"Black Duster" hits west plains area late last Friday

One of the worst dust storms in recent years hit the west plains area Friday evening, bringing choking black dust to obscure vision, limiting it to less than 20 feet at many points. High Winds accompanying the thick clouds of sand and dust caused some damage to TV antennas and at least one fence was blown over by the winds which had gusts up to 85 mph. Several accidents were reported on the highways of the area but none close by. A trailer house overturned between Muleshoe and Lariat but no serious injuries were reported. The burr pit at Progress gin caught fire and local firemen answered the call. No damage to surrounding buildings was reported. Housewives spent the weekend shoveling and sweeping sand out of their homes and off their furniture.

Both the Muleshoe State and First National banks will be closed Friday, March 2 in observance of Texas Independence Day. Business houses needing payrolls and other bank patron are asked to take notice of the closing date.

Tony Paiz won Spelling Bee Friday, First boy to become county champ

He is the first boy ever to win the county Spelling Bee. James just had a slip of the tongue; he knew how to spell the word all right.

Tony won the $15 offered for the first place speller by The Journal, which sponsors the Spelling Bee annually. Shepherd was awarded the $7.50 offered by The Journal. Tony will be eligible to participate in the regional meet at Lubbock March 17, winners of which will receive valuable prizes and the first place speller will get an expense free trip for two to the National Spelling Bee in Washington, D. C. in May. Third place winner was another boy, Larry Pollard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Pollard, Bula. He went down on the word, "development". Larry won $2.50, presented by The Journal. Other contestants, their school, parents, and word misspelled: Nelda McCary, daughter of Mr. and

Texas A&M Extension Service specialists hold vegetable production meeting here Wednesday

Four specialists from the Texas A & M department of Extension Service spoke to a large group of farmers Wednesday afternoon here on some of the problems inherent in vegetable growing, and offering recommendations on vegetable production. Introduced by County Agent J. K. Adams, the four men included Buford Hancock and George Williams, Extension horticulturists; Dr. Harlan Smith, plant pathologist, and Frank Garner, plant entomologist. Hancock told the farmers that a marketing survey for vegetable production will be undertaken in this area in the immediate future. He said that there is little research available for the extension specialists to use. Hancock also said that vegetable farmers must decide to either produce better quality than other areas; take advantage of favorable harvest time, or produce cheaper than other areas in order to be successful in vegetable production. George Williams showed a number of colored slides on recommended varieties of vegetables. These included Texto 2 tomatoes, Great Lakes lettuce, Sebago and Kennebec Irish potatoes, and Charleston Gray watermelons. He also showed pictures of transplanting machinery. Dr. Smith told the men that it is important to be able to recognize a plant disease, although in some instances there is nothing more that can be done about it. He gave as reasons for increasing plant disease: lack of crop rotation, lack of resistant varieties, and the importing of disease through seed and transplants. Frank Garner said that the Miller bill is important to vegetable farmers. This sets the tolerances of insecticides which may be used on vegetables transported in interstate commerce. Several seedsmen were present and discussed varieties suitable for use in this area. A question and answer period followed the discussions.

MULESHOE CHIROPRACTIC CLINIC IN BARRON BUILDING South of Courthouse Phone 6090

WHAT IS HEALTH WORTH TO YOU?

With health, everything is a source of pleasure. Without it, nothing else, whatever it may be, is enjoyable. Even the other personal blessings—a great mind, a happy temperament—are degraded and dwarfed for want of it. It follows, from all this, that the greatest of all follies, is to sacrifice health for any other kind of happiness, whether it be for gain, advancement, learning, or fame. Everything should be made secondary to health... Schopenhauer.

BACKACHE—

A backache needs the attention of the Chiropractor. Pain in the back is most generally referred to as sciatica, rheumatic neuritis, lumbago, (some even have gone so far as to diagnose it herniated or slipped disc) and is caused by highly inflamed and irritated nerves. Because Chiropractic adjustments remove the cause, they are beneficial in these cases. You need the Chiropractor if you have a backache, but it isn't necessary to have a backache to need a chiropractor.

A man, age 41, is the case of a man who avoided a spinal operation. This patient suffered lower back pain into left hip and leg for some time. When it finally became so severe it immobilized him completely, he was medically diagnosed "slipped disc" and a spinal operation was prescribed. As a last resort, he tried Chiropractic to avoid the dangers of an operation. Gradually his condition improved after our Chiropractic examination indicated and revealed the cause of his nerve pressure, and corrective adjustments were begun. He is now able to work on a hard schedule.

HEADACHE—

Headaches have a removable cause. A middle aged mother had suffered from headaches for so many years she couldn't remember when they first began. Working and taking care of her family with these head pains she grew more and more nervous. She tried several remedies without results.

