Farewell Parties

Honor Charles Merritt

A sixteen year old sophomore lad was among those featured in the 1959 Muleshoe High School annual, "The Muletrain."

Charles Merritt, known as Prince of Friendship at MHS, moved this week with his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Cone Merritt, and his brothers and sister, De Wayne, Craig, and Janie to Snyder, their old home town.

The Merritt family moved to the Progress community two years ago where he has been the pastor of the Progress Baptist Church.

On Saturday night, 50 of Charles' many, many friends attended a sandhills party in his honor. Then on Sunday, Doris Ann Glibreath gave a Coke party in her home for him, which 20 more of his friends attended. On Monday night Judy Lambert entertained 30 more of his friends with a farewell party in her back yard.

In Charles' freshman year he was reporter of his class, class favorite, and ran for Secretary of the Student Council. Then in his sophomore year he was class president, class favorite again, an active member of the Student Council, manager for the Muleshoe football team, officer of the Spanish Club; he was delegate to the State Convention, attended the South Plains Convention at Tullia and helped campaign for, and won, the office of President of the South Plains Association of Student Councils for MHS. Student Body elected him as "Prince of Friendship" and he has been a friend to all.

Last spring he was elected, for this school year, as Vice-president of the Student Council. He was also going to be Muleshoe manager again this year.

It has been said, that the halls of MHS will not be as bright without Charles Merritt and his wonderful smile, personality, and sense of humor. All of the students, faculty, and citizens of Muleshoe join together to wish the Meritts the best the world has to offer.

Pork Heads USDA's September List of Plentiful Foods In Texas

Pork stands out among foods expected to be plentiful at Texas markets in September. The spring pig crop was 12 percent larger than a year ago and heavy fall marketings probably will start earlier than usual this year. Pork prices are expected to be lower.

That's the report from the Agricultural Marketing Service, Dallas, the branch of the U. S. Department of Agriculture that determines each month which foods are in greater than normal supply.

A vast array of fresh fruits and late-summer vegetables, many from Texas farms, also are listed as plentiful foods this month. Pears, grapes, lemons and limes and onions deserve special mention. Pear production is expected to run 10 percent more than average; grapes, 13 percent more than average.

Small, consumer-size turkeys should be abundant throughout the state. Peanut butter and milk complete the September list.

Shoppers usually can reduce the amount of money spent for groceries by serving plentiful, in-season foods often. County home demonstration agents can give additional information on the day-to-day availability of locally grown produce.

More Than 500 Attend Annual Meeting Of Plains Cotton Growers Association

LUBBOCK, Aug. 31—More than 500 delegates and visitors attending the third annual meeting of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., August 28 in Lubbock, heard directors re-elect W. O. Fortenberry as President and adopted a 1959-60 budget of some $174,000, and heard three top leaders of the textile industry.

Also returned to office were Wilmer Smith, New Home, Vice-President, and Roy Forkner, Lubbock, as Secretary-Treasurer. Fortenberry and Smith have headed the organization for the three years it has been in existence and Forkner was re-elected to his second term.

The key to the future of the nation's cotton industry is "in the hands that fashion government policy on imports", J. M. Cheatham, President of Dundee Mills, Inc., Griffin, Georgia, and first vice-president of the American Cotton Manufacturers Institute, told the PCG membership. He said the long range outlook for both raw cotton and textiles is favorable if textile imports can be brought under "fair and reasonable control."

Bill Foreman, Public Relations Manager, National Cotton Council, Memphis, told the group that the public generally has a distorted image of the farmer. He said the farmer is suffering a loss in prestige and influence as a result. He urged a campaign to achieve better understanding of agriculture. He said that in the eyes of many of the 88% of the population that doesn't live on the farm, farmers are "haysheeds, bandits and the biggest hogs at the public trough."

Actually, he declared, farmers are good businessmen, efficient suppliers of essential commodities at a reasonable cost and good citizens.

F. Marion Rhodes, Director, Cotton Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, U. S. D. A., Washington, D. C., told PCG members that "The cotton legislative program is moving in the right direction. This year we have more flexibility in both production and pricing. Domestic mill consumption should continue to improve and our exports should be back to a fair share of the world market by the end of 1959-60," he said.

Fortenberry, in announcing the PCG's largest budget in its three-year history, pointed out that the budget includes $10,000 for an educational program based on quality, $5,000 for the PCG's monthly publication, $10,000 for national promotion and advertising of area cotton and $2,500 for an all-cotton style show. Cotton research is earmarked for $46,000, including $20,000 for fiber and spinning research on the area crop at the pilot plant at Texas Tech College. Other grants include $10,000 for cotton breeding, $5,000 for fertilization studies, $7,000 for crop production practices, $2,500 for water conservation studies and $1,500 for harvesting economics study.

Also included in the budget are $76,000 in operating expenses, $2,000 for a crop quality survey, $2,500 for tests with an electric cotton classer, and $20,000 for emergency and other purposes.

THIRD ANNUAL ...

At the end of 18 holes, Adams had a 67, Moxom posted a 68 and Johnson recorded a 69. All three were in contention at the afternoon round had to see the race open up.

But Moxom got hot when the final 18 began and overtook Adams when he undertook the Lubbock golfer with a 34, while Adams was taking a 35. Johnson, meanwhile, shot himself out of the race with a 36 that left him three strokes off the pace with nine to go.

Putter Comes Through Adams and Moxom traded shots evenly until they came to No. 36, with the Lubbock golfer holding a one stroke lead. Both were over the green with their tee shots.

Adams chipped back, but was eight feet short. Moxom chipped to within six inches of the cup and it looked as though the match were headed for extra holes.

