JENA ALLEN

DONNA JO PATRICK

JENNIFER PROBST

SHARON McCROHAN

By Gary Davis

The 29th annual Ozona Youth Rodeo will get underway this Friday at 5:00 p.m. with the traditional parade, led by the reigning Rodeo Queen, Julie Reagor.

Julie, the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Reagor, who won the 1984 Rodeo Queen title last August, will be on hand to crown her successor at the rodeo grounds on Saturday night. Julie is active in 4-H as well as cheerleading, basketball and tennis. She will be a senior at Ozona High school this fall.

Four young ladies are vying for the title of 1985 Ozona Youth Rodeo Queen. The field of contestants includes Sharon McCrohan, Jena Allen, Donna Jo Patrick and Jennifer Probst.

Miss McCrohan is the 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim McCrohan. Sharon will be a sophomore at OHS this year. She participates in various 4-H contests and was a member of Crockett County's state qualifying horse judging team. During her freshman year at OHS, Sharon played tennis and basketball and was a member of the Ozona Lion Band. She was the recipient of the Sterling Lay Sportsmanship Award at the 1984 Ozona Lion Basketball Tournament. Sharon's hobbies include swimming, riding horses and playing tennis.

Jena Allen, a 16-year-old junior at OHS and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Allen, is also seeking the 1985 Rodeo Queen title.

Jena is very active in 4-H with a concentration in lamb shows where her lambs have placed well consistently in major state competitions.

Jena also enjoys playing tennis and has participated in the high school tennis program for the past two years. Other favorite hobbies include swimming and horseback riding. She was the horsemanship winner in last year's Rodeo Queen contest.

Contestant Donna Jo Patrick is the 15-year-old daughter of Mrs. Mary Jo Skinner of Ozona and Don Patrick of Dallas. Donna Jo will be a sophomore at OHS this fall. She was the recipient of the personality award in last year's Rodeo Queen contest and received a plate for her achievement.

She is active in the 4-H horse, sheep and horse judging programs. She was a state qualifier this year after exhibiting the grand champion mare at district contest in Fort Stockton.

Donna Jo has also earned awards in Western Pleasure, Junior High Showmanship, Runner-Up Junior All-Around, Junior High Showmanship, Reserve Champion and High Individual in the District Junior Division Horse Judging.

She also exhibited the grand champion mare in district competition last year.

Jennifer Probst, head twirler for the Lion Band, is also a 1985 queen contestant. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Probst. Jennifer will be a junior at the local high school this fall.

In 1984-85, she was a twirler and a member of the varsity golf team. She has just returned from participating in the 59th Western Women's Junior Golf Tournament in Austin. She has been the recipient of the Fighting Heart award in golf for the past two years. As a medalist, she took second in district competition and was sixth in regionals. She has attended Prude Summer Camp at Fort Davis for the past eight years where she has won congeniality and leadership awards. She won two belt buckles for rodeo achievement.

The winner of the 1985 Ozona Rodeo Queen contest will join a list of former winners that includes Julie Reagor - 1984, Christy Parks - 1983, Bobbie Acton - 1982, and Kim Bishop -

1985 contestants will be interviewed and judged on personality and appearance at a 9:00 a.m. brunch Thursday at Ozona National Bank. Horsemanship judging, which is open to the public, will follow at 10:30 in the rodeo arena.

Queen Julie and the four contestants will be special luncheon guests of Ozona Lions Club, sponsoring organization of the rodeo, on Thursday.

Rodeo performances are scheduled for 7:30 p.m. each night with dances following at the pavilion. Rodeo admission will be $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for children 12 and under. Dance admission will be $5.00 per couple of $3.00 stag.

Absentee voting continues in bond election

Absentee balloting in the Water Control District's bond election has been slow according to Libb Applewhite. Voting began July 22 in the $950,000 authorization election and will go through August 6 at the district office. August 10 is election day with the polls to be open from 7:00 to 7:00 at the courthouse.

Purpose of the election is to authorize bond sales to construct a wastewater treatment plant, wastewater main from town to the plant, and a lift station to pump the wastewater across Johnson Draw to the treatment plant.

