Bulldogs Open Home Play With Denver City Tonight

Tahoka Defeats Sundown 32 to 6

Tahoka Bulldogs won their opening football game 32 to 6 over the Sundown Roughnecks in that city Friday night of last week. A large crowd of Tahoka people, the band, and pep squad followed the team to the game.

Tahoka scored once in the first quarter and twice each in the second and fourth, while Sundown's lone tally came early in the fourth period.

The Bulldogs received the opening kickoff, made a first down and kicked. Near the end of the quarter, Tahoka got a drive underway and on three successive first downs including a 24-yard pass, Foster to Brookshire which carried to the six. Two plays later, Brookshire went off left tackle three yards to score, and James Foster kicked the extra point.

Early in the second quarter, the second score was set up by a 37-yard pass play, Foster to Hyles, which carried to within three yards of the goal, and Hales (Cont'd. On Back Page)

Tahoka Bulldogs open their 1951 home football schedule tonight at 8:00 p. m. at Kelley Field against the Denver City Mustangs.

Denver City lost its opener last week end to Seminole 13 to 0, but those who are supposed to know declare that the Mustangs are more powerful this year than they have been in many seasons, and Tahoka is probably the underdog tonight.

The Mustangs have some speedy, deceptive and rough backs in Halfbacks Daymond Brock, 130; Kerry Trenary, 140 and Charles Ward, 150; Quarterback Dick Moore, 160; and Fullback Charles Lenamond, 170. Powerhouses in the line include Tackles Jerry Sturman, 198, and Lewis Singleton, 190; Guard Clarence Reed, 160; and End Pat Casey, 170.

The visitors run from a T-wing formation, and are coached by Wilson Head and Buford Emler. Coach Bill Haralson's squad is expected to operate a little smoother than it did in winning over Sundown 32 to 6 last Friday night.

However, Tahoka's prospects of winning are dimmed by the fact that four boys are suffering injuries. Back James Foster has a bruised back, and Speed-Merchant Charles Hyles has an injured ankle that will probably keep him out of the game entirely. End Bill Short, who did not see action last week due to an injured hip, may not get in the game this week. Center Wayne Tekell has a knee injury, and Tackle Earl Bartley has an injured side. Letterman Clayton Carter has dropped football on advice of his doctor.

The Bulldogs promise a good game, however, and Glenn Burleson's snappy 65-piece Tahoka High Band will put on a half-time show, along with the Denver City Mustang band.

For the first time in many years, Tahoka has a uniformed pep squad, sponsored by Mrs. Jeannine Jones, leaders of which are: Frances Henderson, Senior; Frances Flint, Junior; Joy Tomlinson, Sophomore; Rose Marie Yandell, Freshman; and Ted Pridmore, Eighth Grade.

Mrs. Anna Eaker Died Monday

Mrs. Annie Rebecca Eaker, 74, a resident of O'Donnell since 1933, died at her home there Monday morning at about 5:00 o'clock.

Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church in O'Donnell at 4:00 p. m. Tuesday, and burial followed in O'Donnell Cemetery under direction of Stanley-Jones Funeral Home.

Mrs. Eaker was born January 21, 1877, at Mason. She and her late husband and family moved to O'Donnell from Nocona.

Survivors include six sons, Joe, Arch, and John of O'Donnell, Mike of St. Jo, Melvin of La Pryor, and Hollie of Seagraves; six daughters, Mrs. Myrtle Kelley of Uvalde, Mrs. Willie Dillard and Mrs. Hallie Davis of Nocona, Mrs. Gertrude Rains of O'Donnell, Mrs. Linnie Davis of Houston, and Mrs. Erma Sherrill of Fort Worth; 43 grandchildren, and 22 great-grandchildren.

Tractor Agency Holds Opening

Approximately 150 people attended the formal opening of the new Bryant & Cragill Tractor company here last Saturday.

Lunch was served by the firm at noon, and a field demonstration along with several different implements. Most interest was shown in the two-disc breaking plow when a depth of 12 to 15 inches was reached.

J. B. Smith is local manager of the firm, located on the Post highway just west of High gin.

"SOURDOUGH SAM," the Tahoka Bulldog's mascot, is pictured above. He appears on the sidelines at all football games. He was acquired by the athletes last year.

4-H Gilt Show In City Today

Eight Lynn county 4-H Club boys will compete in the annual Sears gilt pig show being held today, Friday, at 2:00 p. m. at the Lynn County Fair barns.

Eight-week old gilts were presented the boys on last May 19. The winners here will take his gilt to Lubbock for the 13 county district show on Saturday. Top five boys in the local show will divide $30 in premiums.

Walter Lee Stice, who received the boar pig last May, will also show his animal in the district show.

Local boys showing gilts here today are: Dan Lamb, Rt. 1, Wilson; Don and Jack Spears, Rt. 4, Tahoka; Bobby Sumrow, Rt. 1, O'Donnell; Hulan Murray, Rt. 1, Tahoka; Freddy James, Rt. 3, Tahoka; Johnny Billingsley, Rt. 1, O'Donnell; and Bobby Stalcup, Rt. 2, Tahoka.

Rotary-Teacher Banquet Sept. 20

Tahoka Rotary Club and their Rotary-Ann will entertain the local school faculty and their wives or husbands at an annual Rotary-Teacher banquet next Thursday night, Sept. 20, at 8:00 p. m. in the school cafeteria.

Raymond Elliott, a professor of music at Texas Tech, will be the principal speaker. His number combines a talk, the singing of folk songs, and a lot of humor. Mr. Elliott is definitely not the "long hair" type musician, and his talk has been a hit everywhere he has presented it.

Last Thursday noon, Clay Bedner, Safety Officer of the State Highway Patrol, spoke to the Rotarians on the new "drivers responsibility," car registration, and safety laws.

Stanley Sigman was in charge of the program.

Enrollment Picks Up At Schools

Enrollment in Tahoka schools has increased 31 since Wednesday of last week, bringing the total number of students to 873.

