Road Crew Reaches Tahoka City Limits

Base Structure Being Laid On Three-Mile Stretch From This City

The highway construction crew this week invaded the city of Tahoka. The base structure consisting of a mixture of cement and soil is being laid on the first three-mile stretch of road extending from the business section to the vicinity of the George Small farm east of town. It is believed that this work will be finished by the end of this week. Work will then begin on placing the topping which will be completed probably about the middle of October.

Work of placing the topping on the nearly six-mile stretch immediately east of this one was completed by Bell & Braden of Amarillo, the contractors, on Wednesday, and was immediately opened to traffic. This is a beautiful piece of highway.

Work was begun recently on construction of the base on the remaining portion of this highway between here and the Garza county line. This will be a caliche base.

Judge P. W. Goad says that the state highway department and the engineers insist that when completed this will be one of the best highways in this entire section of the state. They claim that the use of the various materials in the construction of the base has passed the experimental stage and give assurance that it will be entirely satisfactory in every way. Even if they should be disappointed in its durability, it will be the job of the highway department to maintain the highway and it proposes to do the job thoroughly.

So it seems that Lynn county will soon have a hard-surfaced highway running east and west through the county of which she will be proud. For this, we are grateful to the highway department, to our county judge and commissioners court, to Senator G. H. Nelson, and to others who have labored so long and so faithfully for the improvement of this road, which, when completed to Post, will give us a hard-surfaced road to all important points east. When completed through Yoakum county to the west it will also give us a hard-surfaced road into New Mexico.

Mrs. J. L. Rumbo Died Saturday

Mrs. Mary Ivy Rumbo, 40, wife of J. L. Rumbo of the Dixie community died at her home soon after eleven o'clock last Saturday morning of a malady from which she had been suffering for a number of years.

Funeral services were conducted in the Methodist Church at Dixie at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the presence of a great gathering of relatives and friends. Her pastor, Rev. Moore of Wilson, officiated, assisted by a former pastor, Rev. Matthews of Lubbock. The remains were laid to rest in the Tahoka cemetery under the direction of the Harris Funeral Home.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Noble, who also reside in the Dixie community, Mrs. Rumbo was born at Ferris in Ellis county on November 30, 1898. She had been a resident of this county for quite a number of years. Surviving her are the husband, two children, a son and a daughter, her parents, and other relatives.

Almost all her life she had been a devoted member of the Methodist Church and was a member at Dixie at the time of her death. She was a devout Christian woman, a devoted wife and mother, and a good neighbor, greatly beloved in her community.

The News joins many friends in offering condolences to all the bereaved.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Knight returned Tuesday from San Angelo, where they had visited their son, K. R. Knight, and family since Sunday. Mr. Knight reports that little Irma Beth, who was so seriously hurt a few weeks ago when she was run over accidentally by her father's car, had apparently recovered completely. The entire family were almost overjoyed at her speedy recovery.

George Knight In Accident

George Knight of this city, automobile salesman for the Raborn Chevrolet Company, suffered the fracture of three vertebrae of the spinal column Friday night, when his car, driven by C. C. Clark of Post while Knight was an occupant of the back seat, left the highway and turned over two or three miles this side of Plainview when Clark suddenly swerved the car to the right to avoid striking another which had turned across the road just in front of him.

Oran Ramsey, another employee of the Raborn Chevrolet Co. here, was also an occupant of the car, sustained a number of bruises and abrasions but no bone fractures. Clark, the driver, was practically unhurt. The car was badly damaged.

Knight was picked up by a passing car and taken to a hospital in Plainview, where his injuries were treated and where he is still a patient. Protrusions of the vertebrae were broken off, we understand, and physicians think that it will be necessary for Knight to remain in the hospital at least two weeks yet.

Knight, Ramsey and Clark, all automobile salesmen had been to Amarillo Friday attending a meeting of Chevrolet automobile salesmen. At the conclusion of the meeting about 9 p. m., they decided to drive home. Coming south this side of Plainview, Clark, the driver, started to pass an old car coming in the same direction just in front of him, and just as he did so the old car turned across the highway immediately in front of him to take a lateral road. To avoid striking the old car, Clark swerved his car back to the right and before he could straighten it out on the highway again it struck the shoulder of the highway and went into the ditch.

Knight, it will be remembered, had a thrilling experience just a few weeks ago, when he was kidnapped by a man who posed as a prospective buyer of a car and went out with Knight for a demonstration. With a gun in one hand and the steering wheel in the other, he made double-quick time up highway No. 9, passing through Lubbock without stopping and putting Knight out near Monroe, escaping with Knight's car. He was afterwards caught and placed in jail to await grand jury investigation.

SCHOOLS RECEIVE PART OF DEFICIT

Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell announced the first of the week that half of last year's $4 efficiency deficit due the common schools for payment of teachers was received, totalling $3,338.00. Money for independent schools will probably be received next week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lyons of Galveston are spending the week with Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell and Savannah Lou.

Two Children Hurt In Falls From Autos

Joyce Jean Curtiss Falls From Car

Little Joyce Jean Curtiss, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Curtiss, sustained painful injuries Saturday when she jumped or fell from a car driven by her mother as they were leaving the home of Mrs. Curtiss' mother, Mrs. W. B. Morris, who resides in the vicinity of Wayside Service Station twelve miles north of Tahoka. She suffered abrasions and contusions on many parts of the body and a slight concussion of the brain. She was hurried to the office of Dr. Chase Thompson here, where she received treatment.

Joyce Jean's little sister Donalee, 3, had just fallen from the car when she opened the back door. It is thought that Joyce Jean in her excitement jumped from the car to rescue the smaller child, who, however, was practically unhurt.

When Joyce Jean jumped or fell from the car, she was struck by the back door, which was swinging wide open. She was knocked down and rolled into the ditch by the impact of the blow.

