Commission Asks Bids On No. 9 Today 512 Farmers Receive Cotton Plow-Up Checks

EXPECT MORE CHECKS SOON

Farmers Have Received $148,415 To Date; Money Big Help To Lynn County

Emergency county agent Joe Williams, assisted by county judge W. E. Smith, was busy Tuesday and Wednesday sending out notices to farmers that their cotton checks had arrived and delivering the checks as they were called for. Check were received by Mr. Williams Tuesday morning, 152 in number, aggregating $44,407. This is an average of a little more than $292.00 for each recipient. Fifty-six other checks were received Wednesday morning, calling for a total of $16,977, averaging a little more than $303.00 each. This brings the total number of checks for Lynn county farmers received up to date to 512, and the amount of money they call for totals $148,415, more than one-fourth of the amount contracted for in this county. Already a decided impetus has been given to business as a result of the in-flow of this stream of currency.

Buchanan Hurt Between Trucks

N. W. Buchanan, truck driver, received terrible personal injuries Saturday morning when he was caught between his own truck and a state highway truck being driven by George Pulliam, the accident occurring on Main Street almost immediately in front of Larkin Weathers' Cash Store.

Buchanan was standing on the running board of a truck driven by his brother-in-law, Frank Akin, going north, when Pulliam began backing his truck, which had been parked at the curb. The rear of the highway truck caught Buchanan pinning him against the side of the truck on which he was riding. Several of the bones of the pelvis were fractured, including the sacrum, or a portion of the spine, and a terrible flesh wound was inflicted on the leg below the knee.

Buchanan was taken to the Lubbock Sanitarium for treatment and word from that institution is to the effect that he is doing as well as could be expected, though he will not be able to walk for at least six months and possibly a year, it is said.

The truck on which Buchanan was riding was moving slowly and possibly preparing to stop when the accident occurred. His wife and a child or two were inside the truck at the time. George Pulliam, 19, is the son of H. H. Pulliam, a state highway employee, and had been working for the department for some time.

Pace On State Textbook Board

Superintendent J. B. Pace will leave Saturday to attend the meetings of the state textbook board to be held in Austin next week. Mr. Pace is unable to say how long the board will be in session.

Mr. Pace has been a member of this board the past two years, which is a distinct honor to him and to the Tahoka schools.

Lubbock Trade Boosters Here

A group of Lubbock trade boosters visited Tahoka Wednesday morning, giving a brief band concert on the west lawn of the court house square and another one at the Central Ward school building. Announcements were made concerning the Panhandle-South Plains Fair to be held in Lubbock throughout next week, beginning Monday morning.

A new attraction this year will be the free horse races staged each day, it was announced. Vaudeville acts, band concerts, a fire works program, and other features each night will also be free.

Exhibits have been arranged in the women's building, the industrial building, and the agricultural building, and the four livestock buildings are to be filled with beef and dairy cattle, horses and mules, swine, poultry, and other live stock.

Admission for adults this year will be only twenty-five cents, children fifteen cents. All school children will be admitted free on Wednesday, October 4.

Start Highway 9 Work In Howard

Construction work on nine miles of grading and drainage of State Highway No. 9 south of Big Spring will be underway soon.

The contracting firm of Hannah and Hall of Waco were awarded the contract for this work at Austin, Monday.

The contract price was $28,845.60. The work is to cover that portion of the highway from a point about five miles south of Big Spring to the Glasscock county line.

It is expected that condemnation proceedings will be invoked soon to secure the right-of-way for highway No. 9 across the corner of Glasscock county and connect up with the improved highway at the Sterling county line.—Big Spring News.

Start Orchestra At High School

An orchestra of ten pieces has been formed at Tahoka High School and it is hoped to increase its size to 20 pieces by Christmas, states the director, Mrs. J. Samuel Rider, who is teaching viola and string instruments in the school and who is a member of South Plains Music Teachers Association.

"We are very happy to say a nice beginning was made by the orchestra this week," she says, "and we urge each patron of the schools, if they have a boy or girl who plays an instrument, to enter them in the orchestra. There are no charges for orchestra work, and they will be eligible to enter the Spring Festival."

COURT HEARS CIVIL CASES

Grand Jury In Session This Week; Criminal Cases Up For Trial Next Week

The first business of the district court, which convened here Monday morning, was the empaneling of the grand jury. The following gentlemen were selected as members of that body and entered upon their duties immediately after receiving the charge of the court: John Heck of Wilson, foreman; W. H. May, Wilson; B. M. Haymes and John Anderson, O'Donnell; Joe Poindexter, New Home; Otto Thomas and Jack Applewhite, Tahoka; Lynn West and A. F. Pitts, Dixie; J. H. Newmon, Lakeview; I. M. Draper, Midway; and D. J. Boeb, Wells.

Bailiffs selected were as follows: door bailiff, W. S. Swan, riding bailiffs, John Johnson and Milt Finch.

The charge of Judge McGuire was brief. He stated that there seemed to be less crime to investigate than usual, there being very few cases of the graver type demanding the attention of the body. He ascribed this condition in part to the persistence and efficiency with which peace officers

BUILD THREE COTTON GINS

Grassland Latest to Get New Plant; Others Built At T-Bar And Near Hackberry

A new gin is being constructed at Grassland. It is expected to be completed and ready to begin operating within the next two weeks, according to W. J. Burckhart, one of the stockholders. The gin will have four stands of 80 saws each.

