Brother of Local Resident Wins Art Show Prize With A. H. Owen Portrait

The painting photographed above won first place in a recent art exhibition and contest held at the Torrejon Air Base of the SAC near Madrid, Spain, for M. Sgt. Lawson Thomas, twin brother of Mrs. Letha West of Muleshoe.

Owen, John Fried's father, and Blondy Van Dyke, on the back of table napkins in West's cafe while here on a visit, and subsequently painted Owen's portrait from the napkin sketch.

Thomas is a staff artist in the 18th Air Force, stationed at the SAC base at Torrejon, Spain. He has visited here several times with his sister, and brothers, Ira and J. L. Thomas. He is the son of the late Mrs. E. J. Thomas who died four years ago.

Mr. West relates that Thomas still refers to the assistance given by local folks and the Red Cross in getting him home to see his mother before she passed away.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS

Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."—(The Acts 20, 35.)

Often, when spontaneously bestowing a friendly smile upon a lonely person or a word of deed of help and encouragement to one in distress, we have been wondrously rewarded by such an inner satisfaction as a fortune in dollars could not equal. Indeed we are blessed when we give unselfishly, and in love.

Early Mailing Of Yule Cards Urged by Alcorn

Postmaster Arnold Alcorn said today, "Christmas may seem quite a way off, but nevertheless, we're starting our annual 'Mail Early for Christmas' campaign immediately, because there's every indication that the 1958 Christmas season will set an all time mailing record."

The Postmaster said further that right now is the time to plan your Christmas card and gift mailings. The first thing to do is to check your Christmas card list very carefully—make sure that each address includes full name, street and number, city, zone and state.

He went on to say that by a little advance planning a lot of headaches can be avoided when the Christmas rush is on. The Postmaster suggests that you stock up now on heavy wrapping paper, sturdy corrugated cartons, strong cord, and paper adhesive

IT WAS NOT EVER THUS . . . Pilgrims Actually Refused to Observe Thanksgiving, Easter Or Even Xmas

The Pilgrims would have been shocked to their shoe buckles on December 13, 1621, if they had known that their day of thanks was to become a yearly national holiday celebrated by millions of people in the United States and Canada.

For the Pilgrims were dead-set against "annual" holidays, and refused to celebrate even Christmas and Easter.

According to research experts, the Pilgrims referred to the religious holidays of the Church of England as "Roman corruptions." They believed in celebrating only when Providence granted them a particular blessing.

As if to prove their disdain for yearly calendar-fixed celebrations, the Pilgrims did not have a Thanksgiving celebration the next year. However, other New England colonists picked up the idea and held "thanks days", usually around the end of November.

The Pilgrim-inspired holiday is today a joyous family day celebration with big dinners and happy reunions, but the history of the holiday in the United States has been fraught with argument.

In 1789 a resolution was presented by a member of the new Congress proposing that a day be set aside to give thanks for the Constitution. The resolution was finally adopted, but there was much opposition by those who believed the Federal Government was meddling in a matter that should be the concern of the individual states. Thomas Jefferson called such Government-proclaimed holidays a "Monarchical practice" and ignored Thanksgiving during his eight years in office.

Mrs. Sarah Hale, editor of Godey's Lady's Book, worked for 30 years to promote the idea of a national Thanksgiving day. Mrs. Hale had a double-barreled attack — she printed editorials promoting the idea and also included tempting recipes for Thanksgiving delicacies.

In 1863 Lincoln proclaimed that the last Thursday in November would be Thanksgiving Day. Each year afterward, the President of the United States formally proclaimed that Thanksgiving should be celebrated on the last Thursday in November.

However, some descendants of the original New England Puritans refused to observe the holiday, claiming that Thanksgiving should be inspired by the Deity, not by politicians.

The most recent Thanksgiving controversy arose when Franklin D. Roosevelt switched the date of the holiday from the fourth to the third Thursday in November. He hoped to help business by making the shopping period longer between Christmas and Thanksgiving.

Newspapers and magazines carried editorials advising readers to ignore the President and some Governors flatly advised their states to celebrate Thanksgiving on the traditional day. Three years after the change was made, Congress officially restored Thanksgiving to the fourth Thursday.

In view of this stormy history, it might be well to have a Thanksgiving to give thanks for Thanksgiving.

The Pleasant Valley Social Club celebrated their anniversary last Monday night by having a turkey supper at Hotel Clovis and attended a movie afterward.

