Early Decontrol Of Crude Could Mean $150 Million More Oil Revenue

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said President Reagan's early decontrol of crude oil prices could mean up to $150 million more in state tax revenue this year.

Bullock said Reagan's decision to speed up the decontrol of crude oil prices instead of waiting until October 1, to allow existing law to take off controls, will immediately hike up the price of domestic oil.

The state collects a 4.6 percent tax on the market value of oil produced in the state and Bullock said the crude oil production tax will produce about $3.1 billion in revenue during the state's 1982-83 budget period.

Bullock estimated that most of the money the state will earn from early decontrol will be taken in this fiscal year and that amount will push up the state's $568 million surplus by whatever is collected before August 31.

He said he would not formally revise his revenue estimate to the Legislature until more precise data becomes available.

Federal decontrols of propane and gasoline will not earn the state extra income, Bullock said.

The easing of controls on these petroleum products is likely to be met with consumer resistance because prices can be expected to go up.

If Texans use fewer gallons of gasoline or propane the state will collect less in taxes on these products, he said.

He said the decontrol impact on propane and gasoline would probably be minimal.

Challenges facing cotton producers in the 1980s will be examined in Lubbock Feb. 17-19 during the five-state Western Cotton Production Conference.

The challenges will range from political policies, and marketing opportunities to production techniques, financing and textile trends, Dr. James R. Supak, area cotton specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, said. Supak is program chairman for the annual conference.

The program will draw cotton producers and industry representatives from California, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas and Oklahoma. It is co-sponsored by the Southwest Five-State Cotton Growers Association and the Cooperative Extension Services of Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and California.

General chairman is Joe D. Unfred of New Home, president of the Plains Cotton Growers.

The Reagan Administration's viewpoint on agriculture, especially on cotton, will be presented by a yet-to-be-named spokesman.

Farm financing during the decade will be projected by Lloyd Cline of Lamesa, cotton producer and president of the First National Bank of Lamesa.

One of the industry's major concerns for the '80s, byssinosis or brown lung disease, will be discussed by Dr. I.W. Kirk, acting director of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Science and Education Administration southern regional research center at New Orleans.

Carl Weiler of Laveen, Ariz., chairman of the producer steering committee of the National Cotton Council, will report on farm programs for the '80s. Trends in textile and fashion production which will affect cotton will be discussed by Becky Saunders, Extension area clothing specialist, Amarillo.

Other sessions will focus on irrigation efficiency, weed control, cotton-seed.

Water Conservation District Completes Annual Program

The High Plains Underground Water Conservation District has completed its annual program of measuring depth to water levels in the 72 wells in Bailey County. These wells are part of a larger network of more than 900 observation wells scattered throughout the District's 15 county service area.

Dwight Adams was able to complete 63 measurements of 'static' water levels in irrigation wells and tag them with the District's red identification sticker for owner information.

"I visited with several irrigators in the field who wanted to know what their water's doing," said Dwight. "We have the initial results for the County, but tabulated data on the entire observation network readings is not expected to be complete until mid-year."

Bailey County's 1980p81 depth-to-water table below surface minimum reading was at 27.08 feet, and the maximum level read was at 172.75 feet. This year's average change in decline in the county was 2.57 feet, which compares with a 1979-80 county reading of 0.78. Comparing the rate of change calculated this year for these wells shows a minimum decline change of plus 1.90 feet and a maximum decline of 7.39 feet.

The Water District keeps a record of annual decline and rate of change going back to 1962. The data is used for making projections of decline rate, for determining the amount of water left in storage, and as a basis for the income tax depletion allowance claims on landowner's tax returns.

Adult Skating 'Catching On'

Skating is not reserved for children and the very young adult. With adult skating catching on at the Bailey County Exhibition Center and Coliseum, more and more people are finding they are getting back into the 'skate of things.'

Monday night, it was decided to continue adult skating each Monday night from 7-9 p.m. and a special invitation has been issued to all persons high school age and over to join the newest 'fun group' in Muleshoe. Total cost for the two hour skating is $1.

Nelda Merriott said two of the new skaters last Monday night were former 'buckle boys' when the skating rinks were near town many years ago. "In fact," she said, "one told me he had not been on skates in 30 years and reported that he was having a great time on the skating floor again. A lady remarked that she had not been skating in fifteen years and 80 pounds ago."

