Dogs' Comeback Falls Short

By DALTON WOOD

Coahoma won the Dogfight in the rain last Friday night, but the Tahoka Bulldogs gave it a good last-half try before going down 20-14 to the host Coahoma Bulldogs.

The loss left Tahoka at 1-2 for the season and this week the Bulldogs will host Abernathy at homecoming. Last week Abernathy handed Shallowater its first defeat, 16-12. "They are well-balanced, have a good quarterback, lots of seniors, and are strong on defense," Coach A.D. Shaver said Monday.

Bulldog starting quarterback

Trey Teaff was injured in the second quarter of last week's game at Coahoma, and is expected to be out of action for at least four weeks. After Teaff suffered a cracked collar bone and went out, junior Randy Taylor moved over to quarterback, and the Dogs rallied behind him in the second half to turn what looked like an easy Coahoma win into a close contest.

Also injured Friday was back John Aldous, but his hand injury was not serious.

A long punt return back to the Tahoka 25 on Coahoma's first possession set the Red Dogs up for a TD scored by QB Brian Calaway on a 10-yard run at 6:32 remaining. Calaway's kick was no good and it was 6-0. In the second period, Coahoma put together a long drive which resulted in a scoring drive by Dale Hodnett, 4 yards, and then Craig Wallace ran for two points to make it 14-0 at the half.

Lead Builds Up

In the third, Coahoma scored again after recovering a fumble at the Tahoka 33, with Wallace running 17 to score with 6:55 left in the third. Taylor tackled Wallace on a point running try and it was 20-0, Red Dogs.

The Blue Dogs scored suddenly a little later as on fourth down, Todd Nance broke loose to run 55 yards for a touchdown. Johnny Morin kicked the point and it was 20-7 with 5:13 left in the third.

Late in the period, and early in the fourth, Tahoka put on a good drive, with Morin running well, which carried to a first at the Coahoma 20. But there was a penalty and a loss before Taylor hit End Tadd Knight with a good pass of 14 yards to the 14. On fourth and 5, Morin struggled to a first at the 10. But the next two downs lost 2 yards, then Taylor squirmed 6 to the 6. On fourth and goal, Morin was stopped at

"How about Billy Smart, the class president and salutatorian?" I asked. "I heard he went to Penn State and was still there, as an instructor, I guess."

"He's still there, all right, but it was state pen, not Penn State," she said. "I doubt that any of your classmates will be here for homecoming...I think several of them have died of old age...and this one guy I know won't be here, because every time he leans over to tie his shoes, some of his hair falls out."

I don't think I will go to homecoming, either. After talking with her, I don't feel so good.

I forgot to ask about Gabe Grundle, who used to always go around chewing on raw kernels of corn. He was voted most likely to suck seed.

KNOTHOLES IN the Woodwork: Not being Jewish, I don't know anything about the Jewish holidays listed on my calendar for this month. WOODWORK

BY DALTON

I HAVE BEEN considering returning to my high school for the second time since I graduated. The first time I went was about six years ago, and there were no members of my graduating class at homecoming, nor did anyone I talked to know what had happened to any of them.

I guess if I go this year to the Jacksboro High homecoming, it will be the same. As I recall, there were about 35-40 members of our graduating class and none of these people has ever bothered to try to organize a class reunion, possibly because they don't want to see each other again. Maybe, I thought the other day, if I could get in touch with one of those 1946 graduates, I could con them into organizing a reunion next year, the 40th year since we so eagerly went out to conquer the world.

I always figured some of those people would go a long way, and apparently they did, because nobody knows where they are. I called the only person I could remember at Jacksboro who would talk to me, to see if she could tell me where any of my former classmates are today. She graduated a few years after I did.

"The Class of 1946?" she said incredulously. "Wasn't that the last bunch to get their diplomas in a cave, chipped on rocks?"

I gave her the names of three or four of my classmates. These were the only names I could remember--not because I am forgetful, but because my mind has been occupied by more important things. She didn't know what had happened to three of them. She thought that maybe the girl who was valedictorian was living off down toward Dallas and

However, Coahoma fumbled and Tahoka recovered at the 1, and on fourth down, Morin went 2 inches for the TD. He then kicked the point and it was 20-14 with 4:55 left in the game.

Tahoka had a chance to tie or win after taking over at the Coahoma 29, but the home team held, and on fourth down Taylor slipped down on the wet turf while attempting to pass, and Coahoma then ran out the clock.

