A "LITTLE FELLER THINKS FACTORY DEAL IS OK."

Road "Buck" Johnson has relieved Scoop of the labor of writing for this column this week. He's written a piece about the wisdom of our going all out to get the factory building financed; funny thing, he took the words right out of my type-writer, as follows:

Dear Scoop:

"I've listened to a lot of 'coffee shop' talk the past few days. It seems that the great natural resources of this area, and the efforts of a few individuals have placed the City of Muleshoe and the citizens of Bailey county at a critical cross-roads.

Perhaps, because of my youth, I should be seen and not heard. However, 'knot head' that I am I'd like to sound off on the top a bit.

The picture presented to me shows that Tex-Togs, manufacturers of children's clothing has expressed an interest in establishing a factory in Muleshoe. For every four persons this factory could pull into our area there would be a single new job created in town. For each of the four new jobs created to accommodate the factory workers, another new job will be created. Thus it would seem that the introduction of this industry would be an added impetus to the growth, prosperity, and progressiveness of our community.

That sounds like we've "got it made", doesn't it, and we do. IF THE PEOPLE IN THIS AREA WANT IT. First, we must show the owners of this organization that we want them in our community before they will undertake such a large financial venture.

I understand we must raise $200,000 to erect a building that would house this project. There is no small, select group in this area that can raise that sum in the short time allotted. It's not given that the "little man" often a chance to share in something big. Yet without the small investments of interested persons, this big project cannot succeed in Muleshoe. Many of us can afford only one or two shares in this project, but our few shares can spell either the success or failure of this venture.

My little share when multiplied by a thousand like me becomes an essential and necessary part. I hope there will be several thousand of us, "little fellers" who can point with pride to a Muleshoe Industrial Building and say, "I own part of that—I had my share in the advancement of our city."

There's not a person residing in this area who can't spare $10-$20 on a sound personal investment. We owe it to ourselves and our children to invest in the betterment and future growth of our community. If we want Muleshoe to grow and prosper, EVERYONE will subscribe to invest what he can.

Rains Halt Fresh Tomato Shipping; Cannery Still Tops Weekly Output

Recent rains, in addition to slowing down the grain and cotton harvest, have also slowed down almost to a standstill, the packing and shipping of fresh tomatoes in the Muleshoe area. Canning of tomatoes, however, has continued at a steady pace, and the only shortage at the cannery is of employees, according to operator Carl Case.

Mr. Case said Wednesday afternoon that his plant is continuing to turn out about 1500 cases of tomatoes regularly for Allen Canning Co., the sales agent for the concern.

Muleshoe canned tomatoes are being shipped all over the state and into adjoining states, Mr. Case said. Area food markets and chains have recently purchased large quantities from the local cannery.

The trucking of fresh tomatoes from this area has decreased considerably, Case reported, and this has brought an increase in vegetables offered at the cannery.

There was no activity reported from either of the two packing sheds, the Young Company having shut down last week, and Boler Fruit and Vegetable apparently waiting out the results of the rain on the tomatoes. Vegetable men say that tomatoes harvested following a rain do not ship well due to the high water content.

Rain began falling early Thursday to begin the third consecutive week of moisture. At mid morning Thursday more than half an inch of moisture had been reported from the official weather station here.

STEERING COMMITTEE NAMED . . .

Campaign Organized To Secure Pledges For New Factory Building

Almost $19,000 was pledged toward purchase of stock in a proposed corporation to build a factory building in Muleshoe, at a meeting held Tuesday evening in the high school auditorium. Pledges totaled $18,700 toward stock purchases in a corporation which would be formed if Muleshoe is selected as the site for Tex-Togs clothing plant. An estimated $225,000 will be needed for the construction of the plant if Muleshoe is selected as the site. An industrial steering committee has been formed to direct the securing of pledges within the next week. Lowell Irvin St. Clair is chairman of the committee.

Other members of the steering committee are Houston Hart, Sam Fox, Thurman White, M. D. Gunstream, Harold King, Myron Pool, and Jack Young.

Gunstream told the group Tuesday night that Guy Agee, president of Tex-Togs plans to build a new plant to manufacture clothing for Sears-Roebuck. Five towns are being considered as possible sites for the factory, and Muleshoe is one of the towns up for consideration.

Agee has asked that a building 100x400 feet be constructed and leased to him for a 20 year period, the lease payments to amortize the cost of the building.

He also asked that general community participation in the building project be pushed, rather than participation by only a few.

St. Clair then said that a steering committee has been elected to solicit participation in a pledge program to purchase enough $10 shares of stock in the proposed corporation to underwrite the cost of the building.

The pledges must be secured by a week from Tuesday, and if the plant is to be located here, pledges will be called in within about 60 days. If the plant does not locate here, no corporation will be formed and pledges will not be called for.

Members of the steering committee are contacting residents this week for pledges, and The Journal includes a coupon for anyone interested in making a pledge toward the corporation, if it is formed.

Mr. Agee has told members of the Industrial Committee that his company is interested in a community that will take an active part in securing new industry by participating in construction of a factory building. He is anxious to move to a community that shows concerted community spirit and growth.

Brown Supply Company Building New Plant Here To Make Concrete Pipe

Sometime next week Brown Supply Co., expects to complete manufacturing facilities in Muleshoe that will be capable of producing 3,000 feet of concrete irrigation pipe per eight-hour day. Peak season employment at the Muleshoe plant will be between 45 and 50 persons, and the plant is expected to reach $1 million in production next year.

T. L. Timmons, manager of the Muleshoe plant, one of six which Brown Supply owns and operates in Texas, New Mexico, and Kansas, said he expects the machinery to be ready for a trial run this week, and in full operation within 10 days.

The machinery is housed in a new 50x150 metal building which will also be used as a curing room.

After the pipe joints cure out, they will be stacked on a three acre storage yard adjacent to the factory building.

Facilities already in operation employing about 20 people, include a plant for welding couplings on aluminum irrigation pipe, a pipe trench digging crew, sales force, office personnel and installation crew.

The plant is located on the south side of the Friona highway near the intersection of the Plainview highway.

