THS Band Is Rated Tops

The Tahoka High School band was the only one of five bands in the Post Invitational Band Festival last weekend to get a "1" rating.

Other bands in the event were Post, Morton, Idalou and Roosevelt. THS band, directed by Milton Fox, was presented a plaque. It reportedly was the first "1" rating earned by the THS band in 15 years.

WOODWORK

by dalton

LAST SATURDAY night's Chamber of Commerce banquet was a good one, with some deserving folks like Alta Thomas, Carl Reynolds and Curt Terry being honored. Also honored was me, maybe not so deserving, but certainly appreciative.

Those who missed Rep. Charles Stenholm's talk about the problem of farmers and of the entire country missed a good one. He said flatly that the only way to get farm prices up is to cut production.

Many of us came away from the banquet reassured that we are fortunate to have Stenholm as our representative in Congress.

Alta and Carl were recognized as Woman and Man of the Year and they both deserve it. These are persons who always are willing to do whatever they can to help any worthwhile activity--the kind of persons who can be counted on everytime.

Curt, honored as Student of the Year, has been so involved in school and community events that it's a wonder he ever had time to keep his grades up. It's good to know that some youngsters like Curt still are doing things right while a few others do all they can to louse up the image of youth.

And I received a nice plaque which reads: "Presented to Dalton Wood, as the Outstanding Newspaperman in the 2100-block of N. 8th St. in Tahoka." Well, actually it said "In appreciation of his continued support and contribution to our community."

It's a relief to know that since I now have been recognized, I no longer have to support all these community projects.

Seriously, since our family moved to Tahoka three years ago, we have been treated super by everyone. It's a great community and if we have helped to improve things in any way, we're glad. It's really something to get a plaque just for doing your job. We appreciate being appreciated.

The plaque will hang on my office wall alongside another one which I ordered myself because I never figured on getting one.

FOR AWHILE, it looked like all those people who took time to go to White Sands for the shuttle landing would be disappointed. But the shuttle did land there after first being almost scared away by dust and wind.

The shuttle went around the earth 130 times and was up for eight days. That's a long time. No wonder they were concerned when their toilet went out.

Those guys in the shuttle probably would have thought they were on Mars or someplace by mistake if they had landed in a real sandstorm. I'm sure a lot of folks from up in Yankeeeland got a real education with the dust and wind in New Mexico.

Tahoka C-C Honors Leading Citizens

Carl Reynolds and Alta Thomas were announced as Tahoka's Outstanding Man and Woman of the Year as the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce had its annual banquet Saturday night.

Candidates, Bingo In Ballot Showdown

Lynn County voters will go to the polls Saturday to cast ballots in city, school board, hospital board and bingo elections. The question of whether to approve bingo operated by charitable organizations under the new Bingo Enabling Act will be settled by voters in Commissioners Pct. 3.

A petition carrying more than the required number of names needed for a bingo legalization election was presented to the county, with supporters primarily members of Catholic churches in O'Donnell and Tahoka.

In the Tahoka school board election, five candidates are seeking two full three-year terms, and two are running or the two-year unexpired term of Tommy Lawson, who resigned from the board. Seeking that spot are J.E. Nance Jr. and Jimmy Woodard, and running for the full terms are Zane Curry, Robert Smith, Ray Morales and incumbents Jay Dee House and Bob Haney.

There are no contests in the Tahoka city council election or the hospital board election. Seeking the three spots on the council are Jim Solomon, Richard White and Tom Cooper. Running for three spots on the Lynn County Hospital Board are Larry Hagood, Roger Doss and Tom Freitag.

City and school board votes are scheduled at Wilson, where Tommy Bednarz, Woody Follis, Rex Little, Lowen Young and Ray Ehlers are seeking two spots on the school board, and running for two places on the city council are Victor Steinhauer, Werner Klaus, Lonnie Donald, Violet Stone, Virginia Gatzki, Ricky Yowell and Ray Crispin. Don Morton is running unopposed for the remaining year term of mayor.

At New Home, two vacancies on the school board are sought by Kay James, Dwayne Smith and Mike Filding.

