VOLUME 32, NUMBER 34 16 PAGES — SECTION I, 8 PAGES THURSDAY, AUGUST 25, 1955

Red Cross Accepting Funds For Flood Relief

Bailey County and Muleshoe area people sympathize deeply with the people of north-eastern United States, who have suffered one of the worst disasters from floods that has ever occurred in the history of the country.

Bailey County Red Cross is taking the lead in bringing before the people the plight of the flood section, which has caused President Eisenhower to bring two nation-wide messages for assistance.

Murl Wilson, Chapter chairman, told the Journal that contributions will be accepted, and that everything given here will go to relieve suffering and loss in the affected area. He has made arrangements for moneys to be received as follows:

Mrs. Inez Bobo, Muleshoe State Bank; M. D. Gunstream, First National Bank

Mr. Wilson said the story of the loss of life and property in the flood is heart-rending, and that there never was a more urgent need for giving to help our neighbors rehabilitate their lives and property. He said no solicitation will be made, but he feels the generous hearted people of this area will surely want to help all they can.

A telegram received by Mr. Wilson this morning stated that 10,000 families are depending upon assistance, and more than $8 million will be needed; Bailey County's "rock bottom quota is set at $160, which surely will be forthcoming.

Eddie Mitchell, Polio Patient, Is Improved

Condition of Herman Eddie Mitchell, 8, who was stricken with polio last week, was improved, according to reports received here earlier this week from Plainview Hospital, where he is a patient in the polio ward.

Parents of the boy, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Mitchell, of Muleshoe, said that he began feeling bad last Saturday. On Friday they took him to the West Plains Hospital and Clinic where doctors tentatively identified the case as polio. He was then rushed to the Plainview Hospital, where a definite diagnosis was made.

Though he was suffering slight pain in the right leg and arm Tuesday evening, doctors at the hospital said from all indications there would be no paralysis.

Therapy baths for Eddie began Tuesday.

WISITED LENDERSONS

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lenderson and Ray Woods, Sudan; and Roy Whit, Webb Watts and Red Welsh, returned from Dallas this week after staying for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lenderson and daughter Kay.

"WE'LL BE READY"

"This isn't just football, its life. Some boys would give their eye teeth to be in your shoes. You have a chance now you will never have again. If you have staying power here you'll have staying power the rest of your life. We are not only going to build ball players out here, we're going to build character, and remember whether we win, lose, or draw, we're going to give them a run for their money this year." Taus the law was laid down by head coach Wayne Mantooth as he talked with his boys during Tuesday morning's workout. (Journal Photo)

One of the many slogans to come out of the current Marathon campaigns is the now-famous: "We're sleepy,—take advantage of us!" Another popular Maytag slogan from the campaigns: "Marathon trade-ins make prices just drop in the budget!"

Lush Crop Scenes Will Greet Trippers On Annual Soil Tour

Bailey County has enjoyed one of the best crop years in her history this year, and local farmers are preparing to harvest bumper crops of cotton, grain sorghums, tomatoes, etc. The town has boomed, and new farm land has been opened. This year the picture has been summed up with a new motto that has been adopted by the City of Muleshoe: "The community of opportunity, where water makes the difference." Improvements have been made, range land has been turned under by the plow, and homes have been built so fast that many people do not realize what has happened in a year's time in our own back yard.

September 13, has been set aside by the Blackwater Valley Soil Conservation District, as a day when everyone can have the opportunity to see for themselves what Bailey County has to offer in the way of agriculture that is way ahead of everything on the West Plains now, and still advancing. The big event will be the annual SC District tour.

Standing in front of a year when everything seemed to be labeled outstanding has been the West Camp community. Because of this and the many projects, crops, and improvements to be found in that part of the district the main portion of the tour will be centered around farms in that general area.

However, the tour will start with the group heading east on the Lubbock highway and then back north through new farm land to view sprinkler systems on D. L. Morrison's land, and those present will be able to see the effects of land leveling on the Bill Millen farms. On the Millen land soy beans will be viewed and discussed.

First stop west will be on the Sherman Inman farm, where those making the tour will have a chance to view what is probably the best corn crop in West Texas this year. Now standing as high as twelve feet, the corn was planted on land that has been fertilized with cotton burrs, followed by grain sorghum. The stubble of sorghum was fertilized with 00 pounds of 16-20-0. The corn has been side-dressed with 70 pounds of Anhydrous Ammonia.

Inman's farm also features the hybrid grain sorghum producing demonstration, New Era grain sorghum, and cowpeas.

Vetch, cotton, and volunteer vetch merit the Ed Little farm being marked as a point of interest.

Bartlett and Scroggins have been rated as a must among the stopping points. On their farms the outstanding crops this year are tomatoes, and sesame. Also to be viewed on this stop will be a cotton fertilizer demonstration, and grain sorghum.

While driving through this part of the district a person's attention will be drawn again and again to the many acres that have been planted in sesame and grain sorghums this year. Because of this the tour will be of great value to those interested in these crops. Special attention will be given to grain sorghums on the N. L. Saylor place.

Mung-beans will share the spotlight with grain as the group observes the crops on the Zula-Thompson farm. Sesame will be observed at its best, growing on the Herring Estate. Both of the crops mentioned above will be observed during the same stop.

Hubam clover for seed production will be of interest to many persons making the trip, as it is viewed on Bill Connell's land.

A special effort has been made in planning the tour's route, in order to show many good seedlings of peas, grain sorghums, alfalfa, and soybeans.

A big barbecue dinner and an interesting program featuring several outstanding agricultural personalities of this area will be enjoyed as the tour comes to its end at 12:00 A. M.

The Black Water Conservation District in cooperation with the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and several other interested organizations in this area sponsor the tour annually. This year it has been planned in such a way that promises to be enjoyable and educational to anyone interested in agriculture, either directly or indirectly.

Anyone making plans to make the trip stands a lot to gain and nothing to lose, so be on hand and ready to leave the County Court House here by 9:00 A. M. on Tuesday morning, September 13.

Annual Rodeo Here Drew Good Crowds More Entrants Than Ever In Events

Muleshoe's annual rodeo was a grand success this year, with good attendance all three nights, and participants in events coming from as far as Artesia, N. M., and Sayre and Seminole, Okla.

A good bit of excitement was caused the first evening of the rodeo, when Lelepe Pena, of Ft. Sumner was attacked by the bull which threw him. His brother Benny Pena, drew the bull away by playing matador with a jacket. As a whole, rodeo stock this year was rather wild and hard to handle, therefore making for thrilling performances and many spills.

Winner of the girls Barrel Race was Marilyn Caudill, of Lovington, N. M. Miss Caudill won first all three nights, thereby winning the hat given by Robinson's Boot Shop.

