The first of the year, the English Class of Greensburg, Ind., in planning their trip to "the West" picked Muleshoe, Texas, because the name sounded fascinating. They wrote to Mrs. Blackburn, the

Young Honeymooners Continue After Being Detained in Muleshoe

Two young people from Portales, who were on their honeymoon, were detained in Muleshoe Monday, at the request of Portales police.

The girl, only 15 years of age, had left home without parental consent, and she and her young lover were married in Clovis. The parents alerted police and had her picked up.

In Muleshoe they were not put under official arrest but were guests in Judge Williams' office for several hours until the parents drove over here.

Judge Williams, who is also a gospel minister, counseled with all parties concerned for some time, and it was agreed that the marriage would not be annulled, but the parents left here very unhappy.

Williams said the girl claimed her home-life had been almost unbearable to her for many years.

Telephone Facilities Extended In Past Year

The picture above shows George Chapman at the main distributing frame where the 200 additional lines are connected to underground cable. This is where the lines go out of the central office building and eventually connect with our outside distribution cables.

At left is shown Van White and some of the thousands of wires which have been added to the central office equipment for the addition of 200 more numbers for subscribers' service in Muleshoe. Along with the addition of 200 numbers General also added rotary trunk switching to the toll circuits which means that subscribers have accessibility to a greater number of toll circuits out of Muleshoe than a year ago. This equipment will automatically select a toll circuit which is not in use when the subscriber dials for the operator. We have also added additional circuits out of Muleshoe in addition to the rotary switching feature. Many of the wires were added because of the Extended Area Service to Lazbuddie and Needmore which was not available a year ago.

In summation General has spent many dollars all intended for the improvement of telephone service in Muleshoe. People who did not have phones a year ago have them today. Others who had party line service that could not get private lines have their private lines today. Increased long distance facilities have improved the long distance service to points all over the nation from Muleshoe. This is not the end of the story. General is looking to tomorrow and planning today for the future.

Muleshoe Gets 3.59 of Rainfall In Month Of May

Muleshoe received a total of 3.59 inches of rain during the month of May, according to rainfall statistics kept by R. J. Klump.

Mr. Klump breaks the rainfall down to read like this: May 4th, .04; 6th, 2.33; 9th, .24; 15th, .21; 16th, .33; 22nd, .36, and 24th, .02.

This is the largest amount to fall in the month of May since 1951 when the precipitation was 6.86 inches.

MOTHER OF FORMER STATE SENATOR DIES

Mrs. Henry D. Nelson, 84, Linden, mother of G. H. Nelson, former State Senator of this district, died about 10 a.m. Sunday.

Last rites were held Tuesday in Linden, and burial was in the Hughes Springs Cemetery.

Residents of Muleshoe and surrounding communities have witnessed turbulent weather almost daily during the past week, seeing much of the crops critically damaged by hail, and washing rains, and the threat of storms and tornadoes has been out almost nightly.

The crippling hail of last week that wiped out many crops, was followed with drenching rains over much of the county Monday night. Here in Muleshoe the rainfall was gauged at about an inch. North of town, and southwest of town reports ran as high as three inches. In north Bailey County, and southern Castro County, observers said the small grain crops looked like a shredder had been run over them. One wheat crop estimated to have 50 bushels per acre on it, was a total loss, and hail was drifted in high piles.

Again Tuesday night rain and hail cut a swath over the West Plains.

Kirk Holt of the Stegall community told the Journal hail cut a path about 2 miles wide across that area. Cotton and wheat were damaged 75-80 percent, and a barn and overhead storage tank was destroyed by high winds.

Ken Angeley, who farms 13 miles northeast of Muleshoe in the Pleasant Valley community, reports crops damaged badly there Tuesday night, ranging as high as 80 percent.

C. A. Watson of the Lazbuddie community, who saw his crops wiped out by hail last week, had replanted them, only to be washed out again by the 3-inch downfall on Monday night.

This was followed by heavy rains on Wednesday night. The rainfall here in Muleshoe was gauged at 1.12 inches, with varying amounts over the county.

All week long, many West Plains residents have spent much of the time at night in storm cellars. Tuesday night M. M. Nowlin and family came in from Olton at about eleven o'clock and he says they saw a large funnel shape cloud hanging low toward Progress, which caused them to take for cover, and to warn some of the neighbors.

Local weather observers cannot recall in recent years when we had so much turbulent weather coming so close together in day-to-day order.

Meeting Tuesday of Com. Court

Bailey County Commissioners met in a regular meeting Tuesday morning, examined and approved the county bills, and discussed routine court matters.

The court granted a permit to the Pioneer Natural Gas Co., to lay pipeline along the right of way of public roads within the county. This was a matter of fact item since state law permits them to do this anyway.

