

SCOOP SEZ

By J. M. Forbes

Millions have read and thrilled to Jules Verne's imaginative science fiction opus of an early day, "10,000 Leagues Under the Sea."

Daring as was his conception of things to come, did he live in this age of atomic power, television, aerocars, wireless communication, and now of a man made moon encircling the earth and ejaculating, it is claimed, "Beep, Beep" in Russian; had he lived in this age daring Jules couldn't have found the postoffice.

Where were you when the news went around the world that the Communists had launched the first earth satellite? I was trying to keep Hale Center from scoring another touchdown and to get ahead of our marvelous Mules, and kind of listening to one of Lee Pool's long stories.

As I came into the house, there was a loud and repeated sounding of the telephone bell. My caller seemed to be about as mad as a man could get because the Communists had done the trick before we could.

But I told him it was another instance of the unsure handling of things by the dern Republican party, but that didn't appease his wrath much. For a time it appeared that he blamed this writer for the U. S. delay in getting the first satellite into the air.

If it is any consolation, I can report that the Army felt what takes to put a satellite into the air in short order. The Pentagon's former guided missile "Car" says that missiles in a crucial period took priority over satellites.

But why don't we, for once, concede that feat, regardless of whom performed, may mean more in the direction of man's conquest of the universe than it may imply in man's dominance of other men?

In his news conference yesterday, President Eisenhower himself emphasized the non-military nature of the Russian launching of a satellite. To some it indicated that the Soviet claim of an intercontinental ballistic missile had been substantiated. There is very little evidence that the Russians have an accurate ICBM, and even if they have, they probably have no stockpile.

We are not about to get took by the Reds. Pretty much, we can go on back to worrying about collecting about the poor price for sudan and milo about how to pay bills and stay solvent.

GOVERNMENT LOAN SET AT $1.76 IN COUNTY

Special Distress Price Support Loan Set For Bumper Grain Sorghum Crop

A special distress price support loan, aimed at stabilizing the market on this year's bumper sorghum crop was approved late last week by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Rep. George Mahon of the 19th District has announced. Simultaneously the department announced a three cent per hundred weight increase in the regular government support price for grain sorghums, making the loan stand at $1.76 per hundred in Bailey county.

The distress loan will provide milo producers with a special loan equal to 80 per cent of the regular loan price. It is designed to aid producers who are unable to take advantage of the regular loan by reason of the lack of storage facilities. The producer would have 90 days or not later than March 31, 1958, to locate storage and convert his distress loan into a regular loan.

"In a general way," Mahon said, "the special distress loan will operate like this: 'The producer, if he cannot get a regular loan on his grain sorghum by reason of unavailability of storage space, he can apply for a special distress loan. This loan would be on a recourse basis at 80 per cent of the regular county rate. Producers would be given 90 days, but not later than March 31, 1958, to arrange for adequate storage on the farm or in commercial elevators.

"The producer will be responsible for payment of the distress loan in full if he does not locate acceptable storage space in the specified time. Any loss in the quantity or quality of the grain must be assumed by the producer."

"The distress loan is necessary," Mahon added, because of the extra heavy milo production, limitation of elevator capacity and the critical shortage of boxcars to transport the milo to available storage.

Bailey county grain sorghum production is reliably estimated to be in excess of 357 million pounds this fall. This converts roughly into 5,950,000 bushel of grain.

Local storage capacity in Muleshoe is in excess of 2,800,000 bushel of grain. This figure cannot be accepted as the amount of available storage however, as some elevators are still carrying grain from last season, while others have been able to empty out in preparation for the current crop.

Mahon said it is his hope that the distress loan will tend to stabilize the marketing of the milo crop. He said he hoped the new program would not have to be used in a very big way as it has certain disadvantages and is primarily meant as an aid to a more orderly disposition of the crop.

Inch Rain Halts Grain Harvest

Area harvesting of grain sorghum was brought to a halt Monday by slow rains which began Sunday and brought an estimated one inch of moisture to the area.

Grain men said they anticipated the harvest would resume in full force by mid-week if the weather, which cleared off Monday morning, stayed clear.

An extra large crop of milo is almost a certainty with the early estimate of Bailey county production ranging as high as 5,950,000 bushel.

Area elevators are already filling up, and some are beginning to dump grain on the ground after tanks are full.

A critical shortage of boxcars could develop locally, depending largely on the weather, Santa Fe agent H. O. Barbour said Monday. Mr. Barbour told The Journal that at present the local office is receiving about 75 percent of its requirements, and a wet spell could slow harvest down enough to allow the railroad to obtain a backlog of cars. However, he pointed out, if the weather remains clear and hot, it is likely that a shortage of cars will develop.

County Cotton Production Estimate Increased To 75,000 Bales For 1957

Bailey county cotton production estimate has been upped 5,000 bales for a new estimate of 75,000 bales, according to a report issued this week by the Lubbock Cotton Exchange and the Plains Cotton Growers.

The Bailey county crop was estimated last month at 70,000 bales. Total production for the 23 Member counties of the Plains Cotton Growers has been upped from 1,688,000 to 1,713,000 bales.

Only one other county estimate was increased as much as Bailey, that being Dickens county which was increased by 14,000 bales.

While the crop estimate has been boosted some, most agricultural observers admit that dryland cotton has suffered for moisture in some counties and the yield reduced.

Ginning is underway in most counties with the bulk from dryland and early irrigated fields. More warm weather is needed for maturity. An early frost is still the top danger feared.

Ginning in Bailey county is about four weeks behind the 1956 crop. Last year the second week in October showed almost 5,000 bales ginned. This week less than 1,000 bales reach gins in the county.

Contributions For Lighting Program Continue To Climb

The holiday lighting committee of the Retail Trades group from the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce reports this week that a significant amount of money needed for the Christmas lighting program has been received in response to letters mailed out last week.

Although the contributions received so far are not nearly enough to carry out the program, members of the committee did say they felt that there is considerable interest among local merchants both on main street and the highway in the project.