1.50 INCHES SATURDAY . . .

Weather Continues To Slow Down Harvesting

The Bailey county harvest season is judged to be at least 30 days later than it was this time last year, both as to bales of cotton ginned and pounds of milled cotton combined and brought to the elevators.

Last year at mid-October more than 4200 bales of cotton had been ginned in the Muleshoe area. Present gin figures are far below that.

The mild season was in full swing with all elevators receiving grain day and night. At present, due to wet weather, the combining has been set back for two weeks in a row. Although some elevators did receive considerable grain at the beginning of the harvest, it is reported to the Journal that there is still plenty of space available in Muleshoe elevators for storage of government loan grain.

Plagued by wet weather and the advancing stages of cold weather, most farmers in this area can only hope for a delayed frost date, and many are taking the defoliation route to hasten bolls to maturity.

Although there has been no reconsideration of the early prophecy of a record breaking crop this fall, the weather has continued wet for two weeks and this factor could have a lot of influence on what the final crop tally is at the end of the season.

Many long time residents report all signs point to the largest crop in local history, but also point out that the wet weather at this time of year is unusual in local history, and has slowed down an already slow harvest.

BULA NEWS BRIEFS

Bula Team Prepares For Pettit Game Fri.

by Mrs. John Blackman Mrs. J. Covington of Morton Coach Howard is looking forward to a good game Friday night with Pettit there. Bula has played four conference games, and won all.

At present three boys are unable to play or will be able to play very little. Larry Pollard received a broken ankle while practicing. John Pool pulled a muscle ligament in the Smyer game, and Durwood Fred twisted an ankle and is not able to play.

Norvel Roberts made all four touchdowns in the Bula-Cotton Center game Friday night, and Don McCord carried both extra points over for a score of 26-19 for Bula.

John Pool was outstanding what time he was able to play. The line was blocking and hitting hard and with nice work from quarterback Bobby Carlisle, we were able to come through with a win.

Sunday lunch guests in the Luke Walden home were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Walden of Lubbock, Miss Nancy Aaron and Bro. Lew Clark of Portales.

always been in there fighting and has received many concessions from other states. I myself stood on the floor two years ago in Chicago, and pleaded for the National Farm Bureau to adopt policies (1) To instruct the Secretary of Agriculture to sell our surplus cotton on the world market at competitive prices. (2) To allow the Farm Bureau's sponsored public law 480 to work by exchanging our surplus for trade and foreign currency. (3) A soil bank program to help reduce surplus. (4) Label finished goods as to kinds of materials. (5) High rigid supports for cotton with acreage allotments.

Every one of these policies and many other Texas recommendations were adopted, but one. You guessed it. High rigid supports. They told us on the floor, that is what's the matter with your cotton now. I was really let down. It looked like the Republicans had took us in. I wanted to secede. When I got home I started to analyze the situation; it dawned on me that I had been looking at the forest so close I had failed to see the trees which is a common ailment among us farmers. We are uninformed or misinformed. We had received more than I had thought. One was the soil bank, it wasn't as we in Texas wanted, but it might have worked if Farm Bureau original recommendation for a soil bank were designated to insure that the banks would operate to reduce production. However, many of our key points were never put into effect.

Bailey County Farm Bureau only lacks 21 members having their quota membership. This will entitle us to 7 voting delegates at the State Convention. All farmers interested in the Farm Bureau program that do not have a paid membership please have it in the county office by October 22 so you will have a vote in helping form our County Resolutions.

Our dead line on meeting our quota is October 31.

Dan Davis, associated with Plains Cotton Cooperative Association, will be with us at the County Resolutions meeting and will speak on cotton marketing. Yours truly, W. T. (Bill) MILLEN

Platter Chatter

by David Shepherd
This week we will feature some album for your present or future LP record fans.
ELVIS PRESLEY, who presently has the fourth best selling LP with "Loving You", will release a deluxe EP Christmas album. This album, which has yet to be heard, must have impressed dealers because advance sales put it at the top of all time RCA sales. 200,000 already ordered at the advance price of $4.98 per copy.
PAT BOONE fans who arrived too late to latch onto some of his early recordings will be glad to hear that he is releasing an album entitled "Pat's Greatest Hits". Here is a chance to catch all his earliest hits.
Following up his best seller entitled "Songs of the Fabulous Fifties", ROGER WILLIAMS has just released an album which should interest some one besides teenagers. Named "Songs of the Fabulous Forties", the indeed fabulous stylings of Mr. Williams should bring back many pleasant memories to some ex-teenagers.

Shifting to the 45 album lists we see that three fellows completely dominate the list. Elvis Presley with four, and Pat Boone and Nat King Cole with two each have about got this field sewed up. Tennessee Ernie Ford with his album of hymns and Jackie Gleason are the only others who seem to be able to break into the top ten best sellers this week.
To show what teenagers can do if they want to, the Everley brothers who are both under 20 have a tune called "Wake Up, Little Susie", which is doing quite well for itself. Released only five weeks, it climbed to 28th place two weeks ago; seventh last week and this week. Nice going guys.

PREVIEW PARADE
"When the Swallows Come Back to Capistrano"; "April Love"; Pat Boone — Dot.
Swallows is an oldie in the same groove as "Gold Mine in the Sky" and Pat presents his tune with the same mastery. The flip, "April Love", is the title tune from Boones latest picture and is a beautiful ballad.
"Pink Sweater Angel", Johnny Ray — Columbia.
A ballad with a rhythm backing is this top artist's strongest recently. The flip is "Texas Tambourine", a peppy blues that goes well.
"Bonnie Maronie", Larry Williams — Specialty.
This stender gal is the answer to Williams' previous hit, "Short, Fat Fanny". This tune with an upbeat coupled with a vigorous treatment should be a big one.
"Rock and Cry", Clyde McPhatter — Atlantic.
A top notch selling by McPhatter on a tune from the film "Mr. Rock and Roll". An interesting tune and a catchy rhythm with clever Hawaiian backing.
"Wonderful Wonderful", Stan Freberg — Capitol.
Despite the title, this Freberg takeoff is based on Lawrence Welk and his TV style. This hilarious bit goes well until the bubble sound machine gets out of hand. Should pull many a chuckle.

HIT PARADE
1. "Honeycomb", Jimmie Rodgers.
2. "Tammy", Debbie Reynolds.
3. "Wake Up Little Susie", Everley Brothers.