Machinery For Compress Here

This reporter stood by Tuesday and watched several men start on the job of unloading a 52,000-pound unit of the press to be installed at the new Union Compress here, and it was obvious that the task of moving it from the boxcar to the floor of the platform was a real one.

All of the machinery has arrived and installation has started. The press will be ready to begin operating in the near future, and in the meantime, by shipping the cotton received on to another compress for processing, the Company is giving its customers the same service that they will give when operation of the local plant actually starts.

To date about 2,500 bales of cotton have been received at the warehouse for compressing. Much more is expected as the season progresses. E. R. Edwards, the manager, estimates that about $1,000 per week will be the average pay roll during the fall season, from 40 to 50 men being required to operate the plant.

Marshal Asks Park Right On Saturdays

City Marshal W. M. Lee requests that we make note of the fact that many of those who come to town on Saturdays have been parking on red zones. These zones have been recently repainted, so that they are easily seen, and it would be to the advantage of everyone, if they would not park between the red marks. If drivers continue to park their cars in these restricted areas, they will be subject to fine, Mr. Lee stated.

LYNN COUNTY PRINCIPALS & SUPERINTENDANTS ORGANIZE

The first annual meeting of Lynn County Superintendents and Principals was held in the county court-room last Thursday night.

District Deputy Superintendent E. E. Day of Lubbock spoke, explaining in full the new Rural Aid bill.

Officers for the present term were elected. They are: S. F. Johnson of O'Donnell, president; and Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell, secretary-treasurer-reporter.

It was decided that a dinner will be held each third Thursday of the month at 7:00 p. m.

RECEIVES INVITATION TO DIAMOND ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. Rollin McCord received an invitation early this week to attend the Diamond Wedding anniversary of her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pariseau of New Market, New Hampshire, to be held on October 25.

It is indeed rare for a couple to live to celebrate their Diamond anniversary, the Golden anniversary being unusual. Mr. and Mrs. Pariseau have resided in the same town for the past fifty of those years, which is also unusual.

Court Docket Here Heavier Than Usual

Cotton Crop Ginned Fast

Up to noon Thursday, a total of 3,422 bales of cotton had been ginned in Tahoka this season, according to reports given by the five gins. More than 1,800 bales have been ginned since we gathered the report last week, which would indicate that the crop is now being gathered very rapidly.

The weather remains very favorable for gathering.

Bulldogs Play Cowhands Today

(By William Hill)

The Tahoka Bulldogs will invade (Hub City) Lubbock and the corral of the Lubbock Cowhands today with grit and foam in their mouths left from last night's game with Canyon, co-captains Alvin White, RG, and Max Minor FB, leading the pack of Bulldogs into the Cowhands' den. Following them the probable lineup will be Jackie Weathers JB, Dea Parker HB and Joe Lehman HB. On the line there will be Truman Hines C, C. Jolly LG, Arthur Hammonds LT, Gloyd Cloe LE, Turner Rogers RT, and "Ham" Maassen RE.

These boys seem to have blood in their eyes this year. They are tired of being run over and they are determined that it can't be done.

I think that they realize that they have a long old road ahead of them and are going to win every game they play. If they don't win every game they will fight like the devil trying to win.

So let's all give them everything that we've got to help them win. I think we can depend on every citizen in town to be out to every home game backing them one hundred per cent. And nearly every citizen can go to the out of town games and give them your support.

Come on, gang, let's go to Lubbock and help them defeat those Cowhands.

SINGING AT DRAW SUNDAY ANNOUNCED

W. W. Caswell of Draw announces that the Lynn-Dawson singing convention will meet at the Draw Methodist Church Sunday afternoon for an afternoon of good singing. Everybody is cordially invited.

The territory of this convention covers the south half of Lynn and the north half of Dawson county, and C. H. Mansell of O'Donnell is president.

FFA MEMBERS BUY LIVESTOCK

Junior Sanders, Roy Botkin, Elbert Boullouin, Kenneth Crouch and Cecil Curry went down below Lamesa early this week and purchased some beef calves to raise as their project this term. They plan to enter them in the Junior Quality Meat Show at Lubbock this year. Other members plan to buy shoats.

In response to a call from Jack Edwards, Bob Naismith of Belton came out Monday to operate the Edwards Gin at Pleasant Valley. He had worked for Mr. Edwards here several years ago. He was accompanied to Tahoka by Fred House of Belton, who resided near Tahoka a number of years and who is contemplating a return to this county to live. Fred says the cotton crop in Bell county is very short but that excellent feed crops have been harvested.

Mrs. J. B. Hatchett of Big Spring, who is critically ill following a fall, when her hip was broken, is showing slight improvement, W. M. Lee informed the News Wednesday.

Mrs. W. C. Mathis and son Don Mack of Levelland are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Milliken, and other relatives here this week.

G. H. Spears was able to be in town again the first of the week after having been sick a week or two.

20 Bills Of Indictments Returned Wednesday; Seventeen Defendants

Twenty bills of indictment charging seventeen different defendants with such crimes as theft, burglary, forgery, robbery, unlawful sale of mortgaged property, driving while intoxicated, wife desertion, and possibly others, was returned into court Wednesday afternoon by a grand jury which was impaneled by Judge Louis Reid when court convened here Monday morning.

It is believed that this is the largest number of indictments ever returned by a grand jury of the 106th district court at a single sitting.

All of the defendants except one or two are already under arrest and in jail or under bond, we understand.

Among the indictments is one for robbery against the young fellow who a few weeks ago is alleged to have kidnaped George Knight and taken his car.

Among the theft indictments is one charging the theft of a car and another charging the theft of chickens.

The criminal docket will be taken up the second Monday in October, when, it is believed, most of these cases will be disposed of.

The court has had little to do this week other than to set the docket, render a few judgments, by default, and grant two or three divorces. Jury civil cases will be taken up next Monday.

