Shown above, Myron Pool, Lee Pool and D. B. Lancaster of Muleshoe look on as Governor Rogers signs an order declaring the week of July 27 to August 1 "Bailey County Vegetable Week."

Local Group Helps Honor Andy Rogers

Several Muleshoe people were on hand in Austin last Monday to help honor State Governor Andy Rogers as he became Governor of Texas for a day.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sooter and small son drove down and were on hand for early parts of the big event. Myron Pool, Lee Pool, and D. B. Lancaster flew down by plane Thursday. They were in his office at noon and were photographed with the "Governor" and later attended the dinner in his honor at the Villa Capri, where some 600 friends and well wishers were on hand to honor the popular young senator.

Myron Pool said it was a very intriguing event—that Rogers' friends really went all-out to make the one-day affair one that would always be a red letter day in his life.

C of C Appoints Committees To Plan Projects

In a meeting of the directors of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce Monday night, the annual budget was set up.

Dr. George Chambers was appointed chairman of a Program of Work committee to submit a program to be carried out for the rest of the year. They in turn will name a committee to outline proposed projects which the Chamber hopes to get started in the near future.

The summer sales committee will hold another meeting shortly to further plans for summer business promotions.

Chamber manager Carroll Pouncey gave a report of his course of study which he took in Colorado last week. He spoke very highly of the training course, and thought he received a vast amount of valuable information.

Nine Tractors Work Tipton Land Wednesday

Nine tractors were in the S. T. Tipton field last Wednesday, working out his crops.

Mr. Tipton, 88, was driving his tractor down the road July 1, and was involved in a tractor accident, suffering a fractured leg. Since that time he has not been able to continue his regular daily plowing in the fields.

Also one day this week the superintendent of Tipton Orphanage in Tipton, Okla., was here visiting with Mr. Tipton. He has donated 80 acres of land to the orphanage.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Muleshoe, uniquely named in memory of a very famous old West cattle brand, is the capitol of the West Plains of Texas; and

WHEREAS, The good citizens of Muleshoe and Bailey County are blessed with a salubrious climate, verdant fields, productive soils, and abundant, pure water, and

WHEREAS, The production and processing of fresh vegetables is a new addenda to the long list of agricultural pursuits of the citizens of Bailey County;

NOW, THEREFORE, I Andy Rogers, Acting Governor of Texas, do hereby proclaim the week of July 27 through August 1, 1959, as Bailey County Vegetable Week and call upon all citizens to observe the occasion by using and serving the fruits of the rich West Plains Soil to the benefit of the health and economy of the entire region.

COUNTY AGENT CAUTIONS AGAINST CHEMICALS FOR FLEA HOPPERS

"A very rapid increase in flea hopper populations in Bailey County cotton fields during the week" was noted by J. K. Adams, County Agricultural agent.

"Beneficial insects are also building up rapidly and may be able to afford adequate control to allow cotton to hold sufficient fruit for maximum production", he said.

Early season chemical control of cotton insects should be discontinued 30 days before bollworms usually appear but in case of extremely heavy flea hopper damage, it may be necessary to resort to chemicals, and keep a close watch for boll worm in August and September, Adams added.

Regarding the cotton crops here, and the diseases to which they have been exposed, he said:

"It's rather ironic to 'holler wolf' so quickly after the rains most of the High Plains has experienced. But we are finding that in many places frequent rains have held soil to almost saturation condition. Roots of plants have not had to penetrate deep to get moisture but are rather shallowly rooted. This applies to cotton and grain sorghum.

Therefore if it should quit showering a few nights and we would have a week or ten days of dry hot weather no doubt the crops would wilt and need quick irrigation especially if feed has reached boot stage or when cotton is approaching bloom stage.

The farmer should examine the depth of root system of his crops, examine soil moisture first and second foot of soil and watch crops carefully so as to avoid moisture stress. Unusual conditions this year will require careful moisture control. Feed in boot stage can use up to three tenths of an inch of water per day. Cotton in bloom stage uses about the same. The farmer must watch the above the above conditions and use his best judgement.

Commissioners Have Quite Day In Monday Session

The Bailey County Commissioners Court met in regular session Monday, July 13. While they were in session most of the day, and discussed a number of projects, they actually passed no measures of serious consequences.

An order was passed asking that a roll be prepared of all delinquent taxes, at the request of the State tax agency. This detail will be handled by the county tax office.

The bills were checked by members of the court and okayed and marked to be paid.

MRS. HART, MRS. WAGNON GOLF PLAY-DAY WINNERS

Ruby Hart won a ball for most fives and Janet Wagnon won low net honors with a 69 in the monthly playday for the Ladies Golf Association, at the Country Club Wednesday.

Nine members took part in the play. The association members held a business meeting prior to the golf session.

Plans In Making For Central Emergency Reporting Station

Confessed Wife Beater Leaves Muleshoe Minus Hunk Of Cash

Electric Storm Chases People Into Cellars

The electrical storm that rolled in from the northwest Tuesday night, caused a large number of our population to hustle for underground shelters like a bunch of prairie dogs.

There were severe streaks of lightning crossed the sky accompanied by rumblings of thunder, but when it all cleared away about all the damage that had been done was to the jagged nerves of the people. It was accompanied by .24 inches of rain, making the total for the month of July at 1.28.

In other parts of the community, the rain was heavier. At Lazbuddie, about three-quarters of an inch has been reported for Tuesday night.

Flames Damage Harrison Home, Local Landmark

Quick and efficient work on the part of the Volunteer Fire Department saved a two story house, one of Muleshoe's landmarks, from total destruction Monday.

Fire was discovered in the Walter Harrison home, 4 miles northwest of the city, by a motorist, who told Ted Harrison, a son of Walter about it, and Ted notified the department. The Harrison family was in northeastern Colorado doing custom wheat combining.

The top story, consisting of two rooms, was badly damaged, and furniture in one of the rooms was destroyed. But Ted, firemen and neighbors moved all furniture and appliances, clothing, etc., from the main floor, even to the carpets. It was surmised that the blaze started at the top of the residence, perhaps from defective wiring.

The house and 18 acres around it were owned for many years by the late Jess Mitchell, a former owner and editor of The Muleshoe Journal.

Earl Ladd, fire chief, said that all the water the firemen had to douse the flames was what was carried to the place in the two fire trucks.

ATTENDS FORD SCHOOL

Sam Cook, parts manager for Muleshoe Motor Co., Ford, Mercury, and Lincoln dealers here, attended a school on Ford car air conditioning. The school was held last week at the Ford assembly plant in Dallas.