Nine new students were enrolled in High School, 20 in Grade School, and two in Dunbar school.

The figure still is below the expected enrollment. It is believed a number of students are still out working with the crops, and a number of Colored students are down state picking cotton.

Enrollment at end of the first week last year was 936.

BIBLES FOR TAHOKA

O. D. Peden of Gideon International was here Wednesday for the purpose of placing 15 New Testaments and a Bible in Tahoka Hospital for use of patients and visitors.

The books were contributed by the Lubbock Gideon chapter, which has held meetings in local churches to raise funds for the same.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Fortenberry of Kerrville came up Tuesday to see about their property at New Home.

Football Ticket Policy Changed

Supt. Otis Spears announces that several changes are being made this year on ticket sales to local football games.

A ticket booth has been installed at the north entrance to the field. Tickets may be bought down town or at this booth. All pedestrians will enter a gate at the northwest corner of the field. All cars will enter the larger gate further east. Each spectator must have a ticket.

Ticket prices are $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for school children, tax included, the prices being set by the district committee.

This year, a charge of 50 cents will be made for each car entering the stadium proper, but outside parking space will continue on a free basis.

The ticket booth will open at 6:45 p. m., and everyone wishing to take a car into the stadium will have an equal chance of doing so.

The south gate will be open at game's end only. The east gate will be for entrance and exit of players and band members only.

Also, according to a 6-AA district ruling this year, gate receipts at all conference games will be split between the two participating teams, after deducting taxes and expenses.

Band Boosters Planning Meet

First meeting of the new school year of the Band Boosters Club will be held next Tuesday night, Sept. 18, at 8:00 p. m. in the High School auditorium.

All members and all parents having children in the school band are urged to attend.

Father of Local People Is Dead

J. B. Hillhouse, 53, of Odessa died early Friday in a Galveston hospital. Funeral services were held at the Baptist Church in Dublin Sunday at 2 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hillhouse and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Chapman of Tahoka attended the services, the deceased being the father of Mr. Otis Hillhouse and Mrs. Chapman.

Other survivors include his wife, two other sons, Marvin of Odessa and Cecil of El Paso; and another daughter, Mrs. Claude Brown, who lives in Paris, France; and five grandchildren.

First Bale Is Sold At Auction

The first bale of 1951 Lynn county cotton ginned in Tahoka brought $1.06 per pound when sold at auction here Saturday afternoon by Judge G. C. Grider.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Martin, who operate a farm belonging to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Martin, of the Hackberry community, brought in the cotton Monday, Sept. 3, and it was ginned by Tahoka Co-op gin early Tuesday. Martin picked 2200 pounds of seed cotton from eight irrigated acres, and it ginned out 560 pounds of lint and 860 pounds of seed cotton.

The first bale netted the Martins about $640.00.

Russell McGee bought the bale for Tahoka Chamber of Commerce at the $1.06 per pound figure, or $593.60; the seed brought $27.95; ginning, bagging and ties donated by the gin ran to about $15.00; and Ayer Way Cleaners gave $5.00 in cleaning. Other bidders included W. B. Slaton, H. G. Hodges, and Charles Verner.

The Chamber of Commerce made up the "pot" from Tahoka merchants, and H. W. "Cotton" Carter paid them a five cent premium to take over the bale. The first bale in Tahoka last year brought $1.25 a pound.

O'Donnell Lady Buried Saturday

Mrs. Florence Hulda Taylor of O'Donnell, 82, died at 12:55 p. m. last Friday in the Tahoka Hospital, soon after having been brought to the Hospital as a patient. She had suffered a stroke at her home in O'Donnell only two hours approximately before her death.

Funeral services were conducted at 4:00 p. m. Saturday in the First Baptist Church of O'Donnell with Rev. R. T. Peek officiating. Burial followed in the O'Donnell Cemetery.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Annie Foster of O'Donnell and Mrs. Minnie Newton of Lubbock; two sons, Lee Taylor of Lubbock and Ben Brown of Ancho, N. M.; two sisters, Mrs. Martha Brewer and Mrs. Mary Brewer, both of O'Donnell; seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren, and quite a number of other relatives.

Mrs. Taylor was born on October 10, 1869 near Fredericton in St. Francis county, Mo., but she moved to Lynn county from Montague county, Texas, in 1928, and had been a resident of O'Donnell in this county for 23 years. She was a member of the Baptist Church and had a large circle of friends, who esteemed her most highly and who will miss her greatly.

Smith Speaker At Utah Meet

Wilmer Smith returned home Sunday from Logan, Utah, where he appeared on the program of the National Institute of Cooperation. He was accompanied by Mrs. Smith and her mother, Mrs. R. M. Wheeler of Lubbock.

Mr. Smith says there were about 1,000 delegates present at the meeting representing 43 states and eight or nine foreign countries.

They also visited in California, and other scenic states. While in San Francisco, they chanced to stop at a service station just across the street from the opera house where the opening session of the Japanese peace treaty conference was being held. The station attendant pointed out to them the Russian delegation's automobiles, two Cadillacs. Other delegates were driving Fords, Chevrolets, and other small cars, he said.

Norman Opens Local Elevator

A. N. Norman, Jr., announces this week that he and Grady Goodpasture of Brownfield have bought the Farmers Co-op elevator here. Mr. Norman will manage the business.

New scales have been installed, an office built, and other improvements made at the elevator. The new firm will be known as Tahoka Grain Co.

Methodist Men Attend Program

About forty attended the monthly meeting of Methodist Men held in Fellowship Hall of the church Monday night. New men faculty members of the local schools were guests, and were introduced by Supt. Otis Spears.

Coach Bill Haralson spoke briefly on the school's football prospects, and praised the type of youth he had found on the local squad.

Dr. Skiles Thomas showed two sound movies, one a comedy and one a basketball feature.

