Farmers Interested In Turkey Project Here

Considerable interest was shown Tuesday night at a meeting held here in a turkey raising project among Lynn county farmers.

Thirty people attended the meeting, and 11 farmers indicated definite interest in the project.

County Agent Bill Griffin and Johnny Reasonover, president of Tahoka Chamber of Commerce, called attention to a definite need for additional farm income for this county.

Leon Mummy, field man for Clary Poultry & Egg, told of the market demands for this area and related many of his personal experiences in turkey production.

Ken Looper, Ralston Purina representative listed the following reasons why turkeys can be raised around Tahoka: 1. Additional farm income needed. 2. Ready market available. 3. The favorable climate. 4. Small investment in equipment is necessary. 5. Financing is available. 6. No additional labor is required. 7. Service and supervision is available.

In general, the program as outlined by Looper and Dale Thuren, local farm store operator, was on a farm-size and "grow into the business" basis. They suggested flock sizes of 300 to 1000 birds the first year, depending upon the amount of present building space available.

Many present farm buildings could be readily adapted into brooding space, one square foot (Cont'd. on Back Page)

Mrs. Lightner Is Buried Thursday

Mrs. L. S. Lightner, 64, a resident of Lynn county nearly twenty years, died Tuesday at 3:00 p. m. in a Lubbock hospital. She and her husband had moved to 6113 Ave. Q in that city near Tahoka last year.

Funeral services were held at the First Methodist Church of Tahoka Thursday at 3:00 p. m., under direction of Rev. Jesse Young of Big Spring, former Draw pastor, assisted by Rev. Abe Hester of the College Heights Baptist Church of Lubbock. Burial followed in Tech Memorial Park under direction of Stanley Funeral Home.

Lola Caswell Lightner was born in Montague county on July 3, 1891. She was married there on Sept. 10, 1910 to L. S. Lightner. She came to the Draw community from Oklahoma in 1936, and she and her husband lived there until a few years ago when they moved to their farm east of Tahoka. Last year, they moved to Lubbock in which city three of their daughters reside.

Mrs. Lightner was devoted to her family and friends and to her church, and was held in high esteem by everyone who knew her.

She is survived by her husband; three sons, Orvis of Ralls, Everett of Amberst, and Floyd of Mor-ton; three daughters, Mrs. Mary Alice Foster, Mrs. Oma Lee McGlaun, and Mrs. Billy Ruth Seay, all of Lubbock; one sister, Mrs. S. H. Williams of Wichita Falls; two brothers, C. D. Caswell of Meadow and S. L. Caswell of Sunset; and 13 grandchildren.

Cotton Council Formed Tuesday

Charles Verner of Tahoka and Wilmer Smith of New Home were named Lynn county's representatives as 1,200 farmers and business met in Lubbock Tuesday to form an area cotton council to promote solution of this area's problems in the cotton industry.

W.O. Fortenberry of Lubbock was named chairman of the newly organized council. The group hopes to "tie-together" all groups of the area in a fight for South Plains cotton.

A contract for 15 miles of new construction on U. S. Highway 84, F. M. 2282 and F. M. 2106 in Garza and Lynn counties has been awarded to a Lubbock firm, it was announced in Austin this week by the State Highway Commission.

J. O. Boswell submitted the low bid of $199,885.34 on the project. Construction of grading, structures, base and surfacing from Post northwest 3.3 miles, from U. S. 84 at Southland south 5 miles, and from Gordon east to U. S. 84 is expected to take 175 working days, according to S. C. McCarty, District Highway Engineer at Lubbock.

F. C. Stanley, resident Engineer at Lubbock will be in active charge of the project while under construction.

Don Reece of Brownfield, Boy Scout field representative, presided at the meeting Tuesday night. Ross Smith is the committee chairman, and members include Pete Hegi, Tom Gill, Troy Havins, Jess Gurley, Rush Dudgeon.

E. B. Gaither, district commissioner, and C. E. Ford, neighborhood commissioner, also met with the group.

Local Boy Scouts are currently re-registering for the new year, but only 20 had registered Monday night. The troop will be filled out with 31 boys.

Bulldogs Play Slaton And Post Here Today, Tuesday

Tahoka entertains Slaton tonight and Post Antelopes next Tuesday night on the local basketball court in District 5-AA games.

Although Slaton boys have lost all district starts, the Tigers are one of the better teams of the area and are capable of upsetting the Bulldogs. Every conference game played has been close. Slaton girls humiliated Post last Tuesday 76 to 35.

Tahoka and Post have met before, at Post, with Tahoka boys nosing out the Antelopes 47 to 43; and the Post girls winning over the local girls 54 to 39.

The Bulldogs will be battling to remain among the district leaders. Currently, Tahoka, Abernathy and Spur boys are tied for the lead, each having won three and lost one game.

Lost To Abernathy

Tahoka boys lost a very rough game to the Abernathy Antelopes 55 to 46 Tuesday night in the fine new gymnasium at Abernathy.

The Abernathy loss broke Tahoka's winning streak of eight consecutive games.

Abernathy took a quick early lead which it never relinquished, although the Bulldogs pulled up close twice in the final quarter and threatened to catch up in that period.

In the first the Bulldogs were unable to break through the Antelopes. (Cont'd. on Back Page)

WILL SEEK RE-ELECTION

Mrs. Beatrice McLaurin, commissioner of Precinct 3, announces that she is a candidate for re-election to the office she now holds. She expects to make her formal announcement at a later date.

Dale Gandy Is Office Candidate

Dale Gandy announces that he is a candidate for the office of Tax Assessor and Collector of Lynn county.

He attended Draughn's Business College in Lubbock, and currently is enrolled in night classes at Texas Tech. He holds a daytime job as draftsman with General Telephone Co. at Brownfield.

"I feel that I am qualified by training and experience for the office," he states, "and if you voters of Lynn county see fit to elect me to this office, I will do the best I know how to make you a good Tax Assessor and Collector."

"Having to work and attend school, I will use my off hours to campaign and, therefore, will be a little slow getting around to see you. But, before the election, I hope to see each of you personally before the July primary. In the meantime, I will sincerely appreciate your careful consideration and any help you can give me."

Having lived in several communities, Dale is well known over most of the county.

