STANDING ON THE CORNER

With F. J.

"Be not forgetful of prayer. Every time you pray, if your prayer is sincere, there will be new feeling and new meaning in it, which will give you fresh courage, and you will understand that prayer is an education."—Dostoyevsky.

The roar of the press, the clatter of the linotype, and the pinge of the telephone seem like quite companions when compared to the screeching of the television, the vibration of the washing machine, and the back door carelessly slammed by a couple of wild Indians. They say the housewife has a life of ease—but she's one of the hardest working persons in town. She is non-salaried, but is one of the richest you'll find anywhere. She is paid in terms of love and appreciation (sometimes)—which makes it all worthwhile.

Jan Collier was quoted as saying that she isn't having much trouble with her English courses down at McMurry, thanks to a good background. However, her vocabulary is increasing. She said she recently learned the meaning of the word paradox: two doctors. Guess the kids are getting some "jarning" in college after all.

As usual, I managed to convey the wrong message last week. "Standing" will not cease for three or four weeks, so just grit your teeth and bear with me a few lines longer.

Have you gals ever thought how far we country hicks have strayed away from the acceptable ways of dressing down here?

Even a few miles north of us there are women who would drop dead at the thought of going hatless to do the marketing (getting the groceries, to you).

And the thought of not dressing up to Emily's standards to buy the hubby a new tie would horrify some people.

According to Emily, one MUST wear a hat to a banquet, to church or to a tea—but like most small towns, Tahoka sets its own standards. Vary rarely is a "vegetable garden" seen at a banquet here, and as for other functions, we take 'em or leave 'em.

You'll probably agree that our way is much more relaxed—to say the least—but it does make it a little hard on a newcomer. Maybe someone should write a book for our new lady citizens on what is and is not expected in Tahoka. But it probably wouldn't make any difference—all of us do about what we want to in the fashion world, anyway.

New Home Seniors Will Visit New York And Washington

New Home Senior Class and sponsors are leaving May 24 on an air-conditioned train for an eight day guided, sight-seeing tour of Washington, D. C. and New York City.

Some of the places of interest they will see in Washington, D. C. are Bureau of Engraving and Printing, the Washington Monument, Capitol building, Supreme Court building, Congressional Library, Arlington Cemetery, Alexandria and Mt. Vernon, home of George Washington and Martha Washington, Lincoln Memorial, Smithsonian Institute, National Art Gallery, Archives Building, Ford Theatre, and the White House.

In New York they will tour upper and lower Manhattan, visit United Nations building, and tour around Manhattan Island. They will go completely around four million people in four and one-half hours.

They are also hoping to attend at least one outstanding television program.

When they return on May 31, they hope to be able to tell an interesting story about all these places of interest.

Brother of Local Man Found Dead

J. W. Lemon, 74 only brother of W. I. Lemon of Tahoka, was found hanging from a rafter in a barn at his home in Lubbock Tuesday night. He had been in ill health for two years.

Funeral services were held at 10 a. m. Thursday at Canyon Baptist Church, east of Lubbock, with Rev. Curtis Jackson, pastor, assisted by Rev. H. O. Abbot, Methodist minister, officiating. Burial was in City of Lubbock Cemetery.

Mr. Lemon was a widely-known Lubbock county farmer, living at the eastern outskirts of the city. He moved to the Lubbock farm in 1917 from Clyde.

He was an uncle of Mrs. Jack Waldrep, also of Tahoka.

Carol Nelson and Ginger Riddle, injured in a car accident recently, are reported by Tahoka Hospital attendants to be showing continued improvement.

Child Is Injured By Motor Scooter

Raymond Lee, two little son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Lee of Seminole and Paducah, was the victim of a near-critical accident Sunday at about 1:15 p. m. when he was run over by a motor scooter in front of the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee.

The child received a fractured skull and deep gash over the left eye, and has since been a patient in Tahoka Hospital. The left eye was also badly bruised, but doctors do not think the vision is impaired.

Raymond was playing in the yard while the family looked on. When he ran into the street after a ball he ran in front of the motor scooter.

The E. M. Lees were visiting here while E. M. was being transferred from Seminole to Paducah by the oil company for which he works.

FENTON TO MAYOS

R. W. Fenton, Jr., accompanied by his wife, left Wednesday morning for the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn. for some time and victim of another attack of some kind 10 days ago, he made rapid recovery and returned home from the hospital in Lubbock last week end.

Mrs. Hattie Yates was a medical patient in Tahoka Hospital this week.

Cotton Planting Well Underway

Most Lynn county farmers are busy this week planting their crops, particularly cotton, although a few farmers are already finished with the operation and some others will wait another week or two.

However, one fairly reliable "sidewalk farmer" estimated the crop would be 60 percent planted by Saturday night.

The unusually good bottom season, as well as planting moisture, gives every prospect for a good crop year.