Sitting on the grand jury are: A. R. Hensley, Draw, foreman; C. T. Tankersley, West Point; John Earles and D. B. Ballew of O'Donnell; J. W. Warrick, Grassland; H. H. Hewlett, Wilson; J. R. Strain, New Home; Dan L. Carpenter, New Lynn; Pete Hegl, G. L. Cobb, W. O. Thomas, and Chester Connolly, all of Tahoka.

Bailiffs are W. S. Swan and Ed Sanders of Tahoka and John Johnson of O'Donnell.

Mrs. H. W. Carter Of Happy Dies

Mrs. H. W. Carter of Happy, mother of Superintendent J. T. Carter of New Home, died Sunday in a hospital in Canyon. Burial was in the cemetery at Happy Monday afternoon, following funeral services conducted in the Methodist church there in the presence of a great concourse of relatives and friends.

She leaves surviving the husband, Rev. H. W. Carter, superannuated Methodist preacher, who was pastor at Happy immediately preceding his retirement, and two sons, Rev. Orin W. Carter, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Childress, and J. T. Carter, superintendent of the New Home public schools. She also leaves one surviving brother, J. M. Bickley, who has been superintendent of the Clovis schools for the past eighteen years.

Mrs. Carter was almost 61 years of age. She had been seriously sick for some time. A number of the members of the faculty of the New Home school together with other friends there attended the funeral services.

Haney's Father Dies in Roscoe

W. D. Haney, 78, father of L. C. Haney of this city, died at his home in Roscoe at six o'clock Tuesday morning, after a week's serious illness. Funeral services were held in Roscoe Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Haney, together with the two daughters and the other six sons were present at the time of the aged man's death. Also present were his four sisters and his only brother.

Mr. Haney was one of the most prominent and useful citizens of Nolan county. He had been a resident of Roscoe for more than thirty years. He had been a friend of the editor for thirty-six or thirty-seven years. He was one of the best men we ever knew. A great throng of friends and loved ones attended the funeral services. It was our great regret that we were not able to attend.

Club and Church News

B & P W LUNCHEON

Seventeen members and two guests were present at the first luncheon of the newly organized Business and Professional Women's Club Tuesday noon.

Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell spoke on "What is a Democracy?" A new member, Miss Beverley Wells of O'Donnell was voted in to make the membership 19, 18 having signed the charter last week.

Committee chairmen were announced as follows: Mrs. Ruth Assiter, education; Mrs. Gladys M. Stokes, finance; Mrs. Helen Eubank, health; Mrs. Hope E. Haynes, international relations; Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell, legislation; Mrs. D. W. Gaignat, membership; Mrs. Inez Knight, program coordination; Miss Ethel Calahan, publications; Mrs. Hall Robinson, transportation.

Visitors present were Mrs. W. G. Lyons of Galveston and Mrs. C. N. Hoffman of O'Donnell.

Judge and Mrs. W. W. Price of Brownfield were here Sunday afternoon visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sam Price. Sam is a brother of W. W. and the son of Mrs. T. J. Price.

BAPTIST W. M. U.

Seventeen women attended a combined business and study meeting at the first Baptist church Monday afternoon. After a devotional brought by Mrs. H. B. Howell, Mrs. Garland Pennington, W. M. U. president, dispatched the routine business, arranged for the Mission work of the October Week of prayer, and taught the books "Things We Should Know".

The following were in attendance: Mesdames Pennington, Billman, Nevill, Dale, Burrough, Snowden, Felts, Owens, Howell, King, Hill, McIntyre, Fortenberry, Harrison, Taylor, Henderson, and Durham.

SLUMBER PARTY

Misses Erlene Norman and Ellen Nixon were hostesses at a slumber party at their home last Saturday night.

The party first went bowling, and returned for a picnic supper on the lawn. Watermelon was served at midnight.

Present were Misses Doris Connolly, Tommie and Jane Raborn, Hattie Server, Robbie and Echo Milliken, Lorene Reese, Florence King, and Mesdames Lois Daniel and Leroy Knight, and the hostess.

DIXIE CLUB STUDIES

REARING OF CHILDREN
"Is your child jealous?" asked Miss McNatt, home agent, at the regular meeting of the Dixie H. D. club September 21 at 2:30, in the home of Mrs. Guion Cobb.

A jealous person is never happy. He may feel lonely and helpless or angry and full of hate. He is selfish and gets angry when others get ahead of him. He does not work well with others. All the children of the family should be treated alike so there may be no feeling of jealousy between them.

Plans were made to have the Ball jar contest at the second meeting in October.

There were seven members present. Visitors were Mrs. Sue Robertson, Mrs. J. H. Cobb, and Miss Virginia Cobb.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. S. B. Francis on October 5 at 2:30. Visitors welcome.

Wesley Simpson, a former sheriff of this county, now a resident of Runnels county, was here over the weekend visiting his father, W. W. Simpson, who is confined to his room. Mr. Simpson says crops in Runnels county are not nearly as good as crop here.

Emmett Waldrip, who underwent major surgery in a Lamesa hospital recently, returned to his home near Wells Sunday. He is reported recovering nicely.

DRAW CLUB MEMBERS BAKE SUCCESSFULLY

At a recent meeting of the Draw home demonstration club, problems in making yeast breads were discussed and helpful suggestions were made.

"I never have the difficulty of kneading in too much flour in bread as most women," stated Mrs. S. E. Crockett, cooperator of this club. Mrs. Crockett always kneads bread on a board with cover made from a feed sack. When the sack is used only a small film of flour is necessary while kneading. This makes it possible for her to have bread which is unusually light in texture.