The Portales Rams brought their 7th, 8th and 9th grade basketball teams to Muleshoe Monday night for contests with the Muleshoe Mules. It was a big night for the Mules! Muleshoe's 7th grade team continued to play well as they won number four of their last five encounters, by defeating the young Rams, 36-28. Player-of-the-game honors for Muleshoe went to Lester Burks for collecting 16 rebounds and 14 points, and to David Vela for rebounding 15 times and for scoring 12 points.

Muleshoe's 8th grade displayed class and determination as they competed hard for a 33-2 victory. Muleshoe trailed at the half and won only because of a fine defensive effort in the last half. Water, weather used in naming towns in Texas

COLLEGE STATION — Although it's not always plentiful, water must have been on the minds of many Texas towns' founding fathers.

There are 41 Texas towns named after springs, another 37 have the word lake in their names; 17 towns are named for creeks, rivers or brooks. Community names also reflect Texans' preoccupation with the weather. Hail, Dew, Rainbow, Cook, Dryer and Snow Hill are examples.

In its November newsletter the Texas Water Resources Institute — located at Texas A&M University — points out the importance of water to the history of the state in the names that Texans have given their towns.

Some names describe the local water situation: Sour Lake, Sweetwater, Agua Dulce, Shallowater and Redwater. Then there is Long Lake, Big Lake, Blue Lake, Silver Lake, Clear Lake and Little River.

IRS Information

Remember when the teachers used to say, "neatness counts"? It certainly is true about Federal income tax returns.

Granted the Internal Revenue Service will not send you a larger refund because they like your handwriting. However, it is true that a neat, accurate, carefully prepared return can be processed faster, a resulting refund issued sooner, and all with fewer surprises for the taxpayer.

On the other hand, something as easily avoided as an incorrect or illegible social security number can take weeks to get straightened out. An addition of subtraction error will not cause a long delay but could inconvenience the taxpayer if he or she were counting on having a particular size tax refund or bill.

The Internal Revenue Service offers a two-pronged approach to avoiding time and money consuming errors. First of all, be fully prepared before you start filling out your return. Start as soon as possible -- and before you begin, check the following items:

- Do you have necessary records and forms easily accessible?
- If a calculator is available, do you have it handy?
- Do you have plenty of time? (Rushing leads to errors.)
- Have you received a Wage and Tax Statement (W-2 Form) from each employer you worked for during the past year?

--Do you anticipate any questions or problems? Are you puzzled about any particular law changes? If so, first check instructions. If the problems persists you can order any of the 90 free IRS publications using the handy order blank in your tax package or you can call IRS toll-free. The number is listed in your local telephone directory. And before you send it, do this final check:

- Are all W-2 forms attached?
- Are all supporting schedules attached to your Form 1040?
- Is the arithmetic correct?
- If you rounded off numbers, did you round consistently?
- Did you use the correct tax table, and did you follow the line across to the correct figure?
- Did you answer the Census Bureau questions completely?
- Is the return signed and dated (by both spouses if a joint return)?
- Did you use the peel off label and, if so, is the information correct?
- Is there a stamp on the pre-addressed, coded envelope?

--Did you make a copy of the return for your own records?

And last but not least: --Aren't you glad you are finished?!

$10 Million Bond Sale Finances Loan Program

AUSTIN--The Texas Family Farm and Ranch Loan Security Program got off the ground recently in Austin with the bid from the First National Bank of Dallas for the bond sale of $10 million, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown has reported.

Low bid on the bonds was for nine per cent interest and a cash premium of $22,400, Brown said. "Since the bill was passed we have had hundreds of calls on the program, and we want to get the program started as soon as possible," Brown said. When the program is instituted, lending institutions will be guaranteed 90 per cent of the loan by the State on qualified applicants. "We want to stress that this will not be a loan program. Under provisions of the law, the buyer and the lending institution negotiate their own loan and the interest rate," Brown said. The program has no control over the rate of interest charged or the down payment.

The purpose of the program is to enable persons trying to enter agriculture as a primary occupation who wish to buy land. To qualify under the program, a person must have education, training or experience in the type of farming or ranching for which he is purchasing the land. Report predicts no relief on inflation in 1981.

Officials of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, are reminding cotton producers that the difference that has always existed between the Federal minimum wage for agriculture and non-agriculture has vanished. As of January 1 this year the minimum wage for agricultural employees advanced from $3.10 per hour to the new high of $3.35, the same as industrial workers.