Many have delayed planting, though, because of the unseasonably cool spring. In fact, soil temperature is just now getting around 60 degrees, the minimum temperature for safe planting, farmers declare.

Showers late Monday afternoon were light, with only .07 recorded in Tahoka.

Judging Team Wins First Place

Lynn county's 4-H entomology judging team won first place and the "share the fun" skit by girls won second at the 20-county area contests held in Lubbock Saturday, and the two teams will represent the area in the state contests at College Station, Texas A. and M. College, June 10, 11, and 12.

The first place entomology team is composed of Denver and Lester Ford and Lynetta Cain, with Joe Roper as alternate.

Winning second in the share-the-fun contest, a skit, was Jo Ann Lacy and Sandra Singleton, both of O'Donnell, and they too go to College.

Don Hammonds of Tahoka won third place in the tractor operation contest.

The livestock judging team placed fifth in its contest, but Robert Bessire was third highest individual in swine judging and Larry James was third individual in sheep judging. The team as a whole placed second in sheep judging.

New Home Has Baptist Pastor

Rev. Hubert Austin is the new pastor of New Home Baptist Church, succeeding Rev. Robert Clements, who resigned recently. He is already filling the pulpit, but will not move to New Home until after May 15, the close of school at Gordon, where the family now resides.

Both Rev. Austin and his wife, Virginia, are natives of Abilene, and he is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University. He also spent two years in the Southwestern Theological Seminary at Fort Worth.

His first pastorate was at Lakeview Baptist Church a few years ago, and he is therefore not a stranger at New Home. After leaving Lakeview, he was pastor of Greenhill Baptist Church in Snyder. From there, he went to Gordon, near Fort Worth.

Rev. and Mrs. Austin have three children, Larry, age seven; Mickey, age four; and Renee, age four-teen-months.

The three-bedroom residence is being built of frame and stucco construction, and Earl McCuiston is the contractor.

Rev. Joe Webb is pastor at the Sweet Street church.

School Transfers Are Now Due

The time for transfer of school students from one school to another is here, according to Mrs. Ruth Jolly, county superintendent.

This includes children of school age, those who will be six years of age before next September 1 and those not over 18 by Sept. 1. Such transfers must be made during May, or before June 1.

School Constuction Approved By Voters

Tahoka School Closing Set

Tahoka's school closing exercises will get underway Sunday night, May 18, when the class sermon exercises will be held in the High School auditorium.

Seventh grade exercises will be held on Thursday night, May 22. High School graduation this year will be on Friday night, May 23.

Summer Classes Planned Here

Plans are being made for a summer school here again this year, the size of which and courses offered depending on the demand, states High School Principal John Shepherd.

Floyd Tubb, commercial teacher, will offer courses in typing which will be open to both high school youths and to adults. A one-half unit course will cost the student $15.00, and the full one unit course will cost $25.00.

Drivers' education will be offered by two teachers, if the demand is sufficient, Clifton Gardner of Wilson and Tom Bartley.

An American History class will be taught by Dean Wright, and Mrs. George Young will offer courses in world history and Spanish.

Anyone interested should contact the high school officials at once.

Adams Places In State Meet

James Adams, Tahoka High School senior honor student, won third place in Conference A number sense in the Texas Interscholastic League contests held at the University of Texas in Austin last week end.

He had previously placed first in the district at Lubbock, which event he has won all four years he has been in high school. He won regional twice in the event, and this was his second competition in the State Meet. Benny Thorpe, math instructor, accompanied James to Austin.

James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Adams, is valedictorian of the 1958 graduating class, a member of the National Honor Society, vice president of the student body, and has lettered in both football and track.

Harvey Johnson Dies At Odessa

Harvey D. Johnson, 38, formerly of Lynn county and the son of Mrs. C. C. Johnson, who now lives in Seminole, died at 11 p. m. Friday in an Odessa hospital after a short illness.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p. m. Sunday in the First Baptist Church of Odessa and burial followed in Seminole Cemetery.

Johnson was reared in Lynn county, attended the Tahoka schools, and was married to a Tahoka girl, the former Miss Dorothy Holland. A 32nd degree Mason, he was also a member of the Baptist Church and was employed as a salesman for Walker-McDonald Bit Co. of Dallas.

Survivors include his wife; a daughter, Brenda Kay, age 11; a son, Kendall, age five; and his mother.

MISS DUBE WILL TEACH

Miss Janet Dube of Wilson, a graduate of Tahoka High School, who expects to graduate this month from Concordia Teachers College in Seward, Nebraska, has been called to teach in Pilgrim Lutheran Church at Bellaire, Texas.

A very light turn-out of only 150 voters approved a $200,000 bond issue in the election Saturday to build four classrooms, a second gymnasium, improve the Negro school, and to make other needed improvements to the plant of the Tahoka School district.