There were thirty-one ropers trying for honors this year in the tie-down calf roping. Red Whately, of Crosbyton won first place, and was awarded the lariate rope, which was donated by Perry Bros. O. C. Burton of Level-land was awarded the saddle blanket for the Best All-Round Cowboy. Blanket was given by Clayton Myers.

There were so many entries in bare back bronc riding and bull riding, that riders were limited to one ride or one go-round. Thirty were entered in bare back bronc, and nineteen in bull riding. David Allen, Muleshoe; and Clifton Wade, Seminole, tied for first place in the bar-back riding, and had to draw for the hat which was given by Cashway Grocery.

Ray Hair, of Clovis, N. M. was champion bull rider, thereby winning the boots given by Robinson's Boot Shop. Frank Hudson was hard-luck cowboy of the Saturday.

Mules Work Hard as Opener Nears

Head Coach, Wayne Mantooth and line coach, Bill Taylor were on the field with their '55 Mule line-up at 8:30 Monday morning to start conditioning for the season opener September 9, when the Mules will play host to the Hereford Whitefaces.

From 37 who reported for the first workout, 29 remained Tuesday night, but those boys promise to be well conditioned and more than ready to stir up some real dust in the District 2-AA football circles this fall.

Training is not being taken too lightly by either the coaches or the team this year. Coach Mantooth summed it all up by stating, "We have a small team, and we can't afford to lose anyone to injuries. The best way to be sure we don't is for everyone to be in shape to play football."

Monday's drill went hard and fast, with the boys taking the field in full equipment. Body contact was not delayed. Blocking dummies and sleds received plenty of rough treatment during the first hours of work. The throwing of blocks was supplemented with a rugged series of wind sprints and belly flops.

Six hours a day have been set aside for drills until school starts on September 5. The Mules take the field each morning at 8:30 and report for a similar drill at 2:30 each evening.

From the bottom to the top of the Mule line-up this year there is plenty of fire. The pattern of hard work that has been set by the team and its coaches, leaves room to believe that an unexpected series of upsets may be in store for the teams filling the Mules' schedule this season.

Junior Eddie Kilt, will carry the load at quarterback for the Mules. Only sophomore Jerry Blaylock remains in reserve, should a supply be needed for the scrappy little pilot; so Eddie is talking these days of training plenty serious.

Other hard hitting pig skin luggers from MHS this season will be: G. R. Howell, Charles Jennings, John Young. All of these boys are backed by capable and ready reserves such as Duane Morrison, Buddy Pool, and Jerry Blaylock. The halfback race

Wayne Bristow Bids Farewell

This issue of The Journal marks the end of a definite period in this reporter's life. Next Thursday I will leave Muleshoe to take a new job with Wayland College in Plainview, where I will begin my college education on September 5.

It is with the strangest mixture of gladness and sorrow that I have ever known that I leave The Journal and my home here. Glad to be starting another step that will take me nearer my life's goal, and sorry to be leaving my many friends and all that I have learned to love here in Muleshoe.

Since I joined forces with the staff here in The Journal's offices last winter, a debt has been created to the people with whom I have had the privilege to work that I will never be able to pay. Too numerous to name, and likewise too numerous to thank individually, these people have caused me to respect, know, and love Muleshoe and the surrounding country more than I ever thought possible.

A few out of these many have gained a special place, which will always hold in my memory of The Journal and Muleshoe.

Outstanding among these is J. M. Forbes, editor and publisher of The Journal. During my time here he has been my teacher, and

HERE and THERE
By JAMES TODD

On Johnnie's first day at school the teacher was plying him with the usual enrollment questions. When she asked him where he was born he promptly and proudly told her, "In the front room downstairs."

Jimmie had his first day in school. That evening when his father returned home and asked how school had gone he replied, "Not so hot." When his father followed through with "What was the matter?" Jimmie blurted, "Well, that teacher asked too many questions."

Jimmie's father undertook to sympathetically get to the source of Jimmie's disturbed state of mind, and asked about the teachers questions. Jimmie slowly told his story. "Well, she wanted to know your name . . . and then your house number and phone number . . . what you did . . . and all kind of things like that. And then she wants to know where I was born." After a long time of waiting his father asked, "Did you tell her?"

Jimmie squirmed and twisted his finger, and finally came out with it. "Yes, sir; but I didn't want those kids to think I was a sissy if I told her I was born in that old maternity ward, so I told her I was born in Yankee Stadium."

All of us seem to possess a deep abiding affection for the place of our birth and rearing and a friendly interest in that of others. Walking or strolling along the street and meeting the children at play, if you stop and talk with them you will find their first questions will be, "What is your name? Where do you live?"

Men and women who keep the heart of the little child will find great happiness in life and will share it with others.

Will Rogers never failed to let folk know that Clairmore, Oklahoma, was his old home town.

O. O. McIntyre, who wrote a column on the goings-on in New York so very affectionately, never forgot his old home town back in Iowa.

Dale Carnegie has never forgotten his home town in Missouri and mentions it by name frequently.

Up in the heart of the Panhandle an assistant official in a bank leaves his daily routine once a year to spend a few days down at his old home town in the heart of Texas. He has done this every year since he left. One would think he would prefer to vacation in some new place each year, but he eagerly looks forward through the year to his annual visit with friends in the old home town.

The late Mr. Justice Louis Brandeis of the United States Supreme Court advised a young lawyer who asked regarding locating in New York City: "Stay in your home town. Be the kind of person there of whom people will say, 'We can take our problems to John.' We have faith in him. You will find that more worthwhile compensation than political power in Washington or financial power in New York."

It is quite true as the Master of men said, when his home town of Nazareth turned him down, "No man is without honor except in his own country and his own house, but now and then there is an exception to the rule. The man or woman who succeeds in being an exception seems to have something more than haunting memories of childhood days when he grows to old to dream.

There always seems to be that one secret with all of those who remember the old home town and stay with it. It is the word of wisdom from Solomon, king of ancient Israel, "Thy friends, and thy father's friends, forsake not."

friend, as well as my boss. His interest in things I have done has exceeded the mere business standpoint and gone out into the things which will be vital to my development in the future. To him the debt is tremendous, (perhaps it can be paid in a small part by my learning to spell).

Others on that special list would be: Superintendent of schools, Jerry R. Kirk; S C S agent, Duane Barteel; coach Bill Taylor; fellow-lion, Bill Moore; county agent, J. K. Adams; agriculture teachers, Charles Thomas and Bill Bickel; band director, Norvil Howell; the '54-'55 Mules and Mullettes; and the entire staff here at The Journal.

May I take this means of saying thanks to everyone who has had a part in my work here, You're the best people in Texas and that's saying a lot.