Wind, Hail & Rain Cut Swath At Lazbuddie

A wind and hail storm swooped down into the Lazbuddie community late Wednesday, and cut a swath across the community, wiping out crops, tearing down power lines, TV antennas, and wrecking havoc in general.

Center of the storm area was just east of the school. It seemed to run contrary to usual form for such storms, moving from the northeast to the southwest.

While the damage was very rough where it hit, it did not cover nearly the area as reports had it in Muleshoe the County Judge Glen Williams assessed a fine of $200 and court costs against a man who pleaded guilty to charges here Thursday of beating his wife. The couple had been picked up here the night before by Sheriff Dee Clements and a member of the Texas Highway Patrol.

The couple had stopped at a filling station in Farwell earlier, and the attendant noticed that the woman was bleeding profusely. So he called authorities, and officers here were alerted.

When stopped here, the woman was bruised and cut about the face where the man had beaten her. They said they were man and wife, but he gave his address as Dallas and she as Breckenridge. He claimed to be a dentist.

The woman was placed in the Muleshoe hospital, where she was treated, and later released. She told Deputy Sheriff Mrs. Irene Splawn she felt sure if the officers had not interfered he would have killed her.

The "Doc" paid his fine and left here on a bus. A relative came over and picked the woman up.

In other routine matters, Sheriff's officers jailed one couple for fighting, one for drunkenness, one for no drivers license and checked out a report made by a local merchant that he saw prowlers whom he suspected were planning to rob his place of business.

Mexican Farm Worker Killed By Lightning

Salazar Antonio Tapia, Mexican National Farm worker on the H. W. Golden farm 27 miles west and south of Muleshoe, was killed by lightning late last Wednesday afternoon in an electrical storm.

He was riding a tractor at the time. Indications are that the tractor continued to move for a distance of almost half a mile after he was struck, until it was stalled by a fence. His body slumped in such a way that he was still on the tractor at the time an ambulance from Singleton Funeral Home brought the body to town where he was pronounced dead.

His home was listed as San Diego de Le Union GTO, Mexico. The Mexican Consulate was notified, who in turn notified his family, but the decision was made to have burial here.

Funeral was held in the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Muleshoe with Fr. Norbert F. Wagner of

Dr. Ray Santos On West Plains Hospital Staff

Dr. Ray E. Santos is a new member of the staff at the West Plains Hospital and Clinic, it was announced here this week.

Dr. Santos is a native Texan, being born at Derby. He graduated from Pearsal high school, received his B. A. Degree from Texas Western at El Paso, M. D. degree from the University of Texas medical branch at Galveston, and served his internship at the Kansas City General Hospital No. 1, in Kansas City, Mo.

His wife, Jo, is a graduate of the University of Texas with a Bachelor of Science, in medical technology. They have moved to Muleshoe and will live at 410 Austin Street.

They are expected a newcomer in their home in mid-August, Dr. Santos said.

Dr. Santos will practice general medicine and surgery here, but says he has special interests in surgery and orthopedics, or broken bones, and their treatment.

Santos, who is 26, was a track and tennis star in his high school years at Pearsal.

Graveside Rites Thursday For Ellis Infant

Funeral services for Melody Ann Ellis, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ellis, Route 2, were held at 4 p.m. Thursday, by Leo Baker, Church of Christ lay minister, in Muleshoe Cemetery graveside rites.

The infant died at 2 a.m. Thursday morning.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ellis of Olton and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Gattlin. Singleton Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Bula Revival Plans Announced

The Rev. John R. Moore, pastor of Bula Baptist Church has announced their summer revival will begin on August 9 and continue thru the 16th.

Morning services will be held at 10 and evening services at 8 o'clock.

The Rev. Wayne Perry, former pastor at Sudan, will do the preaching. Truett Allen of Hobbs, N. M., will be the song leader, and Miss Joyce Thompson, pianist.

Littlefield officiating.

Burial was in the Muleshoe Cemetery with Singleton Funeral Home in charge of the arrangements.

Three local agencies, the Chamber of Commerce, City of Muleshoe and Bailey County, have been coordinating their efforts to set up a central reporting agency for all forms of emergencies, and have been getting along pretty well, but are temporarily stopped, it is reported, due to personnel and financial snags.

Lions See Film On New York Stock Exchange

Hulan Bass, a representative of E. F. Hutton Co., of Lubbock presented the program at the weekly meeting of the Muleshoe Lions Club Wednesday noon. He was introduced by Bobby Alrhart, the program chairman.

He showed a very interesting film, depicting the activities of the New York Stock Exchange.

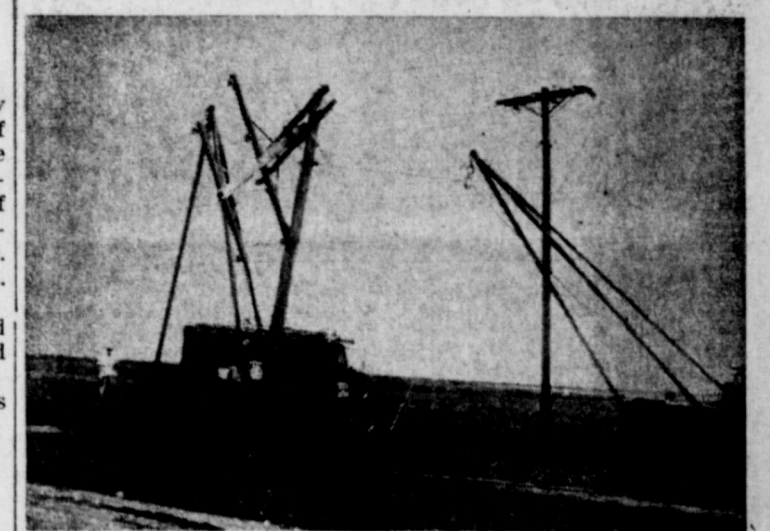

Bill Moore installed a new member into the club, Frank Swint. Visitors were Harvey Bass, Dr. Ray Santos and Bill Millen.

Truman Lindsey presided at the meeting in the absence of Lion Boss Jones.