At O'Donnell, four candidates are seeking two places on the city council. They are incumbent Stanley Robison, and Rosa Gutierrez, Michael Mensch and Joe Morales. Mayor Truett Hodnett is running unopposed for reelection.

Seeking two seats on the O'Donnell school board are Jerry Barton, Weldon Bessire, Jimmy Popnoe, Alton Cook, David Sepeda and Martin Casarez. None of the six are incumbents.

With contested elections for both the school board and city, and with interest high talked of economic problems facing the nation in general and farmers in particular and said Congress needs to make some politically though de-isions to remedy the situation.

Also honored were Virginia House as Chamberette member of the Year, and THS senior Curt Terry as Student of the Year. The son of Mrs. Sharon Terry was presented a plaque from the chamber by Principal Jim Marcus, who noted that Curt has been involved in many school and community activities.

He is a former president and vice president of FFA, was sophomore class president, vice president of the Student Council, voted Most Likely to Succeed, was Star Greenhand and was freshman class favorite.

Reynolds Honored

Dr. Richard White made the announcement of Reynolds' selection as Man of the Year. Reynolds, a Lorenzo High School graduate and a 1972 graduate of Texas Tech, worked in Plainview for Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber Co. before transferring to Tahoka, where he was manager of the yard here from 1976 to 1979 when he became city manager.

He is a past president of Tahoka Rotary Club, past director and current bulletin editor, Boy Scout and Explorer leader and advisor, volunteer worker with the Heart Fund, former president of the Lynn County Heart Assn., is now on the board of directors of the chamber and Lynn County Library.

Reynolds' parents, brother and sister-in-law were present as he received his award with the comment "It's been a real pleasure living in this community the last six or seven years--this certainly is an honor I didn't expect."

Brief Appearance

Mrs. House, who has been ill at home for several weeks, was allowed to make a brief appearance at the banquet to receive her special award from the Chamberettes for outstanding work on every project she has been associated with. She had to leave the banquet after receiving her award.

Mrs. House helped organize Chamberettes and served as the group's first president.

Mrs. Thomas organized the Lynn County Chapter of the American Heart Assn., and was one of 26 volunteers recognized over the state in 1981 for heart association activities. She also began the cancer fund drive in Tahoka. She is a charter member of Tahoka Garden Club and a member of the Order of Eastern Star, having served as Mother Advisor of Rainbows.

Mrs. Dean Bartley, who made the presentation, noted that Mrs. Thomas is a charter member of her Sunday School class at First United Methodist Church, has served on the church board and is a member of the Bell Choir.

She is a member of the Cemetery Board and Hospital Auxiliary and has headed successful projects for both organizations.

She has four children and two grandchildren. When presented the award, she said, "I won't make a speech; I just thank you a bunch."

A special plaque also was presented to Dalton Wood, publisher of the Lynn County News, "in appreciation of his continued support and contribution to our community." The plaque was presented by chamber director Mrs. Frances Chestnut.

New President

Frank Barrow turned over the duties of president of the chamber to Melvin Burks after welcoming guests, including Sen. E.L. Short and State Rep. Walter Grubbs. He also paid tribute to C-C manager Winston Wharton for his efforts on behalf of the chamber.

The crowd of about 250 persons heard Stenholm chide his fellow members of Congress for not yet making some of the politically hard decisions "that we need to make this country better."

He said it's good that Congress this year must make a decision either to cut expenses or raise taxes--"that's good because for too many years Congress has not had to make those decisions in an election year."

He attacked the three major television news networks for presenting the viewpoint that Congress is taking money away from the poor and needy. He observed that "inflation is now down, but you don't hear much about that, because of the pain of getting it down...we're moving in the right direction, but it's a painful process."

Sees Threat

He also said "we've got to get the growth rate of federal government under control before it consumes us," commented that "we can't survive much longer with 17 per cent interest," and posed the question "where did we ever get the idea that the government owes us a living?"

The congressman predicted that 1982 will be the worst farm income year in the history of the United States, but he said that the farmer is mostly to blame for the poor agricultural situation. Except for subsidies, he said, "the only way to get prices up is to control supply, not to produce everything you can."