In other business the court authorized purchase of a new typewriter to be used in the office of Joe Vaughn, Justice of the Peace, and County Service Officer.

Attending the session of the court were County Judge Glen Williams; Mrs. Tom Morgan, Commissioner of Precinct 1; Woodrow Couch, Prec. 2; Bill Eubanks, Prec. 3; R. P. McCall, Prec. 4, and Hazel Gilbreath, County Clerk.

Muleshoe State Bank Will Offer New Customer Service

A new customer service which will enable checking account depositors to obtain pocket checks imprinted with their names and account identification numbers in a matter of a few minutes was announced today by the Muleshoe State Bank.

In addition to its advantages for the depositor, the name-imprinted check program constitutes the first of a series of steps by the Muleshoe State Bank in a program which will bring the modern miracle of electronic processing to the bank.

Before putting the new equipment into use, the bank pointed out, it must first see to it that all the bank's checks bear identification numbers which are vital to the use of the electronic equipment.

Besides the prestige value and distinctive appearance of the personalized checks, the imprinted name insures that payments are properly credited by stores and in turn, charged to the correct bank account, eliminating the possibility of error through an illegible signature.

The bank will put customers' names on some of the checks right at the bank thru use of the new Burroughs Imprinter, a machine whose simplicity of operation makes it feasible for a bank to imprint checks right on its own premises.

The public is invited to see the new electronic equipment on display in the Muleshoe State Bank lobby beginning Monday, June 8.

Merchant Gets Check For One Million Dollars

What kind of feeling would you have if you went to the Post Office some morning and in the mail you found a check for one million dollars? That is exactly what happened to Harvey Bass a few days ago.

Bass, who operates an appliance store in Muleshoe, received a letter from a finance company with which he does business, and in it was a check for one million dollars—a real bonafide negotiable check. After he recovered from shock, he put in a phone call to the company in Amarillo, and received an explanation.

A company official had made a note to the bookkeeper, "Send Harvey Bass a check for 1M". Of course the letter "M" means a thousand, but the bookkeeper must not have known her Roman numerals very well, because she made out the check for a million, and put it in the mail.

With much reluctance, Bass sent the check back to the firm to be replaced by the one for a thousand.

How about that?

The two have taken an active interest in club, church, and civic affairs. Mr. White is now serving as president of the Rotary Club and is superintendent of the Sunday School of the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. White will assist her husband in the operation of the newly purchased store. The store is well located, occupies a modern building, and its fixtures are very modern. The Whites expressed keen regret at leaving Muleshoe, where they said they have been very happy with the community and its people.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL * OUR STRENGTH

Proper Placement Of Fertilizer

Many farmers no doubt have applied the rate of fertilizer recommended for higher yields and have been disappointed with the results. They may have blamed the fertilizer, and unjustly so, for it may have been improper placement that was to blame. Proper placement of fertilizer is as important as proper amounts.

The fertilizer practices that work well for one farmer may well differ from those used by another. Each must decide which practice he will choose. In order to make the right decision, a farmer must understand the principles of proper practice.

Proper placement means putting the fertilizer in the soil in a way that minimizes injury to the seedling or plant, and permits maximum nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium to be absorbed at the time they are needed by the plant.

The rooting zone of all plants must have adequate quantities of plant nutrients in the proper balance to produce maximum yields. Poorer results are usually obtained from broadcasting fertilizers than by placing it in barns, due to the fact that broadcasting reduces the concentration and more is either leached out or tied up by the lime in our soils.

Also, when the concentration is reduced, the plant must grow many more roots to take up the same amount of fertilizer that could be taken if the

Parmer County Farm Bureau News

Farm Labor Regulations: The Department of Labor has announced in a letter that the tentative date for a hearing with regard to the proposed labor regulations as set for June 1, 1959 has been postponed and no new date has been fixed at this time. The letter further indicates that no regulations will be promulgated until after the public hearing has been held.

We believe this indicates there will be no new regulations affecting this year's farming operations, at least. Labor Secretary Mitchell was stymied, it appears, when opposition was as widespread as it was, to his proposal to put farmers under the same wage and hour laws as industry is under. Local, state and American Farm Bureau led the storm of protest with the cooperation of many retailers and others whose future depended on stopping the move.

John Henderson, of Black; Gilbert Kaltwasser, Farwell; Vernon Symcox, Farwell; Roy V. Miller and Harry Hamilton; Friona, and many others have been in with letters and telegrams replying to their protests to the labor proposition. They came from the office of the Vice-President, several senators and congressmen and other officials. All the letters were not favorable, but they gave the men an insight into the attitudes of many of them.