I wish I could stay in Muleshoe, but that is impossible. The town and the country around it is bubbling over with opportunity and there seems to be no stopping place for its growth. If a man has ambition and isn't afraid of work he couldn't ask for a better place to settle. The motto recently adopted by the C. of C. has been proven true more than once in the past year, (COMMUNITY OF OPPORTUNITY, WHERE WATER MAKES THE DIFFERENCE).

Thanks, and may God bless all in a great way in the years ahead.

Rodeo—

Friday evening performance, and won $20.00 given by Raymond Green.

A smooth little rider from Corona, N. M., Louie Ermousse, took the high honors in saddle bronc riding, and won the hat donated by C. R. Anthony Co. Only ten contestants were entered in this contest.

Sonny Woods furnished the huge stock for double mugging event, and a lot of muscle was required to handle them. Sixteen top ropers were entered in this event, with Val King, of Lubbock winning the lariar rope for the fastest time. Rope was given by Perry Bros. O. C. Burton, of Levelland, won the hat from Piggly Wiggly, for the best average.

Rodeo headquarters this year were located at the office of A. S. Stovall, and rodeo authorities wish to take this opportunity to thank him for the use of his office.

Merchants sponsoring contestants in the rodeo are as follows: Cashway Grocery, Bob Knight of Earth in all roping events; John Fried of John's Custom Mill, sponsored his daughter Peggy in barrel races, and David Allen in bareback bronc riding, Harvey Bass, Houston Bartlett in bareback; Finis Kimbrough of Gulf Service Station sponsored Bartlett in bull riding.

BACK IN MULESHOE

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Henderson are residing in Muleshoe again after making their home in Lubbock. They formerly lived here. Mr. Henderson will be employed at Holland Barber Shop.

Muleshoe Golfers Tackle Morton In Inter-City Matches

Muleshoe and Morton men golfers will renew an old rivalry the coming Sunday, with matches scheduled to start at 1 p. m., on the Morton Country Club course.

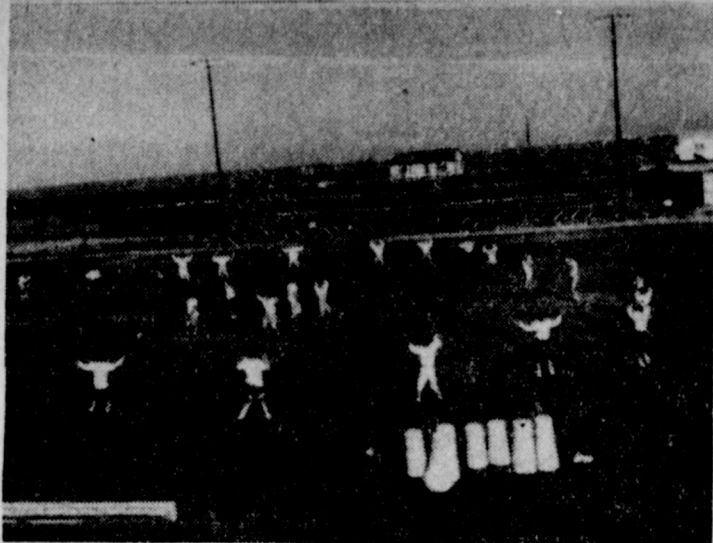

The local lads now have the trophy, symbolic of golf supremacy, but it's a traveling affair, and whoever wins Sunday will have possession the coming year. The side which wins three years in succession will take over permanent possession of the trophy.

There will be matches for everyone who will go down and play, arranged in A, B, C, and D brackets. Anyone who will go is asked to leave his name with Houston Hart, Sam Damon, or Irvin St. Clair, before Sunday. Morton's course has been improved by installation of grass greens, and the local men are looking forward to a pleasant afternoon of play.

MEHODIST MEN DEFEAT SUDAN IN VOLLEYBALL

Members of the Muleshoe Methodist Men's volleyball team played the Sudan Methodist team there Tuesday night, winning handsomely 4 games out of 6. A return engagement here is being planned.

Quite a few members of the local church were on hand to watch the match. Afterwards the Sudan folks served refreshments and there was plenty of fellowship.

Time: 8:30 a. m., Monday, September 22; and the boys who will represent MHS on the gridiron this season are hard at work as coaches Bill Taylor and Wayne Mantooth bark instructions during the Mules' first drill.

Football—

for positions will be plenty close and the above lineup may miss the final decision completely.

Howell at fullback is probably the most powerful backfield starter. The rugged 160 pound senior, is a returning regular, who has both experience and skill on his side.

Charles Jennings, 150 pound junior, has been finding the holes and doing plenty of damage in scrimmage thus far from a halfback position. Equally strong at that slot in the lineup is little John Young, who tilts the scales at 135 pounds.

When the repealing of a school rule which prohibited married students from taking part in sports, comes the possibility of adding more strength to the backfield by once again securing the services of halfback Doyle Rush. No statement concerning this step has been made yet by either Rush or the school.

New talent has put a solid punch in the forward wall for the Mules this year. Sophomore Johnny Allison will be starting at tackle for his first season on a high school football team. Solid and fast, Allison weighed in Monday at 170 pounds.

Another sophomore, Bobby Sanders, is stepping into the role of tackle this season. Sanders, like Allison, is big and aggressive. His desire to play and natural ability is expected to overshadow his lack of experience. Bobby weighs 160 in the peak of condition.

Doyle Henry, returning regular, will spark the line on both offense and defense at his guard post. Weighing only 145 pounds, Henry has alertness and speed seldom found in a pig man. This will be his last season to wear a Mule uniform.

Senior, Gene Paul Jarman, is making an all-out bid for the remaining guard slot. Jarman is a returning letterman, and weighs in at 150 pounds.

Jackie Tidwell shows every indication of being a Mule spark-plug this year. A senior at MHS, Jack is set to hold down an end position. Conditioned fast, and taking the workouts this week as important business, Tidwell weighs a solid 160 pounds. Speed and ability should make him a ready target for Will's passing arm this season.

Two other seniors are making their bid for the remaining end, Stanley Fox and Bo Bryant, both returning lettermen, who balance the scales at 150 pounds each. Bryant shows defensive ability, while Fox is alert on offense; the outcome could spell compromise.

Other linemen showing promise of filling the bill this year are guards like David Shepherd, Gwineth Cox, Royce and Doyle Turner and Edgar Martin.

Joe Roark has already proven that he is able to pack a powerful punch while moving from the middle of the line as center. Joe, a 160 pound junior, is a returning letterman who will be a much needed mainstay in this year's lineup.

Senior Buddy Pool is a stand-out example of the rugged and ready spirit to be found in every Mule player this year. Ready to go on both offense and defense at halfback, Pool ranks as one of the hardest hitting boys on the team, although he weighs only 140 pounds.