He noted that a lot of young farmers who don't have their land paid for are going out of business through no fault of their own. "We cannot continue to sell our product at less than it costs us to produce it...there are no simple answers to all our problems. Our country is teetering on the edge of economic collapse, and we must find some answers."

School Eliminates Art, Music Classes

Regular music classes in elementary schools and art classes in junior high and high school were dropped from the Tahoka School curriculum for next year as the school board last week did some drastic shaving of anticipated expenses to keep the budget within the expected revenue.

With federal programs being slashed by 25 per cent, four federally paid employees were not rehired, and two regular teachers will not be returning. These are art teacher Cindy Slack and boys basketball coach Ben Blair, whose contract was renewed, but who has resigned

Mrs. Gwen Patterson, who teaches music in elementary schools and also has a reading class, will be reassigned subject to meeting certain state requirements for the new assignment.

School board members, Supt. Jim Coulston and principals who were present for last Thursday's special meeting made it clear that they consider all the teachers whose contracts were renewed as excellent faculty members. On the federal programs there was no choice but to employ fewer persons, and school officials felt they had to cut three teachers from its regular faculty because of the losses in state funds due to declining enrollment. The only alternative would be to hire the teachers and pay all their salaries locally, which board members said would necessitate a tax increase. Trustees have said on several occasions they will not increase taxes this year.

In addition to the faculty cuts, principals of each of the three schools said they could cut their spending budgets, by amounts estimated at a total of more than $11,000.

It was indicated that the coaching staff may operate with one less coach than this year.

Board members estimated the school must get by on about $90,000 less than the current year. A loss of $42,500 was estimated due to a new law exempting up to $30,000 of farm equipment from taxes. And Supt. Coulston said the school will lose about $47,400 in state funds because the average daily attendance (ADA) in Tahoka by forces both for and against the bingo legalization, a good turnout of voters is anticipated in O'Donnell.

Robbery Suspect Arrested

A 21-year-old black female who had been sought for more than two years in the June 10, 1978 robbery of Woods Jewelry in Tahoka was arrested in Lubbock March 24.

Patricia Elaine Griggs was arrested on a Crime Line tip in Lubbock and later was brought to Lynn County jail. She had been indicted by a grand jury on a charge of aggravated robbery. She was free on $10,000 bond Friday, with the trial date still to be set.

The woman was accused as an accomplice of Charles H. Austin, who was arrested in California in late 1979, returned to Tahoka and later sentenced to 12 years in state prison for his part in the robbery. Store owner C.N. Woods was tied up in the robbery, in which more than $8,000 in jewelry was reported stolen. Still another woman is being sought in the robbery.

Blood Drive Set April 17

There will be a blood drive sponsored by the Lynn County Hospital Auxiliary on April 17 at the Livestock Show Barn from 4 to 9 p.m. Call 998-4873 for appointment.

Blood centers don't need blood, people do--people like you and me, young, old, rich, poor, black, white, or brown--six of every ten people will need blood in their lifetimes. Many people never think of where blood comes from. The assumption is that when blood is needed, it will be on the shelf in the hospital. The truth is that unless people give blood, it will not be available. It will not magically appear on the shelf, nor can it be conjured up in some laboratory. The only way to get blood is from a healthy human being.

Blood banking began only a quarter of a century ago when Dr. Charles Drew, a black physician from North Carolina, discovered a means of preserving plasma by the freeze dry process. He established one of the first blood banks in the United States and became one of the foremost authorities on the storage of blood and blood plasma. He organized banks for the Red Cross and the National Research Council. He also headed the Blood for Britain Project, chosen unanimously for the job by his fellow scientists.

In addition to Dr. Drew, Dr. Elmer DeGowin of Iowa and Dr. John B. Alsever of New York developed long-term preservatives. Their work made it possible to store blood for 21 days.

New preservatives have since made it possible to store blood for 35 days.

Bingo Vote Due In Many Counties

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said this week that voters in 64 Texas counties, 57 cities, and 35 justice precincts will decide April 3 if charitable bingo will be legal in their communities. Lynn County voters in Pct. 3, O'Donnell and part of Tahoka, will vote on a petition to legalize bingo.

