to exercise all possible caution in their work."

The Texas Farm Ranch Safety committee is the organization in the state through which cooperative efforts are being directed toward reducing the farm accident rate. Committee members represent state and federal agencies working in agriculture and home economics, farm organizations, press and radio, commercial, industrial and business concerns and individuals who are all interested in seeing the label, "Nation's most hazardous occupation", removed from agriculture.

Paul Walser of the Soil Conservation Service is chairman of the general committee and J. Walter Hammond, president, Texas Farm Bureau, is chairman of the Executive Board of the committee. E. C. Martin, state agriculture leader for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer, serve as Vice-chairman and secretary of the groups.

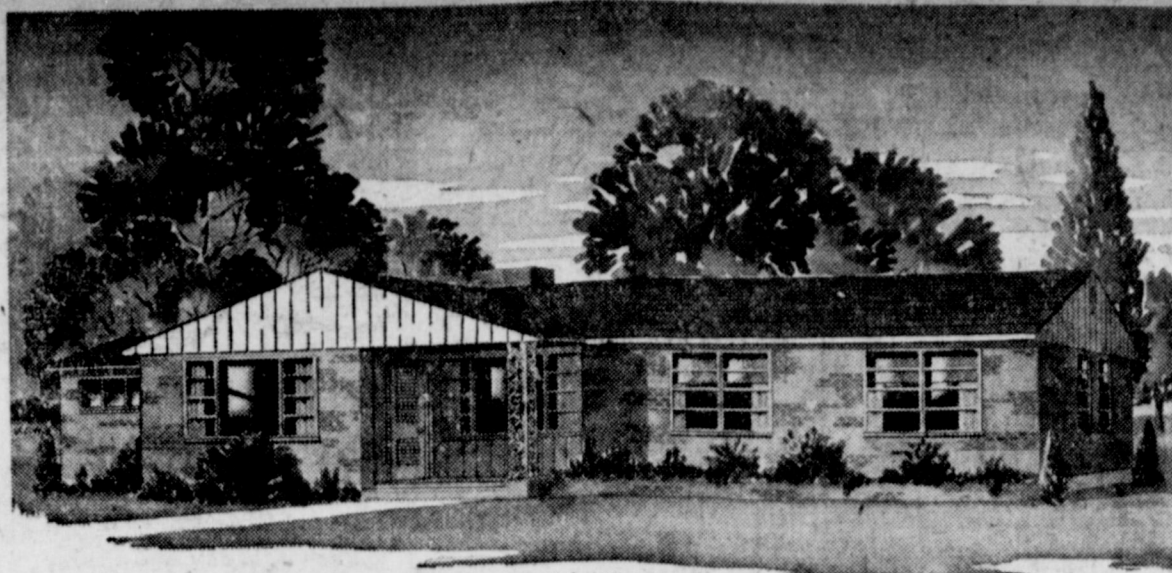

The State Committee joins Governor Shivers in urging all Texans to not only observe the special week of July 25-31 but to make the other 51 weeks just as safe as humanly possible. Says Executive Board Chairman Hammond, "It's a real challenge to every farm family. I have never yet met a farmer or a member of his family who wanted to get involved in an accident. The way to avoid them is practice prevention every day."

RETURNED TO AMARILLO

HOUSE PLAN No. 38

Low In Cost - High In Comfort

How would you like to have an attractive home with three bedrooms and a separate dining room, in just 1,380 square feet of floor area and at a comparatively small cost? Impossible? Not at all—as you readily will see after studying Farm & Ranch House Plan No. 5138.

This house was designed especially for a farm family, with particular emphasis on the kitchen. The family can eat its meals there, in a space so ample that it seems almost like another room. The three windows afford plenty of light and air.

The location of the kitchen range is such that the fireplace chimney serves both living room and kitchen. There is a storage wall by the range which will provide plenty of shelf storage plus space for brooms, mops, and other such items. Also, there are 16 feet of counter top.

The comfortable-sized living room is planned for what its name implies. With the use of a modern sliding door unit it can be opened into the dining room when extra breathing space is needed. But each has the privacy and usefulness of a completely separate room.

The plan calls for a brick veneer finish, but the house will be equally attractive in other materials, just so there is the change in texture which is indicated in the gables and entrance porch.

Simple lines plus few corners plus limited decoration plus stock door and window units equals economy in construction cost. It would be very difficult to draw up a plan that provides more comfort and convenience in 1,380 square feet of floor area.

You can obtain blueprints for this The Muleshoe Journal Farm & Ranch House Plan No. 5138 and a handy list of materials by which you can figure your construction cost accurately. Send $2 to Building Editor, Farm & Ranch, Southern Agriculturist, Dept. L-36, Nashville, Tenn. Order by number, plan No. 5138. Blueprints are adequate for any farm carpenter or for any farmer handy with tools.