Of the $950,000, only $774,250

will be generated for actual construction according to District Manager Dee Keilers. The difference will go for fees related to the project other than construction costs. Estimated construction cost is $700,000 with the balance of construction proceeds to be used for other water, wastewater or sanitation collection projects.

"The State Water Development Board has directed the local district to construct a plant which will meet permit standards," says Keilers. The present plant uses an outdated type of treatment and is too small in capacity. The plant is also located too near town. It should be at least 500 feet from the nearest house or business.

Proposed location for the new facility is two miles south of the present plant. The new treatment center is designed for 5,040 persons or the year 2000, says Keilers. A sunlight, natural algae process will be used at plant, rather than the more expensive mechanical method. The new plant will meet or exceed all State Department of Health Requirements.

Tambunga named to President Club

Mr. Tambunga has been with

Jim's Foodway joins IGA group

Jim's Foodway, located at 916 Eleventh Street, has joined the IGA independent supermarket group, according to Jim Marks, owner of the store. The new name will be Jim's Foodway IGA.

The new Jim's Foodway IGA is now a part of more than 3,400 independent supermarkets in 47 states that are under the IGA banner.

IGA stands for Independent Grocer's Alliance. "The reason we've joined the IGA alliance is to bring our customers more savings and service," says Marks. "Each IGA store is independently owned and operated which means that the customer gets friendly hometown service and real savings each time they shop at our IGA store," Marks said. "You might say we've just added a new last name," Marks continued.

"Independence and free enterprise have made this country great. Our IGA store is home-owned and home-operated, which enables us to better know and serve the needs of our customers. We are their friends and neighbors. We work harder to please them because we value their business," Marks said.

The supplier for Jim's Foodway IGA is the Fleming Companies, Inc. San Antonio Division. Fleming is a nationwide leader in the wholesale food distribution industry serving 4,500 affiliated retail food stores in 31 states. The San Antonio Division is nearing completion of the first of a two phase expansion program. ### Here's aiming at ya!

BY RON BEALL

"My wife rea-ally needs this shiny new handgun," said Mr. Macho. "'cause she need protection, when I'm out of town, I wanna make durn sure that she learns how to handle it."

Do you ever find yourself appalled at this statement? Or, do you agree with the logic of Mr. Macho? Let's view both sides of the philosophy of handgun ownership by women, in general, and or wives.

Anyone should be afforded the 'pride of ownership' of any weapon he or she desires. Handgun ownership has been 'under fire' for the past several years by anti-handgun groups, and the N.R.A. continues to support freedom of ownership. Despite the controversy, handguns are presently available for purchase by either gender.

The 'fairer sex' usually comes from a background of doll playing and tea setting, which hardly makes for a good background in aggressive behavior. At the same time little sis is following her mother as a role model, big brother is out shooting the bad guys while rding his stick horse! Yes, it's true. Males are trained from the start in macho, aggressive behavior! Some females, trained by fathers, have participated in deer hunting, but the majority of women have no formal training in the usage of firearms.

All of this leads to the whys and what-fors of the need of women and or wives to own a handgun for self-protection. Can the pretty young thing hold a handgun still enough for permanent damage to an attacker? Will she be trained enough to understand the function of that particular shiny snub-nose? Does she really think that in a moment of danger she would be able to use a handgun? Well, Mr. Macho hopes so, 'cause it'd be a shame if the tables were turned, and the attacker took it away from her and used it on her!

Needless to say, many women participate in the sport of hand-gunning, and many are competent in self-defense. This fact is the exception, not the rule; therefore, wouldn't it be a better course of events for Mr. Macho to train himself in self-defense, and try not to allow his mate to be placed in a position of danger? Humm...

Anyway, ownership of handguns for a deterrence is not the solution to the problem of the current violence that affects the present society. So, really, Mr. Macho actually was just looking for an excuse to spend part of the family budget on a new pistol that HE wanted in the first place!

GAME MANAGEMENT MEETING

A game management meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, August 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the Civic Center.

Dr. Dwight Guinn, Extension Wildlife Specialist from Uvalde, will discuss: deer, turkey, and quail management plus leasing opportunities. There is unlimited opportunity to increase net income from wildlife provided the rancher wants to manage it.