Nance gained 103 yards in 12 carries and Morin had 83 yards in 25 carries. On defense the leading tacklers were Andrew Chapa, Doug Lawson, Taylor, Knight and Gary Daniell. The defense frequently threw Coahoma back for losses, and the winners had only 60 yards net rushing.

Crime Line Aids Robber's Arrest

Several calls to Lynn County Crime Line regarding a strong-arm robbery of Allsup's in O'Donnell Sept. 14 led to the arrest and sentencing of a 26-year-old O'Donnell man last week.

Kenneth Lynn Smith pleaded guilty of robbery before District Judge George Hansard in Tahoka Tuesday and was sentenced to 10 years in prison. He was arrested in O'Donnell last Thursday and arraigned before Justice of the Peace Ben Morrison. Smith also was implicated in two burglaries of homes in the O'Donnell area this month, but was not charged in either case. However, the items stolen in the burglaries of homes of Bart Anderson, west of O'Donnell, and J.W. Gardenhire, east of that city, were recovered.

Two homes in the county were burglarized last Friday between 8 a.m. and 1 p.m. and tire tracks found at each place matched. The home of Alton James, Rt. 5,

CLOSE ENCOUNTER--The driver of this 18-wheeler, loaded with furniture and headed south, was fortunate to escape injury as the truck skidded on wet pavement last Friday on top of the U.S. 87 overpass near the Star-Lite Drive In in Tahoka. The truck went over to the northbound side, then swerved back and came off the overpass headfirst, briefly airborne. Somehow both truck and trailer stayed upright, and the driver was shaken but unharmed. (LYNN COUNTY NEWS PHOTO)

OUT OF THE WOODS

By Juanell (Wood) Jones

"Well good granny, while I was gone my kid was tearin' up Jake and got one of his toys all whompey-jawed, and when Daddy gets home it's gonna be Katie bar the door for him!"

That's possibly what grandparents said about their children. Today we might say, "Oh man, that kid of mine got his room grody to the max and when Dad gets home there's gonna be an awesome scene, for sure!"

It's funny how every generation creates their own slang. Today's generation thinks of the slang of their parents and grandparents as strange and dumb ... but, that works both ways. I know I drove my parents nuts when I was a teenager with some of the words I picked up at school. Now, as I get older, and hear the slang used by teenagers today, I realize they probably think of my slang as outdated. Heaven forbid! I haven't even hit the big "30" yet!

I enjoy listening to some of the really "old" slang. "Goodnight, nurse" is one I rarely hear anymore, but my grandmother still says, "Land sakes, get me a lifting rag." That's a pot-holder, you young dummies! And one mature woman swats her flies with a "fly flapper".

While visiting in my home one day, one lady told me she really liked the wainscoting in my house. I politely thanked her, and wondered where I could find one of those in my house ... come to find out, she meant the paneling in my living room! And my grandfather never eats just squash — he always says "pass the squash-by-gosh".

I wonder if they know that "built like a brick house" means "stacked like Marilyn Monroe", and "that's really bad" actually means "that's really good." So who invented these dumb phrases, I'd like to know? Or to put it another way, "Say dude, who's the Jack that brain-waved this jive talk, I want that info!"

Okay, enough is enough. I'll try to finish this column using the "Queen's English" if anybody remembers how to communicate that way.

AND WHAT ABOUT the things kids play with these days? Go-bots, robots, Jedi knights and R2-D2s are standard toys in boys rooms ... and little girls have Barbie doll mansions-cars-swimming pools and the works, play kitchens, little pink stereos and Sony Walkman headphones to dance to. I wonder if they know how to make mud pies or play around the world with jacks?

And have you seen the television commercial where Mommy sits down at a computer with her baby, and wonders if it's time to start?

My 3-year-old son can't tie his shoes (they have velcro fasteners, of all things) but he can operate the VCR just as well as I can.

I have to admit, even my generation had "too many choices" of toys and junk to play with. We didn't have to dream up much of anything. I think my parents' generation really may have been the "good old days" for kids. I mean, most of them (so I'm told) didn't have very many toys so they had to invent new ways to play with them, or dream up something else to do.

Sometimes I think we would be better off, healthier and more inclined to communicate with each other if we would throw out the TV, VCR, radio, stereo and computer, and just go outside and play hide-and-seek or something else that uses fresh air, muscles and ingenuity.

