Large Number of Graduates Taking Television Course

One hundred and forty college graduates have enrolled in the 1958-59 Project for Teacher Recruitment and Education by Television, J. W. Edgar, Commissioner of Education, reported today.

The deadline for applications to be received by the 47 participating Texas colleges and universities is November 15, by which time the enrollment is expected to compare favorably with the 543 who enrolled last year.

Any graduate of a 4-year accredited college is eligible to enroll. Each participant is required to complete a telecourse, which includes viewing 26 "Texas Curriculum Studies" programs, reading a textbook, and taking a mid-term and final examination.

Parmer County Farmers Union

Public opinion is being aroused today against the new $6 1/2 billion dollar farm budget. It is a fact that 6 1/2 billion dollars is a lot of money, and that the American taxpayer is entitled to know how and where his money is spent.

However no one in the agriculture department has taken the time to explain to the people just how this money is divided. It is taken for granted by most that the farmer is the recipient through subsidies, price supports, etc., of this entire amount. Nothing could be further from the truth. Actually, the farmers receive about 1/6 of this amount. The people in the larger cities, which are the ones that complain

Grain Sorghum Producers Association To Promote Overseas Use And Selling

Directors of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association in an unprecedented move this week agreed to negotiate an agreement with the Foreign Agricultural Service calling for the promotion of grain sorghums in world-wide markets.

John R. McCracken, representing the Foreign Agricultural Service, told the Association leaders that grain sorghum growers are the only feed grain group that has entered into such an agreement. The move essentially enables the Grain Sorghum Association to carry out world-wide programs which may lead to better and more permanent outlets for the nation's increasing feed grain stores. The directors, representing most Panhandle and South Plains counties, unanimously approved the proposal and instructed their executive officer, Bill Nelson of Amarillo, to negotiate the contract with Foreign Agricultural Service.

The new program will enable the Grain Sorghum Producers Association to make use of the Agricultural Development and Assistance Act of 1954. The Act provides for use of foreign currencies derived from the sale of native figures through October 17.

and represents ginnings of approximately 350,000 bales. Statistics show that of the crop white cotton accounted for 85.7% of the crop with 54.6% Middling white and above. Light spots totalled 13.8% with 11.2% being Middling light spot and above. Full spotted cotton was only 02%.

Average staple length was 31.8/32nds with 60% being one inch and longer. Only 2.5% fell below 15/16 inch.

The micronaire average was 4.3 with 96.9% above the tenderable micronaire limit of 3.5. The majority of the crop, or 73.0% fell between 4.0 and 4.9. Pressley fiber strength averaged 78,000 pounds per square inch with 61.7% of the crop falling between 75,000 and 89,000 pounds.

CRISIS IN THE TEXAS POULTRY INDUSTRY

In these days of high production costs, you don't need a crystal ball to know that a grower who has to sell his poultry at 15c a pound isn't making any profit.

Neither is the buyer or processor who buys these birds and then must compete with lower priced poultry from other states on the dressed market. So the Texas poultry industry is faced with that old agricultural bug-a-boo—overproduction in the South, coupled with a decreased demand for poultry.

Just a few years ago, Texas growers were receiving as much as 34 to 36c a pound for live poultry. Our production capacity was not equal to our state and competition from other broiler growing areas was not a serious market factor.

More recently—and particularly in the past year—Georgia, Arkansas and Mississippi have increased their production by leaps and bounds. Our own has also increased but not to the same extent. The competition for out-of-state markets is now a deadly serious matter.

At one time, Texas poultrymen could expect to receive 1 to 2 cents more for their birds on the market than farmers in Georgia and Arkansas. Our local markets were nearby and convenient. We could also ship dressed birds to California because we were closer, giving us the advantage of cheaper transportation costs.

But today, if our market price for poultry is even 1 cent higher for three or four days, we find that other broiler states will ship their birds to western markets at a lower competitive price—and even move into Texas and capture our local outlets.

Cutting back poultry production to raise the price in Texas is no solution if other states continue to place more and more baby chicks on the farm. The neighboring states will merely move into our market outlets to fill the vacuum.