March Of Dimes Variety Show

The annual O'Donnell Polio Variety show is being presented tonight, Friday, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, in the High School auditorium there under the direction of Joe Burkett.

Included on the program will be a string band, instrumental numbers, song and dance acts, clown stunts, and other entertainment. In fact, Burkett has arranged a fast moving program that should have as much interest as a three-ring circus.

A Lubbock radio station announcer will be master of ceremonies, and a well-known TV star is expected to appear on the program.

Admission is 75 cents for adults and 35 cents for children. John Ellis is O'Donnell chairman for the March of Dimes drive, and he hopes to raise $1,250.00 for the fund.

GENE PEARSON

Jaycees Hear State President

Tahoka Jaycees prayed host Wednesday night to Ed Stumpf of Houston, state Jaycee president; Gene Pearson of Lamesa, state vice president for region 3; and about twenty Jaycees from Lubbock, Ralls, and Post.

Bob Gibbs, Tahoka president, introduced Mr. Stumpf, who made the principal address. He told of Jaycee history, gave the creed and the purpose, and told of the movement's growth into a scope that is now world wide.

The high respect being gained by the organization is indicated, he said, by the fact that last February the Congressional Record devoted six and a half pages to praise of the Jaycees, and a page and a half was devoted to the Texas work.

Mr. Pearson spoke principally on local club affairs and methods of solving club difficulties.

Tahoka Jaycees feel they were distinctively honored by having the privilege of entertaining these guests.

Stumpf is an outstanding citizen of Houston, where he is a partner in John L. Wortham & Son and an executive of American General Insurance Co., secretary of the Citizens Traffic Commission and director of World's Fair of Houston.

Rabbit Shoot Here This Saturday

Tahoka Explorer Scouts are sponsoring a Rabbit Shoot Saturday for the March of Dimes polio fund.

Rabbits will be available to winners either dressed or on foot. They are rabbits raised by Dale Thuren, and are said to be top quality for the table.

The shoot will be held north of Tahoka on the Lubbock highway just south of the Panhandle station.

Six men will shoot for each rabbit, and open-sight .22 rifles will be used.

Mrs. L. M. Nordyke, a pneumonia patient in Tahoka Hospital, is reported improving.

The Mothers March for benefit of the Polio Fund Friday night in Tahoka netted a total of $685.60, and funds have been coming in nicely from other sources, reports H. B. McCord, county March of Dimes chairman. In fact, Tahoka now has raised a little over $1,000 McCord said.

During the Mothers March Friday night, sponsored by the Pythian Sisters, ladies visited the residential section and the basketball game in progress at the school gymnasium to pick up contributions.

The Pythian Sisters were assisted by the Rainbow Girls, Phebe K. Warner Club, Tahoka Garden Club, and a number of other ladies not affiliated with any of these organizations.

Mrs. Lucy Brice of the Pythian Sisters said the cooperation of everyone was wonderful.

Others contribute Other contributions have come in by check from individuals, and still other contributions are asked from citizens of Lynn county in response to folders mailed out to boxholders.

The Presbyterian Sunday School contributed $10.00, the American Legion Post $25.00, Petty Club $10.00, and Tahoka Band Mothers $25.00.

Approximately $150.00 was cleared from the "42", bridge, and canasta party staged last Thursday night under direction of Mrs. Rollin McCord.

New Home Reports Joe D. Unfred, New Home chairman, reported $67.00 contributed through the school, and the Home Demonstration Club and New Home Civic Club had raised $35.00 selling coffee two days while the cafe there was closed.

Wilson Having Show Wilson hopes to raise much of its quota with a home talent variety show at the school next Monday night at 7:30 o'clock. A. L. Holder, chairman, reports. Admission is 50 and 25 cents.

Mrs. Dale Price is directing the show, and Jay Drennan of radio station KSEL of Lubbock will be the master of ceremonies.

O'Donnell is also having a variety show Tuesday night, and Chairman John Ellis expects that community to exceed its quota of $1,200. In fact, O'Donnell again hopes of exceed Tahoka in the March of Dimes drive.

Church Collection First Baptist Church of Tahoka will take up a special Polio collection at the 11:00 o'clock service Sunday morning, the pastor, Rev. Clifford Harris, announces.

Benefit Show At Rose Tuesday

There will be a big free show next Tuesday night for benefit of the March of Dimes drive at the Rose Theatre.

Actually the show is not entirely free, but those attending will be asked to drop some money in the collection plates at the door to aid those afflicted with polio.

"Mrs. Grant Takes Richmond," a comedy-drama featuring Lucille Ball, will be shown on the screen. P. G. VanderLinden of Lamesa, court reporter for the 106th Judicial District, and an amateur magician, will present a half-hour program of magic and sleight-of-hand stunts.

There will also be some entertainment acts, and Kay Waldrup will act as master of ceremonies.

Following will be an auction sale of many donated articles, from home-made candy to lace, with the proceeds going to the March of Dimes.

The Bob Lewis baby has been a medical patient in Tahoka Hospital.

NO BARGAIN AT ANY PRICE!

A RECENT SURVEY, conducted in 19 States in the Midwest, South and Southeast, reveals that there are nearly 21 million acres of rich, idle farmland available for crop production when more food is needed to feed the Nation. At the same time Government plans are under way to take additional acreage out of production because of the huge surpluses of food the Federal Government now has stored in around the country. Despite these facts Congress is being asked to approve the incredible Upper Colorado River Project to "irrigate" 583,000 acres of arid mountain land in Colorado, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming at a cost to the Nation's taxpayers of $4 Billion in added taxes. Figures for the rich, idle land now available were obtained from the U. S. Soil Conservation Service.

R. Q. Hill is planning to install underground irrigation pipe on the farm he operates west of Draw. He needed some information on size of well and topography of land. Soil Conservation Service personnel assigned to the district checked Mr. Hill's well to determine gallons per minute using one of the district Sparing Meters. Also the general topography of the land was determined for direction to water. Size of well was used to design the underground pipe system.

A new kind of underground irrigation pipe was checked for final installation on Chester Swope's farm north east of Wilson. This system is especially designed for smaller wells to eliminate all ditch loss and Chester thinks that he will be well satisfied with the system.