Voters approved the bond issue 135 to 32. They also voted the board permission to raise the ad valorem tax rate up to $1.00 for maintenance purposes, the count being 132 to 13. They also voted 135 to 13 in favor of the bond assumption feature, necessary because of past consolidations of rural districts with the Tahoka district.

Voting of the bonds will make necessary the raising of property taxes in the district by about 20 percent.

The bonds have been tentatively sold, subject to approval of the Attorney General of Texas, which approval is expected in about 30 days. They are 20-year bonds. Those maturing from 1959 to 1969 will bear 3.75 percent interest; from 1969 to 1973, four percent; 1973, 4.5 percent, unless paid off ahead of time.

Present bonded indebtedness of the district is $386,000. DeWitt & Maeker are the architects for both the elementary school addition and the gymnasium building.

The gymnasium will be located on the northeast corner of the high school campus, facing north, where it will be convenient to both schools and to the football field and parking lot.

The main building will have two practice courts, but one game court 50 by 90 feet in size and there will be seats for 925 spectators. Permanent seats will be on the west and folding bleachers on the east. At the front will be a foyer, concessions area, and rest rooms for men and women.

The building also contains on the west a coaches' office, dressing rooms and showers for home and visiting boys, and girls teams, and equipment rooms, which will also be convenient to the nearby football field.

The building of the modern gymnasium leaves Post and Spur the only two schools in this area without modern structures of this type.

The building will permit a better physical development program in the local schools, as the State Department was beginning to put pressure on the local school for more facilities. Heretofore, a majority of the school students had little or no access to the gym for exercise.

When the south elementary school building was erected, four rooms had to be deleted because of insufficient funds. These four rooms will be added to the east end of the structure as originally planned.

Dunbar School for Negroes will be remodeled and improved to teach 10 grades there. A full-time high school is not permitted at Dunbar under state law, which requires a 12-teacher system as a minimum for a 12-grade school.

Needed repairs will be made to North Elementary School, and the science department also will be improved if sufficient funds are left.

New Home Grade School Program

New Home Grade School will present a program tonight, Friday at 8:00 o'clock in the school gymnasium, according to Supt. C. O. Head.

The program will include an operetta presented by the upper grades, and skits, songs, etc. by the lower grades of the school.

MONTGOMERY HOME

Will Montgomery, a medical patient in Tahoka Hospital the past month, was taken home Thursday. His condition is reported as "fair."

1939 Basketball Prospects Good

Spring basketball training was ended Thursday night with next year's squad dropping a close 41 to 39 decision to the graduating Seniors from this year's squad.

Coach Jake Jacobs' next-year boys looked very well in their game, although much work will be needed to develop the boys into a smooth-operating team.

Even at that, the starters led the 1938 boys 13 to 7 at one time in the first quarter. They were ever behind more than five points, and 12 boys were used by the coach in the contest.

The score by quarters was: 9-15, 23-19, 31-28, and 41-39.

Starters on the up-coming team were: Jerry Adams, only returning regular, who scored three points; David Bray, nine points; George Adams, eight; Weldon Calloway, seven; and Billy Tomlinson, three. Frank Greathouse, freshman who alternated with the starters, scored three. Sophomores on the second team seeing action included Jerry Bragg, two, Gerald Huffaker, Billy Cain and Larry Forsythe also two, Paul Ford, and Gerald Short played some. Other boys on the squad include John Hegi, David Copeland, Larry Spruiell, and Douglas McClellan.

Last year's starters, playing without practice since basketball season, were Jerry Brown, Jay Gurley, Karl Prohl, and Marlin Hawthorne, with help from Senior squadman Jackie Appiewhite, Gaylon Tekell, and Virgle Hicks. Gurley was high point man of the game with 16 points, and Brown had 14.

Actually, basketball play ended the next day with an inter-squad game, won by the Blues 43 to 33. Frank Greathouse scored 12 points and Gerald Huffaker 10 points for the winners, while Jerry Adams scored 15 and Gerald Huffaker eight for the losers.

Coach Jacobs is well pleased with the prospects for next year.

Manager Explains Player Selection

Since some parents and boys were pretty much disappointed Monday afternoon when new recruits were "bought" for the Pony and Little League baseball teams, one of the team managers, Charles Reid, suggests the public should be informed a little more on the rules.

National Little League and Pony League rules are very stringent on some points.

A Little League team is allowed to carry only 15 boys on its roster. Each team loses a few boys each year by age and for other reasons, and only these boys may be replaced. Since some of the teams lost only a very few boys, this was all they could replace, and they had to be of the proper ages.

Of the 15 boys on a squad, five boys must be 12 years of age, five in the 11-year bracket, and five 10 years of age or under.

There were about 15 eleven year old boys and ten or more in the lower age bracket who could not be selected.

The managers used as good judgment as possible and realize there are many boys capable of playing who could not be selected, but these managers have to abide by

Little League Players Drawn

Players were "bought" with points by managers of the four Tahoka Little League teams Monday afternoon at the Legion Hall, and work-outs will begin immediately preparatory to opening of the season on May 26.