But Adams thought differently. Hit putter, which had been behaving for him most of the summer came through. He ran in his long effort to halve the hole and post another tournament victory in his trophy case.

The Tournament committee and club officials told The Journal that it was a highly successful tournament. 138 golfers entered for the really fine prizes offered by the committee. They began qualifying Thursday, many of the out-towners staying here through Sunday.

The ladies of the Country Club served 175 lunches Sunday, 30 suppers Sunday evening. Lunch was served each day throughout the tournament, and the social side of the affair was climaxed with a dance Saturday evening.

A tournament of this character brings many visitors and present another opportunity for Muleshoe to "put its best foot first" with lots of people.

September Marks Beginning of New Year For Bailey County Women Clubs

By Waneen Ragsdale
Journal Society Editor

September will mark the beginning of "meeting time" again in Bailey County with numerous clubs and other women's organizations resuming activities for the first time since May.

The organizations have varied goals and offer a wide range of interests for members. They range from social activities, which work with social and cultural activities, to study clubs, which discuss current or other subjects and work for community betterment through special projects.

Other groups have specialized interests such as gardening, music, art, or golf, or serve as auxiliaries for men's organizations.

Not all clubs are for women, with at least three Muleshoe organizations set up for high school girls.

Naturally, not all organizations disband for the summer. The three Bailey County Home Demonstration Clubs have been active through the summer with the exception of August. The O. E. S., Rainbow, and Rebekah lodges have also continued meeting through the summer months.

Epsilon Chi

Getting off to an early start on September 1 was the Epsilon Chi Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha International at a regular business meeting in the home of Mrs. J. D. Small with Mrs. Jess Winn as co-hostess. Bill Ed Jones presided at the meeting, and presented an introduction of the program theme, "Around the World." Three guest speakers have been scheduled for the coming months: Karl Love-lady will speak on Alaska and Canada in October; Dorothy Brown is to be the guest speaker in November on the subject of Hawaii; and Joe Salem of Sudan will tell of his experiences in Russia at the meeting in May. The members are also looking forward to their Thanksgiving dinner which will feature Mrs. Bonnie Haberer discussing her tour of Europe.

A fall rush for new members is being planned for October with Mrs. Kenneth Preure rush chairman.

Each year two pairs of glasses are purchased for needy children and the members are also active in helping finance the Girl Scout movement in Muleshoe. This past summer they financed two girls to established summer camp.

The regular meeting time will be the first and third Tuesday of each month in the individual homes of the members.

Art Classes Begin

Twenty-five interested patrons of art attended the first class of painting conducted by Dr. Elio Cabalar, head of the art department of West Texas State Tuesday evening in the high school lunch room. This group will continue meeting weekly for the next ten weeks and plan an art exhibit at the close of the course.

Interested persons are invited to drop by and view what is being done at the classes. Plans are being formed to organize into an art organization for future painting and study.

Midway H. D. Club

In neighboring Parmer county the Midway Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Davis Gulley Tuesday afternoon and answered roll call by naming the first school they attended and told an amusing school experience. For this opening, those present were appropriately dressed for "back to school" in print dresses, loafers and bobby sox.

Mrs. Dee Brown reported on council meeting attended by Mrs. Grady King. A report was heard from Mrs. J. B. Young of the safety committee and Mrs. Brown gave a house and home improvement report. Mrs. Gulley also gave information from the sewing committee.

Election of officers was conducted with the following officers elected: President, Mrs. R. L. Foerster; vice-president, Mrs. Luella White; secretary, and treasurer, Mrs. Lee Mason, and reporter, Mrs. Davis Gulley.

Mrs. Brown told members of the latest developments being made on the community club building.

Members voted to serve Lazbuddie P-TA refreshments for their first meeting of the year. The hostess served refreshments "back to school" style from paper bags, which contained sandwiches and trimmings.

Midway Club will continue their meetings monthly on the first and third Tuesdays during the coming club year.

At 8:00 p.m., Tuesday evening, September 1, in Masonic Hall, Associate Matron Mrs. John Thompson presided at the regular meeting of OES in the absence of Mrs. Burl Wingo, Worthy Matron. Buck Creamer acted as Worthy Patron.

An annual memorial program was conducted with Mrs. Viola Layne in charge. Scriptures were given by the star points and Mrs. Mary Farley read the poem, "In Memorandum," followed by the entire group joining in singing "When The Roll is Called Up Yonder."

Final plans were made for the chapter's annual Friendship Night to be held Tuesday, September 29 at 7:30. Invitations are being sent to all area chapters to attend. This occasion will be a western affair, with barbecue, western attire, and also carried out in the decorations.

The refreshments committee, Janet Wagon, Jo Wood, and Mary Childers served punch and cookies to the 25 who were present. Special out-of-town guests were Mrs. Louise Mills, a former member from Brady, and Mrs. Kate McCarty a charter member of the Muleshoe chapter and an O. E. S. member for 53 years.

Rebekah Lodges

Muleshoe and Needmore Rebekahs have been having regular meetings through the summer months.

Muleshoe Lodge No. 114 met Tuesday evening for their regular meeting with Vice Grand Mary Taber and 11 members present.

District Deputy, Ona Berry, announced schools of instruction are to be held in Littlefield Monday, September 7, and in Morton Thursday, September 10.

Friona Lodge invited Muleshoe and Needmore Lodges to attend their initiation for a number of candidates on Thursday evening.

Following the meeting, Doris English, Ona Berry, Grace Kemp, and Arglie Millen went to Needmore to see movies made by Thelma Gage on her trip to Europe this year.

Methodist W. S. C. S.

Seventeen members were present for the executive committee meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church, September 1, at 11 a.m. Mrs. Dean Bishop presided. Mrs. Frank Ellis was elected to fill the office of vice-president vacated by Mrs. Paul Summersgill who moved away. They adjourned to meet in the fellowship hall for the fall luncheon, which was attended by 37 ladies.