"The time is getting real close when bingo will be the legal kind or the illegal kind," Bullock said.

The comptroller explained that his office will be working closely with local authorities in taking a close look to see that qualified non-profit groups play the game legally. "As for the others," Bullock said, "the Easter Bunny is liable to show up a week early. If there has been an election and an operator is running a game without a license, it's illegal. In areas where there has not been an election, bingo is also illegal there. In either event, we intend to enforce the law with cooperation of local officials."

Under the Texas Bingo Enabling Act, local voters must petition for an election and vote on legalizing bingo for qualified charitable organizations before it can be played legally.

The law provides that a court can order proceeds from illegal games be forfeited to the appropriate local governing body as a civil penalty. Further, the law also provides criminal penalties for unauthorized games under the Texas Penal Code.

vehicles of Tony Aleman and Mauricio Salazar were reportedly parked a mile and a half east of Tahoka when the items were stolen.

Frank Pugh of O'Donnell reported a Coleman lantern stolen from a mobile camper parked at his residence Monday. And J.W. Barnett of Rt. 1, Wilson, reported to the sheriff's office that two trailers valued at a total of $600 were missing from the New Home Co-Op Gin yard, taken sometime since Dec. 31.

City police had one report of a prowler sighted in a garage on Ave. J last Thursday night and a woman reported tires on her car had been slashed Saturday.

Police issued three tickets during the week for exhibition of acceleration, two for running red light and one each for illegal turn and no drivers license.

In county jail were one for aggravated robbery and one for theft by check.

Here's How!

Select The Shampoo That's Right For You

One of the most important parts of an effective hair care program is to determine the type of hair you have — whether it is dry, normal, or oily — and to select your shampoo accordingly.

One way to tell if you have oily hair is if it has a greasy appearance and tends to separate. This is often evident during adolescence when there is a marked increase in sebaceous oil production. Oily hair requires more frequent shampooing than does dry hair. This could mean as often as every day. A shampoo such as Ogilvie Hair Repair Shampoo for Oily Hair will give you a creamy lather that thoroughly cleanses hair and scalp, yet has built-in oil-free reconditioning agents to help build body, repair split ends and leave hair shining.

Dry hair, on the other hand, has little oil and frequently has a dry, lackluster appearance. It is prone to being damaged and may break easily and have split ends. As a person ages, the sebaceous glands become less active and hair may become dryer. Ogilvie Hair Repair Shampoo for Normal to Dry Hair provides gentle cleansing plus a powerful reconditioner to help repair split ends and other externally caused damage. By following these shampoo guidelines, your hair can look healthier, shinier and more attractive.

"Helping You Change Things For The Better"

Mrs. White Urges Support For Husband

Linda Gale White came to town last Wednesday and charmed those persons who attended a reception in her honor at the First National Bank of Tahoka community room.

The wife of state Atty. Gen. Mark White, who is running for governor, declared that her husband is the "only conservative Democrat in the governor's race" and urged those present to support White in his bid for the state's highest office.

Quite a few high school students were among the crowd and Mrs. White observed that the future of the state rests with the young people.

In a brief speech, she touched on several areas of interest, including rising utility costs, which she said her husband is determined to keep down.

She encouraged supporters to work hard, saying "Mark is ahead right now, but we want to win this race without a runoff."

Denise Ehlers Named To All-Star Cast

Senior Denise Ehlers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Ehlers, was named to the UIL one-act play All-Star Cast at the district one-act play contest held last Thursday at the Frenship High School Auditorium.

Another senior, Ronald Webster, was named Honorable Mention.

The brisket dinner was prepared by the cast members' parents, Betty and Milton Ehlers, Gerald Huffaker and Doug Taylor cooked the brisket.

Dear Mr. Editor and Tahoka Friends,

We would like to thank this opportunity to thank each one of you who have remembered us in your prayers, for the ones who gave or tried to give blood, those who prepared cookies and juice for the day and especially Elaine Boone and Jo Anna Thomas for organizing the drive, also to Southwestern Public Service for the Reddy Room and especially to United Blood Services of Lubbock for coming to Tahoka.