She was eventually brought to the Clinic for a spinal analysis and spinal X-rays to locate the cause of her trouble. She told us that she had developed sinus trouble, pleurisy, palpitation of the heart and high blood pressure of 200. After a course of Chiropractic service, she reported no

C & H Chevrolet will participate in new prize contest

C & H Chevrolet Co., of Muleshoe, is participating in an unprecedented family automobile contest offering prizes ranging from realistic child-size models to two-car grand awards which include a futuristic 1956 Corvette sports car.

A total of 63 new cars and 60 pedal-operated children's models will be given away in the nationwide competition, which runs from March 1 through April 14. In cooperation with the national contest, the C. & H. Chevrolet Co. will give two Kiddie Corvettes.

In recognition of the growing trend toward two-car families, each of the three revolutionary grand awards will include a Corvette in addition to one of the 60 four-door Chevrolet Bel Airs.

Featuring an extra-tough lightweight plastic body in combination with a 225-horsepower V8 engine, the fleet, low-slung two-passenger Corvette is regarded as the ultimate in automotive performance.

The child-size prizes, called "Kiddie Corvettes", are striking replicas built to one-third scale. They are outfitted with precision ball-bearing wheels, semi-pneumatic tires and two-speed transmissions which aid youngsters in pedaling up grades. Careful attention has been devoted to the detail of the plastic body, polished grille and chrome trim.

Contest entry forms being distributed at the dealership and their car lot on the Plainview highway, contain three lines to a new chorus of the familiar Chevrolet theme song, "See the U. S. A. in your Chevrolet." Entrants fill in the fourth line and return the forms to the dealership during one of the three 15-day periods of the contest.

A grand two-car award, 19 single-car awards and 20 Kiddie Corvettes will be given away for each of the three periods. Contest officials stress that those who enter early stand the best chance because entries entered in one contest period are also eligible for the remaining contest periods. The winners will be announced and their cars delivered by the Chevrolet dealers in the areas.

Judging, however, will be done by an independent agency. The three lines of the chorus to be completed are:
"Get that big car feel — get behind the wheel
"Thrill to beauty, power, sales performance, too
"When your drive is done, you'll want to order one..."

The fourth line, judged on freshness and originality of thought, must rhyme with "too".

WE WANT TO TELL YOU ABOUT THE NEW DEXTER UNDERGROUND LAWN SPRINKLER SYSTEM

IT'S EASY TO INSTALL — There's no tearing up your lawn to install the Dexter system. After assembling above ground, you slit sod to a five inch depth, set system in ground so that sprinkler heads are at ground level, tamp down the sod and connect to outdoor water faucet.

All you need for installation is spade, wrench, knife, screwdriver, and pipe compound.

Dexter's eight solid brass sprinkler heads are adjustable from a fine mist to a coarse spray. And for sprinkling into a corner or along a walk or driveway, quarter-circle and half-circle spray adapter sleeves can be dropped into sprinkler head.

Complete, illustrated, step-by-step installation instructions are included in each Dexter Underground Lawn Sprinkler System Kit. With the installation of a Dexter Kit you take the chore out of lawn sprinkling.

It's now as simple as turning a faucet.

Anthony's adopts employe profit sharing plan

Pursuing and extending its established progressive policy, C. R. Anthony Company, by action of its stockholders in annual meeting at Oklahoma City, adopted on February 28 a Profit-Sharing Plan and a Stock Issue Plan for the benefit of its qualifying employees. Lindal Murray, Manager for the Company at Muleshoe, announced today.

Based upon 20% of the Company's annual profits after taxes, with certain deductions for costs and capital requirements, the Profit-Sharing Plan provides that one-half of the profits to be shared shall be paid out annually direct to qualifying employees below the level of store manager with the other half to be paid annually to a Trustee to provide retirement and other deferred benefits for all qualifying employees. Employees become eligible to share after one year's service and will contribute no money to the Plan.

The Employees' Stock Issue Plan will make it possible for every employee to acquire for cash or upon installment basis up to 25 shares of the Company's capital stock. Employees' payments on uncompleted installment purchases will be refunded with interest.

These are benefits provided in addition to those heretofore secured for the employees by the Company, such as: Employees' Pension Fund, Group Life, Sickness, Hospitalization and Accident Insurance (with family benefits), Managers' bonuses, Service bonuses at Christmas, Sick Leave with pay, vacations with pay and industrial insurance.

C. R. Anthony Company, with headquarters at Oklahoma City, Okla., owns and operates in eighteen states a chain of 238 department stores, employees over 7,000 employees annually, with an annual payroll of approximately $5,500,000.

Eight boys of basketball squad awarded letters at season's end

Eight members of the Muleshoe high school boys basketball squad were awarded letters for their play at the close of the season. Coach Mantooth announced.

The three co-captains, Eddie Wilt, Charlie Jennings, and Billy Black were on the all-district honor list as shown in other columns of this paper.

Coach Mantooth points out that he will lose only two of the above lettermen, Fox and Bryant, and so will have five lettermen back for a nucleus for next year's campaign. In addition, some promising boys are coming up from the freshman team, so he is expecting a hustling squad next year.