The committee was set up to secure participation in a program to light the downtown area and the highway approaches to town for the Christmas shopping season. The program was outlined on a basis of each participating merchant contributing 75 cents per front foot per year for a three year period.

Members of the committee met this week and laid plans to contact merchants for further participation.

Judge Tells Lions Children Not Bad, Just Make Mistakes

Affirming his faith in the younger generation, County Judge Glen Williams told members of the Lions Club Wednesday that juvenile delinquency is on the decrease in Bailey county and in most western counties in Texas.

Judge Williams said his experience as county juvenile court judge has led him to believe that there are no bad children, only children who make mistakes. He pointed out that counselling with children who have done wrong, and with their parents and teachers, has many times set a child back on the right path.

To bear out his contention, Judge Williams said that within one year in this county there were 142 convictions of adults in criminal courts. During that same period only 60 juveniles were brought before him, and of this number, only three were filed on.

Travis Reed introduced the speaker.

City Regulates Extension Lines In New Ordinance

An ordinance regulating the extension of water and sewer facilities both within and outside the city limits, was passed in special session of the Muleshoe City Council Wednesday afternoon.

The ordinance provides that the city will furnish up to 100 feet of water and sewer lines to new residences without cost, but that additional lines must be paid for by the developer and the cost is to be paid back to him over a period of time. City funds, when available, will be used to pay for the first 100 feet by the city.

The Council also adopted an ordinance voting into the city limits blocks 7, 6, 5 and parts of 2 and 3 of Morrison Addition No. 2. This property is to be used for construction of a colored school.

The site of the present school has been sold to a gin, and improved school facilities are to be constructed on the site in the Morrison addition.

Announce Plans For Building At Colored School

School officials announced this week that the colored school will be moved from its present site near the Paymaster Gin to an area across the thway, and out of danger of fire from the gin.

Officials said that due to the noise during ginning season and the fire hazard, the school board has purchased lot 7, Morrison Addition No. 2, as a site for the colored school.

The old so-called Baileyboro building will be moved from the campus of Mary DeShazo school and be used as the main building of the colored school.

Additional room and needed facilities will be supplied in this move, school officials report.

No Flu Epidemic In Muleshoe, Reports School, Hospital

No epidemic proportions of influenza, either Asian or common American, are reported in the Muleshoe area, a survey conducted at midweek reveals.

Both school and hospital officials report there are a few more than the usual number of cases of bad colds and flu, but neither believe the number great enough to be termed epidemic.

School officials said Tuesday that despite a 26 percent absentee report Monday, all but a few of the pupils were back at their desks Tuesday morning. Coughs and colds are prevalent, but there are few cases of actual illness.

West Plains Hospital personnel said they had several flu cases, but very few more than are normal for this season.

Meanwhile, in south Texas, flu epidemics have been reported from a number of communities, and as close as Lubbock and Denver City, schools have reported high absenteeism due to influenza.

Amendment Support Urged To Provide Funds For Water Control

LEE POOL

Lee R. Pool, of Muleshoe, a member of the governor's 100 man Texas Water Planning Committee, in a talk before the Rotary Club Tuesday urged support of the proposed constitutional amendment to be voted upon Nov. 3 and known as H. J. R. No. 3.

The amendment, and its enabling legislation known as House Bill 161, would authorize the issuance of $200 million in bonds by the State of Texas to provide assistance in local development of water resources.

Pool reviewed the drought conditions that have played havoc with Texas farming, ranching, municipal growth and industrial development during the last nine years.

He said that in a time of great drought, heavy rains have come, doing in most cases little good, and the surplus water they left has been allowed to speed downstate, where the water not only did little good but actually brought death and property destruction. Water control upstream would have brought benefit to the area where the water fell and would have prevented destruction and loss of life downstream.

The amendment to be voted upon Nov. 3 is broadly written, giving the Legislature considerable leeway in developing and controlling the program. It would establish the Texas Water Development Board, which would be authorized to raise money by the sale of State Water Development Bonds, and to loan this money to municipalities and other government subdivisions for their use "in the conservation and development of the water resources of this State."

Pool pointed out that this is not a "handout" program. Borrowing government units would repay the loans plus interest. It is expected that repayments would largely come out of revenues generated by the projects constructed with the loan.

It is possible, thinks Mr. Pool, that districts may be formed on the Plains to lend money for recharging surplus wells in wet weather lakes. Until now most of this work has been financed by the farm owner, although it benefits the entire community.

He said that to support the water control and development amendment would cost local citizens nothing but it might be the means of providing a way whereby some other municipal or district could finance a needed project.

Summarizing, Mr. Pool said the proposed amendment for water development and its enabling act merit the support of the people because:

1. The program is self-supporting and self-liquidating.

2. It will gratify a pressing need and enable political subdivisions to finance their own water projects.

3. It will not disturb or affect vested rights in either surface or ground waters.

4. The proposal has the potential of developing over $600 in water conservation storage projects in Texas.

GAME BIRDS RAISED ELECTRICALLY IMPROVES NATURE'S METHOD

Quail raised electrically live better and longer under the guiding hand of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Thomas of Grassland, Texas.

Whether for a succulent meal or the wary hunter prey, the Bobwhites produced at the Thomas farm get off to a flying start aided by two electric incubators and several dozen heat lamps.

The two incubators have a combined capacity of 4600 eggs. Accurate temperature and humidity control delivers an 87% hatch.

The chicks are de-beaked with an electric bill burner at one day old. Otherwise, says Mr. Thomas, "One of the little fellows will grab another by the toe and drag him across the pen like a bulldog."

Heat lamps mother the little birds for the first two weeks with less than a 1% death loss. Then they are moved into wire floored brooding cages, and heat lamps are used to ward off the night chill.