Another of this type system is in the process of installation on A. N. Crowson's farm south east of Wilson.

Final instructions of underground concrete pipe was checked and certified for assistance through the local A. S. C. office on the farms of James C. Kirksey, E. M. Rudd, and W. C. Huffaker. Engineers assigned to the district worked a design for underground pipe to be installed for Ronald Rhoades, N. E. Denton, Arthur Gicklehorn, Noble Wynn and Alfred Krause. S. C. S. personnel have serviced a number of other requests for underground pipe that were referred through the A. S. C. office. Some of the information needed on these requests is, if the land has been watered at least one year for the re-organization job, topography of land, gallons per minute, size and length of pipe planned, total head, if new system is to tie into old pipe, and other pertinent data necessary to correctly design the small system.

Members of the Lynn County Soil Conservation District board of supervisors attended the State Convention last week and saw Kay Moore, Chairman of the Lynn board, receive his award, as the State's most outstanding Land Supervisors at the State Association meet in Lubbock.

Picture Program Proves Interesting

Royce Blankenship of Lubbock, one of the owners of the Wallace Theatres, showed color movies he took last May of volcano eruptions in Hawaii while he and his wife were there on vacation.

The pictures were about as beautiful, colorful and exciting as one could imagine, and the comments he made along with the showing of the pictures proved very entertaining and instructive.

They were vacationing in Honolulu when a couple they had met on their honeymoon trip to Hawaii before invited them to fly in a private plane over to Hilo, located on the big Hawaii Island 250 miles from Honolulu, near which town a volcano was reported to be in eruption.

The two couples spent several days and nights photographing the eruption with color movie film. During the early part of the eruption, they were able to get right up near the crater. Molten rock and lava being belched from the crater were graphically shown, as were the devastating flows lava down the mountain-sides and into the valleys, where the red-hot lava consumed everything in its path.

Rotarians agreed the pictures were beautiful, interesting, and at times sensational. H. B. McCord Jr. arranged the program.

Members of the local club voted a preference for Rex Webster of Lubbock for the office of Governor of the 183rd District of Rotary International.

Otis Spears and Rev. J. B. Stewart are program chairmen for the month of February.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to offer our sincere appreciation for the many kindnesses shown Mr. Macha during his long illness, for the spiritual bouquets, floral offerings, and messages of sympathy following his death. For each and every one we are deeply grateful.—The family of H. A. Macha.

Wrestling Aids March of Dimes

(By Gene Porter)
Last Monday night in the local wrestling arena the fans were thrilled with the rough and tough tactics used in the four man tag team match. The much hated Whiskers Powell failed to make his appearance after he found out that this time Red Gelly and Cowboy Ellis were not about to take one foul blow off of him. But we had a fellow in the ring that hails from Lubbock, Ray Dunlap, and he made quite a showing for himself. Johnny Boy Garcia, from Mexico City, was our guest referee and was in there fighting all the time to try and keep things on the up and up.

The Jaycees are again sponsoring the wrestling this coming Monday night.

We have some new comers that none of the wrestling fans in this part of the country has had the pleasure of seeing yet.

Champ Thomas is coming in from Carlsbad to be on the card Monday night for the benefit matches. Champ Thomas is an ex-boxer and has been working with the boxing profession in Carlsbad for some time now. He has been wrestling now for several years and is really making a name for himself in the mat history.

Johnny Boy Garcia has asked the local promoter to get him a match with Sugi Imoto. During the matches last Monday night Imoto kept throwing punches at Garcia as he was refereeing.

Two girls who have been in the arena here before will also be on the wrestling card. Laura Martin of New Mexico is coming against Bonnie Bartlett of Kansas. These two girls are pretty evenly matched and each one is pretty rough as you have seen by their wrestling methods used when they were here before. This is one match that will be well worth the price of the ringside seat.

Polio Party Raises $150.00

About $150.00 was cleared on the bridge, "42" and canasta party given last Thursday night at the Legion Hall for the benefit of the March of Dimes drive for the Polio Fund, Mrs. Rollin McCord reports.

Winners of prizes at the party were: Canasta, Mrs. J. A. South and Mrs. Ruby Ward; bridge, Sonny Roberts and Johnny Wells; "42", Mr. and Mrs. Carlice Edwards of New Home.

The turkey which was "raffled" at the party by Bob Gibbs was won by Mrs. Skiles Thomas.

Sandwiches, coffee, and cold drinks were also sold to those attending the party.

Mrs. McCord asked The News to express her thanks to Mrs. Beulah Applewhite and others who helped with staging the benefit event and to all the people who came out and helped make the affair a success.

Plan Measuring Cotton Acreage

Premeasurement of cotton acreage will again be offered Lynn County farmers in 1956, according to Dee Green of the ASC office.

To be eligible for this service, written requests must be filed at the County ASC Office and a deposit of $10.00 per plus $2.00 per plot for each plot in excess of one left with this office between now and March 31, 1956. Necessary forms are available at the ASC Office.

Producers will also be required to furnish stakes and assist the reporter making the premeasurement.

Requests received after March 31, cannot be accepted.

Premeasurement work will be started as soon as sufficient requests have been received to justify starting.

The final date for placing 1955 grain sorghum in the loan is January 31, 1956.

Little Ricky DeWayne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stark, who was born in a Lubbock hospital on Jan. 3, was able to be brought home Thursday of last week, and apparently is now doing much better, reports his grandmother, Mrs. Hubert Tankersley.

TEXAS LEGIONNAIRES FIGHT POLIO—State Commander Charles L. Downey inserts the first dime in the big "Join the March of Dimes" coin boards that have been placed in every Legion Hall in Texas for the 1956 polio appeal (Jan. 3-31). Mrs. Minnye Lyle, state secretary for the Legion Auxiliary, right, is head of the mammoth project. Texas Legion posts also are holding suppers, dances and parties for the benefit of the March of Dimes during January.

Foys Are Attending Fat Stock Show

A number of Lynn county 4-H and FFA boys will show their pigs in the Junior Show of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth this week end.

Among those taking their pigs are:

4-H boys: Sammy Anderson, and John Anderson, both of O'Donnell.