The program is sponsored by the Livestock and Range Extension Committee.

Bodyboarding is said to be a great aerobic workout in the water. Many people are even participating in bodyboarding competitions, and trying exciting stunt rides. Bodyboarding—it seems to be a high point of this summer's new wave.

Memorial roping August 4

The Jay Miller - Dan Bean Memorial Roping will be held Sunday, August 4, 1985, at the Ozona Fairgrounds. The first roping will be a three for $40.00 calf roping, progressive after two head. Books will open at 12:00 and roping at 1:00.

Ed Sims spurs will be presented to the average winner of the roping. Immediately following the calf roping there will be a three for $30.00 team roping, progressive after one head. A pair of Ed Sims spurs will be presented to the average winners of the roping. For more information, call 392-2040.

Hunting enthusiasts take course

A safe hunting course, under the direction of the Texas Department of Parks and Wildlife, was offered at the Ozona High School Vocational Agriculture Building this last week.

The course was taught by Richard Bridges and Rod Chalmers, local game warden. The three-day course met a minimum of nine hours.

According to Bridges, all hunters eventually will be required to have taken such a course. Many states, including Colorado, already require that hunters complete this type class. A written test is given before a person can be certified as a safe hunter and receive a safe hunter's card.

"It is a good class for fathers and sons to take before the son's (or daughter's) first hunt. Also it is good for wives to know basically what hunting is about when their husbands are avid hunters," Mrs. Bridges said. "It helps a spouse better understand why hunting is enjoyable."

Bridges, a former survival teacher with the United States Air Force, said this is the first such class like this he has taught. A new class will be offered sometime in September.

Those who completed the class last week included Bruce Beasley, Charley Beasley, Louise Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. John Hignight, Reggie Quiet and Eddie MacReynolds.

Interested persons should contact Bridges at 392-3321.

A youth picked up by officers was taken to Crockett County Memorial for observation.

Arrests were made as follows:
1 theft of service
1 possession of controlled substance
1 disturbing the peace
1 no driver's license, no registration

One individual was brought in to finish a sentence.

Investigation of a burglary report found that no burglary had been committed.

Two sleepers were housed at the jail during the week. Six illegal aliens were also housed at the jail.

Disturbance calls answered included: two family disturbances, three loud music, and two disturbances in public places.

Border Patrol report

The U. S. Border Patrol office in Ozona reports apprehending a total of 16 deportable aliens for the week ending July 27.

Agents have apprehended a total of 1,510 persons thus far for the fiscal year that began October 1, 1984. This exceeds the total for last year when a total of 1,507 persons were apprehended in the Ozona station area.

A smuggling case was among last week's apprehensions, involving three smuggled aliens en route to Seagraves. The aliens were being transported by a legal resident alien, also from the Seagraves area.

Quinceanera -- the tradition

By Cynthia Harrell Hodges

Last Saturday would be one of the most important days in the life of Christina Flores, a raven-haired, brown-eyed young lady. Saturday was more than her 15th birthday -- it was her quinceanera!

Christina stood outside Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church, chatting nervously with her friends on this hot, sunny summer July 27th afternoon. Father Richard Altenbaugh, assisted by Christina's uncle, Fermin Garza Jr. as lector, shortly would begin the religious part of the quinceanera.

Dressed in a long, snow-white, long-sleeved satin and lace dress, Christina looked much like a bride on the arm of David Gonzales, who wore a pale silver tuxedo and would be her escort at a reception and dance held in her honor later.

The church was jammed with her padrinos (family and friends). Escorting her to the altar were her mother, Mrs. Yolanda Garza Flores, her uncle, Fermin Garza Jr. and her younger brother, Lalo Flores.

The procession began with Spanish music played by a church band softly signaling the start of the quinceanera. Christina's attendants, each dressed in a long, formal gown, and their escorts started down the aisle. Each attendant (dama) wore a solid colored, formal dress depicting a color of the rainbow.

