It Takes A Master To Impart Style

Because this is so, we select our women's suits and coats from the master makers who employ master designers. You will find evidence of these master designers' work in every garment shown here.

OUR SUITS will attract you because of the popular lengths of the jackets—some are knee length, some are shorter and some are longer. Most of the jackets flare from the waist line. Many clever new collar effects are noted—fur trimmings are much in evidence, and many other new style features prevail.

OUR COATS—whether it be a plain material, plaid, plush or corduroy, you'll find a host of unusual new styles this season. The general style tendency is the flare effect, and this is varied by the addition of full and half belts, belted back effects and other novelties. Large collar in cape effects add much to the attractiveness of some of the models.

A $56,000,000 "RUN" ON A CHALMERS CAR

"Run"—is the word. It's like a run on a bank. Only it's a run on a car—a Chalmers car. It seems endless. The people want more.

And so more must be built for them—20,000 more.

You remember a while ago that six hundred men took one look at this new car and bought $22,000,000 worth in forty very brief minutes. They were the Chalmers Dealers.

Now they insist that more of the same kind be built—more of the 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers.

So the Chalmers executives have put through a factory work order for 20,000 more of them.

They built and delivered, in six months, 18,000. That was all they intended to build for an entire year. That completed their part of the $22,000,000 affair.

We got them to build another 10,000. We thought that would be enough to last through the fall. But no, the 10,000 were quickly taken up during the summer months.

So they are going to build 20,000 more. That means, all told, 48,000 cars—or $56,000,000 worth of these remarkable 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers.

So you see why I use the word "run." The people who know good cars—like Emerson's wise saying about the man who makes a better mouse trap, etc., will find a beaten path to his door, even though he live in the woods—they create this ever-increasing desire to own a Chalmers.

They have sought quality—not price. We seldom have people ask us the price of this car. When we tell them $1090 Detroit, they are very n... We get little of the "price" trade, such taken back. who come to us have passed that era. Most of those They want quality. And they know in car buying, where to look for it. They look for now pretty well of the engine, in the action of the clutch, in the sound action of the steering apparatus, in the differential.

They examine the radiator, try the brake, the kind of glass in the windshield, note the material in the top, and then poke around the kind of corners of the body.

That much done, they get into the car and try her out. For they are smart enough to know that the biggest result of quality is performance.

That's what usually brings us the sale. For the reason is the car's middle name. She's got acceleration—so lively and full of spunk.

And then she climbs hills so quickly and goes the road so well at a rapid clip.

And, best of all, she handles so easily. She's as obedient as any creature man ever made.

Once you try her you, too, will understand the "run" on her. It's a thing difficult to explain, but three editions of a car in a year's time is something to ponder over.

We have it direct by telegraph that Chalmers will continue to make these 3400 r. p. m.'s next season. There's no time limit set. As soon as these last 20,000 are built and out of the way there will probably be more.

So you're dead safe in getting a model of a car that has in no way reached its peak of popularity.

MILE OF TRENCHES TAKEN. GERMANS LOSE THAT AMOUNT IN A BRITISH ATTACK.

An official report given out at London says the British captured a mile of German trenches in the Somme region. The French also report that a German attack in the same section was repelled by artillery.

The Germans captured the Dutch steamer Prins Hendrik, bound from London to Flushing, and took her to Zeebrugge with her eight passengers. German naval forces captured the British steamer Colchester, owned by the Great Eastern Railway company, and took her to Zeebrugge.

Officer Slays Man and Arrested.
A white man who attempted to hold up four persons in the Oak Cliff section of Dallas was shot and killed by Police Officer W. J. Jones. The man was named Jim Cobb. The officer was with two ladies and a gentleman walking along a street when a pistol was poked in Jones' face and he was then ordered to hold up his hands. He refused and a bullet shot off his coat. The man resisted arrest and was shot. Officer was suspended pending investigation. He was charged with killing Cobb and put under $2,500 bond. He was wounded. Jones was indicted by the grand jury on charge of murder.