FFA boys: Larry Simmons, Glen Bairrington, Joe Patterson, Leon Anderson, Floyd Brasher, Walter Stica, Glenn Anderson, Joe Dockery, W. H. McNeely, and Walton Terry, all of Tahoka.

Bertram Hatchell of Wilson and County Agent Bill Griffin are also attending the show. Judging of the pigs will be on Saturday.

Amateurs Will Wrestle Tonight

Tonight the local arena will be turned over to the amateur wrestlers. The boys have been coming down and working out regularly and some of them are really coming along fine. We do not have near enough boys coming out but in the very near future the Golden Gloves will start and maybe we will have some very promising boxers.

On the amateur card Friday night we have two boys that wrestled on the first amateur night. Juan Castro and Alex Reese. Juan is in the lighter weight class and is wrestling a boy from Lubbock. John Ryese is following in his big brother's footsteps and has been coming down and working out as often as he could. He is showing great promise and the match between he and Juan Castro will be very close.

Douglas Fisher and Frank Martinez will be on the preliminary card. Both boys have been working out as much as their jobs will permit and they are in the light weight class.

Plenty of action and some laughs are in store for the amateur fans Friday night. The Amateurs are all out to win and some times they just don't care how

C. A. Coleman Place Is Located Near Wilson

Mystery Farm No. 78, pictured above, is the C. A. Coleman home place, located three and a half miles east of Wilson.

Although this is a prominent farm place owned by a pioneer settler, the only person to correctly identify it to The News was Jimmy Coleman, who lives in the house and who is a grandson of the owner, Mrs. C. A. Coleman of Wilson and her late husband, who died in 1951.

The elder Mrs. Coleman lived in the house until about six months ago, when she moved in to Wilson. She still does her own house work and has long been an active member, as has the whole Coleman family, in the Methodist Church of Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman came to Lynn County from Haskell county about 45 years ago, and Mr. Coleman acquired three or four sections of land east of Wilson. Wilson had just barely been started. They were not the first farmers in that area, but they are among the oldest farming family still farming in that section of Lynn county.

Mrs. Coleman has raised a fine family of three sons and two daughters who farm about four sections in that area, much of which is irrigated land. They are C. C. Coleman, L. A. Coleman, G. C. Coleman, Mrs. Chester Swope, and Mrs. Walter Savell. There are about 25 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

Jimmy says there is nearly a section in the home place, on which there are three irrigation wells. He farms about 200 acres of the home place. Along with his cotton and grain crops, he and his dad, C. C., have 12 head of beef

Improve Cotton Harvest Methods

College Station, Jan. 5—High Plains farmers in 1952 were in a position to weigh the economics of stripping versus handharvesting and to select the method that would yield the highest return. The early killing frost made machine-harvest practical. Their decision was neither to handharvest their entire crop nor to harvest it all by machine.

Instead, says a study just released by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, most farmers chose to first go over their good acreage by hand and then complete the harvest by machine. Low yielding acreages were stripped by machine the first time over.

Tenancy, report W. G. Adkins and W. H. Metzler, appeared in both the 1951 and '52 surveys as an obstacle to the use of mechanized harvesting. Landlords object to machine-harvesting on the basis of grade losses and lower returns while the tenant profits from lower harvesting costs. Recent studies, say the economists, indicate that grade losses are a matter of harvest time rather than of the method used. The earliness of a killing frost was also found to be an important factor in determining which method of harvest would be used.

For the 1951 and 1952 seasons, 40 percent against 42 percent of all bales were machine harvested on the High Plains. Only 8 percent of the farm operators hand-pulled all of their cotton in both 1951 and '52, but 16 percent stripped all their cotton in 1952 against 8 percent in 1951. The combination of hand and machine harvesting was used by 84 percent of the farmers in 1951 and by 76 percent in 1952.

Full owners cut back on machine-harvest while tenants increased their use of machines. In 1952 owners machine-harvested 45 percent of their cotton compared with 68 percent the year before. Tenants on the other hand jumped their use of machines from 26 percent in 1951 to 41 percent in 1952.

The research workers report that apparently little effort is made to use strippers to their and dairy cattle. A hundred acres of the land has been deep broken and floated.

potential. Strippers were used by most farmers for cleanup work rather than for harvesting the bulk of their crop.

The complete study is given in B-813, "Tenure and Mechanization of the Cotton Harvest, Texas High Plains" and is available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station.

Junior Girls Win At Slaton n

Tahoka Eighth Grade boys and girls played in the Slaton Junior High basketball tournament last week end, and the girls won the trophy in consolation play.

After losing to Cooper, 18 to 27, the girls, coached by J. B. Howell, South Elementary principal, went on to defeat Slaton A team 37 to 26 and Ralls 32 to 29 to win the championship of the consolation bracket.

In the game with Ralls, one player fouled out at about the three-quarter mark and another in the fourth period. Since only six girls were taken to the tournament, Tahoka had to finish out the game with only four players and still won. One of the forwards was moved to guard when two of the three guards fouled out.

Girls on the team are: Linda Williams, Barbara Thomas, and Sunny Gibson, guards; and Marjelen Reid, Sharon Applewhite, and Sandra McNeely, forwards.

The boys, coached by Coach Bill Haralson, were not so fortunate, losing their opener to more experienced Cooper 28 to 15 and their second to O'Donnell 23 to 12.

In the printing industry about 82 percent of all printed matter is done by letterpress; 13 percent by offset lithography; and 5 percent by gravure. Silk screen printing is a rapidly growing process.

During the last quarter, the Bulldogs came back scrapping, and outscored Abernathy 20 to 15, but this was not enough to overcome the big lead piled up.

Jack McGuire of the Antelopes, ineligible the first semester, was probably the difference as he scored 19 points while Junior Fitts put only 17 points through the basket.

Girls Lose, Too
 Tahoka girls again were unable to cope with their opponents, and went down in defeat 65 to 17. The girls had trouble getting acquainted with the very large court. Melton led Tahoka scoring with seven points.

Tahoka Takes Spur
 Tahoka boys defeated Spur boys 73 to 65 here Friday night in one of the best games ever played in the local gymnasium.