The most outstanding member of the year was revealed. She was Mrs. Hazel West, who was secretary of the club this year. She was presented with a gift from the club for her outstanding work and achievements.

There were about 20 members present, two honorary members, Mrs. Katie Roubinek and Mrs. Bonnie Haberer. Two guests were also present. They were Mrs. Cleo Moffett of Lubbock and Mrs. Leo Dulin of Tahoka. Mrs. Dulin helped to organize the club about ten years ago.

November.

The 1958 turkey placements were not quite so large in Texas as last year but the mortality rate has been unusually low and there will be plenty of the traditional "holiday" bird available at a right price. The bulk of the crop will be going to market in November and December, making more supplies actually available than during last year when sales were spread from the last of September through the Christmas season.

As for apples, they're making history this year. This is the second largest crop in two decades and the largest since 1949. The country's commercial apple trees are expected to yield nearly 127 million bushels.

Along with turkeys, broiler-fryer chickens will be plentiful. Generous supplies of pork are also available.

Because so many young hens make up this fall's laying flocks, medium and small size eggs are expected to be most plentiful and are probably the thrifty buys.

The fall potato crop also is large. These are the storage potatoes that keep better than the more perishable "new potatoes" and are suited to many different cooking methods.

Another vegetable appearing in quantity on markets is cabbage. Record high yields have lifted crop prospects to 12 percent above a year ago. Because of heavy yields, much cabbage grown for kraut will be sold fresh. Cabbage deserves more attention from shoppers who appreciate high vitamin C value and appetizing flavor, especially for salad use, at an inexpensive price.

The big cranberry crop this fall—the largest since 1953—will bring plenty of these holiday berries to November and December markets.

Other plentiful are canned ripe olives and walnuts — the largest production since 1949. Lots of dates and honey are expected which are excellent for holiday cookies, cakes, confections and everyday spreads.

Peanut butter will be in great plenty as will vegetable fats and salad oils.

If you're serving a crowd, you'll want to consider the large sizes of many different frozen berries. Canned berries are in good supply in both extra large and family-size containers.

A FREE PRESS . . . and CENSORSHIP

America is at peace. While we have men in uniform stationed over the world, we are not at war. In every way, we are working to preserve our peaceful relations with other peoples whose ideologies and aspirations differ from ours.

Figuring largely in that huge undertaking is America's Free Press. Even during the peaceful years, it has become necessary that certain information regarding discoveries and inventions be protected. Security has become big business.

"Keep this out of the newspaper," are fighting words to any newspaper editor who is a conscientious craftsman. Yet editors of all newspapers, large and small, realize the responsibilities facing them, to help preserve the securities that are so important to all of us.

Government, the military, and the scientific fields, receive full cooperation from the men and women who, by training, are accustomed to dig out and know the news . . . and who, by instinct, strive to keep the people fully informed.

Americans have a right to expect that full freedom of the press be preserved, within the bounds drawn by these securities.

40 Members In Credit Union

Muleshoe Credit Union has 40 members after operating for two full weeks, it was reported today. Deposits in the Union are steadily increasing and the organization recently made its first loan.

The Journal has furnished the Union a temporary home and Mrs. J. R. Otwell, Journal bookkeeper will receive deposits and issue membership cards. Connie Gupton will supervise the bookkeeping. This arrangement is for only a time, until permanent quarters and personnel can be secured.

Due to the press of work in the office of the Chamber of Commerce, directors of that body felt it would be best to move the Credit Union offices; they had taken it on for a few days as an emergency measure.

Alaskan Trip Is Topic Of Talk At Lions Meeting

Alaska is a wonderful land of untapped wealth, but is presently hampered by a socialist economy, Karl Lovelady told members of the Muleshoe Lions club Wednesday, in describing a recent trip he made to the newest state.

Lovelady described his trip as one of beautiful scenery, uncharted miles of forests and plains, bountiful fish and game, and disappointment at the economy of Alaska, based on Government subsidy and appropriation.

The Muleshoe attorney made the trip this summer to locate possible land claims, and staked about 15,000 acres, in Canada and Alaska.

Roy Lee Johnson was program chairman and introduced the speaker.

