The Candidates Will Pick Up The Check
Some of us don't realize that in the upcoming Democratic Primary and possible run-off primary, the candidates pick up the check. It's strictly a Democratic party affair, supervised and conducted by the party, and paid for by its candidates.

Glen Williams, the county judge, told me that it cost him $300 to get his name placed on the ballots this year. He's glad to pay it, for if he is elected, he gets a four year term; he'd rather pay that amount than to pay $250 each two years and have the expense of a campaign. A commissioner of data told me his assessment this year was $265.

The Democratic county executive committee meets and estimates expenses of holding the first primary and a second if necessary. Then they assess each candidate 6% of one year's salary.

The district judge and district attorney are assessed in the same way as are all other candidates. George Mahon, the Congressman, will be assessed 6 percent of his yearly salary, then committees of 24 counties of his district will share in the sum he pays.

There are many expenses to conducting an election. In the Muleshoe box alone, it is estimated that there will be a judge, assistant judge, and probably no less than 16 counters, 4 each at 4 tables. The election helpers receive $1 per hour, begin work at 7, work until 10, later if needed to complete the work. Judges and several workers will be required in the other boxes.

There is a precinct chairman for each of the county's seven voting boxes. They are paid $10 each per meeting, have held several meetings, will hold more before the July 26 voting. The county chairman is allowed by law $100 for all the work and time he puts in, which the committee pays.

Then the committee has to pay for all supplies, tally sheets, and forms used in each box, and for printing the ballots.

The fee which the county committee may collect from each candidate for state office, whose name will be printed on Bailey County's ballots, is set by the Legislature at $5 and $10 depending upon the office.

The precinct chairmen name their judges and assistant judges, who then appoint other needed assistants. A veteran election man here told me this: "For you guys, election day is a holiday; for us who work at it the day is the hardest day of the year, a long, exacting day, and if a fellow doesn't want to work, he better not hire out as an election keeper."

Your Community Can Profit From The Tourist Business

A business man here has handed this corner a copy of a bulletin titled as above, from the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

astounding facts abound in the little pamphlet, things like this: "One of the fastest developing businesses in the U. S. is the tourist business. This year, American tourists traveling up and down all parts of this country, will spend roughly between $15 billion and $20 billion. By any standards, this is a huge economic pie."

It is indeed. Would you like to learn the estimates of what our tourists spend yearly by category? This is about what they brought:

- $5 billion worth of food.
- $3 billion worth of products including everything from fishing tackle to perfume.
- $1 billion worth of services such as dry-cleaning, laundry, etc.
- $2 billion worth of entertainment.
- $5 billion worth of transportation.
- $4 billion worth of accommodations.

We Have To WANT More Tourists!

If one says of Muleshoe "We do not have anything that interest tourists", he may be saying something which does not conform to realities, says the Department.

The pamphlet related that a community in Kansas appeared to have nothing at all to interest tourists. However, some of its leaders hit on the idea of advertising its deep wells, claiming one of them to be "the world's largest hand-dug well". 100,000 tourists flock to see it every year. Merely by selling curios at the well site, the community has been able to finance a 1,900 square foot new chamber of commerce building.

If we look about, I am sure we can find something to attract some of the vast swarm of tourists to our community and area. One lady said a man living in the northwest had seen in Muleshoe card; he swerved a long distance out of his way to come through Muleshoe. She only wished that we would have had a

Wheat Harvest Of Top Crop By This Weekend

Bailey county's wheat harvest is expected to be in full swing by the end of this week, with farmers in both dryland and irrigated sections of the county bringing in the best wheat in quality and yield in several years.

The first load of wheat reported to The Journal was Saturday, when O. F. Rudd, who farms southeast of Muleshoe, brought a load to Muleshoe Elevator.

The wheat tested 56 pounds, at 15 percent moisture, and was bought by Roy Lee Johnson for the Elevator at $1.60.

Johnson and other elevator operators here report they expect some fine quality wheat, oats and barley this season, with yields expected to run as high as 80 bushels in some of the tighter dryland sections. Average yield is expected to be about 30 bushels and better.

Several elevators have reported receiving barley last week, and the bulk of the barley and oat crop is expected to be in before the wheat this year.

Potato Harvest To Begin About July 1 Barrett Announces

Stan Barrett, of Barrett Produce in Muleshoe, told The Journal Monday that full scale harvesting of the Irish potato crop here is not expected to begin before July 1.

Workmen are busy getting the grading and processing machinery ready in the Barrett sheds this week, in anticipation of the imminent harvest.

Quarter-Final Round In Women's Golf Tourney Today; 48 Golfers Entered
Second round play began this morning in the first annual Muleshoe Women's Invitational Golf Tournament. A field of 48 women golfers from a wide area began play at the local club Wednesday, with Katherine Whitworth, of Jal, N. M., winning medalist honors.

The Muleshoe Co-operative Growers Association asks every vegetable grower in the surrounding area, every grower who probably will bring their vegetables to be packed and sold in Muleshoe, to register in the Chamber of Commerce office in Muleshoe not later than 6 p.m., Saturday, June 14.

Register the number of acres of each kind of vegetable, not just the total number of acres that you have in vegetables. Specify the number of acres you have in each vegetable, which you hope to market in the new shed in Muleshoe.

The Muleshoe Co-operative Growers urgently request you to register if you do not find it convenient to come to the Chamber of Commerce office to register, mail your registration.

This information is needed by the people who are going to pack and sell the vegetables. They must know the quantity in order to design the equipment to take care of the vegetables this fall. Mr. Jennings and Mr. Allen, the equipment men, will be in Muleshoe Saturday evening.

McCarty Building, Muleshoe Hotel In Process Of Complete Modernizing Plan

Work of modernizing one of the city's first brick buildings, the McCarty building at the corner of Main and Avenue B, began in earnest this week. The building will be "gutted" from top to bottom, leaving only the brick walls.

Mrs. Dora McCarty, owner, said the building will be rebuilt on ground and second floor, with new water system, new sewer installation, new electric wiring, and with central cooling and heating throughout.