Not only was the game close all the way, but both teams played basketball and hit a large percentage of their shots. The game was tied up 11 times during the first three quarters of play, with neither team ever having a lead of more than four points. Much of this time Spur was out in front from two to four points, and Tahoka had one lead of three points.

Possibly the turning point of the game was early in the fourth when Junior Fitts hit a field shot with the score tied 54-54, followed by two free shots by Gordon Smith, a free shot by Spur, a field goal by L. W. Castleberry and two free shots by Fitts to give Tahoka a seven point lead. Tahoka pushed this lead to 10 points on scoring by Carlton Bell, Castleberry, and Fitts and then coasted in the last three minutes on a ball control game.

Tahoka trailed 11-13 at the end of the first period, 28-30 at the half, and tied it 52-52 at the end of the third.

The score was tied twice in the first period, three times in the second, five times in the third, and once early in the fourth. Tahoka scored 24 points to Spur's 22 in the third and 21 to Spur's 13 in the last. Spur controlled the backboard well in the first half, but Tahoka took more than its share of the rebounds in the second half.

Sensational shots and uncanny accuracy at field goal tries were featured by both teams. Fitts hit for 30 points, Castleberry 16, Smith 10. Four of the six Spur players scored in the double figures, but Tahoka held the usually high-scoring Ronnie Ensey to 16 points.

Tahoka was playing without the services of Guard Jerry Williams, who has been seriously ill and who will possibly not be able to play any more this season. But, Jerry Brown came through in fine manne and scored nine points while doing a fine job of ball-handling.

Girls Show Improvement
 Fans were proud of the improvement shown in this game by Tahoka's young and small but scrappy girls' team, but still they were no match for the Spur girls and lost 77 to 44.

But, the aggressive Tahoka girls, many of whom are Freshmen and Sophomores were "up and at'em" all the way, and this time were able to find the basket with better accuracy.

After tying the score 8-8 and 10-10 early in the first period, Spur pulled away to a 21-12 lead by the end of the quarter, led 42-28 at the half, 61-38 at end of the third, and Tahoka could score only six points in the fourth. Nah Alexander had 38 points and Jane Simpson 28 for the winners, while Virginia Gable had 23 and Jeanette Melton 13 for Tahoka.

Turkeys . . .

 per turkey poul, for the first six to eight weeks. Improvised equipment could be used, such as home made feeders, and chicken and hog feeders and waterers could be utilized. Plenty of shade area, either from trees, shrubs, trailers, buildings, or cheaply constructed shade structures, would meet the shelter requirements from brooding to market. Extensive range area is not necessary.

The feeding program suggested use of home grown milo in over half of the feed requirement. From the production records of a number of turkey producers in West Texas, it was shown that an average 20-pound turkey could be produced at a cost of around $4.00, including the value of home grown grain and the original poult cost. Turkeys could be started in late April and May and reach market size in approximately six months.

Several financing possibilities are available for covering the cost of the poults and commercial feed. Next Monday, Jan. 30, an area-wide all-day meeting for turkey growers is being held in Plainview. Mr. Thuren invited anyone desiring to attend to get in touch with him so that transportation can be arranged. This meeting will be of extreme value to prospective turkey growers, as they will be able to "rub elbows" with experienced growers and get valuable information direct from the "horse's mouth."

Appliance Men In Meeting Here

Twenty-three people attended the dinner meeting given Monday night at Club Cafe by Southwestern Public Service Co. for local electrical appliance dealers and salesmen.

Talks following the steak dinner dealt with merchandising problems and the current advertising campaign being conducted by the company on electrical dryers, as well as other appliances.

The talks were made by Rex Brown, utilization department manager; Nolen Swain, merchandising; Frank Lee, advertising; and Xie Collins and Peggy Fletcher, home service advisors, all of Lubbock; and Johnny Reasonover, local manager for the company.

Mrs. Minnie Proctor underwent major surgery at Tahoka Hospital Thursday morning.

The Texan is built for Texas driving. It skims swiftly along the big broad highways, it rips over hills like a hungry cougar, it takes the bumpiest, ruttiest, sandiest road and comes back for more. Powered by the mighty engine that busted the AAA record book wide open at Bonneville Salt Flats, it gives you the same superior engineering and design that made Dodge the greatest sales-gainer in the industry in 1955.

Plenty of special features, too . . . specially designed interior trim, special paint combinations, jaunty twin exhaust pipes, and other smart touches. The Texan's name is proudly blazoned on both rear fenders.

Truly a beautiful car to be admired by you and your fellow-Texans.

Best of all, the Texan is priced right down with the so-called "low-priced three." Yet it's big and powerful and luxurious . . . rivaling cars costing as much as a thousand dollars more! Visit your nearest Dodge Dealer now and drive the Texan!

Rep. Geo. Mahon Opposes Proposal To Base Cotton Support On 1-Inch

Mahon (D-Texas) testified before a recent session of the Senate Agriculture Committee that a proposed plan to base cotton price support on one-inch staple cotton would bring "widespread dissatisfaction and heavy losses to cotton farmers."

Mahon sharply attacked what he termed a "double-barreled threat" to cotton farmers in two plans which have been incorporated in a suggested bill and which are being actively considered by the Senate Committee on Agriculture.

One of the proposals, which was supported by President Eisenhower in his farm message to Congress, would make one-inch staple cotton the basis for support prices.

The other would provide for 90 per cent of parity on one-inch staple cotton and a lower support on cotton of less than one inch staple.

Regarding the President's proposal, Mahon told the Senators if the support price in 1955 had been based on one-inch staple instead of seven-eighths inch as provided by the present law, it would have reduced the price of cotton by 2.85 cents per pound, by $14.25 per bale and would have meant a loss to Texas cotton farmers of about $60 million and a loss on the nation's 14 million bale cotton crop of $300 million.

"Of course, all of the cotton did not go into the government loan," Mahon said, "but the effect on the price was there just the same. The reduction of the price of cotton under the program in 1956 would be 3.46 cents per pound—that is if the support level is changed from seven-eighths inch to one inch."

"That would mean," Mahon continued, "a loss of $17.30 per bale and a loss of $242 million on 14 million bales."