President Against Militarism.
"The whole spirit and principle of militarism is abominable to me," said President Wilson in a letter made public by the "Student Pacifists," an organization arranging an anti-militarist demonstration at New York Saturday. The president, after declining an invitation to speak, said: "I have stated my position time and time again and made it as plain as language can make it. I am in favor of adequate national defense and no more. There has nothing been done by the Democratic administration that borders on militarism."

Funston Makes Reply.
General Funston in replying to the statement of Dr. J. B. Gambrell, corresponding secretary of the Baptist general convention of Texas, said he had to desire to dictate to ministers what they should preach to army men, but that he objected to revivals being held in the camps, and found particularly obnoxious any supposition that army men should be special objects of evangelization. "We have a fine lot of men equal to any class of men in the country," he said. "I don't believe they should be considered as being 'lost'."

President Defends Eight-Hour Law
On his porch at Shadow Lawn, N. J., President Wilson addressed many persons, including a number of New Jersey business men. He defended the eight-hour railroad law, declaring its enactment necessary to free commerce from the possibility of interference.

Two Zeppelins Wrecked.
Two of the twelve Zeppelins that dropped bombs on London and other English cities Saturday night, killing thirty persons and wounding 116, principally in the metropolis, were hit and brought down. One of them and the crew were prey of flames and other damaged and crew made prisoners.

Sails With Large Cargo.
With a cargo worth more than $1,500,000, the estimate being based on present market values, the British steamer Indian of the Leyland line left Galveston for Liverpool. The Indian carries wheat, cotton bales, spelter plates and staves.

Lad Burns to Death.
Clifford Adminster, twelve years of age was burned to death when a playmate touched a match to a gas well in the Heldon field of Oklahoma. Two men at work on the well had a narrow escape.

Immense Fire Loss.
Sunday morning more than half the industrial section of Phoenix, N. Y., was destroyed by fire. Eighty-two buildings burned. Loss is placed at $1,000,000. Former Justice of the Peace J. E. Goodwin lost his life.

Butte Selected.
The United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners selected Butte, Mont. as the next place of meeting at Saturday's session in Fort Worth.

Locker Law Invalid.
Tennessee supreme court held unconstitutional the so-called locker law, which prohibits the maintenance of lockers for bars and buffets in clubs of the state.

PRO ELECTION IN TARRANT COUNTY

The anti won in the prohibition election held in Tarrant county, Monday, by 884 majority. The vote was the largest in the history of the county and shows a large gain in the pro vote in that county since the last county election in 1907.

Next week, October 2d to 7th, is National Pay-Up Week. "Pay What Thou Owest" and enable the other fellow to do the same.

POPE SAYS FARMERS WANT FAIR WAGE FOR LABOR AND CAPITAL.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 10.—Henry N. Pope, newly elected president of the Association of State Presidents of the Farmers' union, has given out the following statement, further defining the views of the organized farmers on the eight-hour day law recently enacted by congress.

"The farmers stand for a fair wage to both labor and capital engaged in handling the products of the soil from the time they leave the hands of the farmer until they reach the ultimate consumer. This applies not only to transportation, but to all industries engaged in serving the agricultural interests of this nation. We favor an eight-hour working day for all those who labor, with as large a compensation as business conditions justify.

"For my part, I question the wisdom of congress in fixing wages of labor employed by private enterprises. I doubt if it is in the interest of either labor, capital or the people to make the wage schedule of railroad employes a political issue.

"But be that as it may, we have passed that legislative mile post, and organized labor now stands committed to government regulation of wages and congress has thrust upon the people of this nation a new responsibility. Since the people are to fix wages, at least of railway employes, every citizen should diligently study the subject.