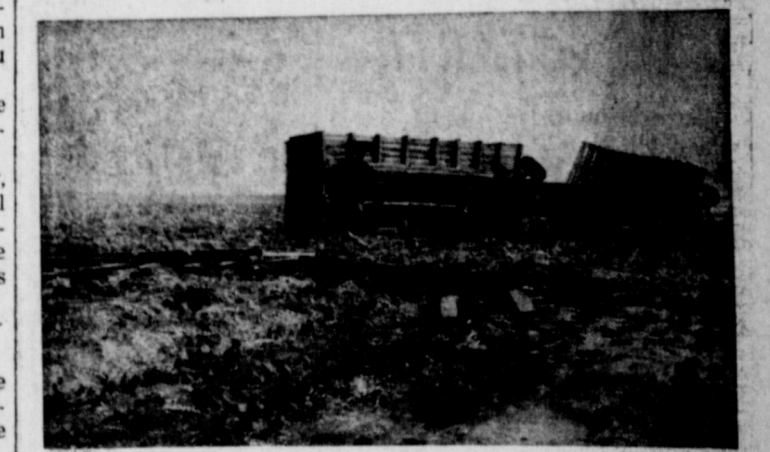

HERE FROM OKLAHOMA CITY

Mrs. C. M. Gamble and son, C. D. and family and a daughter, Mrs. John Dempster of Oklahoma City have been here visiting Mrs. L. L. Cole and other relatives. Mrs. Gamble will remain here for two weeks visit.

STORM TAKES TOLL

Power company linemen are busy here Thursday morning following the storm that hit in the Lazbuddie community late Wednesday. Power line poles were broken off and piled across the road about a mile east of the school house.

Three cotton trailers on the John McGee farm near Lazbuddie were scrambled in the storm, also sheet iron and other pieces of farm machinery were scattered about.

The camera angle rather distorts these small cotton stalks on the R. Pyritz farm, but it shows how severely the cotton was damaged. Just the stubs of the badly beaten up. The heart of the damaged area was about a mile wide and tapered off for a mile or so in either direction.

In Muleshoe THIS WEEK

A phrase we hear more and more, relative to traffic and safety is that of "defensive driving." This is something the driving public should give serious thought.

It is not enough to just obey all traffic rules, and drive your car in a safe manner, as such. Because doing this, you can still become involved in serious trouble.

You not only must keep your car under good control, but you must watch other drivers, and try to prevent them from endangering you.

A matter in point, is a driver whipping out to pass another vehicle just as you approach. To avoid a head-on you may have to move off on the shoulder and give him room to get around. Or you may be driving down the road attending to your own business, and someone coming in from a side road, runs a stop sign and you have trouble keeping from running over him. To avoid accidents in situations like this requires a lot of "defensive driving."

One way in which Texas motorists are certainly becoming defensive minded is that of helping protect each other from radar. Officers can set out their radar unit, and within a few minutes people start signalling traffic approaching the unit.

Not long ago this writer was going from Muleshoe to Sudan on U. S. 84. The drivers of several vehicles blinked their lights, or signaled with their hands. About two miles this side of the roadside. But some people are pretty dumb. The driver just behind us was flagged down. Later we asked the patrolman about him, and was told that the man ran through the radar area doing 72 miles per hour, and applying his brakes.

Residents of Bailey County will notice that Acting Governor Andy Rogers, last Thursday declared the week of July 27 through August 1 as Bailey County Vegetable Week. This was brought about by efforts of a few local people.

When it was learned here early in the month that Rogers would get to sit in for the Governor, the editor of the Journal went into conference with Carroll Pouncey of the Chamber of Commerce and figured out the proposed proclamation, and presented it to Senator Rogers.

Then a group of local people went down to Austin and watched as he signed the proclamation.

Talking Wednesday morning about the electric storm and hail, and such like, Kenneth Pemberton says he has learned one lesson good. Once he was caught out in the rain and hail, so he took refuge under a butane tank. It was fine except the rain ran right down the rounded edge of the tank, and funnelled in on him. "I would have been better off out in the open he said."

This writer has worked around quite a number of newspaper offices in the past 25 years, but we have never seen a bunch of guys like the printers here at The Journal. The only trouble we have is keeping enough material in the shop to keep them busy. You just can't snow them under.

But last week we thought they over did it a bit. Feeling real smart, we came down Wednesday morning 20 minutes early to go to work—and the whole staff was already on the job—making us feel like we were late.

Gaddy Rites Held Here

Funeral services for Mrs. M. D. Gaddy, of the Progress community, Route 2, Muleshoe, were held Friday, July 3, from the First Baptist Church with the pastor, the Rev. E. K. Shepherd officiating, assisted by Rev. J. E. Moore, Baptist minister. She was an active leader in the church.

Mrs. Gaddy, 58, was born in Hillsboro, November, 1900. She married Mr. Gaddy December 22, 1922, in Floydada. They moved here in 1930 from McAdoo.

She is survived by her husband, and two children, Marvin Gaddy of Muleshoe and Rev. Jerrill D. Gaddy of Corpus Christi; her mother, Mrs. Callie Stinnett of Oildale, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. Viola Page of Oildale, Calif., and Mrs. J. E. Lane of Bakersfield, Calif. Also 3 grandchildren.

Pallbearers were J. E. White, Jeff White, Curtis Wellborn, Byron Griffiths, Lee Pool, Myron Pool, Clyde Henry, and M. L. Shipp.

Burial was in Bailey County Memorial Park with Singleton Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Members Bring Rotary Program

Two members of the Rotary Club brought the program at the meeting Tuesday, giving their classification talks. Earl Harris, of Western Auto, whose classification is retail auto parts, discussed various phases of his business, the Western Auto national set-up and related some of its history.

Gordon Doss, of Williams & Merriman accounting firm, classification tax work, told of his work with clients of various professions, businesses, and farming. He told how tax reports are prepared in a few months of the year, and that much of the remainder of the year is spent by tax men in keeping up with changing laws and interpretations.

A guest of the club was H.

H. Potter, former member of the club, now of the Sudan club, who was making up his attendance. Other guests were Dr. Ray E. Santos, a new staff member of the West Plains Hospital, a guest of Dr. W. F. Birdsong; and Mike Miller, guest of his father, Rotarian John Miller.

Use Caution In Handling Sprayer For Insecticides

For those of you who are using ground equipment to spray brush with chemicals, here is a good "rule of thumb" to keep in mind. Always treat the herbicide spraying equipment as if it were contaminated as if it were contaminated.

Dr. Don Huss, professor of range and forestry at Texas A. & M. College tells this story to illustrate. "When the department of range and forestry first started using chemicals to control brush and weeds, a piece of spraying equipment was used to spray a test plot. The sprayer was washed and stored. Several months later the same sprayer was used to spray insects on a plot of plants under a special test, and the plants were nearly all killed. The department knew that the insecticide was not the cause of the plants dying so a study was made to find out what killed them.

"It turned out that the herbicide was still active in the sprayer after it had been washed and stored for a long time," Huss said.

Always treat brush control equipment as if it were contaminated. You may destroy a whole crop if you don't, because herbicides can not be removed completely from spraying equipment.