"It pays to have a good recipe for making a sweet yeast bread and to follow instructions carefully," said Mrs. R. R. Reagan, also a cooperator in the club. If quality bread is expected, she always uses nutritious ingredients measures accurately, mixes and kneads carefully and bakes at the correct temperature. The Swedish tea ring she made, using the recipe furnished by the home demonstration agent's office, met with her family's approval. "It was delicious. I wish you could have tasted it," Mrs. Reagan told her members.

EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING

BROWNFIELD ASSN. W. M. U.

On Oct. 5, the Brownfield Association workers conference meets with the First Baptist church at Plains. At that time all officers of the Associational Women's Missionary Union, especially, are urged to be present for an executive board meeting.

This is important for the planning of the work for the coming year. So be there, women!

Miss Mildred Cox left Saturday, September 16, to enter the North Texas State Teachers College at Denton for her third year. She is majoring in Home Economics. Miss Mildred is also active in the religious life of the college. On Monday after her arrival she attended a Baptist Student Union Retreat for the Council members at the Baptist Church. She is secretary of B. S. U. Council at the N. T. S. T. College.

Hon. Tom Garrard made a business trip to Denton last Friday, and he came back reporting burned-up crops along almost the entire route. Crops were fairly good in spots in Denton county, however.

The Flag Code

The National Flag should be raised and lowered by hand. It should be displayed only from sunrise to sunset, or between such hours as may be designated by proper authority. Do not raise the Flag while it is furled. Unfurl, then hoist quickly to the top of the staff. Lower it slowly and with dignity.

When the flag is hung as a banner across and over the center line of a street running east and west, the union should be to the north, and to the east in a street running north and south.

Where the National Flag is displayed with State or other flags, it should be given the place of honor on the right. Display the Flag upon a staff when possible.

Place no objects on or over the Flag. Various articles are sometimes placed on a speaker's table covered with the Flag. This practice should be avoided.

Always let the Flag hang straight. Do not festoon over doors or arches or tie it in a bow knot. Use red, white, and blue bunting for decorative purposes.

When flags are used in unveiling a statue or monument they should not be allowed to fall to the ground, but should be carried aloft, forming a feature of the ceremony.

Take every precaution to prevent the Flag from becoming soiled. It should not be allowed to touch the ground or floor, nor to brush against objects.

Before being placed at half mast the Flag should always be raised to the top of the staff. Before lowering it should likewise be hoisted to the top. On Memorial Day, display at half mast until noon only; then hoist to top of staff.

When displayed in the chancel or on a platform in a church, the Flag should be placed on a staff at the clergyman's right; other flags at his left. If displayed in the body of the church, the Flag should be at the congregation's right as they face the clergyman.

Do not use the Flag as a portion of a costume or athletic uniform. Do not embroider it upon cushions or handkerchiefs nor print it on paper napkins or boxes.

When carried in a procession, military or otherwise, the Flag should be borne to the right of regimental or other flags.

A Federal Law provides that a trademark cannot be registered which consists of, or comprises among other things, "the Flag."

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC
Any erroneous reflection upon the reputation or standing of any individual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of The News will be gladly corrected when called to our attention.

As this is being written the first of the week, it is probable that a terrific battle is already being staged on the western front between the Germans and the allies. At any rate, a desperate struggle between the belligerents seems to have begun whether it be short-lived or long drawn out. What the final result will be no man can tell. If the Germans should triumph they will probably not let up until Great Britain is utterly crushed. In that event, our own country may expect plenty of trouble ahead. It seems reasonably certain that Germany and Russia are now working hand-in-glove for swallowing-up of the contiguous small countries of south eastern Europe and for the control of the Mediterranean Sea. If it's a fight to the death with Great Britain, and they win, they will take what is left of Great Britain's navy at the end of the war. Master of all the seas and with Europe and Asia under their thumb, it would be but natural for them to turn their attention to South America. If and when they do that, the Monroe Doctrine will be junked or we will be compelled to fight to maintain it. That's why America can not afford for Great Britain and France to be crushed in this struggle. That's why we are utterly foolish, as we see it, if we refuse to repeal the embargo and thus cripple them and help Germany in the prosecution of this war.

That we hate war a-plenty in this country is evident from the fact that, to keep out of it, most people seem to want to quit shipping anything to Europe and to keep all our old boats at home. If they just must have our cotton and our oil and our caves and our sulphur, and so forth and so forth, let them come in their own vehicles and get it, bringing the cash with which to pay for it in their "jeans". If we just must trade with somebody, let's gobble up the commerce of South America while these European countries are busy shooting each other up and are not looking our way, they say. Our people certainly are optimistic cusses.
It will be a great market we will develop for our cotton in South America. Likewise for our beef. May be we can sell a lot of canned meats in Argentina just to get even with those Argentine cow men for sending their beef up here for our soldier boys to eat. And if we can't find a market for our oil down south of Panama, maybe we can sell it to Mexico. Away back in 1812, when we had only eight million people, we matched a scrap with Great Britain for boarding and searching our ships at sea and interfering with our commerce. But now, for fear that Hitler or somebody will blow up a bunch of our ships, and get us into war, we all want to take to the stormhouse and stay there until the stormhouse and stay there until the

be a brave people, and how independent!

PERSONNEL OF LYNN COUNTY TEACHING FORCE GIVEN

Most of the schools in Lynn county are now in session. One or two have not yet started and a few have suspended a few weeks for cotton picking, but most of them are open, and possibly all of them will have terms of at least eight months.
County Superintendent Lenore M.
Tunnell this week furnished us a list of the faculties of all the schools in the county, we believe, with the exception of Tahoka, O'Donnell, and Wilson. A majority of these teachers hold bachelor degrees and some of them master's degrees from the institutions which they attended, a majority of them from the Texas Technological College. A few have attended college only two years, but very few. A larger number have had three years of college training.