ON THE MOVE — Gerald Watson, Abernathy back is shown stepping for yardage in Friday night's game against the Mules. Coming up on the play is Lyndal Black, No. 44, Donnie Shafer No. 25 and "Peanut" Hawkins, No. 38. Frailing the play is Jack Wright, No. 42. No. 11 for Abernathy is Lane Tannehill.

Abernathy Mauls Mules, 54 to 18 To Represent District In Bi-Regional Muleshoe's hopes as district champions were completely shattered Friday night as the Abernathy Antelopes came from behind to crush the Mules, 54-18.

The Mules had their moment of glory in the first quarter as they led 10-8 at the end. Muleshoe capitalized on a couple of breaks to go out 10-0 early in the opening minutes of play. The first big break came with 1:58 gone in the opening period. Corralez banged the kickoff down to the Antelope 5-yard line, and on the first play from scrimmage, fumbled, and Lyndal Black pounced on the ball on the "Lope 9-yard line. Shanks bulldozed his way down to the five, then Oliver to the one and then on a quarterback keep plowed his way into the end zone. Corralez's kick was good for the extra point. Again Corralez kicked off down to the Antelope 5-yard line. From there they worked it out to the 40. On a pass try, Corralez intercepted for Muleshoe on the Abernathy 45-yard line. With Corralez, Splawn and Shafer carrying the mail, the Mules worked the ball down to the Antelope 15-yard line. From there Roy Corralez tried a 15-yard field goal. His aim was true as the ball split the uprights for three more points.

Then the Abernathy eleven came roaring back on the arm of their all-district quarterback, Lane Tannehill. The Antelopes marched 95 yards for their first score of the ball game, with Danny Miller crossing the goal from 2-yards out. Tannehill ran for the extra points. The Antelopes really went wild in the second quarter as they scored 32 points against none for the Mules. Muleshoe ran into big trouble early in the second quarter, as Black got his back hurt on a tackle on the Muleshoe 5-yard line. Black and Oliver both hit Tannehill one the five, and Black hit the down marker with his back, and also got stepped on. Oliver was also shaken up on the play. Lyndal was removed from the game and after several minutes was taken to the Methodist Hospital. From this point on the Mules didn't play the kind of ball that they were capable of. On the other hand, the Antelopes hit consistently for long passes and touchdowns.

The third quarter ended with the Abernathy team way out in front, 48-10. The Mules managed another score in the fourth quarter, as they moved 67 yards for their last touchdown of the game, with Corralez going over from the 10-yard line. Derrell Oliver ran for the extra point. Although they lost their last game, the Mules are co-champions of the district, along with Abernathy. The last time they came this close was in 1938 when the then Yellow Jackets won the district crown.

Abernathy Meets Dimmitt Friday In Plainview

Dimmitt and Abernathy will meet tomorrow (Friday) afternoon in Plainview at 2:30 for their bi-district game.

Dimmitt won District 1-AA championship last week by beating the Canyon Eagles, 14-6. They were helped along by the fact that Friona whipped the Dalhart Wolves, to knock them from a possible tie for district honors.

Abernathy ran rough-shod over Muleshoe, 54-18, to wrap up their chance to represent District 2-AA. During regular season play, Abernathy and Dimmitt met, with Abernathy coming out on the long end of a 12-6 contest.

Muleshoe Cagers Suit Out This Week For Practice Games; Play Happy Tuesday

The District 2-AA co-champion Muleshoe football squad checked in their gridiron paraphernalia Monday of this week and checked out basketball equipment for the cage season just beginning. Coach Bill Taylor is in charge of basketball activity at MHS.

Betty Hallford Makes Wayland Freshman Team

PLAINVIEW, (Spl.) — Betty Hallford, freshman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hallford, Bula, is a team member of the Queen Bees, first freshman girls' basketball team at Wayland Baptist College.

Before this year, only freshmen who made the famed Wayland Hutcherson Flying Queens, four times National AAU Champions, were allowed to participate in scheduled games.

Miss Hallford is taking part in a program initiated this year to take care of the large number of freshmen who want to play basketball. Up until this year, an adequate program has not been provided because no coach has been available.

The team is composed of 12 members, representing two states, four from Oklahoma, and eight from Texas. On the team's schedule are several outstanding high school and junior college girls' teams, and numerous scrimmages with the varsity Flying Queens.