This gin is being built by a group of farmers, who have organized themselves into an association known as the Farmers Co-operative Society, with a board of directors of seven members and with Buck Edwards as president and Carl Gray as secretary. The identity of the manager has not yet been disclosed.

Grassland is in the heart of one of the finest cotton-growing areas on the south plains. The Thomas Brothers gin there is the largest in Lynn county and gins more cotton annually, possibly, than any other gin on the plains.

A gin is also being erected at Hackberry in the northeast portion of the county, we are told, while another was recently constructed at T-Bar twelve miles southwest of Tahoka.

Begin Road Work Near O'Donnell

Work on Highway No. 9 began Thursday morning of last week, with a crew of between twenty-five and thirty men on the first shift.

O'Donnell was the starting point for operations, with the construction camp located here, the crew working toward Lamasa. Construction foreman Harville, in charge of this division of highway work, arrived with his wife and little daughter several days ago, and are now making their home at Mrs. I. M. Wright's.

Though workmen will come wholly from Dawson county, this work will be of immense benefit to O'Donnell because a great part of our trade territory lies in our neighboring county.—O'Donnell Index

Local Citizens Tell Of Interesting Trip To Chihuahua City, In Old Mexico

Judge W. E. (Happy) Smith, A. M. Cade, and Oscar Roberts returned Sunday night from a few days visit over in the neighboring Republic of Mexico. They report a most interesting trip.

They bring back with them one story which again attests the fact that truth is sometimes stranger than fiction. This is the story.

Among the places which they visited was the penitentiary at Chihuahua City. Many of the inmates had trinkets and souvenirs to sell, and among them was a Mexican convict who offered to sell Oscar a ring. At first Oscar was not interested but as he was about to turn away he noticed that it was a high school class ring and thereupon decided to examine it. Upon examination, the visitors were astonished to find that it was in fact a class ring of the Tahoka High School of the year 1925. The ring bore the letters T H S on the onyx and they found the words and figures, Tahoka High School, 1925, and the initials E. H. H. engraved on the inside of the ring. Oscar thereupon decided to buy the ring and paid the Mexican five pesos for it, hoping to locate the owner.

No satisfactory explanation was given as to the presence of the ring in the institution. The Mexican who had it in his possession claimed that he had gotten it from his sister. Neither he nor his sister had ever been in Texas, he claimed.

Mr. Roberts believes he has traced the ownership to one or the other of two certain members of the class of 1925. He will probably verify the ownership within the next few days.

The visitors bought some more interesting souvenirs too. Sonny Roberts, Oscar's little son, bought a bank made of a cow horn, very beautifully decorated. Some other trinkets also were purchased equally as ornate.

The party not only visited Chihuahua but they also visited one of the big ranches of that section of the country and the mountain region farther to the west. Oscar had been there several times before but it was the first visit for the judge and the tax collector and they got a great kick out of it.

Walter Florence Adjudged Insane

Walter Florence of Draw, former county commissioner from precinct No. 2, was tried in the county court Monday on a lunacy charge and was found to be of unsound mind.

The patient was taken to Wichita Falls Tuesday and placed in the state hospital for treatment.

Canning Kitchens Proving Success

The county canning kitchens recently established at Tahoka and O'Donnell are proving to be very popular, according to home demonstration agent, Miss El Fleeta Harrison.

"A total of 1,548 cans of vegetables and meats, valued at $106.48, have been canned in the Tahoka kitchen," Miss Harrison says. "This kitchen operates three days in the week and has been in operation two weeks. Mrs. Sam Holland and Mrs. R. W. Fenton are supervisors.

"The remarkable total of 2,926 cans of vegetables, valued at $428.80, have been canned in the O'Donnell kitchen. The kitchen has been in operation every day for practically two weeks. Mrs. W. A. Tredway reported 508 cans canned on last Saturday. Mrs. Tredway and Mrs. F. A. Anderson are supervisors.

"It is necessary that those people using the kitchens make a date with the supervisors before bringing their products to can," Miss Harrison further stated. "Have your products at the kitchen ready to be canned not later than noon of the day set for your canning. It is also necessary that you bring your own spices, salt, and sugar for seasoning, and your hand and cup towels."

Highway 9 Contract Let In Swisher Co.

Contract for grading and drainage structures on Highway No. 9 in Swisher county from Hale county line to the city limits of Tulla was let Tuesday by the State Highway Commission in session at Austin. It was not revealed who had secured the contract, but assurance was given that actual work will begin within twenty days from Tuesday of this week, or sooner if contracts can be approved before that time.

This will be received as good news not only by those who wish to see good roads in Swisher county but more especially by those citizens of the county who are facing the winter without employment. Local labor will be used wherever possible.

Swisher county has been assured by the State Highway Commission that contract for the construction of Highway No. 9 from Tulla to Happy will be let in the near future.—The Happy Herald.

Redwine Women Doing Much Canning

Mrs. E. H. Conningham, chairman of the Redwine Community Home Demonstration Expansion Committee, reports 1,800 cans in the hands of the people in her community and 1,200 cans already filled.

Thirty-seven different families have been reached by demonstrations and individual help through the efforts of this expansion committee.

LYNN COUNTY GETS 15.6 MILES

Includes Grading And Drainage Work From Tahoka North To Lubbock Paving

Bids are to be received by the state highway commission in Austin today for grading and drainage structures on highway No. 9 from Tahoka to the Lubbock county line, according to press dispatches from Austin published Tuesday.