Track Training Begins

Hard on the heels of the end of the basketball season, Coach Bill Taylor has started his boys on training for track and field events. In a practice session held at Littlefield this week the boys came in fourth, while a golf team representing Muleshoe high Texas Tech's "Big Red" Band will play six concerts during its annual spring tour March 4-9, Director Dewey O. Wiley has announced.

Highlight of the trip through West Texas and New Mexico will be an appearance before the American Bandmasters Association national convention March 9 at Santa Fe, N. M.

The band will play at 11 a. m., Thursday, March 8 at Santa Rosa, N. M. high school.

Dr. Wiley will direct the Tech Band in the opening number.

Their repertoire ranges from such light works as "The Tearin' of the Green"—a humorous parody of the Irish tune, "Wearin' of the Green"—to a more serious music like the Tannhauser Overture by Wagner.

The band, which has been brought along carefully by Dr. Wiley to its present stature, plays no "pop" tunes—at least during official concerts.

"Such music can be fine and fun but it fades too quickly," Dr. Wiley said.

The band does play a lot of contemporary music, however, such as "Mozart Matriculates", by Alec Templeton; "Relax", a modern rumba by Paul Yoder, and "Thunderbird Overture", by Wissler.

Dr. Wiley, or "Prof" as he is known to students, changes the band's basic repertoire of 40 pieces annually so his students "won't get tired of playing the same tunes."

To The People Of Bailey County

On March 12, 1956 you, the tax-paying voters of Bailey County will be called on to go to the polls and vote on two (2) propositions that should be of vital interest to everyone. Feeling that you should be well informed on these propositions, we, the Commissioners' Court desire to make the following explanatory statement:

About 18 months ago the Texas Highway Department submitted a proposal whereby they would spend $250,000 widening and four-laning U. S. Highway 84 from the Muleshoe City Limits east toward Sudan to the Lamb County Line, provided that Bailey County would secure and clear the right-of-way. It is estimated that this right-of-way would cost about $20,000 and the Court has not entered into a contract because the County does not have the money.

Recently several interested citizens requested the Commissioners' Court to take some action on it lest the Highway Department spend this $25,000 elsewhere. The Court therefore called the $50,000 bond election to determine whether or not the people want to pay the price necessary to obtaining the right-of-way.

Approximately $25,000 would be used on Highway 84 and the remaining $25,000 on Farm-to-Market roads only. This is designed to make the rural people feel that they would be participating in the Program as well as those in and around town.

None of the money, if voted, could be used for any purpose other than acquiring rights-of-way. It is not the policy of the Court to start buying right-of-way for Farm-to-Market roads, but this money would be used for clearing rights-of-way, such as moving REA Lines, telephone lines, fences and irrigation wells and for re-implementing land owners where they sustain excessive damages. It is thought that until needed, this money could be invested so that it would draw as much interest as it would be costing. Passage of this proposition would necessitate a tax increase of about six or seven cents per one hundred dollars ($100) valuation.

The other proposition, if voted, would authorize the County to levy a special road tax not to exceed 30 cents per one hundred dollars ($100) valuation, subject to homestead exemptions, to supplement the Road and Bridge Fund. This is a tax that once collected by the State but since the State does not need it any more, the legislature, realizing that the County's expense of building and maintaining county roads is constantly becoming greater, made it possible for Counties to collect it if approved by popular vote of the people. The continuous growth of the County, necessitating the opening of more new roads, together with the increased cost of machinery, repairs, fuel and labor has made the cost of working the roads far greater than it was a few years ago. This tax rate could vary from nothing to 30 cents from year to year as the needs of the County might require and the money could be used only for the construction, maintenance and operation of Farm-to-Market and County roads.