Well, I'll get off my soap box now; turn off my typewriter-computer, go home and pop some popcorn in the microwave, and watch the movie I recorded on my VCR earlier this month. I can justify all of this though ... it's an old movie about Cary Grant stranded on an island with a bunch of little girls and their teacher, so I can learn how they invented ways to pass the time!

Devotional

By Rev. Hazel House

SCRIPTURE:

Psalms 103

"Bless the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me, bless His Holy Name." This Psalm is a psalm of David and prayers of praise and one on self-reminding of what God is like. The psalmist said that he would bless the Lord and would not forget His glorious work. Then he tells what God has done for him and seems to repeat these things so that he will not forget them.

Have you ever tried that method? Again, this is like singing a song of praise over and over, such as "Count your blessings, name them one by one, count your many blessings and see what God has done."

The Lord God forgives all our sins, and keeps me from all the depth of shame, because He loves all of us and forgives us when we ask Him.

The Psalms give us who will listen many different kinds of sins to be forgiven, and then he tells us that man is "made of dust" and reminds us of God's love for every one of us. Then he tells us of God's mercy, and finally tells us of the Lord's preparation of His throne in the heavens, and he closes his writing very much as at the beginning, "Bless the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me, bless His Holy Name."

God loves you — do you love Him?

Stenholm Supports Child Abuse Victims Rights Act H.R. 3298

Congressman Charles Stenholm (D-Stamford) called on his colleagues to support legislation requiring stricter laws against child pornography.

Stenholm is the primary Democrat sponsor of H.R. 3298, the Child Abuse Victims Rights Act of 1985. The bill, which was introduced last week, mandates harsher punishment for criminals who sexually exploit children. Included in the bill is a clause for a mandatory life sentence or death sentence in kidnapping offenses involving the murder of a minor.

LOTS OF BARGAINS!

Some of the most discouraging statements made to date concerning the farm bill under development in Washington came September 18 from the Republican Senate Agriculture Committee Chairman Jesse Helms of North Carolina, according to Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock.

Senator Helms, in what Johnson terms a misguided effort to bring potential program costs down to the three-year $39 billion budget target, is proposing a 20 percent across-the-board cut in farm income supports. Such a cut for cotton, Johnson points out, would drop this year's 81-cent target price to 64.8 cents.

"We are losing cotton producers and support industries at an alarming rate now," Johnson says, "and a sudden drop of 20 percent in farm income in 1986 would be nothing short of disastrous."

The Senate Agriculture Committee has spent months working on a new farm bill to replace the law that expires September 30 this year. Most of the details were tentatively agreed upon before the August recess, but the measure as written exceeded by about $9 billion the congressional farm spending guidelines made known just before adjournment.

Also on Helms' list for cuts is a reduction in the proportion of each farm's production that would be eligible for income supports. Instead of paying a farmer based on all production, payments would be made only on the part deemed needed for domestic and export consumption.

"Unless there is a sudden and miraculous turnaround in the decline of commodity exports," Johnson says, "this proposal would be another severe blow to farm income prospects."

According to the Associated Press, Helms' aides have indicated that if his move to cut support payments fails, he will propose ways to deny program benefits to all except "farmers most in need of financial help."

To which Johnson responds, "This is an especially galling idea both philosophically and economically. Farm programs are programs needed by producers and consumers alike to assure an adequate and continuous supply of food and fiber for present and future generations. And any government program that proposes to pay farmers according to their needs, as opposed to their capacity to produce, won't meet that objective any better in the U. S. than such programs have in Russia and other socialist countries."

Social Security ... Out West

By Bill West
Social Security Field Representative

Use Of Social Security Card As Identifier — Despite the widespread use of the Social Security number for identification purposes, there is no intention of making it a national identifier, as some have suggested. Neither does its use outside the Social Security program represent a threat to the confidentiality of Social Security records, as others have speculated.

Use of the Social Security number is largely a matter of convenience in a society in which just about everybody has one. The main use for the number is to record Social Security covered earnings and to control subsequent benefit payments.

The Social Security Administration has assigned about 295 million 9-digit numbers since 1936. Because no restriction was placed on use of the number by private organizations, it has been adopted as a readily available identifier for a broad spectrum of uses.

Many Federal agencies also use the number. The food stamp and aid to families with dependent children (AFDC) programs require each member of the family to have a Social Security number. The Internal Revenue Service mandates use of the number as the individual taxpayer identification number for all tax returns and for records of income-producing activities, such as bank accounts or investments. The Department of Defense uses the Social Security number as the identification number for military personnel.