The attendants and their escorts included: Ida Montez and Tony Villarreal, Janis and Roland De Hoyos, Geneva Gonzales and Tony Van Winkle, Cynthia Gonzales and Arturo Ortiz, Naomie Borrego and Mauro Castillo, Opie De Hoyos and Gus Garza, Amanda Ybarra and Ricky Valencia, Rosa Arredondo and Andy Trevino, Melissa Lopez and Juan Jimenez, Marisela Lopez and Javier Ortiz, Amanda Tambunga and Jimmy Vargas, Bebe Jimenez and Gabriel Flores, Debra Castillo and Andy Montez, and Lydia Castillo and Rene Rios.

Carried on a pillow by one of the attendants were the three symbolic gifts, a ring, crown and medal, representing Christina's beginning journey into womanhood. A medal, which has the image of the Virgin Mary, protects her. The birthstone ring represents the tie Christina has with both God and the community. The crown symbolizes the victory she has won in attempting to live as a Christian in the midst of many challenges. A bouquet of flowers given to her symbolizes the newness of her commitment in continuing the Christian way of life.

The religious aspect of the quinceanera ended 1 1/2 hours after it began. Escorting Christina out of the church was David Gonzales.

The padrinos and madrinan, sponsors who assisted with the religious and social parts of the quinceanera, included: Mrs. Olivia Garza, Miss Camille Flores, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Borrego, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Barrera, Mr. and Mrs. Ramiro Gonzales Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Domingo Leal, Mr. and Mrs. Armando Ybarra, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Ramirez, Mr. and Mrs. Jose Flores, Mr. and Mrs. Leobardo Losoya, Mr. and Mrs. George Ybarra, Mr. and Mrs. Santiago Ybarra and Mr. and Mrs. Jesus Borrego. These padrinos assist with the cost of the quinceanera.

A reception and dance followed at the parish hall. The dance began with the processional of attendants and their dates walking through an ivy and pastel bow covered arch. A gentleman announced the entrance of each one of the attendants. Christina and David came through the arch last to loud applause. All then promenaded around the room.

Toward the end of the promenade, Christina and David stood in the middle of the circle of attendants. The band played and they started to dance, ballroom style, to soft Mexican music. Her uncle, Fermin Garza Jr., then danced with Christina, followed by each of the damas' escorts. Following this, all 15 couples danced ballroom style in the center of the hall. Then all were invited to dance until late in the night.

Plans for the quinceanera began last September, Mrs. Flores said. "I just can't believe I have a 15-year-old daughter."

Mrs. Flores, looking young and pretty in a long coral colored formal dress, made sure the soda and pop corn balls served were ready. The quinceanera has been "exciting and fun."

The quinceanera, which is both a social and religious celebration of a child becoming a woman, originated with the Aztec and Mayan Indians in Mexico centuries ago. The celebration takes place in all denominations now, though it was originally a predominantly Catholic rite.

Baptist boys left Monday for a week of camp at Paisano near Alpine.

Racher tells of experiences in Communist countries

By Cynthia Harrell Hodges

A sense of freedom in the air greeted the singing travellers as they left the Communist country of Yugoslavia and journeyed into Italy, Danny Racher, son of First Baptist Church music director Terry Racher said recently.

Racher was among 30 alumni of Christ by the Nations Bible School in Dallas who went to East Germany, Hungary and Yugoslavia and returned last week from a six week singing tour. A 1982 graduate of the Bible School, he was contacted by school officials and asked to be a member of the Living Praise singing and orchestra group.

The tour to the Eastern Bloc countries happened by accident, Racher said. The Living Praise was doing concerts in West Berlin, when the director of the group was approached by East Berlin officials and asked if some members of the group would like to perform at an open air concert in their country. Racher was among eight selected to perform at the concert. More than 2,000 persons participated in the concert.

The open air concert, the first in East Germany's history, was sponsored by the pastors of the state churches. Racher's group was the only non-Communist group to participate in the concert. "We were the last group to sing at the concert. We attempted to have an altar call at the end, but were cut off by one of the pastors. The secret police had pressured the pastor to intervene."

"People in East Germany are afraid to worship, and show no creativity or feeling in their worship services," Racher said. Any creativity or feeling is discouraged by the secret police.