Defensive guns will pack heavy loads this year with the boys already mentioned and newcomers such as end Charles Parker, and tackle Joe Gross.

Missing from the Mules' line thus far this season is the team's hard-hitting, 207 pound senior tackle, Thurston Garrison. It is hoped difficulties barring Garrison from playing can be removed before the season gets underway. The additional weight he would provide could be the deciding factor in many attempts to be made by the Mules' forward wall.

Concerning his line, Bill Taylor says, "The boys are looking great in workouts, we'll be ready when Hereford gets here".

Mantooth plans to begin work next week on the split-T formation, from which the team will probably work this season. He simply states that there is a lot of work ahead, but agrees with Taylor in the fact that they will be ready. The new head pilot told his boys, concerning the season ahead, "Whether we win, lose, or draw, we're going to give everyone a run for their money". All the Mules seem determined to make the first of the three above decisions a hab-

HERE AT HOME

By J. M. FORBES

Bob Darnell, the manager of Muleshoe National Wildlife Refuge, must have a lonesome job in summer. Right now there is not heard the voice of the turtle in the land; few cooling doves no honking geese or flapping of cranes. Of ducks, there seems to be a population of 12 and what they're doing here Bob doesn't know, for they didn't nest on the reservation. Probably too lazy to go north, just waited here till the bunch gets back from wherever they went to. No quail yet, either, but wait a few short weeks and the air will be black with winged wildlife. We have seen a half million ducks on the reservation in favorable years. Right now, two lakes have a small amount of water; it needs to rain on the refuge.

H. A. Reynolds the Buta superintendent doesn't mince words when he gets to talking about the teacher shortage. "You'll never going to have enough teachers so long as they are paid less than any high school kid can earn as a bookkeeper or clerk". He reminded that a four year college man or woman can expect a salary as a beginning teacher of a little more than $2,800. Plenty of beginning bookkeepers begin at $250 a month.

Home economics teachers, he believes are especially scarce. Less youngsters are starting out on a teaching career than ever, he believes.

Bula pays their teachers as much as possible; in addition provides housing at very small cost. This was not sufficient to prevent their losing a crack commercial teacher this year.

Private enterprise seems to be able to get money to pay employees good salaries. This column is not getting patriotic and offering to pay more taxes, Mr. Reynolds, but it does seem that if raising taxes is the only way to insure a continuous supply of teachers, that's about the only thing the trustees can do.

VISITED HERE
Mr. and Mrs. Burl Pierce and children Jay and Kay, and Ronnie Eudy of Turkey, visited for a night this week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Splawn. They were on their way home from a vacation in California, where they visited a daughter.

NEW SCALES INSTALLED BY JONES FARM STORE
A new Fairbanks-Morse scale is being installed this week by Jones Farm Store, local Purina dealer. "Chief" Jones, the proprietor, said the scale was needed in receiving and weighing out to customers their bulk fertilizer and anhydrous ammonia. It's a 40 feet long affair with a capacity of 80,000 pounds.

ATTENDED ELECTRIC CO-OP GALVESTON CONVENTION
A group of officials of Bailey County Electric Cooperative Ass'n, this week attended the annual convention of Texas Electric Cooperatives, Inc., held in Galveston Aug. 25 and 26. D. B. Lancaster, manager; Glenn Thompson, Joe Sooter, R. L. Kimbrough, and Tommy Galt, directors flew down from Lubbock. Another director, R. A. Axtel, motored down to the meeting city with his family.

New Minister Installed At Lutheran Church

Installation and ordination services for the new minister of the St. John's Lutheran Church at Lariat, Rev. Oesch, were held the past Sunday evening at the church.

Rev. Oesch is a graduate of the Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, Mo., and is a native of Iowa. His father preached the evening's sermon.

Supper was served to members of the church and to attending guests, following preaching services.

Guests attended from Clovis, N.M., Muleshoe, Hereford, Lubbock, Littlefield, and various other cities in the area.

Muleshoe Is Mentioned In Korean Newspaper

Mrs. Lora Brown, of Route 3, Muleshoe came to The Journal Office this week with a clipping of her by her son William Earl Deaton, who is stationed on Okinawa.

The clipping, which was taken from a Korean newspaper, concerned the arrival of the Texas delegation and the unloading of the animals and farm equipment, at Incheon, Korea.

The article read in part as follows:
In the group of animals unloaded Sunday were a team of mules from Muleshoe, Texas. "We couldn't think of anything that would represent the town better," said Rev. Carrol Jones, a Methodist minister from Muleshoe. The people from the small town also donated a wagon, sewing machines and 62 pigs.

DEXTER UNDERGROUND LAWN SPRINKLER SYSTEM

IT'S EASY TO INSTALL — There's no tearing up your lawn to install the Dexter system. After assembling above ground, you slit sod to a five inch depth, set system in ground so that sprinkler heads are at ground level, tamp down the sod and connect to outdoor water faucet.

All you need for installation is spade, wrench, knife, screwdriver, and pipe compound.

Dexter's eight solid brass sprinkler heads are adjustable from a fine mist to a coarse spray. And for sprinkling into a corner or along a walk or driveway, quarter-circle and half-circle spray adapter sleeves can be dropped into sprinkler head.

Complete, illustrated, step-by-step installation instructions are included in each Dexter Underground Lawn Sprinkler System Kit. With the installation of a Dexter Kit you take the chore out of lawn sprinkling.

It's now as simple as turning a faucet.

Drive-In Celebrates 22nd Anniversary First Drive-In Theatre Aug. 26-Sept. 1

The 22nd Anniversary of the first drive-in theatre will be celebrated with Drive-In Theatre Week, August 26 — September 1 and the Cox Drive-In Theatre, owned by Gene and Howard Cox will participate by bringing you great movies in the gaily decorated drive-in which will give added enjoyment to thousands in our community.

Mayor W. T. Bovell has issued a proclamation naming Drive-In Theatre Week, August 26 to September 1, and local merchants will salute the Cox Drive-In Theatre during this week.

The drive-in theatre had its conception in 1933 in Camden, N. J., when Dick Hillingshead projected pictures on a screen installed on a parking lot next to his factory for the entertainment of his employees. The idea enjoyed such popularity that later Hillingshead opened the first commercial drive-in theatre.

In these 22 years drive-in theatres have grown from a simple experiment to entertain employees into a great $500,000,000 industry of more than 4,500 drive-in theatres all over the U. S., with a capacity of well over two million cars. More than 11 million men, women and children attend the drive-in theatres every week and more than 25 million are expected to attend during Drive-In Theatre Week.

The explanation for the rapid growth of drive-in theatres lies in the following advantages: no parking expense, no baby sitters, no dressing up, healthy out-door air, extra fun for the kids, relaxation in the comfort of your own car, expert personnel to serve you, refreshments in a picnic atmosphere. The Drive-In Theatre is dedicated to the entertainment of the family.