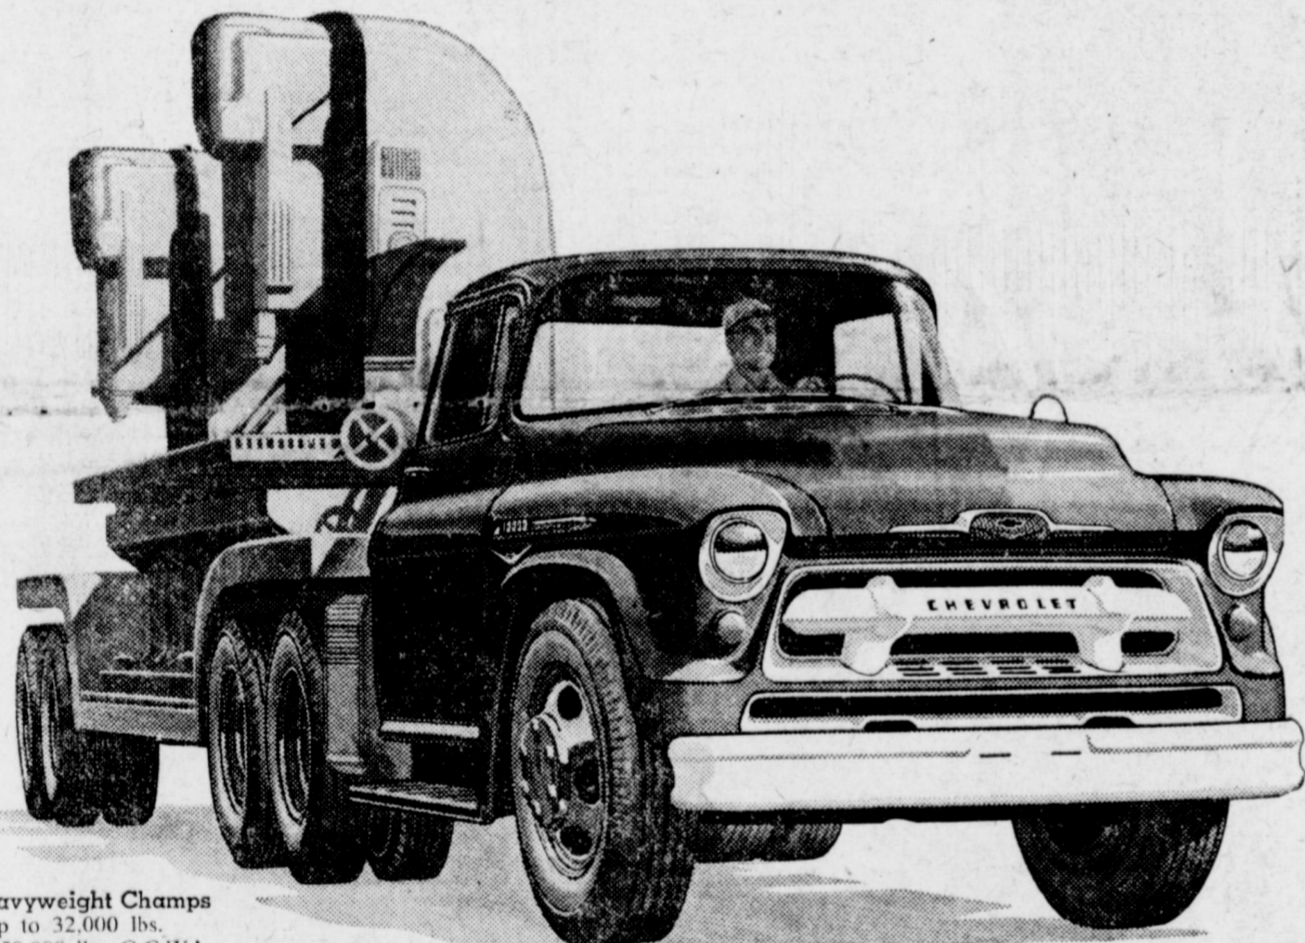

We want to personally encourage you to study these propositions very carefully and then go to the polls and vote your convictions.

Farm population on increase, reports A & M economist

The long-time trend of farm population losses in Texas showing definite signs of slowing down during 1955.

Figures just released by Dr. R. L. Skrabanek, Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology of Texas A & M College in a new Experiment Station bulletin, indicate that the farm population increased by 15,000 during the past year.

There were 1,141,000 Texans living on farms in April, 1955, according to the Texas A & M rural sociologist. This compares with 1,126,000 in 1954. This reversal of a steady downward trend existing since 1934 may be attributed chiefly to two major reasons: an increase in number of part-time farmers who have jobs in cities and a general slowing down of people migrating from farms in 1955.

Dr. Skrabanek's report is based on a statewide farm population survey carried on in cooperation with the U. S. D. A. and census materials. It covers farm population trends and characteristics since 1920 and points up some of their causes and effects.

Since the State's population is growing much faster than the farm population, farm people continue to make up a smaller share of the State's people. In 1920 one out of every two Texans resided on a farm as compared with one out of eight in 1955. At the present time, Texas has a 51 percent of the nation's farm people.

Complete information on population changes by counties and counties is available by calling for Experiment Station Bulletin 825, Texas Farm Population, from the Agricultural Information Office, Texas A & M College, College Station, Texas. Males outnumber females on Texas farms at every age level

The average age of farm residents increased by five years between 1940 and 1950. This is largely the result of increasing proportions of older persons on farms. In 1920 only 8 out of every 100 farm residents were 55 years of age or older. By 1950 this group comprised 17 out of 100.

The rural farm population has a less favorable age distribution than its city cousins. Farm areas have larger proportions of small children and older people, with relatively fewer in the more productive ages. Urban areas, however, have more persons in the working ages, with fewer to support in the younger and older age levels, Skrabanek adds.

FARM CHEMICAL SAFETY

Insecticides, fungicides and weed killers will soon be in heavy demand in Texas as the new crop year gets underway. These farming "aids" are credited by many agriculturists as being a major factor in crop progress during the past 15 years.

Selective weed killers, new insecticides and fungicides, hormone sprays and feed additive, antibiotics and defoliant are among the chemicals introduced during this period. Along with greater mechanization and better agricultural practices, such chemicals have helped farmers produce 42 percent more than before World War II.