From East Germany, half of the group journeyed to Yugoslavia with the rest going to Hungary. All the work in the rural Yugoslavian countryside is done by hand, Racher said. "Women have back problems because of the hard menial labor they are forced to do on the farms," and the look of the country is very backward, at least around Belgrade and Osijek.

In Yugoslavia, there are more church believers. "The secret police watched us. We had to take worshipers to other rooms in the basement. The people are afraid to worship," Racher said. The "believers" are afraid that the secret police will cut their pay at their job, or will cause them to lose their gasoline ration for the month. Racher said that the people, when he asked if they would leave, said they would not leave even if they could because Yugoslavia is their home, even with the severe oppression.

Italy was the next stop of the tour, Racher said. The group visited Rome, Florence and Venice. The interdenominational group performed at Gregorian University, a major Catholic university for the training of priests. The group also visited Switzerland, France and Austria.

The American Embassy, next door to where the group would have first performed in Paris received a bomb threat. Embassy officials would not allow the group to use their equipment because of the bomb threat.

Following the Paris concert, Racher headed home. "I was tired of being a tourist. We are so spoiled in America. It was so very good to get back home."

Racher will be a junior, majoring in music, at Angelo State University in San Angelo this fall. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Racher, familiar faces at Donuts, Etc.

SECOND NATURE

By Rev. Ken Harrison
United Methodist Church

I suppose that nearly everyone has heard the rather common admonition to practice some particular discipline until it becomes second nature. The Olympic quality hurdler, for example, may be able to skim dimes off the tops of the hurdles as he leaps over each one, but such has not always been the case. We may be misled by the apparent ease with which the hurdler seems to glide over his barriers. What he makes look so easy is really very difficult. What seems so natural is really quite unnatural. Because of some deep commitment to his craft, uncounted hours of practice, a number of scrapes, falls and other injuries, and careful attention to the perfecting of each facet of his skill, the athlete makes the unnatural natural. His art, we say, has become second nature to him.

Now, I want to encourage us to examine two passages of scripture which are remarkable in their contrast to one another. The first is the third chapter of Genesis. It contains what most theologians call the story of "The Fall of Man". From this story comes the conclusion that the seeds of evil are inherent in mankind. That is to say, we have a natural bent toward doing the wrong thing.

Next, let's examine Matthew 25, beginning with verse 31. Therein lies the promise that God's judgment upon each of us will be based, ultimately, upon our nature. If my nature is such that I feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, welcome the stranger, clothe the naked, visit the sick and the imprisoned, then I will be welcomed into the kingdom of righteousness. If not,--well.

The problem is that, if I have an inherent bent toward doing the wrong thing, it cannot be within my nature to do the right. Where, then, is my hope?

My hope, my only hope, is in developing a new nature. Goodness must become second nature to me, as gliding over hurdles is second nature to the hurdler. When Paul writes, in the New Testament of doing away with the old man and putting a new man within, he is speaking of the need for a new nature. This new, or second nature, is a result of God's action and man's reaction. God acts to make me see my need to change, and I react by beginning to practice doing the works of righteousness mentioned in Matthew 25. It takes both God's action and my reaction to make a beneficial judgment possible. I must not rely solely on one or the other.

Has God shown you some hurdles in your heart? Are you proficient at getting over them smoothly? Practice makes perfect.

Reception to honor new Bishop

The event will start with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 5:00 p.m. A reception will follow in the parish hall until 7:00 p.m. says Rev. Richard Altenbaugh.

Bishop Pfeifer was ordained Friday, July 26, in the San Angelo Coliseum before a crowd of 3,000. Rev. Altenbaugh and a number of Ozona parishioners were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Flores were the representatives of the parish. Nine members of the local Knights of Columbus acted as ushers for the ceremony. They were Luis Martinez, Pete Ybarra, Edward Ybarra, Rudy Martinez Jr., Juan Rodriguez Jr., Willy Fierro, Fabian Delgado, Oscar Flores and David Delgado.

Faculty attend conference

Several Ozona teachers and administrators attended the Texas Association of Community Schools Summer Conference in Austin July 15-19.