The Cox Drive-In Theatre will run the following fine motion pictures during Drive-In Theatre Week: "Ain't Misbehavin'", "Three Hours To Kill", "Seven Year Itch", "The Magnificent Matador", and "Captain Lightfoot".

The modern deluxe Cox Drive-In Theatre was built in 1950 by Gene and Howard Cox and has a capacity of 340 cars. They also have a modern Snack Bar for the convenience of their customers.

Two Lazbuddie Teenagers Killed In Car-Truck Collision Near Here

Two teen-age boys from the Lazbuddie community were killed and a Farwell youth injured last Friday afternoon when the '53 model car in which they were riding crashed into the rear of a large truck near here.

Sigman (Sig) Smith, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Smith, Sr., who live 17 miles north of Muleshoe, and Richard Lesly, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Lesly of the same vicinity, lost their lives in the accident.

Riley Buys New Rotary Drill Rig

Claude Riley is back in the irrigation well drilling business after several years in other lines of endeavor. He has bought a new rotary rig, equipped to go down to 1,000 feet if the land owner desires.

He has had several years experience in drilling and developing irrigation wells. He says his new rig will enable him to give very quick service, thus avoiding loss of time that might cause a big loss when crops need irrigating.

For the time being Mr. Riley will operate from his home, 1 block west, 2 south of the Diner Bell.

CARD TRAYS all standard sizes at the Journal.

Jack Conner, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Conner of Farwell, was injured in the grinding collision. His condition was not reported as serious by the West Plains Hospital here. Conner was rushed to the hospital by a passerby, Julius Dominguez. The youth suffered head lacerations, bruises, an ankle injury, a possible concussion and a slight degree of shock.

Dr. T. M. Slemmons, who accompanied the Singleton Funeral Home ambulance to the scene of the accident, pronounced Smith and Lesly dead at the scene.

"I was driving along at about 35 or 40 miles per hour looking for feed", said N. H. Thorne, driver of the truck, "when all of a sudden it seemed like I was in an earthquake".

Thorne, 39, of Christoval, was not injured. Both vehicles were traveling south toward Muleshoe on the Muleshoe-Friona highway. The accident occurred about three miles from the local city limits on a level stretch of road in the righthand lane. Thorne said there were no cars approaching the scene at the time the car slammed into his truck. There were no skid marks on the highway.

Several people living nearby heard the grinding crash as the car was crumpled under the bed of the truck, but there were no witnesses to the accident. Sheriff Hugh Freeman and Deputy Bill Boothe investigated the collision.

Apparently all three boys were riding in the front seat of the wrecked car. It is believed that Smith was driving the car, which was owned by his older brother, Leon, Jr.

Thorne said his truck brakes locked when the crash occurred. The car and truck came to rest not more than 10 feet from the point of the impact. The top of the car was pushed back and crushed by the underside of the truck bed. Both door posts of the driver's side were sheered from the car.

Texas To Produce One Third Of U. S. Cotton

Texas will produce nearly one-third of the nation's 1955 crop of cotton, on the basis of USDA forecasts as of August 1. Of the 12,723,000 bales forecast for the U. S. Texas is expected to produce 3,900,000 bales.

And farmers have learned the importance, and the value of increased yields per acre, bring little solace, on doubt, to those struggling with the so-called surplus problem who had wanted a 10-million bale crop this year.

Texas producers will not equal the national per-acre average production of 367 pounds of lint, which is 26 pounds above last year's record and 88 pounds above the average, but Texas farmers are setting a new high modern-day record production per acre of 278 pounds, highest since 1886, Texas' production compares with last year's 245 pounds per acre average, and with 188 pounds for the 10-year (1944-53) average.

The nation's expected crop of 12,723,000 bales (of 500 pounds average), is seven percent less than last year's crop, although acreage was reduced by a much higher percentage.

The Plains are a of Texas appears to be the major "white spot" for production. The USDA report said lack of moisture during the spring and summer reduced the dryland in the Coastal Bend and of Texas; soils were becoming.

Mae Mahon entertained brothers in her home this week. They were Boyd and Gene Hood of Westminister, Texas. They were here last Monday and then went back to East Texas.

Mrs. Odell Press, and her mother, Mrs. Ingram, who has just returned from a trip to East Texas, entertained friends and relatives in their home over the week-than last year's 743 pounds per acre, but well above the 500 pound 10-year average.

Oklahoma expected 345,000 bales from 795,000 acres, with yield per acre rising to 298 pounds compared with last year's 151 pounds and the average of 160 pounds. Total production also is up from last year's 293,000 bales.

Arizona Leads in Yields

Arizona, as usual, leads the producing pack in per acre yields expecting 936 pounds of lint per acre from 345,000 acres for a crop of 680,000 bales, well down from last year's 911,000 bales. Low last year's 1,039 pounds per acre, but is far ahead of the 10-year average of 598 pounds.

California is in fourth place among states in total production, exceeded only by Texas, Mississippi and Arkansas, but topped only by Arizona in yield per acre. The state expects 1,150,000 bales this year from 754,000 acres well below last year but slightly higher than the 10-year average. Per acre of 732 pounds of lint was below last year's 806 pounds but well ahead of the 10-year average of 631 pounds.

Undesirable Wheat Varieties Listed

COLLEGE STATION, Aug. 25—A list of 23 wheat varieties designated as undesirable because of inferior milling or baking qualities has been released by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Because of their undesirability, a discount of 20 cents a bushel in 1956 price-support rates will be made to discourage the planting of the listed varieties.

The varieties were designated by the Agricultural Research Service after consultation with state agricultural experiment station personnel, agronomists, cereal chemists and other qualified technicians on state and Federal staffs.

The price support regulations for 1956 will provide producer certification, that is, the identification of the variety of wheat going under price support, will be the responsibility of the producer. It will be based on his knowledge of varieties seeded and harvested. No protein content premium will apply to any of the undesirable varieties.

The 23 varieties listed accounted for only 21 million bushels of the 1954 production and 3.7 percent of the '54 wheat acreage. The varieties shown on the list included seven which are planted in Texas. All are hard red winter wheats and are Red Chief, Red Jacket, Kanking, Chiefkan, Early Blackhull, New Chief and Yogo.

USDA officials state that this change in the price-support program for wheat is designed to encourage the production of more desirable varieties and lessen the possibility of U. S. wheat of inferior quality finding its way into domestic and export channels. Strong backing, say the officials, has come from crop improvement associations.