The information in the Social Security record the number identifies is confidential. When the law specifically authorizes the Social Security Administration to do so, it may release the Social Security number to specified government agencies. When there is no law authorizing such disclosure, information from Social Security records can be released only with the written consent of the number holder.

The growing illegal and fraudulent use of the Social Security number resulted in changes concerning its issuance. Since 1978, all applicants for Social Security numbers have been required to present documentary evidence of age, identity, and U.S. citizenship or lawful alien status when they apply for a number. As a result of a 1983 change in the law, new cards are now printed on counterfeit-resistant banknote paper.

People who lose their Social Security card should apply for a duplicate as soon as possible. Many employers are reluctant to hire a person who attempts to provide a Social Security number from memory.

Preparing For The Future

The Social Security survivors, retirement, and disability insurance programs comprise a system of social insurance. Under this system, millions of workers, their employers, and the self-employed pay taxes into funds from which benefits are paid when earnings have stopped or been reduced because of retirement or disability. In the event of death, payments are made to survivors.

Why should a young, healthy worker be concerned about possibility of disability or death? Consider the following facts compiled by the National Safety Council:

*Accidents are the leading killer of persons under age 38 and are the fourth leading cause of death among all age groups.

*An accident takes place every 4 seconds, and an accidental death occurs every 6 minutes.

*In 1982, almost 93,000 Americans died as the result of an accident.

*Every 11 minutes, a person dies in a motor vehicle accident.

*On average, 11 accidental deaths occur every hour of the year.

If a person could be guaranteed regular, uninterrupted employment at an average-to-high wage level, and if that person could be guaranteed that all the money he or she invested would pay substantial dividends, it is conceivable that after a lifetime of work, that person might be able to retire with the same degree of assurance that characterizes the millions of people who now receive Social Security retirement benefits.

But who can guarantee against the possibility of serious illness or disabling injury? The National Safety Council's statistics deal only with accidents. During the time it has taken to read this, as many as 25 or more accidents occurred throughout the United States. How many more people are disabled by illness or die from disease?

It is this inability to predict the future that makes Social Security as essential a part of American life today as it was 50 years ago.

4-H WEEK FOCUSES ON 'YOUTH FOR AMERICA'

One of the longtime goals of the 4-H program has been to help youth between the ages of 9 and 19 become productive citizens and leaders of this nation. The 1985 theme of National 4-H Week, "4-H for Youth for America," reflects the program's commitment to that goal, says the state 4-H program leader with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. National 4-H Week is Oct. 6-12. 4-H has a positive impact on youth lifestyles and plays an important role in developing life skills. It helps youth get in touch with the real world, providing information on science, technology, food and fiber, natural resources and nutrition.

SPS Seeks To Lower Fuel Costs, Credit Texas Customers

Southwestern Public Service Company (SPS) will ask permission on Friday from the Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUCT) to credit $19 million in fuel cost savings and interest to Texas retail customers.

The electric utility also will seek permission from the PUCT to reduce the fixed fuel-cost factor in Texas retail electric bills.

Southwestern is petitioning to reduce the fuel factor from $0.030824 per kilowatt-hour (kwh) to $0.027560 per kwh, effective with October bills.

SPS estimates the credit to Texas retail customers, proposed for late October or early November, would reduce an average monthly residential electric bill one time by a total of about $15. An "average SPS customer" in Texas uses about 600 kwh per month.

The credits and fuel-cost reductions are possible, said SPS President Bill Esler, primarily because the electric utility has increased generation at its new, more economically operated, coal-fueled power plants, and has renegotiated and significantly lowered boiler fuel and boiler fuel-transportation contracts.

"We are delighted by these accomplishments," Esler said. "SPS has stabilized prices of electric service to our customers because of savings such as these."

He pointed out that SPS filed on Aug. 30 for a restructuring of rates for retail electric service in Texas, except in the cities of Lubbock and Texhoma. The request seeks minimal changes in prices to customers, actually reducing revenues to SPS by $91,113.

The petitions that go before the PUCT on Friday are parts of the SPS overall rate-restructuring plan.

"Reducing the fuel charge per kilowatt-hour is really the more important of the petitions we are presenting Friday," Esler said. "The fuel-factor savings will continue, month after month, more than offsetting the change we have requested in base rates."

The estimated $19 million, one-time credit SPS proposes would reconcile an over-recovery of fuel revenue resulting in Texas from the current, fixed fuel factor of $0.030824, the utility president explained. The fixed fuel factor was ordered by the PUCT in October 1983.