The program was arranged by Charles Reid and Eldon Gattis, and the dinner was served by Charles Stewart and Jess Gurley. President C. O. Carnack announced that next month's program will be arranged by Roy Edwards and Jep Whorton, and the food will be served by Perry Walker and John Price.

Tom Cloe Is New Texas Consignee

Tom Cloe announces this week that he has bought out E. J. Van Meter, consignee for The Texas Company in Tahoka, and took over his wholesale oil and gas business Thursday of last week. His office is at Tahoka Co-op Gin.

Fire Is Fatal To Local Citizen, Services Today

Grady S. Burkhart, 51, died at 4:15 a. m. Thursday in Tahoka Hospital from burns sustained at about 3:00 a. m. Monday when he was trapped in his burning home at 1828 South First street.

He was rescued from the burning house after having been overcome by smoke and hot air by Ira Vaughan, who was spending the night with him, and "Pug" Parker, a neighbor, who had rushed to the house when he detected the fire.

Funeral services will be held today, Friday, at 4:00 p. m. at the Methodist Church with Rev. C. A. Holcomb of Quanah, former pastor here, assisted by Rev. Lee Ramsour, local Baptist pastor. Burial will follow in Grassland Cemetery under direction of Stanley-Jones Funeral Home.

Grady Jones Burkhart was born in Cleburne, Johnson county, Nov. 14, 1899. He came with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Burkhart, to Lynn county in December, 1917. He was married to Juanita Mathis in 1926. They have lived and farmed most of the time since in the Edith and Grassland communities, and moved to Tahoka two or three years ago.

Ira Vaughan, who lives six miles east and a mile north of town, was spending the night with Mr. Burkhart the night of the fire. Mrs. Burkhart and children had gone to the Vaughan home.

Mr. Vaughan told The News that he and Grady went to bed in the northwest bedroom of the house, which faces south. About 3:00 a. m., he was awakened by some noise of the flames, and discovered that the house was on fire.

He awakened Mr. Burkhart, and he said his first thought was to find the fire and try to extinguish it but quickly found that this would be impossible. A moment after he had arisen, he believes a front window broke causing smoke and flames to sweep through the house and into the bedroom.

Nearly overcome with smoke, Mr. Vaughan made his way to the adjoining kitchen and out the back door. Burkhart, he believes, at about the same time attempted to go through the adjoining bathroom to the front bedroom for his trousers, in which he had his billfold and possibly consid-

New Press Box At Kelly Field

Tahoka now has a modern press box at Kelley Field, where Bulldog football games are played, erected this week by Tahoka Jaycees.

The new box, more than twice the size of the old box, is more substantial, has glassed-in front and sides, has two floor-levels, and will seat 15 to 20 people.

In the past, room in the box was extremely crowded, especially when movie photographs were taken or when games were recorded for radio broadcasting.

President J. E. Brown of the Jaycees states that nothing has been spared in building the box to take care of announcers, sporters, newspaper reporters, movie photographers, and radio broadcasters. The box is designed to turn the weather and give improved vision for working "experts."

The old press box will be converted into a ticket booth. The Jaycees and the Lions Club have each previously made improvements at the field.

Odds AND Ends

(By E. I. The Elder)

Last week we told you of the start we made to explore the Big Bend National Park and of being turned back at the entry on account of uncertain weather conditions. The entry into the Park is away down in the Big Bend area some 35 miles south of Marathon, and so we saw a lot of marvelous mountain scenery even on that abbreviated trip, a bout which we have already told you.

The next morning, the weather appearing to be favorable, we started out again, with the purpose of making the entire trip and return in one day, and that we did. And we considered that day's sight-seeing the climax of our week's travels. The two points of major importance which we visited were the Chisos Mountains and the Santa Elena Canyon.

Let nobody get the idea, however, that these are the only wonder spots in that area. There are a number of mountain ranges or mountain groups scattered around rather thickly over the entire Big Bend area, outside the Park itself as well as inside of it, that would justify the dubbing of this land as the Texas Wonderland. Neither is Santa Elena the only canyon in that area that causes visitors to stare at them pop-eyed. There are two other canyons a little further down and further around in the Big Bend of the Rio Grande that are about as deep and almost as spectacular as Santa Elena—so they say; we did not get to visit either of them. They are the Mariscal and the Boquillas canyons, and there are two or three others still further on that would be breathtaking in any other Texas stream than the Rio Grande.

And the Mountains? Well, we mentioned the Santiago and the Rosillos and the Sierra del Carmen; but there are also the Horse Mountains, the Del Norte Mountains, the Chinati Mts., the Cienga Mts., the Cabaloo Muerta Mts., the Christmas Mts., and others, not to mention towering individual peaks like the Goat Mt., Cathedral Mt., Elephant Mt., Agua Fria Mt., and others. There are at least 25 peaks in Brewster county and six in Presidio county all situated in the Big Bend country that rise to an elevation of more than one mile. If we add to these the 13 such mountains in Jeff Davis county, we have 44 peaks in this general mountain area that rise to a height of more than one mile, 28 of them to a height of more than 6,000 feet, twenty of the 28 being in Brewster and Presidio counties—the Big Bend country proper. Most of these rise to a height of more than one mile above the bed of the Rio Grande.

These facts will probably be sufficient to show that these mountains of the Big Bend country are no mere little foothills of the Rockies.

Of all the mountains in the Big Bend country, the Chisos undoubtedly are the most extensive single group and the most spectacular. Let us tell you about our trip into them—and into is the proper word to use.

When we first came in sight of the Chisos, possibly some 12 or 15 miles away, I did not identify them as the Chisos. Apparently, they were just another group of mountains, of which we had seen many. But as we drew closer they assumed much larger proportions, and I became "all eyes" when one of the daughters in the front seat remarked that those are the Chisos. When we had arrived at the foot of the lower slopes they displayed a grandeur that had not been surpassed either by the Guadalupe Peak and El Capitan or by old Mount Livermore and his companion, quaint and singular old Sawtooth.