Castor Beans Mixed In Sorghum Grains To Bring "Sample" Grade

A warning has gone out from the USDA Agricultural Marketing Service at Galveston concerning sorghum grain that contains castor beans or bits of castor beans. Local elevator men received the special letter last week and are passing the word on to their farmer friends. The letter, important to all farmers and grain men, follows:

"Our instructions are simply that if a lot of grain contains castor beans or pieces of castor beans, then the lot should be graded Sample Grade account of distinctly low quality."

No number of percentage of content of the material has been specified. The inspector or supervisor would need only to be assured of its presence. As you know, castor beans contain a deadly poisonous protein and a very potent allergen.

"A statement may be made under remarks on an inspection certificate that the grain is distinctly low quality because of the presence of castor beans."

About Homemakers & Homemaking in BAILEY COUNTY
By MOLLIE STINSON
Home Demonstration Agent

Well, everyone got back from 4-H Camp in one piece. I think all the girls and leaders had a swell time.

For crafts we hammered designs on aluminum trays that could be used for ashtrays or pin trays. Ribbons were awarded to the first, second, and third trays in four classes. The results are as follows: Junior division (age 11 and under) First, Kay Thomson, Progress; tied for second, Sandra Smith and Roberta Snodgrass of Yoakum County and Trudy Davis, Progress; third, Sandra Lemons, Three Way.

Intermediate Division (12-13) First, Pat Thompson, Progress; second, Margaret Durham, Muleshoe; tied for third, Magann Lamb and Kay Cherry, Muleshoe, and Irene Koncaba, Yoakum County.

Senior Division (14 and over), First, Mary Carney, Muleshoe; tied for second, Darline Snodgrass and Sandra Pharr, Yoakum County; third, Gracie Lou Altman, Bula.

The leaders made trays too, and ribbons were awarded to them in this order: Mrs. Roy Carney, Muleshoe, first; Mrs. Maurine Smith, Yoakum County and Mrs. Totsy Lemons, Three Way tied for second; Mrs. G. W. Cherry, Muleshoe and Mrs. J. W. Thomson, Progress and Mrs. Rita Mae Snodgrass, Yoakum County tied for third.

The group really made some lovely trays and whether they got a ribbon or not all of them got something from the creative effort.

One incident. I'll just have to pass on to you. Each night we had a party and most of the girls would dress up a little for it (wear skirts instead of blue jeans). There wasn't any electricity in the bunkhouse, instead we had kerosene lanterns. So it was kind of dark in there. Two of the "older" girls were the last ones dressing for the party. They got some "spray" out of another girl's suitcase to put on their hair. After they had liberally sprayed their hair they became suspicious of the smell of their "spray net" and held it up to the light. They had gotten insect repellent instead!

Records for the Bailey County

4-H Girls Gold Star Award are due in the agent's office by Monday, August 29. To be eligible for this award a girl must have been in 4-H for three years and be 14 years old. A committee of 4-H leaders will select the winning girls for this county.

As camp Miss Corinne Stinson, Palmer County Home Demonstration Agent, gave an interesting talk on 4-H records. It is hoped that the girls will be inspired by this talk to keep good records. If any of you need any of the record forms, don't hesitate to come by the office and pick them up.

BABSON DECLARES—

"PROSPERITY"

Babson Park, Mass., Aug. 25 — How sound is our present prosperity? How long can it last? These are questions that many readers have recently asked. These readers are in some instances people who have been buying a great many things on credit, and in other instances small businessmen who wonder how far they should go on expanding.

JUST HOW PROSPEROUS ARE WE?

Back in 1929 there were about 10 million radio sets in the U. S.; today there are 125 million. That is more radios than are owned by all the rest of the world. Today 90% of our homes have mechanical refrigeration; back in '29 only 4% of our families had mechanical refrigerators. Today 42% of our population are high school graduates; in 1929 only 13% had high school diplomas. Today we are spending $15 billion for recreation—three times as much as 25 years ago. Today we have 28 passenger cars for every 100 people, compared with 19 per 100 in '29; and the number of cars per family is rapidly increasing.

Perhaps most significant of all is the fact that 25 years ago there was some $84 billions of life insurance in force; today the amount has climbed to $235 billions! It is estimated the total income of all Americans exceeds the total combined income of all the 600 million people in Europe and Russia! With less than 7% of the land area of the globe and little more than 6% of the earth's population, we now manufacture about half the world's goods. It looks as if we never had it so good.

WHAT CAUSES THIS PROSPERITY

Our prosperity started from the tremendous pent-up demand for goods and services that followed World War II. Our prosperity could never have since oaloned to its present size had not our government so greatly expanded our national debt by releasing enormous supplies of money. This keeps the economic machine running smoothly, but in turn, taxes us all to the teeth. Some economists have said that if we do not want our heavy debt, with both high prices and high wages, then we cannot have full employment and so-called prosperity.

The thing that makes us appear so prosperous is that we are all living off our rich "Uncle," who, in order to keep up appearances and not let us down, has borrowed so heavily. Some day, however, all of us "relatives" will have to chip in to bail Uncle out. By his heavy borrowing, Uncle made it possible for us to buy homes with little or no down payment and with installments running thirty years; to stockpile agricultural surpluses which the farmer can't sell; to build vast new road systems and other public works projects; to provide military expenditures beyond the comprehension of man. Uncle Sam has done all this by borrowing from the future money which he can never repay. He borrows; he spends; he taxes; and then spends it over again. It's a wild merry-go-round.

WILL THIS PROSPERITY CONTINUE?

In 1933, Joseph Dodge, then the Director of the National Budget, said that our national pro-

SAND HILLS PHILOSOPHER CLAIMS

Republicans Making Big Mistake Fixing Up The Eisenhower Farm

Editor's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has his mind on politics this week, or it may be farming, it's hard to tell.

Dear editor: I have never had any Presidential aspirations or any other kinds much and have never worried much over who was President on the theory that the country is always bigger than its chief executive regardless of how big he is and plowing is as hard under one administration as another, but there are a lot of people not turned that way, who's President or who's gonna be President are matters that keep them in a turmoil.

The reason I bring this up is that there are a lot of people right now worrying themselves sick over whether President Eisenhower is going to run again, although it doesn't seem to be worrying the man it concerns the most, President Eisenhower himself.

Understand, I'm not entering into the discussion from a partisan standpoint, taxes have always been just as due under one administration as another, but everybody recognizes the Republicans would have a situation on their hands if Eisenhower decided he was going to farm year after next. It would be a mad scramble for the nomination. There are plenty of Republicans perity could be likened to the status of a family that had for years lived well beyond its means; had only three times in twenty years provided itself with more receipts than it had spent; had acquired a debt four times its yearly income; and owed more than a year's income on C. O. D.'s that will have to be paid for on delivery. How good would you consider your own financial condition if yours were such a family? This is the condition of the national family of which we are a part.