The workshops, held at Thompson Conference Center on the campus of The University of Texas, were aimed at professional development of classroom teachers and administrators.

Those in attendance were: Supt. Garland Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Cotton, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Probst, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spiller, Mr. and Mrs. Lane Scott and Mrs. Mary Nations.

Ernest and Vangie Richart and children of Lovington, N.M. visited the Jesus Richartes and the Ramon Maldonados recently. They were here to attend the reunion of the Class of 1975.

Miss Carnes, Mr. Christopher plan August wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip A. Carnes of Richmond are pleased to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Pamela Carol, to Thomas Edward Christopher, son of Mrs. John R. Eckhart and Dr. Walter J. Christopher, of Maumee, Ohio.

Pamela has been attending Colorado State University, majoring in business. Tom is a senior at the University of Toledo, majoring in electrical engineering.

The wedding is planned for August 31 at First Baptist Church of Richmond.

Pamela is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Carnes of Ozona and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Carnes of Andrews.

One of my favorite money-saving tips is "cashing in" on travel cash. For example, this year, wrappers of products such as Ivory, Camay, Coast, Zest and Safeguard can be worth up to $10 each towards the cost of your family's vacation. For details, write "Travel Cash", P.O. Box 432 Cincinnati, Ohio 45201.

This old column has been revived After a rest for a year or two- Don't blame me - blame Scotty Here it comes to you from Lottie.

If it's such a small world, why does it take so much to run it?

Memory is the thing that reminds you of something you forgot without telling you what it is.

Sticking your nose into other people's business is the surest way to come fact to face with trouble.

Middle age is that time in life when you can feel bad in the morning without having fun the night before.

The candles on my birthday cake make me feel young and gay; each year instead of adding one, I just take one away.

A penny will hide the biggest star in the sky if you hold it close enough to your eye.

A great need for this world is less scheming to get by without working, and more working to get by without scheming.

If some skeptics thought that seeing was believing, they wouldn't look.

Life doesn't begin at 40 for those who went like 60 when they were 20.

Tolerance is the ability to keep your shirt on when you're hot under the collar.

BROWNWOOD -- Where can a person over 55 "get away to" for: --three days and nights of fun-filled activities --learning opportunities --other lively, fun, life-loving people --fantastic food and special events in --natural lakeside surroundings --with all the modern conveniences?

There may be many places in Texas that offer such fare, but not many can match "Octoberfest", an Extension Camp for People 55 and Over. Five sessions are scheduled for this fall: October 1-4, October 8-11, October 15-18, October 22-25, and October 29-November 1.

Some of the featured educational presentations will include: cooking demonstrations, family life, gardening, astronomy, history and travel programs.

A variety of learning centers will offer "hands-on" experience in areas such as oil painting, bread making, archery, needlecrafts and chair caning.

Participants will also have opportunities to go for boat rides, nature hikes, or fish on the waters of Lake Brownwood. Card and table games, tennis, horseshoes and volleyball will be available at all times.

Each camp is limited to the first 100 participants and cost is only $78 per person for three days of activity, so contact your county Extension agent at 392-2721 for a reservation form.

Care Center News

By Ann McCartney
Director of Activities and Social Care

Another week has passed, and we're in the last days of another month as well. Summer seems to be slipping by too fast.

We had movies last week, played a bit of dominoes, and had our other regular activities.

Our special events included the Knox Band performance on Tuesday night with Jamie Knox, J. D. Kilgore, and Don Kilgore sharing their talents and a performance by ventriloquist Gary Davis and his friend Leroy on Wednesday afternoon. Many thanks go to each of you.

Jo Davidson brought peaches from her garden to all residents on Saturday afternoon. That was a special event, too!

Tuesday and Friday bingo winners included Tomasa Ramoz, winner of the El Chato dinner for two, Pauline Clinton, first place winner of a gift certificate from Westerman Drug, and Sam Martinez, second place winner. Volunteers included Lida Moore, sister of Ola Mills visiting from Nashville, TN, our own Alice Ross and Minnie Karra, as well as Sophia Tijerina, Elvira Martinez, Dorothy Doll, Juanita Martinez, Teresa Sanchez, Sister Elena Sanchez, Mattie Cooper, Virginia Bishop, Courtney Nelson and Anna Bell Patrick.