Nelda has come a long way, from first in ICU and now to a ward of four beds. She is improving. She underwent surgery to do grafts on Monday but they were unable to continue, the following Wednesday, March 24, they were able to do the skin grafts on both legs, taking the skin from her back. We were so grateful they didn't have to take it from her head.

She will be having further grafting later.

Thanks again for all you've done, keep praying, she still has a long way to go.

God bless you, Joyce and Pete Ware and family; Brian, Missy, Britt and Alton James family; and especially Nelda and all the McKibbens.

I would appreciate it very much if you would kindly forward my Lynn County News to the following address.

My husband, Cleve, is in a nursing home here and I am now making my home at my daughters.

Thanks very much, Jewell Bairrington 2203 Trinity Springs Carrollton, Texas 75006

An energy-efficient electric water heater can save you money when installed close to the point of use. And, since the heater is glass-lined and fully-insulated, it keeps water hot longer. You can reduce the amount of water your household uses by filling the dishwasher to capacity before turning it on or by using the short cycle. Using your clothes washer only when you have a full load and taking showers rather than baths also can save money on water and electric bills.

Din Pemberton, Consumer Services Representative, Lubbock.

Keeping track of the amount of electricity your family uses is easy when you know how to read your own electric meter. Many customers are confused by the four or five dials they see on the meter, yet reading the meter is not difficult and may help you budget for your monthly electric bill even before it arrives. For complete instructions on reading your meter, check the back of the envelope your electric bill comes in or contact your local SPS office for the free booklet "Reading Your Meter."

A Visit With Your County Agent

'82 LIVESTOCK OUTLOOK

This is how the livestock picture shapes up for 1982, based on information from marketing specialists with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Hog and Pig Outlook: During the first quarter of 1982, most marketings will come from the market hog and pig group weighing more than 60 pounds. There are 6 percent fewer hogs in this group than a year ago, so marketings in the first three months will probably be 4 to 6 percent below last year's levels. Barrow and gilt prices should average $46 - $49 per hundredweight during the first quarter.

Second quarter marketings will come from those pigs reported weighing less than 60 pounds; these numbers were reported to be 12 percent below a year ago. This market barrow and gilt prices could average $48 - $51 per hundredweight during the April to June period.

Sheep and Goat Outlook: Choice slaughter lamb prices should begin to increase in the first quarter of 1982. As cattle and hog prices improve and lamb slaughter eases back to 120,000 head per week, slaughter lamb prices should move up to the $50 - $55 per hundredweight level. Seasonal increases in April could push prices up to the $60 plus level. Maintaining these prices into June and the summer months will be difficult unless lamb marketings are more orderly and better coordinated than a year ago.

Beef Outlook: Recent government reports have been quite favorable to the cattle business outlook in 1982. Foremost to the short-run market conditions was the recorded sharp reductions in cattle feedlot placements and numbers on feed. This assures fairly light supplies of beef for the first half of the year. That, combined with lower pork production and only slight increases in broilers, should allow feed cattle prices to continue their recovery.

The 1 percent smaller calf crop for last year suggests that feeder cattle supplies will not be too plentiful during the first half of 1982. If feed cattle prices do move higher as expected, the long-awaited feedlot profits that result should stimulate the demand for feeder animals, thus boosting feeder and calf prices. By the second half of the year, the larger calf crop expected plus some residual supplies from the early part of 1982 could provide fairly large feeder numbers.

Tubb Elementary News

Second grade will be involved along with other grades in taking the Metropolitan Achievement Tests this week. Teachers and children have been preparing for this all year. They request that parents prepare their children this week by seeing they have adequate hours of sleep, good nutrition and encouragement to do their best. It is very important that students be in school every day for the test. The test results will not be available until late May.

Second grade has been asked to aid the Chamberettes by coloring programs for their style show and luncheon this week. We feel honored to have been asked to have a part. Each class will be given three prizes for outstanding art work on the programs.

Plans are now being made for a second grade field trip to Lubbock. Tentative plans are to visit a bakery and a fire station in April.