Most conspicuous and majestic of the group as we approached the narrow passage that permitted our highway to enter into the interior were old Casa Grande (Grand Palace) and another which I think is Lost Mine Mountain but which I wanted to call Cathedral Mount, for it reminded me of just that. Of course, we had to stop and take some pictures. Then we entered, and such grandeur and magnificence I never expect to see again except there and in the Carlsbad Caverns and some time in the Glory Land.

Our road curved around and then back and so forth and so on until presently we found ourselves going down a steep incline, in fact seemingly negotiating a dangerous nose-dive, and then—horror of horrors!—the sharpest hair-pin turn you ever heard of. To one on the back seat it looked like certain destruction. But we trusted the driver and held on tight to the seat. And Presto! There we were, clear down to the bottom, and right out there before us, on slightly higher ground, were the highway headquarters, the forest ranger headquarters, cabins, etc.

After getting some minor information and instructions, we turn and go back up the hairpin curve, join the main road and go into another compartment, as it were. There is a little village; the post office, a store, a service station, and other necessary houses; and mountains with almost perpendicular walls all around it. Right over there on the north side—or so it seemed to me—who can be sure of his directions in such a situation?—but right over there was a steep, sharp-pointed mountain, its apex away up yonder several hundred feet above this sort of public square which everybody calls the Basin, and somebody had blazed out a sort of trail up the side of the steep walls, with protruding rocks for stepping stones and with handy roots and herbs as hand-holds for any would-be climber; and presently we espied two kids high up on the mountain side slowly but carefully making their way upward. Everybody, which included a good many tourists like ourselves and most of the people, I think, who lived or did business in the Basin were watching them. To the surprise of most of us and to the admiration of all of us those two kids ere long reached the top, and the little girl in particular waved repeated salutes to the folks down in the Basin. Then they descended, and we found that the little hero was a ten-year-old boy, and the little heroine was a girl who was reputed to be only 5. Everybody considered that a remarkable feat.

Well, that was the end of our road. There might have been an unimproved road out of the Basin somewhere other than the paved highway by which we entered, but we were not blazing trails nor hunting unimproved roads in them thar hills, so if we traveled any more we would have to take the back-track. For awhile we just stayed around there lifting our eyes to the heights admiring those great granite walls. Perpendicular for hundreds of feet in many places, apparently veneered and strengthened by great ponderous slabs of granite, placed upright and made secure by some infinitely powerful hand, rising yes thousands of feet above the floor of the Basin, which is itself 5,400 feet above sea-level.

Old Casa Grande yonder to the east rises to a height of 7,300 feet above sea-level, which is 1,900 feet above the floor of the Basin at its feet; Lost Mine Mountain right back there where we entered this impregnable fortress rises to a height of 7,550 feet, or 2,150 feet above the floor of the Basin; while old Mount Emory, yonder to the southwest, rises to a height of 7,835 feet, or 2,435 feet above the Basin floor. These imitation palisades rise like jagged turrets above the tops of the mountains which they adorn, as if the Almighty were intent on adding even greater strength to the fortifications which he had built. No man can describe such magnificence and majesty. He can only stand in awe. And even as he stands he can not but feel his own weakness and insignificance. I think that the Psalmist must have had something of that kind of feeling when he wrote the first verse of the 121st Psalm: "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills; from whence cometh my strength."

And then he must have felt how grossly he had failed to do justice to the occasion, for in the 125th Psalm he takes his pen in hand and undertakes again to express his utmost confidence in the goodness and the protecting care of the Almighty God, giving us this sublime passage: "As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is round about his people from henceforth even forever."

And yet the mountains round about Jerusalem, I think, are pygmies as compared with the Chisos.

Surely we can trust a God whose power, and wisdom, and mercy, and love have thrown around us the strength and the protection and the security afforded and typified by the mountains. Contact with these mighty works of an Infinite God, should make all of us strong spiritually.

Once again outside this amazing natural fortress, we took the first left-hand road and headed for Santa Elena. All the way, to the left of us and to the right of us, at varying distances, were majestic mountains. We could not get out of sight of them, nor did we want to. Lots of desert-like country along the road, but who wants to look at the desert when he can lift his eyes to the hills? I never knew before that sunlight and shadows, resting on the towering mountain sides and the intervening valleys, could create such wonderful pictures as we beheld that day, particularly in the mid-afternoon and later, when we had come back past the Chisos and were heading eastward and northeastward toward Marathon. There were just enough clouds in the sky to fleck the whole face of the earth with dark shadow spots, here, there and everywhere about us, in sharp contrast with the white sun-lit sands. It was strikingly beautiful!

But I started to tell you about our trip down to the Canyon. We could see the canyon walls and the banks of the Rio Grande on the Mexican side long before we reached them. I surely do want to make the trip again some time, for in some unexplainable way I got my directions criss-crossed with the world after leaving the Chisos Mountains and went in the wrong direction—to me—nearly all the way down to the Canyon. I was thankful that I began to get things straightened out shortly before we reached the Rio Grande. It was rather late lunch time when we got there. Some large heavy tables under some trees, with a well and a pump near-by, gave us the hint that this was the place to stop and feed our faces. Another couple—a couple from Dallas,—also stopped there.

With a well and a pump in it, plenty of water was available, but except for a furnace in which food could be cooked and plenty of sticks and trash handy, there were no other accommodations. No camp houses, no cabins, no store, no filling station, nothing but a dense growth of mesquite trees and other thorny shrubs together with a few scattered trees of the larger varieties.

A little pirooting around on my part convinced me that it was still a lot further down to those lofty banks of the river than we had anticipated, and so, after lunch we drove down closer to the river to park the car, and we negotiated the remaining distance on foot, clean down into the river bed, directly facing the narrow mouth of the big canyon.