The other proposal which Mahon opposed calls for special preference for long staple cotton and a lower parity support for cotton of less than one inch. (Cont' on back page, Sec. 2)

PERFORMANCE made it the Largest Selling "8" in the World...

the FORD V-8

Just look at these official registration figures for the first 11 months—January through November, 1955

	Car Sales	Ford Sales Leadership
FORD V-8	1,241,742
Car C—V-8	634,376 607,366
Car P—V-8	262,870 978,872
Car C—Six	845,153 396,589
Car P—Six	334,540 907,202

Here's why!

People just naturally go for 8 cylinders in the FORD package!

And to a world record extent! Just think, in the first 11 months of 1955 alone, 344,496 more people bought Ford V-8's than bought the two other low-priced competitive eights combined! They even bought 396,589 more Ford V-8's than the next competitive Six!

Of course, the reason the Ford V-8 is the largest selling eight-cylinder car in the world is that more people like its brand of performance—the kind that comes with the car!

These people aren't amateurs in judging engines. Nearly 24 years of building Ford V-8's to supply their demand is convincing proof of that.

And the Ford V-8 of today is the best yet... by a country mile!

Smoother and quietest you can scarcely hear it, even with the hood up! Sossier—just ask the highway patrol officer who drives one. He knows it takes a Ford to catch a Ford!

And, for the very practical question of durability—ask a Ford cab driver. He knows how Fords take it days on end.

So, if it's performance that you want—and wrapped like a gift—the '56 Ford V-8 is your baby.

Odds and Ends

(By E. I. The Elder)

"Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned," some would-be philosopher wrote, but he forgot about politician hunting for a fatal fault in the record of the opposing candidate. One such man itching for office can stir up a terrific tempest in a teapot, in a jiffy. We have been witnessing one such tempest in Washington during the past three weeks.

Personally I do not think that it makes much difference what Secretary Dulles said or didn't say. We know that all Russian communists, like all Cretians of the Apostle Paul's day, are "always liars, evil beasts," and it behooves us not to believe anything that they tell us of other peoples either. We must pray, walk humbly with our God, and keep a loaded gun sitting behind the door.

Our beloved Texas congressman, Sam Rayburn, Democrat, and Speaker of the House of Representatives, surprised us the other day. Former President Herbert Hoover had proposed that Congress should create a new administrative post, a sort of second Vice-President to relieve the President of some of his arduous duties by doing a lot of little chores which the President now has to do—a handy boy about the house to bring in the wood and water, as Jim Ferguson used to express it—and thereupon Mr. Rayburn turned his technical lawyer eye upon the proposal and came up with the conclusion that such a procedure would be Un-Constitutional. Does't Mr. Rayburn know that the Supreme Court, even without any action of Congress, has the "implied power" to do anything it finds necessary to be done to meet a public necessity? By reason of this "implied power" which it claims to have, it is going into our school-rooms and telling the pupils and teachers and patrons that "there shall be no segregation here," into our buses and taxicabs and railroad cars and telling the conductors and the passengers, "there shall be no segregation here;" it is going into our public Parks and swimming pools and telling the supervisors and the swimmers and picnickers and the beach beauties, "There shall be no segregation here;" it is going into our state capitols and telling our Governors and Legislatures, "There shall be no segregation anywhere within your boundaries. We will only give you time to accept the inevitable."

Does't Mr. Rayburn know that all these procedures are Constitutional by reason of the "implied powers" which the Supreme Court says it has? If it can Constitutionally do all these things, why can't it authorize somebody to tote in the wood and bring in the water for the President while he attends to the weightier matters of the Government, some of which Mr. Rayburn thinks he is neglecting?

Instead of quarreling about what Secretary John Foster Dulles may have said or didn't say, and instead of using up columns of newspaper space in criticism of the over-loaded President of the United States, it seems to me that it is high time for us to unite all our forces and prove to the world that we are united, in a determined effort to hold our own if and when an ambitious and power-mad Russia should be foolish enough to start a war that could blot both of these nations off the face of the earth. Already Russia is far-advanced on a program to first choke us to death and then shoot us to pieces to her heart's content, if we are to believe apparently well authenticated evidence given before a committee of the House of Representatives in Washington D. C. one day last week. The witness was Admiral Arleigh A. Burke, chief of Naval Operations. His testimony was published in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram of Thursday, January 19, and doubtless in many other daily papers also, and many of you, no doubt, have already read it; but it is so vitally important, that all of us should give it heed, and therefore I am going to quote from it copiously.

Now I quote: "The admiral was asked to comment on reports concerning the ability of the Russians to approach American shores with submarines equipped to launch missiles on U. S. targets. "He replied that the United States has had submarines capable of launching missiles for about two years and said, 'They are good.' We have no reason to believe that the Soviet Union could not have the same capability." "Burke also made these points in his testimony:

1. "Russia is building a Navy designed to break U. S. control of the seas around Europe and Asia, and has become a major naval power second only to the United States."

2. He called this the "most significant development in Soviet grand strategy since World War II" and added: "It is obvious the U. S. S. R. has one purpose in mind, and that is to prevent U. S. Naval forces and shipping to enter the waters surrounding Europe and Asia."

3. "The Red Navy has built more destroyers and cruisers since World War II than all other navies of the world combined."

4. "Soviet Union now has a huge overseas fleet of more than 400 submarines, and a large percent of them are newly constructed, long-range U-boats."

"Representative Short of Missouri told Burke that on the basis of classified information which the admiral made available to the Committee, the United States will have by June 30, 1957, less than half the number of submarines the Russians will possess. The Admiral said that was a correct statement."

5. "He said that as far as is known, the Russians do not have an atomic powered submarine in operation but it is anticipated that they would not be far behind the United States in constructing such craft."

And so, it seems to me that we should be concerning ourselves about preserving our nation and our civilization against the hordes of Russia who are promoting Communism and atheism and totalitarianism and "Free Love," which means unrestrained and promiscuous immorality, rather than to be fostering division and false ideas about racial equality socially, and aggravating racial prejudices, all of which our Supreme Court has been doing recently by its radical and questionable decisions, as we view the Constitution.

That these decisions are not tending or helping to solve the "race problem" but are aggravating it and creating divisions among our people, is proven by news reports coming practically every day through the newspapers, over the radio, and the television, respecting steps that are being taken—some of them radical—in Southern states to off-set, modify, or nullify the effect of these decisions.