The only thing we can hope for is more efficient poultry production in Texas—and a slightly better market price. Fortunately, the supply picture is subject to rapid change in the poultry industry. And prices are quick to rise when poultry becomes short.

But it becomes increasingly apparent that we must strive for lower production costs if Texas is to remain a major factor in the broiler business.

Reading the diary she kept on tour, she recalls: (1) "We went boating in the San Diego Harbor in between posing for fashion pictures. What fun." (2) "What a royal reception we received in Rotterdam, Holland. The welcoming committee wore bowlers and tails. Crowds on bicycles followed our open convertible." (3) "Midnight in Jamaica and my first fashion show after leaving New York. I modeled my beautiful cotton brocade evening gown in the moonlight on the terrace of the Round Hill Hotel." The contest to choose the 1959 Maid of Cotton is now open, and Jean says, "There's a wonderful and thrilling seven months in store for the girl who wins the title. I know!" Complete details on the contest are available from the National Cotton Council, P.O. Box 9905, Memphis 12, Tenn.

White Cotton Tops List of Grades In Second High Plains Quality Report

The second Texas High Plains cotton quality report as published by the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., on the harvest of the 1958 cotton crop shows that white cotton accounted for more than 85% of the cotton harvested as of October 17.

This cotton quality report with correlations between grade, staple, micronaire and Pressley is being mailed every two weeks to a textile mill and cotton buyers list of more than 300. The report consists of an explanation of tables on averages of fiber properties per grade, average of fiber properties per staple, Pressley and micronaire along with cross class of grades, staple micronaire and fiber strength.

The report is being gathered in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture and is published to give buyers and textile officials more up to date information on the kinds and types of cotton being produced in this area.

The first report covered ginnings prior to October 1. This report covers ginnings with cumulative agricultural commodities overseas to help develop new markets of U. S. agricultural products abroad.

It is expected that the Association will initiate projects in several countries to carry out market research, market analysis, various sales promotional activities, participate in trade fairs and other educational and liaison activities which may lead to greater use of American feed grains, in particular grain sorghums. The Association of area grain sorghum producers will be called upon to provide a direct financial contribution to meet the necessary State-side dollar expenses of the foreign projects. It was pointed out by the foreign Agricultural Service representative that the program will be just as big or just as small as the interest of area grain sorghum producers is in supporting the program.

SECOND CONFERENCE VICTORY

Mules Trim Morton 21 to 6

The Morton Indians opened Friday night's game with a bang against the Muleshoe Mules, as they scored the second time they got the ball in the first quarter.

Morton received the opening kickoff and drove for two first downs before being forced to punt. They recovered a fumble on the Muleshoe 42 and in four plays right halfback Butch Nairn went 24 yards for the Morton tally.

The Muleshoe Mules, taken by surprise by the quick touchdown of the Indians, came barreling back. On the second play from scrimmage, after receiving the kickoff, fullback Gerald Shanks took a quick opener handoff from quarterback Derrell Oliver and raced 62 yards for the TD. Halfback Corralez kicked his first of three extra points for the night.

The Mules' second touchdown came in the second quarter after Morton had been forced to punt to the Mules' 20-yard line. Oliver pegged a perfect pass to Lyndal Black, which carried from the Morton 41 to the 14-yard line. From there Oliver banged his way to the 4-yard line. From there Lee Roy Corralez went over for the TD, after taking a pitch out from Oliver. Corralez also split the uprights for the one-pointer.