Other team members are: Ruby Simpson, Glidden; Zenobia Self, Silvertown; Mary Searles, Arkoma, Okla.; Katherine Sanders, Wellington; Cynthia Shelton, Avoca; Jereldine Cross, Colony, Okla.; Billie Graham, Fort Worth; Edna Halford, Brinkman, Okla.; Kay Hankins, Rocksprings; Charlene Kagler, Pleasanton; and Reda Rhodes, Elk City, Okla. Tips On Care Of That Thanksgiving Turkey Are Given

Refrigerators will soon be bulging with extra supplies of turkey and all the trimmings for Thanksgiving dinner. Extension foods and nutrition specialists pass along a reminder that sanitary handling and proper storage are of utmost importance to the safety, appetite appeal and flavor of meat.

Uncooked turkey should be wrapped loosely in aluminum foil or waxed paper and stored in the refrigerator at 36 to 38 degrees F. Whole birds may be kept this way for three days; cut up turkey for two days. Whole cooked birds without stuffing, such as barbecued turkeys, should be refrigerated at 36 to 38 degrees F. Wrapped loosely in foil or waxed paper, they may be kept up to three days.

Proper care of left-over stuffed roast turkey is especially important. Specialists suggest removing all stuffing from the bird. Wrap meat and stuffing separately in waxed paper and store at 36 to 38 degrees F. Use gravy and stuffing within one or two days and heat thoroughly before serving.

Questions are often asked on freezing uncooked stuffed birds. This is definitely not recommended by specialists.

It is best to thaw a frozen bird before roasting it, specialists say. To do so, loosen the wrapping, but leave it on, and place turkey in the refrigerator to thaw. This may take two days or more, depending on size of the turkey.

Recognition of man's true nature as God's spiritual image and likeness is a central theme of the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul and Body" which will be heard in Christian Science services Sunday.

From the King James Version of the Bible will be read the following (II Corinthians 5:1): "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

Also bringing out man's spiritual nature is this passage to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"Rightly understood, instead of possessing a sentiment material form, man has a sensationless body; and God, the Soul of man and of all existence, being perpetual in His own individuality, harmony, and immortality, imparts and perpetuates these qualities in man,—through Mind, not matter" (280-25-30).

Best Cotton Crop In Years Revealed By Third High Plains Quality Report

The third Texas High Plains Cotton Quality Report for the 1958 cotton crop continues to show this year's crop is one of the best quality cotton crops as well as one of the best yielding crops in many years. George W. Pfeifferberger, executive vice-president of the Plains Cotton Growers, said on release of the Quality Report this week.

Ginnings on the High Plains passed the million-bale mark November 11, and the cooperative Quality Report of the PCG and the U. S. D. A. classing office shows that more than 87% of the cotton harvested thus far is white cotton. This Quality Report covers only about three-quarters of a million bales of cotton harvested as the statistics run about a week behind actual ginnings. Pfeifferberger explained.

White cotton accounted for 85.2% of the crop with 42.9% being middling white and above. Light spotted cotton totaled only 14.4% with 11.6% being middling light spot and above. Full spotted cotton was only 0.2%.

The average staple length was 31.6 thirty-seconds, with 51.9% being one inch and longer. Only 2.9% fell below 15/16 inch. Micronaire average was 4.3 with 95.7% above the tenderable micronaire limit of 3.5. The majority of the crop, or 71.2% fell between 4.0 and 5.0. Pressley fiber strength averaged 76,000 pounds per square inch, with 51% between 75,000 and 90,000 pounds.

The Cotton Quality Report with correlations between grade, staple, micronaire and Pressley is being mailed every two weeks to textile mill officials and cotton buyers throughout the nation. It is published to give buyers and mill officials up to date information on the kinds and type of cotton produced in the Texas High Plains area.

Parmer County Farmers Union

The democratic landslide in the last election presents itself as a baffling problem to President Eisenhower. He is in a quandary and is unable to figure it out. In a recent press conference, he first referred to the fact that the majority by which he won in 1956, then he said, "Now, here only two years later there is a complete reversal; yet I do not see where there is anything that these people want the administration to do differently, now if there is anything else they want me to do I don't know exactly what it is."

When asked if because of the election results there might be changes in the farm policy he said, "No, I think we will struggle right square along on the lines we have laid out today." His good buddy Benson echoed the same sentiment when he said he intended to continue with redoubled effort along the same lines for a strong and sound agricultural program for the American people. I certainly can see no connection between the election results and any dissatisfaction with the Farm Program.