This stretch of highway covers a distance of 15.6 miles. The work is to be paid for out of federal funds created by the National Recovery Act. Preference is to be given to Lynn county labor in the construction of this sector of the highway.

Usually several months intervene between the completion of grading and the laying of the hard surface. It is expected that the paving will be done some time next year.

The new highway will follow the old right-of-way along most of its course through this county. The double turn two miles north of Tahoka will be eliminated, however. From a point where the present highway makes the first turn, a new

Levelland Wins Over Tahoka

Levelland defeated Tahoka 13 to 0 in a game of football on the local field Friday afternoon in a game that was a well-matched contest for the last three quarters. But the first quarter spelled defeat for Tahoka, the visitors getting in scoring position twice by advantage gained in punt exchanges and through "stage-fright" or inexperience of the home boys. As the game grew older, however, Tahoka pepped up, and in the second half outplayed the visitors.

Once Tahoka carried the ball to within inches of the goal line, but Levelland's defense tightened and prevented a touchdown. The game ended with Levelland near their goal, as the result of a long march down the field.

Vernon Jolly, Tahoka quarterback, was the outstanding star on the field, making nice gains and tackling hard. Others shined at times. With a little more experience, the Bulldogs may be expected to become a well rounded team.

This Friday Tahoka goes to Post for a game. The coach has been drilling the boys on weak spots that showed up last Friday, and the boys say they expect to put up a real fight.

"That was the cleanest game we ever played," Levelland players remarked after the game, which is probably the highest compliment that could be paid the local team and coach.

Any erroneous reflection upon the reputation or standing of any individual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of The News, will be gladly corrected when called

There is no sweeter music in the ears of a Southern business man than the hum of the cotton gin. This is particularly true if cotton is commanding a fair price. Cotton is the chiefest of the materials used to clothe the world. The South is its natural habitat. It is the South's chief money crop. When the yield is fair and the price fair, it brings fabulous wealth to this nation. It is true that the Southern farmer perhaps does not get his share of the profit that it brings, but nevertheless he depends on cotton more than all other commodities combined for opulence and for a livelihood. Therefore in the hum of the cotton gin the Southerner hears the song of prosperity and contentment. There are five gins in Tahoka this week humming in unison this grand sweet song.

If ten cents will not have any greater purchasing power this fall than five cents had a year ago, then ten-cent cotton will not be worth any more to the farmer or business man than five-cent cotton was worth last year, the anti-inflationists tell us. But they overlook one important fact. Ten cents will pay just twice as much old debts as five cents will pay. Most of our debts were contracted when the dollar was cheap and prices were high, and now unless we inflate, we must pay these debts with a dear dollar. Give the people a chance to pay their debts and prosperity will take care of itself. It's the debt that is hanging like a mill stone about the necks of the people.

Rumors are that C. C. McDonald of Wichita Falls will be the Ferguson candidate for governor next year, if Mrs. Ferguson doesn't run. But we'll bet a dime to a dough-nut that Mrs. Ferguson runs.

In making announcement of the fair to be held in Lubbock next week, The Panhandle-South Plains Fair Association wrote us this week as follows:

Not "Just Around the Corner," but "Bright Now on the South Plains," better times are here. $47,860,256 has already started flowing into the farmers' pockets of this section.

The 20th Annual Panhandle-South Plains Fair will mirror a great deal of this new prosperity. Prospects are that this year's fair will be even greater than back in 1928 and '29.

All through life we have heard much about sound money and an honest dollar. We are hearing it now. But it must be remembered that a deflated dollar is just as dishonest as an inflated dollar. It is but fair to creditor and debtor alike that the value of the dollar should be made to remain as nearly stable as possible. Those who are advocating inflation of the currency are only seeking to reduce the value of the dollar to the same level it held when the country was prosperous and billions of debts were contracted. These debts should be paid with the same sized dollar that was in circulation when they were contracted.

Now that the fall season is opening up, let's all renew our efforts in behalf of our fair city, folks. Let's patronize the home business man. Let's buy nothing outside of Tahoka that can be bought here. And, by the way, why shouldn't the home merchant patronize the home printer? If all of us were to do like some of us, there would be no home printer, no newspaper published in Tahoka.

If the legislature authorizes the issuance of any part of that proposed 20-million-dollar bond issue that was approved in the August election, it should not leave its expenditure up to the gentleman who totes in the wood and the water. His water bucket too often springs a leak.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

GUARANTEE OF BANK DEPOSIT

Under the National Banking Act of 1933 which becomes effective in part next January 1, bank deposits of $2500 or less will be guaranteed. When the act becomes fully operative next July 1, deposits not exceeding $10,000 will be guaranteed 100 per cent, those under $50,000 by 75 per cent and those above $50,000, 50 per cent. Figures show 96.76 per cent of deposits in American banks amount to less than $2500 each.

To capitalize the Federal Deposit Corporation, large sums will be contributed by the Federal Government and the Federal Reserve, and each bank will pay to the corporation an amount equal to one-half of one per cent of its total deposits.

Bankers have opposed the guarantee of deposits as they opposed the Federal Reserve System, and vicious, unwarranted and untruthful propaganda has been distributed to the effect that small banks and independent banks would be eliminated by the act. The American Bankers' Association at its recent meeting passed a resolution demanding that initiation of deposit insurance be postponed, but this administration cannot be bluffed.

J. F. T. O'Connor, comptroller of the currency and one of the men who will direct the deposit insurance plan, listed before the American Bankers' Association replies by President Roosevelt to all of their many objections to deposits guaranty.