On Friday, a group of ladies from Lubbock will come to tell the Easter Story to the students in Tubb Elementary. These ladies have done this every year for several years and we enjoy it. They use flannel graph boards and large magnetic figures to tell the story.

Friday, April 2, is the deadline for students to place orders for group pictures.

Scanning Social Security

By Jim Latimer, Field Representative Social Security Administration 1205 Texas Ave., Room 102 Lubbock, Tx 79401

A 1980 change in the Social Security disability insurance program set a new maximum family benefit. The change was promoted by concern that prior law encouraged some people who were seriously disabled but could continue to work to stop working and discouraged persons already on the disability rolls from returning to work.

Moreover, regardless of the effect of the law on current or potential beneficiaries, there was concern about the appropriateness of a provision that enabled disabled workers to receive more in monthly payments than they realized while still employed. According to estimates by the Social Security Administration, prior law permitted the average family of a disabled worker to receive benefits that replaced about half of his or her pre-disability net earnings. At the same time, however, about six percent of disabled workers coming onto the rolls and their families were eligible for monthly payments that exceeded the worker's pre-disability net earnings.

A comparison with the pattern among private insurers shows that they generally limit the benefits they pay to no more than two-thirds of their beneficiaries' gross earnings. The rationale for this limitation is to prevent families from being as well off, or better off, financially than when the worker was employed and thus to discourage beneficiaries from remaining on the rolls even when they are able to return to work.

Under the new law, Social Security disability benefits for a family are limited to 85 percent of the worker's pre-disability average earnings (but no less than 100 percent of the basic benefit) or to 150 percent of the worker's basic benefit whichever is lower.

Medicare Changes

Covered medical expenses incurred in the last three months of the year may no longer be used to meet the deductible for the next year under the medical insurance part of Medicare.

Under prior law, a person who had not already met the annual deductible, could use three months of the year to meet the deductible for the following year. This was called the carryover rule because medical expenses from one year were carried over into the next year.

The carryover rule was recently eliminated and was effective with medical expenses after Oct. 1, 1981. As a result of this change, no medical expenses in 1981 can be carried over into 1982.

The medical insurance (Part B) annual deductible for 1982 will be $60. The deductible for 1982 will be $75. The annual deductible is the amount of medical expenses a person must incur before payments can be made under the medical insurance plan of Medicare.

CARING FOR CONTACTS
 If you're wearing contact lenses, they'll need special care. Contact lenses should be kept clean and free of germs. When you go to bed or a swim, remove your contacts first. Avoid irritating vapors and substances that could have an adverse effect on the lens. On the list of "no-no's" are such things as cosmetics, lotions, soaps, creams, and hair sprays. Don't let your contacts come in contact with them. Both contacts and glasses should fit properly to do you the most good and provide the most comfort. This is especially important with contacts, which rest directly on your eyes.

Maybe you should have them checked. Many people have their eyes checked once a year, whether they're aware of a problem or not. Your eyes change gradually, and even a slight improvement in correcting your vision can make a big difference. So does the comfort of your contacts. If you're not sure you have a good fit or are seeing as well as you should, now's a good time to make sure.

The Bingo Issue

Bingo has had many names and variations. The earliest name, lotto (or lotto), a children's game, was first recorded in 1778. The original American form, called keno, kino, or pokeno, dates from the early 19th century. Other U.S. names are beno, lucky, radio, and fortune. At the height of its popularity during the Depression of the 1930's, a variant played in motion picture theatres was called screeno, with one night in the week designated bank night.

The Texas Bingo Enabling Act authorizes qualified charitable, educational, religious and civic groups to operate bingo games to raise money.

The law taxes the gross receipts these games earn. This tax is collected by the Comptroller and returned to the community where local voters have legalized bingo and local government has decided to levy the tax.

For years BINGO was allowed in this state. The Legislature passed a new law allowing each locality to decide whether or not to allow bingo. This is the option we are faced with.

For the first time, the Legislature provided regulations for this game. This is good. It provides strict compliance rules for everyone, although not everyone is allowed to obtain a license.

We have had bingo here before. Never was it questioned. Bingo was played in church halls, in nursing homes, at veterans' clubs, and even at private faith and AA social clubs. It never gave us a problem. Why should it now?