The States Rights bill is again being introduced in Congress, and if Texas people can get their senator (L. Johnson) to vote for it, it could become law this year. He opposed it last year and his vote material was banded.

When fertilizer is placed in bands it should be at least 2 inches below and 2 inches to the side of the seed. When fertilizer is placed too close, it may cause poor germination of seed or injury to the plant. Moisture becomes limited because the concentration of salts in the soil moisture is greater than the concentration of salts in the moisture in the seed or plant. Since moisture moves toward the areas of highest concentration, the seed or plant may actually lose some of its moisture, or dehydrate. This condition is commonly called "fertilizer burn."

For more information about proper fertilization placement, contact your local fertilizer dealer, county agent, or SCS technician at the Blackwater Valley Soil Conservation District office in Muleshoe.

TO WHEAT HARVEST

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Collins and their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Richardson, of Lubbock, spent the weekend at Crowell with the Donald Harrisons, who are in the wheat harvest thereabouts.

Senator Humphrey is pushing "Civil Rights" legislation again, to tell you what color people to hire to keep out of jail. This legislation is entirely un-American in our opinion, and we hope opposition will be strong enough to keep it out of our statutes.

Use Credit With Care Is Advised

College Station, June 2 — "Credit is not a substitute for income."

Extension Economist A. B. Wooten points out that credit should be used to buy consumer goods only when some income is reasonably certain. Because farm and home needs overlap, it is important for the farm family to coordinate their needs. The farmer and homemaker should agree on how and where credit should be used.

According to the economist, the use of credit can help many farm people attain a desirable level of living, but misuse, he warns, often results in much unhappiness. There is a difference, he points out, between credit used for production purposes and that used for consumption. Production credit helps provide an income that will exceed the amount of money borrowed, while consumer credit is a way of spending money in advance of anticipated income.

Successful farm families must distinguish between necessities and wants and spend accordingly, he says. And, he adds, credit of the installment

Man Admits Forging Check

The Bailey County Sheriff's Department, with the cooperation of the Lamb and Hale County Sheriff's officers, had a man charged with forgery in jail within three hours after the complaint was signed.

A Muleshoe negro, who was picked up in Hale Center, signed a confession, stating he forged the name of Clarence E. Mason, Muleshoe farmer and rancher to a $30 check and cashed it.

He is being held in jail here pending the posting of $1,000 bond.

Linda Lue Lancaster, Charles W. Lenau Pledge Vows Here Sunday

MRS. CHARLES LENUA

Miss Linda Lou Lancaster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Lancaster, 1520 West Ave. C, and Charles W. Lenau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julian E. Lenau, 115 Ave. D, were married at 4:00 p.m. Sunday in the First Methodist Church with the Rev. Edwin L. Hall performing the double-ring ceremony.

Vows were exchanged before an altar banded with greenery, white tapers and baskets of white stock, yellow daisies and encalypts, centered with an arrangement of the same flowers beneath a lighted cross. On the communion table was an open Bible marked with one perfect yellow rose. The chancel rail was decorated with arrangements of greenery and tiered candles containing white candles. Pews were marked by yellow bows and daisies.

Don Copley sang "Whither Thou Goest", "Because of You", and "Wedding Prayer". LaVon Copley played traditional wedding marches.

When her father gave her in marriage, the bride was wearing a gown of ivory silk taffeta fashioned with figure bodice, portrait neckline and short shirred sleeves, complemented by long white kid gloves. The princess lines of the bodice extended into the bouffant skirt which was accented with unpressed hip pleats terminating in an aisle wide court train. The front panel of the skirt was detailed with applied lover's knots encrusted with sequins and pearls. The double tiered illusion veil fell from a Juliet cap of lace and taffeta studded with pearls and formed a face veil. Her bouquet was a present of daisies, yellow roses and stephanotis. For something old she wore pearls, a gift from the bridegroom. The pearls were an anniversary present given by Charles' maternal grandfather, the late W. L. Koen, to his wife and they were greatly treasured by her until her passing.

For something new, Linda wore in one of her pearlized white sandals a new penny given to her by her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Denny Neal of Temple. In her other sandal she had another penny loaned her by the matron of honor, Mrs. Cleston Payne of El Paso, who wore it in her own wedding.

For something borrowed, the bride carried a white lace handkerchief belonging to her aunt, Beatrice Allman.

Something blue was a blue garter made for her to wear by her two aunts, Mrs. M. E. Neal and Mrs. Beatrice Allman from Temple.

Identical gowns of yellow embroidered organdy over taffeta were worn by Mrs. Cleston Payne of El Paso, matron of honor, Mrs. Archie Pool, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Snider of Amarillo; Jennice Marks and Mrs. J. O. Stacy and Eula Belle of Anton; and Mrs. Stella Brunson of Lubbock.