There it was, a mighty gulch, just like the pictures of it doubtless that you have often seen, but familiarity with its appearance through pictures detracted nothing, I think, from its grandeur and its power to amaze and intrigue. It made one wish he could go around to its beginning and come down through it in a boat. But we could scarcely enter into the mouth of the thing. I didn't. Some of the members of our party shed their shoes, waded through the mud and slush of Terlingua Creek just at the con-junction of the two streams, and managed to get a little way inside the canyon walls a few feet upstream and near the north wall. The water was evidently considerably deeper a little further out from the walls, and we were not prepared to test its depth. The waters from the Canyon empty apparently out into Terlingua Creek, which comes down from the north and does not appreciably change its course while the Rio Grande stream, coming from the west, turns sharply to the south upon emerging from the Canyon's mouth.

The river was flush and a little muddy from recent rains above and was flowing evidently several feet deep below the turn, a fact which we could discern by throwing stones out into the water. Some young people and kids who had been fishing further down guessed that the water at and just below the Canyon's mouth was some seven or eight feet deep.

If I had brought my old bathing suit along and could have recalled some 16 or 18 years, I doubt if all the forest rangers in Brewster county could have kept me out of that water. Not bragging, but I have swum worse streams than that. In fact I used to be web-footed.

But not only was it impossible for us to go up into that Canyon but it was not possible to see up into it very far. For like all other streams it was not perfectly straight. I am thinking of having me a boat built and launching the thing up about Presidio some time and coming down that Canyon somewhat like a lot of other fools come over Niagara Falls in a barrel. If any of you guys want to take the trip with me, get your grips packed and your dinner pail filled and we will have one grand ride.

Shucks! Folks. I haven't told near all about the Big Bend yet, but the boys in the office keep telling me that I must speedily improve my stopping facilities. Can't even tell you about that old abandoned mining town of Terlingua, which we visited, and which the newspapers are saying now that a fellow is going to open up through some arrangement with the Government and begin producing quick-silver; or mercury, again. It seems that Uncle Sam feels that he is likely to need the stuff soon if Russia doesn't quiet down.

I don't think that I need any quick-silver but I do need a lot of silver quick, and if I can get hold of enough of it within the next twenty-five or thirty years, I may make another trip down to the Big Bend some time and then really tell you something about the country.

Hope to see you again next week, folks.

Careless Worms Cause Damage

Careless worms have done considerable damage to the cotton crop of Lynn county during the past two weeks. Farmers have been poisoning in many fields and the poisoning almost invariably has proved to be effective. The worms are still attacking fields, however, in many places which have not been poisoned. The general opinion now seems to be that their ravages have been almost stopped. But it will pay farmers to keep a close watch over the situation and get busy quick if the pests appear anywhere in their fields, for they seem to do their deadly work rapidly.

On last Friday, John Heck of Wilson invited us to make a round over a part of the Wilson trade territory just to see what these pests had been doing. He showed us fields in which spots of cotton running from a half acre to 30 or 40 acres had been practically cleaned up by the worms. Most of the deadly work had been done, however, where the cotton plant was still small or where the careless weeds had been allowed to flourish. He took us to one farm where the cotton was small and the careless weeds had been numerous. The worms had cleaned up both the weeds and the cotton and had emigrated across a sandy road by the millions to attack a neighboring field. The owner had gotten into that field, however, by the time the worms had and practically all of them, it seemed, had gotten a fatal dose of the poison. John says that they will often clean up an area within three hours after invading it. He showed us the trails that the worms had made across the sandy road, and he declared that he saw them while they were thus migrating, literally millions of them, he estimated.

After John released us, we decided to make a swing out through the rich cotton belt east of Wilson. The drouth had been severe out there and the worms had done much damage in fields that had not been irrigated. Irrigated cotton wherever it is to be found has been damaged but little, as a rule. The same is true of many fields of dry land cotton which had gotten a good growth before the worms struck.

Farmers say that this is the first year since this county began raising cotton on a large scale that it has been materially damaged by careless worms, and that was done only when the cotton was still very young and tender.

These pests use an entirely different method from that employed by army or regular leaf worms, boll worms or boll weevils. They neither eat the leaves nor bore into the bolls. They attack either a careless weed or a cotton stalk, they affix themselves to the underside of a leaf and begin sucking nutriment out of it. When they have done their work, the leaves will crumble up as if they had been scorched by fire or killed by a freeze. Take one into your hand and you can

NEGRO SOLDIER DRAWS BURLARY CHARGE

Only a small amount of money and a few small articles were reported missing from the house.

crumble it up like dried tobacco leaves or like the processed tobacco that you place in your pipe to smoke. Only a few hours are required to bring about that change.

The acreage destroyed has been small as compared with that which has been undamaged, and the prospects are that there will be a large production per acre in Lynn county this fall.

NOTICE

There have been several instances throughout the County where the barrow ditches have been plowed in after the roads were graded, thus causing insufficient drainage and necessitating additional labor and expense to the county. There have also been instances of the farmers turning their plows in the County roads and right of ways and some reports of them even turning on the paved roads and hanging a plow in the pavement and thus causing it to need repairing. The Commissioners' Court earnestly solicits the cooperation of those persons who have been engaged in these practices and ask that they be discontinued, especially on the Mail and School Bus Routes.

There have been numerous complaints to the Commissioners' Court concerning the piling of refuse, tin cans, etc. in the barrow ditches of the County Roads. The Commissioners' Court also asks that these practices please be stopped, as they will either have to be moved by the road maintainer men or else be scattered all over the road beds by the maintainers when the roads are graded or drug.

Your cooperation in the above matters is sincerely solicited.

Farmers Warned To Keep Look Out For Worms In Lynn County Cotton

County Agent W. B. Griffin states that Harry C. Harvey, Associate County Agriculture Agent-Entomology has released the following report on the insect situation on the South Plains.

Good rains in most of the South Plains area the past week have brightened the cotton prospects considerably. However, the bollworms continue to build-up and unless they are effectively controlled we can still have a cotton failure. We are in a very critical period and it could continue to be critical as long as green squares and bolls are present.