Leaders among the Negroes themselves are being misled into believing that all racial distinctions are soon to be wiped out by these decisions. Segregation is to be succeeded by a social equality system known as Integration, which they are hailing with unbounded joy. Integration, of course, is to be the fore-runner of Miscegenation or the unrestrained inter-marriage of blacks and whites. This is the golden goal to which the colored aristocrats are looking forward. You ask for proof of this? Here is some cogent evidence.

In order to be fair, presumably, and in order to give the Negroes a hearing, the Baptist Standard is running a series of three articles written by a leader of Negroes in Louisiana Rev. or Dr. W. R. Griggs, in which the writer opposes "Segregation" of the races. I have before me the first two of these articles, the first one appearing in the issue of January 7, from which I can quote only briefly:

"When the word 'segregation' is thought, seen, or heard in the United States, perhaps in many sections of the world, it means a kind of separation based on color of human beings. It means that white citizens are in the majority and in full control. It really means, consciously or unconsciously, intentionally or unintentionally, shutting out the Negro people from free and full participation on an equal basis with white people.

Many people sincerely ask, 'What is wrong with segregation?' 'Segregation is wrong because it is based on the false assumption that some people, by nature, are inherently inferior, while others are inherently superior.' (Plus other reasons, some of which seem to have merit) his whole article on the assumption that there are no superior and no inferior people in the United States, or presumably in the world. This is a mistaken assumption that is not taught either in the Bible or in the Constitution of the United States in either the original or the amended instrument.

I will not use the space here now to discuss that, but I should like to ask if the colored brother means to take the position that the Southern white man is not superior, by nature, to the ordinary Louisiana illiterate Creole? Or, if the ordinary American Negro isn't superior to the Hottentots, the Bushmen, the Basutos, and other Bantu tribes in South Africa, whose numbers run into countless millions. In intelligence and mental capacity, hundreds of thousands of them register little higher than the native baboon and the chimpanzee, but they are universally regarded as people, for they speak a crude language understood by other members of their particular tribe, though they

Why buy a truck in the dark?

If you buy a new truck after looking at only one make, it's like making a deal in the dark. You can't be sure of getting the most for your money.

A smarter way to buy is to "spotlight" real truck value—weigh and compare competitive claims with these Dodge truck facts:

- ★ Most standard V-8 horsepower of all leading makes—1/2-ton through 3 1/2-ton range. You'll get faster trips—more work done with DODGE.
- ★ Shortest turning radius. You'll park more easily, wheel through traffic quicker with DODGE.

★ Biggest cabs, with biggest wrap-around windshield. You'll enjoy roomier comfort, safer vision with DODGE.

★ Highest payload capacities . . . pick-ups providing up to 22% more payload than others. You'll haul bigger, more profitable loads with DODGE.

★ Prices down with the lowest. Comparative facts show that, feature for feature and dollar for dollar, the real value is DODGE.

Next truck you buy, don't deal in the dark. Turn a bright light on the facts—see Dodge before you buy.

an inferior people: far inferior to the race of Negroes living in Texas. You are badly mistaken, Dr. Griggs, when you "assume" that there are no superior and no inferior people.

In his second article, which appeared in the Standard of January 13; Dr. Griggs continues to expatiate against segregation and he pointed out the remedy for the dreadful evil to be integration. He refused to accept the dogma implied in the expression "Separate but Equal" as applied to facilities for the education, transportation, employment and business opportunities, and general welfare of the negroes. Then he gives the remedy for this dire condition which the whites are imposing upon the colored people.

"Separate but Equal?"— "Impossible," he says.

"The only answer possible," he says, is "Integration of Negroes and Whites on an equal footing, with free and full participation unrestricted by color."

So there you have it. His third article in the Standard did not run last week. When it does run, it will doubtless be just more of the same.

In the meantime, if the colored brother is right, I am wondering why the Lord made these two races white and black to start with. If segregation is wrong and integration of the two races is right and desirable, why did he at the start put one race mostly on one continent and the other race, the Negro race, down on another continent.

If integration of the two races is right and desirable, it seems that our colored brother found it out many years before the Lord did.

Furthermore, when the Lord caused Moses and Joshua to lead the children of Israel out of Egypt into the Promised Land, he commanded them to instruct the Israelites never to inter-marry with any of the peoples than living in the promised land but on the contrary to drive them out or destroy them. That seems like a rather harsh way to get the natives out of the way, but it shows clearly that the Lord was strictly opposed to "Integration" in that day and time, 3,000 years ago.

Now, don't misunderstand me, folks. I am not against the color-

To: WANDA TONEY, Greeting:
You are commanded to appear and answer the plaintiff's petition at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday after the expiration of 42 days from the date of issuance of this Citation, the same being Monday the 20th day of February, A. D. 1956, at or before 10 o'clock A. Said plaintiff's petition was filed on the 7th day of January, 1956.

The file number of said suit being No. 2000, The names of the parties in said suit are: Jimmy Toney as Plaintiff, and Wanda Toney, as Defendant.

The nature of said suit being substantially as follows, to wit: Being a suit for divorce annulling and dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between said parties, alleging as grounds, therefor, cruel, harsh and tyrannical treatment on the part of defendant against plaintiff, and further seeking the care, custody and control of Martin Wallace Toney, a boy four years of age, and being the only child born of their marriage, further alleging that the only community property is one car, the value of which is less than the indebtedness against it, and seeking a decree declaring it to be plaintiffs' separate property, and further praying for his costs and general relief, all of which more fully appears in plaintiff's original petition on file in this office and to which reference is here made.

If this Citation is not served within 90 days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

ed people; I am for them. Times have changed and conditions have changed, and I feel that now we have a responsibility to help and encourage colored people living among us. I think that we should provide good schools for them, and should help them in their church work. A few of them seem to be criminally minded and have to be restrained by law, but many of them are fine people—better than a lot of white people I know. We should treat them kindly and help them in many ways. But it is my impression that most of them do not object to residential segregation. Most of them have segregated themselves, and they get along with most of the white folks here in a fine way. The two races here are friendly each toward the other, and that is as it should be. But that does not mean that we should merge and become one race—an integrated race.