Miss Pam Lenau and Don Lenau lighted the candles. Paul Lenau, cousin of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Mrs. D. B. Lancaster wore an ivory linen sheath with bodice accent of pointed lace inserts. Her matching hat was of braided ivory ribbon and sequins. With the dress she wore iridescent crystal jewelry and pearlized bone pumps and carried a beaded bag with a matching lace handkerchief. Her corsage was talisman roses.

Mrs. Julia Lenau wore a soft shirtwaist dress of shadowed embroidered unpressed pleats and short cap sleeves. Her imported Italian hat of woven straw covered with orange blossoms, white gloves, beaded bag and pearlized white pumps, and yellow glamelia corsage completed her ensemble.

At the ensuing reception, directed by Mrs. Noel Woodley, in the home of the bride's parents, Miss Myrtle Lenau of Hobart, Okla., aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. M. E. Neal and Mrs. Beatrice Allman of Temple, aunts of the bride, presided at the bridal table covered with a white taffeta scalloped cloth over a gathered white net skirt and centered with the four-tiered wedding cake. Two roses and orange blossoms.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Charles L. Lenau, aunt of the bridegroom. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Lenau, Mr. and Mrs. Julian E. Lenau, Mrs. Denny Neal of Temple, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. C. W. Lenau, of Hobart, Okla., grandmother of the bridegroom. Other members of the house party were Mrs. Noel Woodley, Mrs. Troy Wilkerson, Mrs. Pat Bobo, Mrs. A. E. Lewis, and Mrs. David Anderson.

Jennice Marks played soft piano music throughout the reception.

For a wedding trip to points in New Mexico, the bride wore a beige linen tussah sheath with beige linen bottom, and bow detail. She wore a delphinium blue flower hat and gloves with bone accessories. Her corsage from the groom was blue roses. The couple will make their home for the summer months at 2512 21st St., in Lubbock.

Stanton, Tex., Man Reports—

Better Grade, Increased Yields on Cotton

Wallace Kelly, successful West Texas farmer, says: "Side dressing of Phillips 66 Ammonia on cotton has really paid off for me. Since starting to use ammonia, I have increased my cotton lint yield at least 1/2 bale to the acre. When the cotton starts squaring, I apply my first side dressing—75 pounds of Phillips 66 Ammonia. This is followed with another side dressing of ammonia in August. Not only have my yields improved, but I'm also getting a grade better at the gin."

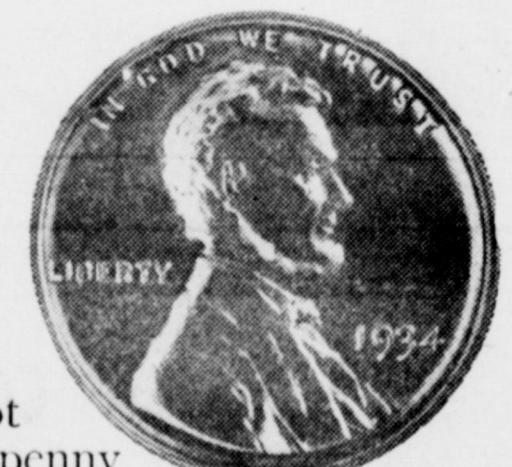

Other successful Southwestern farmers have discovered that they make more profit per acre, using Phillips 66 Ammonia. They get more cotton that classes higher at the gin... yields of sorghum grain or ensilage are increased... profits on wheat and small grains are increased through higher grain yields and improved forage... more marketable vegetables are harvested.

Phillips 66 Ammonia can be applied pre-plant or as a side dressing. It can be easily applied either by you or your distributor. See us today about Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia... it gives you more nitrogen per dollar than any other form of fertilizer—a full 82%.

Cotton Outlook Dim, Farmers Told

The outlook for cotton farmers faced with a Congressional move to limit price support loans to $50,000 appears very dim, officials of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., said Monday after returning from Washington where they consulted with both Representatives and Senators and had a special session with Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson.

Wilmer Smith, Vice-President of the PCG, and George W. Pfeifferberger, Executive Vice-President, were in Washington last week to attend the Universal Cotton Standards Conference when news of support limitations broke. Pfeifferberger explained that they worked with representatives of the National Cotton Council in opposing such limitations. He added that a Senate proposal is due for presentation some time this week and calls for action on price support limitations to start in 1960. An earlier House measure called for such limitations to begin this crop year. Meet With Sen. Johnson Smith, Pfeifferberger, and Ed Bush of the Texas Ginners' Association met with Senator Johnson last Wednesday to express opposition to the limitations measure and ask that a committee be set up to study effects of such a proposal. Johnson gave the group little assurance that such a committee could be instigated, and Pfeifferberger said the group then asked, "That if Congress deemed limitations on farm participation in price supports inevitable and $50,000 is the ceiling that the Congress believes is necessary—then we would like to see the $50,000 amount for non recourse loans to buy any one farmer applied only at the time the loan is called."