We want to emphasize the importance of making regular infestation counts. Growers should make field inspections at least two times a week and be on the alert at all times so that quick action can be taken when needed to prevent damage.

Remember you cannot kill injurious insects if they are not there and you may, by making badly timed poison applications, kill some beneficial insects, which may allow the harmful insects to increase later on. Some growers are alarmed at finding damaged squares on the stalk and on the ground, but are unable to find worms now. This is many times old damage and gives you a false report of what is going on in the field.

Therefore, the correct timing is one of the most important factors in bollworm control. There are only a few days after a bollworm hatches out that it can be effectively controlled. Full grown bollworms are very difficult to kill with any insecticide. It is while the small worm is feeding on the terminal bud and small squares around the terminal that it can be effectively controlled. Once the worm gets inside the boll it is practically impossible to control and it is only when the worm moves from that boll to another, if he does, can the worm be controlled.

In checking for bollworms examine 100 or more main terminals of plants selected at random from representative points in each field. Unless bollworm eggs and 4 or 5 worms are found per 100 terminals, do not apply controls. If 4 or 5 worms are found and a few eggs present you should apply controls.

There are several insecticides in sprays and dusts that will control the bollworm. The 1951 Guide has not been changed and those insecticides recommended will control.

The following statement was received from a published report on August 14, 1951 from Texas A. & M. College.

"DDT is the most effective insecticide known for bollworm control. Aphids (plant lice) often follow the use of DDT alone. For that reason it is usually safer to use it mixed with BHC or with Toxaphene. When DDT is used alone farmers should be ready to follow up with some good aphicide if necessary."

In using 2-1 mix (Tox-DDT), you should use 2 quarts (3 lbs.), to the acre. If DDT is used alone it can be used at 2 to 3 quarts (1 to 1½ lbs.) per acre. The rusts recommended 2-10-40, 3-5-40, 10-40 should be used at 15 to 20 pounds per acre. If 10-40 (DDT-Sulfur) is used the grower should be on the alert and watch for aphid build-up.

Aphids are present in heavy numbers in many fields. When Honey dew first begins to appear general over a field they should be controlled. This secretion of honey dew hurts the plant and will stain and discolor the open cotton. Aphids can be controlled with sprays of ¼ pint

D. S. LAVENDER FAMILY ATTENDED BLOYS MEETING

D. S. Lavender and family consisting of himself and his wife and three children together with his son and wife, Rev. and Mrs. Dale Lavender, recently attended the Bloys Camp Meeting in the Davis Mountains and he reported to the editor this week that he found the scenery and other features of the Davis Mountains exactly as The News columnist had reported them.

He and his family had even hunted up and viewed the grave of that Indian girl, Indian Emily, about whom we wrote, and he gathered a little more information than we gave.

He says they greatly enjoyed the revival meetings as well as the scenery, and they hope to go back every year.

Robinson Ready-to-Wear is this week celebrating its sixteenth year in business in Tahoka. Mrs. Hall (Ethel) Robinson is a real old timer of the county, having come here as a girl before there was an official Lynn county, when her late father, Jack Alley, was manager of the Tahoka Lake Ranch. She knows the history of Lynn county first hand.

The News is advised by fellow-officers that "assistant chief" Dwain Jones investigated a minor collision between a Fulkerson truck and Roy Elliott's car at South 5th and Petty Streets one day last week.

Bobby Hammonds, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hammonds of Route 2 and 1950 graduate of Tahoka High, is now associated with Air Way Branches, Inc., vacuum cleaner distributors, with headquarters in Lubbock.

Miss Janelle Toler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Toler, and Miss Margaret Durham, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. K. R. Durham, left Thursday for Waco to enter Baylor University.

Wanted By FBI -- Burkhart . . .

ROBERT GEORGE THOMPSON

Alert citizens and law enforcement agencies throughout the nation have been requested by the FBI to assist in locating Robert George Thompson, one of the convicted Communist Party leaders who are now fugitives from justice. A description of Thompson is as follows:

Age, 36, born June 21, 1915, at Grants Pass, Oregon; height, 5-ft., 9 1/4-inches; weight, 170 pounds; eyes, dark brown; hair, brown, thick, straight; complexion, light; build, muscular; race, white; nationality, American; scars and marks, bullet wound left knee, appendectomy.

His complexion is sallow and he walks with a slight hop or limp from the wound in his left knee. In the past he has driven a 1948 green Chrysler four door sedan, New York license 4C5674.

He has worked as a machine operator in a linoleum factory in California and as a laborer in a cannery. He speaks slowly and usually carries a briefcase.

Thompson was convicted on October 14, 1949, for violation of the Smith Act and was sentenced to three years' imprisonment and a $10,000 fine. A bench warrant was issued for his arrest on July 2, 1951, when he failed to appear in Federal Court for commitment to prison.

Any person having information which may assist in locating Thompson is requested to immediately notify the nearest FBI office. The phone number will appear on the first page of the phone book.

Seek New Ideas In Agriculture

COLLEGE STATION. —Farmers and others interested in long time improvement of agriculture are urged to take part in the meetings now being held throughout the state for the purpose of reviewing the programs and policies of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

County Agricultural Mobilization Committees are in charge of the meetings and discussions in the counties. Membership on these committees is composed of representatives from state and federal agencies who work with rural families. Officials of the PSDA point out that the population of the nation is growing steadily and by the end of the century is expected to be near 200 million, or approximately double the 1900 total. Then too, most of the country's arable land already is under cultivation and the extra food and fiber needed to feed and clothe the growing population must come from increased acreage yields and more efficient production.

This increased agricultural production must come from the family farms for they make up almost 98 percent of the Nation's total. These are the farms which are operated by family units and supply the bulk of the family's income with the family providing most of the labor needed on the farm.