"That mandated fuel factor over-recovered fuel revenue in Texas this year," Esler said. "By contrast, in the other areas we serve, eastern New Mexico, the Oklahoma Panhandle, and southwestern Kansas, our customers have already been enjoying reduced fuel costs. Those states still allow automatic fuel cost adjustments by utilities on a monthly basis."

The exact amount of the $19 million that SPS credits to each Texas retail customer will be calculated precisely from that customer's actual use of electric service, beginning with the February 1985 billing, Esler said. "Each account will be credited exactly with the savings and interest, at 11.56 per cent, due that customer," he said.

SPS estimates the cost of calculating and administering the $19 million credit to customers will be $137,000.

WHAT PRICE SOCIALISM?

What a terrible price to pay for a few days pleasure or worldly lusts.

Is it a few million lives given in wars of your sons and daughters who will willingly given their last drop of blood to make sure that America stayed a free Nation? Only to have the same people that they gave their lives for to turn and sell this nation to that age old socialistic idea of something for nothing.

Is it the lives of your soldier son's or daughter's children or grandchildren or even their souls, for friend, you and I know that socialism never did and never will stop at just socialism for it leads to its ultimate, Communism, and a tyrannical rule over the people and nation.

Is it the death of all those of our forefathers who fought and gave their home, families and lives to see that we had a written guideline or pattern in which we could always refer to, to keep on the right path to that freedom they died for which we call the Constitution of the United States of America which was based upon the scriptures of the Holy word of God Almighty the living God of today, yesterday and forever. Socialism, beloved, is in complete opposition to God's plan for man's life and salvation. He said in Genesis 3-19, "In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread till thou return to the ground." In II Thes. 3-10 Paul says, "If any among you would not work neither shall he eat." 3-12 says "Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ that with quietness they work and eat their own bread." The first commandment with promise from the mouth of Jesus Christ said was to honor thy father and mother that you might live long on the land. Matt. 15: 3-9 explains what tradition will do with the commandment of God. Paul explains in I Tim. 5:1-16 who are to take care of parents and widows in our midst. The family and church, not Caesar with his socialistic schemes which in the end sets him up as God and gives him the praise for the same. Beloved stop now and think for a moment, what do you see and hear? First separation of church and state then take God out of every public place and put Caesar's rules and picture in every place instead. Now this should tell you and I something about what socialism is doing for this nation and people. He, Christ, said by their fruits shall you know them. If any man or preacher whether he be ruler or pastor sets himself up above God then we are not to obey him. Look into the prophets and see how many times they defied a kings order or in the apostles how when they were ordered not to teach in Jesus' name that they also defied that order. Jesus said in Luke 12:8-9, "Whosoever shall confess me before man, him shall the Son of Man also confess before the angels of God. But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.

What Price Then? Is it the Lord Jesus Christ again to be nailed to the cross for socialism and communism? Our governor said that it is unconstitutional to require an elected official to acknowledge that the Bible is the word of God. Beloved, again let's look and see what God says. Look first at Exodus 18: 21-23. Notice they are to be our brethren in the Lord. Now note and think about how our forefathers set up our first government. First, rulers of thousands (nation); second, rulers of hundreds (state); third, rulers of fifties (county); fourth, rulers of tens (communities); these were all to be God-fearing men. Now look at Deuteronomy 17: 14-20 it tells how to choose one of our brethren in the Lord for a king or we call president. Again by their fruits you shall know them! Beloved my question now is where did we get this so-called democracy? This is a belief that the majority rules or the will of the people, not the will of God as our constitution intended it to be. Please look if you have a copy of the Constitution or can get one, look at Article 4, Section 4. It says the United States shall guarantee every state in this union a Republican form of Government (a constitutional government) now how many times a day or week do we hear or see the constitution denied by our elected officials from top to the lowest. When we listen to this so-called democracy and separate religion from state or nation, then you have a Godless society and a tyrannical rule and government. Which if you study the book of Daniel and Revelations you will find this type of government and rule described very clearly and for one reason. That is because the people turned to Caesar for their God instead of the All Mighty and living God of the universe. Soon my friend, unless the people of the United States repent and cast off this socialistic, communistic order and rule, you will be told to do away with the offering to God and to worship Caesar or face death. This is also foretold in the scripture that we have mentioned here. This rule first destroys the hard working tax-paying citizen and industry by taxation to feed and care for the so-called poor and needy and we have already seen who was to do this, not Caesar, so next will come the ultimate so-called nationalization of means of production which is your Communism.