"This means that a farmer could obtain recourse loans in excess of $50,000 during the marketing year to facilitate orderly marketing, but he would be required to reduce his loan balance by the end of the marketing year to a maximum of $50,000," Pfeifferberger added.

"Our group is still strongly opposed to price support limitations, but the outlook in Washington is dim and if they are to be instigated, we feel such a program as this would at least help our members," Smith explained. "Recent publicity on huge farm surpluses have caused a build-up of public opinion that has been expressed to Congressmen and little hope is now seen of forestalling such a bill as this one on limitations," Smith added. Pfeifferberger said that no study on what effect such a limitations measure would have on the entire cotton industry has been made. It could affect our farmers in many ways and we feel it should be investigated more before the measure becomes law, but such a study now seems impossible before passage.

Far Reaching Effect The National Cotton Council reported Monday that because of the far-reaching implications and unknown effect of limitations, Senator Stennis (D-Miss.) proposed that no limitation be imposed until Senate Agricultural Committee could study the problem. When this effort failed, Stennis attempted to soften impact of committee action. His proposal would give that $50,000 limit would apply only to type of Loans CCC now makes which do not have to be repaid by the farmer. No limit, however, would be placed on amount of recourse loans farmers could obtain from the CCC. Stennis' effort failed in full committee on a tie vote. Later, on the Senate floor, Stennis discussed this proposal and urged Senators to study it carefully. The bill is scheduled for action on the Senate floor this week.

Limitations Outlined Smith said that PCG officials agreed with Council analysis which stated that limitations would: 1. Destroy the orderly marketing system. 2. Depress prices and hurt all farmers, particularly small ones. 3. Increase rather than decrease government stocks of farm commodities. "While $50,000 sounds like a large amount, remember this represents gross, not net, income to a farmer. Cotton thus forced on the market, instead of being orderly marketed with the aid of the loan, will depress market prices and hurt all farmers," Smith said.

Pfeifferberger said PCG officials are continuing their vigil on the limitation proposal and will do all possible in the fight against this program. Texas Congressman George Mahon and Walter Rogers, along with Senators Johnson and Ralph Yarborough, voted against the limitation measure an dhaye tried to help fight such action.

WAS IT A TORNADO? Many Muleshoe residents watched this boiling cloud last Thursday afternoon with awe and trepidation. The rolling, churning turbulence remained in the area just northeast of downtown Muleshoe for a quarter of an hour during the rain and hail storm. No one reported seeing the cloud touch the ground, but it had folks worried.

Changes Noted In Social Security Benefits

A number of changes were made in Federal social security benefits by the last session of Congress. According to John G. Hutton, manager of the Lubbock social security office, one of these important changes was the elimination of the need to offset the amount of certain other benefits against social security disability benefit payments.

This change was very important to over 50,000 people who had already been found eligible under the disability provisions of the social security law, but were receiving other disability payments. These were the individuals who were receiving State Workmen's Compensation payments or a Federal payment for disability — other than compensation from the Veterans Administration for a service connected disability. Until the 1958 amendments to the law, the individual's social security disability benefit payment was reduced or, in many cases, completely offset by the amount of the other payment.

Drip Dry Fabrics

Dripping is essential for smooth drying of cotton and rayons with a minimum-care finish. For best results, lift the clothes from the rinse water after laundering. Hang smoothly on a hanger. Don't wring, twist or squeeze to remove water.

As the water drips off, it smooths out creases or wrinkles left from laundering. A final touch-up with the iron may be needed to make hems, seams, and edges as smooth as new.

Some of the synthetic fibers, as dacron, also have this drip-dry quality. Clothes made of these synthetics will be wrinkle-free when dry only if lifted from the rinse water and hung to dry with the least possible handling. The more they drip, the smoother they dry.

Cleaning Upholstery On Foam Rubber

Much of the newer furniture is cushioned with foam rubber and upholstered with fabric. Women are asking if the fabric can be cleaned at home without damage to the foam rubber.

Yes—Just be sure to use a safe cleaning agent.

Select your cleaning agent by considering first, the nature of the stain, next the type of fabric, and lastly the effect of the cleaning agent on foam rubber.