The main room, facing Main Street, until recently had been occupied by Western Drug for many years. The second floor has been known at the Muleshoe Hotel. Western Drug has moved to a new location in the Gilbreath building in the next block north.

Mrs. McCarty said the room formerly used by the drug store has been leased and will be occupied upon completion of rebuilding. She was not at liberty to say who will lease the store room. The new occupant will use the 80 foot basement for storage.

The upper floor of the building will be completely rebuilt and will have twelve bedrooms, all with private or connecting bath. There also will be a public bath on the floor. Each room will have central heating and cooling.

At the same time a brick front will be placed on the adjacent building, occupied by the hotel lobby, coffee shop, and Retail Merchants Credit Association to conform with the rest of the building. Lobby and coffee shop will remain about as is but the living quarters in the rear will be enlarged.

Riding Club Queen

MARY BETH JETER
Miss Mary Beth Jeter of Springdale, Ark., daughter of Mrs. Earl Jeter, formerly of Muleshoe, was chosen Queen of the Springdale Riding Club for 1952 and will serve as hostess for the Rodeo of the Ozarks to be held in Springdale July 1-4.

Mary Beth is a member of the Springdale Quadrille which performs each evening and she participated in the queen contest in the Ark.-Okla. Rodeo at Ft. Smith.

Grand Opening Of Western Drug Is Set This Weekend

The new Western Drug store, operated by Harry and Wilma Waddle is holding its grand opening sale today, Friday and Saturday in their new location opposite the Valley theatre.

During the sale, the new store will feature special bargains in all departments and will have souvenirs and balloons for the kiddies. At 4 p.m. Saturday, a GE washer-dryer combination will be given away as a door prize.

Personnel of the store includes Mr. and Mrs. Waddle, Eleanor Yerby, Joyce Eaks, Ruby Crawford, Barbara Crandall, Martha Crawford, Bonnie Woods and Murray Lemmons.

The new store a Walgreen agency store, is decorated in white with red accents, and is brightly lighted with fluorescent fixtures. Red and white tile floors carry out the color scheme.

Lions Down Cards 11-6 To Win First Half LL Season

Smallwood and Lewis pitched the Lions Little League team to a first half victory Tuesday evening in LL park, defeating the Rotary-sponsored Cardinals by 11-6, in a game that went into extra innings. The game was tied in the sixth, the normal number of innings played in LL ball.

The victory gave the Lions a 6-3 win-loss record for the first half of the season. The Cards have a 5-4 record, followed by the Cubs with 4-5, and trailed by the Sox with a 3-6 win-loss tally.

Out of Towners, Swimming Lessons, Keep Municipal Pool Always Busy

In addition to the regular paid admissions for use of Muleshoe municipal swimming pool, a number of private groups also use the pool on a regular reserve basis.

Coach Wayne Mantooth, who is in charge of the pool here, said that in addition to the regular 1-9 p.m. use of the pool, the following groups also swim regularly.

Group swimming parties from Farwell, Springlake, Sudan, and Lazbuddie use the pool during the morning hours, some of them two mornings per week.

The Girl Scouts have swimming lessons on Wednesday mornings, and swimming groups on Thursday nights. The Cub Scouts regularly swim with their dads on Monday nights.

Mantooth also mentioned that the only free time for the pool personnel to take care of cleaning and maintenance chores is Sunday mornings.

Father of Local Man Killed In Tractor Mishap

Funeral services were incomplete at press time for William F. Rudd, 55, father of Oscar Rudd of Muleshoe, who was killed Wednesday afternoon near Earth.

Mr. Rudd, who had been employed by Lamb county only a short time as a tractor operator, is thought to have fallen from the tractor, and was run over by a one-way plow attached to the tractor.

Mr. Rudd formerly farmed near Earth, moving there from Littlefield several years ago. He was a long time resident of the area.

Surviving are his wife, of Earth, a daughter in Clovis, and a son, Oscar, of Muleshoe.

The following boys have almost completed their first class ratings: Corky Green, Stanley Woods, Charles Erod, Glen Clark, Darrel Burton, Harlan Curry, Jerry Don Coulter and Mike Miller.

First Aid merit badges were won by Herbert Blair, Stanley Wood, Jerry Don Coulter, Kenny Heathington, and Harlan Curry. Kenny Heathington and Herbert Blair worked on their Pioneering merit badges also.

The boys were furnished transportation to the camp by Farris Heathington, and Charles Lenau furnished a pickup truck for their use while at camp. Bob Green, Owen Jones and Bill Moore went after the boys and brought them home when camp ended.

ATTEND CONVENTION

Dr. and Mrs. Brooke Green are in Dallas this week attending the Texas State Chiropractic Association convention. They expect to be back in their office here Monday morning.

FIRST BRACEROS ARRIVE MONDAY NIGHT

Farm Labor Situation Brightens As Domestic, Imported Labor Arrives

The farm labor picture appeared to brighten somewhat early this week with the arrival of the first load of Braceros imported into the Muleshoe territory since harvest time. A load of 90 arrived Monday night at Western Texas Farm Labor headquarters here, with two other bus-loads expected by the end of the week. The domestic labor situation improved considerably also over last week, when more than 100 farmers demanded immediate assistance in weeding their vegetable and field crops, at a mass meeting held Monday morning.

Attitude Changed Toward Bracero Law, Millen Says

Representatives of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Bracero Labor Committee, in Washington, D. C., this week to testify at hearings on Public Law 78 said by phone Tuesday that the general feeling there is that Public Law 78, the law governing the use of Mexican Bracero Labor, will probably be extended another two years.

W. T. Millen, Muleshoe, Chairman of the PCG committee, said the sentiment among Labor Department officials seems to have changed and the officials now recognize the seriousness of the agricultural labor picture.

In hearings that began Monday, Labor and State Department spokesmen suggested one amendment to provide a two-year extension of the present law, slated to expire June 30, 1952. They also were quoted as testifying that despite the number of unemployed persons in this country, there is continuing need to bring in Mexicans to help harvest cotton and truck crops.