Semi Final Pairs In City Tourney Are Complete

Semi final pairings in practically all of the seven flights of the Muleshoe Golf Club city tourney had been made late Wednesday, and all are expected to be played, weather permitting, in time for the finals on October 20.
In the championship flight John Renner beat Noel Woodley 3-1 to meet the winner of the Jerry Dill - Russell Haberer match in the semi-final going out.
In the presidents flight, Joe Butler beat Bernard Phelps 1 up to meet the winner of the Gil Wollard-Dudley Malone match.
In second flight play, T. M. Slemmons beat Sam Fox 2-1 to meet either Randy Johnson or Delmer McCarty. In third flight, Herb Griffiths, by beating E. A. Flatt 3-2, will meet either O'Neill Rokey or Alex Williams.
Myron Pool beat Jerry Angeley 1 up on 19 in the fourth flight to challenge Clyde Holt in the semi final round. Holt defeated Clarence Weeks 3-1.
Chief Jones not only made a hole in one Tuesday but also defeated Martin Oliver in fifth flight play to meet the winner of the Harold King-Calvin Clark match.
Buck Ragsdale won 2-up over Sam Ghoslon to take on the winner of the match between Lloyd Alsup and Arnold Alcorn, in the sixth flight.
In the seventh flight Bob Harvey won 5-4 over Truman Lindsey and will play the winner of the Dick Martin-White-Simmons match, yet to be played.
A club dance October 12 was postponed due to the weather.

Farwell Steers Top Lazbuddie 40-0 Friday Nite
by David Shepherd
Farwell's undefeated Steers continued their conquest of non-conference foes Friday night when they smothered the Class B Lazbuddie Longhorns 40-0 at Lazbuddie.
The outclassed Longhorns fought a brave fight, but could not cope with the lightning-like running of senior halfback Larry McDorman. The Larry Pike and sophomore half-backing of the Lovelace cousins, Tommy and Jimmy took their toll also.

Scoop Sez—

we pussy-foot around now, we'll see this industry go to one of the other towns being considered for its site — and as we watch that town grow, we'll realize — too late — that we missed the boat. Muleshoe can become one of the most prosperous cities in the state or it can eventually become a nice little country with hopes for growth or progress. This country has proven it has the resources — I hope we can prove it has the people!
Scoop, I fervently hope the citizens of this area will evaluate this situation, subscribe to the necessary shares, and invest in the growth and development of this area. We'll either progress or regress — WE CANNOT STAND STILL!

Sincerely,
BUCK JOHNSON
Box 927, Muleshoe

You wouldn't think that a fellow like Road, who's waiting to do a 5-year hitch in the Air Force beginning in January, working meanwhile at Edwards Gin here, would take an intense interest in the progress and development of the town. Makes you feel good to see youngsters like that taking the trouble to do what they can to help.

Idle Thoughts of An Idle Fellow:

If I owned all of the coffee in all of the world, and an automatic maker, I couldn't make a first rate cup of brew. . . . Muleshoe area ladies are without a doubt the best cooks in the world. . . . A West Texan ought never to complain about rain, but I want you to know I came awful dern nigh doing it this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Lenau closed their mountain cabin at Cowles, N. M., for the winter last weekend. They had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Woodie Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Wagon, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Wood, and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Forbes.

A snowfall apparently arranged especially for the local group began as they entered the Pecos Canyon. "I want you to use your best descriptive language in telling about this snow", one of the ladies told this writer. But Webster himself would have run out of words trying to tell about the eerie, wild, unheard of beauty created by this snow.

The river and its canyon are always beautiful, but this was sensational. Never again, perhaps will those who viewed it get another such experience.
The Lenaus have about completed their new cabin, located less than a mile from Cowles on

More Than 200 At Kickoff Dinner Monday Evening

More than 200 members and visitors were present at the First Methodist Church Fellowship Fall Monday evening for a kickoff dinner for the church fund campaign.
Dr. Poe Williams, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Oklahoma City was guest speaker. Forty-one solicitors present pledged more than $25,000 to the budget and building fund. Solicitors are contacting all members of the church this week for pledges toward the $62,000 goal.

Too Many Chiefs, Too Few Indians
Everybody was about as busy as ants Sunday morning getting the cabin tidied up for the winter. One man complained that there were too many Chiefs, not enough Indians, but the work got done and often a Chief would become a mere Indian, by getting caught working.
We saw Dr. Andy and Mickey Lewis, who had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Dick Perrin, of Morton.

Attend Ruidoso Aspencade Fete

Mr. and Mrs. John Fried and children, Betty and Peggy, attended the annual "Aspencade" held at Ruidoso, N. M., last weekend. They accompanied the Cochran County Sheriff's posse, of which they are members. The Frieds rode in the big parade Saturday.
Sunday, they attended worship services, a feature of the "Aspencade" observance. They said it was real cold at Ruidoso, with plenty of snow on Old Baldy's summit.
About twenty mounted units took part in the affair.

Attest the case of this boy, age 10, who was referred to the Clinic:

Our son, Ronnie, age 10, was an asthmatic since the age of four. We tried all of the usual methods with little results. He was very nervous and did not do very well in his school work. He slept poorly and was irritable and had attacks of Asthma every day and night. A friend who was a patient of the Clinic advised us to take him for an examination. After examination he was accepted as a patient. From the first adjustment he showed improvement and he has continued to improve until he does not seem to be the same boy. His Asthmatic condition has improved and with this change his disposition is better; his school work has improved greatly; and he is now able to sleep all night. We are very pleased with the results he has had under Chiropractic care.

Research On Experimental Recharge Well Continues At Hi Plains Farm

Research in the experimental well will not be delayed by lack of water in the east lake at the High Plains Station of the Texas Research Foundation at Halfway.

Water from another well 1400 feet away will be used to start the recharge program on October 15. The water will be pumped through an underground line connecting the two wells, thence underground at the recharge well.