"Injustice to none," O'Connor said, "is the first aim of the National Banking Act of 1933." In direct and forceful contradiction of objections by bankers he said: (1) The public made a loud demand for deposit insurance, as reflected in passage of the law with huge majorities in Congress; (2) The law makes a fact of the theory that depositors have a right to their money; (3) Deposit insurance will banish bank runs by giving assurance of absolute safety; (4) It will obviate the necessity of the postal savings bank and return to the banks more than a billion dollars in deposits; (5) The act will extend credit and modify cash reserves; (6) It will save banks millions of dollars by eliminating interest on demand deposits; (7) The expense and work of setting up the machinery is not prohibitive.

In view of the fact that bankers bitterly opposed the Federal Reserve System which proved to be one of the most constructive measures ever enacted by Congress the people should not be unduly concerned over their opposition to the guarantee of deposits.—Haskell Free Press.

Having read an item in this paper about some twin bolls of cotton brought to this office recently R. J. Barnett brought in another sample Saturday, taken from the field of J. O. Tinsley. One of them contained four and the other five well-developed locks. These are no novelty to the editor, however, who picked a lot of cotton when a kid and often found such freaks of nature.

Rev. D. D. Johnson, out of the bigness of his heart, brought the editor a bucket of fine tomatoes Tuesday morning, which he had gathered from his patch. These were certainly fine samples of the fruitlike vegetable that for centuries was regarded as poisonous. Bring on more of the "pizen," folks.

Take a Pinch of BLACK-DRAUGHT For Distress After Meals

He had suffered distress after meals, but by taking Theford's Black-Draught he was relieved of this trouble, writes Mr. Jess Higgins, of Dawsonville, Ga.

"I had sour stomach and gas," Mr. Higgins explains, "and often I would have bilious spells. I read about Theford's Black-Draught and began to take it. It relieved me of this trouble. I keep it all the time now. I consider it a fine medicine. I take a pinch of Black-Draught after meals when I need it. It helps to prevent sick headache and to keep the system in good order."

Now you can get Black-Draught in the form of a SYRUP, for Children.

Mrs. A. R. McGonagill was taken to the West Texas Hospital again Tuesday morning for treatment, due to a change for the worse in her condition.

Next to a Camel Chevrolet gives most miles per gallon

CHEVROLET No argument about the camel. When it comes to miles per gallon, there's nothing in all the Gobi desert—or Sahara—or anywhere else—that can beat him. No argument about Chevrolet, either. It's the most economical form of full-size transportation on wheels.

You can travel a long, long way in a Chevrolet Six without a single stop for gas or oil. In fact, you can get more miles out of a gallon of gas in a Chevrolet, than you can get in any other full-size car. The best proof of this is the way Chevrolet is being preferred by leading national business firms. These firms know their mileage figures. And today, Chevrolet is their first choice by an overwhelming count. Chevrolet is also first choice of the American public by the widest margin in history.

$40,000.00 Pumice Plant Is Nearing Completion

The plant of the Texas Production Company being constructed on the Castle farm six miles south of Tahoka for the mining and marketing of pumice and fuller's earth is nearing completion, and it is hoped that a test run of the plant may be made one day next week, according to Dr. E. E. West and C. Y. Partain of Abilene, promoters and chief owners of the plant. It is hoped that it may be in full operation within the next few weeks.

The construction of this plant represents an investment of about $40,000, according to these gentlemen. It is an entirely new industry for this section of the state, and it is possible that there is not another of the kind in the state. The capacity of the pumice plant will be ten tons per hour and of the fuller's earth 5 tons per hour. The owners expect to keep the plant running day and night, using three shifts of workmen, thus turning out possibly 240 tons of pumice or 120 tons of fuller's earth each day. A spur track is to be built by the Santa Fe Railway to the plant to handle the product. The number of men required to mine these products and to operate the plant is yet undetermined but man power and not machinery will be used to remove the surface dirt and work the pumice beds, according to the proprietors. In fact men are busy removing this dirt from a portion of the beds now.

The plant itself consists of a big furnace, a drier, screens, and three large storage rooms. The drier is a revolving cylindrical, metal container, mounted almost horizontally, through which the freshly mined pumice is passed for drying out. The heat from the big furnace is forced through this drier while the machine is in operation. This drier is apparently about five feet in diameter and about forty feet long. At the lower end, where the dried and powdered product emerges, screens are placed for straining out the coarser material and the impurities. The finished product, a fine, flour-like substance, is then conveyed to the storage rooms and is ready for the market. These products are used for many purposes but chiefly in the manufacture of soap, cleansing compounds, and paints. The demand for them is almost unlimited.

Mr. Partain says that these beds contain about 1,800,000 tons of pumice and a vast amount of fuller's earth, the approximate amount of which has not been determined. They figure that there is enough of the raw material in these beds to keep their plant busy for at least twenty years.

This product has been mined and marketed in a small way and in rather crude form during the past year by Mr. Castle and by Messrs. Winton and Blackburn, and used chiefly in the manufacture of floor sweep, but these gentlemen did not have the facilities with which to refine these materials and hence the market for their products was very limited.

These beds have been known to exist for several years, and while J. B. Nance owned this tract of land several years ago he worked diligently to induce some individual with capital to become interested in the mining of these products but he met with no success. His dreams have at last crystallized into a reality but too late to be of any financial benefit to him. The new industry, however, means no little thing for Tahoka. It should prove to be a valuable asset for many, many years.