Bracero Ceiling For County Set At 480 For June

The Bracero limit for Bailey county during the month of June has been set at 480, according to an announcement made Wednesday by the Littlefield office of Texas Employment Commission.

The ceiling figure of 480 Bracero laborers, was set following consultation between TEC officials, the Secretary of Labor, and representatives of interested groups in the county, according to the announcement.

These 480 Braceros, some of which arrived Monday night, with others to follow later this week, may be employed only in agricultural work, such as cotton, vegetables, grain, and farm and ranch hands.

William Willis, TEC representative in Muleshoe, told The Journal Wednesday morning he had more domestic workers on hand at that time than he could place.

Assistant Labor Secretary Neil Brown Monday urged a two-year extension of the law under which Braceros are brought into this country to help harvest crops.

Brown made the request in testimony prepared for a House Agriculture Sub-committee considering a bill to extend the law for an indefinite period. The program is scheduled to expire in June, 1952.

Brown said the recession's impact has increased the number of U. S. workers available for farm labor, but he said shortages still occur in many areas.

A large percentage of laid-off industrial workers just won't accept farm work because of the wage scale.

Benny Pina, office manager of Western Texas Farm Labor Association, told The Journal Monday that he expected at least 240 more Braceros to arrive by the end of this week, in addition to the 90 who came in Monday night from processing points near El Paso.

Pina said the Bracero situation is opening up some, but is still on a limited basis, due partially to the clamp down by Department of Labor officials pending an investigation of alleged violations in the Plainview area.

Domestic Labor
Meanwhile, William Willis, office manager of the Muleshoe Texas Employment Commission office said Monday that he had five crews come in over the weekend seeking work. These were all citizen laborers.

One crew consisted of 42 persons, another of 12 and a third of 18 workers.

Under TEC rules, an area cannot be certified for Bracero labor until all openings are first offered to domestic laborers.

The dispute last week arose over the fact that area farmers needed hands at once, and the TEC would not certify the area for Braceros due to the clamp down. Domestic migrant workers had not arrived in the area as yet, and the farmers were caught in the bind.

Officials of the Bracero Labor Users Association are meeting with Department of Labor officials in Washington this week, in attempt to clarify a number of matters of disagreement.

Bill Millen, Joe Sooter, E. K. Angeley and Bud Williams are in Washington this week attending the meeting, along with representatives of the Plains Cotton Growers Association and other farm organizations.

VOTING BOOTHS TO BE BUILT . . . American Legion Designated Polling Place For Muleshoe

The American Legion hall in Muleshoe has been designated as the voting place for the Muleshoe box for all 1952 elections, it was announced Monday at a meeting of the Bailey County Commissioners Court. Judge Glen Williams was authorized by the court to have individual voting booths constructed in the hall for the privacy of those casting ballots. Heretofore, voting in the Muleshoe box has been in the district court which offers two main disadvantages. It is on the second floor of the building which makes a hardship on many people, and it offers no privacy or adequate place in which voters may mark their ballots in comfort.

The Commissioners also voted to enter a contract with Republic National Life Insurance Co., for providing life, accidental death and hospitalization insurance coverage for all county employees, effective July 1. Payments of premiums will be made on a payroll deduction plan for each employee, with optional benefits available.

In other action, the Commissioners voted to transfer $2,000 from the road and bridge fund to each of the four precincts for operating funds for the month of June.

And they also transferred $110 from the general fund to the sinking fund for payment of four interest coupons of $27.50 each on bond number 17, which is currently due.

After approving payment of several grocery bills for destitute persons, the court adjourned.

Special Funds To Be Sought For LL Foundation Day

Special collections will be taken at the Thursday and Friday afternoon Little League baseball games here to be sent to the National Little League Foundation.
The special collection, LL president Bill Moore said, is to help the LL Foundation raise one million dollars to maintain the Little League program in the U. S. and several foreign countries.
The fund is about half complete now, having been started in 1951, Moore said.
Saturday is Foundation Day for all Little League teams.

REMEMBER WHEN?
by JOHN CROW

Their names were Freeman F. Gosden and Charles J. Correll. A lot of people never knew them by their real names, but millions knew their voices and the characters they portrayed. And no one who listened to the radio in those days failed to hear, to know and to delight in "Amos 'n' Andy" when they were first heard on the air.

That was a year when Americans needed a laugh, for the bubbling prosperity of the past decade had burst, and the country was heading into a trying time. For the decade that followed, and long afterwards, these famous radio characters continued to give Americans many moments of forgetfulness and laughter. "Amos 'n' Andy" became the oldest continuous series on the air. The year in which their voices were first heard was a real landmark in the history of radio, one which a lot of people can still recall.

Remember the year?
That was a year when people who had gambled before weren't in a mood to gamble any more. A car buyer wanted a sure thing, a good car and a deal that meant legitimate savings.

The year was 1930
It makes good sense for today's car buyer to want to get all the real savings he can on a new car deal...and that's just what we're offering on the value-packed new 1958 CHEVROLET. Just give us a try...and we'll prove what we mean by savings...with a higher trade and the most convenient terms, plus the finest service when you need it.

ST. CLAIR WAS RUNNER-UP . . .
Muleshoe Golfers Won Many Places In Annual Morton Invitational Tourney

Billy Jim St. Clair was very close to winning the championship in the annual Morton Invitational Golf tournament Sunday afternoon but didn't quite do it. His opponent in the finals, Lanier Wilson, of North Texas State College, sank a five foot putt to win the 18th hole and the round by one hole.

For a time it appeared that the championship final round might be a Muleshoe affair between St. Clair and Russell Haberer. But Russ, after playing brilliantly throughout the tournament, lost to the same Wilson, also by one hole, in a tough round that morning. Haberer had beaten Al Holton, of Lubbock, the medalist Friday and was said to have established himself as the sentimental favorite to win the tourney championship.