Bingo goes on at supermarkets. Who doesn't like to play bingo jackpot, play bingo at the fair, and all the other soft drink (Coca Cola, Dr. Pepper) games? It's a thrill to play, because these are games of chance.

If there has been a more delightful, enjoyable, and relaxing game, it's been BINGO. It's one of the few games both young and old can play.

Notice of Bases
Operators should be receiving notice of crop bases for each farm. It is very important for you to review these figures. Any appeals for reconsideration of bases listed in column 4 must be made by April 16, 1982. Your appeal must be in writing and show why the acreage base is not representative of your normal operations of the farm or crop. Review will be made of planted and considered planted for 1978, 1979, 1980 and 1981. If the appeal is approved, the base will be the average of 1978, 1979 and 1980 for the crop appealed.

Set-aside Acres
To be eligible for set aside, the land must have been planted to a row crop or small grain in 1980 or 1981. Blank rows in a skip-row pattern that contain a minimum of 4 normal width rows in a uniform pattern across a field are eligible. No cover is required on these rows. Set aside may not be harvested except baling of small grain planted before Jan. 29, 1982. This must be done before May 15, 1982. Grazing will be allowed in Lynn County from Oct. 1 until March 31. Small grain planted before Jan. 29, may be grazed out.

Notice of Yields
Producers who receive grain sorghum and wheat yields should remember application for proven yields must be made by April 12, 1982. Application to prove your yield must be made at the ASCS office. Regulations have changed in regards to the computation of 1982 established cotton yields. There is no provision that keeps your yield for 1982 from being less than 90% of your 1981 yield. When averaging the five years of actual yields, regulations do not allow the dropping of the lowest and averaging only four years. Your cotton yield may be lower because of this change.

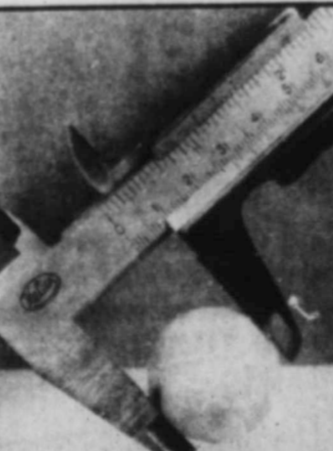

Program Sign-up
The forms are prepared for you to sign your intentions to participate in the 1982 programs. This must be done by the April 16, 1982 deadline. You may sign up to participate now and decide to withdraw up to the final date you certify your crops. You may want to protect yourself by signing up now. After the final date, you will not be allowed to sign up.

Small Grain Certification
May 15 is the final date to certify or request measurement service for small grains. Any setaside that has small grain planted on it must be certified or measurement service requested by May 15 also. Measurement service will be done by the use of slides taken from an airplane. The price is $11 for the first slide

Cotton Production Cards
April 1, 1982 is the final date to turn in your 1981 cotton production evidence. Failure to get your card turned in by this date will result in a zero yield being assigned for this year.

1981 Cotton Loans
Applications for deficiency payments signed after April 1 will require Texas State ASCS Committee approval before payment can be made. If you receive any forms for signature, please don't delay returning them.

NCC ASKS DUST RULE CHANGES

The National Council has asked the Occupational Safety and Health Administration to lift the cotton dust standard for all industries and workplaces where significant health risks cannot be shown, and to evaluate more appropriate and cost-effective approaches to protect worker health where risks are found.

In commenting on OSHA's proposal to re-evaluate the standard, the Council cited the Supreme Court's benzene ruling that said the agency had to find that a significant health risk existed in the workplace before issuing the standard.

On this basis, the Council said the dust standard should not apply to cottonseed oil mills, warehouses, classing offices, waste processing industries and their downstream customers, or to knitting, narrow fabric, and elastic fabric manufacturing plants.

Slashing and weaving areas of textile mills also should be excluded since the evidence of risk is questionable or inconclusive, it stated.

EXPORTS MOVING OUT: Exports maintained good pace with shipments of 209,600 running bales of cotton during week ended March 18.