MR. AND MRS. HENRY KING

McCray-King Wedding Vows Are Exchanged

In the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. McCray, in the Progress community, Glenda McCray became the bride of Henry King, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. King at 10:00 on the morning of Saturday, July 4. Rev. Cone Merritt, pastor of the Progress Baptist Church and a close friend of the McCray family, read the ceremony which was attended only by a few close friends and relatives.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was dressed in a lovely two-piece beige dress with white accessories. Her bridal bouquet was of blue colonial carnations with white streamers. Matron of honor was Mrs. Jerry McCray of Tulsa, a sister-in-law of the bride.

and Mrs. Jerry McCray of Tulsa; Miss Wanda Altman of Lubbock; and Gary and Lollie McCray of the home. Refreshments of wedding cake, punch and coffee were served to the guests at the reception which followed by Mrs. J. B. Young and Mrs. Dee Chitwood.

The bride's mother wore a blue dress and white corsage with beige accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige dress with a white corsage and white accessories.

Guests who were present for only the reception were: Phyllis Milligan, Nelda Redwine, Charles Merritt, Patsy Morrow, Pat Chitwood, and others.

The couple departed for Albuquerque immediately after the reception. They will make their home in Albuquerque, where the bridegroom is employed.

Harvey Bass Observes 11th Anniversary Here

The Harvey Bass Appliance store in Muleshoe will begin its 11th anniversary sale next Wednesday, July 22, he said here Tuesday.

Bass originally opened up here in 1948 in the building now occupied by the Spudnut Shop as a Firestone store. He eventually moved out the small home supply part of the business and turned to major appliances.

A year or so ago the Bass' moved up the block a few doors to their present location. Now, they specialize, more or less on Frigidaire Appliances, and Necchi Sewing Machines.

Bass says "We appreciate the fine business since we have been here. We have our trad'n britches on for this sale and are going to show the people that we do appreciate it, by giving them quality merchandise and prices they can't afford to turn down."

MISS PAULA KINDLE

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Kindle of Maple are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Paula, to Mr. Art Foley. The date of the wedding has been set for August 14 in the Maple Baptist Church.

Married In Farwell

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Duane Pattie

Miss Toni Sue Bruns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Les Bruns, and Joe Duane Pattie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Pattie were married Saturday night, June 20 at 7 o'clock in the Farwell Church of Christ with Bro. Ebb Randol officiating in the double-ring ceremony.

Members of the families and a close friend of the bride, Miss Lou Ann Hardesty of Friona and Mrs. Ebb Randol attended.

The bride was dressed in an all-white cotton sheath dress with white accessories. She wore a feathered pink carnation.

Afterwards the group dined in Clovis, and the bride and groom departed for a short honeymoon in New Mexico. They are now at home at 4921-B West 16th Street in Amarillo. The bridegroom is employed with a construction company at the Air Base. The bride will enroll in Amarillo Junior College in September. Mrs. Pattie was honored with a shower Friday night, the 10th, at the Hub community building.

Enochs Parsonage Is Dedicated

A dedication service for the new parsonage of the Enochs Baptist Church was held Wednesday evening with about 50 attending.

After the service, fellowship was held and punch and cookies were served.

The group then made a visit to see the inside of the parsonage. The interior of the church building has also recently been redecorated.

Rev. and Mrs. Terry came to Enochs in February from Dora, N. M. The new parsonage was under construction at the time and Rev. Terry, along with other members of the church, assisted in the building program.

Protect Rugs and Carpets From Moths and Beetles. Thorough cleaning and correct spray treatment will protect carpets and rugs from clothes moths and carpet beetles.

Regular care with the vacuum cleaner is the first step. It prevents dust, lint, and hair from accumulating and offering extra food for the pests. It can also remove the insects themselves and their eggs. These usually feed under heavy furniture where it is difficult to clean. Rotate rugs and carpets occasionally to make sure all areas are exposed to regular cleaning, light and air.

Entomologists advise a five percent DDT oil solution on rugs and carpets every 12 to 18 months. For a 9 by 12 rug of average weight, you will need 1 1/2 to 2 quarts of spray. Rug pads of animal hair or wool, will need spraying on both sides unless they have been treated previously.

When spraying wall-to-wall carpeting give special attention to edges and parts that have been under a piano, sofa, or other heavy furniture pieces.

Call on the expert help of a carpet cleaning or pest control firm if you have qualms about doing expensive rugs.

To Clean Venetian Blinds

Fast work is the key to success when you're cleaning venetian blinds. A very mild synthetic detergent, a large container such as a bathtub or laundry tub; liquid wax, a soft brush, several clean soft cloths, and a good supply of lukewarm water.

The first step is brushing off all surface dust. Use the dusting brush or your vacuum cleaner or a clean soft cloth for this job.

Once the dust is all off, whip up a suds in the bathtub or laundry tub. Use water and a mild synthetic detergent which should be completely dissolved.

Place the entire blind in the suds and brush gently with a soft brush or cloth. Work fast. Rinse fast also, using clear lukewarm water. Two or more rinsings may be needed.

Dry the slats with a soft cloth, then hang the blind up at the window so the tapes can dry. While it is drying, the blind should be extended all the way down. Give the tapes a good stretch. When the tapes are completely dry, apply a thin coat of liquid wax to the slats. The wax will prevent dust from sticking to the shades quite so readily. And when the slats are dusted they will be the cleaner.

Speed is especially important if the slats are made of wood. If the wood soaks up water, it will warp or the paint may peel. Handle your venetian blinds with care so that no paint is chipped from the slat.

Can Snap Beans By New One-Step Method

The latest method for canning vegetables is a one-step cold-pack method. Directions are simple. As an example, take snap beans.

Begin by washing all pint or quart jars in hot soapy water and rinse well. It is not necessary to sterilize jars since the pressure canner must be used in canning all non-acid vegetables.

Use only fresh, young, tender beans. The bean should just be beginning to form in the pod. Wash thoroughly, trim ends and cut into 1-inch pieces.

Thus far there is nothing different from the old method of canning snap beans. Now you will note that the fill is different.

Close jar with two-piece lid and place it in the pressure canner. Exhaust canner for 10 minutes, close petcock and process at 10 pounds pressure—pint jars 20 minutes, quart jars 25 minutes. Remove canner from heat, let pressure return to zero and remove the jars.

This new one-step method can also be used for canning fresh lima beans, carrots, cream style corn, whole kernel corn, blackeyed peas, and summer squash.

For further information check with your local home demonstration agent. You may also wish to ask for a copy of B-194, "Home Canning of Fruits and Vegetables."

Miss Shofner Bride-Elect Is Honored

Miss Alva Lee Shofner, bride-elect of Mr. James D. (Buddy) Peeler, was complimented with a gift coffee Thursday morning from 9 to 11 o'clock in the home of Mrs. A. R. McGuire, 1532 Ave. C. Ninety guests called to express their best wishes to Miss Shofner.