Bill Jim had dropped another North Texas College golfer, Jack Harris, in the semi-finals, 4 and

3. In other tourney play, Noel Woodley of Muleshoe lost to Leon Ward, Denver City, 1 up, in the first flight consolation. Sam Fox of Muleshoe lost to George Stewart, Denver City, 2 and 1, in the battle for first place in the second flight.

Jerry Angeley of Muleshoe defeated O'Neal Rockey of Muleshoe 2 and 1 in the first round in second flight consolation, then beat C. M. McMasters, Morton 3 and 2 to win consolation honors.

Don Moore of Muleshoe lost to Dr. B. H. Lee, Morton, in the third flight.

Harold Newsom of Muleshoe won the fourth flight. In the first round he had defeated Charles Alsop, also of Muleshoe. Vance Wagon of Muleshoe advanced to the finals in fourth flight consolation, then lost to Ick McIntyre, of Levelland.

Altogether it was a pretty good

Red Raiders To Bank On Experience In Facing Tough Fall Grid Schedule

With five Southwest Conference teams on the fall schedule, Coach DeWitt Weaver's Red Raiders are going to be counting on added experience to offset the formidable foes they will face.

Weaver's line, especially at guard, is weak in depth. The backfield is experienced, but the outcome may bear heavily on position switches, notably Bentley from fullback to guard; Turnbow from center to guard; and Dellinger from quarterback to halfback. Biggest losses are guard Charlie Moore, end Pat Hartfield, both graduating, and tackle Bobby Cline, low grades.

All statistical leaders are returning, in addition to leading rusher of 1956, Doug Dancan, out scholastically last year.

The team will play from the Split-T formation again. The squad includes 17 seniors, 12 juniors, 34 sophs. Average weight is 202 pounds in the line and 176 pounds in the backfield.

The schedule opens September 20 at Dallas against A&M, followed by West Texas State September 27 at Lubbock, and Texas at Austin on October 4. TCU on October 11; Baylor at Lubbock October 18; Tulane at New Orleans October 31; Arizona at Lubbock November 8; Tulsa at Tulsa November 15; Arkansas at Lubbock November 22, and Houston at Houston November 29.

Cardinals Are Guests of Rotary

Members of the Cardinals, Little League baseball team sponsored by the Rotary Club, were guests of the Club at its noon luncheon Tuesday. Also present were the team managers, Herb Griffiths and Dr. George Chambers.

Each boy was introduced by a member of the club, who gave the boy's playing position and other data about him. Griffiths then gave an interesting account of the boys' playing so far, number of hits, batting averages, pitching performances and their league ages. He reminded the club that the Cardinals at the time were tied for first place in the season's first half play, with the Lions team; each had won 5 games and lost 3. Deciding game

DOUBLE ATTACK—Cotton's air force is doing double duty here. One crop duster is applying an insecticide to control insects late in the season while the other is spreading a defoliant to make the cotton shed its leaves, thus facilitating mechanical harvesting. Pad and Fan Saves Profit Summer is the time for rejoicing — but not if you are in the egg laying business. To the egg producer, hot summer temperatures can mean fewer and smaller eggs, and the possible heat death of many layers.

Research and testing conducted by Texas A & M College proves the pad and fan cooling method to be effective in reducing layer deaths and improving summer egg production.

Mr. Art Chesher of Littlefield is the first egg producer in the area to install this profit-saving cooling system. A unit has been installed in his 30' by 160' egg laying house using four 1/2 horsepower electric exhaust fans and 50 feet of aspen pads.

The pad and fan cooling system is an overgrown evaporative cooler which may be constructed in size to meet the cooling needs of varying sizes of layer houses. Mr. Chesher, by using 4 electric exhaust fans, gains complete flow of cool air throughout the laying house without the extreme drafts common to evaporative coolers installed in the conventional manner. Water is supplied to the aspen pads through an ordinary 4" eaves gutter and is recirculated by a centrifugal sump pump.

Mr. Chesher expects the pad and fan cooling system to increase summer egg production 20% and reduce layer culling as much as 12% without creating a moisture or litter problem.

Mr. Art Chesher of Littlefield expects the pad and fan cooling system to increase production as much as 20% and reduce layer culling 12%.

"My double oven ELECTRIC RANGE gets me out of the kitchen QUICK!"

says Mrs. P. R. Garre,
4212 GEM LAKE ROAD,
AMARILLO, TEXAS

Your Reddy Electric dealer has a bonus for you if you see a demonstration of the electric range in his store. He'll give you a certificate good for two big lamps at any Public Service office. Yellow lamp sockets, which fit ordinary sockets, eliminate most of the light that insects see, yet provide a soft, comfortable light for outdoor living.

And that's good. For when this vivacious and attractive doctor's wife is out of the kitchen, she's spending much of her time making her community a better place to live. Time is important to Mrs. Garre. In addition to being a fine mother and homemaker, she is a working leader in the P.T.A., Amarillo's Child Guidance Center, The Family Service of Amarillo, and The Potter-Randall Citizen's Committee. You'll find there's more time for you — and the things you want to do when you cook — and live — better electrically.

Social Security Representative Here On June 19

Some aged wives and widows who are separated but not divorced from their husbands could be receiving monthly social security benefits on the basis of their husbands' work if they would come in and file application. John G. Hutton, district social security manager, said today.

A 1957 change in the law did away with the requirement that a wife must be living with or supported by her husband when she files application, and that a widow must have been living with or supported by her husband at the time of his death. Now, a 62 year old wife or widow may be eligible for a monthly benefit merely on the basis of a legal marriage that is still in existence—even though they may have been separated for many years and are at opposite ends of the country. There has been no change in the law with respect to the provision that a wife can receive monthly benefits only if her husband is also receiving his benefit.

Aged wives and widows who believe they can qualify for benefits as a result of this change in the law should contact us promptly to determine what their rights are, Hutton concluded.

A representative of the Lubbock Social Security Office will be in Muleshoe on June 19, at 9:30 at the courtroom and will be glad to assist in all matters pertaining to Social Security.