Johnny Wells, player agent, announces the following distribution of players:

New boys: Robert Lewis Medlin, Wendell Dwight Medlin, Gary Don Tomlinson, Wayland Fenimore Taylor, Jr., Jimmy Allen Billman. (Still have to pick one 12 year old).

New boys: Glenden Riddle, Mitchell Conway Williams, Johnny Anderson, Jose Cervantez, (one 10 or below still to be chosen.)

New Players In Pony League

Players were selected for the two Pony League baseball teams in the Tahoka-Post League Monday afternoon held at 5 p. m.

Jack Smith and E. L. Short, managers of the Orioles, "bought" with points the following 13-year old boys: Andy Bray, Larry Thomas, Taylor Knight, Jack Burk, Bill Kopesky, Tony Spruiell, Emmett Long, and Ray Mouser.

Hold-over boys on the team, all 14 years of age, are: Fernando Lopez, Finis Rogers, Billy Nance, John Freddie Thomas, Billy Davis and Johnny Rios. They also acquired two 14 year old boys, Glen Hopkins and Steve Ellis, from the Braves, as that team had 10 boys that age and are allowed only eight. Incidentally, in Pony League there are eight each fourteen and thirteen years of age.

Roy Harvick and C. R. Burleson, managers of the Braves, have as new team members Henry Chapa, Robert Curry, Jerry Forsythe, Craig Leslie, Buddy Mahurin, Charles Burleson, Domingo Farias, and Kenneth Scott, all 13 years of age.

Hold-over 14 year old boys are: Joe Gary, Jerry Chapa, Johnny Marez, Tommy Jones, Jim Robinson, Curtis Harvick, Robert Hood, and Ronnie Brown.

Workouts will be held between now and the opening date on May 27.

A plan is being discussed for organizing these boys left out into a Minor League, or forming a team or teams to play in the New Home League or the league of other neighboring towns. For this, more sponsors and managers are needed.

Build Bleachers At Ball Park

Bleachers are in process of construction at the Little League and Pony League ball park this week, and they will be ready before the opening of the baseball season, C. W. Conway, Little League president, announces.

Wilmer Smith Cites Dire Need For Cotton Legislation In Talk Here

Wilmer Smith of New Home, vice president of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., and a South Plains farm leader, presented some more problems of cotton in a talk at Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday noon of last week.

"There is nothing optimistic in the picture for cotton," he stated in his opening remarks. "King Cotton may be replaced on the throne."

He said he would attempt to take up the cotton problem where "Cotton" Carter left off in a talk before the club two weeks previously.

He pointed out there has been a support program for cotton for the past several years. The acreage "freeze" at the level of 1956 has been in effect for the years 1956, 1957, and 1958. With the expiration of this "freeze," he says we have never had it so bad until now.

If new cotton legislation is not enacted by congress during this season or during the first five or six weeks of next session, before cotton planting starts in the Valley, the Plains producer is in for a rough time, he declared.

Without new legislation, the acreage will cut to 14 million acres or less, or a 22 to 25 percent reduction. About 85 percent of the cotton farmers produce 15 percent of all our cotton, since a majority of the cotton farmers of the nation have only four, five, or 15 acres. If all cotton acreage was divided equally among the nation's cotton farmers, then every farmer would have only 15 acres. Thus, the Plains with its big farms would be forced to take the major acreage reduction, which would amount to at least 27 to 30 percent to Lynn county farmers.

He issued a plea for our lawmakers, politicians and farm organizations to quit playing politics with the farm program and get behind a good farm bill. If not, the cotton industry stands a good chance of not getting any kind of legislation at all.

There is little hope for present bills before Congress passing. Therefore, legislation must be passed which will also help other crops get over.

He said "good" cotton legislation must allow for competition with rayon and world supplies. High rigid support prices has problems.

As an example of what's happening, he cited the fact that Japan now has the most modern mills in the world, buys cotton from such countries as Brazil at several cents per pound less than our support price, and with cheap labor can manufacture a ladies' blouse for $1.95 that compares with a $4.00 American made blouse.

Where quality alone is the question, cotton will compete with rayon. But, Plains grown cotton quality is not high enough.

When we consider cotton legislation, he said, we must look forward to a one-price world price, expanded markets and acreage, and at the same time protect the farmer's income. Farms in this area are not operating efficiently because they have the machinery but not the cotton acreage to operate at the economical peak.

He pointed out the House in Congress has turned down other legislation and is attempting to write its own farm bill.

The three-year plan being drafted in Congress now gives the individual cotton farmer a choice of two plans for the 1959 cotton year. One choice would be to retain the present acreage allotment at the 1958 support price, or a second choice would be to take a 30 percent increase in allotment and receive 65 percent of parity for support.