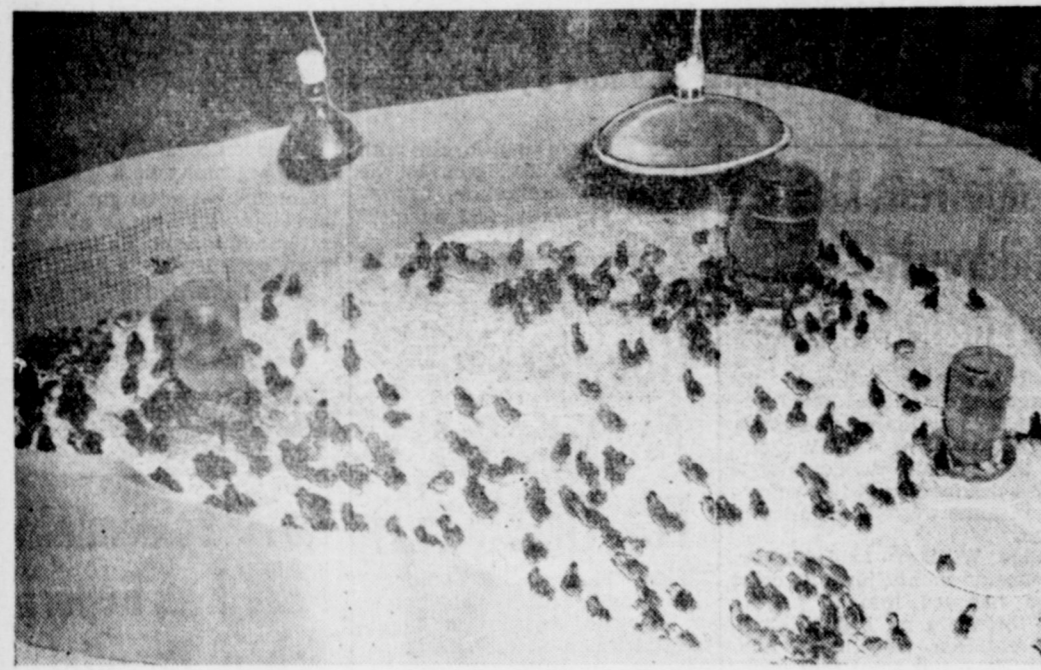

Their brood stock consists of 300 pair of Bobwhites plus 20 pair of Japanese or Cornish quail. They are housed in long cages with partitions to isolate each pair. A line of electric lamps suspended above each cage are controlled by an electric timer to insure the birds a 14 hour working day.

A black plastic pipe in which holes have been cut on the top side furnish water to each pair of quail in the laying flock. (The cages are outdoors.) Winter freeze-up is overcome by a thermostatically controlled heating cable inserted in the pipe.

The Thomas's market hatching eggs, day-old chicks or started birds and there is a demand for all they can produce.

A bird under a heat lamp has about an 80% better chance of growing to maturity than has his wild brother in the brush. These quail are just a little larger than a man's thumb.

PLATTER CHATTER

by David Shepherd

This was one of those rare weeks when several top recording artists put out several outstanding discs in the same week. Such popular crooners as Elvis Presley, the Dell Vikings, Paul Anka, Perry Como, Tommy Sands, Georgia Gibbs, Roger Williams and Billy Williams, had new records released this past week.

The DELL-VIKINGS have caused quite an uproar in the recording business by appearing on two separate labels. The original group was employed on the Dot label. They recorded "Whispering Bells", "Come Go With Me", and "Little Billy Boy". Fear of the group went to Mercury, but Kipp Johnson remained with Dot and formed a new group. So there are actually two separate groups recording under the same name.

A song which you can bet will be on the HP in a few weeks is "Silhouettes" a song originally recorded by The Rays and now being picked up by The Diamonds and Steve Gibson.

Another newcomer to the charts is Johnny Mathis, a college soph, whose hits of "Wonderful, Wonderful", and "It's Not For Me To Say", are being pushed out of sight by his latest two sided smash, "Chances Are", and "The Twelfth of Never".

Y. L. NEWS

By Roscoe Trostle

The Y. L. Methodist Church had a wonderful time at their family night program Wednesday night.

Sixty-four were present to enjoy the wonderful supper and nice program.

The program consisted of two violin numbers by Mrs. Arthur Ryan and a talk by Gil Lamb. Everyone in the community and friends are invited to attend these family night get-togethers every first Wednesday night. Plenty of food and fellowship.

The Y. L. Methodist ladies met in their WSCS social at Mrs. Arthur Ryans last Wednesday afternoon. They reported a delightful time with plenty of fun and fellowship.

Every woman of the church is automatically a member of this group and should be meeting with them and getting the benefit and enjoyment.

Rev. Luther Kirk, the District Superintendent, of Plainview will preach at Y. L. Sunday morning and hold the first quarterly conference at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. There will be luncheon at the church.

Mules Make It 4-1 With 12-7 Win Over Owls

Coach Wayne Mantooth's Muleshoe Mules struck for two touchdowns in the first half and, despite fumbles in the second half, managed to stall against Hale Center quarterback Jerry McMennamy's accurate passing, to squeeze out a 12-7 victory over the Owls before 2,000 fans here Friday night.

Most outstanding play of the game came during the second quarter when sophomore halfback Donnie Shafer, on the first play after a Hale Center punt, took a handoff and romped 61 yards down the left sideline for the Mules' second score. It was Shafer's first carry in the ball game.

Muleshoe's first touchdown came on the last play of the first period when halfback Lee Roy Corralez plunged 1 yard to cap a 45-yard march.

The Owls only tally came when McMennamy went over on a quarterback sneak. The TD was set up by McMennamy's fine passing after the Owls had recovered a Mule fumble on the 43-yard line.

McMennamy passed for 37 of 57 yards on the touchdown drive. Halfback Bill Jackson converted.

It was the last non-conference game for both squads and left Mules with a 4-1 record and Hale Center still trying for its first win against four losses.