The schools and their faculties
follow:

Rural High School No. 1, Draw-Redwine: R. K. Green, superintendent, Durwood Dodson, R. E. Wells, Drucilla Eberhart, Marie Crawford,
Elizabeth Sanford, Gladys Collins,
Corbin Douthitt.

Rural High School No. 2, New Home-Petty, Lakeview: J. T. Carter, superintendent, Tolbert Fanning, principal high school, Hope Haynes, principal ward-school, Lester Rogers, principal Lakeview elementary school, Homer Harrison, principal Petty elementary school, W. W.
Hall, agriculture, Joye Pace, home economics, Lela Puryear, Mrs. Beatrice Cromer, Mary Lou Tucker,
Margaret Ross, Mary Pickett, La
Vona Wilson.

Grassland: Byron Terrell, principal, Amy Hinkle, Clea Alma Cowan, Elzora Rallsback.

New Lynn: J. B. Bolin, principal,

MISSIONARY WORKING AMONG MEXICANS HERE

Immanuel Gonzales, missionary of the Brownfield Baptist Association among the Mexicans, preached on the public square to members of his race here Sunday.
With the help of the Baptist pastors at Tahoka, Wilson, and Grassland, he has since been attempting to make arrangement for some indoor place here in town in which to hold such services.
He also desires to avail himself of every opportunity possible to meet and to talk to the Mexicans now working in the country. He will greatly appreciate it if business men and farmers having Mexicans in their employ will introduce him to these as opportunity presents. He seeks only to do them good and will do nobody harm.

STATE SOIL CONSERVATION BOARD OF TEXAS

Notice Of Hearing Upon Organization Of Proposed Dawson-Lynn
Counties Soil Conservation District,
Embracing Land Lying In Dawson
And Lynn Counties, Texas.

Whereas, on the 29 day of August, 1939, there was duly filed in the office of the State Soil Conservation Board, at Temple, Texas, a petition signed by fifty or a majority of land owners pursuant to the provisions of the State Soil Conservation Law, as enacted by the 46th Legislature, known as House Bill No. 20, requesting the establishment of Dawson - Lynn Counties Soil Conservation District;

and Whereas, the lands described by said petition, and other lands which will be considered for inclusion in said district, are located in Dawson and Lynn Counties, described substantially as follows:
Dawson and Lynn Counties in their entirety.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held pursuant to the said petition, on the question of the desirability and necessity, in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare, of the creation of such district; on the question of the appropriation boundaries to be assigned to such district; upon the propriety of the petition, and of all other proceedings taken under the said Act; and upon all questions relevant to such inquiries. The said public hearing will be held by the State Soil Conservation Board on the 5th day of October 1939, beginning at 8 o'clock p. m. at Tahoka in the county of Lynn.

All persons, firms, and corporations who shall hold title to any lands lying within the limits of the above described territory as owners, and all other interested parties, are invited to attend and will be given opportunity to be heard at the time(s) and place(s) hereinbefore specified.

Breath Bad, Logy?
You May Need This

Just as the lighthouse flashes a friendly warning to sailors, so Nature sends out headaches, bad breath, biliousness, which often warn of constipation.

Too many misunderstand or neglect these symptoms and thereby may invite a host of constipation's other discomforts: sour stomach, belch-

ODDS AND ENDS

By Bee Eye the Elder

As we note the struggle in Europe today, precipitated by a power-mad dictator supported by a coterie of power-mad followers, by sycophants who bask in his favor, by better men who fear to oppose him, and by the great body of the people who have been misinformed and misled—a dictator seeking a broad extension of his realm and possibly the conquest of half the world—our thoughts run back through the bloody centuries, the great iron gates swing back and in fancy we enter the graveyard of dead empires.

Here lies Great Babylon, capital of the mighty Babylonian Empire, possibly the first of the great powers of historic times. She was a great city, a wealthy city, a wicked city. Babylon, occupying at first only the rich valley of the Tigris-Euphrates rivers, was a fertile country. As she grew in wealth, her rulers became ambitious for more power, more territory, and more wealth. By the power of the sword they extended her boundaries until she became a mighty world power. But he who takes up the sword shall perish by the sword. The time came when Babylon met her match. Worn out by incessant wars, she was finally blotted from the face of the earth, and on her tombstone we read the striking epitaph: Babylon, Great Babylon is Fallen!

Over here close by her side lies Nineveh, capital of Assyria. She lived and flourished side by side with Babylon. She fought with Babylon for supremacy. Like the dictators of Babylon, her rulers also were cruel, wicked schemers, mad for power. They were even fiercer and more aggressive than the Babylonians. They lived by the sword. They extended their domain from as far east as India and as far west as the Mediterranean. But intrigue and perfidy can not prevail forever. In the course of time came the triumphant Medes, who, assisted by Assyria's ancient enemy, the Babylonians, utterly crushed the Assyrians, and Nineveh was destroyed. When Xenophon made his expedition to the East 200 years later, he found only masses of crumbling stone where the magnificent city of Nineveh had stood.

Over here not far away is the tomb of old Persia, made great and powerful by Cyrus the Great, Cambyses, II. and Darius. In the height of her power her confines extended from the Indus River to the Mediterranean. Persepolis, the capital, was a magnificent city, so splendid as to excite the wonder and admiration of the esthetic Greeks. Now it is only a jumble of ruins. Its power lasted little more than a century. Old Persia is dead. Only its ghost, a ghastly skeleton, sits silent and helpless upon its grave.

Macedonia, mighty handiwork of Phillip and Alexander the Great, where are you? It was Alexander, who at 33, had conquered all of the then known world that was worth conquering, and sat down and wept because there were no more worlds for him to conquer. He was the greatest empire in point of territory the world had ever known. Humanly speaking he was king of kings and lord of lords. But was he happy? Not much. In a drunken debauch he contracted a fever that soon brought his death. Did his empire last? Not on your tintage. It soon perished and crumbled away. Right over here is his tomb, another silent but significant testimonial to the fact that all human power is ephemeral.