"The recharge well is of experimental as well as practical value," said James G. Cronin, hydraulic engineer with the U. S. Geological Survey, supervisor of the recharge program. "A series of three four-inch wells in connection with the recharge well will enable us to study the permeability of underground formation, the way the water moves in the formations, the pressure being built up, and a number of other factors," Mr. Cronin explained. These four inch wells are 200 feet deep located 8, 50, and 100 feet from the recharge well. The 16 inch recharge well is 320 feet deep.

A 12 foot deep concrete drop inlet in the intake line to the recharge well will be used to study sedimentation and infiltration. Two gravity intake lines will carry surplus lake water to a pit, thence through the intake pipe to the concrete inlet.

Dr. T. C. Longnecker, head of the Station, said, "This recharge of surplus surface water into the underground formations constitute the practical value of the well." By putting the water back into the ground where it can be conserved for future use, we will save many acre-feet from evaporation," Dr. Longnecker explained. "This conservation well will aid in maintaining the water table in this area."

The water recharge research is a joint program of the U. S. Geological Survey and the Texas Board of Water Engineers. Dr. Longnecker said, "We are happy to provide the facilities for Mr. Cronin and his staff to make their study at the Station."

Style, Power Mark 1958 Chevrolet Trucks

Fresh styling, more power, and many chassis improvements mark the 1958 Chevrolet truck line. This Low Cab Forward heavy-duty model has a new 348-cu.-in., 230-horsepower engine designed for durability with sodium-cooled valves, heavy bearings, and other heavy service features. Combustion chamber is wholly within the cylinder bore. All 1958 Chevrolet trucks have dual headlights and redesigned grille, hood, and fenders.

JIMMY HOLT MOVES FAMILY TO AUSTIN

Jimmy Clyde Holt, senior student at the University of Texas, Austin, spent last week here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Holt. He was accompanied on his return to Austin Sunday by his wife and three week old son, Jimmy Justin. Jimmy Clyde, a track star at the university, says he plans entering Little Jimmy in the Cross Country races by next spring.

EARL WEST PLEDGES FRAT

Earl West, Muleshoe, has been pledged by Pi Epsilon Tau, honorary petroleum engineering fraternity at the University of Oklahoma, it was announced today.

West is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theron F. West of Muleshoe. He is a junior student at the University and is majoring in petroleum engineering.

West, an honor student, met membership requirements for Pi Epsilon Tau by ranking in the top fourth of his class.

reports the Soil Conservation Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The potential supply of water remains constant while needs for human use pyramid with growing population, according to the SCS. From 1900 to 1950, while U. S. population doubled, total water use, other than for power, increased fourfold. By 1955 it was up another 21 percent from 1950. Water needs are expected to double again by 1975.

Average daily use for all purposes increased from 600 gallons per capita in 1900 to 1,100 gallons in 1950 and 1,300 in 1955. By 1975 the country will be using 1,800 gallons of water a day for every man, woman, and child.

Industry and irrigation are by far the largest users.

Water problems are largely watershed protection problems, says SCS, pointing out that water control and conservation cannot be separated from soil soil conservation.

1958 Chevrolet To Be Introduced On October 31 In USA

The 1958 Chevrolet, reportedly the most spectacular model in the history of the company, will be introduced at dealer showrooms nationally Thursday, October 31.

E. N. Cole, general manager, disclosed the public exhibit date on the eve of a preview at which about 250 press, radio and TV editors will see the new line at the General Motors Proving ground.

"We sincerely believe this is one of the most interesting automobiles ever brought out by the industry," Cole said. "Every major part will show the results of an engineering job that began five years ago."

"The 1958 model became possible," continued Cole, "only through expanded and modernized facilities. It is the first car to have full advantage of the resources at our new Engineering Center. In addition, its production has involved considerably more new machinery and equipment than is normal for a model changeover."

Cole said the new car is already in production at the company's 11 assembly plants. Ample display stock is assured at retail points for the official three-day introduction starting October 31.

VISIT IN AMARILLO

Mr. and Mrs. Gwineth Cox were in Amarillo visiting friends over the weekend.

Census Bureau Has New Division For Bailey County, 1960

In a joint program with the State of Texas and each of its counties, the Bureau of Census is establishing areas, known as census county divisions, for use in statistical reporting. Similar areas were established in the State of Washington prior to the 1950 census and have been put into effect in 11 other states.

Jack Burkhardt, a member of the census staff, was in Muleshoe this week to consult with officials and solicit their advice in regard to the proposed areas for Bailey County.

Burkhardt said that the county divisions set up by the Bureau will not interfere in any way with the use of Commissioners' precincts by the State or counties.

For the 1960 census, Bailey county has been divided into two divisions, Muleshoe and South Sand Hills, the division point being on FM 746 which nearly intersects the county at mid-point.

Divisions are for the most part based on the communities which serve as a focal point of each area. The date for these divisions will serve as a yardstick for the spheres of influence exercised by such communities.

Dale Middlebrooks Elected Prexy Bula Exes At October 12 Homecoming

Bula school homecoming was held Friday, October 11 with registration beginning at 3 p.m., by Kathy Archer and Janell Seagler. About 125 registered, with many more coming to the ball game that evening.

A gathering was held at 4 p.m. in the auditorium. Betty Hallford, president of the senior class, gave the welcome address, and Superintendent H. A. Reynolds, the response. Gerald Thompson gave the invocation.

Howard Weaver, president of the ex-students, read a history of all the Bula graduation classes back to 1937. Roll call was held and Gerald Thompson, now stationed in Rhode Island, had come the longest distance to attend.

A memorial service was held for those who have passed on.

Officers Elected
Dale Middlebrook was elected new president, and vice-president is David Settiff. Jimmy Gage was named secretary for the ex-students association.

A barbecue chicken supper was served in the school lunch room at 6 p.m., to about 200 persons.

At 7:30 Bula beat Cotton Center in a football game with a score of 26-19.

At halftime Betty Hallford was crowned football sweetheart. She was attended by Kay Spence and Opal Bogard.

After the game, the seniors served refreshments to the exes.

M Club To Honor Coaching Staff

The "M" Club met Thursday to discuss plans for a dinner held Friday in honor of the coaches.

Fall initiation plans will be made by a committee composed of the officers who include Royce Turner, Bill Black, Bob Sanders, Don Alexander, Doyce Turner and David Shepherd.