He expressed the opinion Congress had changed its thinking in the past week, since election time is approaching and individual members are beginning to think of facing the farmer voters back home.

Since government responds in proportion to the degree of pressure put on it by the people, he urged that everyone interested in cotton—which should include every citizen in this section—should urge upon Senator Lyndon Johnson, because of his position of leadership in the upper house, Senator Ralph Yarborough, and Congress-

Townes Speaks At New Home

Charles Townes, Tahoka assistant postmaster, was the principal speaker at New Home Civic Club Monday night attended by 39 men of the community.

Townes told many of the humorous incidents that have happened at the postoffice over the years, and also passed out a few compliments for the fine cooperation of the public in getting the mails out promptly.

He declared New Home is one of the more difficult areas to serve, since the New Home area is served by four postoffices, Routes 4 and 5 out of Tahoka, Route 1 out of Wilson, Routes 4 and 6 out of Lubbock, and Route 1 out of Meadow.

A number of projects were discussed during the business session which followed, presided over by Robbie Gill, head of the club.

Joe D. Unfred spoke on the possibility of getting a gas line to the town along Highway 211 from Wayside, and following the meeting possible patrons signed a petition indicating the amount of gas they would use.

He also suggested a reorganization of the Community Progress Committee set-up, and the Club voted to name the Civic Club officers as the committee to work along with the Home Demonstration Club on next year's report for the contest.

Building of tennis courts and a torn shelter on the school grounds were discussed at length, and L. C. Unfred was appointed to make further investigations into the cost of such.

Supt. C. O. Head stated that the State Department of Education will require the schools to be set up for teaching four years of science by 1959, and the board has already bought $2,700 in furnishings to be installed in the old school for the purpose of teaching physics and chemistry. The school now offers general science and biology.

Dick Turner reported that some more paving could be done on streets at New Home at a cost of approximately 75 cents per square yard if sufficient people were interested.

Scoutmasters Roy Lee Williams and Delbert Mouser announced 10 Boy Scouts had already signed up for the summer camp at Tres Ritos, N. M., beginning June 1.

The name of Calvin Tucker was drawn for the free aerial farm photograph.

A delicious steak dinner was served by the Home Demonstration Club ladies.

Man George Mahon the urgent need for bringing out some kind of farm legislation.

"We need a program that will keep the farmer farming," he declared in closing. "Every depression we have ever had hit the farmer first."

Tom Gill arranged the program and introduced the speaker.

President Happy Smith was back at the club presiding after having been absent two meetings while on vacation. He urged members intending to attend the Rotary International convention in Dallas in June to make their hotel reservations immediately.

Everyday Religion

By J. B. Thompson

The other day I read an interesting story about a person who presented a friend with a blank Bible. It was attractively bound in expensive leather and stamped with gold letters but its pages were white and unprinted except for a few chapters. It was a sample for Bible salesmen. The point was obvious; the man never read his Bible and his friend was striving to bring the matter to his attention.

The Bible has long been the "best seller" among books in our land. Many who read it, however seem to look upon it as a more than a fetish; a sort of good luck charm scarcely more sacred than the proverbial horse shoe or rabbit's foot. They seem to assume that the book has some sort of supernatural power in and of itself.

Still others who read the Bible do so with an attitude of a strict sense of duty. To them it is a boring religious ritual that must be performed to appease the wrath of God. This is very little higher than paganism.

Bible reading should be an eager quest for divine truth. It can be a richly rewarding experience. This is National Family Week and there is no way to estimate the value of Bible reading in the home of the nation.

The picture which Robert Burns has given us of a family gathered about the Bible in the "Cotter's Saturday Night" suggests one of the most profound opportunities of home life. The Bible appeals to children and is also a comfort and guide to all ages. Read it!

WASHINGTON AND
"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Some economists hold that one out of seven jobs in the U. S. are based on some phase of the automotive industry.

If such be true, then a good share of the present business decline can perhaps be traced directly to the machinations of Big Oil in making it unprofitable for independent operations to succeed in this industry.

Aspects of this situation are brought out in the recently published report of the C. W. Harger hearings held in Oregon by the Senate Small Business Committee with Sen. Edward Thyne and Sen. Wayne Morse present.

J. S. Baker, partner in a service station operating firm in North Portland, Oregon, and representing the Oregon Gasoline Dealers Association gave some very interesting testimony.

Among other things, he said in 1950 he was paying 22.2 cents per gallon for gasoline, and selling it for 27.9 cents per gallon, or a gross profit of 5.7 cents. At the time of his testimony, he was being forced to pay 27.4 cents per gallon, and sell it for 29.9 cents.

What does this mean, he asked. Merely that the consumer is paying 2 cents more per gallon while the service station made 3 cents per gallon less profit.

He also pointed out that the major oil companies are making millions from forcing the sale of specified brands of batteries, tires and other accessories through the stations.