It has been estimated that savings and additional agricultural production resulting from the use of chemicals is adding about $1 billion a year to farm income. However, as this "chemical farming" continues to increase, there arises a need for greater emphasis on the safe use and safe handling of pesticides.

It is important to recognize that with the wide selection of pesticides available today, safety hazards vary with the chemicals used.

Some pesticides are safe when used according to good agricultural practices. Some require careful use for the protection of persons applying the material.

ENOCHS HOMEMAKERS DISCUSS MAKING OF COPPER ARTICLES

The making of copper articles was the chief subject for discussion at the Enochs Ladies Homemakers Club met on February 23, at the home of Mrs. W. A. Pool. A complete planter was displayed by Mrs. R. L. Jones, and one nearing completion was brought by Mrs. J. S. Spence.

Others reported they had articles which were almost complete. Mmes. Jerome Cash and H. H. Snow are making lamps. Others are making wall plaques. The ladies made plans for further work of a similar nature in the near future with instructions provided by Mrs. Dyer. Three Way Home Economics teacher, Materials for the project, which had been ordered, have been received.

Hostess gifts were presented and refreshments of cookies, jelly salad and punch were served. A farewell gift of colored pillowcases was presented to Mrs. Lewis Jones, who plans to move to Brownfield soon.

Next meeting is to be held in the home of Mrs. T. A. Thomas.

Special guests were Mmes. P. M. Lancaster, Brewer, Gaze, May, Nichols, W. L. Clawson. Members attending were Mmes. Jerome Cash, H. H. Snow, D. T. Johnson, Lewis Jones, C. W. Vanlandingham.

Others require care to avoid harmful effects on crops. Some constitute a residue problem, while others do not.

Chemical manufacturers and agricultural agencies generally carry on extensive research projects to establish effective and safe procedures adapted to the special characteristics of pesticides. This information is passed along to users on labels and in bulletins.

The Texas Department of Agriculture at Austin maintains up-to-date literature on most farm chemicals sold in the state. In addition, department inspectors regulate certain phases of field applications.

Farmers are urged to contact John C. White, Capitol Station, Austin, for information of this kind. It is essential to maintain safe production of wholesome, high-quality foods and fiber in this chemical age of agriculture.

Cotton progress due in part to 7 step program

Ten years ago the Extension Service's 7-step cotton program was initiated. Through this program effort which brought together all segments of the cotton industry great improvements have been by Texas cotton producers. Fred C. Elliott, extension cotton specialist, points out in his annual report, the extent and value of the program to Texas. Acre yields for the 1946-55 ten year period are 40 pounds an acre higher than for the 1936-45 period. The 1955 acre yield of 282 pounds is the highest since 1866. Improved varieties, better insect control programs, increased use of machinery, better harvesting methods, improved and cheaper cultural methods, improved rotation systems and soil building crops and improved ginning, all part of the 7-step program, are credited by the specialist for the increased yield.

The trend toward more machine harvesting continued in 1955. Elliott says 1,547 combine type pickers were used in 70 counties and 19,524 stripping machines in 130 counties. Where yields were a half bale an acre, the saving for machine harvesting was as much as 35 a bale. Last year 38,161 rotary hoe equipped tractors were used in 148 counties. The high speed rotary hoe has become the key weed control practice and the saving on the 1955 hoe bill from their use is estimated at more than $12.3 million.

Elliott reports that naphtha oils for spot-offline Johnson grass were used on 73,637 acres in 104 counties. Lateral oiling with herbicidal naphtha was done on 14,617 acres in 41 counties. Elliott says that many farmers reported 100 percent satisfaction with this practice. In general, he says, Texas farmers preferred to use the rotary hoe and lateral oiling instead of pre-emergent chemicals.

Defoliation of cotton for better machine harvesting was practiced on a much wider scale than ever before. The saving on machine harvesting, a third of last year's crop, was estimated at $20 a bale or $33.7 million.

Based on 10 years of cotton improvement experience and data from experiment station variety testing, Elliott and other cotton industry leaders figure that 40 pounds of the 1955 state average of 282 pounds of lint an acre is due to the cumulative effect of the work done by Texas A & M College System personnel on the 7-step cotton program. This extra 40 pounds from each of the 4,000,000 acres harvested in 1955 amounted to the average price of 25 cents a pound brought to Texas, or more than $10 million.

How do farmers get the information that has enabled them to make these improvements? Elliott says the extension specialist team composed of the cotton specialist, an entomologist, cotton gin specialist and at times other specialists, participated in 116 meetings attended by 14,393 persons last year. In addition, county agents held 1,454 county and community meetings and tours a cotton improvement with an attendance of 47,140 persons. County agents also prepared 1,154 timely news stories on cotton and appeared on 884 radio and television programs.