More Water Needed As Population Growth Continues

Expanding industry and rising standards of living require more and more water per person to satisfy the American way of life. One-fourth the population today is troubled with water shortage, poor water, or both.

"Dust storms sure were bad news — till I switched to AMALIE L. P. G.!"

"That old common-grade oil I used to use in these irrigation engines sure did let the dirt and dust and rust cake up in those engines! But worse than that, with butane or propane, it thickened up when it looked almost like gear-grease! Man, what a change with this AMALIE L. P. G. Oil!"

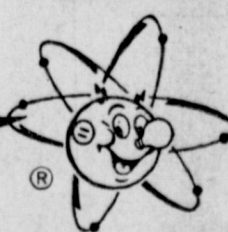

AMALIE L. P. G. is more than just a good oil, it's a super oil. When you burn butane or propane (Liquid Petroleum Gas), ordinary oil won't do. It must be ENGINEERED for L. P. G. And AMALIE L. P. G. is just that, 100% pure Pennsylvania — no other crude like it on earth. Special additives, to hold that dust, grit, etc. in suspension — so they filter out. And above all, it holds its viscosity — its "flowing" qualities. Give YOUR engines — and your bank balance — a break!

That's why a little girl who comes in for "roller skate oil" is likely to keep coming back years later for Phillips 66 FLITE-FUEL and TROP-ARTIC Motor Oil, and all the little courtesies that add up to "Hospitality on the Highway."

Babson Discusses Winter Business Outlook And Russian Satellite

Babson Park, Mass., Oct. 17 — During most of this year business has shown basic stability, despite the readjustments which many industries have encountered and with which some are still having to contend. The total Physical Volume of Business is currently only a trifle below the high range of recent months, and is just a few percentage points lower than the first-quarter peak for the year to date. During the summer, many businesses have been drawn downward because of seasonal influences such as hot weather and vacation absences. Therefore, I expect business during coming months to be moderately upward, helped by the Russian Satellite.

However, the improvement depends also upon basic consumer attitudes, which can change from day to day. Recent surveys on consumer behavior and attitudes indicate that buyers are becoming more price-conscious and more selective. Nevertheless, manufacturers are hopeful that their plans and output schedules for coming months will tally closely with the purchasing plans of consumers, which are still continuing upward.

THE AUTO OUTLOOK

The automobile industry is a bellwether of forthcoming trends. Dealers' stocks are currently near $600,000, — most of them 1957 cars, with only a sprinkling of 1958 models. Thus far, there has been little apprehension regarding the size of automobile inventories, and dealers are hopeful that October sales will at least approach those of a year ago.

The slight degree of optimism among automobile makers is helping to buoy the steel industry, which continues to hope for a strengthening of orders. Though such orders have been coming in gradually, nearby weeks may see a greater rush as the remainder of the plants change over to the production of 1958 cars. Appliance makers are also proceeding cautiously with respect to orders since sales have been disappointing so far this year. However, as inventories in these lines register declines, factory output should gradually trend up.

CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY

Another major steel user, the construction industry, appears to have been taking a breather, although the latest month's figures show a more-than-seasonal rise after the disappointing earlier weeks. Work stoppages in the cement industry caused shortages of concrete products in some sections. There are, however, more basic reasons for the slower pace in building, such as scarcity of money and the partial fulfillment of demand for housing. Sustaining strength, however, should be evident in public works, utilities, and road building.

Beyond the conundrum of what the consumer is going to do with his income, some consumer-expenditure plans are already being affected by lower expenditures by the Defense Department. Military cutbacks are beginning to affect whole communities which are largely dependent upon government contracts, such as aircraft workers and others employed in these towns dependent upon military payrolls. The Russian Satellite may, however, change all this.

WHAT ABOUT EMPLOYMENT

Those who are laid off will be less eager to spend and will hesitate to go further into debt; while those who remain on the payroll may become more cautious about spending. On the other hand, due to the long period of boom, the average consumer has become accustomed to an increasingly higher standard of living. And it is far harder to adjust one's tastes downward than to raise them upward.

Higher wages are partly responsible for the continued rise in personal incomes. However, these increases in pay rates are a cause for concern to producers, since they add to the cost of doing business. Coupled with lower sales in certain lines, they further squeeze profits.

CONCLUSIONS

All in all, coming months should show a modest improvement over the lows of the summer months. But the degree of improvement is dependent on a revival of consumer expenditures, which in turn are affected by capital outlays and by changes in Government spending, which could be increased as a result of the Russian Satellite surprise. It may well be that all three factors have been merely hesitating in order to consolidate the gains of the past long boom. Much will depend upon advertising appropriations and the efficiency of selling.

THIS WEEK

—In Washington

Clinton Davidson

Little Rock is a trigger that, if pulled by the finger of hate, could blow the brains out of our democracy. A great deal of damage already has been done to our democratic processes. Old wounds that should have healed long ago have been reopened and undoubtedly will be slow to heal.

As a Southerner by birth (Atlanta) and rearing, I think I understand the feelings of the South. And as a resident of the North for many years, I know something of the people of that area. I know that the loyalties of both are dedicated to the preservation of our Union and our democracy.

There needs to be a cooling-off period, a time in which to think and act reasonably and rationally, lest we precipitate, at the very least, a civil war between the states of our own Nation. The issues involve fundamental principles of our democracy.

The Supreme Court unanimously ruled in 1954 that the segregation of the races in schools is unconstitutional. The ruling was a judicial interpretation of the 14th Amendment.

Arkansas Governor Faubus challenged the right of the Federal government to enforce the decision in Little Rock Central High School. He used state troops to thwart a school board integration order. When state troops were withdrawn at the urging of President Eisenhower, city police were unable to prevent rioting.

It is not my purpose here to argue either the merits or the legality of any of those three actions which precipitated, but did not create, the inflammatory issues involved.

My point is that the Constitution makes available to us the democratic processes by which the issues can be resolved. The final interpretation of the Constitution lies with the people, through processes provided by the framers of it. We cannot settle the issues by use of inflated tempers and heated arguments that excite prejudices and lead to violence. They will not be resolved by making them a political battleground.