Assisting Mrs. McGuire with hostess duties were Mmes. Gerald Allison, Kenneth Briscoe, A. W. Copley, N. L. Johnson, Bob King, C. M. King, O. C. Kirk, Gilbert Lamb, Arlys Leveridge, O. D. Ray, A. D. Ward, C. W. Weeks, Troy Wilkerson, and R. F. Wright. They presented Miss Shofner with a Mix-master.

The bride's colors of pink and white were featured in decorations. The serving table was laid with an Irish linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink carnations, pink sweetheart roses, better-times roses, and pink feverfew with a tiny bride and groom beneath two miniature radio towers topped with pink bows and pink chenille "flashes" symbolizing the prospective bridegroom's occupation at KMUL radio station.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. O. C. Kirk and presented to Miss Shofner and the engaged pair's mothers, Mmes. J. T. Shofner and Jeff Peeler.

Miss Janelle McGuire registered the guests, Misses Sandy Weeks, Polly Briscoe, Donna Kay Bruns, and Melba Johnson poured coffee from a silver service and served hot buttered blueberry muffins and marshmallows.

Miss Shofner received many useful and attractive gifts. Wedding vows will be exchanged Sunday, August 16 in the First Methodist Church Sanctuary of Muleshoe.

Morrisen Enjoy Trip Through The Northwest

Mrs. Scott Morris, her daughter, Jeanette, and grandson, Donnie Parsons, and her mother, Mary Wortham of Portales, and an aunt, Georgia Willingham of Waco, have just returned from a three weeks vacation and sight seeing trip.

Points of interest which they visited were the zoo at San Diego, the beach at San Francisco, also China Town, Sidelwalk flower stands, and got a look at Alcatraz Island from a distance. The Fisherman's Wharf, and the Rose Garden in Berkley were also visited by them.

They visited her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Phillips and children at Galt, Calif., and a nephew, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Cunningham and children also at Galt.

Traveling north to Gridley, they visited a brother, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wortham and boys. Then took a sight seeing trip to the Shasta Dam and Lake at Mount Shasta, then on to Oregon. There in that country they saw many lumber mills and pretty country.

Going back through California, they visited the Red Wood forest and saw the giant trees. One tree measured 66 ft. at the bottom with the top soaring into the sky. It was called the tree of mystery. They took the Chandelier Drive, which went through one big redwood tree. The Chimney tree house was a house in the bottom of a tree.

They left California and traveled east through Nevada and Utah. At Salt Lake City they visited the Mormon Temple Square and the State Capitol.

Traveling from there east through Denver, they topped one mountain 9998 feet high. And saw a lot of snow on July 5.

In Colorado Springs they vis-

Babson Discusses INCOME

Babson Park, Mass., July 16—The Dow-Jones Industrial Average is today about 660, compared with 350 five years ago and 170 ten years ago. Therefore, it is dangerous for one who does not have conservative recommendations from a long-established service, or from a trusted bank or brokerage official, to invest money today in common stocks. Like a trapeze artist in a circus, the higher up he gets, the more dangerous is his fall.

Bonds Versus Stocks
 In view of the continued threat of inflation, I am not now advising my friends to have all their funds in bonds—even though bonds now yield much more than stocks. This applies not only to long-term bonds but also to short-term issues. Witness the recent issuance of one-year Treasury bills to yield 4 1/2%.

My father, who was a country banker in Gloucester, Mass., used to tell me that preferred stocks are neither "fish nor fowl", "hay nor grass."

As a rule, such stocks are redeemed if the company is successful, and wiped out if the company fails. This, however, was before President Franklin D. Roosevelt squeezed the water out of the utilities and when they were very competitive. Today, for income and safety, I believe that First Preferred Cumulative Utility Stocks are worthy of purchase, especially if issued by the local company to which you pay a monthly bill. If by any chance you can find such a local stock which is also either convertible or non-callable, it is especially attractive.

Future of Electric Power
 Whatever happens during the next few years, the output of electricity will continue to increase. This is due both to the fact that the cost of generating electricity is gradually decreasing and also to the fact that demand by municipalities, industries, and homes is constantly increasing.

Most readers of my column have seen house heating change from the use of coal to that of oil and gas. I believe that our grandchildren will see electricity take the place of oil and gas. This electricity will supply heat in the winter and air conditioning in the summer, as well as operate many home appliances not yet invented.

We do not see much direct advertising of electric power; but the newspapers are full of ads for all kinds of electric appliances,—often with no down payment required. This means that there are hundreds of thousand of dealers who are selling electric appliances which will use more electricity. No other industry is in such a favorable situation,—with a monopoly, in addition. Although the rates of electric power are controlled by State Commissions, these Commissions allow rates which will pay the interest on bonds and the dividends on preferred stocks. Electric power companies are safest from labor troubles, which are destined to become more serious with all other industries. When going crazy about "electronics" stocks, remember that electronics always depends upon and uses electricity.

Stocks With Long Dividend Records
 When a reader wants a stock for income, he is interested in the number of years that the company has paid dividends. As the electric utilities are young, they have not generally had a long record. Many insurance companies, gas companies, and the like have been paying dividends for about a hundred years. For instance, the New Haven Gas Company has been paying dividends for 110 years; the Travelers Insurance has been paying for 96 years; the New Haven Water Company 82 years; and the Home Insurance Company, in which I am a great believer, for 86 years.

The following are a few other such companies coming to my memory. Their stocks are all common shares as preferreds do not exist so long ago. The Aetna (Fire) Insurance Company has paid dividends for 87 consecutive years; the Hartford Fire Insurance, 87 years; National Fire Insurance, 88 years; Phoenix Insurance, 86 years; Southern New England Telephone, 69 years; and the Security Insurance for 66 years.

GADDDY FAMILY
 We want all of our friends and neighbors to know that we appreciate their numerous acts of kindness and their many expressions of sympathy to us during our time of sorrow.

Sandhills Philosopher Not In Favor Of Hiring A Public Relation Expert For Farmers

Editor's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm claims he's found a new angle to the farm problem this week. Dear editor,

As a lifetime student of the farm problem, not of what I think it is but what other people think it is, I'll have to admit that this week I have run across a brand new idea on the subject.

According to an article I read in a newspaper day before yesterday—I think it was the day before yesterday, when you don't do any more one day than the next, they all run together—the farmer "is suffering today because of bad public relations."

According to this fellow, since 88 per cent of the people live in towns or cities, the public has a grossly mistaken picture of the farmer and the farmer, if he's smart, will do something to "improve his public relations."