NEW MEXICO SHOWS INTEREST Proposed Muleshoe To Portales Cutoff For U. S. Highway 70 Gaining Favor

New Mexico State Highway Commission is now considering the feasibility of a highway 70 cutoff road between Portales and Muleshoe. The commission members told a group of Portales and Muleshoe men that surveys would be made soon to get data on cost and desirability for the new road.

Muleshoe and Portales have worked for several years to develop a road straight west from Muleshoe to join with highway 70, shortening the distance between the two towns by several miles. Roosevelt County would build a road from the end of Bailey County's FM 1760 west to an intersection with U. S. 70 a few miles north of Portales.

In the group calling on the Commission in Santa Fe last week were Harrol Griffiths, president of the Muleshoe Highway 70 chapter, and Senn Stemmmons, CoC manager.

Portales men in the group included all four members of the Roosevelt County Commissioners' Court; Ray Franz, CoC manager; two other members of their Highway 70 association; and Leonard Shur, of Vernon, state president of Texas U. S. 70 Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Lois Schoenberger left Monday for Boulder to visit Mr. and Mrs. Jim Johnson, Mrs. Johnson's son and daughter-in-law, and their new baby.

Babson Discusses TAX CUTS AND SMALL BUSINESSES

Babson Park, Mass., June 12—There is now much talk about tax cuts. Some say they are overdue, regardless of recession. Certainly, the time has come to give small business more attention.

Deficit Financing Now Means Confiscation Later
With so many governmental expenses constantly mounting, whether for national defense, for domestic welfare, or for various economic subsidies, "something's gotta give". We can be sure that so long as we are in an arms race with Russia, the "giving" will not be in the vast expenditures for Explorers and Vanguards or for atomic submarines. I also fear that any party which advocates belt-tightening in domestic welfare measures could not be placed in office in the next election.

Opposes Across-the-Board Cuts

Tax allowances for depletion and accelerated depreciation of material resources favor the large concerns. But no allowances are made for the depletion of human resources suffered by small owner-operators, such as 14-hour-a-day storekeepers and their families. Large concerns receive fast write-offs on new machinery and equipment. But small companies which rely largely on second-hand equipment are not allowed similar write-offs. This discrimination should be removed. Small companies should be allowed to retain at least as large a proportion of earnings as the bigger concerns.

The above means deficit financing and borrowing from the future which, if ever paid, will be in far-distant days. Or we may repudiate the borrowings, as was done when we went off the gold standard in 1932. This would surely lead to further inflation—clipping the currency and reducing the purchasing power of the dollar.

In family life we do not put as heavy a burden on boys as on men. But in taxation we do place too heavy a load on new and small businesses. There should be an exemption of $25,000 of net earnings for small businesses; and corporation taxes, like individual taxes, should be graduated. These economic injustices and inequities of the present tax structure would only be perpetuated by an "across-the-board" tax cut.

Importance of a Just Balance
Various adjustments will be made in the attempt to restore a fair balance between vital economic segments. In this connection, the organized movement to keep independent small competitive businesses in existence has been gathering momentum for 50 years, after a period of great overconcentration in big business even to the point of monopoly.

Importance of Small Business

Upon the survival of smaller business depends the survival of our middle class as owners and operators of productive property. A middle class of hired men will not suffice to protect our economic, social, and political freedoms. A sound program of forestry makes provision for saplings as well as for mature trees. The economic saplings are the real "growth industries", insuring a healthy future. We must give more encouragement to accentuating the values of individual incentive. America's greatest danger is not from enemies without, but from enemies within. I have in mind too big bureaucratic government, too big business, and too big labor.

Sandhills Philosopher Amazed to Find Senatoring Like Farming, You Spend More Than You Take In

Editor's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm probably is confused this week, but it's not the first time.

Dear editor:
According to an article I read yesterday afternoon while I was sitting under a tree out here on my farm, I could have said while I was resting under a tree but I have never felt that a man had to be tired before he could sit down in the shade of a tree in the summer time and I sat down under this tree because I wanted to—the high cost of campaigning for office has become a serious problem and the two major political parties are trying to do something about it.

You mean to say Senatoring is no better job than farming? I can understand how a farmer would spend more making a crop than he gets; it happens all the time, but I always figured a Senator was smarter.

However, what interests me about the thing is that the two parties are going to do something about it. A drive is now underway to get individuals all over the country to contribute more money. Doesn't make any difference which party you give it to, give it to the one of your choice, but will be taken and distributed around to cut down on the high cost of campaigning. This way a candidate will be obligated to a lot of people instead of a few.

I think we ought to get behind this program. It'll keep politicians interested in their jobs. Anybody can see if a man has to pay more for his job than his job pays, it won't be long until he gives it up and tries something else, and how could the United States face the world if it came up with half the seats in the U. S. Senate un-filled.

It's one thing for a farmer to give up and move to town, but the United States would be the laughing stock of the world if half its Senators and two-thirds its Congressmen threw in the towel because, economically speaking, they were marginal politicians, no more able to justify their existence than marginal farmers.

Personally, I think we need the U. S. Senate and Congress too and people who say if the job doesn't pay they ought to give it up and try something else are taking a mighty short-sighted view of the matter. If you'll tell me where I'm supposed to send my money to keep the Senate filled, I'll think it over.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Today's Meditation

Read Matthew 23:16-20.
You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide. (John 15:16, RSV.)

It was my privilege to hear a sermon on this text by a young lady who was about to sail for the mission field. I was thrilled as she talked. She seemed completely dedicated. She had sincerely accepted the choice to go to a faraway land and tell to those who had never heard it the glorious good news of Christ. I felt confident that through her the Saviour would become real to the people among whom she would soon begin her labors.

PRAYER
Dear Lord, because we have accepted Thee as our Saviour, we have been chosen of Thee to carry the good news to others. By our living and our teaching, use us this day to proclaim the glorious gospel of Christ. In His name we pray. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
Christ expects of me every service I can render.