Soaps, detergents, glycerine, denatured alcohol, benzene, carbon tetrachloride, sodium hydrosulfate, sodium thiosulfate, and a weak solution of ammonia are acceptable cleaning agents as far as the foam rubber is concerned.

Carbon tetrachloride should be used very sparingly. It is a rubber solvent.

Normal rubbing of the outside covering on light or fixed seats will not harm the foam rubber cushion. Foam rubber is tender when wet but its normal strength returns when dry.

Cleaning agents that do have a harmful effect on foam rubber are of the bleaching and oxidizing types. The following are not recommended: Vinegar, turpentine, acetone, chlorine, hydrogen peroxide, oxalic acid, and sodium perborate.

If the nature of the stain or the type of the fabric calls for the use of one of the above cleaning agents, the fabric must be removed from the foam rubber and cleaned separately.

Removing Food Odors From The Freezer

Summer months may mean that you will be restocking the food freezer with plentiful fruits, vegetables and other foods.

You may need to freshen the inside of your freezer, and make sure there are no odors before adding more packages.

Here are some suggestions for freshening the freezer.

First, try washing interior surfaces of the freezer with plenty of soap and water. Then go over them with a cloth wrung from clear water. Wipe dry. If this does not dispel the odor, wash the freezer with soda water, using 1 teaspoon baking soda to each quart of warm water. If odor persists, try vinegar, using about one-half cup to two quarts of water, or try household ammonia in the same proportions.

BABSON DISCUSSES...

Ten Commandments For Small Investors

Babson Park, Mass., June 4 — A small investor should first buy a little stock in the best bank in his community. Not only is this a safe investment; but it gives him prestige and a source of advice on financial matters. After buying the stock, he should get personally acquainted with the chief executive officer, who may be the President, Vice-President, or Cashier.

(1) Life Insurance And A Home
 Theoretically, if we are entering into an age of inflation and you are likely to live twenty years or so, life insurance should not be a good investment. You had better put the money into a small home with an adjoining vacant lot. However, you may not live 20 years, or even five years, in which case a life insurance policy would be your very best investment.

(2) Buy Well-Diversified Common Stocks
 These should be listed on the New York Stock Exchange and approved by your banker friend or by a seasoned investment counselor. They should be common stocks of companies without large bond issues or cumulative preferred issues.

(3) Watch Labor Relations
 The greatest clouds on the investment horizon today are creeping Socialism in Government and unreasonable Labor Leaders. Perhaps the safest rule is to buy the stocks of companies which have just been through long and difficult strikes, with a final settlement satisfactory to all. These companies should be free from major strikes for a considerable time.

(4) Buy For Cash
 Put the certificates in a safe deposit box in the bank of which you have bought stock. If you have all your stock certificates paid for, and will hold them, you cannot be wiped out when the next panic and depression comes; good stocks always "come back." But those who buy on borrowed money or on margin usually suffer total loss.

(5) Importance of Patience
 For every stock buyer there must be a seller, irrespective of the price. Stocks go up when more people are impatient to buy, while stocks go down when more people are impatient to sell. Buy your stocks when other people are frightened and anxious to sell. Fortunes are made by bucking — not by following — the crowd, which is usually wrong.

(6) Importance of Facts
 Depend upon what the published manuals report, rather than upon tips by brokers or friends. You can always consult the manual's on file in the Trust Department of your friendly bank, free of charge.

The Trust Officer will gladly help you interpret these printed reports.

(7) Investing For Income and Growth
 The small investor should buy for Income and Growth rather than for speculation. I believe that the stocks of Public Utilities offer the best such opportunities. Later on, you can learn to buy for profit.

(8) Consider Companies Owning Land And Natural Resources
 The Government can print unlimited amounts of bonds and money; corporations can print more stock certificates and build more plants; but only God can make more land, oil, gas, and minerals.

(9) Importance of Character
 The value of stocks depends very largely upon the managements. This is something you must talk over with your banker. The manuals, card files, and other publications of the Trust Officer do not disclose the character of the managements. Managements are apt to be the best in companies producing useful products rather than in the liquor business, for instance, or even in companies dependent upon fashion and other intangibles.

(10) Importance of Correct Timing
 Stock prices have always moved in cycles of several years' duration. Each cycle consists of four periods: — Prosperity, Decline, Depression and Improvement. Your banker will tell you it is unwise to buy for profit in a period of prosperity, as at present, or even in a decline. Wait for a depression when your friends are all bearish and the future looks dark. Such a time will come again, to be followed by improvement and a period of great prosperity.

Safety Director Warns Against Road Fatalities

AUSTIN, June 2 — The Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety warned today a "definite upward trend" in Texas traffic deaths has been established this year even before the heavy summer-holiday travel season.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., said unless something happens to change the trend, it could mean that an all-time record of traffic deaths could be in the making for 1959.