Following the noon meal, Mrs. Bishop led the program on "A New Year, New Responsibilities."

The vice-chairman of the circles introduced their studies which begin September 8. Alpha Circle, "The Role of the United Nations in World Affairs", will be led by Mrs. Earl Ladd, Jr.; Mary-Martha Circle, "The Church's Mission in Town and Country", introduced by Mrs. W. D. Moore; Ester Circle, Mrs. Ralph Douglas introduced their study on Africa.

Mrs. Robert Hooten closed the meeting with a devotional on the "Gospel of St. Luke" which the Ruth Circle will study.

Los Planos Study Club

Los Planos Study Club plans its first meeting in the home of their president, Mrs. Norman Thomas, on September 8. Their course of study this year is entitled, "Rocket To The Moon", and the "Blast Off" program will be given by Jessie and Chubby of the Studio of Hair Fashion on hair styles and good grooming.

As in past years, Los Planos will sponsor local Girl Scouts as their major project.

A book review tea for members and their mothers is being planned for October. Mrs. B. O. McDaniel has consented to give the review on an appropriate book.

An executive meeting of the Jaycee Etts is being planned for next week to plan their programs and year books for the coming year. Lazbuddie P-TA will have their first meeting at 8:00 p.m. in the High School auditorium on Monday, September 7. The nomination committee will submit names of candidates to fill the offices of president and vice-president, due to the resignation of Mrs. Melvin Treider as president and Mrs. D. B. Ivy as vice-president.

Regular meeting time for the organization will continue to be the first Monday night of each month. Program theme for the year will be "Better Relations" with the stress on better relations between teachers and parents.

A question and answer program is being planned for the first meeting with teachers and board members and patrons taking parts.

All teachers for the coming year will be introduced and it is hoped this meeting will be well attended.

Serving as president of the Muleshoe Study Club for a second year will be Mrs. Thurman White. A covered dish supper will be held in the home of Mrs. O. N. Jennings September 17 for the first meeting of the year. Mrs. J. H. Farley will be co-hostess. The seventh district president, Mrs. A. T. Cocanougher of Lubbock is making plans to attend this meeting.

Course of study will be "Outlet of Service" with the motto "Service is no heritage—we attain what we seek." They have the desire to be more informed on such matters as wills and trust funds, by Norman Thomas; social security by Bob Jacobs; and property laws for Texas women by a local attorney.

A guest day tea will be scheduled honoring all past presidents of the Muleshoe Study Club.

In keeping with their service through good citizenship, they plan to encourage the clean-up campaign underway.

They are happy to have five new members added to their number: Mrs. Clyde Bray, Mrs. J. H. Farley, Mrs. Travis Reed, Mrs. Clinton Bristow, Mrs. Jack Cousins, and Mrs. Eddie Lane.

Local citizens are already realizing the cost of the new taxes passed by the recent Texas Legislature. Beginning Tuesday morning many new taxes went into effect, including 3c per pack tax on cigarettes. As the year comes and goes, the "little man" will realize more and more how the extra millions needed to operate the Stat government will be raised. The "gas lobby" didn't block the legislature during the regular session and two special sessions for nothing.

Some of these school men have unusually good memories. For instance, last week at the joint luncheon of the service clubs when the teachers were guests, Supt. Jerry Kirk introduced more than 80 teachers to the group, told where each teacher taught, the grade, and the particular subject. Then Wednesday afternoon Joe Turner, new superintendent at Bula was in our office. He has been at Bula three days, but he took a picture of the football team, and identified the boys individually. These school administrators are in a class all by themselves.

John Ruskin once said, "I believe the first test of a truly great man is his humility."

All sports fans are anxiously awaiting the opening of football season Friday night. Almost all of the teams will go into action.

Harvey Bass is starting an interesting series of advertisements in The Journal. It is one in which each sport fan who reads the paper can become a football expert. Turn and read it in this issue.

Monday is Dollar Day in Muleshoe. Even though it is a holiday, the merchants have decided to run full blast, in order to take care of the people, and give them the usual dollar day buys.

Carroll Pouncey, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, says Labor Day is not one of their recommended holidays.

Residents of Bailey County, and the immediate area now have working a program which they have long been hoping to get into operation. That is the emergency station.

A new number, 2000 has been designed, and at this number, day and night, around the clock, 24 hours of every day, an attendant will be at this phone to take emergency calls. Whatever emergency you might need, if you call 2000 your call will be taken by a person who will get you what you need, an officer, an ambulance, a doctor, the fire truck, or information. The operator will have important telephone numbers which he or she can call. In addition he will be in radio contact at all times with patrol cars of the City of Muleshoe, Bailey County, and Texas Highway Patrol, and other units within radio distance.

Citizens should not hesitate to use this service. Being financed jointly by Bailey County and the City of Muleshoe, it is set up for the service of the people.

One of Every 35 Children Receiving Mail-Order Obscenity, Organizations Rally to Post Office Campaign

Approximately one out of every 35 school-age children in America will be solicited through the mails this year for the sales of obscene literature and photographs, acting Postmaster Arnold Alcorn reports.

Mr. Alcorn today appealed for broader public support of the Post Office Department's campaign to wipe out this menace which profits on the corruption of minor children.

He said that Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield has advised that as many as one million children this year will receive such filthy material through the mails at their parents' homes.