Right now, he continued, the people look on the farmer as (1) a hayseed, or (2) a profiteer responsible for the high cost of living, or (3) the biggest hog at the public trough, depending on the government to take care of him.

Now I don't know which one of these images you city people have when you think of me, but that Number 2 picture is the one I wish was right. For one farming year, just one, I'd like to be a profiteer. You could throw Number 1 in, it'd be all right, I wouldn't mind. I wouldn't care if you thought I was a hayseed, just so long as I was profiteering. And as far as the government taking care of me goes, it's a beautiful dream, but I've never been able to swing it.

This man went on to emphasize that us farmers ought to do something to change the public's image. Well, I guess we could hire some of those Madison Avenue boys, they do a pretty good job of making a politician's image over in the public's eye, but I can't think of anyway I'd rather look in the public's eye that'd make me feel any better in my own eye. Besides, by the time I get through paying for my equipment, my gas and oil and tires and repairs and clothes and taxes, I don't have anything left for a public relations expert.

Appearing prosperous never did appeal to me. There's millions of those folks in the country now, especially in the towns and cities. Nothing less than the genuine article will ever suit me.

Yours faithfully,

around a garage waiting for a car to be fixed. Emergencies do arise, so be prepared. Take along such equipment as a first-aid kit, flashlight, flares, and don't forget to check that spare tire. Keep such tools and fire tools stored where they can be reached without much trouble. Don't overload your car. Make sure that luggage and other vacation gear doesn't obstruct your view while driving. Vision must be clear in front, sides and rear.

Plan a day by day travel schedule that will give you time to get out and relax occasionally. Prolonged driving periods tend to have a hypnotic affect on drivers and build up nerve tension—driver efficiency declines after about six hours at the wheel.

Make up your mind to have a pleasant relaxing trip by being patient and courteous with other drivers. Above all, pack along a healthy load of common sense—it takes a lot less time to prevent an accident than it does to report one.

meant to me. When next I visited her, her face lighted up. She said, "I wouldn't let them take that paper from me. Her faith in my promise had calmed her, too."

"My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest." That promise is for all, in every experience of life, who will believe it and trust in God.

PRAYER
 O God, we thank Thee

that Thou art here—here with us today, here to quiet our minds, here to direct and help us in these confusing times. Help us to open our hearts to accept Thy promised gifts of guidance and strength. In His name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
 "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble."

Read Exodus 33:12-18 or Psalm 15.

My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest. (Exodus 33:14.)

It was late afternoon. The house doctor had given me word that the surgeon would operate on me the next morning. A certain nervousness and fear came over me. I got out my daily devotional guide and Bible to read before trying to sleep. My attention was captured by this verse, "My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest." That promise was to me as well as to Moses. Fear and nervousness fled.

About a year later I visited a young woman who was soon to be operated on. Because of a crowd of visitors, I had no chance for a private word with her. So on a slip of paper I wrote my verse and just a word of how much it had

Two Weeks Needed To Rest Up After Taking Vacation

How many times have we heard this story when a co-worker or neighbor got back from vacation? "Boy, what a two weeks I had! Drove to Denver for two days, then out to Los Angeles to visit the wife's family... really had to 'barrel it' to get back on time. Now I need two more weeks to rest up from the vacation."

Exaggerated? Perhaps, but it is typical of our times. We go at such a pace that we really don't take time to live. Grandma and grandpa used to take a trip 50 miles from home and would talk about it for years. Nowadays we drive a 1,000 miles over the weekend and what do we talk about? The terrible traffic we encounter except on those beautiful stretches of long white concrete.

However, it is not our purpose here to tell anyone what to do with their vacation. What each person does on his two or three weeks is strictly his own business, but we do believe that careful, sensible planning and unhurried driving will help make a vacation more restful... certainly a lot safer. With the help of the Texas Safety Association, here are a few suggestions we believe will make your vacation trip a safer one.

Begin your traffic safety thinking before you take off. That means seeing that your car is in top-notch mechanical condition. Have your service or garage man give your car a thorough check-up before starting your trip. It's no fun to spend vacation time sitting

Wimberly Named General Manager Texas Sesame Growers Association

William F. Wimberly

William F. Wimberly has been named general manager of Texas Sesame Growers, Inc., operations on the High Plains. Robert L. Parker, executive vice-president of the farmer-owned organization, announced today.

Wimberly will live at Muleshoe where Texas Sesame Growers maintains its High Plains headquarters.

Parker also announced the appointment of Dennis Patzig to handle the bookkeeping and auditing work of the High Plains office in Muleshoe.

Parker said that Wimberly not only will work directly with farmers in the irrigated areas of the Panhandle where approximately 85 per cent of the nation's commercial Sesame is produced, but that he will be in charge of the organization's complete modern

Cadet Q. G. Tate Candidate for Army Rifle Team

FORT HOOD, Texas, July 2.—Cadet Quentin Gaylor Tate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil H. Tate, Box 636, Muleshoe, is competing along with 19 other ROTC cadets for a berth on the 1959 ROTC Fourth Army Rifle Team at Fort Hood this week.

The final team chosen by the elimination firing now being conducted will compete for national honors at Camp Perry, Ohio, in August. Cadet Tate is a student at Texas Christian University, one of the 28 colleges and universities represented in the try-outs this year.

Training conducted for the team during the six-week ROTC Summer Camp will include basic marksmanship principles. Intensified training following the end of camp after July 31 concentrates on the "finer" points of match shooting, according to Capt. Robert D. Stevenson, team captain from Oklahoma State University at Stillwater.

Elimination try-outs will be held the remainder of July to determine the final number of cadets to be considered for eight permanent team place, two alternate places and two assistant alternate positions. M/Sgt. Paul H. Pannell, team coach and champion shooter himself, explained that the best marksmen from the army area are now trying for the team.

At the end of the seven-day intensified training period after the camp ends, the alternates will return to their homes and the eight men finally chosen will continue a final practice session to prepare for the national matches.

Camp Perry firing is on a team and individual basis, says Sfc. Herman Austin, assistant coach. Each cadet will compete against other ROTC Cadets from the nation on an individual and team basis. Classifications are determined by experience and former competition plus official records.

Maximum score which any cadet can fire in individual competition is 250—50s shots at five points each shot. Scores for team firing can be 1,500—six men with 50 shots each at five points per shot. Last year's champion, Gerald Gremeth of Oklahoma State University, fired 244. The Fourth Army championship team fired 1,411 of the possible 1,500 for a national record.

Range distances for both team and individual firing include 200, 300, and 600 yards. Cadets are required to learn to fire both slowly, with each shot loaded separately and rapidly with the cadet firing one round loaded separately and eight fired from a clip. The rapid fire is completed against time.