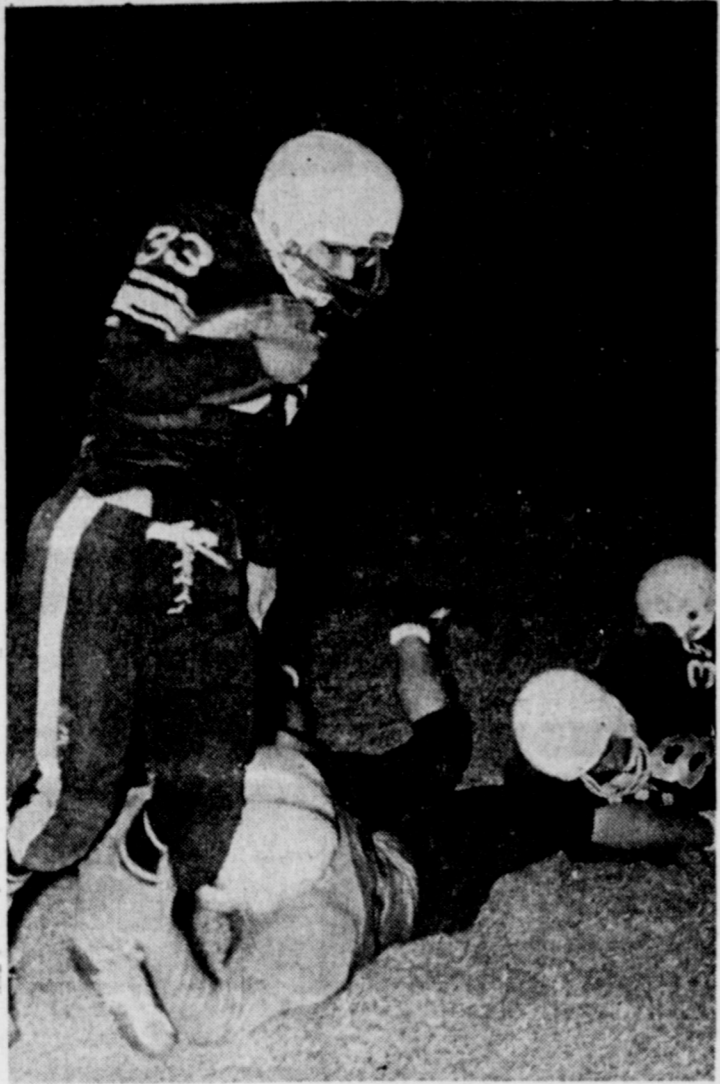

The Morton Indians drove down to the Muleshoe 23-yard line in the second quarter, only to have the drive stopped by a fumble which the Mules recovered.

The Mules took the kick starting the third quarter and drove 71 yards in 10 plays for their third touchdown. With Oliver, Corralez, Shanks and Splawn running the ball on the ground, the Mules ground out the yardage in big hunks, capped by Oliver, who went over from the one-yard line. Again the unerring toe of Lee Roy Corralez split the uprights for the extra point, but Muleshoe was offside, and he was forced to do it again from the eight. The kick was good.

Muleshoe gained 226 yards rushing and completed 2 of 8 passes for 37 yards. Morton completed 9 of 20 passes for 108 yards and got 127 yards rushing. The Mules met the Morton spread with good results, by rushing the passer and batting down several passes.

Muleshoe had a slight edge in first downs, 16-15 for the night. Muleshoe is now in first place in district standings with two wins and no losses.

Olton Downs Lockney 18 to 14

In a mild upset Friday night, the Olton Mustangs edged the Lockney Longhorns 18-14, in a game played at Olton.

Olton ran up a 12-0 score before the Longhorns managed to cross the double stripe, in the fourth quarter.

Royce Bodkin, halfback for Olton, opened the night's scoring in the second quarter when he ran left end for six yards and the initial tally. Olton scored again the third quarter, set up by a fumble recovery by Bodkin on the Lockney 47. Bodkin caught a 37-yard pass from quarterback Arno Hall. Bodkin also scored the TD from 10 yards out.

In the fourth quarter Lockney broke into the scoring as quarterback Jimmy Minter bullied over from the one yard line. Fullback Bill Race ran for two extra points.

Then Lockney went ahead. All-district Race went over from the 3-yard line. The drive started on the Olton 41 after a fumble and the series took five plays and a 15-yard penalty. The extra point try failed. This left Lockney leading, 14-12.

Olton came back to score with 1:51 showing on the scoreboard, as Arno Hall crashed three yards for the final tally.

Mules Travel To Lockney For Third Conference 2-AA Game Friday

Friday night the Muleshoe Mules travel to Lockney to take on the Longhorns in an all important District 2-AA clash.