He said the death toll appears to be leveling off at about 10 per cent above 1958, when 2,342 traffic victims were counted, and pointed out this could mean 233 additional deaths this year if the pace is maintained.

All-Time High Predicted
 "With travel up an estimated three per cent this year, and with the Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving and the Christmas holidays yet to come, this could mean we're driving for an all-time high in motor deaths on the streets and highways of Texas," Garrison said.

Garrison reported that as of Friday noon, May 29, at least 833 persons were killed in traffic, compared with 753 during the same period of 1958 — an increase of 11 per cent.

"This means 80 more lives were lost in traffic violence," he said. "We appeal to every driver to observe these cold, hard statistics and realize those summer trips are potentially more dangerous this year than last."

"We also must realize it is extremely likely that one of the biggest killers on the long, hot summer road is fatigue — an insidious demon that can attack even those of us who observe all the other known safe-driving practices. "Our statistics cannot reflect how many traffic deaths are caused by fatigue, only that the death car was on the wrong side of the road, ran off the road, or rammed into a slower-moving vehicle. They cannot tell us that the driver was asleep, or nodded at the wrong split-second.

"Don't let your vacation enthusiasm cause you to drive when you should be resting. Don't push yourself to make up for lost time. Don't get caught napping at the wheel."

Today's Meditation

Read John 12:30-36. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you; for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. (John 12: 35, 36.)

If ever the world needed a gripping Christianity, it is today. Atheism, sweeping across Asia, is forcing Christianity under. Unless we are prepared to meet it with ideas born of Christ, rather than primarily with armament and nuclear weapons, disaster lies ahead. When Christ came to earth to save humanity, He did not choose Rome, the center of the world-ruling Empire. He sought no office. He wrote no books. The mighty did not accept Him.

But to the little circle of His friends, He became a flaming fire. He gave them new conceptions of selfless service to others, of the depths of divine love, of the power of God in daily life.

In this time of profound world need, God is calling upon us. He did upon Christ's disciples of old. He calls us to spread the flame of Christianity among those close to us and to set the world on fire with the gospel and spirit of Jesus Christ.

PRAYER

O God, give us courage, understanding, and love like unto Christ's. May He shine out through our lives so that we may win for Thee all those whom we touch. In His holy name we pray. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
 In the face of the world's need, our need is to live for Christ.

—Francis B. Sayre (District of Columbia)

Sandhills Philosopher Doubts... White-Collar Farming Would Be Less Tiring Than Present Kind

Editor's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm discusses the future of work this week. We guess that's what he's doing.

Dear editor: When a man doesn't know any more about what's happened in the past than I do, he hasn't got much business predicting what's going to happen in the future, but I'm always interested in what somebody else has to say about it.

For example, I was reading an article last night in a newspaper a neighbor handed me earlier in the day because he said he didn't have time to read it, too busy working that predicted that in 10 years "the ancient image of work as something manual and tedious will be fading rapidly and most workers will be wearing white collars."

This does not leave me altogether satisfied, I mean, while the ancient image of work as something hard may fade in the next ten years, I figure work itself will stay around quite a while longer.

And as for wearing a white collar, this doesn't appeal to me at all. That is, I guess I could wear a white collar now, with a tie, but going up one row and down another on a tractor would still be the same. Even changing collars at noon, because the one you started out plowing in that morning is bound to be dusty by mid-day, still wouldn't fade any images of work, as far as I'm concerned. You can get just as tired from white-collar farming as you can from the open-neck kind.

I'll admit the machine has eliminated a lot of work, but what some people don't seem to realize is that it's caused a lot of other work, too. I long ago noticed that a man who graduates from a tractor with two-row equipment to one with four-row equipment doesn't work half as much as he did before, he just takes on twice as much land and still goes from sun-up to sun-down. I'm not equipped to figure it up myself, but it would be interesting to know how many hours of work scientists and inventors have put in perfecting labor-saving devices, how many hours workers have put in building them, and how many hours consumers have put in working to afford them.

The way I see it, some sort of work is likely to occupy man for some time to come. Putting on a white collar doesn't fool me. I've seen bankers, druggists, doctors, store keepers, school teachers, etc., come home just as tired from work as a farmer. I don't believe science can invent the type of collar that'll keep a person from getting tired.

Yours faithfully,
 J. A.

It's The Law In Texas

YOUR CHILD AND THE DOCTOR

It's a good idea to give written consent for necessary medical care if your child leaves home for a visit or a camping trip, or if you plan to be away for any length of time.

For example, a summer camp nurse may bring a boy into a hospital with an acute case of appendicitis. But the doctor may well hesitate to go ahead and operate without the parents' consent.