There is nothing dishonest about this; it can continue to go on for many years more; but some day there can be a collapse. Our prosperity is in part an artificial prosperity, artificial because it is fed by enormous government expenditures. Should the government withdraw the fantastic amounts spent for stockpiling, subsidies, public works, and the like, we can be sure our prosperity would wane.

On the other hand, if we choose to continue to live on borrowed money which our children some day must pay back, we can continue for a while longer to have good times at our children's expense. Some day, sometime, somehow, someone must "go through the wringer." I repeat, this day may be years ahead; but once in a while I do like to remind my readers that this prosperity game cannot last forever.

who know they're capable of being President, but their trouble is not enough other people know it. Consequently, the whole Republican strategy for the election next year is based on Eisenhower's running again. Even I can see that.

And that's where my point comes in. I've noticed that from time to time Eisenhower well-wishers have been sending him presents for his farm at Gettysburg. One group sends him a new tractor, another sends him a new tractor, another sends him a few registered heifers, another some hogs, another a new fireplace, etc.

What these well-wishers don't seem to realize is that every time they make his farm more attractive, they make the White House less attractive.

The way to get Eisenhower to run again is to make farm life less appealing, not more so, but if the Republicans keep on piling up these gifts, they may be out of a candidate. In fact, I think the Democrats have a ready caught on, and just the other day a bunch of them presented the President with a fine Angus cow to go on his farm. You could tell from the knowing smiles on their faces in the picture I saw that they knew what they were doing.

If the Republicans are smart, they'll put a stop to this right now, and start scattering Johnson grass seed around that Gettysburg farm and half-burying a few plow-point-busting rocks in the fields and leaving a few pamphlets around the living room on the increase of crop pests and the likelihood of a new drought cycle.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Today's Meditation

Read Hebrews 11:32-40. Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith. (Hebrews 12:1, 2.)

The Christian life is like a race. Everyone who runs this great race, the only one which is self for it. It requires feeding on worth while, must prepare him the most nutritious spiritual food leading a life free from the weight of sin which besets us.

It is important that we keep Christ in sight as we run with patience the race set before us. If we lose sight of Him, we wander from the pathway or mistake the goal, for He is the Way and the Goal. From Him comes inspiration in the very act of running the race; from Him comes the energy needed to reach the end of the race.

Many are watching as we run and the progress we are making in the faith and the living of it. Let us run the race to the glory of God and trust our lives may prove inspirational to a cloud of witnesses.

PRAYER

Our Father, we know that the Christian life demands continuous effort and great patience. Encourage us in our race and feed us with Thy spirit that we may be sustained and at last reach the goal, in the name of Christ, Amen.

Thought For The Day
Christ helping us, we can run with patience the race set before us.

We know you saw the headlines regarding castor beans in milo, in one of the daily papers, if you have grown castor beans, be sure to eliminate any plants from your fields, so you can sell the harvest without drastic penalty.

One week from next Tuesday at nine o'clock is the date for inspection of grain sorghum fields of those who have saved the certification tags from the seed bags. It appears that it will be a busy day, but if you desire such an inspection, please leave your name at the Farm Bureau Office or at the office of the County Agent. The inspectors and other interested persons, including members of the weed committee, will meet here at the Farm Bureau Office in Friona. You will be welcome to participate in this effort to enable you to get better purer seed next year.

President Gilbert Kaltwasser attended a District II Farm Bureau President's Conference in Lubbock last Thursday night. He and Mrs. Kaltwasser and your service representatives is vent to Amarillo on the evening of the seventeenth when Miss Clara Jean Jesko, our Farm Bureau Queen was presented on Cotton John's Television Show. Clara Jean continues to be compli-ward to her possibility of winning the district contest early in September in Lubbock.

TALENT SHOW: Farm Bureau is sponsoring the talent show the last night of the County Fair. That will be September 10, Saturday night. J. T. Jones has reported that Mrs. M. A. Snyder, of Farwell, Mrs. Leon Grissom, Oklahoma Lane, and Mrs. C. V. Potts, of Rhea will solicit and accept entries for the show. The Fair Association will provide prizes for winning entries. If it is more convenient, call your entry into 3521, Friona, collect.

Very little interest was shown in the National Cotton Council meeting last Friday night. Only a few over thirty men attended. Our compliments to Lawlis-Ely, of Bovina, and North Plains, of Friona, winners who were present, expressing an interest in marketing your cotton, as well as giving it. Your future as a cotton producer is certainly dependent upon expanding markets and exports, as pointed out by John T. Gregg, Council Representative.

Christian Science Services

The way of health and holiness of dominion over fear and sin which Jesus came to teach, will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christ Jesus" will include the Master's healing of the servant of the high priest as recorded in Luke's Gospel (22:50-51): "And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear. And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him."

Correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (54:10-17): "That He might liberally pour his dear-bought treasures into empty or sin-filled human storehouses, was the inspiration of Jesus' intense human sacrifice. In witness of his divine commission, he presented the proof that life, Truth, and Love heal the sick and the sinning, and triumph over death through Mind, not matter. This was the highest proof he could have offered of divine Love."

Texas Girls Near Trip's End In Spain

South again! And it really feels wonderful. We are now in Spain after seeing and loving Italy. I had been a little dubious about travel through Italy because of some of the stories we had heard. Other tourists had warned us that Italians didn't like Americans and would try to take all our money, that our car wouldn't be safe, and that we wouldn't be given the right directions if they suspected that we were Americans. Now, after going thru Italy, I can't see how those stories could be true. The Italians were just as hospitable and helpful as have been the people of other countries.

Rome, with its Roman ruins amidst the heart of the busy city, is a place that all tourists should see. There all our guides insisted that we should see places like the Colosseum, the Vatican City, with its art museum and St. Peter's Cathedral, and their monuments. One of the most interesting things we saw was the opera, which is held in a huge outdoor amphitheatre among the ruins of the Caracalla Baths. Contrary to the German opera, which only the wealthy can afford, everybody goes to the opera in Rome. Tickets cost what is approximately 32¢ in American money and there you can see truck drivers and other workers sitting next to well-dressed tourists or white-collar workers. Following a common American custom in Rome, we saw "Aida". And of course we wouldn't leave until we had thrown coins into Treve Fountain.

Spain has been my favorite country throughout the whole trip. It is really hard to explain just why, but I think it is a combination of the people living exactly as they have for centuries and the land that looks as dry as Texas and the warm weather again. The land is amazing because it looks as though nothing could possibly grow here, but they have large fruit and olive groves — really good looking ones.

One possible drawback of the hot countries has been the fact that we get so thirsty. We gasp and pant and think that we would give a kingdom for a cool drink of water. Before coming to the Latin countries we had faithfully promised one another not to drink the water here because we had heard how unsafe it was. Now that we are here, we drink gallons of water, saying confidently, "We've had shots for typhoid, tetanus, and cholera so it will be O. K."