Postmaster Alcorn emphasized that the child himself may be completely innocent of having requested such material. He pointed out that these "merchants of filth," who dump "pornographic sewage" into the hands of thousands of children every day, buy standard mailing lists, gather names from high school yearbooks, and even advertise bonafide toys such as model airplanes for sale, in order to garner names of youngsters to whom they can send their smut. In a recent speech, Postmaster General Summerfield also warned, "These racketeers do not respect any social group, economic status or place of residence. They use every conceivable method to get children's names and addresses to make up their mailing lists." "Persistent, intensive action on a nation-wide scale," he continued, "will be absolutely necessary for a long time to come to cope with the determined plans of the filth racketeers to expand their business."

Postmaster Alcorn reported that civic groups throughout the nation are rising in support of the campaign. Since the Postmaster General "declared war" on this huge racket, more than 1,000 organizations have notified Mr. Summerfield of their active support and cooperation, the Postmaster said.

The public here and in every community in our country can provide immeasurable aid in our four-fold program to wipe out this traffic, which Mr. Summerfield has described as the most vile, insidious racket of our time. Postmaster Alcorn said.

Fall Colors For You

Do the colors you wear really "do something for you?" They can, if you will choose them wisely, with a definite purpose in mind.

The colors you wear should do the most for your skin, eyes and hair. They should suit your own particular type of personality, whether it's vivid or retiring, and be right for your age and size.

Youth has few color problems, and a person of average size with perfect figure can get by with many colors. However, most of us need to study ourselves carefully, pick out our best points, recognize our problems, and make colors work for us in accentuating our best features.

"Colors For You", a colorful leaflet, written by extension clothing specialists, will help you choose becoming colors. Included is a guide for choice types figure type and personalities. The leaflet is free. Call or write for it.

Don't Overload Your Freezer

Does your freezer look like an "overloaded suitcase?" Even though you can still close the lid or door—you may be losing food quality, flavor and nutrition by improper loading.

Whether you buy frozen packages of food to store in your freezer, or actually prepare and freeze them at home, there are some points to keep in mind.

First of all, keep any commercially or home frozen fruit, vegetables or meats stored at 0 degrees or below.

Freeze fruits and vegetables soon after they are packed. You can put a few packages at a time into the freezer as they become ready, or keep packages in the refrigerator program are:

1. To draw maximum public attention to the menace of this racket.
2. To urge parents to help the Post Office Department to apprehend the mailers of filth to their children.
3. To help mobilize community support behind adequate law enforcement of local ordinances or state laws when these praveys are apprehended and brought to court.
4. To rally public opinion behind new and stiffer legislation on obscenity.

"If all of us join hands in support of this vile racket can be won", he concluded.

until all are ready. Then transfer them to the home freezer or carry them in insulated boxes or bags to the locker plant. Freeze at 0 degrees or below.

Freeze packaged meat as soon as possible to prevent juices from draining. For best results, quick freeze meat at commercial plants where correct freezing temperatures (20 degrees in still air or 3 degrees in blast or fan-circulated air) are maintained. These low temperatures are not reached in home food freezers. Transfer meat to a home food freezer in an insulated bag or box. Small quantities of meat may be frozen in home food freezers.

To prevent overloading, put no more unfrozen food into a freezer than will freeze within 24 hours. Usually this will be about 2 or 3 pounds of food per cubic foot of freezer capacity. Overloading slows down rate of freezing and foods that freeze too slowly may lose quality or spoil. For quickest freezing, place packages against freezing plates or coils, and leave a little space between packages so air can circulate freely.

Refreshers For Tired Felt Hats

If you can't afford a new fall hat, give the old one a new look with careful brushing and cleaning. Start by careful brushing. This may show up spots and stains that need special treatment.

Try using the sandpaper method first. With a piece of No. 0 sandpaper, begin at center top of crown and gently sand in the same direction around the crown, side crown and the brim.

If this fails, use naphtha or other cleaning fluid. Dip a small brush, as nail brush in the cleaning fluid, shake out excess liquids and brush hat until the soiled spots disappear. Remember to work outdoors when using cleaning fluids.

White or light colored felt hats may need special treatment. Saturate corn meal with naphtha or other fluid. Rub mixture into the felt with a clean stiff brush. When fluid

Starting Lineup For Red Raiders Is Announced

LUBBOCK, Aug. 31 — West Texans dominate the starting lineup for Texas Tech's Red Raiders, who complete their first week of practice with a scrimmage Saturday afternoon.

Coach DeWitt Weaver's Red Raiders are just two weeks away from their opening contest, against Texas A. & M. in Dallas, at 8 p.m., September 19. Running first string as practice began Tuesday were ends Don Waygood of Sundown and Tommy Pace of Amarillo, tackles Jerry Selfridge of Borger and Bobby Cline of Belton, guards Fred Weaver of Cooper and Lee Mohon of Panhandle, center E. J. Holub of Lubbock, quarterback Glen Amerson of Munday, halfback Ronnie Rice of Lefors, split back Dan Gurley of Fort Worth, and fullback George Fraser of Llano or Herbert Pearce of Monahans.

Tech's list of returning lettermen went to 16 with the reporting of Pampa's Ed Strickland. A letterman guard in 1957, he did not play last year.

Farwell will play at Friona. Farwell won last year 39 to 8. Bula will go to Roaring Springs. Three Way will play district champions Cotton Center.

PETE MCCOY

Pete McCoy of Muleshoe won high honors in the New Mexico State softball tournament in Portales last week.

Pitching for the Horton Furniture team in Clovis, he pitched in four games, winning his first three. In the fourth he came in to relieve in the second inning, and held the game down, ending with his team in better condition than when he entered.

McCoy is shown here with the trophy that was presented him by tournament officials at the close of the event as the "most outstanding pitcher in the State Tournament."

Tahoka Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Pennington from Tahoka visited his brother, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Johnson Monday of this week.

Strickland may be placed at tight end in the Raiders' new multiple offense.