It is the family farm operators and their families, therefore, that are now being asked to make suggestions for improving the services and programs of the USDA. The best suggestions for dealing with local farm problems come from local farmers and all are urged to attend and participate in the meetings being called in the communities. The recommendations from these meetings and discussions may form the basis for improved farm programs and assurances to the millions that America's family farms can provide the nation's future needs of food and fiber.

Next year's fruit crop may depend upon the care given the orchard during the late summer and early fall months. Weeds should be controlled and all trees checked for infestations of insects.

Bulldogs Win

 mick punched the ball over for the TD.

Late in the same period, Tahoka took over on Sundown's 38 when the Roughnecks failed on a fourth down running play, and a few plays later Foster threw another one to Brookshire who took the ball on the 15 and scampered over the goal. The extra-point pass was incomplete, and the half ended 19-0.

The third quarter went scoreless, but early in the fourth little Charles Hyles scampered around left end and with the aid of some beautiful blocking went 72 yards to pay dirt. Brookshire tried for the extra point but missed. Score 25-0.

Just four plays later Sundown back Don Greer got away on a 53 yard gallop off left tackle for the Roughnecks' only score.

Midway in the final period, two successive passes one to Halameck for 11 and one to Brookshire for 10 yards resulted in the final score, and Foster kicked the extra point to bring the count to 32 to 6.

Fans may be interested in knowing that Foster carried the ball eight times for 40 yards in addition to doing the fine passing job on nine completions in 16 tries; Hyles had a net of 66 yards, running on five plays and caught three passes for a total of 58 yards; Halameck carried 13 times for 52 yards and caught two passes for 24; Brookshire carried three times for only six yards, but caught four passes for a 74 yard total; and Elliott made 12 on two tries.

Curry did some good work at blocking, Steve Slover and Earl Bartley did good jobs in the line, and many others looked good at times. However, Coach Haralson kept a steady stream of substitutes going in and did a lot of shifting of players to see what they could do, to give them playing experience and to build up the reserve strength, all of which contributed to somewhat ragged line play. The line will have to show more stuff in the future if Tahoka has a winning season, and the coaches believe it will. About 22 boys saw action in the game.

Game statistics showed that: Tahoka made 11 first downs on 332 net yards in 55 plays from scrimmage; gained 193 yards running and lost 15 for a net of 178; threw 16 passes of which 7 were incomplete, 9 complete for a total of 154 yards—24, 37, 13, 9, 35, 5, 10, 11, and 10; punted 4 times for 28 yard average; drew five penalties for 55 yards total; fumbled the ball four times, losing it three; scored 5 touchdowns.

Sundown made 10 first downs on 209 net yards in 61 plays; gained 240 yards running and lost 42 for net of 198; threw 11 passes, 9 were incomplete, 1 was complete for 11 yards, and 1 intercepted by Bartley; punted twice for 27 yard average; drew two penalties for 10 yard total; fumbled five times, losing ball each time; and scored one touchdown.

Weldon Brice, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Brice, left Monday for Alpine to re-enter college. He will be a Senior this year in Sul Ross State College.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Smith returned Monday from a vacation trip out through New Mexico and into Colorado. They spent several days at Albuquerque.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nixon were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dahlberg at the Del Norte Hotel in El Paso last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Thomas Tells of Trip to Alaska

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. (Claude) Thomas are expected home this week from a vacation and hunting trip to Canada and Alaska, after having been gone more than two months. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Von Roeder and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Key and family, all of Snyder.

Thursday of last week, The News received a letter from Mr. and Mrs. Thomas which was too late for last week's issue but which is just as timely this week. It was written on August 29 at Haines, Alaska.

The very interesting account of their trip follows:

We are still enjoying our vacation trip. We traveled over 4,500 miles from Grassland to Fairbanks, about 2,100 miles not paved and really dusty.

Fairbanks is on a boom; hair cuts are $2.00 and shoe shines 75 cents.

We flew from Fairbanks 700 miles northwestward to a little Eskimo town of Kotzebue, where bread was $1.00 a loaf.

We found the Eskimos very friendly but extremely ugly. Their customs are quite primitive. The ice was all melted, and their Huskies and their toboggans were resting.

Then, on our return to Fairbanks, we came close enough to Siberia to take a picture, but it was cloudy and we were flying above the clouds. We stopped over at Nome, the famous "gold rush" town of the early days.

Then we started our homeward journey.

We are now (Aug. 29) at the small Alaskan seaport at Haines. Scenery is gorgeous—mountains with glaciers extending skyward on both sides of a deep channel. We load our cars onto a ferry to Juneau, the capital of Alaska. Juneau is another town that can only be reached by plane or ship. They have only a few miles of streets.

Three of us, Nolan Von Roeder, Marvin Key, and Claude Thomas, left the wives and children at Whitehorse, and took a 15-day hunt out from Burwash on Klunane Lake in Yukon Territory.

On this hunt, we experienced several new adventures.

First, we went about 10 miles across the lake in a boat, unloaded, and found a beautiful mat of Muskeg and reindeer moss. Just underneath that about 10 inches deep was the "perma-frost" (meaning ground that stays frozen the year around).

The second day, we spotted some sheep in the high, rough mountains. Sheep are hard hunting. They stay on rocky ledges for their own security against the vicious wolves. Well, we managed to kill three nice sheep trophies on the third day when we stalked them.

We also got two nice moose. The moose carry a lot of meat, but are not so very alert.

Then we had good luck on the bear. We got two large grizzlies and one small one. We managed to get in some fatal shots and had no trouble with the bear.

Our guides were native Indians. They are real hunters and treated us swell.

We enjoyed reading The Lynn County News in Fairbanks.

In Juneau, we expect to meet Rev. and Mrs. Jimmy Bolton, Missionaries from Lubbock county. Expect to be home about the 15th.

TAHOKA, TEXAS, — FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1951

Water Is Cheapest Commodity We Use, Costing Less Than 5 Cents A Ton

"Water is about the cheapest thing we buy—it costs the Tahoka consumer less than five cents a ton," City Auditor Russell McGee tells The News.