Both elevens suffered from fumbles in the second half with the ball being exchanged several times before Hale Center scored in the final period.

Bula In District Win Over Smyer

The Bula Bulldogs humbled the Smyer Bobcats 44-6 in a District 5-B six-man contest at Smyer Friday night, before about 600 fans, with Bula backs Norvell Roberts and Don McCord doing most of the damage to Smyer's hopes.

Roberts tallied once each in the first and third quarters, while McCord scored a touchdown and an extra point in the first frame and two TD's in the second. Others scoring for Bula were back Jessie Bogard, with a touchdown and an extra point in the third quarter, and end John Pool, who grabbed a six-pointer in the last period.

Back Harold Ryman's 20-yard run brought Smyer its only score late in the third quarter.

Injuries Plague Mules In Week Off Before Olton

This week saw several Mules who have been team mainstays, sidelined with injuries.

Defensive linebacker Edgar Martin suffered possibly the worst injury when he acquired a slight concussion last week. Doyce Turner, senior guard, suffered a severe ankle bruise which he has yet to work out. Leading scorer and senior fullback Bill Black suffered a stretched cartilage Tuesday and isn't working out, but probably will be able to play in the district opener October 18.

Several other players have wrapped up ankles and knees, but will be in good shape within a week.

FRIDAY RESULTS

Crosbyton 45 — Springlake 0.
Dalhart 26 — Tucumcari 25.

Social Security Representative Here October 17

Now would be a good time for some West Plains farm and ranch operators in the area served by the Lubbock Social Security office to take a long look at their earning prospects for 1957, according to John G. Hutton, district manager of the Social Security Administration.

The particular farmers referred to are those who have filed claims for social security payments and were under age 72 on January 1, 1957. Some of these persons have had their checks suspended, while others have had them arriving each month, depending on how much they estimated their 1957 earnings to be. Rain—too much or too little—and other workings of nature may have caused their original estimates to be too high or too low. As a result, some of these persons who have had no checks this year could now get them, and others who have been receiving their checks should have them stopped.

This comes about, stated Hutton, because of the earnings restriction for beneficiaries not yet 72. If net earnings for the year are $1200 or less, the claimant can collect all twelve retirement checks from Social Security for that year. If net earnings are between $1200 and $2080.01, some benefits may be payable for the year. If earnings are expected to exceed $2080, generally no social security checks would be payable for that year since such persons are not considered "retired" within the meaning of the Social Security Act.

Persons living at considerable distance from Lubbock, are reminded that Social Security representatives visit all counties, following a schedule which is available at your local post office. A representative will be in Muleshoe at the courthouse on October 17, at 9:30 a. m., and will be glad to assist in all matters pertaining to Social Security.

With the advent of the new standard-setting Texas Egg law and accompanying changes in egg marketing, farmers with laying flocks might do well to look at some of the latest trends in producing and selling eggs, however far-fetched they may seem at the present.

Latest developments in poultry science tell us, for instance, that laying hens may pay greater dividends when fed rations which are fortified with some of the new tranquilizing drugs.

It is believed that tranquilizers may be of special help in hot summer months by bringing birds through hot weather without a serious drop in laying and by lowering hot weather death losses.

Promising studies are also underway to determine if shell and interior egg quality which drops off during hot weather may be improved by tranquilizers.

If a suitable and inexpensive type drug is found—and there is some promise that a heretofore unused tranquilizer by-product may work out—feed manufacturers may be spinning summer rations with helpful "happiness" drugs to help overcome hot weather difficulties.

Something else worth looking into is the spreading use of automatic coin-type vending machines to sell eggs.

These refrigerated road-side wonders are solving the marketing problem for a number of producers in various states, including Colorado, Alabama, Missouri, New York and California, to name a few.

All a farmer needs to sell his eggs mechanically is the machine, a good location, such as a shopping center, a service station, or just a busy roadside, and some good quality eggs. He's more apt to maintain a stable market with less down price variation and the difference in marketing at the retail level could pay for the machine in a few months.

One New York firm makes an egg vendor which handles two different grades and seasons—the eggs cool in summer and warm in winter, selling for $1.495 F. O. B. the factory. A special shelter that fits over the machine costs an extra $150.

With savings in time, money and trouble, this type of automation may be just what the egg producer needs.

Brighter Outlook For Egg Producers

Decreased production and the purchase of fewer replacements for next year has resulted in a brighter outlook for egg producers.

The number of chickens raised on Texas farms in 1957 is about one-fourth less than in 1956. During the first six months of 1957, production of egg-type chicks from commercial hatcheries in Texas was also about one-fourth less than that during the same period last year. Many farmers who raised chickens last year are raising none this year. The decrease is greater among the small flocks.

The laying flock on farms on January 1, 1958 in the U. S. is expected to be 6 to 8 per cent smaller than a year earlier. During the first six months of 1957, egg prices averaged 22 per cent below the same period in 1956 and farmers bought 19 per cent fewer flock replacement chicks.

Recently, egg prices have shown some improvement and will probably continue to do so into 1958, because potential layers (hens and pullets of laying age) plus pullets not of laying age) on farms, August 1, 1957, were 7 per cent below a year earlier and 17 per cent below the average.

Egg production during the last three months of this year will probably fall below the same period in 1956, and we will enter 1958 with fewer layers on farms. Because of these trends, egg prices in the last three months of 1957 will likely be above those of 1956 at the same time; and prices during the first four months of 1958 should be better than for the same period in 1957.

With savings in time, money and trouble, this type of automation may be just what the egg producer needs.

Inspection For Poultry Seen In Near Future

All poultry and poultry products moving in interstate commerce will be inspected for wholesomeness by January 1, 1959 under the recently enacted Poultry Product Inspection Act.

The act becomes partially effective on January 1, 1958, when plants approved by the U. S. Department of Agriculture may be provided the service. Currently, it is estimated that approximately 50 per cent of such poultry is now being inspected for wholesomeness under the voluntary inspection program provided by the USDA on a fee basis.