ENMU Greyhounds Plan to Have An Interesting Year

PORTALES (Special) — "It will be an interesting season." With these few words head football coach Carl Richardson sums up the prospects for his Eastern New Mexico football team which opened drills Tuesday.

The Greyhounds will be in "a rebuilding year" according to Richardson, and he jokingly stated "we will have so many new faces that the home fans will think we are the visiting team."

He isn't far from wrong! Only 13 holdovers from the 1958 club will be checking out pads. He has three lettermen from previous years which will give more experience, but the remainder of the squad will be freshmen with the exception of four junior college transfers.

The Greyhounds open with one of the toughest teams on their schedule on September 18 when they host Central Oklahoma and it will be after this stiff test that Greyhound fans will know how the Green and Silver will stack up against the remainder of the ten-game slate.

Newcomers will dot the Greyhound lineup this fall and many freshmen with outstanding records will be on hand to push the veterans for starting berths.

Richardson expects 55 candidates to check out pads for the two-a-day sessions which will continue until the opening game at 8 p.m., Friday, September 18.

Pro Basketball Is Set For Lubbock October Third

Fans in the Muleshoe area may still obtain choice seats for the October 3 professional basketball game at Lubbock Coliseum. The contest pits the St. Louis Hawks against the Philadelphia Warriors, who are led by Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain.

Some of the better seats become available this week when Texas Tech season ticket holders failed to exercise their options on them. These are now being offered to the public on a "first come, first served" basis.

Tickets are priced at $3.00, $2.50 and $2.00, with all seats reserved. They may be ordered by mailing a check in the proper amount to Pro Basketball, Box 5002, Lubbock, Texas.

Full House Expected For Tech Game With TCU Saturday, Oct. 10

LUBBOCK, Aug. 31—A capacity crowd looms for Texas Tech's game with Texas Christian University here October 18.

Individual game tickets are on the five-yard line, although season ticket books are selling about the 20-yard line, according to Jimmie Wilson, business manager of athletics.

in Chamberlain in the Lubbock game will be the Hawks' Bob Pettit, leading scorer of the National Basketball Association. Their individual battle is expected to be one of the game's highlights.

Other stars at Lubbock will include Cliff Hagan, Tom Gola, Clyde Lovellette, Slater Martin, and Paul Arizin.

The 3:30 p.m. basketball tilt will precede the night football game between Texas Tech and Tulsa. Thus, by journeying to Lubbock on October 3, South Plains fans will be able to enjoy both halves of this unique sports double-header.

Thousands Take To The Woods As Texas Hunting Season Opens

The most widely anticipated hour on Texas' sporting calendar arrived last Tuesday precisely at high noon. It marked the opening of the fall hunting season. Before it ends in mid-January, an estimated 400,000 hopeful hunters—including young and old of both sexes, skilled and unskilled—will have taken to field in eager expectation.

Wily mourning doves are present targets of a thousand guns by virtue of a 50-day north zone season that began

September 1. The south zone opens October 1.

Duck season runs from November 13 to January 1. For deer and turkey it begins November 16 and lasts until December 31, with date variations depending on county law. Quail shooting becomes legal December 1 until January 16.

Thirty-seven hunting enthusiasts ranging in age from 12 to 65 won't be going out this year. And for the very best of reasons: They're dead . . . killed by their own hand or by others during last year's season.

Four hunters killed themselves in attempting to clean or repair loaded guns. Six others virtually committed suicide by crawling through fences with gun in hand.

In other deaths the victims were mistaken for game, or made errors in judgement while unloading guns, or stalking game or otherwise mishandling weapons.

A 12-year-old lad, a novice deer hunter, was killed instantly when his dotting father—carrying a "ready" rifle—tripped over a log and accidentally discharged the weapon.

And in another incident the situation was almost exactly reversed. A boy tripped on a wooded trail. His father was felled with a bullet in his back.

Be smart this year and follow these basic rules of gun safety:

Keep the safety catch ON until you get ready to shoot, and be positive you actually see what you're shooting at. Remember, too, that guns are death traps for curious children. Unload yours before you get home.

Sandhills Philosopher Favors Price Sticker For Eggs, Like They're Using on Automobiles

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has another idea he won't get anywhere with this week.

Dear editor:
It's not that I'm in the market for a new car, I'm waiting for the new models, have been for years, though it doesn't seem to make much difference, as fast as they bring out a new model they turn around and start to work on an even newer one, never can seem to make up their minds, but what I started out to say does concern cars.

I read in a newspaper last night that a new law is now in effect requiring car manufacturers to put a sticker on every car showing the list price—what it ought to sell for, what the extras on it should cost, etc., and there's a $1,000 fine if a car dealer removes the sticker.

As I understand it, this was done to keep some sharp dealers from running the price way up, allowing you a lot more for your trade-in, and still making a satisfactory profit. What they were doing was taking a $50 cat in on a $100 dog, still getting the $50 they wanted in the first place for the dog, which is pretty high for a dog, but so are cars and everything else.

The new law is intended to put a stop to this. Now there's an idea that ought to be carried over into farming, but sort of in reverse. While the car sticker law is aimed at keeping some dealers from hornswoogling the public, the farm sticker law would be aimed at keeping the farmer from hornswoogling himself.

For instance, say a farmer has a dozen eggs for sale, and the going price is 20 cents. The government ought to require the farmer to put a sticker on the eggs showing they cost him 30 cents to produce.

I'm not sure how this would keep a farmer from selling 30-cent eggs for 20 cents, but it at least would bring the thing out into the open. It just takes too many eggs these days to buy a new car or a new tractor, even one with a government-guaranteed price sticker on it.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Babson Discusses GRAVITY

New Boston, N. H., Sept. 3—When I was at Cape Canaveral, Florida, in the spring, I was convinced that the nation which first discovers a partial insulator for gravity can conquer the world.