"In my opinion, the next session of congress should readjust wages of all railroad employes, from railroad president to section laborer, giving all a square deal and fixing a schedule of pay based upon business justice and human rights. I submit a schedule of wages taken from official government reports which present conclusive evidence of the inequalities of the present daily wage scale of railway employes:

General officers, $16.11, other officers, $6.49, general office clerks, $2.53; station agents, $2.37; other station men, $1.99; enginemen, $5.28; firemen, $3.23; conductors, $4.49; other trainmen, $3.11; shopmen, $2.37; track men, $1.59.

"If the government is going to fix wages for any one class of railroad employes, it should fix them for all classes, and if it has power to increase wages, it must have the power to decrease wages, and congress should review the comparative inequalities between the different classes of railroad employes and make such adjustments as wisdom dictates, and do it without fear or favor.

"I want to make a special plea for the 350,000 section hands who walk their beats in storm and rain, and whose brawn and brain make possible our great transportation systems. Their compensation is not sufficient to feed and clothe their families and their bright-faced children are sentenced by American civilization to a life of ignorance and poverty. Next to them is that class of underpaid clerks, station employes, shopmen and others whose loyalty and faithfulness to the hand that feeds them, and whose consideration for the public welfare, entitles them to recognition by congress. These employes are as important, as efficient and as loyal as many of the higher waged employes and their rights should be reviewed by congress.

"And last, but by no means least, there is one class of citizens whose condition is worse than that of the most lowly railroad laborer and that is the farmer. We have in this nation 6,500,000 farms and they yield the farmers who operate them, according to a recent bulletin on farm income issued by the federal department of agriculture, $1.47 per day, out of which must be paid the living expenses of the family. There are 4,500,000 male farm laborers in the United States who make $1.35 per day and 1,500,000 women farm laborers who make 78 cents per day when they board themselves and out of this meager earning they must care for those dependent upon them. All those who work upon the farm labor from twelve to fourteen hours per day. The conditions of women laborers in the field today is worse than it was during slavery. Then all women working in the field were black and now approximately 75 per cent of them are white. I quote from a contract for a negro woman during slavery as follows:

"Twelve months after date we promise to pay to—order, $100 (in gold) for the hire of the negro girl, Clara. We also promise to furnish said girl with board and lodging, three suits of clothes, two pairs of shoes and stockings, one blanket or quilt and bonnet and pay all her taxes, state and Confederate, for the year."

"The leased slave, barring unavoidable accidents, was to be returned in as good physical condition as received. It is safe to say that there is not a woman laborer on the farms today who would not consider herself fortunate to hire out on such basis. A slave woman was well fed and her children were cared for by her owner, but the sweet-faced children who play around the knees of the women who work in the field today must be supported out of the earnings of the tired mother. Since then we have had twenty-five sessions of congress and the color of the farm woman laborer has rapidly changed from black to white and their number has trebled, but their wages and hours of service have remained unchanged. Not a word has been spoken by congress in defense of the woman who rakes the hay and gathers the sheaves and little has been done that has increased the income of the farmer or enabled him to pay a higher wage to his laborers. But today we find the highest paid laborers in the world, making three times more money than a farmer, demanding a 25 per cent increase and congress hastening to their relief. This increase must, in the end, rest upon the back of the farmer and will reduce his income, increase his hours of labor and call for another levy of farm mothers from the home to the field.

"The farmers of this nation must fight to hold what they have and get what is rightfully theirs from the government and we must do it through organization."

BIG CIRCUS DAY DRAWS NEARER

Unusual Amount of Local Interest Centered on Coming of Barnum & Bailey to Abilene Oct., 7th.

The day of all days in the calendar of the small boy has almost arrived and the youngsters of this vicinity are anxiously counting the hours until circus day. It looks now as though a large percentage of the local population, both young and old will be present at one of the performances when the Barnum & Bailey Greatest Show on Earth exhibits in Abilene, Texas, on Saturday, October 7th.