The specialists and county agents gave and received cooperation from other groups, organizations and agencies working for the betterment of the cotton industry in the state. The 7-step county cotton committees were the clearing houses for these efforts.

way use tax for agricultural production fuels, championed by Farm Bureau, has been accomplished. Though the savings figure per farm is rather small, the nation wide total is sixty million dollars.

If you will read the report by Kaitwasser and Bruns on the four state cotton conference held in Texarkana last week, we believe you will find it encouraging. It seems that the soil bank will become law, and it embodies a number of important features of the Farm Bureau proposals.

If you are opposed to Communism and its ultimate purposes, and we believe all of you are. We think this question is worthy of your consideration. Does the Communist Party "urge support for the national organization you are being asked to support? (It does NOT urge support of the proposals of American Farm Bureau.)"

The National Council of Farmers' Cooperatives is working for deletion of the 50-50 Cargo Preference Act that Farm Bureau has been opposing for some time. That is the act that stipulates that at least fifty percent of shipments of CCC purchases shipped to foreign countries be shipped via American Ship Lines. This provision has resulted in some purchases being cancelled by countries which otherwise would have taken some of our surplus.

Your directors want you to know that any suggestion or criticism you may have to offer will be given fair consideration. They have studied farm problems long enough to know the answers are not all easy. Your local Farm Bureau has always been receptive to suggestions from members, even the one we received several weeks ago that said, "The best way you can serve me is to leave me alone and save your paper."

The following accomplishments of Farm Bureau are, of necessity brief, and inconclusive. Officers and directors of Parmer County Farm Bureau present them as one means of informing farmers of past and present activities.

County Accomplishments

- Contributes annually to expenses for 4-H boys and girls to Texas Round-Up; Organized noxious weed eradication committee in cooperation with County Agent, County Commissioners and others; Secured bedding annually for County Fairs and Livestock Shows; Secured State Seed Inspectors to inspect fields of certified grains for foreign plants; Holds annual "Open Forum" meetings to learn desires of farmers; Currently paying in excess of $20,000 dividends per year in Parmer County to participants in Farm Bureau Stock Insurance Companies; Provides free farm-issued fuel tax exemption service, resulting in more than $20,000 refunds per year in Parmer County; Provides opportunity for members to participate in Blue Cross Hospitalization Service, which has paid in excess of $35,000 in benefits in Parmer County; In 1955, Parmer County Farm Bureau petitioned, with the assistance of Texas FE, the Federal Land Bank of Houston to consider irrigation in the deep water area when appraising land for loans. This action resulted in a raise from $25 per acre to $75 maximum.

K. for USDA loans on grains temporarily stored on the ground, saving Texas Farmers millions of dollars by enabling them to "hold" through a harvest depressed market period; Secured passage of Texas Warehouse Act, which provides for issuance of NEGOTIABLE warehouse receipts by all dealers issuing CCC receipts.

NATIONAL LEGISLATION ACTIVITY

American Farm Bureau promoted the following important acts that have been vital to the survival of rural people: Capper Volstead Act for Farm Cooperatives; Packers and Stockyards Act; Capper-Ketchum act for Extension Work; Agricultural Adjustment act of 1933 (the first American Agricultural Assistance Act) and 1939;

Emergency Farm Mortgage Act; Rural Electrification Act; Economic Cooperation Act; Bill Burton Hospital Construction Act; Research and Marketing Act of 1946; Agricultural Acts of 1948-49; Rural Telephone Enabling Act (RTA); Commodity Credit Corporation Charter Act; Early in 1953 Farm Bureau began working successfully for passage of cotton allotment program providing the well known 65-40-50 formula for 1951 planting; This session, gained passage of legislation to exempt farm production fuels from two cent per gallon road use federal tax, which will mean a saving of more than $10,000 annually to Parmer County Farmers; USDA had announced in December, 1954, its intentions of setting grain sorghum supports at 60% of parity. American Farm Bureau insisted on a minimum of 70% and got it.

American Farm Bureau helped defeat many farm-crippling proposals, among them are: The Brannon Plan; Universal Military Training; Several bills designed to destroy cooperative features of the farm credit system.

BABSON DISCUSSES—REDUCING EDUCATIONAL COSTS

Babson Park, Mass., March 1— I now see no way to cut costs of operating Primary or Grammar Schools, I believe, however, that High Schools and Colleges will become more efficiently and economically operated. The self-service supermarket will show the way.

DO-IT-YOURSELF MOVEMENT

Some educational experts are urging cities and towns to spend less on buildings, libraries, and equipment and devote more of the total allotment to teachers' salaries. This may be good politics, but it is not in the students' interest. I favor building better schools with better libraries and equipment, but having fewer teachers. Then pay better salaries to these fewer teachers. The most vital field for a "Do-It-Yourself" campaign is that of education. A parent can buy a set of encyclopedias for $100 which contain more information than is contained in the heads of all the teachers in your community. Moreover, the training and discipline of self-education is even more valuable than all the facts that can be learned. Hence, I forecast that the next great movement in education for those above 13 years of age will be teaching students to learn without teachers. I wish that some city would put the managers of its self-service supermarkets on their school boards.