And, while scores of towns in Texas are suffering from a water shortage this summer, Tahoka now has a plentiful supply.

McGee, states that Tahoka's new water system, installed last year, has proven more than adequate this hot, dry summer.

Each hot month of this season has seen the setting of a new record in the total amount of water used with consumption at a million gallons a day.

The City has been getting a lot of complaints from customers, McGee says, on their water bills. Some people, however, do not consider how fast water may be consumed running through an air conditioner, a lawn sprinkler, or even a leaky faucet.

Tahokans should be happy that they have plenty of water and that the rates are no higher than those charged here. Rates in most towns in this area are much higher than Tahoka (Levelland's is 30 percent higher).

Tahoka's rates are: $2.00 for the first 3,000 gallons; 30 cents per thousand for the next 10,000; and 20 cents per thousand for the all over 13,000 gallons.

ATTEND FUNERAL SERVICES

Mrs. J. J. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Jayroe, Mrs. Birt King and Mrs. H. P. French, attended funeral services for Mrs. Atkinson's grand son, Willard Groom, in Abilene Thursday, who was drowned in Brownwood Lake on Tuesday. He was in the grocery business in Abilene. He was also the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Beights of Abilene, formerly of Loraine.

Bulldog Mothers Elect Officers

Mothers of Tahoka Bulldog athletes met last week and elected new officers of the Bulldog Mothers Club.

Mrs. Paul Halamicek was named the new president, succeeding Mrs. Elnora Curry. Other officers are: Mrs. J. T. Brice, vice president; Mrs. Rufus Slover, secretary; and Mrs. V. P. Carter, reporter.

All mothers of boys on Tahoka High athletic teams are urged to participate in the club activities. The mothers will sponsor several entertainments for the boys during the season.

Lowell Busby Is Married At Garland

Miss Sarah Jo Young of Garland became the bride of Edward Lowell Busby, formerly of Tahoka, in a double ring ceremony Friday evening, August 31, in the Garland First Methodist Church. Officiating minister was Rev. Wm. D. Craig of Gainesville, formerly of Garland.

The altar was banked with palms and 28 candelabra. Tall baskets of gladioli and stock were used on either side.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, R. F. Young, wore a gown of imported organdy. The fitted basque, fastened with tiny self-covered buttons down the front dipped to a slight point front and back, over the very full skirt of embroidered organdy which reached her ankles. The finger-tip veil of illusion was fastened to a tiara of orange blossoms, and she wore organdy mitts. She carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid.

Nuptial music was given by Mrs. Clodius Hill, organist, and Mrs. W. M. Nix, soloist, who sang "I Love Thee" and "Because."

Miss Lavette Leifried was maid of honor; Miss Daisy Reed of Electra and Mrs. Joan Seigler of Dallas, the bridesmaids; Carolyn Sue Young, sister of the bride, junior bridesmaid.

Robert Bilheimer of Waco served as best man, and ushers were Lloyd Yeager and F. W. Young, brother of the bride.

A reception followed in the home of the bride's parents.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Young of Garland. She was graduated from Garland High School with the class of 1949 and attended North Texas State College, Denton.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Busby of the Draw community. He is a graduate of Tahoka High School, following which he was called to work for Uncle Sam and spent 12 months in Germany. After receiving his discharge from the Army, he entered Texas Tech, from which he received the Bachelor of Science degree. He is now employed at Varo Electric Mfg. Co., Garland.

After a wedding trip to Galveston, the couple will make their home at 406 South 11th, Garland.

"THINGS THAT ARE GOD'S"

In Matt. 22:21, Jesus warns about rendering unto men the things that belong to God. Among things belonging to God, are certain titles, or names. In the law of Moses, the Israelites were warned against vain use of God's name. They were very careful to use His name only as the one they addressed in prayer, and when edifying the people. We also must be careful not to use His name in vain, or for the wrong purpose, and must never use them to glorify ourselves or any man.

Following are some names that belong only to God:
1. "God," Gen. 1:1. The fourth word in the Bible is God. This short but important verse teaches four things about God. Viz: (a) His eternal nature; (b) His creative power; (c) His authority;

(d) Profound respect. Never should man wear this name that belongs only to God.

2. "I Am," Ex. 3:14. This verse teaches: (a) The exclusiveness of God; (b) The inferiority of man; and (c) The sufficiency of God's commands. This is also a term man should never assume.

3. "Jehovah," Ex. 6:3: The meaning, we are told, is "He Will Be." How appropriate. "God" the beginning, "I Am," in the present, and "Jehovah" future. No man could think of such term belonging to himself.

4. "Our Father," Matt. 6:9. Jesus gave this term for his disciples to use only when they address God in prayer or refer to their relation to the heavenly parent. No Man Is Permitted To Wear It for in the words of Jesus himself, Matt. 23:9. "Call No Man 'Your Father' upon the earth, for One is Your Father which is in heaven." When men appropriate this name and teach others to call them by it, they openly reject the teaching of Christ, and Jesus said, Jno. 12:48. "He that Reject Me and Receiveth Not My Words, hath one that judge the him. The words that I have spoken they shall judge him in the last day." That warning is sufficient to warn me against wearing this name which Belongs To God.

5. "Reverend," Ps. 111:9, "Holy and Reverend is His name." Yes this name is also His. It teaches—Awe-Honor-Respect-Fear etc. And these belong to God. "Reverend" is a term found only Once in the entire Bible, and in that One place it definitely specifies it as His. Therefore I, as a gospel preacher, judge not myself worthy of it. Acts 12:20-23, we are told that Herod the King died as a result of allowing people to give him a name that belongs to God; and in 1 Cor. 10:11, "All these things happened to them for examples and are written for our admonition upon whom the ends of the world are come."

Let Us Be Careful Not To Use His Name In Vain.