Now beloved before you completely write me off. Think one more moment, hasn't he already come into the church and claimed a portion of the offerings to God to support his socialistic scheme called social security and ask yourself why they would not cut the benefits from this? Daniel said he will cause the daily obligation (offering) and (sacrifice praise and prayer) to cease. Then the thing will over spread the earth making it desolate Dan. 9:27. Matt. 24:15; Mark 13:14; Luke 21:17-20 of Godly teachings and actions. Then will come the evil spirit and the wrath of God to follow with the return of Christ. Beloved there are many, many scriptures that we could print out to you but space and money will not allow us to just now but remember you already have the number of man and the offering and praising and thanking God has been ordered to cease from any State controlled institution already. How much further will we so called Christians go with Satan?

Beloved to me this is the ultimate price of Socialism. May the Lord help you to see what these scriptures that I have mentioned are saying to us. No friend, this has not come to pass already as some say and if you are interested further please let me know and I will prove all that I have said in this letter. This scheme and all forms of hand outs to farmers, businesses, etc. are against God's plan for his people. Caesar has only two legal authorities and duties and that is to maintain an army to defend those who believe in God and the nation. To punish the disobedient and ungodly. Thank you and we love in Christ Jesus.

POISONOUS GASES

Homeowners should realize that heavily insulated and weather-tight homes during winter are so tightly sealed that the stove or furnace may exhaust the oxygen in the home. If this happens, the burning fire will produce poisonous carbon-monoxide — an odorless, tasteless, invisible gas. Be sure enough fresh air enters your home at all times a fire is burning, by providing some air vent.

4-H News

National 4-H Week, Oct. 6-12, reflects on the role of youth in shaping America.

Some 4-H members in Lynn County, part of the 180,000 members in Texas and nearly 4.5 million across the country, will be participating in the week-long celebration using the theme "4-H For Youth, For America."

"What we do for our youth today, we do for America tomorrow, points out Tamara Overcast, county 4-H program leader with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "Through 4-H, young people can acquire knowledge and develop life skills that enable them to become self-directing, productive and contributing members of our society. Specifically, they learn good health habits, develop respect for themselves and others, explore career and leisure time opportunities, share responsibility for preserving the environment, learn how to use technology, and develop leadership and citizenship skills through participation in 4-H. And, that's something to celebrate.

But 4-H is not only for youth. It's for adults, who as volunteer leaders can share their skills and expertise with young people. It's for families, who can participate in the fun and learning together. It's for the community, which benefits from the community service carried out by youth. And, it's for America, which benefits as a new cadre of leaders takes its place in our society.

It is through this network of volunteer leaders, state land-grant universities, state and local governments, and the U.S. Department of Agriculture that 4-H has been able to stimulate youth to develop life skills, notes Overcast.

SOFT WATER CAN SAVE ENERGY--

Most people know that hard water requires use of more detergent or soap to get clothes and dishes clean. But few people are aware that hard water can also result in wasted energy and higher water heating bills, says Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service housing specialist Dr. Susan Quiring. Research conducted at New Mexico State University has shown that both gas and electric water heaters use more BTUs than those operated on softened water. The gas heaters operated on hard water in the study used 29.57 percent more BTUs than those operated on softened water, reports the specialist. Likewise, the electric heaters operated on hard water used 21.68 percent more BTUs.

EXTEND THE LIFE OF YOUR HOT WATER HEATER--

Texas living in hard water areas can prevent a buildup of sediment and scale in their hot water heaters either by installing a water softener or by draining enough water out of the heater each six months or so to remove sediment. "People who live in areas with extremely hard water and high sulfur content may find it advisable to drain the water heater as often as every other month," says Dr. Susan Quiring, a housing specialist. Removing scale and sediment regularly can extend the life of a hot water heater, she adds.

EXTENSION SERVICE LAUNCHES PORK PROGRAM--The Texas Agricultural Extension Service is launching a "Pork Profit Program" in an effort to help pork producers cope with current problems of over-production, increased production costs and low prices. Profit margins have evaporated in the past several years, and now producers must pay more attention to details, in particular to the management of their operations, notes a swine specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Three educational programs are already being planned for the coming year—a workshop on futures and agricultural options in November at the Stiles Farm in Thrall, the annual Swine Short-courses next April at Seguin, and a swine evaluation and judging clinic at Texas A&M University next July.