"Today," he said, "I could sell you a battery at retail price from which I would make a reasonable profit and have this price be below the wholesale price of an equivalent battery by my major oil company supplier. Under what conceivable justification is it that last year one tire manufacturer paid one major oil company a kickback of tens of millions of dollars for sales of tires the oil company had never handled and never had a cent invested in, but merely provided a more or less willing chain of retail outlets with the practices I have just described?"

He said there is no doubt major oil companies realize it is illegal to insist on exclusive contracts, yet through financial coercion applied indirectly, they keep the station operators in line.

Some of the other witnesses reported that the major oil company representative has complete control over setting the prices in any station.

If competitive situations of a price war make prices necessary that are lower than the station can operate on without a loss, a subsidy will be granted.

But these subsidy agreements are never in writing, always given verbally, and often operator waits for long periods for payment while in meantime his family is in want.

All in all, the testimony taken by the Senate Small Business Committee did not present a very pretty picture of how things are going in the land of the free.

As a result, it is quite possible that this session of Congress will vote extra money to carry on intensive investigation and possible prosecution in the sphere of major oil. It very much appears the situation cannot be permitted to continue.

The Upper Room
© THE UPPER ROOM, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it. (Psalm 118:24.)

George Muller of Bristol, England, has been described as "one poor man who, dependent on the help of God only in answer to prayer, built five large orphan homes and took into his family over ten thousand orphans and expended for their good nearly a million pounds." One might imagine that a man with such vast responsibilities would be heavily burdened.

Yet George Muller wrote, "I see that the first great and primary business of life to which I ought to attend every day is to have my soul happy in the Lord." Soul happiness requires complete certainty of the present availability of the goodness of God.

Many of us go about in a gray state of feeling, neither seriously worried nor yet really happy. We can emerge from the gray mist by lifting our thought above it into the certainty that God is in charge and all is well.

PRAYER
Dear Father, enable us this day to feel Thy living presence and to know beyond doubt that Thou knowest our need, hearest our call,

Andrews Man Is Candidate For Representative

Charles T. McReynolds, well known Andrews newspaperman, announced this week he is seeking election to the House of Representatives from the 99th District which is comprised of Andrews, Dawson, Gaines and Lynn Counties.

The 24-year-old McReynolds has been a resident of West Texas all his life and is president of the Andrews Publishing Company, Inc. He was born in Dawson county, and reared in Andrews and Seminole. McReynolds' father was sheriff of Gaines county for several years.

He attended Andrews schools through the sixth grade; was graduated from Seminole High School in 1952; and attended Texas Tech, The University of Texas and Odessa College where he received an Associate in Science degree. McReynolds worked in the senate of the 54th legislature while attending Texas.

While attending the Seminole schools, he lettered three years in football and track and was editor of the Seminole High School paper. He is a member of the ex-students association of the University of Texas. During his college years, McReynolds worked in a lawyers office, at a service station, for a freight line, for a meat packing firm, and owned a magic novelty store. At the same time while attending college, McReynolds held three different part-time jobs.

Since that time he has been an oil field scout, and in February he started a newspaper called the Andrews Reporter.

He is active in civic projects, and is a member of the Chamber of Commerce, the Andrews Jaycees, Lions Club, Loyal Order of Moose, Woodmen of the World Society, and Fraternal Order of Eagles.

McReynolds and his wife, Patricia, have three sons, Bobby, seven, Charles Jr., four and John, two months, and one daughter, Rebekkah Ann, two.

In announcing his candidacy, McReynolds said: "I am the first to announce for this office, standing against the possible passing of a state sales tax. This will be the big issue during the next legislature and a vote for McReynolds will be a vote against the sales tax. I am an advocate of economy in government and will oppose any measure that would place additional unfair burdens on the taxpayers.

"The last legislature passed a watered-down lobby bill and a lobbied-down water will, and I will vote to improve these important issues.

"I stand for the working people,

"ELECTRIC COOKING IS Easy... EVEN FOR ME!"

says CARL MCKINNON
GUYMON, OKLAHOMA

Mr. McKinnon says, "Cooking electrically is easy for even inexperienced cooks like me. I never thought I would actually enjoy preparing dinner for the boys while Lou, my wife, is not at home. Now, when she goes to her church and social affairs, the McKinnon men take to the kitchen. Roger helps with the salad, Doug helps set the table, and Warner, like most four-year-olds, just does a little bit of nothing. Although we're having steaks tonight, the boys ordinarily vote for hot dogs or hamburgers; regardless, our electric grill does a wonderful job, no matter the menu."

Odds and Ends

(By E. I. The Elder)

We wonder what has become of the Dog and Pony shows that we used to have. A lot of us folks past middle life can remember when these shows were coming around at least once every year. They were remarkably interesting shows too. The way they could be trained to do things seemed almost human—especially when a monkey or two were thrown in to create a lot of fun. I haven't seen one in so long that I will bet half of the people of this day never attended one.