To The People of Bailey County:

I look upon a public office as a position of public trust and believe that those who exercise therein should, as near as is humanly possible, hold that trust inviolate. The ones you choose as your officials are the ones that represent you, they handle your business, they spend YOUR money.

If you should select me as your next county judge, I would ever be mindful of these great truths, and strive constantly to render unto you efficient, courteous, and unselfish service.

FARMER COUNTY Farm Bureau News
By RAYMOND EULER

Cynthia Bell, who has served as office secretary for two and a half years, is leaving around the first of July. Mrs. Bell has been our first secretary, and has done such a thorough, good job, that we are going to miss her a lot. She and her husband, Bill, are returning to Michigan where he is entering business with a friend, dealing in aircraft and flight instruction.

Mrs. Olen Turner is taking over where Mrs. Bell left off. We trust you will be patient for awhile, because there are a lot of things that take some time for a new person to become familiar with. We're sure Mrs. Turner will not want you to hesitate in asking for what you want. That's the way she can learn to serve you in less time.

Wheat is needed for Christian Rural Overseas Program, right now. The wheat contributed will provide transportation and distribution of government surplus to those countries and people who are hungry because of war, earthquake, and other disasters. Each car of wheat accumulated will provide 20 cars of wheat delivered to these needy people. Tell your elevator manager to transfer 10-20, or any number of bushels from your account to CROP before placing the balance in the loan. Farmer County hopes to send one car load. That should not be hard. We know that if you know about the program, you will contribute.

Did you know the Texas Highway Department spends $300 a week picking up beer cans and bottles in the Amarillo district? Is this one of the wonderful reasons for the highly advertised statements that "beer belongs"?

It's time for prospective queens to begin looking forward to the Farm Bureau Contest to be held in August or September. Merchants or individuals who would like to enter someone are invited to start looking around. The state winner this year will get to go to New York for the National Convention.

Consider This: "All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but the Lord weigheth" the spirits. Commit thy works unto the Lord, and thy thoughts shall be established."

Defoliating Of Cotton Expected To Gain This Year

The success or failure of the cotton defoliating job depends on several factors. Tests conducted by workers of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station last year at Weslaco, College Station, Temple, Lubbock and Ysleta indicate that important considerations are characteristics of the chemicals and the rate and volume applied; method of application; climate conditions, especially moisture and temperature, cultural practices, such as fertilization and plant density and the varieties grown.

The chlorate-borate, SEX and Phillips defoliants were best in the tests at Weslaco; Endothal and Phillips at College Station; Endothal led the chemicals tested at Temple while Aero Cyanamide soluble gave the best defoliation at Lubbock and Ysleta.

Amino triazole, trade name Amizol, and a newcomer to the defoliation tests showed up well at four of the test sites. When added to sprays made from Endothal, Aero Cyanamide soluble, liques Chemfrost and Shed-A-Leaf, it not only gave a substantial increase in defoliation but was effective in holding back regrowth at Weslaco and in some of the tests at College Station and Temple for over a month.

Application tests made at College Station show that better defoliation was obtained by using a high-clearance ground sprayer than from aerial application. The timing of application is of major importance and data from previous studies is available.

Many other tests were included in the state wide program and all are covered in Progress Report 1680 released by the Texas Station available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station.

TEXAS COTTON INDUSTRY

A four hundred million dollar industry is thriving in the nation today, built on a raw material that was discarded as "waste" a century ago.

This "waste material" is cottonseed, a commodity that now creates an annual farm income of some $400 million. At one time, these precious pellets were considered worthless. Except for a small quantity needed for planting the new cotton crop, cotton seed were dumped in nearby bodies of water or left to rot near the gin.

For each 100 pounds of cotton, the plant yields about 180 pounds of seed. Not more than 18 pounds of this seed are needed to plant the next year's crop. The rest goes into hundreds of different products ranging from food to gunpowder. We actually eat a large portion of this seed. Nearly 100 per cent of the oil extracted from cottonseed is used in edible products such as vegetable shortening, margarine, salad and cooking oils, salad dressing and mayonnaise. Some cottonseed oil is used in manufacturing washing powder, paints, linoleum, oil-cloth, and similar products.

The seed is just a part of the picture however. In Texas, the largest cotton producing state, the total crop value amounts to some $812,345,000 annually. It is grown on 153,177 farms, or 46 percent of the total farms in the state. We produced approximately 4,350,000 bales of cotton and 1,803,000 tons of cottonseed last year.

Cotton and its by products accounted for 38 per cent of the total farm marketings. They brought income to some 1,793 gins, 113 warehouses, 87 oil mills and 53 textile mills in the state — and to thousands more who are benefited by their payrolls.

That's why keeping Texas cotton prosperous is every body's business.

Farwell School Bonds Approved

Voters of the Farwell School District Saturday endorsed a proposal to build a new gymnasium and band hall by a vote of 216 to 118.