Gradual application of mandatory inspection requirements between January 1, 1958, and January 1, 1959, has been provided to permit plant owners reasonable time to make any plant alterations which may be necessary to meet facility standards required by USDA regulations. By January 1, 1959, all plants shipping poultry in interstate commerce must be approved and the poultry products processed therein be subject to inspection, unless otherwise exempt.

Commenting on the enactment of this legislation, which was signed by the President August 28, Sec. Benson said: "The passage and approval of the Poultry Products Inspection Act marks another milestone in the tremendous progress which has occurred in the poultry industry in this decade. Its passage likewise reflects the continued progress this nation is making in assuring the consuming public wholesome and nutritious food on an ever-expanding scale."

Once in full application, poultry products subject to the Act will receive inspection for wholesomeness comparable to that which has been in effect for red meats since 1907 when the Meat Inspection Act was passed.

Inquiries regarding the program should be directed to the Director of the Poultry Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA, concludes the specialist.

New White Seeded Hybrid Sorghums Developed At A&M

A white-seeded sorghum hybrid, showing a very favorable performance when compared with the other hybrids, has been developed by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Seed will be available in limited quantity for the 1958 crop.

This new hybrid, RS 630, is the first white-seeded hybrid released by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. In 25 tests in line states, it yielded 67 bushels per acre—higher than any of the other hybrids tested. It is a medium-early grain sorghum hybrid that matures in 90 to 100 days after planting. The head is well above the upper leaf and dries readily, thereby permitting harvesting soon after the grain is mature.

A recently released leaflet, L-362, gives detailed information on this new hybrid. It contains sections on parentage, yield record, production of certified seed and gives a complete description. This leaflet may be obtained from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

The Soviet Union is now manufacturing an auto called the "Zil," replacing the old "Zis." The "Z" in Zis stood for Stalin, while the "Zil" means "plant named for."

Babson Discusses THE CENTRAL WEST'S OPPORTUNITY

Babson Park, Mass., Oct. 10 — Some day our great Central West will blossom like a rose. That is why it is called the "Magic Circle". This includes the six states of Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri, Oklahoma, and Arkansas, which have a total area of about 400,000 square miles.

WHY CALLED THE MAGIC CIRCLE?
Because the area has the potential of being the breadbasket of the entire United States. It has good soil, much sunshine, and, in some years, plenty of rain. Unfortunately, however, it has very dry periods for some years, and then a deluge which takes away good topsoil and does other harm.

This lack of regulated water holds back agriculture, handicaps industry, and makes retail trade very fluctuating. There is much talk of some form of Federal insurance to offset the very dry periods, but such insurance is wholly unnecessary. Moreover, "rainmaking" by chemicals is only "robbing Peter to pay Paul".

WHERE THE WATER WILL COME FROM
The western part of Canada is blessed with heavy rainfall. This rainfall collects in four lakes: Great Bear Lake, Great Silver Lake, Lake Athabaska, and Lake Winnipeg. These are part of a tremendous system carrying this fresh water into the Arctic Ocean. Here the water is not only wasted, but dangerous fogs are created which affect ocean navigation and the climate of various regions.

Some day an artificial river will be constructed from these lakes, across the Canadian line southerly to the center of the United States. This "Center" will be near Greenwood County, of which Eureka, Kansas, is the hub. From Eureka, canals will radiate in different directions to provide water for all sections of the Magic Circle.

MY PERSONAL INVESTMENTS
I am interested in the woodlands of New Hampshire; in lakefront land in Florida; and, of course, in land in Wellesley, Mass.; but the only pasture land which interests me is in the Magic Circle. I have bought such land because I believe that some day an artificial river will be constructed.

ed to utilize this run-off water by sending it southerly to the Magic Circle instead of letting it be wasted in the Arctic Circle. These 400,000 square miles will be glad to pay Canada for this water, which is now no use to Canada.

Plans should immediately be made and negotiations started. We should not wait until we are in dire need of the food from the nation's breadbasket. Those who own land which will some day be irrigated by these Canadian waters should retain their land and perhaps buy more. A Federal Authority will someday be organized to build the new river, the bonds of which should easily be paid off by "tolls" on the increased crops. Today we have a surplus of certain crops which we are storing; but this situation will soon change because of population growth and export demand.

WORK OF JOHN W. FOWLER, JR.

Really, my friend Mr. Fowler of Homewood, Alabama, deserves the credit for this idea although it is only a portion of his broad plan. He believes that as soon as the Government completes its proposed national highways and toll roads for automobiles, it will immediately start on a similar program for water. Mr. Fowler believes that there will be three North and South "toll" rivers built: One along the east side of the Rockies, starting from Fort Peck and following the Rocky Mountains, giving sufficient water supply to Southern California, Arizona and New Mexico. A second further east would feed the Magic Circle by gravity and would start from an elevation of 2,000 feet; while the third would change the flow of the Great Lakes so that instead of this fresh water running off through the St. Lawrence into the Atlantic Ocean and being wasted, it would flow westerly and be distributed where needed.

These possibilities are clearly shown on the Great Relief Map of the United States (sixty-five feet by forty-five feet) and the World's Largest Revolving Globe (about thirty feet in diameter, weighing over 20 tons), both of which may be seen at Babson Park, Mass.

THIS WEEK

-In Washington

With Clinton Davidson

Washington is getting set for another whirl on the inflation merry-go-round, and dreading the ride.

For fifteen years now we have had officially-approved creeping inflation. Your dollar will buy only half as much now as it did in pre-World War II 1940. In the past year it has decreased by about 50 in value.

Inflation, if it does not move too fast, can easily be mistaken for growing prosperity. It encourages people to invest their money, with hopes of getting more dollars because of it. It is like a little fire that warms the economy, and a big fire that destroys.

To those of us who lived through boom and bust period of the late 1920s and early 1930s, inflation is an awesome and fearful thing. We know it can destroy men and bring a nation to its knees.