Cadets are taught range and individual safety during the training periods here as well as firing positions, trigger squeeze, breathing, sighting and aiming. Pin-point seed processing plant, its grain elevator and grain storage warehouses.

A large portion of the High Plains Sesame crop is processed through the new seed cleaning plant, and the grain elevator and mill storage facilities provide an additional service to the farmers of the area, Parker stated.

Wimberly, veteran of four years in the U. S. Air Force, is a native of Hillsboro, Texas. He has a degree in agricultural economics from Texas A. & M. College.

Patzig, reared on a farm near Tullia, Texas, holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from Baylor University in Waco.

Other employees at the Muleshoe plant are Clyde Black, field representative, and Warner Lawson, plant foreman.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, underground water has played a most significant role in the progress and development of the Great Plains area of the State of Texas; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of this garden area of the High Plains have recognized the importance of this wonderful natural resource; and

WHEREAS, through such organizations as the High Plains Underground Water District this resource has been conserved and utilized to its fullest extent of the benefit not only of this area but for the entire State of Texas; and

WHEREAS, it is incumbent on all Texans to aid in the preservation of private ownership and control of these valuable underground water resources;

NOW, THEREFORE, I Andy Rogers, Acting Governor of Texas, do hereby designate this day July 9, 1959, as in Texas, and do hereby commend the citizens of the High Plains area for their constructive use of this natural resource for the good of all citizens of this Lone Star State.

The Source Of All Life

The divine, eternal source of all life and action will be stressed at Christian Science services Sunday.

Highlighting the Lesson-Sermon on "Life" is the Golden Text from John (5:26): "As the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following will be read (289:32): "Because Life is God, Life must be eternal, self-existent, Life is the everlasting I AM, the Being, who was and is and shall be, whom nothing can erase."

Scriptural selections include this passage from I John (2:25): "And this is the promise that he hath promised me, even eternal life."

Preserve Cotton Fibre Quality Advises Expert

A moisture meter can be used in the gin, on the gin yard and in the field as an aid to preservation of fiber quality during the cotton harvesting and ginning season, reports Fred C. Elliott, extension cotton work specialist.

Use of the moisture meter on lint slide samples in the gin will give the information needed to adjust drying, he says. The goal should be to gin cotton at five to seven percent lint moisture for best quality preservation. Numerous tests in the USDA Ginning Laboratories show that drying to this moisture level gives a smooth sample and allows proper cleaning. Over-drying should be avoided, Elliott cautions.

At a number of gins in Texas last year, the growers made money by cooperating with accuracy on every shot is required.

Marksmanship is a regular part of the training given cadets during camp. Team hopefuls take the regular course of training, which is approximately the same as team members will receive during initial training, and after the training day and on Saturdays and Sundays the team trains as a unit.

Army Has Opening In Missile Training

Sgt. John G. Mattmiller, local Army recruiter, has announced that the Army is accepting applications from young men who desire assignment in the guided missile field and would like to be stationed in the Dallas and/or Fort Worth area.

The recruiter reported that this is a good opportunity for young men who wish to study and learn electronics. Complete information may be obtained by contacting Sgt. Mattmiller at his Clovis office at 208 Main or by calling at the Selective Service in Muleshoe at 10 a.m. every Monday.

Washington News Letter

From Lyndon B. Johnson U. S. Senator

Dear Friend:

Justification of recommendations already made in the picture I get out of the President's Cabinet Committee report on inflation.

The report falls short of what is needed. All of us want to fight inflation, and I don't know of anybody who wants more of it.

The report virtually ignores one of the most serious aspects of inflation. That is the mounting cost of money.

The Administration wants to increase the interest rates on long-term Government securities. But it is obvious this move would affect interest rates up and down the line.

Sooner or later, the result would be felt where such inflationary action is always felt—by the consumer.

I'm convinced that few things have contributed as much to inflation as rising interest rates.

But the only thing the Pres-he ginner in a seed cotton grouping program.

A moisture meter can be used in the field to avoid harvesting cotton too damp. This practice will be helpful this year with the anticipated increase in machine harvesting. Last year there were 1831 spindle pickers in 78 counties in Texas and 26,692 stripper harvesters in 133 counties. All indications point to a big increase in machine harvesting in 1959. Machine harvesting has brought many benefits to the cotton industry, but has also presented problems in quality preservation.

However, these problems can be overcome by proper care or adjustment of machines and not operating too early or late in the day in damp or wet cotton. For further information, obtain a copy of bulletin 297, "Keep Cotton Dry, Loose and Clean" from your county agent.

Up a steep mud-choked wash—Positraction pays off!

Through a mountain stream—deep in Avintaquin Canyon.

NO MOUNTAIN CAT, MISTER...

That's a Chevy with Positraction!

That 3134 Fleetside has the sure-footed ways of a big western bobcat. Roams through high brush country that would buck the life out of most trucks. Crosses streams without benefit of a bridge. Climbs talus grades where pifon won't even grow. But that's all routine for this Chevy, equipped with Positraction® rear axle. It's hard at it every day for the Utah Fish and Game commission. Figure about 60,000 miles of mountaineering before this Chevy is traded. And yet the district officer who drives it would bet his badge the tie rods won't even need replacing!

Out in that wild, climbing Utah country, Chevy's suspension and frame and brakes, its Positraction rear axle and Thriftmaster 6 power are proving themselves under rougher conditions than most test engineers could dream up. They're proving that Chevrolet's advanced engineering and design ideas pay off—in spades—when the going gets especially mean and dirty.

Positraction, of course, is a big plus on this job, providing the sure grip needed to dig through mud, snow, loose sand, whatever comes along. Could be that a Positraction-equipped 1/2-ton pickup is the answer for your area of operation. Or maybe a 4-wheel drive Chevy. We've got trucks that specialize in getting in and out of any kind of country. Talk to your dealer about your needs. He'll show you what tough trucks are made of.

*Optional at extra cost

No job's too tough for a Chevrolet truck!

Mrs. Woody of Baileyboro spent the weekend in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harold Toombs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Farris and Glenda visited in Anton and Lubbock Sunday afternoon.

Electric Yard Light Beautifies Home

The amazing growth of the use of electric yard lights reflects a growing attitude on the part of the Muleshoe public to constantly improve the appearances of their homes.

Just in the last two months, several hundred yard lights have appeared sending their cherry greeting of light to the home—the electric yard light truly says "Welcome" for all to see.

Electric yard lights beautify the premises by day as well as by night. Available in several attractive designs—either provincial—or modern, they blend in with the basic architecture of the home and its premises.