Winning World War III
I have kept well acquainted with the progress which has been made along such lines in this country through the Gravity Research Foundation of New Boston, N. H., but I am not familiar with the state of development abroad, especially in Denmark and Germany. In Copenhagen, where I have been invited to visit the Mayor of Copenhagen, is located the Bohr Institute. I therefore am leaving for Copenhagen on the nineteenth of this month via the Swedish American Line.

Not only would a partial insulator of gravity add greatly to the safety of all airplane travel, but it would add greatly to the power, the range and the guidance of missiles by which World War III will be fought. Hence, all nations are now desperately at work seeking to find a partial insulator of gravity.

Gravity Insulators Must Not Depend Upon Power

You may think that an elevator is an anti-gravity machine, but it is not. An elevator needs outside power with which to operate. Therefore, I eliminate all schemes to overcome gravity by any form of electrical rays so long as they must be developed by an outside power which man must produce. If some natural power—such as magnetic rays from the skies, or possibly the sun's rays—could be used, these would be satisfactory for the harnessing of gravity.

An anti-gravity paint would be ideal. Now, while so many synthetic products (from antibiotic medicines to anti-flammable paints) are being made from petroleum, it seems possible that an anti-gravity coating will some day be developed from petroleum. The metallurgists are also carefully watching for some anti-gravity product. Personally, I feel that gravity will be harnessed in conjunction with the sun's rays. I have recently returned from Phoenix, Ariz., where Mr. Walter T. Lucking, President of the Arizona Public Service Co., has gathered together a group of men to harness the sun's rays.

Everyone Should Own Some Very Cheap Land

When a partial gravity insulator is some day discovered, there could be a great jump in the price of all vacant land, especially land in a semitropical region such as Florida, or in any of our Southwestern States which have long days of sunshine. Persons buying such land should insist on very cheap acreage and not buy land which might be desirable for possible later subdivision. For harnessing gravity, — swamp land, mountain land, wood land, or even desert land could be equally valuable. Such land should be property that is no good for anything else and which now sells for a few dollars per acre.

Of course, when buying acreage for possible subdivision or farming, there are many other considerations. The nearer such land is to a city or town, the more one can afford to pay,—probably up to $100 per acre. Let me finally add that a person should never buy any land—in Florida or elsewhere—without first seeing it. Moreover, the best bargains may be within a few miles of where you are now reading this column. Remember the story of the man who hunted all over the world for a certain large diamond, then finally found it in his own backyard!

It's The Law In Texas

LOOKING AHEAD (LEGALLY SPEAKING)

You can tell a lot about people by the way they regard time.

Do they put stock mostly in the past—their record; the present—their direct joy in work or play; or the future—their plans.

Why not use all three dimensions of time? Past experience to guide, the present for zest, and the future to realize dreams.

Lawyers report a sharp shift in the way people regard time and the law: Of old they thought of law in terms of past facts like failures to meet legal duties, misdeeds, etc.—facts useful chiefly in lawsuits.

You still have to think of the record, since you may have to go to trial some time. So keep good records of your affairs.

But more and more people now also think of the law in the future tense—in terms of built-in safeguards for plans which they want to go through without legal hitches.

Our heavy income and death taxes have made people plan ahead legally, rather than wait for the ax to fall. Any time you buy or sell a home or a business or make an investment you have choices of how you may do it—some wise, some not, in view of your circumstances. Should you insist on an abstract or accept or offer instead of a title insurance policy? (Your lawyer has a definite part to play in either event.)

Should you do business as a sole proprietor, a partnership, or corporation? Do your contracts set out ways of meeting unexpected events? How best may you serve your estate (and also carry out your wishes)—by a will or a trust, or by direct gifts?

While all of these things point forward, the past in the form of court records can serve you by showing where trouble may come from.

As more and more people know the symptoms of legal trouble—where to look for legal hitches in plans before big trouble starts, there will be fewer law suits and better human relations.

And where does trouble sometimes start? Most often where you lack a clear grasp of your relationship, your rights and duties, and your volving large personal or financial stakes.

Texas to Supply 434 Men for the Draft in Sept.

AUSTIN, Sept. 2—The state quota for Texas draft boards in October calls for 434 men, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, announced Friday.

The October call is the state's share of a national quota of 9,000 men, all for the Army.

Colonel Schwartz also announced that the local boards would send around 1,700 men for pre-induction physical and mental examinations. These men return home after being examined at examining stations.

Local board quotas for October call already have been figured and are scheduled to be placed in the mail to the boards Monday.

The October quota will be filled with men who are at least 22 years old on October 1, with the exception of volunteers or delinquents, who may be younger.

Don't Become One In 31 To Be Killed During Holidays

The Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety announced today 31 persons are expected to be killed in Texas traffic accidents during the three-day Labor Day weekend.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., said the official prediction—which is seldom far off—should "serve as a challenge to all Texans to make a concerted effort to stem the tide of highway tragedy next weekend."

He pointed out that during the Labor Day weekend last year there were 30 traffic deaths, one more than the Department had predicted. He noted, however, that the forecast for the 1959 Fourth of July holiday—26 fatalities—turned out to be accurate. "We would like to make a special appeal to the citizens of Texas to consider the facts about holiday driving and do their utmost to reduce the tragedy of death, suffering and economic loss next weekend", Garrison said.

"Department of Public Safety patrolmen and all other law enforcement officers in our State will do everything in their power to make the streets and highways safer by removing lawless drivers—but the statistics prove the main job is up to the individual behind the wheel."