Not in several years has so much local interest been evinced in a circus event as has been displayed this season in the coming exhibition of the Barnum & Bailey Circus. It is promised that the show will display more new and novel features than ever before, including 100 new acts from Europe.

The principal feature is the new Oriental, spectacular pageant, "Persia, or the Pageants of The Thousand and One Nights." This great display, which is portrayed by 1,350 persons, and hundreds of horses, elephants and camels, depicts in pageantry the famous tales of the Arabian Nights. In New York City, where this pageant was produced for the first time this Spring, it was announced the most gorgeous and stupendous Oriental display ever presented in America.

Among the foreign circus novelties to be seen for the first time this season are four troupes of wonderful Chinese performers direct from Peking, the Great Hanneford family of riders; Signor Bagonghi, famous dwarf equestrian from Italy; James Teddy, champion jumper of the world; Pallenberg's two troupes of trained bears, and a host of other novel acts too numerous to mention individually.

The Barnum & Bailey circus is traveling this season on five trains, made up of 89 cars. More than 1,400 persons are carried in the various departments of this great show, which also included an enlarged menagerie of 108 cages and 41 elephants.

A brilliant, new, three mile street parade will be given on the streets during the morning hours preceding the first performance.

The Place Where Most People Trade

THE LITTLE FORD CAR.

(Apologies to Tennyson.—P. J. B.)

I come upon the rocky hill
I make a sudden rally,
And spurt along upon the ruts,
And speed down the valley.
By thirty prickly pears I fly,
O'er half a hundred bridges,
Up another hill I go,
And out across the ridges.
I chatter over stony ways,
I shoot out o'er the pebbles,
I send the dust up in the air,
And give the passers "debbiles."
I wind around the rocky cliffs,
I smash into the railing,
While others have to stop and blow
Why, I just keep on sailing,
And here and there I hit a stump,
Yet on and on I travel,
While others get stuck up in sand

I go through as if it were gravel,
I steal by lawns and grassy plots,
I slide by hazel covers,
I go fast if you want me to,
Or s-l-o-w to suit the lovers.
I murmur under moon and stars,
I shake my sides with laughter,
I run around big touring cars,
And jeer while they come after.
I take you where you want to go,
I take you in a jiffy,
Just shoot the juice and I will show
That I can make you duffy.
Just feed me grease and gasoline,
But should you pass a station,
And I get dry, why, then don't sigh I'll run on reputation.
On many a sturdy trip I go,
O'er hills and roughs and river,
And cars may come and cars may go,
But I'll go on forever.
P. J. B.—16.

There is something particularly fascinating about the styles of this season. Whether you are looking for a dressy hat or one of those saucy tailored models, we have them. Colored and white felts are extremely strong just now and will continue as the match for colored and white top boots. Popular colors are Purple, Navy Blue, Brown and Bottle Green.

BURNT BRANCH CULLINGS

As Culled by "Juan."

However the battle is ended
Though proudly the victor comes
With fluttering flags and prancing
nags
And echoing roar of drums
Still proclaims this motto
In letters of living light
No question is never settled
Until it is settled right.
Let those who fail take courage,
Though the enemy seem to have won
Though his ranks be strong if he be in the wrong
The battle is not yet done
For sure as the morning follows
The darkest hours of night
No question is ever settled
Until it is settled right.
—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

This is beautiful in sentiment and the good lady might have added except in case of war of the present day variety and she could easily have given us another verse or too. "If there's an able bodied man in Texas who can't find work it is because he can't see the cotton patches through the barbed wire fences—Dallas News." But the big majority of the work hunters had rather travel than to hit it a jolt. See. And the same authority says at last accounts all that was left of Col. Roosevelt was a dry grin. But the Colonel will survive, you bet.

Capt. J. O. Hall and wife visited the Terminal last week, accompanied by Manager Ed Horn.

A protracted meeting commenced here Sunday under the management of the Methodist minister of Cross Plains. Busy time for a meeting.