Praise For The Federation Of Independents

The lack of concerted action, until recently, by organized small business (such as the National Federation of Independent Business), has allowed many inequities and discriminations to get into our tax structures. Among the shackles placed on new and small businesses are the privileges and subsidies given to large-scale business by the government. These include research grants for defense work.

Machinery developed by these large concerns, with tax money, also works to the disadvantage of their small competitors. With research now such a vital ingredient of all business, this artificial advantage to bigness is crucial. If research grants to smaller companies, had been adequate,

GO TO SEYMOUR

Mrs. James Meason and her sons, Eugene, Larry, Ronnie and Terry, spent last weekend in Seymour with her husband, who is in the wheat harvest.

Let me tell you what I saved when I drove a new Plymouth...then bought one!

Just like a lot of other people, I was putting off buying a new car... even though we sure needed one. Then I found out what my Plymouth dealer was offering in the way of low prices and really big trades.

Mister, when I saw what I saved I knew there was no use putting off any longer! Got more for my old car than I believed possible. (Plymouth dealers need used cars and can sell all they get!) Got a terrifically low price on the new Plymouth... and choice of models besides... hard-tops, sedans, convertibles, wagons.

And I saved a cool $140 on the ride alone! Plymouth's top-luxury ride, Torsion-Aire Ride, is standard at no extra cost, while you have to pay up to $140 for the top ride of competing "low-price 3" cars.

What's more, I got the car that proved it can save me gasoline, by winning the 1958 Mobilgas Economy Run. A car with Silver Dart Styling that is so far ahead right now it will still be worth more when I trade. With the kind of easy handling that makes every minute of driving a downright thrill! The stamina to stand up without nagging adjustments and big repairs... a car as much better built as it is better looking!

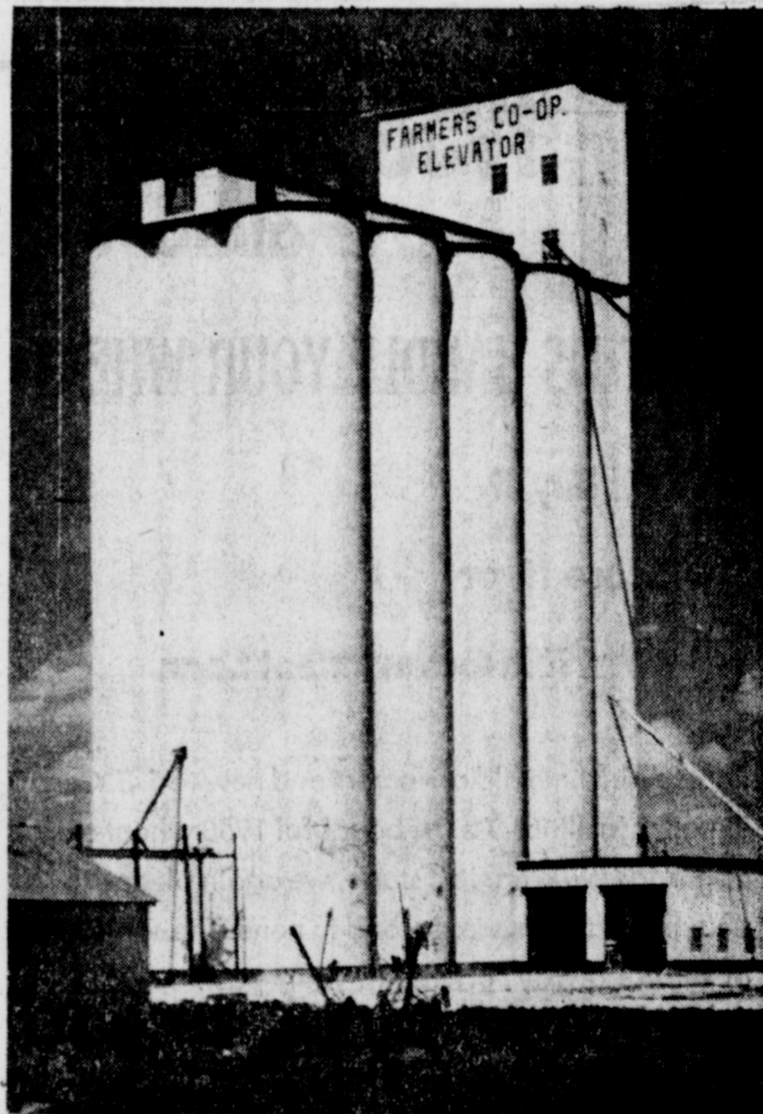

Any wonder I quit waiting? Take my tip... get your Plymouth bargain right now.

Today's best buy...tomorrow's best trade... Plymouth

Insect Guide For Home Gardeners Released By A & M

A good home garden can be source of much pleasure and user of the family food budget. But both the pleasure and the food can be greatly reduced by harmful insects if proper control is not exercised, say Texas extension entomologists.

With few exceptions, vegetable insect control is a preventive program. Control measures should begin before insects appear in damaging numbers. Dusts and sprays, in most instances, are usually effective.

A new leaflet has been released by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service entitled "Text-Guide for Controlling Insects in Vegetable Crops." It has a rough rundown on insects that do harm almost any vegetable crop. It includes information on garden mixtures, methods of application and precautions and contains a chart outlining a dust or spray program for controlling vegetable insects.

This leaflet should prove most helpful to all home gardeners. It can be obtained from local county agents or the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas. Ask for L-255.

Wheat Support For 1959 Depends On Quota Balloting

The level of price support for the 1959 wheat crop will be determined by the outcome of the June 20 referendum on marketing quotas for next year's crop.

Searcy M. Ferguson, chairman, State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, declared today.

"Aside from a choice between a marketing quota program and no marketing quotas, the big issue to be decided by the June 20 vote will be the level of price support available for the 1959 wheat crop," the Chairman stated.

"Acreage allotments will remain in effect no matter how the vote goes, as a means of determining eligibility for support."