He cited the following facts and figures on last Labor Day weekend, compiled by N. K. Woerner, Manager of Statistical Services:

Of the 30 traffic deaths in the State, 26 occurred in rural areas as the result of 18 accidents.

Ten of the 18 rural fatal accidents involved drivers who had been drinking.

Two of the three rural pedestrian accidents involved pedestrians who had been drinking.

Seven of the 10 drivers who had been drinking in rural fatal accidents were exceeding the legal speed limit.

Thirteen of the 18 rural fatal accidents involved only one motor vehicle.

In 12 of the 13 rural fatal accidents involving only one car, the drivers had no "other driver" to blame. In the other case, a pedestrian-victim was at fault.

"Perhaps the most significant thing in the analysis of last year's Labor Day statistics is that in every rural accident, at least one violation was apparently a contributing factor," Garrison said.

"So it might follow that if we can stop the violations, we can stop the death and destruction on the highways of Texas."

The Public Safety Director said some 125 additional patrolmen from the Department's other uniformed services will augment the Highway Patrol force during the three-day "Operation Holiday" beginning at 12:01 a.m., September 5, and ending at 11:59 p.m., Monday, September 7.

Christ; who gave himself for us. (Titus 2:13-14.)
An American lady in one of the department stores in Los Angeles, Calif., was selling jewelry. She had around her neck "Japa Mala" prayer beads, which showed she was a Hindu.

With astonishment, I asked her why she was wearing those beads in a Christian country. Thinking I was a Hindu, she looked at me with surprise and asked why I was so anxious to know.

I said, "I am a Christian in a Christian country, and you are a Hindu in a Christian country. How is it that you have accepted a different faith?"

She was anxious to know my reason for becoming a Christian. I said, "Many factors have changed my life. The greatest one is that Christianity has given me a hope, a blessed hope, a hope of righteousness, and above all, a hope of salvation."

I suggested to her that she read the Bible. I told her it would help solve her problems. It would lead her to Christ, who gave His life on the cross for all mankind.

PRAYER
Our Father in heaven, we look to Thee for guidance and strength. Grant us wisdom and courage to proclaim Thy good news to all mankind. May we be instrumental in drawing others to the throne of grace. In Christ's name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
In accepting Christ, we inherit eternal life.

Successful Irrigation Means Complete Control Of Water

Modern farming operations may be likened to a factory. The farmer has the raw materials at hand—the soil, water, tools and seed. Economic production of quality products is the farmer's business. To make a success the farmer must know his soil and requirements of crops for nutrients and water. Of course, if he is a good mechanic, financier, entomologist, weather prophet, and business man it helps a lot.

After observing a great number of irrigation farmers, those who are most successful are those who:

1. Take good care of soil adding organic matter as needed.
2. Save and utilize every possible drop of rainfall.

3. Provide uniform, deep penetration of a good pre-planting irrigation.
4. Examine soil for moisture and study crops for moisture needs keeping the top two to three feet of soil moisture replenished.

Our supply is not inexhaustible.

Ways and means of using wisely and conserving precious underground supply of water are being studied by more and more farmers.

Some practices and methods of making good productive use of our water resources and to help stretch supply of irrigation water are to:

1. Supply plenty of organic matter to the soil. This will mean more pounds of cotton per acre inch of water used.

2. Level land or arrange rows so that uniform distribution of water is made over each acre.

3. Use underground or portable irrigation pipe to avoid seepage and evaporation losses of the open irrigation ditch.

4. Supply adequate uniform application of preplanting irrigation.
5. Begin watering cotton only after the first blooms or after cotton has set squares and avoid September watering of cotton.

6. Plan grain sorghum at Experiment Station's recommended dates to avoid excessive use of moisture. (At Lubbock this is the first half of June.) Earlier plantings require more water.

7. If grain sorghum land is to have preplanting irrigation only select a variety of hybrid adapted to this type water use.

8. Use soil auger or sharp-shooter shovel and feel of the soil to determine the moisture needs before starting the pump.

9. Know the amount of water your well pumps and figure acre inches of water each irrigation. Secure an irrigators record book for ready reference.

10. Plan to use every drop of rain storing it in the soil where it falls. Then irrigate only when necessary to have a good yield yet an economical production of good quality crops.

11. Consult your county agent for some good irrigation tips and ask him for some of the latest bulletins on irrigation. He can help you.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Turner and Cheryl spent the weekend with their parents.

Motorists Urged To Get Inspection Stickers Early

AUSTIN—The Texas Department of Public Safety announced today the new 1960 motor vehicle inspection stickers are now available to Texas motorists.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., Director, recommended that Texas owners have their vehicles inspected early in the new inspection period which extends from September 1 to April 15, 1960. Vehicles not displaying the new sticker after April 15 will be operating in violation of the law.

"In the vast majority of cases," Garrison said, "this program has become a very minor inconvenience and expense to the motor vehicle owner—provided he moves early to comply with the law."

"The more than 4,500 authorized inspection stations over the State are capable of handling the inspection of Texas vehicles without delay if owners will not wait until just a few days before the deadline."

"With hard summer driving coming to an end, fall is an excellent time to have vehicles safety checked in preparation for the winter months."

Garrison called attention to the fact that since the beginning of the inspection program vehicles having a defect that was a causative factor in fatal accidents decreased from 11 per cent to four per cent.

He said 43.4 per cent of the cars inspected during the last inspection period needed some adjustment or repair and that the average cost for inspection including the $1.00 fee, was only $2.02 per car.

Johnson Joins Caprock Staff

Jack Johnson, a crop dusting pilot who is well known in this area, has joined the Muleshoe staff of Caprock Flying Service, Inc. Carl Crawford, company president reports. Area headquarters are maintained here at Jerry's Seed & Feed.