It would seem that Mr. Benson is a little short on information. All but two of the thirteen states in which the Republicans lost farming is the important industry. It is also interesting to note that 28 of the 47 losers supported the Farmers Union less than 1/3 of the time, 19 less than 1/4.

If you want to increase your chance of getting a bank loan just learn to play golf. This advice was given by a speaker before the American Management Ass'n. "Practically all bankers play golf, and the higher up in the bank they are, the more they play. I won't say that you can negotiate a loan at the 19th hole, but by the time you reach that point, you certainly know the man you're dealing with a lot better." Yeah!, that works two ways.

Conservation of soil and water is receiving major attention in the research program at the High Plains station of the Texas Research Foundation. A new phase of this program was initiated last week with bench leveling of the sloping land around the lake getting underway.

The project is designed to compare the efficiency of water usage on irrigated slopes (1 to 3%) in contoured rows, level benches, and rows running down the slope. Measurement will be made of applied water (both rainfall and irrigated) and water lost by runoff. Cost of production, yield, soil erosion loss, and the effective use of water will be factors considered in this experiment.

The advisory council of the High Plains station considers the use and conservation of water as the "number one" problem of the irrigated High Plains. Harold Hinn, chairman, stated this week. A soil and water engineer will be added to the staff at the station after January 1, 1959, to implement the water study program recently adopted for the station.

Eligible Voters For Cotton Voting In December Are Defined By ASC Committee

Farmers "eligible to vote" in the upcoming referendum on 1959 crop cotton marketing quotas has been defined by Searcy M. Ferguson, Chairman, Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

"The general rule is that anyone who engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1958 is eligible to vote in the December 15 referendum," the Chairman explained. "This, of course, would include all persons — whether owner, operator, tenant, or share-cropper—who had an interest in the 1958 upland cotton crop."

"However, under provisions of law now in effect, the term's 'eligible voters' also includes some other persons whose right to vote on cotton quotas may not be so well understood," Ferguson declared.

For instance, any grower who had a 1958 cotton allotment for his farm but who produced no cotton this year is also eligible to cast a ballot on 1959 crop quotas.

"Likewise, a farmer who placed his 1958 cotton allotment in the Soil Bank is eligible to vote in the December 15 referendum."

"These are the principal classes of persons who are defined as 'eligible,'" the chairman stated, "but persons may also qualify to vote as a guardian, administrator, executor, or trustee for another person. In such a case the person for whom he is acting may not also vote."

"Each individual's right to vote depends upon his or her own qualifications," Chairman Ferguson concluded, "and this applies to husbands and wives, as well as minors who were engaged in the production of cotton in 1958."

Where any person has a question about his eligibility to vote in the December 15 referendum on 1959 cotton marketing quotas he is urged to get in touch with his local county ASC office where he may obtain all the necessary facts.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

As the harvest progresses and more and more farmers are finishing a hard year's work, it is time to think about keeping our land productive.

One of the many ways to keep land producing is to prevent soil loss due to water erosion. One of the most effective ways is by using terraces. Terraces hold water on the land, allowing it more time to soak into the soil. Terraces also prevent good topsoil from washing to the bottom of the slope.

This spring, heavy rains fell around Steril, resulting in many large gullies and the beginning of many small ones. Continued concentration of water in these small gullies may result in uncorrectable ones.

There are many types of terraces and variations, but large, level closed end retention type and smaller level closed end field terraces are best adapted to Bailey county.

Division of retention types are usually placed at the top of the slope to intercept and hold outside water. E. W. Ray of Bula will build a retention type. Because of large amounts of outside water, two diversions will be built on the Clifford Hamilton farm northwest of Goodland.

Ray Carter is building standard terraces on his farm southeast of Baileyboro. The Halls are planning to terrace land they farm west of Enochs.

The Federal government pays as much as 2.1 cents per foot cost-share for terraces. This is about 70 percent of the total cost.

REMEMBER WHEN?

It was a scandal which rocked the sports world, and threw a blanket of suspicion over America's national game of baseball. This was the year when the Chicago White Sox played in a World Series ... and lost. They weren't supposed to lose, because some of the game's greatest players were on that team ... like the famed "Shoelless Joe" Jackson in the outfield.

When the scandal broke, the name "Black Sox" came to be applied to that Chicago team. For the Sox were accused of throwing the Series, and even though they were legally acquitted for lack of evidence, the taint of suspicion hung over them.