The survival of our democratic processes and the Free World is at stake. If we divide ourselves, Communist agitators almost certainly would take advantage of the opportunity to create chaos. The issues, nevertheless, must be faced up to and not covered to fester and eat at the vitals of our democracy. But they must be faced in an atmosphere of calm and reason, without passion or hate and as Americans, rather than Northerners or Southerners.

TODAY'S MEDITATION

Read Psalm 103:1-11. They, continuing daily with one accord . . . praising God (Acts 2:46, 47.)

The minister answered the telephone. Some unknown man was complaining that the snowy sidewalk in front of the church was unshoveled. "Was the caretaker unmindful of the safety and comfort of working men their way to and from work?"

In reply, the minister promised that the walk would have attention. But had the complainer ever gone by the church in summer and seen the roses and gladioli and bushes aflame with beauty? Yes, he had. Had he ever called the church then, praiseful for the sight? A strained silence followed.

Palms and apostle, leaders and followers specify the ministry of praise. The first disciples believed, shared, lived in daily accord — praising God all the while. The grumpy way and the grumbly day do not belong to the upward way of life. Thanksgiving does its gladdening work. Bless the Lord, O my soul.

PRAYER

Our Father, save us from the gloom of thankless living. Help us to recognize Thy blessings to us. Tune our hearts to sing of Thy love. Open our lips that they may speak forth Thy praise. In the dear Saviour's name, Amen.

Sandhills Philosopher Wonders If Manned Flight Into Space Will Be A Big Joke On The Scientists

Editor's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm seems to be undisturbed about the Russian satellite, his letter this week indicates.

Last week it wasn't necessary to go out of your way at all to get hold of the main topic of discussion throughout the world—that satellite the Russians shot out into space, and while I haven't heard of anybody around here who has seen it, I'll admit if they're like me they haven't tried very hard.

If it's passing over my farm every 95 minutes, it's all right with me. There's no law against it.

But I have been thinking. Now I understand some people in the United States are concerned over the fact Russia got a satellite up first, but it doesn't bother me. I figure we'll get one up before long. The secret of a satellite is sort of like the secret of the bicycle—it's pretty generally known in scientific circles.

But what does interest me is this. I feel sure we can get a small satellite up into space, and a little later on we can get a bigger one, then still a bigger one, and if we spend enough effort and money we can finally, I suppose, get a real rocket ship up in space, with a man on board, and I'm sure we ought to do it.

But I've been thinking, what a joke it would be on the scientists if after we spend several billion dollars, get the rocket ship up all right, and the man on board successfully sails it around throughout space for a few days and then radios back: "Well, I've been around the moon twice, I've traveled a hundred million miles in every direction I can think of from the earth, I've explored everything I can find out here, and while I hate to say this, I know you've spent a lot of money getting me and this rocket ship into outer space. BUT THERE AIN'T NOTHING OUT HERE. I can't find a blamed thing out here worth having, and you can see just as much of nothing as I can by looking straight up from where you're standing on earth. No trees, no rivers, no land, no people, just a lot of nothing and a million or so monotonous stars that sun-burn you if you get close. If it's all right with you, I'd like to come back down. I'd even enjoy arguing with my wife. Anything to get away from all this blank space."

Now I'm not saying this is what'll happen, we ought to go ahead and see anyway, but we ought to keep in the back of our mind that it's possible a twinkling star is sort of like a movie actress—it looks a lot better from a distance.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

WATCH OUT FOR THE WITCHWEED

A cluster of small reddish flowers on low-growing weeds may spell death to a corn crop in a matter of days.

Witchweed, a parasitic plant that attacks primarily corn, plus a few other crops, has been found in the United States.

Although the weed has not yet come to Texas, farmers are warned that it can thrive in the South and Southwest. At present, it is believed to be confined to about 35,000 acres near the coast in North and South Carolina, but all areas have been alerted to be on the lookout.

food and water supply of its host, starving it and making fruition almost impossible.

The first witchweed blooms usually appear in June and will continue to bloom until frost. The flower is small and usually brick red, although it can be scarlet, yellowish-red, yellowish or even almost white.

Any farmer suspecting the presence of this plant should notify his county agent. The agent can arrange for positive identification and suggest measures for eradication. Witchweed plants or seed SHOULD NOT BE MOVED from the field, since the minute seeds are easily spread. And one plant can produce up to half a million tiny seeds.

The Texas Department of Agriculture has a limited number of copies of "Watch Out For Witchweed". It can be obtained by writing John C. White, Commissioner, Texas Department of Agriculture, Austin.

Christian Science Services

The vital necessity of individual application of the teachings of Christ Jesus will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Doctrine of Atonement" is the Golden Text from Psalms (80:19): "Turn us again, O Lord God of hosts, cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved."

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (25:25-31): "Implicit faith in the Teacher and all the emotional love we can bestow on him, will never alone make us imitators of him. We must go and do likewise, else we are not improving the great blessings which our Master worked and suffered to bestow upon us."

From the Bible will be read the following (II Corinthians 5:17): "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new."

American Farmer At Crossroads

Dear Editor:
Today the American farmer stands at the crossroads.

Ever since he struggled out of the quagmire of depression in the early thirties, the American farmer has followed the road paved with federal farm programs and panaceas that was supposed to lead to the titanic land of a permanent prosperous agriculture. For almost thirty years he has heeded the call of the political prophets of the NEW DEAL, the FAIR DEAL and MODERN REPUBLICANISM that was supposed to lead him to the promised land.

Today the farmer stands disillusioned. Buried by a mountain of surplus commodities, squeezed by rising costs and lowering prices, shackled by government regulations, and looked upon as a parasite riding the government subsidy express, he looks in vain for a glimpse of the promised land only to realize that he has been following false prophets down the road that must eventually lead to bankruptcy via the Benson philosophy of lower farm prices or a permanent socialized welfare government via the NEW DEAL-FAIR DEAL philosophy.

The political soothsayers frantically look into the crystal ball, stir the tea leaves and scan the stars for some sign or omen that would be politically expedient to follow in 1958.

Shall we farmers continue to follow these political soothsayers or shall we try to chart our own course out of the morass of difficulties that threaten to engulf us?