Agriculture does, however, still enjoy its overtime exemption, and the minimum still does not apply to smaller farm enterprises.

An agricultural employer is subject to the minimum wage if during any one calendar quarter of 1980 he used more than 500 man days of agricultural labor. Those who used less than 500 man days in all quarters of 1980 are exempt from the minimum wage in 1981.

A "man day" is defined by the U.S. Department of Labor (USDL) as any day during which an employee performs agricultural labor for not less than one hour.

Although ginning employees are normally classified as agricultural labor, cotton gins operate under a different set of rules. Cotton gins are entitled to a 14 workweek period during which employees must receive overtime pay only for employment in excess of 10 hours in a day and 48 hours in a workweek. During the remainder of the year, ginning employees must be paid overtime for hours worked in excess of 40 per week.

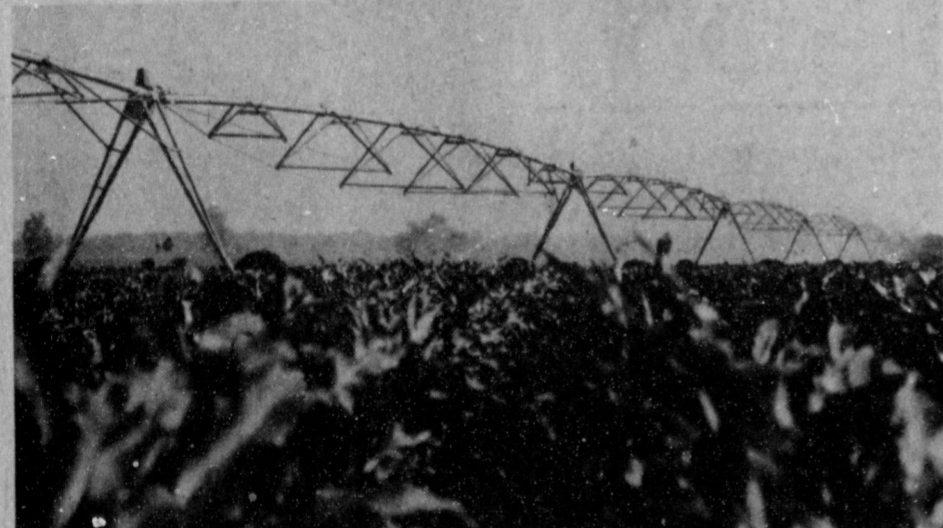

A workweek, according to the USDL, is any period of seven consecutive days in which an individual has been engaged in any agricultural labor on one or more days, provided he worked at least one hour on some day during that period.

Farmers should also keep in mind, PCG points out, that the social security tax rate as of January 1 increased from 6.13 percent to 6.65 percent. Under current law the rate will rise to 6.7 percent for 1982 through 1984, then escalate to 7.05 percent for 1985 and 7.15 percent for 1986. Without further legislation the rate will top out at 7.65 percent in 1990.

The employer is required to deduct social security from the employee's wages, match the amount deducted and submit the total to the Internal Revenue Service.

Although it may have a minimal impact on its cotton producer and agribusiness members, PCG also notes that the minimum wage and overtime requirements in 1981 apply to domestic service employees such as maids, cooks, gardeners, yardmen and even babysitters if they are employed on a regular basis.

With energy costs zooming just any center pivot won't do.

The whole equation changes. The few hundred you can save buying a cheaper pivot can be eaten up in the first year by rising energy costs alone. That's why the right match-up of power, pipe sizes and pressure can make all the difference in the world.

At Valley, we have the latest technology. We'd like to talk to you and show you before you buy any center pivot. Because just any center pivot won't do, especially if rising energy costs are a concern.

Valley dominates the field.

'81 Bonus Year For Poisonous Range Plants

1981 looks like a bonus year for poisonous range plants. "Due to last year's dry summer followed by a wet fall, all conditions point to generally a bonus year for poisonous plants in Texas," says Dr. Allan McGinty of Fort Stockton, area range specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A & M University system. Bitterweed in the Edwards Plateau and loco, garbancillo, rayless goldenrod and threadleaf groundsel in the Trans Pecos region of Texas have already been reported causing livestock losses this year, notes McGinty.

So he cautions ranchers to become aware of the problem and to take steps to reduce further livestock losses.

"Ranchers should be familiar with and be able to identify common poisonous plants that occur in their pastures. They should also be familiar with symptoms of poisoning in livestock," points out McGinty. "Local county Extension agents, veterinarians and Extension range specialists can provide assistance to ranchers in this effort."