It was this famous World Series which caused baseball moguls to hire a Federal Judge, Kenesaw Mountain Landis, as a "czar" to watch over the national game and keep it clean. Do you remember when that World Series was played?

Remember the year?

With skulduggery on the diamond in fashion that year, people wore a suspicious look. A man buying a car was dubious about big promises ... and he looked over a deal with a lot of caution.

The year was 1918.

It makes good sense not to buy a "big promise" without looking it over carefully. We can promise to make you a better deal on a new CHEVROLET ... and we'll be glad to give you all the facts, to show you why we can keep our promise! If you're dubious, come in and see for yourself!

Farm-City Week Recognizes Agriculture's Advance in Modern Living

When Farm-City Week is observed in Texas during November 21-27, cooperation in progress might well be the keynote for recognition.

For, just as the state's population has shifted from rural to urban, so has agriculture "gone to town. For every advance in city living, there has been an advance in agriculture and agricultural products essential to the modern citizen."

Development of new products and new uses for standard and essential farm commodities constantly serve to make life more comfortable.

An example of such developments was begun when scientists improved concentrated citrus juices during World War II, laying groundwork for the frozen concentrated production of the frozen concentrated juices now accepted as standard food items.

More recently, processes for converting fruit and vegetable juices into stable, well-flavored and handy-to-use powders have been developed—another step toward "instantizing" and placing more convenience in the kitchen.

Agriculture has also kept pace with the consumer's changing needs by developing the type of product desired. The full-breasted broiler, the smaller turkey and the leaner-type pork found in today's markets are all products of careful breeding and cultivation to meet the consumer's desires.

For consumer protection, other farm products have been safeguarded by grading services to insure quality and wholesomeness. On such food items as meat, poultry and eggs, dairy products and fruits and vegetables of a specified quality, consumers know they can trust their food supply.

The farm and the city have always been dependent one on the other for comfortable existence. The farm has been the source of supply for essential food and fiber products, and the city consumer has been the farmer's "demand", the ultimate market for his goods.

But never before has the farm supplied more needs for more city people than now. And never has the city been a readier, more deserving market place for farm goods than now. Farm-City Week is a time for us to recognize this partnership in progress.

Four big reasons why FORD IS OUTSELLING ALL OTHER '59 CARS

AT THE BRUSSELS WORLD'S FAIR, the '59 Fords were awarded the Gold Medal for handsome new styling elegance by the Comité Français de l'Elegance.

The world's best-selling car is the car with Thunderbird elegance

In the greatest styling decision of the year, the American public has already shown a clear preference for the new Fords. Ford sales are way ahead of all competition. Why? One reason is the classic simplicity of their Thunderbird-inspired design—clean, crisp lines that are pure automobile! And Fords are built for people—to sit in, to drive, to ride in—with comfort.

ANYONE CAN FIT IN A FORD: Our cars are built for people—full-size people who want space to stretch out. And all passengers ride in deep-cushion comfort.

The car in hottest demand across the land has greater roominess and comfort

Thousands of customers have bought the new Ford over all competition for another compelling reason—it's a true six-passenger car. (The only four-passenger car we recommend is the Thunderbird!) All six Ford passengers get plenty of every kind of room—from leg and head to elbow and hip. Rear seat passengers don't feel like they're riding with their feet in a bucket!

YOU'LL BE THANKFUL EVERY TANKFUL if you buy the new Ford, for you'll save up to a dollar a tankful with new engines that run superbly on regular gas.

The No. 1 car in sales saves money on gas, on oil, on maintenance bills

A new Ford will save you up to 5¢ a gallon on gas. That's because both standard engines—Six or Thunderbird V-8—thrive on regular gas. And Ford saves on oil, too, with a Full-Flow Oil Filter as standard equipment. Drive 4000 miles between oil changes! And you can forget about waxing your car. Ford's Diamond Lustre Finish stays gleaming bright without waxing—even

THE FAMOUS FORD LOW PRICES have already made a hit, because only in Fords will you find value and beauty coming together at down-to-earth prices!

The most popular American car is priced as much as $102.75 lower

Ford costs you less right down the line than the competition. Compare price tags and you'll see that the manufacturer's suggested retail price of a Ford, equipped with radio, heater and automatic transmission, is as much as $102.75 less than the major competition! And on an air-conditioned car, you can save up to $219.85. So compare and save on a 1959 Ford!