We are always glad to see our residents get progressively better health-wise, but we surely do miss them when they are well enough to go home as is the case of Sam Martinez. We will miss him, his wife, Juanita, and his granddaughter, Juanita Quevedo, who visited often. Maybe they will come back as volunteers.

On Wednesday, we had Doris Karr, Janet Wilson and Marie Pierson helping with the ceramics. Residents Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramoz, Pauline Clinton, Hilda Dysart, Nina Mayfield, Ola Mills, Morianna Perez, and Sam Martinez all participated. Alice Ross worked as a volunteer, also.

Thursday morning's beauty shop was manned by Vivian Hughes, Clara Byrd and Alena Faye Hokit. We really appreciate these girls and all the time and effort this service entails.

Bible study was led on Thursday by Charles Huffman and five fellow members of the Faith Lutheran Church.

Friday afternoon Clayton's Village Drug treated all our residents to a milkshake. Residents able to go to the drug store after their treat included: Tomasa Ramoz, Pauline Clinton, Jean Beardmore, Hilda Dysart, Nina Mayfield, Alice Ross, Inez Biggs, Doris Robnett and Sam Martinez. Thanks to drugstore employees Katie Maney and Joann Marshall for all their assistance with this activity!

We had a nice surprise this Monday morning when Edith Owens from Barnhart came by and played the piano for us. Such pretty music she does make!

Once again, a big thank you to all our volunteers this past week including Jo Davidson, Marie Pierson and Juanita Martinez who furnished cars for our field trip to Clayton's and to the family of Jeanette Bailey who donated fingernail supplies.

Think Volunteer!

Prevent back problems

The United States leads the world in the number of people suffering from low back problems. Estimates indicate that eight out of ten people in the country will seek medical treatment for low back pain at least once in their lives. Some of them will have only slight muscle spasms; many others, however, will have serious, potentially disabling, problems.

The good news is that the problems, both large and small, can often be avoided. But it does require a bit of commitment and some good old common sense. The Institute for Low Back Care in Minneapolis offers some suggestions that can keep you from ending up in the doctor's office... or on the operating table.

1. Excess weight and a sedentary lifestyle compose a perfect prescription for a low back problem. Get rid of the weight and get some physical exercise.

2. Some recommended forms of exercise are: walking, swimming, hiking, bicycling and cross-country skiing. Risky activities include: jogging, horseback riding, snowmobiling, rigorous calisthenics, golf and tennis.

3. It is far better to engage in physical activity in shorter sessions on a regular basis than to overdo it on a sporadic basis.

Even a healthy back can experience severe muscle trauma when over-worked.

4. Avoid long periods of sitting. Getting up and walking for a minute every half hour or so can make a big difference. Sit up straight, but not rigid.

5. Avoid high-heel shoes. Shoes with heels higher than one inch increase the curve of the low back, thereby straining the spine.

6. Long-distance driving should include frequent stops for stretching and walking. A pillow placed under the thighs relieves the pressure on the lower back.

7. Choose a firm, but not rigid, mattress. Also, avoid sleeping on your stomach. The preferred position is on the side, with the knees slightly flexed toward the chest.

8. Improper lifting can be disastrous. First, don't lift anything that requires a great effort. Any lifting should be done with a slight flexing of the hips, knees and low back. The legs, arms and abdomen - not the low back - should provide the power.

9. If you are experiencing low back pain, don't try to "work it out" by exercise. Aspirin, heat and bed rest are recommended as first-line treatments, followed by a visit to your doctor if there's no relief after a few days.

10. Those with severe, ongoing low back problems need not necessarily undergo surgery. Various conservative means of treatment can often bring relief to many sufferers.

Ann Shaw honored

Approximately 1,300 top independent Stanley dealers and sales management personnel were recently honored at the "Discovery '85" pilgrimage hosted by the Stanley Home Products Division in Westfield, MA.

Ann Shaw of Ozona, a division director, attended the annual three-day recognition event, which included a '50s party, $1,000 plate dinner and award ceremonies.