The Longhorns, spoilers of the district by beating the highly favored Abernathy Antelopes, 22-12 are 3-5 for the season.

Last week they fell prey to the Olton Mustangs, in a game played at Olton, 18-14.

The Longhorns, with a season wins-loss record of three wins and five losses, are a much better team than some may think. Although they were upset by the Mustangs last week, they pulled the biggest upset on the South Plains week before last when they lashed the Abernathy Antelopes 22-12. This is the only loss for the Antelopes, who beat the powerful Dimmitt eleven, 12-6.

Lockney has eight returning lettermen from last year's district winners.

The Longhorns have won over

Hale Center, 14-0; Tullia 14-6; Abernathy 22-12. They have lost to Dimmitt, 26-0; Ralls, 15-0; Floydada, 12-6; Slaton, 12-8; and Olton 14-18.

The Mules will have to have all hands on deck for Friday night's game, as Lockney will be scrapping to stay in contention for the district race. The Mules on the otherhand could easily be out of the running if they should loose to Lockney. This could leave the district in a three-way tie for first, and the Mules still has Abernathy to meet on their own field.

On the other hand, if Muleshoe beats Lockney, they will still be on the top rung in district standings with a perfect record, without the services of Jack Wright and Donnie "Sputnik" Shafer, will will have to go all out for this game. They will have to give it all they have to come out of this game on top.

Muleshoe can't make too many mistakes, as they have in past games, and win. Just a fumble or a penalty at the wrong time could cost them the game.

Big Jack Wright, the only returning letterman on the line for the Mules, is back in the lineup. Jack has been out for about a week, and missed the Muleshoe-Morton game, but will see action Friday night.

The Mules will need the support of the many fans here in Muleshoe, to travel to Lockney and cheer them on. Last week was the smallest crowd out yet to witness a Mule football game, even those away from home. Let's everyone go to Lockney Friday night and get behind the Mules. We need more fans there from Muleshoe than there will be from Lockney. Let's all go to Lockney!

SCOOP SEZ

By J. M. Forbes

The other day several couples of us went to Cowles, high in the Pecos canyon to help the Julian Lenas to close their cabin for the winter. Mine hostess had fervently wished that no snow would fall, as it did so wonderfully the year before on this occasion. The weather man obliged; it was sunny and bright, the aspens and oaks and myriads of other trees had changed to their autumn uniform. Wherever you looked were leaves of many colors; the Pecos river was bright, shiny, and hurrying.

And everything was grand, Miss Weather led the dancing, Professor Wind the band. The Chestnuts came in yellow, The Oaks in crimson dressed; The lovely Misses Maple In scarlet looked their best; All balanced to their partners, And gaily fluttered by; The sight was like a rainbow New fallen from the sky.

Then, in the rustic hollow, At hide-and-seek they played, The party closed at sundown, And everybody stayed. Professor Wind played louder; They flew along the ground; And then the party ended, In jolly "hands around."

—George Cooper In "Modern Woodman."

Babson Discusses . . . . The Copper Situation

Cape Town, South Africa, Nov. 6—Let me first discuss the copper industry of Africa, which is now its most stable activity. The world copper industry is currently in the doldrums. This fact, plus the red metal's economic importance to the United States, impels me to make a study of the situation. Here are the highlights.

The U. S. has long been the world's leading copper producer, although its percentage of the world total has declined in recent years. The production pattern, however, has been quite irregular. Output topped 1,000,000 tons for the first time in 1929. The depression low of 225,000 tons was set in 1933. A record high of 1,117,580 tons was turned out in 1956; last year's total was 1,081,000 tons.

World smelter production, over a long period, has trended fairly steadily upward, and at a rapid pace in recent years—from 3,076,730 tons in 1950 to 4,111,934 tons in 1956. Africa is the free world's second-largest producer, with the bulk of output concentrated in Rhodesia and the Belgian Congo. I have great faith in the African producers. Africa is a vast storehouse of raw materials that will be invaluable in the economic war we are engaged in with Russia. Chile ranks third in copper production; Canada fourth.