This brought season's shipments to 3,945,600, slightly more than the same date last year. The week's new sales for this season totaled 49,400 with Canada, South Korea, Taiwan, and Japan major buyers. Sales for the 1982-83 marketing year increased by 26,700, the National Cotton Council reports.

MAID LAUNCHES OVERSEAS TOUR: Maid of Cotton Jann Carl is now on a world-wide tour to tell U.S. cotton's story to export customers.

During a six-week period, she will take part in activities to increase use of products made from U.S. cotton and meet with key textile executives and government officials.

Countries and dates of visits are Japan, March 28-April 1; Korea, April 1-9; Hong Kong, April 9-15; Singapore, April 15-19; Thailand, April 19-20; Greece, April 21-May 3; and England, May 3-7, the National Cotton Council reports.

Teacher Tells Of European Trip

Mrs. Paulette Brownfield, counselor in the Tahoka schools, last Thursday told Rotarians of last summer's trip to Europe by West Texas high school boys and girls under the "People to People" program started by President Eisenhower to promote peace and understanding.

As one of the trip sponsors, she said the youths not only gained much but made a good impression wherever they went.

They were guests in citizen homes in France, England and Ireland, and also visited other countries including Holland, Austria and Hungary. At the end of the regular trip, she chaperoned a group on a second leg to the Soviet Union.

She illustrated her talk with color slides from photographs made on the trip.

High School Principal Jim Marcus introduced the speaker.

FAMILY FOCUS

OLDER TEXANS: SAVE ENERGY FOR YOUR HEALTH

As high energy costs eat up a greater portion of earnings, older adults with fixed incomes seem to suffer the greatest -- trying to scrimp on energy use, food or health care in order to make ends meet.

Instead of scrimping, older adults can take several steps to save energy dollars -- and their health.

First, understand the problem.

Then follow the steps recommended in this series of articles to make your home an "energy saver" instead of an "energy waster."

Problem: Energy Costs
As fuel costs rise, older adults must spend more and more of their income on fuel and utilities.

Many elderly now spend up to 30 percent of their total income on energy costs.

Some face the impossible choice of spending money on food or utility bills.

This poses a problem. Either choice means increased chances for ill health.

If food is the choice, utility services may or could be discontinued. During even mildly cold weather, the older adult faces an increased risk of catching a cold which may develop into more serious health problems.

On the other hand, if the utility bills are paid instead of buying food, nutritional deficiencies may or could also increase the chances for ill health.

Make Most of Energy
Scrimping with energy -- and living in a too-cold home during winter months -- is dangerous for older adults, so make the most of existing energy instead of sacrificing it.

You can make your home an "energy saver" with some simple weatherizing steps -- and you can learn to live with a little less heat.

Doctors say 70 degrees isn't too cool for most older adults in normal health, and some may even be comfortable with 66 degrees if they get used to it gradually.

To get used to lower temperatures gradually, lower the thermostat one or two degrees a week over a month's time.

But be sure to check with your doctor before doing this -- remember, a mild cold can cause serious problems.

To feel more comfortable in cooler temperatures, consider the "layered look" in clothing.

Rather than turning the heat up, put on a sweater.

Also, a small investment in "longjohns" or insulated underwear can mean a pay off in energy savings.

Of course the "layered

No connection between fat and heart disease

COLLEGE STATION — Confusing reports about dietary fats, high cholesterol levels and heart disease shouldn't cause unnecessary worry for most Americans as long as they're eating properly, says a professor of biochemistry and biophysics at Texas A&M University.

"Hardly a week goes by that we aren't bombarded by commercials or recommendations from some institute about what we should eat in terms of dietary fats," said Dr. Randall Wood, who with Dr. Raymond Reiser, a Texas A&M professor emeritus, has studied cholesterol in the human body for 10 years.

For most Americans there is no relationship between diet and coronary disease, Wood said, and people react differently to different amounts of fat in their diets. The biochemist pointed to the Texas A&M research which suggests that most people don't react to high levels of fats in their diet.

"Shampoo" comes from the Hindu word shampo, meaning "to press." A good shampoo involves pressing the fingers against the scalp so the original meaning still applies.