Mrs. Shaw has been associated with Stanley for 27 years.

Stanley Home Products is a division of Stanhome Inc. of Westfield, Massachusetts, a worldwide marketer with quality products in the direct sales, design giftware and specialty industrial markets. Health, home and personal care products are sold by independent Stanley dealers in 26 countries.

Couples Golf

Possession of first place honors was earned by S. L. and Marie White and Doris and Bob Thredgill at the Couples Golf Tournament July 23.

Tied for second place were the teams of Ricky and Darolyn Webster and Jim and Montie Sanker, Marcie and Perry Williams, Eddie Stewart and Loreli McMullan.

Nearest to the pin were Ricky Webster and Marcie Williams.

There were 18 couples out to enjoy the evening of golf.

Two homemaker clubs in county

There are currently two Extension Homemaker Clubs in Crockett County. Each club meets September through May.

The Progressive Extension Homemaker Club meets the second Thursday of each month, 12:00 noon, at the Civic Center.

The Crockett Heights Extension Homemaker Club meets the second Tuesday of the month, 9:30 a.m. in various homes.

Ozona Wool and Mohair manager Brian May [I] was interviewed last week by a news team from Voice of America. Ronald Todman of the Latin American Service, Jesda Sivali of the Thai Service and Jeffrey Means, engineer, were here doing a radio spot on the area agriculture situation which could be broadcast in as many as 42 languages. Voice of America is headquartered in Washington, D. C.

Hospital operation plan heard

Members of Crockett County Memorial Hospital Board and others met July 24 with representatives of Westworld Community Healthcare, Inc. to hear another proposal of operation of the hospital. Board President John Stokes, Dr. and Mrs. Don Carlisle, Orland Vargas, Fred Deaton, Alleane Jones and Dick Kirby were present to hear from Jeff Smith and Dale Moore of the Lake Forest, California based company. Smith is senior vice-president responsible for development for the company and Moore is administrator at the Mason Hospital, one of five in Texas leased by Westworld.

The Healthcare Enterprise Lease Program offers long-term financial commitment and corporate support through a 40 year lease of the hospital and care center. There would be no payment required by the county to the leasing company, says Stokes, although Crockett County would be required to do major maintenance on buildings and meet state requirements for indigent care.

The Westworld representatives spoke of making a possible $700,000 in improvements to the facility in order to expand services which could include delivery of babies and some surgery. The leasing company would work with local doctors or bring in their own. They indicated that specialists such as allergists and internists could be brought in as part of service expansion, said Stokes.

Under the Westworld plan, the hospital would operate through a local board of directors appointed by Westworld and approved by Each club's objectives are to bring together homemakers who are interested in promoting the welfare of family, home and community.

Extension Homemaker Clubs are organized through the guidance of a county Extension agent, with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Membership is open to all persons regardless of socio-economic level, race, color, sex, religion, handicap or national origin.

For more information, call 392-2721.

Crockett County Commissioners. Patient accounting and billing would be done locally, and service would not be refused to anyone.

Westworld has 33 hospitals leased across the nation. The company has been in operation three years and is currently expanding at the rate of about one hospital per month, board members were told.

The operation at Mason, Texas Hills Healthcare System, Mason Memorial, has 18 beds and a clinic.

In Muleshoe, West Plains Country Health Care System, West Plains Medical Center, operates 31 beds, 52 intermediate nursing beds, five clinics, home healthcare and ambulance service.

Texas Crossroads Family Healthcare System, Hubbard Hospital, operates 30 beds, three clinics and ambulance service.

In Wortham, Centex Healthcare System, Wortham Hospital, operates 32 beds, two clinics and home healthcare.

Just leased is the Willacy Methodist Hospital in Raymondville.

"The Westworld plan would result in a savings of one-half million per year to the county," estimates Stokes.

The hospital board has also heard a leasing proposal from Shannon Hospital to maintain a clinic and an emergency room with a licensed person there 24-hours a day. The clinic would be operated by doctors under contract to the leasing firm. The board expects to hear more on the Shannon proposal before the August Commissioners Court meeting.