Since I have come to think of it I could mention a lot of other kinds of shows that have played out also. How many of you people more than fifty years old ever saw a "Mollie Bailey" show? It was a pretty good performance—wasn't it? It beat most of these modern TV shows all to pieces.

I suspect that most of you never saw an "out-on-the-street" medicine show. All the doctors and druggists will tell you that their riddance was a good thing. I am sure that most of them were fakes, but the crowds always knew that after the fake doctor's lecture some other form of fun and entertainment would be served out to the listeners—usually a couple of stage actors blacked up and acting the part of darkeys—a la Amos and Andy style. One of these fake street doctors came to my home town of Moody selling "Kickapoo Indian Sagwa" to crowds on the streets, day after day, handing out bottles of the liquid medicine just about as fast as his helpers could distribute it—followed by a darkey dialogue and of course he always went to his hotel after the performance with an additional bag of money in his pockets. He would always have a special performance for the crowds that came into town on Saturday afternoons. He had a Kickapoo Indian in his party and for one Saturday afternoon's entertainment he matched a foot-race to be run by that Indian and the fastest white runner to be found in an area four or five counties surrounding the town of Moody. He publicized that coming foot-race to a "fare-you-well" and Moody was certainly full of people that afternoon. The foot-race had been arranged to take place on a race-track pretty close to the business part of town. That old Kickapoo Indian evidently knew that he could not hold out against that strong young white man—and when the signal was given to "Go" he threw out his foot as quick as a flash and tripped up his white competitor and streaked off ahead of him; but because of his trick he was not allowed to cross the exit mark down at the end of the track. "Walker" Witt, his competitor was declared the winner—a decision which pleased everybody; but I guess that Indian didn't care; nor the Medicine Doctor either; for it was only a publicity stunt on their part any way; and they went home with money from four or five counties in their pockets. But that race was remembered and talked about for many years after it occurred.

The most popular show that ever came to Lynn county and to West Texas—as for that matter—was the Harley Sadler Show. Harley Sadler was a West Texas product. He was born—if I remember correctly at Avoca situated between Stamford and Lueders. But I had known the family when they lived in northern Bell county. Harley himself was not born until after the family had moved "out west" but a sister and an older brother attended the public school at Stampede while I was teaching there. His sister married down there somewhere and his older brother; his first name has gotten away from me; married after they came west. He soon got a job in a bank in Abilene and was employed there for many years. The Sadlers constituted a fine family. When I first met Harley he was working for the "Mollie Bailey" show and was making good with that company. That was while I lived at Koscoe. Frank and I both met him there. We met him many times thereafter; and I dare say that most of the people here have met him—have sat under his big tent and listened to his inimicable sallies of mirth-provoking wit and humor. Little Toby was one of a kind.

I started out to tell you about the dog and pony shows that we used to see and greatly enjoy often. It's too late now for me to add anything to that part of this story, but I saw two dogs casually meet up near my house the other day and the way they met and greeted each other reminded me that a dog is a dog—wherever you meet him, regardless of size, age, breed, or previous conditions of servitude. And it makes no difference whether he lives in America—in Germany—in Switzerland—in Africa—in the Holy Roman Empire—in the Fiji Islands or in Borneo—a dog knows a dog when he sees him.

Up here at the back of my place the other day a little feist about the size of your first was playing around and a big old German Shepherd came along; the little feist ran up to him; they struck their noses together; got well acquainted—and trotted off side by side just as if they had been acquainted in distant lands generations ago. I have seen little Cocker Spaniels and big old vicious bull dogs meet; and it was the

The names of the parties in said suit are: Jean Rogers as plaintiff and Vernon Rogers as defendant.

The nature of the suit being substantially as follows, to wit: Plaintiff alleges that she and defendant married in Plainview, Texas, on September 13, 1956; that he has resided in Texas more than six months immediately before filing this suit. That defendant immediately after their marriage commenced a course of unkind, harsh and tyrannical treatment toward plaintiff, which continued until plaintiff separated from defendant on or about the 10th day of October, 1956. On different occasions while plaintiff lived with defendant as his wife, he was guilty of such excesses, cruel treatment and outrages toward plaintiff of such a nature as to render their living together insupportable. That the parties have one child born as issue of their marriage, namely:

same performance over again. Some say that a dog is the best friend that a man ever had.

Others say that that honor belongs to the horse. We shall not undertake to decide the matter at all. We are afraid that the other fellow would get mad and whip us.

Lonnie Glenn Rogers, a boy, who is several months of age and resides with plaintiff in Lynn county, Texas. That it would be to the best interest of said child for his custody to be awarded to plaintiff until he becomes 18 years of age. If this Citation is not served within 90 days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned unserved. Issued this the 15th day of April A. D., 1958.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Tahoka, Texas, this the 15th day of April, A. D. 1958.