Women Display Canned Products

Exhibits of canned products and hooked rugs prepared by various members of Lynn county home demonstration clubs were on display at the American Legion Hall last Friday, under the supervision of home demonstration agent, Miss El Fleda Harrison. Miss Lois Mashburn, home demonstration agent of Lamb county, acted as judge. The prize winning products were taken to Lubbock Tuesday by Miss Harrison and Mrs. Garland Pennington to be entered in the Panhandle South Plains Fair. The list of prize winners may be published next week.

"This was a very nice exhibit," said Mrs. Garland Pennington, "and we feel that we can all improve on our canned products since this demonstration. Miss Mashburn says that the Lynn county women displayed an excellent quality of foods and rugs." The prize winning products were displayed in a show window of the Jones Dry Goods Company Saturday.

New Home

Rev. Richburg preached two sermons here Sunday. The church made a very nice offering for Buckner Orphan's Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Richburg and little daughter of Big Spring moved to our community last week and are residing on the farm with Mr. Waymon Smith.

Mr. F. N. Middleton has purchased a house and moved into our little village since the last issue of the News.

Wednesday afternoon of last week Joe Stokes came over and played ball with New Home girls. Joe Stokes was defeated 40 to 7. Irene Smith was high point girl.

Saturday night both New Home boys and girls went to Wilson and played two good games of ball, but both were defeated, the girls score being 24 to 12. Wilson will return the game Friday afternoon, Sept. 29.

Today, Sept. 27, Woodrow girls are coming to play basketball and we hope to win the game.

Last Friday night the juniors and seniors and their sponsors, Misses McAllister and Dean, were entertained with a lawn party by Mrs. Henry Heck at her home. There were many games played and enjoyed by all. Ice cream and cake were served for refreshments. The guests at the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Clovis L. Vaughn, R. B. McAllister, E. A. Blair from Lubbock. Everyone had a very enjoyable time.

Loan Man Gives Farmers Information

P. F. Murray, field supervisor for Crop Production Loans, called at the News office Monday and gave out a statement for the benefit of farmers who have procured such loans from the Government and who were in the recent plow-up campaign.

In order to make matters clear, Mr. Murray said that "Borrowers are advised that the mortgage provides that payment of the loan must be made from the first sale made from the crop. When full payment is made prior to receipt of check for cotton destroyed, receipts will be issued so that the cotton checks will not be held up when received by the county agent."

"Because so many opportunities for complications may arise in making proper endorsements on cotton checks, we must insist that sales of crops made prior to receipt of cotton checks shall be applied on the note. Loans are due when the crops are sold regardless of the maturity date of the notes."

"Allowance covering picking and ginning cotton is four-fifths cents per pound, lint, or 80 cents per hundred—about $4.00 per bale, and the seed."

Mr. Murray will be at the First National Bank here each Monday until further notice, and he would like to meet all borrowers and interview them about their loans whether they were in the plow-up program or not.

Bill Bishop of the Midway community received a message Sunday that his son, Jack Bishop, had died in California. Particulars were not given. The body was buried there, and Mr. Bishop was unable to attend the funeral.

Cotton Coming In At Rapid Rate

Cotton is beginning to come in to the gins rapidly now. When the News gathered statistics this morning, 436 bales had been ginned in Tahoka.

The New York Market has been a little better than 10 cents most of the week, and locally farmers have been getting from 9.25 to 9.75.

Highway Work Is Bringing Relief

Austin, Sept. 27—How the state highway commission, its current revenues exhausted, saved the jobs of workers this summer by pouring the bulk of its cash reserve into the breach was revealed by the Texas Good Roads Association today from figures for the fiscal year ending August 31, compiled by E. J. Aney, department statistician.

To preserve the livelihood of these thousands of men and their families until the Roosevelt public works program could get up steam, the highway department exhausted its surplus funds carried over from better years. It spent $8,000,000 more than it took in, the figures show, yet without going into debt a single dollar.

The near miracle was achieved despite a drop of nearly $12,000,000 in state road revenues, due to retirement of many motor cars, loss of county aid, and diversion of one-fourth of the gas tax to refund county bonds.

Money for the successful job-saving fight came from a 33 per cent emergency boost in federal aid, $1,000,000 in old license fees which had been in litigation, and $7,500,000 in cash surplus from other years, all the department could spare and still finish its projects. Federal aid is not paid until jobs are complete, it was explained.

W. O. Huggins, Texas Good Roads Association president, called the figures "a valiant battle against human misery" but warned that the state fund is now crippled. "For next year we are absolutely dependent on federal aid," he said. "To hold our ground, we must get more money from Washington. To do this, one course is imperative; we must not divert any more state road-money to other uses. The Roosevelt administration has said flatly that states which do this—which will not help themselves—need not expect government help. This help is so vital to Texas now that we must permit nothing to endanger it."

Phoebe K. Warner Junior Club Meets Tuesday

All members of the Phoebe K. Warner Junior Club are requested to meet on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the club room. Plans for the work to be done this year by the club will be discussed. New officers will be installed and new members initiated. Refreshments will be served and entertainment promised for all members.

L. H. Perkins told us a few days ago that he had the best cotton this year he had ever raised. We ran out Wednesday afternoon to see about it. After seeing his patch we do not doubt that he told the truth, for he has the best cotton we have seen anywhere in Lynn county this year. Some of it is apparently good for more than a bale to the acre. Hurry along to Lynn county, folks.