We farmers have demonstrated remarkable ingenuity in multiplying production and circumventing restrictive government regulations. Why not use some of that same ingenuity to extricate ourselves from the difficulties which that ingenuity gets us into? Why not figure out our own farm program instead of turning it over to politicians and politically minded government economists? Who should know more about the farm problem and what will work and what won't work than the farmer himself? Doesn't the politician have enough difficulty figuring out where to be and what to say to get the most votes without having to come up with an unpleasant answer to an unpleasant problem?

The day of decision is at hand.

Football Team Plays At Wellman On Friday

Maudine and W. C. Eubanks, Gail Artn and Kay Cole of Texas Tech spent the weekend at home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Sanderson spent the weekend in Roswell, N. M., visiting their son and daughter, L. D. Jr. and Bernice.

We farmers must chart our own course or let our problems remain a political football to be kicked hither and yon by both political parties. We must come up with rational answers or continue to be victims of unsound political panaceas.

To achieve a sound farm program we farmers must answer such basic questions as these:

How shall we get the supply of all farm commodities more in balance with demand instead of just a few?

How can we assure the producers of all commodities more nearly equal treatment instead of favoring some at the expense of others?

How can we achieve a fair return on our labor and investment without it being labeled a subsidy from other taxpayers?

How shall we expand uses and markets for farm products? How shall we compete with synthetics?

These are but a few of the basic questions that remain unsolved as farm organizations begin holding their fall resolutions meetings to wrestle with the problems confronting agriculture. It is the obligation of every farmer to contribute his thinking to these problems. Shall we fulfill our obligation, or shall we stay at home and gripe about what "they did?"

Parmer County Farm Bureau News

By Raymond Euler

The ninth annual convention of Parmer County Farm Bureau last Monday night was what we consider a success. It seems there was more constructive participation than there has ever been in a like meeting in the county. Resolutions proposed by the committee were not blindly accepted but several of them were rejected and reworded so suit the delegates, which is a healthy situation. There has been too much of the cut and dried stuff in every realm, it seems to us, and the change is healthy.

Cotton John made one of the best agricultural promotion speeches we have heard lately. We are happy to know that there are increasing numbers of farmers who are giving thoughtful consideration to the fact that wise ways and means of selling products they can now raise so prolifically. Perhaps lack of salesmanship has been one of the causes of the farmer's being the first to feel depressing characteristics in our economy when they occur. Other producers and marketers of merchandise begin to promote and sell harder when demand seems droopy. This procedure would fit agricultural operations equally as well.

Linda Miller, our secretary for the past few months, is launching out into the ocean of matrimony a week from next Sunday. Due to changing circumstances, she is leaving Farm Bureau. Having been closely associated with her, we have learned to appreciate her fine character and fine pleasant personality. I am sure all Farm Bureau people join us in wishing her a full, long life of happiness.

We were right proud of our County Farm Bureau queen's legislative and progress report out at the convention the other night. We wish more of our farm members knew as much about the facts of the organizations accomplishments as she. Her name is Miss Wilma Norton, of Farwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Norton.

CONSIDER THIS: A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it; and a flattering mouth worketh ruin. —Proverbs 26:28.

Bible Comment:

Why Flee God? He Is Our Refuge And Our Strength

WHY should one wish to escape from the presence of God?

As a psalmist says, the knowledge of God is complete and "Such knowledge is too wonderful for me." He emphasizes the seriousness of the realization that no matter where he goes, he cannot escape God's presence. The wish to escape is perhaps inevitable if we are conscious within ourselves of evil or wrongdoing. We then can feel the keenness and reality of God's judgment. But it is here that the great teaching of the psalmist concerning God enriched and enlarged by the New Testament, comes for our strength and comfort.

God is not to be feared, even by those who have turned to evil ways. He is a God of mercy and love, and the whole purpose of His searching of our hearts and enlarged by the New Testament, comes for our strength and comfort.

The omniscient God is the all-loving God. An ever-present God is with us to uphold us. It is remarkable how far back in human experience men came to this view. They learned to believe that there was a power in the universe which was on their side. Away back in Jewish history, this found expression in the saintly leader who said to his people: "The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms."

The one thing that is certain is that we cannot escape from God. "Whither shall I go from Thy presence? What a comfort then to know that God is our refuge and our strength." But there can be no peace while we are in sin. One who wishes to know God and find the peace of His presence must seek always the way of justice and truth.

VISIT PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wall of Amarillo and Mrs. B. J. Porter and Joyce of Houston visited over the week end with their parents Mr. and Mrs. George Chambers.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS

And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? —(St. Luke 6, 46.)

The Lord Jesus Christ, our blessed Savior and Redeemer, expects us to do our part—to read and seek to understand His teachings in the Bible, to have faith and trust in Him, to love and obey Him—"For there's no other way."

H. D. Club CLATTER

Harriette J. Brummett

Home economics representatives are: Mrs. Carrie Huff to serve 3 years; Mrs. Albert Davis to serve 2 years, and Mrs. S. C. Caldwell to serve 1 year.

The purpose of this meeting is to form an extension program that will enable the extension service agents to help the people of the county better than the past.

Halloween Gets Nearer
 Soon those trick or treaters will be knocking at your door. Of course you will want to be prepared with a treat that will keep the goblins from playing tricks. Try pop corn prepared by the following method:

Pop corn and place in large pan. To about 1 gallon popped corn make the following syrup:
 1 cup sugar
 1/2 cup water
 1/3 cup white corn syrup
 3 tablespoons butter or margarine
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1 teaspoon vanilla

Cook all ingredients except vanilla until it forms a soft ball when dropped into cold water. Remove from fire and add vanilla. Stir vanilla in and pour gradually over popped corn. Stir well until all corn is coated. A few nuts and small candies such as gum drops, candy corn, jelly

Winter Cover Crop Benefit To Soils

The rains and winds that characterize winter weather often rob the farmer of valuable topsoil through erosion — not to mention the hidden damage from leaching. But farmers can prevent this winterime destruction of their land by planting cover crops.

But it must be remembered that cover crops do more than just protect the land, says R. J. Hodges, extension agronomist. These crops improve the soil itself, leading to increased yields.