As soon as animals begin to show signs of poisoning, they should be moved immediately to pastures free from poisonous plants and treated by a veterinarian.

If no pasture is available that is free from poison plants, ranchers may need to control weeds with chemical or mechanical methods. Caution should be used following chemical control methods since some poisonous plants become palatable to grazing animals following herbicide use.

"Most problems with poisonous plants occur during winter and early spring when desirable warm-season forage plants are dormant and cool-season toxic plants are lush and green," explains the specialist. "During these periods, livestock will easily switch to poisonous plants to attempt to obtain a higher nutritional plane for their diet and to obtain some green vegetative matter.

"Proper supplemental feeding that meets the nutritional requirements of grazing animals and provides green plant material in the form of pelleted alfalfa can significantly reduce poisonous plant problems during this time," contends McGinty.

In general, solid range management techniques offer the best prevention of livestock losses due to poisonous plants, he emphasizes.

'Going Places, Doing Things' Texas State Fair Theme

"Going Places, Doing Things" has been selected as the theme for the 1981 State Fair of Texas which is dated for October 8-25, in Dallas. The theme underscores the continuing emphasis on expanded foreign government participation and the addition of new activities each year in response to developing community interests.

The 1980 State Fair recorded a slight dip in overall attendance, consistent with 1980 figures throughout the recession-plagued amusement industry, but saw increases in specific areas including rodeo attendance, Music Hall gross, livestock and creative art entries, food and beverage revenues and livestock auction sale receipts.

"Camelot", starring Richard Burton in 24 performances at the Music Hall, grossed over $1.1 million while playing to 74,062 persons during its three week run. Both figures established new all-time records for a State Fair Musical.

The Pan-American Livestock Exposition hosted 526 registered visitors from 23 foreign countries. Six purebred beef cattle sales during the Exposition grossed $458,600. Entries in all areas of livestock competition totalled a record 15,339 head, and the Junior Auction Sales reached an all-time high gross of $34,777.

TIRE SALE

For years Steel belted radials have been the established standard of the industry...now Aramid — the space-age, fire cord material has been developed by Dupont laboratories to replace steel as a belt material in radial tires. Aramid is the ideal material for tires because it combines the toughness and durability of steel at one fifth of the weight with the comfort and smooth ride of a fabric belted radial.

Cordovan Aramid Belled Radial
ARAMID BELTED — The strongest tire cord ever developed, the strength of steel with less weight. ARAMID is much more flexible — for a much more comfortable ride. ARAMID produces a lighter, easier rolling tire which improves gas economy. ARAMID absorbs more road shock — eliminates joint slap and provides greater impact resistance.

MILEAGE Stronger-than-steel Aramid gives equal performance with less weight. Lighter weight reduces internal friction and heat build-up.
SMOOTH RIDE The flexible lightweight Aramid belts plus super tough Polyester cord radial body plies deliver a smooth, comfortable ride.
SKID RESISTANCE Sovereign's computerized tread pattern effectively drains out water and improves traction in wet or dry weather. Radial construction keeps the tread flat on the road with a surefooted grip. Flexible sidewalls absorb lateral force; on curves and corners the tread remains in contact with the road.

Public Notice
On January 5, 1981, Bailey County Electric Cooperative Association filed with the Public Utility Commission of Texas an application for a tariff revision to increase the cost relating to contribution in aid of construction. This is a revision of the Cooperative's "Line Extension Policy". It separates charges of contributions in aid of construction for aerial and underground lines. It increases the charge for single phase aerial line from $1.60 per foot to $1.70 per foot. It increases the charge for single phase underground line from $1.60 per foot to $3.70 per foot. It increases the charge for three phase underground line from $2.00 per foot to $3.70 per foot.
This revision is applicable to all classes of service except residential. Applicant serves 3,377 total customers, excluding the residential class. Applicant serves in all of portions of the following counties: Bailey, Castro, Cochran, Lamb and Parmer. The conditions under which contributions in aid of construction are required remain the same, only the rate per foot is changed.
Protests to or motions to intervene may be filed with the Public Utility Commission of Texas. On January 13, 1981, the Public Utility Commission of Texas ordered the Cooperative to suspend this increase for 120 days and further ordered that the substance of the Cooperative's application be published as required by PURA, Section 43 (a).