Then, too, electric yard lights are practical. You can turn them on or off as you please, or you can have them controlled to come on or go off automatically—by adding a photo-electric cell or an electrical clock timer.

Want more or less light? The choice is yours with an electric yard light. It's simple—all you do is change the bulb from a higher to a lower wattage or vice versa. And, come Christmas, you have practically an automatic Christmas lighting effect just by changing the bulb from white (or yellow bug lamp) to an appropriately colored bulb to point up the Christmas greens and reds.

This writer did wonder about the cost of operating an electric yard light, and he asked Jeff Peeler, manager for Southwestern Public Service company, here, what the operating costs are.

Jeff enthusiastically informed me that you can operate an electric yard light—with a hundred watt bulb in it—eight hours every night for approximately 2 pennies, with lower wattage costing even less.

It's The Law In Texas

NO WILL? WHO INHERITS PROPERTY?
What will happen if you should die without executing a legal and proper will? Who will inherit your property? Your husband, wife, mother, father, children, your wife's relatives? Ralph Yarborough's Report . . . Defends College Classroom Bill Vetoed By President Eisenhower

The public has been amused recently by photographs of large numbers of college students wedged into telephone booths. But when we stop to think that college classrooms and dormitories may soon present an almost similar picture, the outlook is not so humorous.

This is one reason why I feel the President's veto of the Housing Act of 1959 was extremely unwise.

By 1965, only six years away, the number of college age young people in the United States will have doubled. Our institutions of higher learning are not growing fast enough to keep up with the demand.

As it passed the Senate, the Housing Bill would have provided loans to help our colleges—$150 million for classroom construction and $300 million for new dormitories.

This is not a spending measure, but an investment. The loans would have to be repaid by the colleges with interest.

Texas' colleges do not have adequate space for tomorrow's students.

This bill was the first to provide loans for college classrooms. Past laws authorized loans for dormitories—places for the students to sleep at night—but no provisions have been made for classrooms—places to go to school in the daytime.

The veto message said the president killed the bill to prevent competition with private industry, even though private industry is not generally engaged in making loans for college classrooms. Schools are not factories upon which a profit is expected; schools are institutions for the education of our youth. The veto fails to recognize the function of our schools in our society.

If your husband or wife survives and there are no children, the surviving spouse receives all of the property.

If, in addition, there are surviving children or descendants of deceased children, they would divide one-half of the property, while the surviving spouse would receive the other one-half.

Of course, grandchildren do not share in the estate unless their parent who would inherit is deceased. And when descendants of previously deceased children do inherit, they receive only the portion that the child would have received, regardless of the number of such descendants.

An odd note, perhaps, is that the surviving spouse already owns one-half of the community estate prior to your death, and the law adds nothing to this share where there are children surviving.

When there are only children and their descendants surviving, they divide the entire community estate between them.

Oklahoma Lane. These two young ladies gave very interesting reports to the directors of Farm Bureau in their meeting Monday night. Jimmie Lou Wainscott, Home Demonstration Agent, took the girls to the Roundup in Austin and brought them to the directors meeting. She supplemented their reports. We are very proud of these rural youth in 4-H.

We would like to urge the farmers to file for their state gas tax refund of five cents per gallon, and the Federal refund of three cents per gallon. Federal refunds may be filed for during July and August only, for the year up to July 1st. To the people of the Farwell trade area we will be in the county agent's office from ten to twelve next Tuesday July 14 to assist you in making these claims. Those who receive notices for state tax refunds will see that notation on the card. Please don't overlook this easy way of getting some of your hard earned money back where it belongs—in your pocket.

We are glad to note that both the House and Senate of Texas sent resolutions to our National Capitol objecting to rigid regulations imposed by the U. S. Department of Labor on the recruiting of farm labor in Texas.

We would like to quote this paragraph from Tom Anderson's Straight Talk in Farm and Ranch. It carries Farm Bureau sentiment well: "Why not send all office holders for whom you have a right to vote a list of things you're for? Tell them you'll be watching their votes carefully. Demand that they state clearly how they stand on each issue listed. Kill Civil Service, so millions of unneeded government workers can be fired. Insist on the labor union monopoly ending and that unions be placed under the same anti-trust anti-racketeering, tax paying laws as are businesses."

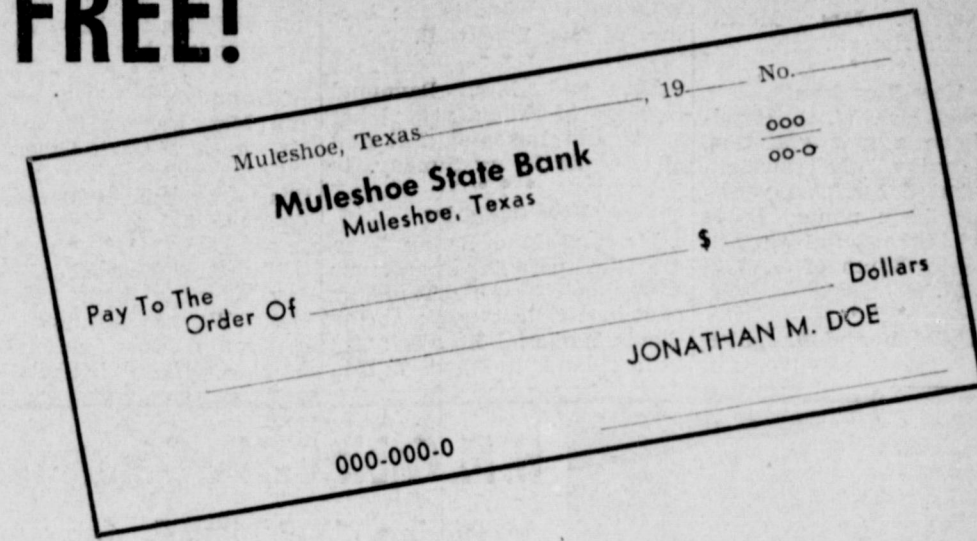

If the wheat farmers vote against marketing quotas on July 23, government support level will be 50% of parity. Acreage allotments would be the same either way, but there would be no penalty imposed for exceeding allotments if marketing quotas are not voted.

Some farmers and farm groups have advocated that wheat farmers should be required to reduce their acreage to bring the supply in line with demand. The Department of Agriculture has announced that if the allotment had been determined on the basis of the law's supply and demand formula, the 1960 allotment would have been "zero" acres.

The Wisconsin Farm Bureau and other farm groups are battling a proposed state bill to socialize farmers and do it. "Assess farmers for promotion, advertising, research and educational programs, up to four percent of gross dollar volume of the commodity involved." This in itself would be about enough to stop most farmers, but it is only one of more than a dozen items, some of which sound even more idiotic.