ROME! What visions of power and might that Name throws on the screen of our imaginations! ROME, Mistress of the World! Rome, Home of the Caesars Land of warriors, statesmen, law-givers, poets, philosophers. Rome, old Rome, "the noblest Roman of them all". Yes even Rome is dead. Here is her magnificent tomb. Let her rest in peace. A man named Mussolini now reigns in the old home country, but with the exception of a bunch of Negroes whom he corralled recently his power extends scarcely beyond the toe of his boot, though he pretends to be some great one. Rome is dead. Right here is her grave among the tombs of Babylon and Nineveh and Persia, and Macedonia, and Egypt and Phoenicia and the others.

And Spain! Proud old Spain! Here is her grave. It is true it is empty yet, but old Spain sits on the brink of it—Spain, once "mistress of the world and queen of the ocean." Spain's history begins back in ancient times. Almost twelve centuries before Christ it was colonized by the Phoenicians, whose land was at the east end of the Mediterranean, who had also planted Carthage on the southern shores of that great sea. In Rome's second war with the Carthaginians, she overran Spain and made it a Roman province.

When the Roman empire fell, Spain was subdued and ruled in turn by the Vandals, the Visigoths, and the Mohammedan Moors. All these left their indelible imprint upon the land and the people.

Ferdinand of Aragon and Isabella of Castile were married in 1469, and when the two states were united ten years later, Modern Spain was born. These two rulers set it on the way to conquest and empire. During the next hundred years Spain had the most glamorous career of any nation in modern times.

It was with the financial aid given him by Queen Isabella that Columbus fitted out his little fleet and set sail on "shoreless seas" to find a shorter route to India.

Following the discovery of America and the several trips which Columbus made to the western world which he still thought was India, Spanish explorers swarmed across the Atlantic seeking gold, claiming the country for Spain, and planting the Catholic faith among the primitive inhabitants of the country.

In 1510 Balboa settled in Darien and three years later discovered the great Pacific Ocean. In 1513 Ponce de Leon came to Florida seeking the fabled "Fountain of Youth." In 1519, Magellan a Portuguese sailing under the Spanish flag skirted the eastern coast of South America, passed through the Strait of Magellan, and headed west, landing in the Philippines and claiming the islands for Spain in 1521. In 1519, Hernando Cortez invaded and conquered the Montezumas of Mexico. In 1527 Narvaez, with 600 men, landed near the present city of Tampa, Florida, and explored a part of the land in search for gold. Taking to sea again in an attempt to reach Mexico, their ships were wrecked in a storm. Only a few of them reached land somewhere on the Gulf coast, all of whom soon died except Cabeza de Vaca and three others, who finally worked their way across Texas and Mexico to the Gulf of California and thence back to Mexico City, nine years after they had landed in Florida.

In 1535 Coronado sailed from Spain to Mexico. Five years later he set out from Mexico City with a small army in search of the "Seven Cities of Cibola." He passed through New Mexico and the Panhandle of Texas and proceeded as far north as Kansas, returning in 1542 without having found the cities or the treasures he sought. In 1539, De Soto with 600 soldiers, made a trip of exploration through Georgia and Alabama and a portion of Tennessee to the Mississippi River. They too found no gold, and in 1542 De Soto died. His men buried his body in the Mississippi. In 1531, Pizarro had begun his conquest of Peru, completing the subjugation of the Incas within a few years.

Thus by the middle of the sixteenth century Spain had extended her flag over all of South America except Brazil, which was claimed by Portugal, over all of Mexico, including Texas and all the western half of the present confines of the United States, as well as Florida, Louisiana, and most of the territory embraced in the Southern States. Her flag also floated over Cuba and the other islands of the West Indies, over the Philippines in the Pacific, and innumerable other islands in the South Seas. The sun never set on the empire of Spain.

But what about Spain today? Stripped of practically all of her vast possessions, torn with internal strife, the pawn of the dictators of Europe, she sits today a mere ghastly skeleton of her former self, with both feet in the grave, waiting for some undertaker of the nations to kick her into the yawning tomb and cover her up.

Necessarily, the Spaniard and the Anglo-Saxon have come into frequent conflict on the Western Continent. Be it further said that every conflict we have had with Spain and the Spanish speaking people has been a conflict not merely between different races or different nationalities but it has been also a conflict between Democracy and Despotism.

But that is another story, that we leave for future reference. Suffice to say that history proves that Despotism and Totalitarianism, thriving by intrigue and cruelty and perfidy, may flourish for a time but always, sooner or later, meet an ignominious end. The long life of Great Britain, on the other hand, may be attributed to the fact that more than 700 years ago she wrung the Magna Charta from the hands of the tyrannical King John and has been growing more and more democratic ever since.

ELDER SMITH CONTINUES
 BIBLE DISCUSSION
 So I will here record what you said in order that the readers may see how you understood the gospel. So here it is.

"But as they expounded their doctrines of Predestination and Election, holding that it was absolutely fixed and determined back before the foundation of the world, just who should believe the gospel and be saved and who should reject it and be forever lost; that just a little handful of people in each age and generation had been foreordained to go to Heaven and the millions and millions of others had been foreordained to go to Hell, and that all the preaching and all the warning and all the pleading that could be done would not change the situation an iota nor save a single soul of the nonelect, we wondered, for instance, how a Methodist or Disciple could ever reach an agreement with that sort of thing."

This is your quotation, and what a mess you have got the truth in! Now we will see a little about what the Bible teaches and the Old Baptists preach on Predestination. Romans 8:28-31, "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purpose. For whom he did foreknow he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the first born among many brethren. Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called; and whom he called, them he also justified; and whom he justified, them he also glorified. What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?"