A. R. McGonagill, who has been confined to his room most of the time for the past three or four weeks, was able to be in town again Tuesday.

Methodist S. S. Promotes Children

"Whom say ye that I am?" was the text Rev. Smith used for his Sunday morning service, and from which he preached an answer to that all-important question. The choir sang a special number and Mrs. Marvin Munn most effectively rendered the solo.

The beginner and primary departments observed their promotion exercises in the church auditorium preceding the church hour, at which time certificates, honors, etc. were awarded.

The morning prelude was "Nocturne in F," Opus 23, No. 4, by Schumann, after which Supt. Pace talked on "Finding God in the World of Men."

At night the old testament hero, Moses, furnished the subject for a splendid sermon on "Life." The Misses Suddarth sang a duet, "I Need Thee Every Hour."

There will be a general rearrangement of the church school work next Sunday incident to promotions. Come and take your place. All services at 9:45 sharp.—Reporter.

Edgar Edwards And Lorene Hardy Wed

Early Sunday morning in Lovington, New Mexico, Edgar Edwards and Miss Lorene Hardy of this city were united in marriage. They came back to Tahoka the same day and will continue to make this their home.

Mr. Edwards is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Edwards and was reared here, the family being one of the best known and most prominent in this section of the state. Edgar is a graduate of the Tahoka High School having graduated several years ago, after which he attended both the Tech College and the University of Texas for a brief time. Several years ago, while a mere boy, he was employed in the News office for several months. At present he is in the employ of the Conoco Service Station. He is a young man of excellent character and deserves to succeed.

PEANUT BUTTER MAKING TOLD AT CLUB MEETING

To break instead of to crush makes a granular instead of pasty peanut butter product.

This was plainly demonstrated by our county agent, Miss El Fleda Harrison, at a meeting last Tuesday at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. H. Cunningham. Miss Harrison gave us some facts on making good peanut butter. The principle one was parch the peanuts for a long period of time at a low temperature. Here is the receipt she gave us: four quarts of large Tennessee Red peanuts, 2 quarts of little Spanish peanuts, and 2 ounces of salt.

After every one had made their peanut butter and all the business had been transacted, it was decided to meet with Mrs. C. B. Evans on the third Friday in October. Come, and bring some one with you.

Visitors present at our meeting were Mmes. Woodin, Tunnell, Williams, Nelson, Smith and Miss Lois Jackson.

Members present were: Mesdames Cowart, Patterson, Penning to n, Rouse, Quinsey, Salsberry, Beard, Holloway, Evans, Smelser, Beavers, Tunnell, Quinsey, Miss Ella Salsberry and the hostess.—Reporter.

Billy Dixon's Medal Reminder Of Fight

Canyon—Billy Dixon's congressional medal of honor, said to be the first ever awarded to a resident of the Texas Panhandle has been placed in the recently completed Panhandle Plains Historical Society museum by his widow, Mrs. Olive K. Dixon, of Amarillo.

Congress awarded the medal to the great scout and Indian fighter for heroism at the Battle of Buffalo Wallow, in Hemphill county, September 12, 1876, the last skirmish with Indians in the Panhandle which could be described as a battle.

Five Given Medals

Six white men participated in the battle, and the five who survived received congressional medals for their valor. All of the men were injured, and one of them died during "the night of horrors" in a shallow buffalo wallow where the Americans sought protection from the Indian attack.

Pioneers who fostered the plan for the building of the museum look upon the Buffalo Wallow fight as the "outstanding example of bravery and fortitude" among the many battles and other hardships incident to the conquering and settlement of the plains.

Dixon and Amos Chapman, army scouts, were sent out with four soldiers by General Nelson A. Miles, located at the time in the lower part of the Panhandle, to deliver dispatches to Fort Supply, now in Oklahoma. It was at daybreak, just as they topped a ridge between the Washita river and Gageby creek, that the small party was surrounded by several hundred Indians.

Saved Companion

The men were caught in the open, but gradually made their way to a buffalo wallow in a sandy draw about 400 yards away. Chapman was one of the first hit. After the party reached the wallow, it was learned Chapman was unable to follow, and Dixon left the cover he had fought hard to gain to rescue his wounded companion. Every man in the group was credited with some heroic act during the battle, but Dixon's rescue of Chapman was regarded as outstanding. A sudden rain squall in the late afternoon drove the Indians away and provided water for the wounded men, although it was mixed with their own blood.

On the morning of the second day after the battle, a supply train brought food for the five survivors, but refused to leave ammunition or soldiers to defend the wounded men. Dixon and his party had lost their horses early in the fighting and their ammunition was exhausted. Only two of the men were able to walk. They remained in the hole two days longer until help arrived from General Miles.

Leg Shattered

Chapman's right leg, shattered by a bullet early in the fighting, was tied to a stirrup of his saddle and the saddle cinch for the two day ride to Fort Supply.

Dixon received the medal award in 1894. In recommending medals for the group, General Miles wrote:

"The simple recital of their deeds, and the mention of the odds against which they fought, how the dying aided the wounded by exposure of more wounds after the power of action was gone alone—present a scene of cool courage, heroism and self sacrifice which duty as well as inclination prompts us to recognize, but which we cannot fully honor."