Copper's Shifting Supply-Demand Ratio
For many years the United States was more than self-sufficient in copper. World War II changed that situation. Zooming consumption, which hit a high of 1,641,550 tons in 1941, necessitated heavy imports to fill the deficit arising from wartime demand. Our U. S. copper needs have held at high levels in most of the postwar years, reflecting pent-up consumer demand for goods of all kinds, outbreak of the Korean War in June 1950, and a high level of industrial activity. The red metal was in the stringest supply practically from the beginning of World War II until early 1956. Since then, U. S. supplies from domestic, African and other foreign sources have exceeded requirements. The current copper surplus reflects the recent rapid expansion in world production of the metal and the decline in business and industrial activity, particularly in the United States. I see little at the moment pointing to a major recovery in U. S. copper demand unless a naval war develops with China over the Formosa situation. I am bullish, however, about the longer-term prospects. World industrialization seems destined to expand at an accelerating pace in the years ahead. Copper needs abroad will follow suit. As I look into the future, I am more concerned about too little copper than too much. Much more could be mined here in Africa. The following three African copiers are listed on the New York Stock Exchange: American Metal Climax, Rhodesian Selection Trust, Roan Antelope. For early profit, however, I now prefer our own Phelps Dodge.

A Glance At Prices
Copper, like many world commodities, is extremely sensitive price-wise. A depression low of 5c a pound for electrolytic copper at New York was made in 1933. In February, 1956, the metal hit a 90-year high of 46c a pound. The average yearly price in 1954 was 29.82c; in 1955, 37.39c; in 1956, 41.87c; and in 1957, 29.99c. The recent U. S. price of 29c would seem to discount the bearish factors, especially since the value of the dollar has been more than halved since 1939.

Although I do not expect copper prices to go soaring soon, I do look for them to strengthen further as the supply-demand imbalance undergoes additional correction. This may take a little more time. The recent upping of the U. S. import duty will act as a bulwark, and a resumption of government stockpiling cannot be entirely ruled out. Of one thing I am certain: Over the next decade or so, copper prices will be considerably higher than they are today and Africa will be a gainer. Threats of war should

Sandhills Philosopher Advises . . . The Experts On How To Lighten The Grueling Work Load On A Farm

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm tackles the problem of the small farm this week. Tackling a problem of course is not solving it.

Dear editor:

There has been a lot of discussion in the newspapers the past year over the plight of the small farmer, and lots of experts have been worrying about him. They're afraid he'll get discouraged and have to give up farming and move to town.

As a result, a lot of thinking has been going on about the problem, and I was reading in an article last night where some experts studying the matter have decided one way to keep the farmer on the farm is to make his work lighter. For example, they said, farmers ought to use their brains and figure out short cuts for themselves, and they threw in a suggestion of their own as a starter. Why not, they said, "put cows up on a platform so the dairyman can milk them as he stands? This would save a lot of stooping."

The main trouble with this is that I doubt if it takes any more witness to the life which is in Christ—a life "hid with Christ in God."

PRAYER
O Lord of life—of abundant life, of victorious life—help us to live each day in the blessed fullness of Thy love. So may the divine mystery be revealed in us; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
When Christ dwells within us, we see deeper meaning in all of life.

every scientific improvement available, still the man who gets the furthest ahead generally is the one who works the hardest, with the longest hours. That's where science breaks down. However, it's where I take over.

After years of studying the problem, I know how to lighten the work on a farm. It's simple, just skip about half of what you're supposed to do. Under-standing of course, that this is for the well-run farm. On mine, I skip about three-fourths.

Yours faithfully,

September Bond Sales In County Total $3,328

During the month of September the citizens of Bailey county purchased $3,328 in Series E and H Savings Bonds.

This announcement was made recently by Mrs. Inez Bobo, Chairman of Bailey County's Savings Bonds Committee.

"Sales for the first nine months of this year totaled $95,106," Chairman Bobo reported. "We have now achieved 77.3% of our 1958 goal of $123,000."