Now that is one of the quotations on Predestination; and we see God don't know people only as we do after we get acquainted with them, but God he foreknew—he knew them ahead of time—therefore he pre- or beforehand determined that they should be made just like Jesus Christ his Son. Now if he is not de-throned, he will do that, if he told the truth—and I think he did—and

Prompt Help For A Listless Child

Scolding won't help a boy or girl who is listless, dull or cross from constipation. But, here's something that will!
 If sluggish bowels have your child headachy, bilious, upset, give him a little Syrup of Black-Draught tonight. Like the original famed BLACK-DRAUGHT, its principal ingredient is an intestinal tonic-laxative. Helps impart tone to the bowel muscles.

Children like the taste of Syrup of Black-Draught. It is an all vegetable product. When simple directions are followed, its action is gentle, but prompt and complete. Comes in two sizes: 50c and 25c.

we see that them he predestinated he didn't fail to call them, and then he himself justified them. They were not justified by obeying or baptism, or complying with any of the preachers' propositions of any of these confused denominations. And the Bible doesn't teach that God predestinated any one to Hell, neither did you hear the Old Baptists preach it.

Now we will see a little about the election that was held and choice made through God's foreknowledge before the foundation of the world, which the world is still hiring preachers and trying to contest that election and overthrow the results and condemning the results of that election as much as any defeated candidate. The elect are satisfied with the results; it is always the non-elect who are howling, as in our elections it is always the non-elect that are howling about the results.

So we will see how strong God is on his plan of election, then see what you are going to do about it—see if you think it is worth the expense it is costing to hire all these non-elect preachers to advocate other plans; when they get your money and can't all agree on the same plan, it is costing you contestant parties next to as much as the price of running our government, taken from hard-working people, widow women, and little orphan children, and is not worth the snap of your finger, if God tells the truth. So, let's have God testify in this case.

So we will go to Romans 9:9, and see if, at the results of that election held by the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, and we will see if the Old Baptists stand safe or if your fellows are likely to dethrone God and destroy the results and the children of promise. "This is the word of promise; at this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son." I quote the next verse also: "And not only this but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac; (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth;)"

Now can you really blame the Old Baptists to preach election and that God calls his people when God plainly says it is not of works but of him that calleth? Now really what are you and your bunch going to do about this? And now we will get the next verse, "It was said unto her the elder shall serve the younger." Do you reckon the elder did really serve the younger? I will guess he did. Now on with the rest of the quotation: "As it is written, Jacob have I loved but Esau have I hated." Now what will your bunch do for Esau? Election and Predestination took care of Jacob. God appeared to him in his sleep and called him, and you see he foreknew Jacob and loved, and he knew Esau and hated, and he didn't call Esau and he did call Jacob and elect. Can you see that or not? According to the confused system as it is working in our land and country in revivals, let's get Esau to repent. Now if we can get him to try to repent right hard, according to your system, he will be free on board from your headquarters. So Esau tried your plan and couldn't get the work done. So, this is a case left on record how it is done and how it is not done.

Now we will call Paul back to the stand to testify in Esau's case. Hebrews 12:17, "For ye know that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected; for he found no place of repentance." Well, you will say, he didn't bear down on it hard enough. He did all confusion requires, then you all OK them and call them saved, but Paul didn't; so here is the rest of the quotation. "For he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears." Now, Brother Hill, if you get out of this, I want to pat you on the head.

Bulldogs Wallop Southland 64-0

(By William Hill)
The Tahoka Bulldogs defeated the young and inexperienced Southland team here last Friday night 64 to 0. The bulldogs played their second and third string men about half the game.

With Jackie Weathers calling signals for the Bulldogs, the first play of the game was a 75-yard run around end for a touchdown by Max Minor. The Bulldogs scored two more times in three plays. Max Minor and Jackie Weathers handling the ball. Max kicked one extra point out of three tries. Jackie Weathers scored the fourth touchdown for the evening. Max made five more touchdowns and there were three more points kicked.

There was some good blocking and tackling done by the Bulldogs during the game. There is still room for improvement though.

Roy Botkin, a 95-pound second string backfield man, made a touchdown during the second half, and that was the most spectacular run of the game. Roy ran about 30 yards for these 6 points, dodging and weaving through men that were almost twice his size, but before that he made about a 25 yard gain.

We will have to watch this little fellow for he may be one of the Bulldogs' star players in another year or two.

The second string showed the first string boys that they could hold down the fort nearly as well as the first string can. This should make you first string boys play harder and with more determination. Your troubles are now just beginning with all of your easy games nearly gone and the hard games just ahead of you; not only that but some of them are conference games. So don't go to getting the big head now. Wait a while and see if you will have to buy a larger hat.

Mr. and Mrs. James Durham of Clovis, New Mexico, visited Mr. Durham's brother, Dr. K. R. Durham and family here Sunday.

NEW HOME 4-H CLUB

"You may enter a dress, apron tufted bedspread or a tablecloth in the South Plains Fair", said Miss Maurine McNatt at a meeting of the New Home 4-H club which met at the school house, Tuesday, September 19, 1939.

The purpose of the meeting was to elect new officers for the coming year which we did. They are: President, Tera Mae Caffey; Reporter, Bobby June McCormick; Vice-President, Freddie Smith; Secretary-Treasurer, Juanita Anderson; Recreation Leader, Bobby June McCormick; Poultry Demonstrator, Doris Jean Smith.

MARRIAGE LICENSE ISSUED

Four licenses to marry had been issued up to Monday morning at the county clerk's office.

Licenses were issued to Marvin Ellis and Alene Kirkland on last Friday. No returns had been received.

James Briles of Redwine and Mrs. Effie B. Hall of Post were married Friday, Justice of the Peace J. E. Dye performing the ceremony.

Jack Frank Patton and Kathleen Self of Lubbock were married at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. G. E. Turrentine officiating, Saturday.