Farmers Report Bill Opposition

Wilmer Smith and Howard Alford of New Home returned home Thursday night from the National Council of Farmers Cooperatives meeting held in Los Angeles the first part of last week.

Wilmer says they returned with the feeling that the South Plains has some friends among the California farmers in regard to current legislative proposals in Congress affecting cotton.

He feels that California, or at least some influential farm leaders out there, will oppose the bill proposed by Senator Ellender of Louisiana which would change the basis from seven-eighths to one inch and widen the basis on lower grades and shorter staples.

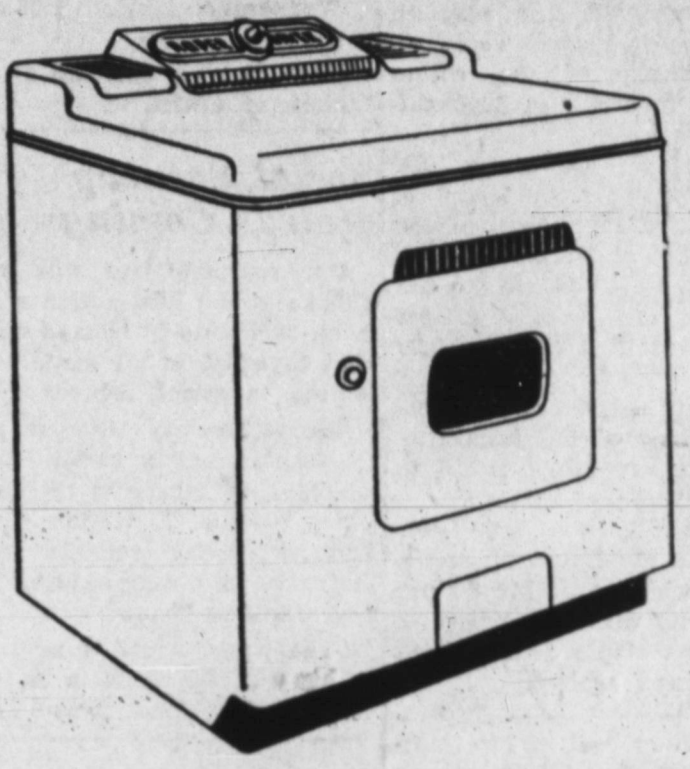

If such legislation should be passed, Smith raises the question, What would be the position of the Cladding Office at Lubbock? A lot would be left to the individual judgment of the classer at that office, and no doubt farmers will be besieging that office to see an actual measurement and grading of their cotton.

The two men gained the impression that opposition to the Ellender bill is picking up.

Mahon . . .

(Cont'd. From Page 1, Sec. 2) Mahon denied that short staple cotton was responsible for the cotton surplus. He explained that 62 percent of all U. S. cotton in government hands last August 1 was one-inch staple. He said, therefore that the great majority of the surplus cotton in government hands is long staple.

Mahon insisted that there was a need for both long and short staple cotton and that the proposed attempt to provide a lower level for parity for short staple cotton was rank discrimination.

"Such action would be a body blow to the cotton farmers of Texas where 79 percent of all cotton of less than one-inch staple is produced," Mahon testified. He appealed to the Senators to reject this portion of the proposed bill. Mahon declared that adoption of these two proposals would reduce the income of the cotton farmer far in excess of $200 million a year.

"It would be hypocritical for Congress to say it is trying to take care of the problems of the cotton farmer and come up with a law which would reduce the cotton farmers' income by a quarter of a billion dollars annually," he said.

The Senate Committee will continue its study of the farm situation before presenting a bill to the full Senate for action.

Legislation already has been approved by the House of Representatives which calls for 90 percent of parity without the penalty against short staple cotton which Mahon warned against.

It takes 50 railroad cars to transport the New York City telephone directors from the printer in Chicago to the Eastern metropolis.

Social Security Man Is Coming

Our representative will be in Tahoka at the Post Office at 3:00 p. m. on February 1st and will be glad to assist in all matters pertaining to social security.

"Social Security cannot be given for employment of certain family members by others in the family group," John G. Hutton of the Lubbock social security office said today. His cautions along this line continue below:

"The wages which a man pays to his wife for work in an unincorporated business owned by the husband must not be reported on the regular quarterly wage report. This employment of one spouse by the other is specifically excluded from coverage by the Social Security Act.

"The following work is also barred from social security credit: a son or daughter, under age 21, working for his father or mother, and a father or mother working for a son or daughter.

Among the nation's top 20 manufacturing industries is the printing industry. It ranks eighth in dollar value, with a total of almost five billion dollars.

Letters From News Readers—

(The News welcomes letters from its readers on any current subject, not libelous, of course. All communications must be of reasonable length and must be signed. On request, the signature will not be printed. The Editor.)

To The News:

As I read my News of Dec. 30, it made me sad to know that so many of the oldsters are passing on, but that and taxes are two debts that are a MUST!

Mr. Editor, you do not remember me, I am sure, but I am sure you remember the Clayton family. My husband was Perry. I came West with my little family of four in 1940 and located here at Rainier, Oregon, across the Columbia River from Longview, Wash., 50 miles northwest of Portland and 85 miles southeast of Astoria, Ore.

Rainier is about the size of Tahoka, but is more than 100 years old, was one-time a lumber camp. Beautiful country in the foothills of Coastal Range, covered with the beautiful evergreens of fir, cedar, hemlock, and spruce.

The hitch is that man is denuding this country of its beautiful scenery, which, with the aid of mountain road-building is causing so many landslides of which we are sorely plagued at present, also aided by so much moisture above the normal amount.

I read in your December 30 edition of Jay Moore owning a farm in the Great Fraser River valley at Chilliwack (Canada)—a wonderful country. I happen to know this man, also his twin brother, Kay. They were my pupils at old T-Bar School some 33 years ago. I am happy to know both boys are doing well for themselves. They have wonderful parents, and also a younger brother (I don't remember his name.)

I receive the paper regularly. It arrives on Tuesday each week. I really look forward to its arrival, for it carries news from the old stomping grounds. Mrs. Tulas (nee Ferguson), step-daughter of late D. M. Estes, Rt. 1, Box 560, Rainier, Oregon.