WORLD'S FUNNIEST STARS, BEAUTIFUL GIRLS, IN SHOW

Peggy Hopkins Joyce, W. C. Fields, Rudy Vallee, Stuart Erwin, George Burns and Gracie Allen, Sari Maritza, Col. Stoopnagle and Budd, Cobb Calloway and his Orchestra and Baby Rose Marie—the largest all-star cast of stage, screen and radio favorites ever assembled—play the leading roles in "International House," Paramount's hysterical musical comedy which comes to the English Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Lavish in every production detail, "International House" has the additional quality of having a screamingly funny plot. It is set in a hotel in a Chinese city, where representatives of big business from all over the world are assembled to see and bid on a marvelous new invention by a Chinese scientist.

The fun starts when Bela Lugosi, a comic villain, has the hotel quarantined to keep the American representatives from bidding, but finds instead that he himself is locked out. From across the street he watches Peggy Joyce, one of whose husbands he has been, go "on the make" for W. C. Fields, an aviator who had mistaken the Chinese town for Kansas City, and had landed his autogyro on the roof of the hotel.

Events go from crazy to crazier during the quarantine. Burns and Allen, and Stoopnagle and Budd wise-crack the boys & distraction; Rudy Vallee, Baby Rose Marie and Cobb Calloway do the same thing with music; the Girls in Cellophane dance; and Stuart Erwin makes timid love to Sari Maritza. It all ends in a riotous farce.

RAGWEED, NOT GOLDENROD CAUSES MOST HAY FEVER

Goldenrod, the floral outcast to hayfever sufferers, has been restored to good standing.

Ragweed, found in every State, is the true culprit in most hay fever cases, the United States Department of Agriculture says.

Instead of going to the mountains to avoid hay fever the department urges sufferers to organize campaigns to clean up ragweeds before they bloom and shed the yellow pollen which causes autumn hay fever. Goldenrod pollen, often blamed by those with hay fever, is in fact a sticky, heavy pollen that does not blow about as ragweed pollen does. Unless one is very close to goldenrod, there is little chance of his getting any of the pollen.

Of the hundreds of thousands of autumn hay fever cases in the United States each year, 90 per cent east of the Mississippi River are caused by ragweed, the Public Health Service says. It has approved the advice of the Department to cut down ragweed, as it has been found that persons only slightly subject to hay fever may escape entirely if the quantity of pollen in the air is reduced, and other cases will be less severe. Two types of ragweed are chiefly responsible for autumn hay fever. These are common ragweed, which grows about 2 feet high, and the big ragweed which grows as high as 8 or 10 feet. These are both annual plants.

The Department suggests cutting ragweed twice a year to prevent pollen forming. The first cutting should be just before the flowers form and the second before the flowers develop on the lowgrowing branches which shoot out after the first cutting. If cutting is delayed until flower buds form the pollen may develop after the weeds are cut. In this case burning the weeds may be necessary. Cutting ragweeds on highways and on vacant lots of cities and suburbs is especially important, the Department says.

Organized efforts by civic clubs and similar organizations in cities and towns and their suburbs can substantially lower the quantity of ragweed pollen and reduce the number and severity of hay fever cases.

N. W. Alphin returned Monday from Close City (Ragtown), where he was song director in a revival meeting which closed Sunday night.

Draw

There was a good attendance at the Draw Methodist Church Sunday Sept. 24, numbering 145. Rev. Calaway from Crawford, Texas, who has been superannuated for several years, preached an interesting sermon.

The League had a better attendance Sunday than it has been having. The subject for the afternoon was, "What's in a day?", and the program was rendered well.

The Longhorns lost the first of seven games Friday afternoon, September 22. The game was played with the New Home team at that place. The score was twenty six to eighteen. The team believes, without a doubt, the cause for their defeat was the absence of the pep squad. The boys are expecting the support of the pep squad in their next game.

Mrs. Ivy Jones, who has been ill for the past few weeks, is reported to be no better.

Edna Mae Stinnett was bitten by a rattlesnake late Friday afternoon. She is reported to be doing nicely.

Rev. and Mrs. J. N. Hester were in Brownfield the past week visiting relatives.

Mrs. Thomas D. White of Midland has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Long, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Garnett, Robert Long, and Clifford Bratcher have been in New Mexico the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Garnett are thinking of homesteading there.

Miss Edna Merle Darks of O'Donnell and Sammy Stooks of Low, Texas, visited friends at Draw Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. I. V. Jones, Miss Opal Cox, Amsey Jones and Hugh and John Cox visited relatives at Crosbyton and Ralls Sunday.

There has been some kind of a large cat in the western part of this community, a few people report. Some say that it has been disturbing their livestock. It is supposed that it is just roaming through the country and we hope it causes no harm.

A number from Draw witnessed the basketball game at Redwine Wednesday night played between Redwine and New Home in which New Home won.

Relieves Women's Pains

Here is an example of how Cardui has helped thousands of women: "I was very thin and pale," writes Mrs. F. H. Scott, of Roanoke, Va. "I suffered from weakness and a severe pain in my back. This pain unerved me, and I did not feel like doing my work. I did not care to go places, and felt worn, tired, day after day. "My mother had taken Cardui, and on seeing my condition she advised me to try it. I have never regretted doing so. I took three bottles and it built me up. I gained in weight, my color was better and the pain left my back. I am stronger than I had been in some time."

Cardui, the purely vegetable medicine which so many women take and recommend, is sold by local druggists.

PEOPLE and LIGHTING

Why is it that good lighting draws people as tho by magic? It may be that people do not like darkness... that light has some definite but unexplainable charm. But is it true.

Aggressive merchants have known this fact for years and have brightened up their show windows. They know it draws people to their store front—and they know it pays.

They have provided good lighting in their store interiors as well. It draws customers into the store.