Is the doctor arbitrary, and is such permission just a legal technicality? No, he is well within his rights, though he may give first aid—but only for emergency treatment where a child's health or life may be at stake. He is likely to put off follow-up care until he can reach the child's parents. A relative or baby sitter generally cannot grant consent for a child's treatment.

Even an adult must request treatment and grant consent to medical care on his own before a doctor can give it to him. Children cannot do this. By going to your doctor you show your willingness and consent to accept his treatment. Your consent is assumed also when you ask for a house call by the doctor or if as a result of an accident you come to a hospital for emergency treatment. If you are unconscious, the doctor may well give you emergency care, yet later he should get your consent to further treatment.

Minors cannot consent to medical treatment, and except in dire emergencies their parents or guardians must give it for them.

The consent should be broadly or loosely phrased, but should be as specific as circumstances permit.

The principal reason for having the consent in writing is to avoid later misunderstandings. It is a protection both to the patient and physician.

Washington News Letter
 From Lyndon B. Johnson
 U. S. Senator

Dear Friend: A lot of you have asked why I voted for the Kennedy-Ervin labor bill, and I thought this might be a good time to answer that question.

The bill was approved in the Senate by a vote of 90 to one. Let's look at a few of the many good reasons for this overwhelming support. For instance, as approved by the Senate, it:

• Sets up strong bars against persons convicted of serious crimes from serving as union officers.

• Spells out the fact that union members have a right to know what is going on in their union.

• Requires that unions make available to each member—and lay open to public inspection—full financial and administrative reports.

• Guarantees, as safeguards in the conduct of union elections; a secret ballot; written notice of all elections to each member and opportunity to nominate opposing candidates.

• Further, this law would prohibit picketing for extortion or to obtain employer pay-offs—and provides as a penalty not only a heavy fine but up to 20 years in prison.

It closes a "no-man's land" in labor-management relations by authorizing state agencies to assume control over labor cases in which the National Labor Relations Board does not take jurisdiction.

I believe this bill will mark a major step in throwing out hoodlums and racketeers.

The law spells out a "bill of rights" of union members. Certain fundamental rights are guaranteed by the law—and where a member is denied any of these rights, he can go into court and ask that justice be done.

This is aimed at one thing: to insure that honest American working men and working women will run all unions in our country.

TAX MAN SAM SAYS

After April 15 ever year thousands of Texans heave a sigh of relief at having the income tax business out of the way for another year. Of course, you don't ever complete your income tax business. The things you do throughout the year will affect your taxes. Everyday you earn money or buy or sell something. All of these day by day dealings add up to determine the amount of income tax you will owe for the year. If you are one of those people who have recently bought a few shares of stock in the stock market the date of buying or selling can make a big difference. May I sing the same song and the same verse,

How the armour of righteousness enables man to withstand the attacks of evil will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

In the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced", passages read from the Bible will include (Ephesians 6:11): "Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil."

Correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include (371:15): "At all times and under all circumstances, overcome evil with good. Know thyself, and God will supply the wisdom and the occasion for a victory over evil. Clad in the panoply of Love, human hatred cannot reach you. The cement of a higher humanity will unite all interests in the one divinity."

CHEVY BESTS

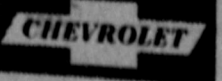

7 (COUNT 'EM) 7

Independent experts and official facts and figures prove Chevrolet's ahead of its field in seven big ways.

BEST BRAKES... In direct competitive tests of repeated stops from highway speeds, conducted by N.A.S.C.A.R., Chevy out-stopped both the other leading low-priced cars—and why not: Chevy brakes are far larger, built with bonded linings for up to 66% longer life. BEST TRADE-IN... Check the figures in any N.A.D.A. Guide Book. You'll find that Chevy used car prices last year averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the "other two." BEST STYLE... Popular Science magazine sums it up: "The fact is, in its price class the Chevy establishes a new high in daring styling... It's the only car of the leading low-priced three that's unmistakably modern in every line."

BEST ECONOMY... No doubt about this: two Chevrolet Sixes won their class in the famous Mobilgas Economy Run, got the best mileage of any full-size car. BEST ROOM... Official dimensions reported to A.M.A. make this clear. For example, Chevy front seat hip room is up to 5.9 inches wider than comparable cars. BEST

ENGINE... Every motor magazine has given Chevy's standard and Corvette V8's unstinted praise. As Sports Cars Illustrated puts it: "Indeed, this device is surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price." BEST RIDE... You'll be able to tell this yourself, instantly. But Motor Trend magazine expresses it this way: "... the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class."

Make sure you get the most for your money—see your local authorized Chevrolet dealer!