WHAT DOES YOUR SCHOOL BOARD KNOW?

To begin with, you probably don't know who are on your local school board. If not, send to your Superintendent of Schools and ask for a list of the members and the business in which each is engaged and the number of children which each has in the schools. You may be surprised to find how poorly chosen these men and women are for this work. In too many cities, school board members are interested in getting income for themselves or friends as doctors, builders, insurance agents, bank officials, storekeepers, etc. These school committee members naturally take the advice of the Superintendent of Schools who is an honest man but is guided by the colleges which determine what shall be taught and how. The Superintendents and School Principals are too often judged by the number of students they pass along to the colleges, and promoted accordingly. They are fine men and women; they deserve much better pay, but they have very little freedom.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

Man's God-given strength, assurance, and ability will be emphasized at Christian Science services this Sunday. Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Man" is the Golden Text from Daniel (10:19): "O man greatly beloved, fear not; peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong."

CARD OF THANKS

Since it is impossible for us to contact each of you and thank you personally, we take this means to thank you for the many kindnesses and the assistance rendered us during the illness and at the passing of our mother and grandmother.

KOGHE SEES—
 THROUGH A GLASS DARKLY

The talk of the town these days is Lubbock's asking for (and probably getting) free right of way for a 45 inch pipe line from Lubbock to Bailey county so they can haul off the water they bought about three years ago. A meeting was held Tuesday night and a number of protests will probably be sent to Austin against the matter.

There is little talk these days on the political front. With a city election coming up in April, few folks are doing much talking about candidates for the office of mayor and two aldermen posts which will be up for filling. Most folks seem to think that our present city slate is doing an efficient job and hope that all three whose terms are expiring will run again.

SAND HILLS PHILOSOPHER LOOKS AND FINDS IT WON'T WORK EITHER

Editor's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has turned his thoughts to the farm problem this week, without affecting the problem one way or the other. Dear editor: I read an editorial in a newspaper the other day which fell out of a car as it rounded a curve out here near my house which said the reason we have a farm problem is simple: we have too much land. Now I'll admit this is a new explanation and while I have never run into a farmer yet who thought he had too much land, if it was paid for, I think Congress ought to be informed of it. The writer said we just have too many acres, and it shouldn't take Congress long to figure out the way to whip that situation is to double the size of an acre and cut the problem half in two. But not only did this editorial writer say we have too much land, he said we've also got too many farmers, and he added that the solution to the whole problem was to cut down on both. Now I can see how it might be possible to cut down on the number of farmers, just lower prices a little more, but when it comes to cutting down on the amount of land we've got, this editorial writer is going to have to sharpen his pencil.

Today's Meditation

We Seek God's Forgiveness
 Read I John 5:18-21.
 This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles. (Psalm 34:6.)

While in military service, we assembled one day in chapel to sing and to hear a word of encouragement from our chaplain. Following his sermon, he asked those to come forward who desired to humble themselves before God and ask forgiveness for their sins. He said, "The Lord knows what troubles our hearts. He asks only that we confess our sins and become confirmed Christians." A soldier slowly came forward. When he reached the altar, he broke into sobs. Later we learned that this soldier had been an accomplice in a murder. Since he has given his life to Christ, this lad's heart must be lighted as he serves his prison term. He has faith in God and the consciousness of God's forgiveness of his crime, though he must pay his debt to society.

An Old Cowpuncher's Dream

Editor's Note: This true copy of the old song was furnished The Journal by J. M. Marchant, of Hot Springs, S. D. Names of cowboys mentioned may be remembered by some of our old timers, since, while they lived in Wyoming at the time of the poem, were all from Texas.

Last night I dreamed a bunch of us boys
 Around a campfire sat;
 'Twas after a long day's work
 To rest and smoke and chat.
 It seemed I could see,
 Etched in the fire's glow,
 Scenes and faces of those I'd known
 And worked with long ago.

I could plainly see John Craven,
 In his worn old leather chaps,
 And Johnnie Webber and Jeff Hewitt
 Shooting a game of craps.
 And there was Granvill Tinnin,
 Who always kept his word,
 With old Blinnie for his night horse,
 Singing to a Texas herd.

I could see Tom Lacy there,
 Slowly rolling a cigarette,
 And the U-Cross wagon boss
 Whose name was Jim Bourett.
 Then again it seemed I could see
 'Way out on the flats alone
 Johnnie O'Brien making spur tracks
 On an ornery Box A roan.