With prosperity again on the way, merchants should realize the benefits to be had from proper lighting.

Bob Haynes, Former Editor, Brief Visitor

Bob Haynes, former editor and owner of The Lynn County News, paid a brief visit to the office Tuesday afternoon.

For the past seven years Mr. Haynes has been owner and publisher of The Miami Chief, published at Miami, county seat of Roberts county in the Panhandle. He and his mother, Mrs. E. R. Haynes, were returning from a pleasure trip to Corpus Christi, their route home bringing them through Tahoka, and Bob could not resist the temptation to stop long enough to take another peep at the News office, where he labored and carried on in a fine way for several years.

Mr. Haynes asked that we state that he regretted that he did not have time to visit or even call on his old friends here, but having been away from his shop two weeks it was almost imperative that he hurry on home.

While Bob was calling on the News force, his mother, Mrs. E. R. Haynes, was meeting some of her former pupils, Mrs. Haynes having taught for many years in the Lubbock schools. Among her former pupils whom she met here were James Taylor, Mrs. H. A. Maassen, and Mrs. Leroy Knight.

Mr. and Mrs. Haynes and his mother are publishing a most newsy and readable paper at Miami. It comes to our desk each week and we always enjoy running through it.

HIGHWAY WORK DUE TO START HERE SOON

roadbed will be constructed across several farms, running in a north-westerly direction and converging with the old highway again at the Irving Stewart farm, formerly known as the Munn farm, about five miles north of Tahoka.

The new right-of-way will be 100 feet wide, and deeds to practically all of the right-of-way have already been procured.

Contracts for grading and drainage structures on highway No. 9 have recently been let in a number of counties along its course both north and south of Lynn county, and the prospects and that in the next two or three years paving throughout its entire course will have been completed.

No. 9 is both a federal and a state highway and is one of the most important in the state. Entering the state at the north boundary line of the Panhandle, it extends southward through the length of the Panhandle-Plains country. Leaving the plains proper at Big Spring it continues southeastward through San Angelo and San Antonio, to Corpus Christi and Brownsville. It intercepts many other highways of major importance at various points along its course, among others connecting with highway No. 81 at San Antonio, which leads directly to Laredo and then through the heart of Mexico into Mexico City. Northward, No. 9 extends to the mountainous regions of the Northwest and almost to the Canadian line.

COURT OPENS; GRAND JURY IS IN SESSION

cers and other officials have been seeking to bring the criminal to justice.

Seven indictments involving eight defendants have been returned into court by the grand jury. Two of the defendants had not been arrested early this morning. The six men under arrest are: J. R. Romines and Calvin Davis, car theft; S. D. Vowell and S. D. Dick, kidnaping of J. T. Covey, Santa Fe agent at Wilcox; Luke Trammell, theft; and Homer Furbough, colored, driving a car while intoxicated.

Three divorces have been granted this week.

The criminal docket will be taken up the third week of the term.

Angry Cow Hurts O'Donnell Man

Ted Rogers, prominent farmer of New Moore community, was the victim of a most unusual accident late Friday afternoon when an angry cow crushed him against a fence post.

In addition to being bruised, Mr. Rogers was painfully injured when the head of a ten penny nail gouged into the calf of his left leg, tearing through flesh and muscle and dragging out a tendon to make a dangerous and ugly wound.

He was brought immediately to the office of a local physician for first aid measures, and was also given an anti-tetanus serum.—O'Donnell Index.

Seek Legislation To Help Out NRA

Austin, Tex., Sept. 23.—Legislation to bring the state in line with President Roosevelt's N R A program has occupied the center of the stage this week while hearings have been held before the committee of whole senate. Regarded as the most delicate and intricate problem of the session, indications are that in wording and principle the Woodward-Bradley bill will be finally adopted by both houses.

Senator Walter C. Woodward of Coleman, a veteran of the senate and chairman of the committee on Civil Jurisprudence, is the author of the bill. By common consent the task was delegated to him in advance of the session because of his committee position and his record as a lawyer of distinguished ability.

The bill pays full loyalty to the belief of Texas that her present anti-trust laws are wise and righteous. It merely suspends from operation the penalties for their violation whenever such violation can be shown to be in consequence of the obedience to federal laws under the National Recovery Act. In other words the bill is true to Texas principles but fully cooperative with the New Deal and the N R A.

Sen. Woodward's sound handling of this difficult matter has served to call attention again to his legal ability and he is being daily impudently to become a candidate for governor or attorney general. Thus far he has not reached a decision. However it is more than probable that when he has protected the anti-trust fabric of the state from injury and at the same time in this bill as passed devised a way to enable the state to cooperate with President Roosevelt, he will find a demand for his candidacy for higher office which he cannot resist.

O'Donnell Gins First Bale Cotton

O'Donnell's first bale of the 1933 cotton season was ginned late Monday afternoon at the Farmer's Gin. D. C. Carver brought it from his farm southwest of town, just over the Dawson county line.

Seventeen hundred pounds of staple yielded 565 pounds of lint, and the staple was unusually good. The bale sold at auction Tuesday afternoon selling to the First National Bank at 8.75. Merchants and business men made up a nice premium for Mr. Carver also.

The first bale this year was one week later than last year, when the ginning season opened on September 4. In spite of the 40 per cent reduction in acreage during the plowunder campaign, it is estimated that Lynn county's crop, and especially O'Donnell's trade territory, will not be far short of the 1932 crop.—O'Donnell Index.