As announced on May 1, price support for the 1959 wheat crop will be available in the commercial wheat area at a national average of at least $1.81 per bushel, or 75 percent of parity, if marketing quotas for the 1959-crop of wheat are approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting in the referendum. This minimum will not be reduced, but may be increased if a combination of the wheat parity price and wheat supply relationships as of July 1, 1959 indicate a higher support price.

If quotas for the 1959 wheat crop are not approved by at least two-thirds of the voters, however, the support level in the commercial wheat producing area will drop to about $1.20 per bushel, or 50 percent of parity, as directed by law. Compliance with allotments would continue to be a condition of eligibility for the lower price support.

Those farmers who vote in the referendum will be the ones who decide whether or not marketing quotas will be in effect for the 1959 wheat crop, Chairman Ferguson points out. All farmers are

Cotton Classing Course Includes Muleshoe Student

Cotton classing—from age-old hand and sight methods to tests with high precision instruments—is being studied by 16 persons in a two-week Texas Tech course.

In addition to practicing actual cotton classing operations, the students are attending lectures and demonstrations on other cotton industry phases.

Students who complete the course, which ends June 13, will receive certificates as to their cotton classing proficiency.

Lecturers scheduled during the course include Bob Poteet, Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.; Dan Davis, Plains Cotton Co-op Ass'n.; Stan Greenwald, compressing and warehousing specialist; Fred Parham, cotton futures specialist; and Jerry Boothe, McFadden Bros.

The class is scheduled to visit Post Thursday, June 12, to see cotton shearing manufactured.

Students in the course include J. R. Purdy of Muleshoe.

Hi Plains Farm Advisory Group To Meet June 17

Harold Hinn, Chairman of the Advisory Council, announced today that the Advisory Council of the High Plains Station of the Texas Research Foundation will hold its early summer meeting at the Station at Halfway, Texas, at 4:30 p.m., Tuesday, June 17.

The research will be briefly reviewed by the members of the Executive Committee and the 1958 program analyzed. Members of the Council interested in the various phases of agricultural research will present their ideas for future studies of the station and the 1959 program will be set up.

The Council will be guests at a buffet supper at 6:00 p.m. in the Halfway Community Center which will feature an address by Dr. C. L. Landell, Director of the Texas Research Foundation at Renner, Texas.

A tour of the Station will conclude the Advisory Council session. Members of the Advisory Council from Bailey county are Jesse M. Osborn and H. E. Schuster.

Those farmers who vote in the referendum will be the ones who decide whether or not marketing quotas will be in effect for the 1959 wheat crop, Chairman Ferguson points out. All farmers are eligible to vote if they will share in the 1959 wheat crop from a farm in the commercial wheat area on which the wheat harvested for grain in 1959 will exceed 15 acres and provided they did not take part in the 1958 feed wheat program.

Weekly Cotton Insect Report

Thrips infestations on cotton have ranged from light to heavy. Early plantings have generally had the largest populations, but some later plantings have registered rather high counts. While hard rains have reduced infestations in some localities, reinfestations have at times been rapid. The abundant weed growth upon which thrips feed and reproduce, accounts for such rapid movement of the pest into cotton fields.

Where control applications have been made, cotton should be checked for presence of thrips. Where reinfestation is rapid it may be necessary to shorten the interval between treatment to five days for best control.

Cutworms and aphids have been reported in heavy spotted infestations. Such infestations have been restricted to rather small acreages.

Grasshoppers have been reported throughout the area. No feeding on cotton has been reported. Applications of insecticides would offer little possibility for control of the hoppers until feeding on cotton ceases.

For control measures for various insects, consult the 1958 Cotton Insect Control Guide which can be obtained from the County Agricultural Agent's Office.

Parmer County Farm Bureau News

by Raymond Euler

Woody Fleming, Earl Chester, A. L. Black and Bruce Parr flew to Washington Saturday to meet with the Labor Department subcommittee in an effort to get the Bracero law extended into the 1959 crop period. It would expire if extension were not gained.

American Farm Bureau has requested extension, but with the employment situation like it is, it was felt that it would be good to have some men on hand to bolster efforts for extension.

The Labor Department's claim is that there are too many domestic unemployed on hand to be importing Mexican labor. Farmers know, however, that most of the domestic men have no desire to do "stoop" labor, which is what Braceros are needed for. We are anxious to hear of the success of this effort.

The Parmer county men went in cooperation with four men from Bailey, Lamb and Castro counties. You have read or heard of the meetings held in Muleshoe on this subject. Joe Sooter, president of Bailey County Farm Bureau is due much of the credit for getting the project underway.

Gilbert Kaltwasser, PCFB president had planned to be one of those on the Washington mission, but he landed in the Clovis Memorial Hospital the day before embarkation.

Your membership committee and others appreciate your response to billings and other notices of your memberships being due or lapsed. Membership has remained substantially above six hundred. In case you do not know, you are not counted in the membership if your dues are not paid within the month in which they are due, even though you are counted a renewal if you renew within six months. This way, the actual membership in good standing is all that is counted when such figures are given.

CONSIDER THIS: Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof, when thy neighbor hath put thee to shame. Prov. 25:8.

Washington News Letter

by LYNDON B. JOHNSON Senator

Dear Friend:

We have come to the time of a great national re-building.

We must re-build the American spirit and, with the fibre of the American character.

We must re-build the American image before the world and, with it, the world's respect for the principles for which America has stood.

We must re-build the American position and, with it, the strength of freedom as the most powerful force at work in the hearts of the human race.

As Americans, we do not live in the same world we knew a few short months ago. Many basic American assumptions have undergone the greatest change and challenge.

The assumption of American technological superiority has been made subject to serious and direct challenge. The assumption of American economic stability and permanent American prosperity has been dealt a blow that commands attention. The assumption of American leadership among the community of nations in the West has been severely undermined.

Our resources, our capacity, our knowledge, our competence are the same, undiminished and unfettered. What is needed is a determination to unleash those resources and march forward, secure in the confidence that freedom is a mighty force which can carry America to even greater heights.