Lynn County Soil Conservation District News

ROY L. WILLIAMS, ELLIS BARNES, O. E. TERRY, W. L. (Cap) ROWE, WALTER BLANKENSHIP

O. E. Heinrich recently became a district cooperator. Mr. Heinrich, who farms near Slaton, plans to carry out a complete conservation program. His plan includes crop rotations, irrigation water management, level irrigation and other basic conservation practices.

Regular meeting of the Supervisors was held Friday afternoon May 2nd. Rev. D. W. Copeland of the Wells Baptist Church was special guest at the meeting. Final plans for the observance of Soil Stewardship week were laid out and materials to be distributed to the churches of Lynn County were given out. A short tour to the Clovis Honeycutt farm one mile south of Tahoka was made to observe brush control and range seeding on that farm being done under the Great Plains Conservation Program. Fourteen Conservation farms were approved.

Mung Beans For Soil Improvement Mung beans are fast becoming one of the most popular soil improving crops in this area. There are several reasons for this. Perhaps the main reason is that mung beans can be planted with grain sorghum. The seed can be mixed and planted in the same drill all in one operation. When this is done, the mung beans should be then mixed with the sorghum seed. The Lubbock experiment station recommends 40 pounds of mung beans to 60 pounds of grain sorghum. The planting rate for the mixture should be about the same as is normal for regular sorghum seeding.

Mung beans is a deep rooted legume and not only adds nitrogen and organic matter to the soil but also tends to loosen up the soil. A normal "plow-sole" can be controlled, or at least improved with such a crop thus increase water intake so that normally better moisture condition will exist.

At harvest time grain sorghum can be harvested as usual. There will be some mixing of the seed, but no penalty has been enforced for this mixture.

SOIL STEWARDSHIP WEEK OBSERVANCE

By Donald A. Williams Administrator

The growing observance of National Soil Stewardship Week will be observed May 11 through 18. The event is sponsored by the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts and national church organizations.

The scope of this year's observance is expected to exceed the participation of a year ago, judging from reports of district and church leaders.

The observance of man's responsibility as steward of our God-given soil and water resources has shown a steady growth. It started in scattered locations, under various names before World War II.

As the idea spread, organizations, churches, magazines, press, radio, and civic and professional groups adopted it. They found in it a mutual meeting ground—the universal love and respect for life-giving resources. Throughout the ages the sun, the soil, and the rain have held an honored place in man's beliefs. His dependence on the soil for his very life gives man's use of this life-supporting resources a deep spiritual significance. It is appropriate that the clergy and churches join with farmers and soil conservation districts in emphasizing to all of us the importance of each doing a good job of stewardship. God provided the productive soil and the rain and the sun to care for material needs. As stewards, or husbandmen of the soil we honor God and preserve His earliest creation. We also hold in our hands our own welfare and that of coming generations.

In this modern world we have solved the mystery of the atom. We are probing the mysteries of outer space. While we still probe some of the mysteries of soil and of plant growth, we have learned how to use soil wisely and keep it productive without waste. We have made great strides toward stabilizing, conserving, and using soil and water resources for the common good. But we have much further to go.

Do we as a nation have the intelligence and stamina to continue that progress in management of basic resources? Will we continue the development of the science—and art—of using land according to its capabilities and treating it according to its needs at the same time we further develop the other important sciences?

ONE BODY . . . Eph. 4:4 . . . Paul had urged the Ephesian brethren to try to keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace and then added the seven ones; one body, one spirit, one hope, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all. These are seven important planks in the platform of christian unity.

What is the one body? It is the church. God "gave him (Christ) to be the head over all things to the church, which is his body . . . Eph. 1:22-23 "And he (Christ) is the head of the body, the church." Col. 1:18. The one body is the church which he purchased with his own blood. Acts 20:28. Paul declared in another place that there are "many members (individual christians), yet but one body (church)." 1 Cor. 12:20.

In the beginning of Christianity there was unity. Christ prayed for oneness. Division or sectarianism was and is condemned on every

The Lord added to the church daily those that were being saved. Acts 2:47. Christ is the savior of the body. Eph. 5:23. The importance of being members of the body of Christ is clearly shown in these and many other scriptures. The Bible only, will make only Christians.

Section 7. THIS ORDINANCE SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE, UNLESS A PERSON, FIRM, OR CORPORATION SECURE A PERMIT FROM THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF TAHOKA TO KEEP HOGS IN THE CITY LIMITS. PERMITS CAN BE REVOKED AT ANY TIME BY THE CITY COUNCIL UPON THIRTY DAYS WRITTEN NOTICE.

THIS ORDINANCE SHALL BE EFFECTIVE JUNE 1, 1958. Passed and approved this 7th day of April, 1958. H. B. McCord, Sr., Mayor. J. M. Uziele, City Secretary. (SEAL) 28-4tc