From World War I to 1929 we saw inflation and called it prosperity. We learned then that inflation is the destroyer of prosperity, not its promoter. We ought to remember that now.

President Eisenhower's warning that inflation is an immediate threat to the national welfare was based on confidential reports by both government and private economists and financiers.

We have talked with some of the same experts. None of them think rapid inflation is inevitable, and only a few think it is probable. All think it is avoidable, but they don't agree on how.

Mr. Eisenhower thinks it can be avoided, or at least slowed down, if you and I stop buying things we don't have to have when the price gets too high; if labor will ease up on demands for higher wages, and industry will hold down on profits.

Those are three mighty big "ifs." When prices are going up people tend to buy before they go higher. Labor leaders say that living costs are rising and wages must go up to keep pace. Industry complains that higher wages force higher prices.

It is a vicious circle that no one seems able, or willing, to break. The difficulty is that none of us know just where the "breaking point" is between inflation and depression. What point under inflationary pressures will the economy snap?

The signs that most of us see all point toward continued prosperity. There is no indication of scarcity. Industrial production is at an all-time high. We have an abundance of foods and fibers.

National income in both dollars and consumers goods and services is at an all-time high. Employment is at a record high of almost 67 million, and unemployment at a remarkably low 2.5 million.

We are, as a nation, living higher on the hog than ever before. We are buying more homes, automobiles, television sets, other conveniences and luxuries than ever before—much of it on the installment plan.

Already we have ventured far beyond the point at which our economy collapsed in 1929. We know that there is a "breaking point" in any inflationary boom, but we don't know where it is.

TODAY'S MEDITATION

WE PRAY FOR PEACE

Be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. (Romans 12:2.)
Read Romans 12:1-9.

Seated opposite me in a railway carriage was a selector of a team for international sports. With much hesitation I asked, "Why did you choose so and so?" His answer was, "Because he is a team man." He meant that whatever the captain ordered, the player obeyed, whether it was his style of play or not. He played for the captain and the team.

Many of us are self-centered, with an exalted opinion of our judgement and wisdom. The result is that we play as individuals rather than as members of a team. E. Stanley Jones tells of a cartoon of a sick-looking world with a doctor holding its pulse. The doctor shakes his head and says, "You are in a bad way. You are allergic to yourself."

Our self-centeredness can be changed when we accept God in our hearts and allow His power to transform us. Then we become "able to make out what the will of God is, namely, what is good and acceptable to him and perfect."

PRAYER

O Lord, forgive me if through vanity and selfishness I do

Sandhill Philosopher Unable To Help Town Friend Decide What Goes On Reckless Spending List

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm wants us to compile a list for him, his letter this week reveals, but we're pretty busy right now.

Dear editor:
A friend of mine from town was out here on my farm yesterday afternoon telling me about his troubles.

According to him, he has been trying to convince his family President Eisenhower is right when he says reckless spending is helping cause inflation, and he called a family conference to go over the situation.

He claims everybody in his family agrees with him, reckless spending ought to be cut out, this inflationary spiral can't keep going up forever, President Eisenhower is absolutely right, and every family ought to pitch in and help.

But it's when he gets down to individual cases he runs into trouble.

For example, his teen-age daughter says reckless spending ought to stop, but not until after she's gotten a formal evening dress, and besides, Mrs. Eisenhower wears evening dresses frequently and she knows Mr. Eisenhower doesn't include that on his list of reckless spending items.

His 10-year-old son says he's opposed to reckless spending too, but buying a football suit, with a helmet and shoulder pads, is not reckless, on the contrary, it's reckless to play without one. Claims he saw a picture of Ike's grandson wearing exactly the kind of football suit he has in mind.

His wife says reckless spending ought to be stopped, but if she doesn't get a new kitchen range, the one she's got may blow up any time.

And the man himself said if he didn't get a new set of tires on his car, further driving is gonna be mighty reckless.

He says what he wants is a list of items from President Eisenhower classifying the things that constitutes reckless spending, but I told him this country is depending too much as it is on Washington and the only solution is to work things out for himself. He said he could work his problem out, if he could only find an inflationary bank that's making reckless loans.

Personally I can't help him out myself. I've got more problems out here now than I can handle, but I've got an idea: why don't you sit down and figure out a list of all the items that constitute reckless spending and publish it in your paper?

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" will be the subject of the Lesson - Sermon at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Reading from the King James Version of the Bible will include the following from Psalms (67:1-2): "God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us: that thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following selections will also be read (206:26-28, 30): "Instead of God sending sickness and death, He destroys them, and brings to light immortality. . . God does not cause man to sin, to be sick or to die."

The Golden Text is from Proverbs (12:28): "In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death."

not obey Thy will and so hinder the coming of Thy kingdom. This I ask in the spirit of the Master, who taught us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven. . . Amen."

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

I pray that Christ, not I, may be seen and heard through me.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS

From The Bible
... and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.— (St. John 6, 37.)

Sometimes, for reasons that we vainly try to justify, we look upon another human being with distaste or contempt. Then we should remember the abounding compassion of the Lord Jesus Christ, and humbly pray for His forgiveness.

Rediscover America
COLUMBUS DAY - 1957

Yes, it's time to rediscover America — the land of freedom, opportunity and progress. Time, too, to discover that freedom, opportunity and progress have many enemies — right here in our own country. Enemies who say the government should be in business, should provide our medical care, should control the education of our children. Rediscover America — and the American Way of Life — before socialism traps you and your children.

Second Annual School Fair Held October 4

by Mrs. Clyde Monk
The second annual school fair was held Friday, October 4, in the agriculture building on the school campus. This annual fair has become a leading attraction to the people of the Lazbuddie community. Colorful displays of the leading crops, vegetables, livestock, needlework, cakes and pastries were entered by FFA, FHA, 4-H Club members and other students of the school.