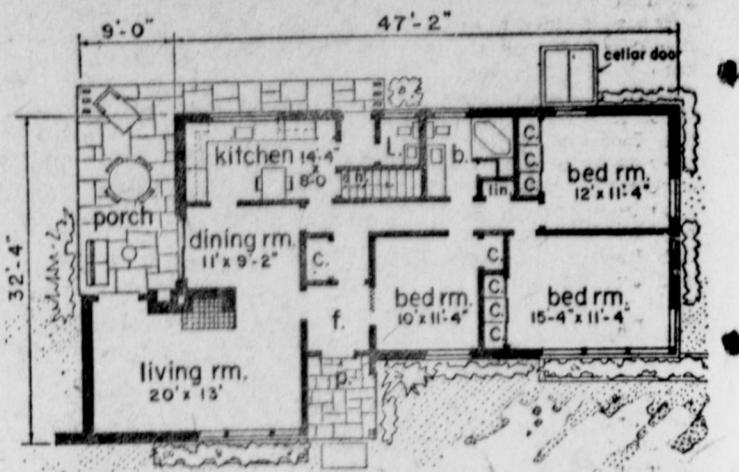

Then there was Dan Chalfant
 (He had the grace to blush)
 Borrowed (?) Dogie Robinson's bed roll
 And hid it in the brush.

When Dogie found his bed roll gone,
 He raised a heck of a fuss;
 But Dan got a good night's shut-eye,
 And laughed to hear Dogie cuss.

At the Rawhide Buttes stage station
 Where the stages ran to and fro,
 I could see Russell Thorp
 Picking his old banjo.

I could see Arthur Christian say
 As our saddles were scattered about,
 "Tomorrow we'll put the wagon in
 And turn the pines out.

 It seemed to be just the same,

A 12-foot-high ponderosa pine cathedral window and a large, roofed patio are among the unique features of this contemporary design by Rudolph A. Matern. The window, located in the living room, dominates the whole house. It gives a pervasive feeling of spaciousness and luxury. The living room occupies a separate wing, for gracious entertaining. It has the added charm of a wood-burning fireplace and an open-beam ceiling. The work and sleeping areas are set apart for quiet and privacy. The bedrooms can be entered from the front entrance without crossing the living room. One room opens directly off the foyer, and can be used as a den, play room, or family room. The kitchen's "L" shaped work area saves time and steps. There is a breakfast nook and a separate lavatory. The lavatory serves not only the kitchen, but the basement and outdoors, important

ARRESTED IN ONG ISLAND STRIKE -- A striker is hustled away to waiting police car after repeated battles between non-strikers, police and strikers at the Farmington, Long Island, plant of the Republic Aviation Corporation. Local players get berths on district teams

Tulla in the boys' division and Dimmitt in the girls' class carried away all-District 2-AA basketball honors, executive committee members of the district announced.

Tulla's district champion Hornets captured first-place in the vis County Club.

His tee shot on No. 7 flew the 165 yards, entered the hole on the fly, and stayed there. Such fellows as Houston Hart, Malone reminds his listeners, have made two holes in one in recent years, but Hart had to roll the ball in. Malone says to hit that little hole with a little golf ball from a distance of 165 yards is some shooting!

Witnessing the affair were Sam Fox, Pat Bobo, Dr. T. M. Stemons, and Fred Johnson. They had to sign his card attesting the fact. Malone was using a Dunlop ball; it'll be mounted up by the company for a permanent memento.

conference and placed Douglas O'Daniel and Jeff Carlisle on the team.

Dimmitt's Bobbies, a perennial girls' powerhouse, placed three of the first six on the girls' all-district sextet. They are Shirley DeLozier, Betty McDermitt and Dovie Smithson.

Other members of the first-team boys' selected were Teddy Estes of Olton, Don Mobley of Dimmitt and Eddie Witt of Muleshoe.

Making the second-team all-district were James Durham of Littlefield, Dennis Love of Tulla, Clyde Rhodes of Olton, Jimmy Cole of Dimmitt and Charles Jennings of Muleshoe.

Other girls on the first-team were Fern Ramsey and Pat Bradley of Tulla and Betty Sides of Olton.

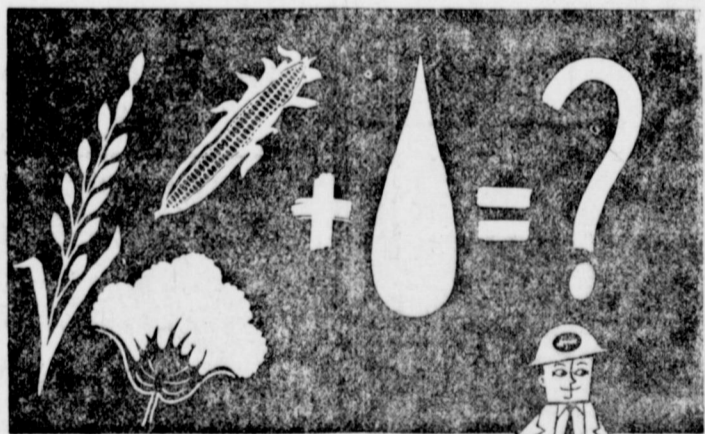

Placing on the girls' second-team were Wilma O'Daniel and Betty Watts of Tulla, Patsy Tickler of Littlefield, Mary Alley of Dimmitt, Norita Harrison, of Muleshoe and Betty Daniel of Olton.