Less than two weeks from now we will sail for the U. S., again on the "Castel Felice". The entire trip has been chock full of new and wonderful experiences for each of us. We have made mistakes that have been profitable to us and will be good advice for any others who wish to see Europe as we have. Although we have not traveled first class, I believe we have seen a side of Europe that we wouldn't have seen otherwise. I feel that this has made up for any of the rough going that we went thru at times.

Latest word in hair styles is a "chi-chignon" with a gay little cotton "hat". The girl who has short hair doesn't have to worry if she wants a sophisticated chignon hair-do. She can just go out and buy a chignon of hair to match her own with a cotton hat band to suit her fancy. The chignon and cotton band are designed by Joseph Fleischer.

Things which he will be learning in class, and at the same time he has the personal opportunity to make a profit. Everyone knows that it is true that 'experience is the best teacher'. With a project a boy learns farming and ranching by actually doing the job. Even if the boy fails to profit in dollars and cents, he will always profit in experience gained.

Class work is never the full picture of any well balanced educational program, so "What are some of the other activities that a freshman in the FFA may take part in?"

A boy's leadership ability is developed by being a member of such groups as, the Junior Chapter Conducting team. This is a group of boys who compete with other ag. chapters each year in a test of their ability to carry on a meeting according to recognized parliamentary procedure. Other activities include: the FFA Quiz, farm skill-demonstrations, booth construction at fairs and livestock shows, livestock judging, poultry judging, land judging, and every boy is given the opportunity to show his project sometime during the year at either a local or district show.

What we are trying to say could be summed up by stating that vocational agriculture offers the freshman a good start in practical living, and self development. An education today could not be marked, "well-balanced" if the course were omitted.

With registration for pupils in Muleshoe's public schools scheduled to begin next Thursday, many questions face those students who will be stepping into new educational departments this year. This is especially true of the boys who will enter into the ranks of freshmen here this year. In this week's column it is our aim to answer some questions sure to be asked concerning one course all freshmen boys must take, vocational agriculture.

To a boy who is just beginning his high school education the question, "Just what is vocational agriculture?" may seem mighty important. Vocational agriculture is a course which is set up to help the high school boy get started in farming, or in some field directly or indirectly connected with agriculture. This group would include almost every individual living in West Texas.

With one's enrollment in Ag. I comes membership in the FFA, Future Farmers of America. Now we must ask, "What is the FFA?"

Books tell us that the FFA is a self supported organization of, by, and for boys studying vocational agriculture. However, in order to really understand what the organization is and what it means to those who are active members of it is almost impossible unless one is or has been a member himself. The organization recognizes and awards its members for outstanding achievements. It unites Agriculture students on a national basis, and helps to develop every talent evidenced by any member.

To a boy who is about to enroll in ag, the biggest question would probably be, "What will a boy study, as a freshman, in vocational agriculture?"

First, the boy will be started on a supervised project. He will have a livestock or a crop project that he will carry throughout the school year. Ag boys are encouraged to develop their judgement and to think for themselves.

Freshmen agriculture students attend classes for a double-period five days a week. Through work on a notebook and by going on field trips he will learn the course by actually doing the job.

Some of the important things taken up by freshmen are leadership, Future Farmer work, improving of livestock and plants, soil conservation, elementary farm shop, and how to make a living at "home".

With all the work which has to be "put out" by the freshman ag. student it is only natural for him to ask, "How much credit will I receive for this work?"

If the student makes a passing grade in his class room, and carries on a satisfactory, supervised project program, he will receive 1½ credits on his high school transcript. All profit in dollars and cents gained on an FFA project is the boy's, and he is encouraged to begin saving, by placing his earnings in the FFA "thrift bank". At the end of the year a boy is given the opportunity to continue his agricultural training in Ag. II, and if his project program has been a success, he is advanced from the FFA rank of Greenhand, to that of Chapter Farmer.

A boy will not receive any credit for his first year in vocational agriculture if either his scholastic or project qualifications are found to be deficient. The same federal and state laws which make ag a required subject, govern the credit given in the course.

All the above statements leave us "wide open" now for the question, "Why must a boy have a project?"

It is felt that a project is necessary because it gives the boy a chance to put into practice those

VICTORIAN FURNITURE STILL POPULAR—Furniture just like Grandma's is still mighty popular. For example, this Victorian ensemble was extremely popular with retail furniture store buyers at the recent Southwest Furniture Market in Dallas. The sofa and foot stool were mauve Venetian velvet; the tables marble topped. Each year, period furniture retains its popularity despite strong competition from contemporary designs. The pieces shown here were manufactured by the Victorian Furniture Corporation of Montgomery, Ala., and home furnishing experts say their soft lines blend beautifully with the more angular lines of modern furniture.

Dr. Birdsong Is Rotary Speaker, Discusses Polio

Poliomyelitis and the Salk vaccine were discussed Tuesday before the Rotary Club by a member, Dr. W. F. Birdsong, who traced the development of the vaccine, described its apparent efficacy, and among other things, some of the early symptoms of polio.

Salk vaccine, he said, is one of the great public health achievements of this century. To isolate the polio germ and establish a theory on the disease, many problems had to be solved, he said. To develop the vaccine, researchers had to discover and isolate polio's cause; animals for experimentation had to be made available; there had to be the ability to grow the organism; and knowledge of how to activate them had to be gained.

Because there are three types of polio virus, there can be more than one attack of the disease,

JUNIOR MAID

Pretty Pat Wren, high school senior from Coolidge, Arizona, has been selected Arizona's Junior Maid of Cotton. She is a blue-eyed brunette, five feet five inches tall. Pat was selected for the honor from a field of 19 candidates as a part of the state-wide observance of National Cotton Week.

as Gorman measles may be contracted after one has had the regular measles.

Dr. Birdsong praised the team work that finally led to the development of the vaccine. Dr. Salk has said that Dr. Enders, an earlier researcher, threw a forward pass and that he was on the receiving end. But many people on their staffs, and in other laboratories collaborated to cause the vaccine's discovery earlier than expected.

He gave credit for the vaccine's development to these two factors, and to the others who worked at it; but he said credit goes to the American people, who cooperated with and contributed to the March of Dimes to make all this research possible. "This was democracy in action", he said.

At the University of Michigan an eminent research expert announced April 12, 1955 the results of preliminary experiments in 1954, leading to the hope that at last mankind was about to conquer polio. How long will the vaccine give immunity? At present it is thought 20 months, but booster shots should extend that immunity.

Diagnosis presents difficulties, because in its early stages symptoms of polio very much resemble those of other diseases, and there is no simple method of diagnosis.