P-TA Votes To Push Sales Tax Program

The Lazbuddie P-TA met Monday evening in the high school auditorium with the president, Mrs. John Agee in charge. Decision was made to use the allocated money for high school use on a time clock for use in the hall games and a portion on the library with an equal amount to be used in repairing the machine for an audio-visual program. Mr. Hinkson brought up the subject of a state sales tax as a future means of caring for our schools. The P-TA voted to go on record as approving this the most fair tax to all people and the kind of tax that all people would be able to participate in. This type of tax would allow all people to help with the school expense and not be left to only those that are already paying taxes. Mr. Hinkson was appointed to select a committee to work with him to study the pros and cons on the subject and help get the publicity started that this tax might be put into effect and that it be used for public school purposes only.

It was decided to dispense with the Halloween carnival this year. The first grade rhythm band, under the direction of Mrs. Friesen, presented a program. Following this part of the program, the children were all taken to the lunch room for supervised play under the direction of Rosemary Agee and Freda White.

A panel discussion consisting of two teachers, Mr. Friesen and Mrs. Cooper and two parents, Mrs. Dee Brown and E. T. Ford on the subject of the "Relations between the parents and teachers". This was a lively discussion with the audience taking part and many ideas brought out that were a help to both teacher and parent.

BUMPER CROPS have been harvested this year in the Brazos River bottoms. Cotton and maize have done especially well. Spring floods left a layer of fine rich topsoil on the bottoms, and summer irrigation helped to finish off one of the farmers' best crop years in history. Completion of more dams on the Brazos River and its tributaries, according to the Brazos River Authority's master plan, can make this valley one of the nation's most productive garden spots year after year—with water supply in dry periods and flood protection when needed. The picture shows a worker irrigating tall cotton near Navasota.

Lazbuddie Longhorns will do their utmost to dehorn the Farwell Steers this Friday evening on the Farwell Field.

Injured In Farm Accident

Wayne Hardage was a patient in the Northwest Texas Hospital the first part of the week following a farm accident in which his foot was severely crushed. The boot on his foot was completely torn off by the shaft, also tearing all the flesh and muscle away from the bones with the muscle in the leg being badly damaged. He was resting comfortably the first part of the week.

Parmer County Farm Bureau News

Raymond Schueler and members of the PCFB weed committee, met with Farm Bureau directors last week to complete plans for placing county ownership maps in class rooms of FFA boys in the school in the county. The maps will be used by the boys in locating and marking the location of bindweed plots in each area. Most of the FFA instructors are already actively cooperating in this program, and it is expected they will soon. Mr. Black, of Lazbuddie schools presented the proposal and members of the committee accepted it gladly.

They agreed that if Farm Bureau could not pay for the maps, the committeemen would pay for them from their own pockets. Farm Bureau directors agreed to pay any difference in the cost and what the schools would contribute. It strikes us that this group of unpaid men are sincere in their intentions to serve agricultural interests of their area when they agree to pay for supplies they deem necessary, besides giving constantly of their time for necessary plans.

President Gilbert Kaltwasser, of Farm Bureau, reported that in a meeting of farm organizations and extension service, and other personnel last week, the ASC representatives and a certified seed growers expressed a desire to cooperate with the weed committee in 1958. They will be welcomed of course.

Jack Patterson was reelected as director of Parmer County Farm Bureau from the Rhea community in their annual meeting last Friday night. Walter Schueler was elected to serve as chairman of the Rhea Farm Bureau, and Raymond Martenson was elected as secretary and treasurer. Congratulations to these fine farmers.

If you didn't join Farm Bureau at the convention Monday night, join now. If your membership comes up for renewal in October please pay it soon. You are needed to insure seven delegates to vote in the state convention in Dallas in November.

CONSIDER THIS: When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory; but when the wicked rise, a man is hidden. —Proverbs 28:12.

Lazbuddie W. M. U.

The regular WMU monthly business meeting of the First Baptist Church, Lazbuddie, met October 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Redwine and children, Donna and Bobby, Geraldine Broadhurst and Mrs. Raymond Houston, report a wonderful trip to the New Mexico State Fair in Albuquerque over the weekend. They attended the rodeo on Saturday, and are now the envy of all the youngsters in the community, as the rodeo starred Roy Roges and his wife, Dale Evans. Mrs. Houston says the huge coliseum where the rodeo was held, held approximately 12,000 people and when the Lazbuddies arrived there was standing room only left.

Seriously automobile accidents are becoming one of the nations most deadly killers. The public rises up against a cold blooded killer, but when they read about a whole family being killed in an automobile accident, they just say too bad, and shrug it off. So until we, the public, wakes up and does something to eliminate these accidents you can call Pool Insurance Agency and at least be sure of your own coverage.

Enrollment Month Set In October By State P-TA
The Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, which welcomes newcomers throughout the year, will extend a special invitation in October, which, by tradition and proclamation of Governor Price Daniel, has been designated as Parent-Teacher Membership Enrollment Month.

Local units throughout the state, with a present membership of 607,344, will seek to recruit others to a program of concern for all that affects the happiness of the child in home, school and community.

Membership Enrollment Month in Texas is scheduled to coincide with the general observance of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers. Already the largest voluntary service organization in the world, the National Congress hopes to reach a membership of eleven million for the 1957-58 school year. State activities are being guided by Mrs. W. D. deGrassi of Amarillo, state president, and Mrs. L. P. Shafer of Tornillo, state membership chairman.

Figuratively knocking on every door with an invitation to membership, the Texas Congress will respond to the proclamation by Governor Daniel.

It is voluntary. A step by step process for making uninterrupted long term adjustments in land use, cropping systems and treatment of land. The plan may be summarized by telling what it is and what it is not with the following statements:

IT IS:
A long term program to promote land and water use thru a stepped up conservation program.

A program that provides opportunity for local farmer and rancher leadership in the betterment of conservation tools.

An added approach to enduring conservation based on land capacity.