Many growers have discovered that winter legumes increase their cotton and corn yields, more than paying for the time and money spent in putting in the legumes, points out the agronomist. These cover plants do not interfere with other crops, coming at a time when farm work slows down. They are turned under to add plant food, especially nitrogen to the soil during the slack period in the spring. Grazing, hay, silage or seed taken from the winter crop will provide other sources of income for the farm, he adds.

Annual winter legume crops named by Hodges include vetch, Austrian winter peas, crimson clover and sweet clover. Some operators use a combination of annual grass and annual legumes while others prefer the annual grass alone.

For further information on winter crops, ask the county agent about local recommendations.

Expect Decrease In Laying Flock Numbers In 1958

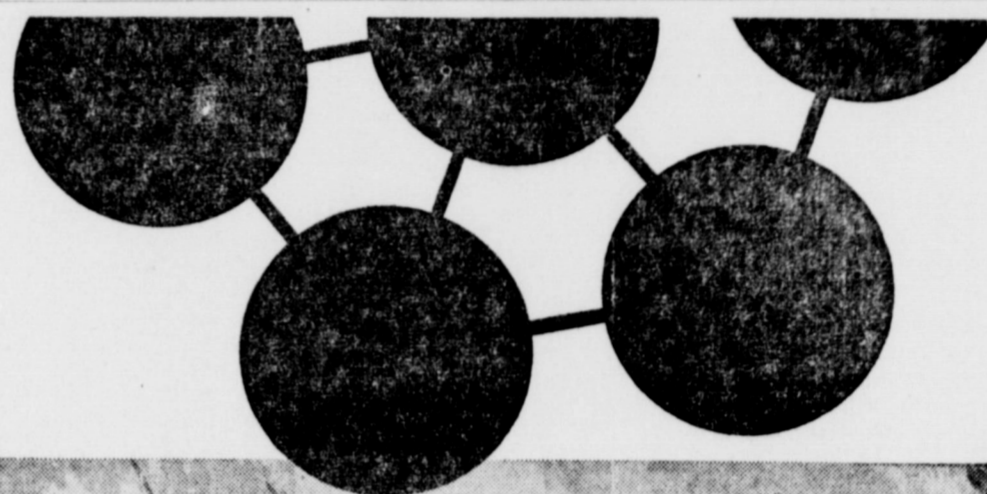

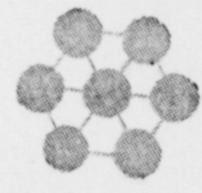

Many farmers who raised laying chickens last year are not doing it in 1957, according to the Crop Reporting Board of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The decrease is greatest in small flocks, many of which have evidentially been liquidated.

Bob Griffin, extension poultry husbandman, says that by January 1, 1958, the total U. S. laying flock is expected to be down 6 to 8 percent from January 1, 1957. The reduction will be due to fewer replacements. The number of young chickens raised on farms this year is expected to be the lowest on record.

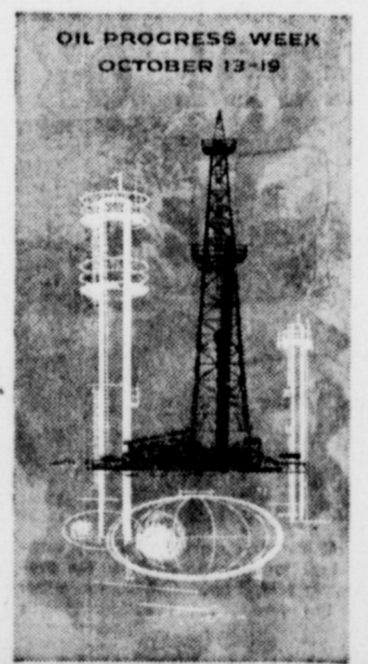

In February of this year, farmers reported that they intended to buy 9 percent fewer chicks than they bought last year. But Griffin points out that they actually bought 19 percent fewer flock replacement chicks during the first six months of this year, compared to last year. Texas beans or chocolate chips may be added to the corn. This can be formed into the shape of an ear of corn or into balls. It can also be pressed into a flat rectangular pan with wax paper lining and then cut into shapes convenient for eating.

This makes a nice TV snack.

THE WONDROUS YEARS OF OUR TIME...

Man's use of petroleum — of oil and natural gas — began before the first records of history.

But petroleum's full usefulness to man has been a matter of decades only.

They have been wondrous years, those decades. Years that saw automobiles built by the millions because gasoline was available as a cheap source of power. Years that saw the oceans dwindle under the high speed of great ships powered by oil. Years that saw the evolution of a more comfortable living in homes warmed by oil and natural gas. Years that saw rubber, fibers, paints and many other useful items of everyday living produced from petroleum's hydrocarbons. Years that saw the earth shrink under the wings of the airplane, and great wars decided by the availability of oil.

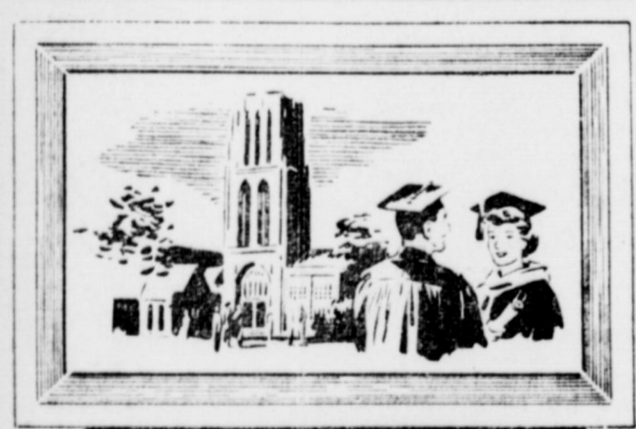

Thus, the oil industry has led the way into the wondrous years of our time. The industry, through foresight, ingenuity, research, and risk-taking, has found and produced the oil required in greater quantity each year, has conserved oil for the future, has devised the transportation systems that move oil economically, has built the refineries and plants that convert crude oil and natural gas to the hundreds of useful products needed by a growing United States.

The Humble Company, founded in 1917, has participated in petroleum's progress during four great decades, and has pioneered in the development of many current techniques for finding, producing and refining oil. This week, with the industry, Humble invites you to consider the variety and extent of oil's progress . . . Surely no other industry has contributed more to the making of modern America.