Things have greened up somewhat since the rain and the land plows nicely.

Cotton picking "you bet" and hands in demand. These cool days cause the staple to open fast. Everybody is counting on $100.00 per bale for cotton and seed. Don't be so certain there's many a ship twist the cup and lip"

We learn that O. D. Morrow has out 16 bales of cotton, the best and most we have heard of.

Mrs. J. H. Warren has returned from her visit and is at home much improved in health and strength.

Jack Aiken has finished the tank for ye scribe, a good job and if it gets full will never be out of water, that is if it don't bust as predicted by some friends of mine who think they know all about tanks. Those contemplating building should consult Jack, I think he will give good service.

Monday is "Trade's day" at the Terminal, "may be so go and take in the sights, but will let "Slim Jim" do the reporting act.

Eldon Boydston has returned from his purchasing trip and is now strictly for business.

An over zealous friend of a certain candidate said a man that didn't vote for him was like the Bell county man said about "Juan," a very good fellow but always a d— fool."

Visited the Terminal Monday and my greatest pleasure was in meeting such men as Uncle John Wagner, Tom Norrell, "Uncle Jimmie," Mr. Hensbury and hosts of others worthy of special mention.

Thanks to "Uncle Jimmie" for his kind invitation to be present and participate in the meeting of the "battle scarred" at Cottonwood on Sunday next and to make the speech of my life. "It would be a hun" The idea of "Juan" making a speech to those old "war horses" of a grand cause.

Uncle Epp says he is politically happy as Culberson got there with both feet.

It seems Congressman Smith is quite busy making P. M's. and appointees while time lasts. But lets wait the "ides of November"

The timber belt is reported short on the cotton crop while the prairie lands are only tolerable, most all over the first picking. The bolls are knotty, a hard proposition, the second picking will be better matured

The second crop of feed amounts to nothing, we are grazing the blam-ed stuff.

DEEP CREEK NOTES

O my how we wish for a cloud with some rain

Too dry to break land to dry to sow grain

The tanks getting low, most tanks have gone dry

All we can do is to wait for a rain by and by

Stock looks well but the grass has dried up

Can't drink at the tanks unless you carry a cup

Can't get close to the water for the mud is so deep

A close watch on the tanks each one of us keep

For when the cattle bog up in our minds we never doubt

That with a rope and a horse we will have to pull her out

For picking cotton the weather is the finest we've seen

And the price will keep our pocket books from getting so lean

The nights are so cool, like the fall of the year

Reminds us that winter is drawing very near

If it would come a good rain we would have some thing to eat

Big purple top turnips that are juicy and sweet

The man on the farm knows what this must mean

Some butter milk some corn bread and some good turnip greens.

EULA LOCALS

Good morning Uncle Bill, how are you and The Star force?

We are having plenty of windy weather and it is awful dry out here, fine on gathering cotton, but it isn't on those who want to plow stubble, and stock water is awful scarce.

I don't know what some are going

Recently a motorist wrote to us saying that after three years' service with Texaco Motor Oil in his Hudson Roadster, he has not had occasion to grind the valves or renew the piston rings. He found almost no wear, and his motor was clean and free from hard carbon.

THAT man save a considerable sum on his repair expense. YOU can save too, by getting Texaco Motor Oil, and you can effect a further economy by using TEXACO Auto Gasoline, the gas that gives more miles per gallon. Get them at any dealer displaying the Red Star Green "T" sign.

NEW APPAREL FOR FALL AND WINTER

THE deft touches and fine appreciation of form and color which go to the making up of character and individuality are revealed in their fullness in our Woman's Apparel for Fall. It is the result of training which has developed artistic skill. It means a perfection of fit, of hang, of color contrast which marks the difference between commonplace and distinction in dress. It has given a word to the languages of all nations. That word is "chic." Come in and look over the pretty things in our Early Fall Showing.