Great Plains Conservation Program To Go Into Effect Here Next Month

The Great Plains Conservation Program, authorized by Public Law 1021, enacted August 7, 1956 is scheduled to go into its final phases of preparation this month, and the first contract is to be signed early in November.

The program is only part of the total GP agricultural plan envisioned by the Great Plains council, soil conservation districts and various other groups concerned with stabilizing agriculture in this area. The total program encompasses all farm and ranch problems of the Great Plains states, including soil and water conservation and related activities.

A program that permits need, flexibility in the use of cost sharing assistance.

IT IS NOT
The Great Plains Program. (It is only a part of the total program.)

A drought or disaster relief program.

A replacement for other programs.

An annual program.

A production adjustment program.

An income supplement program.

As soon as cost sharing rates and practices are set up by the county program committee this month, they will be published in The Journal, and also a story on signing of the first contract.

Members of the county program committee are: Jim Claunch, Clint Kennedy, Lans Brown, J. K. Adams, and the board of supervisors of the Blackwater Valley Conservation District.

Correct storage will increase the life of summer clothing. Here are some suggestions for keeping out-of-season clothing in good condition until next summer.

Mend any ripped seams, tears, loose buttons or other damages. A few stitches can lengthen the life of a garment.

Wash or dry clean all garments before storing.

Store cottons and linens unironed. Make certain all starch is removed. It can cause fabric to deteriorate and may attract silverfish.

Dry garments thoroughly and store in a dry place.

Store in large boxes or trunks to make room in closets for fall clothing.

Label boxes so garments can be easily located when wanted.

IS KITCHEN STORAGE ADEQUATE?
Do you need extra storage in your kitchen? If so you will like the ideas presented in a new extension service bulletin entitled "Kitchen Storage Devices You Can Make." The bulletin illustrates clearly, by sketches, so that an inexperienced home carpenter can follow through. Only simple tools are needed and many cabinet accessories can be made from wooden boxes, scrap lumber, or inexpensive soft wood.

Ideas for narrow shelves that fit between the counter top and upper cabinets are illustrated. Removable step-shelves and hanging shelves are also shown. Different types of cutlery racks, files for pans, sliding trays, towel racks, and drawer dividers also are pictured.

Get a copy of this new bulletin from the county home demonstration agent's office and make plans for improving your kitchen storage.

Since it is so near Halloween I have a strange feeling, that there will be some weird things taking place at some of the parties that are being planned.

CARE OF LEATHER ACCESSORIES
Leather accessories are expensive items in the clothing budget these days. Fall and winter costumes call for more leather belts, bags, gloves, and shoes.

Preserve the beauty and lengthen the life of leather articles by proper care. Shoes especially receive hard wear. An economical plan is to have two pairs for alternate daily wear, permitting each pair to rest or dry out between wearings. Perspiration weakens leather and causes shoes to crack and rip.

Use a good shoe cream frequently to protect the leather. Preserve the shape of your shoes by using shoe trees or paper pads in toes and heels.

On bags, belts and gloves, use cream or wax polishes to protect the leather and keep it pliable and soft.

To remove spots from leather clean with benzene or gasoline, air well and re-polish. Saddle soap can also be used to remove dirt and grease and will help to keep the leather soft and pliable.

Prevent cracking and preserve the finish on patent leather articles with vaseline. Use a cheese cloth pad to apply a light, even coating once or twice a month.

CARD OF THANKS
I wish to thank each of you for your prayers, visits, cards, and flowers during my stay in the hospital. I especially want to thank the girls in white and the "three musketeers", Dr. Birdsong, Dr. McDaniel, and Dr. Slemmons, for their kindness.

May God bless you each and everyone.

Aunt Martha's Salmon Loaf

Savory and satisfying—that's this piping hot salmon loaf. Bake it in an old-fashioned fish mold for a different looking loaf! It looks lovely decorated to resemble a fish. But cooked in a mold or a loaf pan, it's a perfectly seasoned salmon main dish made refreshing with lots of lemon juice.

SALMON LOAF

INGREDIENTS:
2/3 cup uncooked white rice
1 teaspoon salt
1 1/3 cups water
1 pound can of salmon
Evaporated milk
2 tablespoons grated onion
2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
3 tablespoons lemon juice
1 egg, beaten
1/4 teaspoon black pepper
3/4 cup chopped green pepper
1/2 cup water
1, 10 1/2 oz. can condensed cream of celery soup
METHOD: Put the rice, salt and 1 1/3 cups water in a 2-quart saucepan. Bring to a vigorous boil over a high heat. Turn the heat down low. Cover with a lid. Simmer over this low heat 14 minutes. Remove the saucepan from the heat but leave the lid on 10 minutes. Drain the juice from the salmon into a measuring cup. Add evaporated milk to make 1 1/3 cups liquid. Flake the salmon. Add the milk mixture, onion, pimiento, lemon juice, egg, black pepper and cooked rice. Mix well. Thoroughly grease a glass 9"x 5"x 2 1/2" loaf pan holding at least 5 cups with shortening or salad oil. Use a greased fish mold which may be placed in the oven, if desired. Pour in the salmon mixture. Place in a preheated 350°F. oven. Bake about 55 minutes or until a knife inserted in the center comes out almost clean. This is a moist loaf. The loaf will brown around the edges and pull away from the sides of the pan. While the loaf bakes, make the sauce. Cook the green pepper in the 1/2 cup water about 7 minutes or until tender. Stir in the celery soup. Season with salt and pepper if desired. Heat until very hot. Add a small amount of water until the sauce is the consistency desired. When the loaf is done, remove from the oven and allow to stand about 5 minutes. Run a knife around the sides. Place a large platter over the pan and invert. Remove the loaf pan. Garnish the loaf with pimiento strips, lemon wedges, hard-cooked egg slices or parsley. If a fish mold has been used, decorate with an olive slice for the eye and green pepper or pimiento strips for the fins. Serve with the hot celery-green pepper sauce. This recipe makes 8 to 10 servings.