Sales in Texas during the first nine months of 1958 were $132,257.457 which represents 75.6% of the 1958 goal of $175,000,000.

"Under a recent change in Treasury regulations, individuals who hold F and G bonds that mature after September 1, 1958 may invest the proceeds from the maturing bonds in E and H bonds without regard to annual purchase limits," Mrs. Bobo announced. "This information should be of interest to hundreds of people in this area who hold maturing F and G Bonds," Mrs. Bobo concluded.

Falling Leaves Of Real Value To Lawn, Garden

Leaves which are now falling and cluttering yards and gardens can give a boost to next year's flower or vegetable garden if properly handled, says Bill Bennett, extension soil chemist.

Burning the leaves may be easier but the extra time required to put them in a compost pile will return big dividends, explains Bennett. The compost can be used next year to increase soil organic matter or for mulching flowers, shrubs or vegetables.

Making a compost pile is a simple operation, points out the chemist. Scrap lumber or a few feet of net wire and four posts will take care of the enclosure. Then start with a six inch layer of leaves. For every four square feet of enclosure dissolve a cup of commercial fertilizer, such as 8-8-8 or 6-2-6, in water and sprinkle the solution over the layer of leaves. In areas where soils are acid, Bennett suggests adding a cup of lime to the fertilizer.

Continue adding layers until the pile reaches the desired height. Leave the top layer somewhat saucer shaped as a water-holding aid and cover it with a shallow layer of soil. Decomposition of the leaves will be speeded up if the material is turned and water added at regular intervals.

help all copper stocks; but the African mines would be handicapped by the costs of long and dangerous freight transport. Gold, uranium, and diamonds can be swiftly transported by airplane. Copper cannot be, and this is one reason why I prefer now to invest in companies which secure their raw materials on the American continent.

Today's Meditation

Read I Timothy 6:11-16
The mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints. (Colossians 1:26.)
Beulah prepared herself to be a nurse. She practiced her profession for several years, but arthritis cut short her career. She spent the last ten years of her life in bed. She was a helpless cripple, with the exception of her mind, her heart, and one hand. She had a special telephone installed at her bed. This she used daily to inspire her friends, to encourage members of the church, to extend sympathy to the bereaved, and to bring cheer to the discouraged. Day after day, and to the very last, her life was one of radiant victory in Christ.

At the age of 36, she passed on in triumph to her eternal home. The life of this woman, though crippled in body, bore work to stoop to milk a cow than it does to reach to build a platform for them to stand on, not to mention getting the feed up there to them twice a day. Personally, if I was milking a bunch of cows, which I'm not, and was opposed to stooping, I'd come out in favor of longer-legged cows or shorter-legged men.

The trouble with using brains and science to lighten the load of farming is that this works up to a certain point, but it generally stops at the edge of the field, leaving nobody but the farmer to go up one row and down another, in between rains.

Science is wonderful, but I've noticed that in the most modern business, with every labor-saving device known to man, or on the most modern farm, with Je Don Gallman emceed the coronation ceremony and Donna Redwine was at the piano.

Preceding the school coronation, Mrs. Lazbuddie was chosen from a group of 18 young married ladies. The money received from this contest is being used for bleachers for the football field. Between the coronations, Larry Teider rendered a vocal number and was accompanied by his wife for an encore.

The next two football games will be played here at home with the visiting team Friday evening from Hart. The bleachers have already been installed and ready for Friday evening's game. The P-T-A sponsored concession stand will also be open again for the convenience of the public and they are urged to come out and eat their supper at the ball game.

Present Jackets
Friday evening at the pep rally, before going to the game at Bovina, the FFA boys presented football jackets to their sweetheart and Plowgirl. Duane Teague, president, and Clyde Redwine and Vice made the presentations to Susie Carpenter as "Sweetheart" and to Marilyn Aduddell as "Plowgirl".

The popular F-100 pickup is one of 371 Ford truck models available in 1959. Dual headlights and a new Ford nameplate on the hood are standard features on the pickup models. With the 223 cubic inch six-cylinder engine — the most modern "six" in the industry — Ford offers greater economy in the high speed or increased load range. The pickup is available with either this Styleside body, which Ford pioneered with the 1957 models, or the Flareside body.