A Mexican couple, Marcos Rodriguez and Jovita Martinez were united in marriage by Judge Goad Monday.

Jim Weatherford returned Saturday from a visit of two weeks with his daughter, Mrs. Williams, at Sierra Blanca. When he went down he was accompanied by two nieces residing at Lamesa, one of whom teaches at Sierra Blanca and the other at Sanderson.

George Foster, Justice of the Peace, and John Johnson, City Marshall, of O'Donnell had business in Tahoka Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Eudaly of Pampa spent the week end here visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Callaway. Mrs. Eudaly is Mrs. Callaway's niece.

Lockwood Enjoys Visit Of Old Time Friend

We heard A. L. Lockwood and Jim Weatherford laughing Tuesday about a lot of fun Mr. Lockwood had had recently when another old timer, John Coughran, who now lives out in Oregon, made a visit here. Mr. Coughran undertook to hunt up his old friend Lockwood. He approached Mr. Lockwood himself but failed to recognize him and made inquiry as to whether or not Mr. Lockwood was in town. Readily recognizing Coughran, Lockwood answered that he had seen the gentleman a few minutes before. The two set out to hunt him up and Lockwood had taken Coughran almost all over the business section before the latter found out that his pilot was Lockwood himself. Mr. Coughran was here visiting the Kettners and others. He was engaged in business here thirty-odd years ago.

METHODIST WMS MEETS

The WMS of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Fred Bucy Monday for a social and business meeting. Mrs. W. M. Mathis had charge of entertainment.

A box was packed and sent to the Virginia K. Johnson Home at Dallas, Texas. Literature was packed to be sent to a Deaconess in Arizona. Mrs. Emil Prohl, president, asked that each member send her old clothes to the society to be sold at rummage sales on Saturdays this fall.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames Donaldson, Turrentine, Thompson, Sinclair, Smith, Jr., Server, Anglin, John Curry, Welch, Gibson, Prohl, Edwards, Daly, Woods, Gill, Poer, Mathis and the hostess, Mrs. Bucy.

THEBE K. WARNER CLUB MET TUESDAY

Mrs. G. E. Turrentine was hostess to the Phebe K. Warner Club on Tuesday, September 26 for a program on music. Each answered the roll call with the name of the favorite composer.

The following program was rendered: Beethoven, Mrs. V. D. Armstrong; "Moonlight Sonata", piano selection, Mrs. R. L. Richardson; Brahms, Mrs. G. E. Turrentine; "Lullaby", Mrs. J. H. Edwards, II; Bach, Mrs. Emil Prohl; "In God's Temple", Mrs. J. H. Edwards, II.

Members present were Mesdames J. K. Applegate, Armstrong, A. P. Edwards, E. S. Evans, R. W. Fenton, Ben Hardy, Pete Hegi, W. M. Mathis, Prohl, Richardson, Truett Smith, H. M. Snowden, Spikes, G. M. Stewart, H. C. Story, Chase Thompson, Pace, Sinclair, Turrentine, Lyons of Galveston and Mrs. J. H. Edwards, II, were guests.

FRESHMEN NEWS

The Freshman class met last Tuesday and elected officers. The following officers were elected:

Junior Boullion, President; Cecil Curry, Vice-President; Noble Rumbo, Secretary-Treasurer; James Roberts, Boy Reporter; Joan Owens, Girl Reporter.

Freshman class is in deepest sympathy with one of its members, Noble Rumbo whose mother died last week. The class feels that Noble's great loss is its loss and wants to express its regret.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lockwood and Judge and Mrs. C. H. Cain spent the weekend down at Abilene visiting Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Callaway. They report that Dr. Callaway is showing improvement from an attack of undulant fever with which he has been suffering for several months. He and Mrs. Callaway have recently built them a new home, in which they are happily situated. Mr. Lockwood reports, however, that crops in that section of the West are very short.

Harold Zane, the little 15-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Rowe of the Midway community, is recovering from a serious spell of sickness, in which for a few days his fever ran very high. It is hoped that he will be entirely well within a few days.

Mrs. W. L. Tunnell of the Midway community is reported to be seriously sick of some kind of stomach ailment and high fever. It is believed that her condition is improving, however.

Coughran Partner, who is now operating a Watkins store in Lubbock, spent the weekend here with his father, J. E. Kettner, and his sisters, Mrs. Happy Smith and Mrs. Sam Price, and other relatives.

Mrs. Smith Lawson and two children of Los Angeles, California, are visiting Mrs. Lawson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Shepherd, and her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. A. Lawson, at Grassland.

ELDER SMITH CONTINUES BIBLE DISCUSSION

Now we will go a little farther on Election. I Thessalonians 1:4: "Knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God." Now Paul knew of the election of these brethren or he just lied about it, for he said, "Knowing your election of God." Now, as some of you might not just understand the definition of Predestination and Election, and run rough-shod over it and use their own ideas as to what it really meant, so we will give it as it really is, and ask how many of those eight churches you mentioned can use it to fit in with their condition of works that they offer to the world at large for salvation. So this is what it says: Divine choice, predestination of individuals as objects of mercy and salvation. So then if Predestination and Election will give salvation to the Elect, please show me what your preaching, persuading, and warning will do for the non-elect—not worth a whoop, as there is no plan of salvation on record in the Bible for the non-elect, as Election obtains all of the salvation that ever will be.

not perish but have everlasting life", they that hunger and thirst after righteousness, the merciful, and the peace-maker, a Christ who could declare that "Joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons which need no repentance." We are going to continue to believe in a God who calls upon all men everywhere to repent, and who, if we confess our sins, is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. With this, we will ring down the curtain, Brother Smith, and hope that you may continue to find plenty of opportunity to do theological hair-splitting to your heart's content—in the pulpit. Fine weather today; come see us some time.—The Editor.)