They authorized the school to sell revenue bonds in the amount of $115,000 to cover the additions. Completion of the plans will be wound up as soon as possible, and after the contract has been let, construction will get underway. The system is badly in need of the buildings.

The board met Tuesday night to canvass the election returns. It forsook no increase in school taxes to pay for the bond election.

Dealers Announce "Freezer Fair"

Reddy Kilowatt appliance dealers of Muleshoe are launching their "Freezer Fair" drive today Thursday, July 1. Their windows will proclaim the two months campaign with art work; several are carrying advertisements in this week's paper to call attention to "Freezer Fair".

Cooperating again in the campaign is the Southwestern Public Service Co. Marvin Standefer and Bill Johnson, of the Plainview office, and Jeff Peeler of the Muleshoe office have held meetings with representatives of local Reddy Kilowatt stores and distributed literature on the drive.

Reddy Kilowatt dealers in Muleshoe are E. R. Hart Company, Johnson-Pool Tire & Appliance, Harvey Bass Appliance, and Berry Electric.

These merchants and Southwestern Public Service have cooperated in giving top billing to previous electric appliance drives in this territory. The first campaign was on electric driers and the second campaign was on electric ranges. During the range campaign the merchants and public service conducted a cooking school here that was attended by four hundred ladies.

Merchants named above will have complete information about the "Freezer Fair" and The Journal suggests that our readers will benefit by discussing this drive with their appliance dealer.

Further details of the "Freezer Fair" and the merchants announcements will be found on center pages of this section of the paper.

IRRIGATION IS BIG BUSINESS Water From Plains Wells Would Fill Possum Kingdom Lake Six Times

LUBBOCK — If the irrigation water pumped onto fields in the High Plains area of Texas last year had been diverted to the Brazos River it would have been enough to fill big Possum Kingdom reservoir six times.

That's proof plenty that irrigation has become big business in that section of the state. And it's getting bigger all the time. Possum Kingdom holds 750,000 acre feet of water.

Since the first irrigation water well was put into operation about 1911 near Plainview the number has increased to almost 28,000 that now supply the "life-line" to 3,627,105 acres on 15,868 farms in the 43 county area.

There was little development until the late thirties and by 1940 there were just slightly more than 2000 wells in the entire area. Many of the early-day wells were in the "shallow water belt" in the Muleshoe, Plainview and Hereford section.

An average rainfall of 18 or 19 inches makes supplemental irrigation necessary in most years.

As late as 1945 there were only 4500 wells. But a combination of high priced crops, limited production due to insufficient rainfall emphasized the value of irrigation, and the number of wells drilled increased in great proportion", says Robert V. Thurmond, Irrigation Specialist in the High Plains area for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Most of the 4,500,000 acre feet of water which irrigated fields in 1953 was used on 1,703,923 acres of cotton and 860,625 acres of grain sorghum. This year as irrigated cotton acreage was reduced to 1,306,000 acres farmers have almost doubled their plantings of irrigated grain sorghum — 1,479,060 acres.

What has irrigation meant to yield of cotton an acre? Old timers relate that over a period of several years the average yield on dry land is a quarter to a third. Now, with irrigation, the cotton yield is a little less than a bale an acre.

Irrigated acreage of most every other major crop has also increased this year over the 1953 acreage. Mr. Thurmond points out. Wheat irrigation increased from 239,500 acres in 1953 to 71,760 in 1954; alfalfa acreage is 106,913 this year compared with 94,035 acres last year.

However, pasture irrigation acreage showed a decrease from 63,851 acres in 1953 to 55,600 acres. This is no doubt due to rainfall received earlier. There's also about 100 acres of sugar beets under irrigation this year, 14,520 acres of barley, 13,645 acres of corn, 7,820 acres of castor beans and 18,512 acres of vegetables.

In the 43 county area Hockley, Hale and Lubbock counties top the list with an estimated 3200 wells each.

Power supplies show that butane is by far the most widely used for pumping water with almost 16,000 wells using it. Natural gas supplies fuel for over 6,600 wells, electricity for about 4,700 wells, gasoline for almost 1100; 460 are diesel powered.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

The vital importance of understanding the inspired Word of the Bible spiritually will be brought out at Christian Science services this Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christian Science" includes the following selection from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"The Scriptures are very sacred. Our aim must be to have them understood spiritually, for only by this understanding can truth be gained. It is this spiritual perception of Scripture, which lifts humanity out of disease and death and inspires faith" (547:23-25, 31-32).

From the King James Version of the Bible the following passages will also be read:

"For ever, O Lord, thy word is settled in heaven. O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day. Thy testimonies have I taken as an heritage for ever; for they are the rejoicing of my heart" (Psalm 119:89, 97, 111).

The Golden Text is from Isaiah: "Awake, awake; put on thy strength, I Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city" (52:1).