Parmer County Farm Bureau News

by Raymond Euler

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week will be days of activity in Corpus Christ, Texas as Farm Bureau will be in session for its 25th annual convention.

Twelve hundred or more delegates from county Farm Bureaus over the state will have convened to determine policies of the state organization for the year 1959. Decisions reached will, as they have for the past 25 years, determine the future of agricultural people in many fields. All of the decisions reached will not be right, but they will be the decisions of the majority of the voting membership of the organization.

Legislative suggestions will be presented in the state legislature, and the majority of them will become the law of the state. Other resolutions, national in scope, will be presented to delegates to the American Convention in Boston in December. There, likewise, many of the decisions will be translated, through legislative process into national law. Even though none of the decisions reached are likely to be exactly what any individual farmer might want, in detail, all of them will have been reached after discussion, debate, and vote.

This is the true democratic operation of Farm Bureau. Leaders of the organization have no authority to change any of these decisions during the year, but must uphold them until the membership has, next year, gone through the same process of local, county, state and national discussion and decision by majority vote.

Business sessions have in the past begun on Tuesday morning, after open sessions of resolutions. Due to the increase in interest and the number of resolutions that must be acted upon, caucuses will begin on Monday morning and business will be conducted throughout the three days of the convention.

Farmers will be glad to know that the railroads have a man who is interested in helping all he can with the eradication of noxious weeds by treating them on the RR right of ways. He is C. W. Guthridge, of the engineering department. He asks that any farmer who knows of bindweed on the RR right of way adjoining his land report it to the county agent or to the Farm Bureau Office.

REMEMBER WHEN?
by JOHN CROW

In a time of poverty, his battle cry was "Share the Wealth", and the cry won him a tremendous following in his native state. They called him the Louisiana Kingfish, and his name was Huey Long.

He liked power . . . and his critics claimed he had just as strong a liking for things like graft and machine guns. He was a stirring orator, and those who heard him can testify to the way he could arouse a crowd to strong emotion . . . or make them laugh with his caustic sense of humor. He had a politician's instinctive gift for knowing what would appeal to the people who voted for him.

But there were those who said that he was a potential dictator, a dangerous man. Then, at the peak of his career, he met a dictator's violent end. That was the biggest story of the year . . . the death of Huey Long, cut down by an assassin's bullet.

Remember the year? People could be swayed by oratory that year . . . but not when it came to spending a good sum of money, as in buying a car. Sweet talk didn't work. A "deal" really had to be a good one!

The year was 1935. Sweet talk isn't our stock in trade. Friendly, courteous treatment is . . . and a real desire to give you the best possible deal on a brand new CHEVROLET. We'd rather make less money on a deal today . . . and win a long term friend and customer for tomorrow. So come in and talk trade now. At—

Home Gardner Can Prepare Now For Next Springtime

There are still a few jobs which the home gardener can do now. And doing them will help make the gardening job easier next spring and will add useful life to needed equipment, says B. G. Hancock, extension horticulturist.

The garden site can be cleared of old plant growth including weeds and grass and if the plants were not diseased the material should go into the compost pile, says the specialist. The compost can be used next year for mulching and adding organic matter to the soil. The plant residue may also be plowed under as another method for clearing the garden area.

Dusters and sprayers should be given a thorough cleaning and stored for the winter. Sprayers should be washed out to remove all spray residues and a weak vinegar solution will help. After the cleaning job, Hancock suggests coating the tank and other metal parts with a thin covering of oil.

The duster should be cleaned with a stiff brush. The outside metal parts may be oiled but oil on the inside of the duster will tend to clog the dust that will be used next season.

Most gardeners have left-over chemicals which can be used next season if they are properly stored. Hancock advises storage in a dry place and in airtight containers. All should be carefully labeled and placed out of reach of children.

Left-over seed of many varieties may also be stored for future use if they are placed in tight containers and kept dry. They should be labeled to avoid mistakes on varieties next spring.