We should start now to make Washington not just a capital power but a campus of free men. We should use the roundtable, the seminar and the lecture room so that our country will be the spiritual leader of the awakening now stirring the West.

We can, if we wish, safely invest each year at least the cost of two nuclear bombs in the building of great, new libraries.

We can channel the cost of an army division into the support of great, new schools for the humanities. We can set aside a part of our national budget to finance laboratories and other facilities for programs of pure research.

In our exchange programs, we should concentrate not merely on bringing young people here to teach them but also on bringing their elders here to help teach us. The farmer of India, the worker of Europe, the teacher of Latin

GAINS IN AGRICULTURE THROUGH BETTER RESEARCH

Last summer, Nikita Krushchev told Americans via a television interview that Communism would eventually win its contest with Capitalism.

The Russian leader was not threatening a hot war. Instead, he based his prediction on the claim that the Soviet Union would in five years outstrip the United States in the per-capita production of meat, milk, and butter plus other agricultural products.

In a word, he was reminding us that a nation is only as strong as its agriculture. But while Russia still appears to have an edge in "Sputniks", that nation is far behind us in farming methods—yet is determined to catch up.

Fortunately, we are not lagging in our scientific achievements in agriculture. The Russians will have quite a way to go if they catch us because our own progress in farming has been phenomenal.

In 1939, when World War II broke out in Europe, American farmers produced a 2½ billion bushel corn crop on 88 million acres. Last year, they produced 32 percent more corn on 17 percent less land. Since 1939, the national wheat crop has risen from 740 to 940 million bushels, but harvested acres have gone down from 52½ to 43½ million. Compared with 1939, farmers last year reduced cotton acreage by 45 percent, and still produced 95 percent as much cotton.

The story is the same with livestock. In 1956, dairymen had nearly 3 million fewer cows than in 1940, but each cow produced two-thirds of a ton more milk. For every two eggs a hen laid in 1940, her descendant is laying about three today. Nearly 100 million cattle and horses grazed the same acreage that in 1940 supported only 83 million head.

A pig crop of 90 million in 1956 compares with only 80 million produced on the same farm in 1940.

All told, our farmers today are producing 40 percent more from about the same acreage they had in 1939.

Figures on manpower required to do the job also are significant. In World War I, our farm commodities were produced by 13½ million workers; in World War II by 10½ million, and today by only 7½ million.

The efforts of our agricultural scientists underlie much of this spectacular gain. Their research has practically changed the face of American agriculture. But in the long run, it was the American farmer, himself, who completed the job.

"I Cut 2,190 Tons of Ensilage From 104 Acres of Maize"

Leo Bezner, Bushland, Tex., says: "I put down 80 pounds of Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia pre-plant on 104 acres of irrigated maize land. I cut 2,190 tons of ensilage, or slightly more than 21 tons per acre. I use Phillips 66 Ammonia to help increase yields on all my cash crops."

Other Southwestern farmers have discovered that the 82% nitrogen in top quality Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia helps them to get more profit per acre, through higher yields and lower production costs. They have found that, by using Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia, they get more cotton that grades out higher at the gin; yields of sorghum grain and ensilage are increased; more marketable vegetables are harvested, and profits on wheat are increased through better forage, and higher yields of grain.

DOLLAR DIPLOMACY DEBACLE

All over the world we are in trouble in our self-appointed role of the modern Good Samaritan.

We are in grave danger of losing the friends and allies we thought we had bought with more than a hundred billion dollars in foreign aid since the end of World War II.

A sizeable, vocal and violent minority in many parts of the world thoroughly distrust and dislike us. There is increasing evidence of anti-Americanism among the peoples of the so-called "friendly nations" of the Free World.

There is a growing feeling in many nations where we have spent most freely that we have baited a trap for them with our lavish dollar generosity; that we have lured them into an impending war with Russia and her allies.

Our motives are, to say the least, suspect. We have made no secret of the fact that the main reason for our global spending spree has been to build a defense against the spread of Communism.

Recent saber-rattling by the Kremlin has led some people abroad to fear that the day may be fast approaching when we will demand our "pound of flesh"—their lives—in repayment of our generosity.

Their fear of Communism is exceeded only by their horror of world-wide atomic and hydrogen bomb-war. They had rather live with Communism than live at all.

We know of no-one in this country who wants war with Russia. All of us would do anything, we reasonably and honorably could to avoid a war that could again doom civilization to the "Dark Age." Yet, to many people in the world, we appear to be the aggressor.

Russia has waged a propagandea peace offensive; she has talked much about co-existence, live and let live. She has announced an end to atomic and hydrogen tests and has challenged us to do the same. We have refused.

Facts as we know them are important, but people all over the world are influenced by what they believe. Many of them believe Russia rather than us.

What Do We Do Now?

The first thing we are doing already is a reappraisal of our foreign policy. We're taking a new look at the breakdown of dollar diplomacy. We're beginning to question whether dollars are more convincing than words.

Talk, we have always been told, is cheap. Russia has made better use than we of words. She may be able to talk more and longer than we can spend, and, if she does, we may find we have lost some allies we believed we had in our pocket.

So, the first departure from old policies is to be a gigantic, world-wide, American-financed public relations program. We are going to try to sell freedom and democracy rather than buy friends and allies.

We should continue our foreign aid program, but take the price-tag off it. We should quit trying to tell the people of other nations what kind of a government they should have, and how they should manage their affairs. We should begin to mind our own business and quit meddling in the affairs of others.

We should try to make friends rather than buy friendship. Our whole concept of foreign diplomacy may be about to undergo the most dramatic revision in more than 100 years.

Christian Science Services

Man's God-given safety and protection will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon "God the Preserver of Man."

The Apostle Paul's healing of Eutychus, the young man who "fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead" (Acts 20), will be included in the Scriptural readings.

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (424:5): "Accidents are unknown to God, or immortal Mind, and we must leave the mortal basis of belief and unite with the one Mind, in order to change the notion of chance to the proper sense of God's unerring direction and thus bring out harmony."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (121:7, 8): "The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: . . . The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore."