Mr. Johnson lately has been flying for Earl's Spraying Service, Plainview. In other years he was employed here by crop spraying firms, and at Hereford, and during that time he became acquainted with many farmers around Muleshoe.

He is a spray pilot, but in addition is an aircraft and engine inspector and can license airplanes. Caprock is erecting a building in Vega and will install a shop for repair of planes, Mr. Crawford said.

Christian Science Services

Man's God-given dominion over disease and enslavement will be stressed at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Accounts of spiritual dominion to be read from the Bible include Christ Jesus' healing of the "woman having an issue of blood twelve years" (Luke) and Paul's healing of Eutychus who "fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead" (Acts 20). The Lesson-Sermon is entitled "Man."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read this passage: "The enslavement of man is not legitimate. It will cease when man enters into his heritage of freedom, his God-given dominion over the material senses" (228:11-13).

The Golden Text is from Genesis 1:26: "God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness, and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth."

Linda Jordan underwent minor surgery on her leg Saturday at Levelland.

Machine Being Invented To Tell You When A Watermelon Is Ripe

Do you know how to tell whether a watermelon is ripe or not? E. E. Burns, associate professor of Food Technology Research and Teaching, at Texas A. & M. College has issued a very interesting article in this regard. In the article Burns said:

Few foods have the universal appeal of a cold ripe watermelon. Aside from their refreshing taste, watermelons enjoy a special place in almost everyone's heart due to their unique association with pleasant memories and experiences.

The problem of guessing if a watermelon is ripe is a matter of wide concern. Every summer throughout Texas, the air is filled with the sound of watermelon thumpers, slappers, plunkers, knockers, rollers, rubbers, feelers, pluggers, and droppers. Whether what lies beneath the rind is red, green, crisp, pithy, hollow, or solid defies detection by the novice.

Work is being carried out at this laboratory to develop an instrument or machine which measures and describes watermelon quality accurately.

Three things are important in developing good quality watermelons: flesh color, texture, and flavor in that order.

Color is being measured by the latest electronic instruments. The greater amount of red color present, the riper the melon. Curiously enough, the brightness of the red color is related to the texture or feel which a bite of melon has in the mouth. Possibly the dullness of the red color can be used to indicate that a melon is over mature.

Texture is being measured by the mechanical force necessary to induce a plunger through a certain amount of watermelon tissues. This also is a measure of the fiber content and watermelon varieties differ widely in this regard. Black Diamond is fibrous and is preferred by some people because of its "meaty" texture. Charleston Gray, on the other hand, has less fiber and a soft but crisp texture when fully mature.

Flavor is being measured chemically in terms of sugar and acid content. Sugar is the most important element and varies from about 7 to 13 percent depending upon stage of ripeness.

These accurate laboratory tests are compared with scores given to each test melon by an expert panel of horticulturists. Their preferences for the ideal stage of maturity and barely acceptable stage of maturity then are defined in terms of electronic color measurements, texture tests and chemical composition.

This is the range which a machine or meter should have to measure watermelon quality. Agricultural engineers at Texas A. & M. College are working on such a machine. A 2-year collection of data indicates that possibly the color of light reflected from the internal tissues of a melon, when a bright light is shown upon it, might be used to operate an electronic meter. This machine could be used to measure melons still on the vine or could be used to grade melons at the shipping point.

Such a machine may take the fun out of guessing if a melon is ripe, but Texas growers would be able to guarantee every melon which is sold to be red, ripe and juicy.

Profitable Yield on Wheat Using Phillips 66 Ammonia

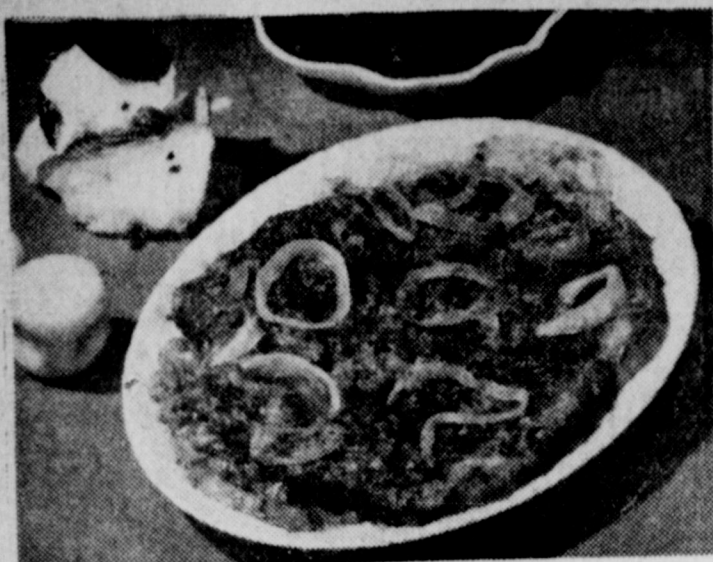

Dan W. Berger, prominent Oldham County farmer, says: "On 235 acres of wheat, I averaged 43 bushels per acre. This was the first year I'd used ammonia on wheat. After seeing what could be done with that application, I've decided to inject 100 pounds of Phillips Ammonia pre-plant on my wheat this year. I'm thoroughly sold on the use of Ammonia."

Other successful Southwestern farmers have discovered that they make more profit per acre, using Phillips 66 Ammonia. They get more cotton that classes higher at the gin... yields of sorghum grain or ensilage are increased... profits on wheat and small grains are increased through higher grain yields and improved forage... more marketable vegetables are harvested.

Phillips 66 Ammonia can be easily applied either by you or your distributor. See us today about Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia... it gives you more nitrogen per dollar than any other form of fertilizer—a full 82%.
